Mr. and Mrs. Russell Littrell and sons Jimmy and Larry spent a recent weekend at Camp Campbell, Ky., visiting his brother, Sgt. Harley Littrell, and wife and little son Vernon.

Mrs. Julia Morris Littrell passed away at the home of a son in Whitcomb, Ind., May 15. She was the daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. Lewis E. Morris. She was 95 years old. She was the mother of L. C. Littrell.

Callers in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Littrell of Sunday of last week were James C. Littrell and sister, Mrs. Stella Sizemore, her daughter Darlene, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Egbring and children of Rosedale.

Three Bath county homemakers bought electric sewing machines in one month, and another, an electric dishwasher.

Visalia PTA Meets

The regular monthly meeting of the Visalia P. T. A. was held Tuesday night, May 16. Plans were made for the summer festival to be held July 22, 1950 on the school grounds. Mrs. Nelson Hoffman attended the school of instruction at Erlanger, at which time she was presented a gavel, donated by Mrs. J. H. Kees, to be known as the "Clara Kees Gavel," to be awarded to the local unit in the Sixth District of Kentucky, Congress of Parent-Teacher Association, having the highest percentage of parent and teacher members in proportion to the school enrollment.

This gavel is to become the property of the unit winning said gavel three years in succession. The Visalia P. T. A. won this gavel, having one hundred and four enrolled in school, and two hundred and thirty-two members in the P. T. A., thus making the percentage two hundred and twenty-three.

Richard Morris, soil conservation expert from Grant County, spoke on soil conservation. Plans were made to have a pre-school clinic, to be held June 19, 1950, under supervision of Kenton County Nurse, C. Ceaslin. Mrs. M. M. Mann's room won the attendance award.—Fub.

Interest in food information among Hopkins county homemakers was indicated when six training schools for leaders had 100 percent attendance.

Mrs. Ted Lesch of Bullitt county used instructions given in her homemakers club to make five slipcovers.

Beechgrove Homemakers

The Beechgrove Homemakers Club held its May meeting in the Latonia Gun Club. After the pledge of allegiance to the flag, Mrs. F. M. Powers, reading chairman, read a prayer of a far away friend. The business session was conducted by Mrs. Wm. P. Meyers, president.

A very interesting report on gardening was given by Mrs. Wanda Works. Mrs. Opal McFarland gave the last lesson on decorative stitches.

Projects for the coming year were then discussed. The club voted to go on tours to various places, starting Monday, May 22, being conducted by chairmen, Mrs. B. Armstrong, Mrs. F. M. Powers and Mrs. Joe Brunk.

Eleven members answered roll call by stating her "most embarrassing moment."

More than 200 acres of strawberries were set in Trimble county this spring.

INDEPENDENCE

Baptist Vacation Bible School

It is a busy week at the Independence Baptist Church. It is Vacation Bible School Week. The big transportation problem is being solved by nine touring cars with definite roads on which to pick up children. The following business concerns and interested folks are using their cars: Stephens Grocery, Riley Grocery, Butler Brothers Grocery, Kenton Co. Motors, R. C. Durr, contractor, Mrs. Virgie Hogan, Mrs. J. C. Armstrong, Mrs. Lee Houston, Dicky Alam and the cars of T. J. Stephens and the pastor are being held in reserve for breakdowns or sickness.

The teachers are crowding all they can into one week and th climax will be Sunday night 7:45 when the children and their teachers will give a closing program for the public and receive their credits and certificates. The school opened Monday with 90 pupils and workers present.

Special Guests Sunday

The special guests of the church Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock will be Job's Daughters which will have part in the service. The pastor will speak on "My Interest in the Revival." The revival will be June 5-16.

Celebrating 4th Anniversary

Independence Christian Church, according to Mrs. Charles Davis, reports that Rev. Arthur Tipton, their pastor has been with them four years and that Sunday, June 4th, they are celebrating his 4th anniversary with a basket dinner.

Real Estate Transfers

Benjamin E. and Amanda Gibson sold a lot in Wayman Subdivision to Hezekiah and Nancy Durr. Mr. Durr says that he is going to build another new home at Independence.

Irvin and Clara Brinkley purchased two lots near Whites Tower from Ralph and Mary B. Howard.

Chas. W. and Saddle Brooks purchased 20 acres on Taylor Mill Rd. from John and Willie Mae Rodgers.

Raymond C. and Golden Zimmerman purchased tract number one of William S. Grant at Pyles Hill, Ryland community.

George E. and Agnes Schmidt purchased tract number four from William S. Grant at Pyles Hill.

Chester S. and Orma L. Hamn purchased ten acres on Locust pike from Charles L. and Norma L. Bobbitt.

LeRoy and Armo Hall purchased 87 acre farm on Dudley Pike from Ernest E. and Ollie B. Freshney who in turn purchased a lot from Edward J. Carter.

Elizabeth Nelson purchased 7.28 acres on Narrows Road from John F. and Olive May Huskey.

Robert J. Ricker purchased two lots in Plantation Heights from R. C. and Goldie Wayman.

John A. Griffin purchased three lots from Floyd M. Terry and sister Reva D. Clark and also, two lots from Maude Firth.

John L. and Sarah Morgan Butler purchased 1.08 acres on Taylor Mill Road from John Meehan.

Dr. Richard Northcutt and Dr. C. Northcutt sold an interest in 178 acre farm on Turkey Foot Road to Dr. E. W. Northcutt and Dr. E. L. Vesper.

Stalen is Worshipped
"Uncle Stalen is our Daddy. From him come all good things. He it is who cares for all the children. He is our Heavenly Father."

In place of singing church hymns the children are taught to sing the above lines. As reported by Miss Mary M. Haskell, a returned missionary from Communist dominated Bulgaria, children in the schools are taught to defy Stalen and disbelieve God. Children are asked to pray to God for candy, which of course does not appear. Then they pray to Stalin and they get the candy.

Miss Haskell said that the wife of an arrested preacher came to visit him carrying a New Testament "That's trash" the guard told her. "We are educating him to be a man and he won't have time to waste his time on that trash."

One woman asked Miss Haskell to pray for her husband who must choose between the gallows and renouncing God.

One school child was refused milk because he was a son of a minister. He was told "The son of a traitor does not deserve milk."

Service Company Sold
Community Public Service Company has changed hands. The Cincinnati Gas and Electric has bought them out and the deal was signed a week or ten days ago, according to some of the employees.

The new company is finishing the substitution near Decoursey, thus planning to render better service.

Sudden Death to Dan Elliot

Wiley E. Sims and family of Independence E. went to Corbin over the holidays to decorate the graves. Mrs. Sims' father, Dan H. Elliot, was along and as they were on the return trip home, a short way from the cemetery, he died in the car. The burial was Tuesday. The sympathy of the community is extended to the family.

Time to Spray

C. A. Wicklund, County Agricultural Agent, reports that the peach and plum curculio is now active and is stinging plums, cherries and peaches, and that if these trees have not been sprayed for curculio, by all means, this spray should be put on immediately. If the spray was put on a week or more ago, it is time to put on another spray. Bulletin 353, "Sprays for the Home Fruit Garden" gives the following directions for peach and plum spray, to be used now for scab and curculio: use 2 level tablespoons lead arsenate, 1/2 level tablespoons zinc sulphate, 3 level tablespoons wettable sulphur, 2 level tablespoons hydrated lime, to each gallon of water. Other sprays are obtainable at some of the stores and may be used.

The Colorado potato beetle is very numerous and needs to be controlled to prevent damage to vines. See Circular 435, "How to Control Garden Insects." It is free at County Agent offices.

The reader who has been fortunate enough to get a stand of early beans should use control measures for the bean beetle. Cabbage plants should be watched, dusted or sprayed to control the cabbage worm. In June the first graps should be sprayed again.

Seven leaders of homemakers clubs in Marion county are making room-size braided rugs ranging in size from 7x12 to 9x12 feet.

Woodford county farmers are planning to dust more than 1,000 acres of Blue Grass seed land with DDT.

Almost three-fourths of the tobacco farmers in Rockcastle county will grow Ky. 16 variety this year.

Should the Candid Camera Man of Charm catch you while belaboring the children, complaining to your husbands, haranguing the neighbors, would you like the picture?

Let the face you wear for your family be as pleasant as the one you wear for your friends.

The soft roughness of a terry wash cloth or towel is a wonderful skin energizer. Cleanse or wash the face, then rub vigorously with a clean, soft terry cloth or towel.

Vacation hats are a problem. Here is a solution. Crochet "beanies" to fit the crown of your head. Roll the edge to pencil thick brim. Supply yourself with bows of taffeta or velvet, a bunch of flowers, a feather or veil. Pin on the trimming to suit the frock.

Charm cannot flow from a woman who groopes in a world of half vision. Enjoy the relaxed charm of clear, normal vision and wear your smart new eyeglasses as an important fashion accessory.

At the Queen Optical Company, Palace Theater Bldg., 12 East Sixth street, Cincinnati, you will find a wonderful selection of fashion's newest, smartest, eyeglass frames. Queen Optical's Doctors of Optometry give thorough, scientific eyesight examinations and prescribe corrective lenses if required. Open Saturdays until 6, no appointment necessary.

CONRAD HARDWARE

Graduation Time!...

Twenty-five years ago I was graduated from Dry Ridge High School, and as I sat in the Christian Church, Sunday night and looked at that fine group graduating this year—1950, I wondered if they realize what lies ahead for them. I have been through a lot in the past 25 years, and this next 25 years will be faster than the past. But up to now they have had a care in the world. I need a dollar or Mom I have to have this or that, and they got it. But now, they will start a new life and I hope a successful one. We all wish them lots of luck.

We had a very busy day Saturday—Pink Jenkins bought his wife a new square tub Maytag washer—Pink always buys the best. Rev. Geo. Hoffman and wife picked a beautiful pattern of linoleum for their kitchen. Mr. and Mrs. Price Webster were over and bought enough linoleum for their kitchen, also a nice Gold Seal rug for a bedroom. Chas. Hayes, our coach at the High school, had to have one of those nice Taylor Tot strollers for his fine daughter. Jess Callen purchased one of the large size mail boxes and we put his name on it—by the time Jess gets that fine home he is building, finished, he will need a large mail box to hold all the bills he will get.

Where does all the fishing tackle go—we just got in another hundred cane poles—this is the third shipment this year—rods, reels and line are really selling—I just bought another shipment of them. Icecream dressers, croquet sets, lawn chairs, minnow buckets, minnow nets and ball caps are right in season, and we have a fine stock of them.

We are sure selling those Perfection hand tobacco setters and Rustus plows—I only have one Tiger horse-drawn tobacco setter left, and one New Holland tractor setter, also two John Deere fertilizer drills and two 60-tooth disc harrows. Virgil Whaley, who is finishing his new home on the inside, used that Police liquid satin finish. It makes a beautiful wall with a satin finish. Omer Kite was up from Beaver again with a lot of complaints—his fish pole broke, his boys of time were busted, his roof paint leaked out the bucket and his new hammer was too flat on the face—Omer has lots of troubles and says he gets a lot of bad merchandise here, but he never brings any back.

Monday was fishing tackle day again—Richard Collins bought a new outfit, so did Charles Roberts. Gordon Phillips and Gene Sizemore had their heads together over the fish tackle case.

Beckham Shields bought an electric sickle grinder—you can sharpen mower sections or other tools, such as hatchets, axes and scythe blades. We just received a new shipment of borders and decals—now you can decorate the walls and furniture with all types of designs. Gene McElroy came in and was in a very bad way—his lawnmower had quit and he had six lawns to mow—we always find time to help anyone who wants to work.

A very fine young man came to me Monday, who was just out of High school, hunting a job—he wants to work and I will recommend him, for he is honest, healthy, ambitious and sober—what more could you ask?

Frank Wood from over Napoleon way was in looking about a Reo power lawn mower—we have a lot of fine customers from over that way. Everett Jones, who shops for everyone from here to the Ohio river, got a belt for a lawn mower for Mrs. Agnes Atha, collar pads, clothes line, point and corn drill brushes for different ones along the road. R. W. Beavary from Glencoe was in for me to order repairs for a New Holland tobacco setter—we have ordered several hundred dollars worth of tobacco setter repairs. We have in stock repairs for New Perfection and Master hand setters. I received those repairs for Joe Northcutt's fence stretcher which I drew the picture of and did not know what the name was.

Mabel Groger was in after more of the Plasti-Kote—it has a wonderful finish for furniture and woodwork; also comes in clear for linoleums and woodwork. O. J. Struve and Elmer Richards, our linoleum men, who do a nice job in laying linoleum, were in after repairs for O. J.'s apartment he just built in the rear of his store.

We are sure selling Weed-No-More for weeds and dandelions in the lawns; also Extension 2-4-5-T for buck brush and honey suckle. Joe Richardson, the old turkey raiser from Viscalia, was here after brooder thermometers and looking at the Jamesway feeders and fountains. Bailey McClure needed a new knife for his mower—the old one was like Bailey, just about worn out. Mrs. Lena Sanders was in after roof paint and roof cement—with all this rain, our rooves will leak if there are any weak spots.

Buddy Readmore and Dude Simpson, our ambitious young farmers, were having tobacco setter trouble, but Chick is a setter mechanic. When you need Hardware or have a breakdown, come to CONRAD'S. We take care of your troubles.

Nashville Man Is Injured Seriously In Crash Monday

A. L. Carpenter, 43, of Nashville, Tenn., an employee of the Utilities Construction Company, Nashville, apparently went to sleep while driving his car early Monday morning and crashed into the abutment of the Southern Railroad bridge at the Southern boundary of Walton. The accident occurred about 2:30 a. m. Chief Simmons was called, who in turn sent for the Chambers & Grubbs ambulance, and the injured man was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington.

According to Chief Simmons, Carpenter received a broken collar bone, broken left leg, scalp lacerations and internal injuries. His condition is said to be serious. The car, pretty well demolished, was taken to the Walton Garage.

Mr. Carpenter has been around Walton for several months, having been doing work in this area.

10-Star Emergency Policy

The Boone County Farm Bureau has just announced a "10-Star" emergency policy, according to J. E. Crigley, county insurance agent for the company. The policy provides for treatment and other expenses up to $5,000 to each insured that might be caused by ten dread diseases, namely: Polio, Leukemia, Scarlet Fever, Diphtheria, Rabies, Smallpox, Spinal Meningitis, Encephalitis, Tularemia and Tetanus.

A family policy, which includes all children under 21 years of age, costs less than 3¢ per day. Polio and several of the other diseases are especially bad during the summer months and Farm Bureau hopes that rural people will take advantage of this protection.

Vacation Bible School To Start Here Monday

The Daily Vacation Bible School will start Monday morning at the Walton Baptist Church and continue through June 23. Sessions will be held each day beginning at 9:00 a. m. and closing at Noon. All boys and girls between the ages of three through 16 years are cordially invited to attend.

Each day there will be Bible and character stories, besides hand work. A picnic for the entire school is being planned for Saturday, June 24.

Sunday morning the pastor's topic will be "Two Great Sinners." Sunday evening the pastor's topic will be baptismal service. The public is extended a cordial welcome to all services.

4-H Club Week In Progress At UK In Lexington

The 27th Annual 4-H Week is being held at the University of Kentucky, Lexington, this week. The theme is "Working Together for a Better Rural Kentucky."

Nine 4-H Club members from Kenton county, who are attending 4-H Week, are: Joyce Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wilson; Mildred Yates, daughter of Mrs. Virginia Yates; Marian Hergott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hergott; Joyce Winburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Winburn; Carolyn Bittner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bittner; Aldin Steinhauer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Steinhauer; Wendell Webster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Webster; Daniel Crout, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ches Crout; and Floyd Krebs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Krebs.

Miss Zelma E. Byerly, home demonstration agent, and Joe Claxon, senior assistant county agricultural agent, accompanied the group.

Play Stealers Sunday

On Sunday, June 11, Verona will play the Newport Stealers in a LAC league contest, starting at 2:30 p. m.

District Convention

A District Convention of United Missionary Societies of Christian Churches will be held at the Independence Christian Church, Sunday, June 11. An all-day meeting is planned, with dinner for $1.00, served by the ladies of the church.

Walton Homemakers

The Walton Homemakers Club is to meet Friday, June 9 in the home of Mrs. June Neumeister. The new officers will be installed, and the last lesson on trays will be given.

Parcel Post Is To Be Delivered In Walton, Shortly

Parcel Post delivery has been approved for the patrons in Walton, who receive their mail at their home. This delivery will be made near 4:30 p. m., six days per week. The routing, which the City carrier is required to make, prohibits us from handing out at the window any mail which is intended for delivery by the carrier. If you wish to call for your mail, it will be necessary for you to rent a lock box and have all your mail delivered to that box, so again, please let me impress on you that we will hand out no mail intended for delivery by the carrier.

Please consider the fact that we have to use the same regulations in routing your mail that governs the routing in New York City, therefore, we can deliver none of this to patrons calling at the window.

This delivery will commence as soon as the Bureau Facilities can make arrangements regarding vehicle allowance. Until the delivery is started, you will call, as you do now, for your parcel post.—Clifton F. Clegg, Postmaster.

To Open New Park At Florence, Sunday

The Bob & Gene baseball team will open its new park at Florence, Sunday, June 11 at 2:30 p. m. The Eadesmen are to play Hudepohl, and a corking good game is expected. Ray Mingley will pitch for the home team, while Rizzo will serve them up for the visitors.

Expected to be on hand for opening ceremonies are County Judge C. L. Cropper, County Attorney Wm. P. McElroy, League President Carl Reis and Rev. Sam Reed of Florence.

Bob & Gene and Bavarian are now tied for first place in the KAG loop. Last Sunday, Bob Eades' boys defeated Chert, 9-0. Bob & Gene have a record of 7 wins and one loss for the season. They have allowed only 14 runs in these eight encounters while tallying 58 markers themselves—a good record in any league.

Fireworks Law Becomes Effective On June 15, 1950

The Beatty Fireworks Law, enacted at the last session of the Kentucky Legislature, becomes effective on June 15, 1950.

After midnight, June 14, 1950, no person shall sell at retail, or offer, advertise or expose for sale at retail, or use or explode, any fireworks within this state; provided, however, that in cities the chief of the fire department, or mayor or similar official where there is no fire department, and in counties outside of cities, the county judge shall have the power to grant permits for supervised public display of fireworks by municipalities, fair associations, amusement parks, and other organizations or groups of individuals. Every such display shall be handled by a competent operator to be approved by the public official by whom the permit is granted, and shall be of such character, and so located, discharged or fired as in the opinion of such official, after proper inspection, shall not be hazardous to property or endanger any person. Applications for permits shall be made in writing at least 15 days in advance of the date of display. Such privilege shall have been granted, sales, possession, use and distribution of fireworks for such display shall be lawful for that purpose only. No permit granted hereunder shall be transferable. Any person violating the provisions of this Act or who knowingly induces another, directly or indirectly, to violate the provisions of this Act shall be fined not more than $100.00, or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than 20 days, or both.

Sale Postponed Saturday

The auction, to settle the estate of Ella Hoppert, scheduled for last Saturday, was postponed until Saturday, June 10, 1950 at 1:00 p. m., due to the inclement weather. Mrs. Alberta Hoppert is executrix, and Bradford & Worthington, auctioneers.

MINSTREL A SUCCESS

The Walton Minstrel, playing to a full house Tuesday evening at the James Theatre, was accorded a huge success. The crowd greeted the local performers with thunderous applause, and by their action and enjoyment, guaranteed the continuance of this local project.

The financial return to the Fire Department has not, as yet, been established, but has been estimated at close to $300, which is very good. The directors, John Meador and Jimmy Spencer, Chief Jim Bob Allen and the entire cast wishes to thank everyone for their wonderful cooperation.

Legion Auxiliary Elects Officers For The Coming Year

A regular meeting of Johnson, McElroy Unit 277, American Legion Auxiliary was held at the Legion Home, June 1, when officers were elected for the coming year. Those named were: President, Dora Stephenson; Vice President, Beatrice Glenn; Secretary, Frances Lemons; Treasurer, Doris Lindsay; Chaplain, Jenny Farrell; Sergeant at Arms, Emma Jane Spillman; Historian, Georgia Stephenson; Executive Committee, Anna Hoelscher, Agnes Farrell and Alice Feldhaus.

The organization wishes to thank everyone who helped to make Poppy Day a real success. Especially do we want to thank Chambers and Grubbs for the use of materials, R. C. Brakefield for the use of the drug store window, and all the girls who sold poppies.

The next meeting of the Auxiliary will be held June 15 at 7:30 p. m. at the Legion Home—Aux. Pub. Chm.

Alumni Meeting Sunday

The Simon Kenton Alumni Association will hold its third annual homecoming picnic, Sunday, June 11 at 2:00 p. m. at the Simon Kenton High School grounds, Independence, Ky. A picnic supper will be served at 4:00 p. m.

The Association will provide baked ham, bread and drinks, and the alumni are asked to bring one covered dish each. Donation: 50 cents per person. Come out—fun, food, and a good time for all.

Phoenix About Ready

The Phoenix Restaurant is about ready to open again after being out of commission since the fire several months ago. The management is in hopes of opening within the next ten days, so watch for their opening announcement.

The restaurant will occupy the entire lower floor, and has been completely redecorated with new floor covering, paper and paint. The upper floor of the former hotel is to be remodeled into several apartments.

Business Women's Circle

The Business Women's Circle of the Walton Baptist Church will meet Thursday, June 8 at 8 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Lebus Stephenson on Verona Road.

Rev. Tom Collins at Piner

Rev. Tom Collins, formerly of Crittenden, will be the guest speaker at the Goshen Christian Church, Piner, Ky., on Sunday, June 11. The public is cordially invited.

Union OES to Meet

Union Chapter, 461, Order of Eastern Star will hold its regular stated meeting on Thursday, June 8 at 8:00 p. m., in the Boone-Union Masonic hall, Union.

Mrs. Mary Belle Noe, Worthy Matron, and Ruben Kirtley, Worthy Patron, will preside.

Bible School at Beaver

The Baptist Church at Beaver Lick will conduct a Daily Vacation Bible School at the church, June 19 through June 23. All boys and girls are welcome to attend.

The good grooming project has attracted a large number of 4-H girls in Todd county.

Crown root disease has damaged alfalfa, clovers and vetch in Logan county.

Highbank 4-H club members in Harlan county improved their school grounds by setting out native shrubs from the mountains.

CONTEST WINNER

Alice Faye Works

Alice Faye Works, 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Works, and a pupil of Piner graded school, who was winner of a bicycle on Leo's Amateur Revue on WCPO-TV, Saturday, May 27, wishes to thank Harry F. Johnson, who sponsored her on this program, her teachers, Mrs. Roberts Steinhauer and W. R. Brown, and the many people who voted for her.

Prior to her appearance on this show, she had won a talent show at the Piner school, sponsored by H. F. Johnson and Lloyd Cook, and a preliminary contest on WCPO-TV. She also appeared at the James Theatre, Tuesday evening, in the Walton Minstrel show.

Revival to Begin June 25 at Walton Methodist Church

A community revival will begin at the Walton Methodist Church, Sunday, June 25. Two young men, Rev. Ed Grant and Rev. Phil Toney, will assist the pastor, Rev. G. W. Hoffman. These young men have been conducting youth revivals in various churches in Northern Kentucky, and the Lord has used them in winning many young people to know salvation. The revival is for the spiritual benefit of everyone, but especially for the young people. These young men are earnest Christian workers with the glory of God and the good of souls at heart.

It is the earnest desire of the pastor that this meeting will help our young people of all denominations, leading them to a definite Christian experience that will result in a rock-like character that will enable them to be victorious over sin and temptation, and become outstanding Christian citizens.

During the first week of the meeting a daily Vacation Bible school will be held, with the local workers being assisted by Mr. Grant and Mr. Toney.

Meador Grocery Sold

The Meador Grocery in Walton was sold this week of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Worthington, with possession being taken immediately. The store will be known as Mary and Harold's Grocery. John will devote his entire time to his 350-acre farm, located near town. The Worthingtons invite everyone to come in and get acquainted.

Masonic Picnic July 1st

Members of the Masonic Lodge in Boone County will hold their first annual picnic at the 4-H Club Park Grounds, Burlington, starting at 10 a. m. Those attending are to take picnic baskets of food. Coffee, tea, cream, ice cream, sugar and soft drinks are free.

Robert Ellis is General Chairman of the Picnic Committee.

Womanless Wedding Friday

A "womanless wedding" will be presented by Bristow Chapter, No. 31, Order of Eastern Star, on Friday, June 9, at 8:00 p. m., in the New Haven school, Union, for the benefit of Union Star Chapter, No. 461.

The public is invited to attend. There is to be a nominal admission charge.

BTU Meeting Friday

The Young Adult B. T. U. of the Walton Baptist Church will meet on Friday, June 16 at 7:15 p. m. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lebus Stephenson, with a covered dish supper and a program of a Bible quiz. All new members are welcome.

Verona Alumni Association Holds Banquet June 3rd

The Verona school building was the scene Saturday night, June 3rd, for old friends and former graduates who met once again to relive the happenings of yesterday.

When the banquet guests were assembled around the table, Robert Porter, President of the Verona Alumni Association, called upon Charles Steele to ask the blessing. The delicious meal, served by the P. T. A., was enjoyed by all.

At the conclusion of the repast, a short business session was held, and officers named for the coming year were: President, Rickman Powers; Vice President, Norman Ferguson; Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. Alice Sowle. The newly-elected president selected his program committee as follows: Margaret Schilling, chairman; Mary Morgan, and Jean Shetler.

When the business session was adjourned, the group retired to the auditorium where a humorous program, portraying a typical night of radio programs, complete with commercials, was presented under the leadership of Mrs. Helen Steele, the chairman of the program committee. Special music was rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Foy Carr and Mr. Virgil Armstrong.

Members and guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Leary, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Scroggin, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Powers, Mr. James Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Rickman Powers, Mrs. Jean Shetler, Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steele, Mr. and Mrs. Lillian Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Foy Carr, Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Porter, Mr. Norman Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Dawson, Mr. and Mrs. C. Schilling, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan, Mr. Marion Arch Waller, Mr. and Mrs. Mary Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert King, Mr. Lillian Chapman, Miss Betty Jo Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Myers, Mr. Charles Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rouse, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Kirtley, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Harris, Miss Jessie Lunsford, Mr. and Mrs. John Sowles, and Mr. Clayton Renaker.

LEGION NOTES

Installation of the newly elected officers of the American Legion will be held on Monday, June 12 at the Legion Home, Beaver Road, Ky.

A. F. "Doc" Gilliland, Historian, Department of Kentucky, will be the installing officer.

Incoming officers to be installed are: Joe Lemmons, Commander; Bill Cluser, First Vice Commander; Cliff Farver, Second Vice Commander; Jack Childers, Adjutant; "Ab" Ryan, Finance Officer; Bob Mee, Chaplain; "Buster" Glenn, Historian; Don Stephenson, Service Officer; Ralph Scott, Judge Advocate; John M. Ryan, Sergeant at Arms; Howard Feidhaus, Executive Board member.

Several district officers are to be guests at the installation, and a nice turnout of members is expected. A cordial invitation is extended to members of the American Legion Auxiliary—Pub. Chm.

Verona Homemakers

The Verona Homemakers met at the home of Perolena Kannady on June 5th, with four visitors and 14 members present.

The club made 20 trays, and heard a report from the bake sale, held last month.

The next meeting will be the picnic held at Geraldine Harris.

Visitors present were Mrs. Mills, Mrs. Edington, Bobby Renolds and Maureen Florence. Members in attendance were Grace Renaker, Lura Renaker, Gladys Neel, Pearl Lamm, May Wilson, Ethel Fuchs, Edith Hamilton, Geraldine Harris, Lena Harris, Becky Rushing and Mrs. Kannady—Pub. Chm.

Bible School at Goshen

The Goshen Christian Church, at Piner, will hold its Vacation Bible School from June 26 through June 30. A large attendance is expected, and everyone is welcome.

Market News Reporters Meet
All Market News Service men of the produce and dairy fields from USDA branch offices met in Chicago, May 27-29. The purpose of the meet was to affect better coordination in reporting activities and a general effort to improve these activities to meet the needs of the produce, dairy and poultry industries. Raymond Morgan and Leslie Matherly of the Kentucky Department of Agriculture attended.Sheep Have A New Rival
Artificial wool can now be made from corn, and this product is being looked upon with favor by textile manufacturers. Made from a protein called "zein," derived from corn, this artificial wool is being produced at the rate of about 100,000 pounds a month. This should be interesting news to corn producers facing acreage allotment cuts.Canned Fresh Milk
A company in Dallas, Texas, after considerable experiment work has been formed to ship fresh milk in

Farm Buildings
We often see today old type inefficient farm buildings going up which reflects either individual ego or lack of progress. When excessive costs are put into inefficient farm buildings, the farmer is buying capacity of the farmer is cut and he is enslaved to needless hard work through the years. Farmers need well planned buildings that are low in cost and efficient production tools. Wonder Drug Aids Chick Growth. Aureomycin, the wonder drug used by doctors to fight human diseases, has been found to produce a remarkable increase in poultry and hog growth when added to feed.River of Milk
Enough milk is produced annually in America to fill a river 3,000 miles long, 40 feet wide, and 3 feet deep. If all of the annual milk production in the U. S. were put into quart bottles side by side, the bottles would extend almost 140 times around the earth.BIG MILK PRODUCTION
Double Myrta, a registered Holstein-Friesian cow owned by the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station at Lexington, has completed a 365-day production test of 4 lb. of butterfat and 20,972 lbs. of milk. She was milked twice a day and was 7 years, 1 month old, when she began her test.

The Drury Chapel Homemakers Club in Gallatin county, with the cooperation of the Fiscal Court, is redecorating the 4-H club house as a community meeting place. Because of the excellent work done by members of the Bethel 4-H Club in Bath county, the Parent-Teachers Association is buying a sewing machine for them.

DAIRYING NEXT TO TOBACCO IN KENTUCKY INCOME

June, which is to be known as Dairy Month, finds dairying next to tobacco as a source of farm income in Kentucky, according to the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky. Dairy products bring farmers more than 100 million dollars a year.

Eighty-two percent of the farms of Kentucky have milk cows. The number has increased 150,000 to 200,000 in the past 20 years, and milk production has increased at least 30 percent. There are more than 5,000 commercial herds producing whole milk for cities and towns. Most of the milk and cream produced in Kentucky is sold to cheese, butter, ice cream, condensed milk and other processing plants. There are about 75 plants in the state. Although only four years old in Kentucky, artificial breeding of dairy cows now ranks 10th in the entire United States. There are 29 artificial breeding associations containing around 85,000 cows. To promote artificial breeding, 27 top bulls are kept at the bull-stud at St. Matthews, 14 of them proven sires.

There are 24 dairy herd improvement associations in Kentucky, containing 330 herds and 8,320 cows. Artificial breeding and testing are material factors in pushing the state to the front in dairying. Many high-producing herds are being developed all over the state, according to the college, and dairying is growing in popularity in every county.

When Chester Ross of Boyd county turned his herd on his cow-crop milk production increased nine gallons daily.

The corn derby contest in Johnson county has 21 entrants, four of them being 4-H club members.

The Gage 4-H Club in Ballard county added to its treasury by painting 55 rural mailboxes and stenciling on them the owner's name.

DEVOTIONAL READING: Psalm 111:1-1:6

Lesson for June 11, 1950

ZEPHANIAH seldom has been any reader's favorite prophet. His pictures of doom are enough to send shudders down any one's spine. It is as realistic as if he were describing H-bomb day. But the main point of Zephaniah is plain and practical: Repentance. For he tells us that man and stubborn nation, that is the first necessity of all. Repentance is not merely regretting something one has done. Anybody can do that—and Dr. Foreman go right on committing the same sin. Furthermore, a man's regret for something he has done may be for a wrong reason. Suppose an adulterer is sorry for the publicity he got when the newspapers caught up with him? Suppose a lazy fellow is sorry, at harvest time, that he didn't work harder during the summer? That sort of thing is not repentance at all.

Also, repentance is not just repentance in general. It is one thing to say, "O God, I am a sinner." It is quite another thing, and a harder one, to kneel and say to God: "You know what a liar I have been."

Repentance is not real unless it is honest; and it is not honest till the repentor looks squarely at his own sin, knows them for real sins and is willing to call them by the ugly names they deserve.

Repentance As The Bible Sees It

THE BIBLE MEANING of repentance is something radical, something life-changing. As the prophets and our Lord set it before us, it means a total change of inner attitude and viewpoint. It does not mean so much stopping something you enjoy, as it means enjoying something altogether different from what you used to enjoy.

For example, you never truly repent of pride until you are really humble on the inside. You never have fully repented of selfishness so long as your biggest "kick" comes from kicking other people around. Repentance means a re-direction of life. It means loving whatever good you hated and hating whatever evil you loved.

The question is: Are you content to be what you are, as you are, or do you sincerely want to be a better, indeed a different person? For that, the grace of God is necessary. For repentance means nothing short of being made over.

Are you aware that by yourself you are doomed to be yourself, your worst self? What is needed is not that you shall make yourself over, what is needed is that you shall pray God to make you over. His grace is not forced on the unwilling. The change may not come all at once, not overnight. Yet surely, and it may be swiftly.

There have been persons whose lives have changed in a single night, in a single moment. There are others whose life transformation has come slowly. But wherever real repentance is, there the Spirit of God has been at work.

Why Repentance Is Needed

ZEPHANIAH POINTS UP the same two reasons for repentance that we find all through the Bible. One reason is the judgement of God: the other is the promise of God. These are two sides of the same thing.

Man does not live in his own universe. He lives in a universe which he could not have created—in a sense he is a guest of it. It is a universe God created in love, and rules in love. Work and live "against the grain" of God's law of love, and you are headed for destruction.

To repent means that you come out new, in the image of God. Not to repent means that you are a breaker of God's laws because you do not like his laws. To repent means that (in the language of the ancient Psalmist) you love the law of God.

To the unrepentant, the laws of God are like the bars of a cruel cage. To the repentant, the laws of God are like rails to a locomotive—the highway of power.

(Readers who wish to examine the Bible's teachings on repentance should read "The Meaning of Repentance" by William Douglas Chamberlain, published by the Westminster Press.)

OLDIES AND ENCORES

They might not bring down the house at Carnegie Hall. But they'll win an encore at Vacation Bible School.

Theirs is the kind of singing in which spirit and enthusiasm count. When you're singing "Jesus Loves Me" a few flat notes don't matter.

Even after these happy weeks at Vacation Bible School they won't be ready for a Metropolitan audition. But their young lives will be richer in the qualities that make for happiness and moral health.

Our boys and girls deserve the opportunities which our churches offer them. They need the goodtimes and helpful training that have made Vacation Bible School an American tradition. Encourage your youngsters to attend!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and social support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

KENTUCKIAN'S IN WASHINGTON

by Gil Kingsbury

Kentucky should get some souvenirs from the White House.

The Commission in charge of material taken from the Executive Mansion has asked the Blue Grass lawmakers to get in touch with various colleges, museums and historical societies in the State to find out if those institutions are interested. Return mail indicates they are. So within the next few months Kentucky will be receiving various curios from what once was called the President's Palace.

Incidentally, work is moving along and the Truman family may be back in the White House long before schedule.

New Job:

A Kentuckian got a big job out of the recent reorganization of government. South Trimble, Jr., formerly of Frankfort, was named a member of the new Federal Maritime Board. The job pays $15,000 a year.

Commissioner Trimble is the son of the late South Trimble, a long time member of Congress from the Blue Grass district. When he retired from the House, he was elected clerk of the House and served in that capacity for many, many years. He was a power in Kentucky politics and once was speaker of the Kentucky House of Representatives.

Senate Wit:

Vice President Barkley's wit is well known. He led the tedious debate of the Senate the other day when Republican Leader Wherry got up to ask permission to insert into the Congressional Record an article entitled, "Who Killed Cock Robin?"

The Nebraska Republican began, "Who Killed Cock Robin . . ."

"The chair does not know," was the Veep's quick interruption.

Little Things:

Senator Garrett Withers made a commencement address the other day at Dixon High School. He spoke not of fame and glory but of little things. He urged these Kentucky graduates "to put a lot of thought into every lick of the hammer, every furrow you plow, every effort you make, and every step you take."

And then he said this: "I would admonish you that life is not made up of big large things, or of doing large things. Instead it is made up of many little things done in a big way and well done."

Path of Glory:

We were in the Senate Postoffice the other day when a clerk, knowing that we were a Kentuckian, asked us for some information.

"Say," he called to us, "we got a letter here from your state addressed to the Honorable Sherman Minton. Who is he?"

Sherman Minton only happens to be a Justice of the United States Supreme Court, a former Senator and a close personal friend of President Truman.

ALFALFA GOES DOWN

Deep-rooted alfalfa may be able to get water rather efficiently to a depth of 5 feet and crops like corn and wheat have root systems that feed to a depth of 2 to 4 feet," says Dr. W. A. Seay of the Experiment Station of the University of Kentucky.

"These crops are able to go for considerable lengths of time between rains because of the large 'soil reservoir' from which they feed, although corn may suffer at certain stages because of its very rapid growth and need for much water."

"Bluegrass and white clover and many other pasture plants have nearly all of their roots in the top 4 inches of soil and very few roots extend below one-half foot. Due to a much smaller volume of soil from which to extract water, unless we supply 'artificial rain' or irrigation water the pasture suffers from drought, while corn, wheat and alfalfa may be able to get along fairly well until rain does fall."

IMPORTANT TO SAVE

SOIL IN BLUEGRASS

Even in the rich central counties, conservation and improvement of the soil is one of the most important farm problems, according to a new bulletin of the Agricultural Experiment Station, called "Farming in the Bluegrass Area of Kentucky."

Growing corn and small grains, until recent years, is blamed for loss of fertility and erosion of much of the land. Even in the last few years when more attention was supposed to be given to saving the soil, only a relatively few acres, on many farms, were conserved.

"Measures for conservation and improvement of all farmland need to be emphasized," it is declared in the bulletin. "On much of the land sod-crop (hay and pasture) farming except for the small proportion used for tobacco, contributes greatly to a permanent tobacco-livestock system of farming."

The Fibber McGeees celebrate their 15th year on WLW-NBC during April. The enjoyable comedy situation is aired each Tuesday at 9:30 p.m. EST.

GLENCOE

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Noel entertained Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Minor, Mrs. Nellie Thompson, son and wife and two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Laura Timmerman, all of Hamilton, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Minor of Independence.

Mrs. Maude Rowland had the misfortune to sprain an ankle. She has been in the hospital.

Eltzie Ross has been in Bethesda Hospital, Cincinnati, for some time, and is doing very nicely. We hope for this speedy recovery.

J. D. Sutherland is not so well at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindell Boaz have moved to Glencoe. He will open a barber shop here soon.

The new bridge will soon be completed.

Not Too Much

The new dam had diverted much of the water that a community of truck farmers previously had used to keep their crops healthy. They complained to all officialdom about it. Getting no satisfaction from the state officials they brought suit.

Arguing the case before the court one hot, lazy day the farmers through their attorney contended that the water had been vital to their business.

"But we must have water, Your Honor," thundered the defending lawyer in a roaring basso-profundo.

The lawyer's sudden vehemence awakened the judge, who had been dozing.

"All right," he muttered hastily, "but only a very little in mine."

Barren county farmers this year turned under their largest green manure crop, vetch and crimson clover making up most of it.

Doctors and nurses cooperated in presenting the cancer problem to members of homemakers clubs in Scott county.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Tanner accompanied Mr. and Mrs. M. Horton and Mrs. Horton's sister of Ludlow, to Jeffersonstown, Saturday, where they visited Mrs. Tanner's aunt, Mrs. Jennie Dobbins, while the Horton's motored on to Louisville. They report Mrs. Dobbins looking fine.

Mrs. Helen Scott and daughter Kay were luncheon guests Friday of Mrs. Eldridge Carpenter.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Caldwell of Cincinnati, were dinner guests on Sunday of his sister, Mrs. Kirby Marshall, and their daughter Charlotte.

Best wishes are extended to Mrs. Russell Bethel, who recently underwent an operation in a Covington hospital.

Mrs. Clara Blankenbaker, 83, succumbed Saturday at the home of a nephew, Harry E. Tanner of Burlington Road. She had been a resident of Florence for 71 years and was a member of the Hopeful Lutheran Church. The deceased, is survived by two other nephews, Cecil and Clifford Tanner, and four nieces, Misses Mabel and Evelyn Tanner, Mrs. Shelby Beemon and Mrs. Stanley Aylor, all of Boone county. Services were held from the Hopeful church Monday at 2 p. m., with burial in the church cemetery. Philip Tallafiero funeral home, Erlanger, was in charge of arrangements. Sympathy of the community is extended the family.

The Geo. B. Miller family was among guests at a birthday celebration at the home of Wilson Ellis of Burlington Road, Sunday.

Members of the J. T. Stephenson family were their guests Sunday.

BEAVER LICK

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker, Jr. and family were in Glencoe, recently visiting her parents. Her father has been ill for some time.

Bobby Moore was ill several days recently.

Margaret Smith has been working in Florence some.

Mrs. Fannie Howard called on Mrs. Rose Slayback one afternoon recently.

"Sandie" Besterman returned to camp on Saturday of last week after a 30-day furlough spent here with his family.

NOTICE

It is requested that all persons having their personal property stored in the Scott Chambers barn located at Locust and Main Streets, Walton, Ky., please remove same as soon as conveniently possible.

This becomes necessary due to the fact that plans are under way to demolish this building and the contents must be evacuated.

held at the South Fork Christian Church, Friday night, June 2. Pictures of the camp were shown.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Scudder and family were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rea Scudder.

PESTS OF LIVESTOCK SUBJECT OF CIRCULAR

The first step in getting rid of flies is to do away with their breeding places, says Circular 477, called "How to Control External Parasites of Livestock," published by the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky.

This means removing manure and rotting materials from barns and premises at least twice a week during the fly season.

The circular also deals with the control of lice, brubs, fleas, ticks, mange and scab.

Copies may be had free from county agents or by writing to the college at Lexington.

INDEPENDENCE

Softball League

The church softball league, consisting of the Decoursey Baptist Church, the Independence Christian Church, the Wilmington Baptist Church, and the Independence Baptist Church, opened its season last Thursday evening at the Simon Kenton school grounds at 6:00 p. m.

The Decoursey team, for some reason was absent, but a spirited game was played between the Independence Christian Church and the Independence Baptist Church with the score being 7-5 in favor of the Baptists. Quite a number of fans were on the sidelines. Games between the four churches will be played each week at the same time—6:00 p. m.

Surprise Shower

A real surprise shower was given last week for Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Jess Obel, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Obel. Young folk were married in April.

4-H Week

This week is Junior or 4-H Club Week in Lexington. Nine boys and girls from Kenton county are attending, and will return Saturday. It will be a week of profitable instruction, according to County Agent Wicklund.

Your Vegetable Garden

There is a free copy of "Your Vegetable Garden, Month by Month," for you, if you will call at Mr. Wicklund's office.

The fight against insects of the garden should be stepped up in June because a new generation has come.

Beans should be planted now for fall use and canning purposes; beans and sweet corn should be planted about every two weeks to keep a supply on hand and a large amount for canning purposes; it is also time to plant cucumber, cantaloupes, squash and watermelon; late tomatoes, cabbage, cauliflower, broccoli and brussels sprouts should be set in the garden in June.

Vacation Bible School

Vacation Bible School at the Independence Baptist Church closed Sunday night with a demonstration program of what the children had been learning. The average attendance each day was 106, including pupils and teachers. One hundred one pupils were there three or more days and received a certificate or a seal. The daily Missionary offerings given by the children totaled, for the week, $21.81. The school was aided by 14 teachers and helpers and by 15 who assisted with the transportation, using their cars. The church thanks all who have helped in any way.

The next big undertaking for the church is the two weeks revival, running from June 5 to June 16. Those assisting the pastor are R. S.

Singleton, pastor of the Liberty Baptist Church, Norwood, and E. A. Palmer, director of the Calvary Choir. Both of these men have a radio service each Sunday morning. Many of the neighboring churches have been invited to visit and bring their choirs or special music during this series of meetings. The public is also cordially invited.

The young men's quartette of the Independence Baptist Church did double duty last Friday night, singing first at a cottage prayer meeting near Simon Kenton school, and then at the Banklick Baptist Church.

Wreck Friday Night

The ambulance of the Independence Volunteer Fire Department was called Friday night to a three-car wreck on the LeLé, just South of Atwood Byrd's place. Two 1933 cars were in a head-on collision and a third had piled into them and was pushed over to one side of the road, out of the way, when some of the Independence citizens chanced to pass.

Just how it happened, no one seems to know, but it put five young folk in the hospital, who were Julius Fenske, 22, Dover, Ind., reported in a serious condition; Kenneth Foley, 19, Florence; Earl E. Mains, 18, Green Road, and his brother, age 16, and Ed McCormick, 21, Guilford, Ind. Injuries were received in the head, chest, arms, hands, feet and nose. Most of them had more than one cut, bruise or fracture.

Patrolmen Ralph Schneider and Pat Petty learned that Earl Mains was driving South and Kenneth Foley driving North and hit head-on. The injured were taken to the hospital by the Independence ambulance and a passer-by.

Justice

The Kansas City Times recently gave an account of a certain day laborer by the name of Tidel, age 55, who received the death penalty in the gas chamber for the killing of Fred Matchett, October 25, 1945. This laborer was accused of killing two other persons and he never denied it, but was never tried for it. The prison chaplain who was with Tidel the last hours of his life said that the convicted man retained faint hope in the final hours of his life that he might cheat the gas chamber. This was justice coming from the hands of the government.

Does it not seem strange that one having been accused of killing three persons and not denying it, and convicted for killing one man should have even faint hope of cheating justice? God has shown us that ought to teach everyone that justice cannot be defeated—"Be not deceived; God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap." (Gal. 6:7). "Be sure your sin will find you out." (Numbers 32:23).

Personal

Robert West, Postmaster, moved to his new home last Saturday, which is the building that is occupied by the Post Office.

Mrs. Mabel Vanlandingham is recovering from a heart ailment, and recently visited her mother, Mrs. Mary Binder on old Decoursey Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Beach, on the John Shaw farm, Taylor Mill Road, had callers Memorial Day. They were Mr. and Mrs. Haden Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Don Polly and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Webster.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Giles were callers in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw, last Sunday evening.

Mrs. Stella Bowman returned to her home in Versailles, recently after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Doll Bowman on Stephens and Taylor Mill Road.

Miss Nancy Bowman has been spending a week with her grandmother, Mrs. Ova Petty, Latonia.

GLENCOE

Mrs. C. C. Higgins was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington, Friday. We hope all Christian people remember her in prayer.

Mr. and Mrs. Worth Collins entertained all her children Sunday, and all had a nice day together.

James Noel, wife and son spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Noel.

Sympathy is extended Mrs. Floyd Peak and family, whose husband passed away last week.

Bro. Burett, pastor of the Glencoe Baptist Church, is speaking over WZPB this week at 7:30.

Maytag Week

Monday started off with a bang—we delivered Mrs. Robt. Hetterman at Crittenden a Maytag washer, then we took a Maytag to the Phoenix Restaurant to replace the one that burned in their fire last March—they will be ready to open with a much better restaurant than they had before. Next we took another Maytag to Charles Fortwood at Richwood—his old washer broke down too bad to fix. Ed Hankinson came along and I sold him three 'trade-ins' which needed repair—Ed repairs these washers and sells them. If you want a cheap, used washer, see Ed. Maytag leads the field for so little difference in cost, you can't afford to buy any other washer.

John Wood from Richwood called for a Rastus plow. Harry Johnson stepped and picked up a Rastus plow, also—I don't know who will use this one. Frank Penick bought a sixty-tooth harrow. Lindsay Brashers came after a John blue fertilizer drill. Vernon Wilson and wife were in and bought a lawn mower and garden plow. Elbert and Sheba Wilson also were over Monday after a lot of small items. Lon Wilson was in and bought himself a new pocket knife—looks like all the Wilsons were here. John Witte from down at Boone County Monument farm came up after a drag harrow and a lay-off plow.

Dewey Pettit called from Williamstown for a Campbell corn drill. Cecil Dickerson and sons bought a new Tiger tobacco setter. Edward Roberts drove in and wanted to know if I had any more Reo power lawn mowers—he never even looked at it, just said fill out the check for it—then we loaded it—if you need a power mower, we have a few left. Some stranger walked in yesterday and asked the price of steel lawn chairs, and Brewster told him $4.50, in the car—he said if they were that cheap he would just take four. We sell this make chair $4.50 in the carton or $4.95 set up. Dora Stephenson got two. Jane Johnson bought two. Mrs. Eva Hall bought two, and several others. I do not recall.

Bean beetles are here waiting for those beans to pop out of the ground—O. F. Young came up and bought Myrtle a nice new duster and some Rotomacs—he says she is a real gardener. Harry Glacken has a nice potato patch over on the railroad bank—he says he will have real potatoes if they don't get cinders in their eyes from the trains. We have sold a lot of Paris Green, Arsenate of Lead and Morspud for potato beetles.

Those Perfection hand tobacco setters sure have sold, even if it did rain—we also have only one Bemis setter and one New Holland setter left. That Brewster cut a glass for Mrs. Sallie Day with eighteen scallops in it for a table top—it was some job, but he can do those kind of jobs. Alicia Neumaster was running late last night for a box of mower sections, but we always wait her out—she is a very fine person. Ambrose Davis from over Gallatin county way was another late customer, after a mower sickle bar, and Scott Lancaster had to have pawls and springs for his old Deering.

Well, we all went to the Minstrel last night—it was the best show we have ever had in Walton—everyone was excellent, even Fred Hamilton with his grass skirt and Bill Scroggin and a steel guitar. John Meador and his group of blackface were extra, and the young ladies who danced and sang; also Rev. Hall and his sermon was super-scrumptious—if you didn't get to see this show, I would suggest you request them to put it on again—it is worth the admission to hear Jimmy Spencer play that piano.

Don't you kids forget that next week is Bible School—make it a point to be there.

Jimmy Cleek and Roy Robinson painted my mother's bathroom and all the floors on the second floor—they sure did a nice job, and if you need any painting done, give these fellows a call. Leonard Cook just brought in an arm load of broken hay forks and hoes for new handles—we do all this repair work. The electric fan season is here—we have them from $4.95 up and of all types.

June is a wonderful month—all the beautiful brides—the school children are vacationing—weeds are growing, tobacco setting time, alfalfa hay is ready to mow—everything is green and beautiful—and fishing is still good, or better.

We are very busy, but we always have time to take care of our customers' needs and troubles. Always come to CONRAD'S!

Verona Wins 4-2 and Bob & Gene Victors

Eadsmen Take 2-0 Tilt on One Hit

Last Sunday at Verona, Elmo Steffen went to the mound for the first time this season, and pitched the Community Club to a 4-2 win over the Newport Stealers. Steffen went all the way for the victory. He struck out 8 and walked three. Baumann did the catching. In the hit parade, Bowman had 3 for 4 and drive in 3 of Verona's runs. Taylor started the game for Newport and hurled 6 innings, allowing 4 hits, 3 runs, striking out 6 and walking one. Gilmer finished the fray and was nipped for 1 hit and 1 run. He struck out two, walked one and committed one wild pitch. Brauer caught. For the losers, Arzen had 2 for 5; Graham, 2 for 5, and Brauer, 2 for 4, one blow being a triple.

Record Crowd at Florence

A record crowd was at the new Florence Baseball Park last Sunday to witness proceedings between Bob and Gene and Hudepohl, and it seems they got their money's worth.

The Eadsmen were held to one hit, yet won the ball game 3-0. The first run scored as the result of a base on balls, a sacrifice to second, a steal of third base, and a score on an outfield fly. The second tally was the result of a homer by Seabee—the only blow by the winners, and that's what we call making the most of your hits. Rizzo was the tough-luck hurler for the Beermen, and Mingery was the winning hurler, who pitched five hits. Fine fielding by both teams was a feature of the game, as well as the outstanding pitching. As a result of Sunday's win, plus a loss by Barvarian, Bob and Gene now hold undisputed possession of first place in the KAG League.

On Sunday, June 18, Bob & Gene play Aetna Oil of Glencoe at the Florence Park. Game time is 2:30.

Conner-McHargue Nuptials Solemnized In Erlanger, Saturday

With simple dignity, the marriage of Doris Jean McHargue, daughter of Mrs. Stella McHargue, Erlanger, and Jack Conner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Conner, Walton, was solemnized at 4:30, Saturday, June 10, at the Erlanger Methodist Church.

Rev. R. F. McDole, cousin of the groom, officiated at the ceremony in his usual impressive manner, before the altar beautifully decorated with white gladioli and tapers.

Mrs. Catherine Rankin played the lovely wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Glenn Arnold, wore an ankle length white embroidered organza gown with a fitted bodice, and Queen Anne collar, which complemented her beauty. She wore a shoulder length veil and her bridal bouquet was of white carnations tied with love knots. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls.

Mrs. Billy Gregory, the bride's attendant, was pretty in her pastel blue organza gown and carrying a bouquet of pink carnations.

William Ryle was best man and the ushers were Asa (Buddy) Rouse and J. L. Arnold, all of whom are classmates of the groom.

Following the reception, which was at the home of the bride's mother, the bride's party was served the wedding dinner at her home, after which the newlyweds left for a trip through Southern Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. Conner are students at the University of Kentucky, and will make their home in Lexington, where they will resume their studies.

HONORED AT U. OF L.

Miss Colleen Vallandingham, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Vallandingham of Alta Vista Drive, who has completed her junior year as a Mathematics Major at the University of Louisville, was among women students honored at the annual Women's League Luncheon on June 3 at the Henry Clay Hotel.

Miss Vallandingham was honored for being on the Dean's List and for being an officer of a sorority.

Throughout three years of college work, Colleen has maintained an accumulation point standing of 2.5, which placed her on the Dean's List. She is also treasurer of the Beta Gamma Chapter of Chi Omega.

Colleen was graduated from Walton-Verona High School in 1947.

OFF TO GOOD START

The Daily Vacation Bible School, which began at the Walton Baptist Church, Monday, got off to a good start with 141 present. Tuesday more pupils were enrolled and the enrollment is expected to reach 180. The school will continue through Friday, June 23, with the closing exercises scheduled for Friday night, June 23. All boys and girls between the ages of 3 and 16 years are welcome.

Sunday morning the pastor's subject will be, "The Cross of Christ and Its Power."

You are welcome at all of the services.

SARAH JONES HOWARD

The body of Mrs. Sarah Jones Howard, who died in St. Petersburg, Fla., March 28, will arrive in Walton, Wednesday, June 21 for services and burial.

Mrs. Howard, formerly of Walton and Ft. Mitchell, had lived in St. Petersburg for the past 15 years.

Services will be held from the Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Walton, Wednesday, June 21 at 2:00 p. m., with Rev. R. F. McDole officiating. Interment will be in the family lot in Walton Cemetery.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Jack Herrick of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., one granddaughter, Helen Herrick, and a sister, Mrs. J. G. Slater, St. Petersburg, Fla.

COMMUNITY REVIVAL

A revival for the entire community will be held at the Walton Methodist Church beginning June 25th. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

The pastor, Rev. G. W. Hoffman, says: "Come and receive the inward knowledge of sins forgiven through Christ, and then join the church of your choice. Especially invited are the children and young people. Come hear these young preachers, who have led many young people to become whole-hearted Christians."

A Daily Vacation Bible School will be held the first week of the meeting—June 26-30.

Dike Vest Named To Kentucky High School All-Star Team

James (Dike) Vest, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Vest, Walton, left here Saturday for Bowling Green, Ky., to begin practice with the Kentucky high school all-star basketball team which meets the Indiana stars June 16 in Indianapolis.

The team, selected by Ed Diddle, Western Kentucky coach, who lead them against the Hoosiers for the ninth time, practiced in Bowling Green until Wednesday, when they moved to Indianapolis for complete training for the annual event.

In addition to the Friday tilt, the Kentuckians will meet the Ohio all-stars at Bowling Green, Ky., Thursday, June 22, and will also play the same team in Middletown, Ohio on Saturday, June 24.

The ten-man roster is as follows: Forwards, Jimmy Sanger of Paducah St. Mary, Robert Muehler of Lexington Lafayette, Robert Darrell of Davis Lebanon, and Frank Selvy of Corbin; centers, William Greer of Searles, and William Greer of Hazard; guards, Ernest Prater of Pikeville, Gayle Rose of Paris, Clyde Bryant of Columbia, and Vest of Walton-Verona.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Boone County Historical Society will meet in the Courthouse at Burlington, Friday, June 16 at 8:00 p. m. Lucian Bradford, president of the local society and vice president of the Christopher Gist Historical Society, will present a paper on the life of John Pendleton Gaines. Mr. Gaines was a resident of this county and the first governor of the territory of Oregon, during President Fillmore's administration.

The public is invited to attend any meetings of the society.

A Correction!

A personal of June 8, 1950 stated I went to St. Elizabeth Hospital, which was an error, as I went to Booth Memorial Hospital—W. O. Rouse.

Vallandingham, Mrs. Frank Perick, Mrs. Claude Adams, Mrs. Josie Cockrell, Mrs. Louis Schwab, Mrs. Cleve Marsh, Miss Libbie Ingram, and Mrs. Rayburn Simpson.

"WITH DISTINCTION"

Miss Sara Kathryn Miller

Mrs. Sallie R. Miller, and Miss Emma Jane Miller of Walton, attended commencement exercises at Eastern Kentucky State College at Richmond, recently, where Miss Miller's niece, Miss Sara Kathryn Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Miller of Carrollton, graduated.

Sara Kathryn, who majored in mathematics and physics, was one of eight members of the class to receive the "High Distinction" award.

BAPTIST W.M.S. MEETS

The Baptist W. M. S. met at the church Thursday, June 8 for a regular meeting. The forenoon was devoted to business, led by the president, Mrs. Bryan Rector.

The society will meet the second Thursday in July on the lawn of the Bryan Rector, to study the Mission book, "God's Hurray," by Duke K. McCall.

BAKE SALE SATURDAY

A bake sale will be held Saturday, June 17, 1950, beginning at 9:00 a. m., in the Community Public Service office, Walton, by the Guild of the Walton Christian Church.

Anyone wishing to make donations, please notify Eva Waters or Catherine Simpson.

County Nurse Exam To Be Given June 19 at Burlington

An examination for Senior Clerk in the Boone County Health Department, at an entrance salary of $120 per month, will be held at 10:00 a. m., Monday, June 19, at Burlington, by the Merit System of the State Department of Health, Kentucky.

Applicants will be notified of place of examination.

Applicants must meet the following qualifications: Graduation from high school, including or supplemented by commercial course; year for year substitution of successful clerical work may be made for each year of high school not completed; two years experience within the past six of successful full time paid employment including clerical work.

In order to compete in the examination, will be necessary to mail a completed application, with photograph attached, to the Merit System Supervisor, State Department of Health, 620 South Third St., Louisville, Ky., not later than midnight, Friday, June 16. Application forms and details can be obtained from Mrs. Roy C. Lutes, Florence 258.

The three highest ratings on the examinations will constitute the immediate eligible list from which the clerk will be selected.

PLEASE REMEMBER!

All members of Walton Lodge No. 719, F. & A. M., are requested to be present at the regular meeting as some important decisions will be made—years experience within the past six of successful full time paid employment including clerical work.

In order to compete in the examination, will be necessary to mail a completed application, with photograph attached, to the Merit System Supervisor, State Department of Health, 620 South Third St., Louisville, Ky., not later than midnight, Friday, June 16. Application forms and details can be obtained from Mrs. Roy C. Lutes, Florence 258.

The three highest ratings on the examinations will constitute the immediate eligible list from which the clerk will be selected.

Eight Teams In Loop This Season

Play is scheduled to begin in the Walton Softball League on Tuesday, June 20, and continue each Tuesday and Thursday, through September 26. Two games will be played each evening, with the first contest starting at 7:30, and the second at 9:00 p. m.

However, practice games are set for Thursday and Friday of this week. On Thursday evening, Bank Link plays Verona, and the Lions Club clashes with the Fire Dept. Friday evening, Shamrock tangles with Bob & Jo's, and Independence plays the High School—and here you have the eight teams comprising this year's loop entry.

Each team will be allowed 15 players, who must be signed by July 6. No players may be added after this date. Any player who appears in a game before that date, must be signed on the players list when it is turned in July 6, or any player who has participated will be considered forfeited.

All-Star Game July 4

On Tuesday night, July 4, there will be an all-star game. The two all-star teams will be picked by the fans attending the games, and ball lots will be provided for this purpose.

Pitching Rules

The pitcher must start his pitch with both feet firmly on the rubber. The pitch must be made directly underhand with the pitcher facing the batter at all times. The pitcher will be allowed one step in the direction of the batter. Any pitch made by a pitcher not in the position described above will be considered a balk. The decision is up to the ball-and-strike umpire. If a manager wishes to protest the umpire's decision, he may do so at the next regular meeting of the Board of Directors. However, the umpire's decision will remain in effect until the board meeting.

Board of Directors

The Board of Directors shall consist of the eight team managers and Charles Hayes, chairman, and the Board will act on all protests by the manager. The chairman of the Board will vote only in case of a tie. The fee for a protest will be $2.50. If the protest is allowed, the fee will be returned to the protesting team. If the protest is not allowed, the fee will be forfeited.

The Board consists of Charles Hayes, chairman; Jack Rouse, Fire Dept.; Wm. Collier, Independence; Frank Deak vs. Lions Club; Bob Stephenson, Bob & Jo's; Chas. Bowling, Bank Link; Wilbur Florence, Verona; Dick Ryan, Shamrock, and manager of the High School.

B.T.U. MEETING FRIDAY

The business meeting of the Baptist B. T. U. will be held Friday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lebus Stephenson. A covered dish supper will be served, and new members are urged to attend.

NORTH BEND B.T.U.

The North Bend Baptist Training Union Association will meet Monday, June 19, at 7:45 p. m. in the First Baptist Church, Covington.

A very fine program of music has been arranged by Choirists Clayton Noyes, along with the program committee. Rev. Don Gambrell of the Erlanger Baptist Church will have charge of the devotion.

Cups will be awarded to churches with the largest attendance of the following departments: Junior Intermediate, Young People, and Adults. All B. T. U. members are urged to attend.

Political Announcements

FOR REPRESENTATIVE
The Advertiser is authorized to announce

Frank Lee Dils
as a candidate for Representative to the United States Congress from the Fifth District of Kentucky, subject to action of the Democratic Primary, Saturday, August 5, 1950.

IN LOVING MEMORY—

Of a very dear friend, Mrs. Bessie Ballard, who passed away just a year ago today, June 15, 1949—
As I loved her, so I miss her,
In my memory she is ever near Loved, remembered, longed for Bringing many a silent tear.
11-24* —Sadly Missed by Emma

What do you want to hear about? Kentucky politics?

Well, if performances in other states are to be judged, the incumbent Kentucky congressmen are going to win their primary races with ease.

At this writing, 125 members of the Lower House have sought re-nomination. Not one has suffered a primary defeat.

This record has caused some rejoicing at Democratic headquarters in Washington where trends have been watched for a possible off-year decline. However, all signs indicate that in spite of the turning and fusing, the present set of lawmakers (and this includes Republicans) is winning approval on return to the people.

In the eyes of the Democratic leadership, that means continued Democratic control.

Horse Story:

This story is about General Anthony McAuliffe, who shouted "nuts" in the Battle of the Bulge and set the Nazis back on their heels.

Today, the General is disgusted with his lot in life.

On last Derby Day, the General had a great desire to be in Louisville. Instead, his orders sent him to Baltimore.

Then, on the day the Preakness was to be run at Baltimore, the General was ordered to—guess where? —Louisville!

ECA Work:

Within the next few days, Barry Bingham, publisher of the Louisville Courier-Journal, will be back at his job in the Falls City. He resigned the other day as the chief of the French Mission for the ECA.

Just the other day we were talking to a young man, fresh out of Europe where he was an ECA analyst. He was a native of the Netherlands. Of course, we asked him how the Marshall plan is working out. Here is his reply:

"The American end is working very well. We owe you people a lot for the help you are bringing us. But my people (and he meant Europeans) are not doing so well. Nationalism, the old world jealousies and suspicions are keeping ECA from doing its best job."

The young man, incidentally, had kind words for Kentucky tobacco and spoke of the demand for burley in Europe.

The Dollar:

A Boone County farmer writes to remind us of the shrinking value of the dollar. So, we looked up some figures to put along with his letter.

Assume, for example, that the 1939 dollar is worth $1.00. That means that back in 1933, the dollar would buy $1.12 worth of groceries. It means that the 1943 dollar would fetch 80 cents worth of feed and fuel. And it means that today's dollar would buy just about 59 cents worth of goods.

There is, of course, a catch to all this. Most people today—there are exceptions—are making more dollars.

The question boils down to this: Would you rather return to 1933 and the scarcity of money or would you rather live in 1950—even with its problems.

Visitors:

State Agriculture Commissioner Harry Walters of Shelbyville was a recent Washington visitor on business—Congratulations go to J. L. Anderson, up and coming you man from Burlington, who has been named Director of Marketing in the Kentucky Agriculture Department. —The Lower House of Congress is pushing for a downpayment by the end of July. The Senate is still the obstacle. —Kentucky coal operators are interested in placing a heavy tax on the import of foreign oil. The Farm Bureau, however, opposes the plan.

UK SUMMER TERM

TO OPEN JUNE 19

The University of Kentucky's 1950 summer session will open Monday, June 19, with a complete schedule of graduate and undergraduate courses to be offered in all colleges except Pharmacy. The eight-week summer term will include a number of special short courses and clinics designed primarily for teachers. Only students not previously enrolled at the University need report on Monday, the 19th, the U. K. registrar's office announced this week. Registration and classification for both new and old students is scheduled for Tuesday and classwork is slated to begin Wednesday. The term will end on August 12.

FERTILIZER HELPS

SWEET POTATOES

Following experiences the past year, sweet potato growers in Jefferson county are using liberal amounts of fertilizer, according to H. C. Brown, associate county agent.

J. W. Egeenbush, near Buechel, harvested 123 bushels an acre more potatoes where he applied 1,000 lbs. of 0-12-12 and 150 lbs. of sulphur an acre. Five hundred pounds of fertilizer plus 75 pounds of sulfur an acre increased yields 92 bushels an acre.

In addition to practically doubling yields, the fertilizer produced three times as many No. 1 potatoes.

Fourteen Clay county farmers used methyl bromide gas on tobacco plant beds this spring. More than 20,000 acres, or almost a fourth of the cropland in Fulton county, have been seeded to Ladino clover and Ky. 31 fescue.

One hundred 4-H club boys in Taylor county have dairy projects.

Lesson for June 18, 1950

FOR TIMES that are dull, times without hope, Malachi is the prophet. When he lived the exile was over, but it was no golden age. In the dingy little city of Jerusalem, rich and beautiful no longer, lived only a comparative handful of faithful poor people, dragging out a monotonous existence. These people, living in a time of discarding times, Malachi had, and has, a message from God. His prophecies do not have the bitter tang of Amos nor the melancholy of Hosea, the grandeur of Isaiah, the dramatic power of Jeremiah or the eerie visions of Ezekiel. But with inspired common-sense, he offers in the name of God a simple remedy with four ingredients.

Better Leaders
SPEAKING DIRECTLY to the leaders of the people, namely the priests, Malachi condemns them for not really taking stock in the thing they were doing. How we need that today! If the church today in any place is dead, you may be sure there are some dead leaders. Dead from the neck up, that is. And not necessarily the preachers. Many a good preacher breaks his heart for lack of support. How many men and women, in your church, can the minister count on to fill in where they are needed, without making up a dozen reasons why they "can't" do it? Why do Christians talk and pray as if their religion were all-important, but at act as if everything else came first?

Law Observance
ANOTHER THING for which Malachi pleads is law observance. (E.g. 2:8; 3:5) They did not need new laws, for they had good ones. What they needed was to obey the laws they had. This again is what our times need. We have so many laws now that only an expert can keep up with them. No civilized nation could live, to be sure, under the unchanged statutes of a generation ago. Nevertheless, if all the legislatures in America were to resolve to pass no more laws for five years, and if for five years the energy, time and money spent ordinarily on getting up new laws were put in on educating the people in the laws now in existence, and in fostering law observance and in preventing and punishing crimes, ours would be a better country.

The Unbroken Home
AGAIN, Malachi stands for the unbroken home. He knows that no country can be strong when its homes are weak. (2:15-17.) In the year 1948 there were about 420,000 divorces in the United States, and 1.80 million marriages. This is a divorce rate of about 23 per cent. In some states the percentage of divorce is even higher. Indeed, in one large midwestern city it was announced in the papers about two years ago that the marriages had "caught up with" the divorces, i.e., they were at last having more marriages than divorces! This was an extreme case.

To say nothing else about it, 420,000 divorces and 1,800,000 desertions means that in the United States alone there are at least 432,000 persons who have no regard for the most solemn promises.

Support The Church
FIRST AND LAST, Malachi asks for better support of the church. You need the church, of course; but then the church needs you. There is need for better leadership in the first place, and better support from the common man. Few persons want to live in a community without churches; yet a mere church building will not effect community life in the least. A beautiful building and a tall white spire are not a church.

The only church which will help a neighborhood is one in which the neighborhood takes an active part, a church where neighbors together worship and where they are inspired to plans and acts of service for their fellow-men. The main object of the church is not to shore up the country; still if you want a better country, one of the best ways to support it is to support the Christian church. For of all the institutions in the nation, the church is the only one devoted to the purpose of transforming human lives.

This road leads to a picnic. It extends through a beautiful countryside, where the trees, meadows, and streams all contribute to the contentment and pleasure of this happy family.

But it leads further than the picnic site. It is the first few miles of a road that winds through the years of family harmony, love, and understanding. And it is over this road that children must travel if they are to grow into successful, happy adults.

For this is a picture of American youth in its proper setting--with loving parents, who have found enough time to enjoy their children and to devote their moments of leisure and recreation to them.

We need never worry about children such as these. They are taken to Church on Sundays, and are taught the principles of Christian living. They are cared for, loved, and respected.

Give your children the same opportunities to make the most of their lives. Start them on their way down the road to the fulfillment of a Christian life of service and security.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Resolution No. 2

A Resolution designating the proposed route of laying a Water Line on a portion of Walton-Verona Road in the City of Walton, Kentucky, and declaring the improvement to be a necessity and suggesting the adoption of an Ordinance making the public improvement.

WHEREAS, the Water Line on the Walton-Verona Road now ends at the Western extremity of the property owned by Herman Simmons; and

WHEREAS, the City of Walton continues to grow and to expand and new facilities are being placed within the reach of more citizens and it having been requested that City Council extend the Water Line on the Walton-Verona Road.

NOW, THEREFORE, The City Council of the City of Walton does ordain as follows:

Section 1. That, following appropriate action by City Council, a four (4) inch Water Line will be laid from the end of the present Water Line, and connected to the present line and the new construction to begin at a point in the property line between the Herman Simmons and Edna R. Kerns and to extend in a Westward direction Four Hundred and Sixty (460) Feet along said street.

Section 2. That the cost of construction of the proposed Water Line will be apportioned against the property on either side of said street for the distance to be improved.

Section 3. That the proposed extension of the Water Line appears necessary to the City Council because the line extended will provide fire protection to more of the area of the City, will provide the facilities of City Water to more people, and will be keeping abreast with the expansion and growth of the City.

Section 4. That an Ordinance will be proposed and read to the City Legislative Body for adoption, which will embody the same general terms as set out in this Resolution. The Ordinance to be proposed and submitted to Council 30 days after the publication of this Resolution.

Passed by the vote of 5 members of the City Council of the City of Walton, Kentucky, this 12th day of June, 1950.

R. M. HALL, Mayor,
City of Walton, Ky.
Attest:
C. W. HOFFMAN, City Clerk.

Walton Homemakers

Mrs. June Neumeister was hostess to the Walton Homemakers Club last Friday. The final lesson on finishing trays was given by Mrs. Dora Pennington and Mrs. Alice Flynn. New officers are: President, Mrs. Alice Flynn; Vice President, Mrs. Eloise Breed; Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. Ora Stone.

The president appointed as Club Leaders, Mrs. Dora Pennington and Mrs. June Neumeister; Publicity, Mrs. Lucy Callen; Finance, Mrs. Lillian Goh and Mrs. Margaret Wood; Program, Mrs. Irene Bickers and Mrs. Ora Stone; Reading, Mrs. Mayme Simpson and Mrs. Mary M. Allen; Live at Home, Mrs. Wilma Whinn; and Citizenship, Mrs. Bonnie Woods. This was the last meeting of the club until September.

The Louellan 4-H Club of 31 girls in Harlan county exhibited at a community display more than 100 garments they had made.

Bible School at Beaver Lick

The Daily Vacation Bible School will start Monday at the Beaver Lick Baptist Church. The school will be held each day, Monday thru Friday, from 2:00 to 4:00 p. m.

A course of Bible study, memory work and handwork will be given each day. Church services will be held this Sunday afternoon at three o'clock.

Ryland Homemakers

Favorite recipes were exchanged during roll call when members of the Ryland Homemakers Club met recently in the home of Mrs. William Bagby of Ryland Lakes.

Mrs. William Damon presided and gave her report on the advisory council meeting. She said, "Our homemakers' goal for 1950-51 is to encourage democracy in the home and community, and teach tolerance in religion, politics and race." Mrs. Damon also gave highlights of the district meeting at Dry Ridge. Kenton county had the largest delegation, she reported.

Mrs. Williams conducted the program, with a poem by Mrs. Oliver Gee, entitled "It Takes A Heap O' Wiring to Make A Home." Mrs. Frank Hermes read, "The House by the Side of the Road," by Sam Walter Foss. The gardening lesson was given by Mrs. William Bagby. She reminded members that now is the time to spray.

The following officers were elected for the new year: President, Mrs. William Damon; Vice President, Mrs. Shelby Martin; Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. F. B. Hermes; Citizenship, Mrs. William Mendenhall; Reading, Mrs. O. J. Williams and Mrs. Oliver Gee; Exterior Beautification, Mrs. William Bagby; Program and Recreation, Mrs. William Dickman.

Interesting games were played during recreation period, with Mrs. Dickman leading.

The summer picnic will be held June 25 at the home of Mrs. William Mendenhall of Dayton, Ohio. Luncheon was served picnic fashion in the flower garden by the side of the lake, Mrs. Bagby being assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Art Kennedy, in serving the following members: Mesdames Oliver Gee, James Frakes, Alice Frakes, J. S. Murchison, W. E. Dickman, Shelby Martin, William Bagby, W. A. Damon, William Mendenhall, F. B. Hermes, and guests, Mrs. G. M. Boyer and Mrs. Harold Truitt.

The club meeting in September will be held in the home of Mrs. Dickman, Conley Road.—Pub. Chm.

LEGION NOTES

On Monday, June 12, installation of new officers was held at the Legion Home on Beaver Road. Installing officer was John Orphan, present Commander of Norman Barnes Post 70, of Covington, and the incoming Sixth District Commander of Kentucky. Distinguished guests of the evening included "Doc" Gilliland, Dept. Historian; Mrs. Frances Lemmons, president of the Walton Legion Auxiliary, and Mrs. Dora Stephenson, newly elected president.

A gift was presented to the outgoing Commander, Geo. W. Ryan, by the Legion Auxiliary members. After the installation ceremonies a buffet lunch and refreshments were served to members and guests. The next business meeting of the Post will be on June 26. All members are urged to attend, as new committees will be appointed, and a new program will be set up for the coming year.

Duvall Here June 21
On Wednesday, June 21, Tiny Duvall, District V. A. Representative, will be at the Walton City Hall to assist any veteran in filing and pursuing claims for pensions and benefits. Time, 9:00 to 4:30.

Softball Game Friday
On Friday night, June 16 at the Walton Playgrounds, Johnson-McElroy Post, 277, will meet Moon Bros. Post, 275, of Independence, in an exhibition softball game for the benefit of the playground fund. All former Legion players are urged to be on hand to participate in the game.—Pub. Chm.

Gunpowder Homemakers

The final lesson on the project, "Metal Etching," resulted in many beautiful trays being completed at the June meeting of the Gunpowder Homemakers Club, held recently in the home of Mrs. Edgar Utzinger. Mrs. Cliff Norman recited a very appropriate poem, followed by the reading of the Club Colloquy, at the business meeting. Plans were completed for an outing at Coney Island on July 11 and a picnic at the home of Mrs. Frank Dils, August 8.

All-in-all this has been a very profitable year for this club. Five major projects have been studied and completed.

Answering roll call were Mesdames Chas. Tanner, Elva Piper, Frank Dils, M. E. Shelton, Wm. Oll-ver, Cliff Norman, Geo. Black, Bert Markesbery, Dolpha Seabree, Virgil Kelly, Robt. Moore, Glenn Stevens, B. M. Stevens, and the hostess. Visitors were Mrs. Victor Benham and Mrs. Don Aylor.—Pub. Chm.

HAPPY HELPERS

The Happy Helpers Class of the Walton Methodist Church was entertained Tuesday evening, June 13 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Roberts.

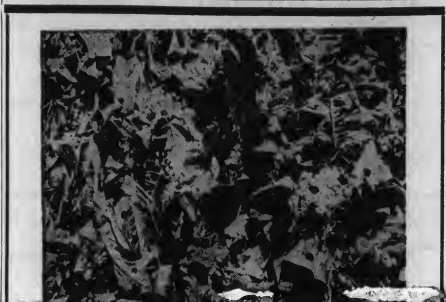

Miss Emma Jane Miller gave the devotional, and Clifford Pruett, the class president, conducted the business session.

A delightful luncheon was served by the hosts to the following: Mrs. Lilvonia Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Pruett, Rev. and Mrs. Geo. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Fooks, Mr. and Mrs. Drake, Mrs. Geo. Hamilton, Miss Dorothy Hoffman, Mrs. Downing, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carlisle, Miss Emma Jane Miller, Mrs. Viola Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Welsh and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Roberts and daughter, Clara.

The July meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hamilton on the Nicholson Highway, near Walton, and a picnic supper will be served at 7:00 p. m. Members attending are asked to prepare a covered dish.

More than 1,300 dogs in Woodford county were licensed by May 1. The outlook for a good apple crop in Perry county is said to be excellent.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Florence Methodist Church held its regular meeting at the church Tuesday, June 6. The meeting was opened with prayer by Mrs. Mortimer Moss. Mrs. Paul Chaney, president, presided over the business session. Reports were heard and Mrs. Beulah Shouse told of the interest being shown by the children in foreign and home missionary work. She also showed samples of work being done by the children. A song, "Faith of Our Fathers," by the group was followed with devotions by Mrs. Mae Bristow. Mrs. Mary Carpenter gave the program, entitled "Christianizing Our Homes," and also gave a very interesting description of her visit to Erie school at Erie, Pa. The session was presided over by Mrs. Ruby Carpenter.

The meetings in the future will be held on the first Wednesday of each month at 1:30, instead of Tuesday.

Attending were Mesdames Paul Chaney, Nannie Mitchell, Mayme Moss, Mary Carpenter, Mae Bristow, Hazel Knox, Helen Bethel, Ida Miller, Ruby Carpenter, Marie Thompson, Beulah Shouse and Lella Allen. —Pub. Chm.

CARD OF THANKS—

We take this opportunity to thank each and every one who helped in any way during the illness of Ross Kite, while at the hospital and at his home; also those who sent the beautiful cards, and Mr. Grubbs for his ambulance service.

Kenton County Boy Among Winners

Daniel Crout, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crout of Mann Road, was a state winner in the individual agricultural demonstration in the red ribbon class at the 27th annual 4-H Week program at the University of Kentucky, held last week. One hundred eighteen counties were represented, with hosts of boys and girls, who were divided about equally in number.

Ten Best Dressed Men in USA

The New York Custom Tailors Designers Club announced its selection of the ten best dressed men in the United States for 1949. They are: Secretary of State, Dean Acheson; President of the University of Pennsylvania, Harold E. Stassen; Mayor of New York City, William O'Dwyer; Actor, Fredric March; Actor, Ralph Bellamy; Commentator, Andre Baruch; Orchestra Leader, Guy Lombardo; The Ritz Brothers; Model Executive, Harry Conover; Baseball Player, Joe DiMaggio.

There is room for difference of opinion on such a subject, but there is no room for diversity of thought when the Lord selects the best dressed person for eternity.

Naturally, we are "all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags."—Isaiah 64:6. Hence all who are clothed in their own righteousness cannot be considered as being well dressed in the eyes of the Lord.

Softball

Wilmington Baptist Church won the Independence Baptist last Thursday in a softball game, 11-1, in a five-inning game. The contest was cut short due to the revival services at the Independence church. Wilmington hurried home and returned to the revival services and brought special music for the evening.

Auto Wrecks

A wreck on Taylor Mill Road last Thursday night shook up and bruised some of the young ladies of the Independence community, and sent Marjorie Justice to the hospital in a critical condition. It was reported that she fell from the car and the car turned over on her when it hit fresh gravel in trying to pass another car.

Last Friday night some young folk out of town turned their car over on the LLL Highway North of Independence. The ambulance of the Independence Volunteer Fire Department brought the occupants to the doctor. Fortunately none were seriously hurt. Due evidently to the slippery road after a shower, a second car came near ploughing into the overturned car, but skidded off the road when brakes were applied.

Mrs. Anna Stephens of Harris Pike was taken, last Thursday, to Booth Hospital in an aged and enfeebled condition.

Mrs. Charley Glass of Independence R. R. was taken to the hospital last week, but was expected to return home in three or four days.

There have been confessions of faith in the revival at the Independence Baptist Church. R. S. Singleton is bringing the old time gospel messages with power. The revival services continue through Friday night, June 16. The public is cordially invited.

The pastor is speaking Sunday morning on "Four Forgotten My's of the Gospel," and Sunday evening on "Your Influence."

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Ballinger left Monday for Arizona, after spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Ballinger.

We were glad to have Miss Helen Richardson back in Sabbath school Sunday, after being confined to her room for a couple of weeks with the mumps.

Mrs. Rev. Wheary entertained several of the women of Staffordburg church at the parsonage Wednesday with a Missionary meeting.

Remember the Brotherhood is to hold a business meeting at the church Saturday evening at 8:30 p. m. All men of the community are invited—so try to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Goebel Armstrong and son called on Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Losey and sons, Sunday evening. The Staffordburg Sunday school is planning a picnic at the Zoo, for the near future.

We were glad to see such a good number present Sunday, but several of our pupils were absent on account of being ill with mumps. We hope they will be able to be back next Sunday.

Regular church services Sunday at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. by the regular pastor, Rev. Wheary. Everybody is welcome.

A BUSY WEEK!

This was really a busy week! Harry Baker, who operates Baker Motor Co. Newport, and who has a large farm in Gallatin county, called for my last Bemis tobacco setter; about the same time, Robert Bell and Roy Elliott from Bracht and Piner Road came in after a setter—I called Lexington and they just had two left, so I sent Chick and Lawrence Robinson to Lexington after the two setters—they were back and delivered Robert and Roy theirs before dark. We have a Bemis left, if you need one, and they won't be any cheaper next year, as steel is going higher.

Someone hit a stump with Lindsay Brashear's new fertilizer drill, so I had to order some new parts for it. J. C. Reynolds and wife from over in Kenton county were in after some Plastic window shades—they sure are nice and you can wash them. Roy Kenney and Agnes were in Saturday night—Agnes bought some linoleum and Roy needed a Crescent wrench and a Case pocket knife—Case is the best pocket knife made.

Melvin Moore, who built the fine new home down on Richmond-Beaver Road, bought one of those Rec power lawn mowers—we sure sell these, or I believe they sell themselves. William Meier from Nicholson was over and bought some field fence—if you need fence, you had better buy before July, as it is going up. Thos. Guard and Mrs. Allie Hughes came up after some hay hooks and a grapple fork—these are fine to put baled hay in the loft.

Kline Menefee from Parkers Grove broke his tractor belt—all I had to do was call Cincinnati and they sent it right out. Buddy Readnour and Dude Simpson were in after 150-ft. of hay rope—they are good farmers, as well as customers. We had a Conrad reunion Sunday at Dry Ridge—there were 212 Conrads there, and you never saw so much food, fried chicken and cake, and did we eat. I have a lot of fans for the churches of this community—if you need some at your church, please stop in and get a supply—they are free!

Monday morning—and here was Omer Kite after a Ratus plover. Next was Butch Linton after more fish tackle. As the story goes, Maynard Meadows took his girl, Marjorie Carpenter, fishing Sunday—the fish was so big, it took line, pole and all—so Monday he had to buy a new fishing outfit—that is the way I heard it. John Conrad came after the best fertilizer drill I had—these drills spread that fertilizer 8 inches wide, so when you plow your tobacco, you stir the fertilizer.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Plunkett from Independence, came after some of that Armstrong linoleum—we have some beautiful patterns; also bought more window shades—they are fine people and real customers. Mr. Palmer also from Independence, drove in about 4 p. m. and wanted that last Bemis tobacco setter—we delivered it to him right then. We repaired a window screen for Jas. Falls; we cut off a window shade for Rev. A. K. Johnson; Brewster made a funnel for the top of Sam Winkle's hand tobacco setter; he also put in several fork handles for Leonard Cook; Chick delivered Delaney Johnson some wire fence and barb; also took Agnes Kenney some linoleum and screen wire.

Marvin Darlington and wife from Verona, sure are fixing up that place—always buying paint—today it was white creosote and aluminum. Sleet West came up after screen wire and 30 gallons of sheep dip. Dan Roberts said that Morsput powder I sold him for potato bugs was so powerful that you put it on one row through the garden and by the time you got back on the other row the bugs were dropping off—it is really good for potato bugs and blight.

We sold several of these Perfection hand tobacco setters today and have a lot of them left—a Perfection is the best setter made.

The Lions Club has the playground at the school grounds in fine condition—Coach Hayes has put in a lot of time, as well as a lot of other Lion members. William Breeden of the Midway Garage, with that new roller he built to roll twine with, really did the work on that playground. Chas. Steers, with his electric welder, helped put in the new backstop. These fellows all donated their time and labor. When you want anything done around Walton, all you have to do is ask—if it is a worthy cause, it will be done. The first ball game is Thursday night, so be sure and come out, and of course donate a little, for it all goes to the betterment of our town. It will help pay for street signs and the playground, which are sponsored by the Lions.

Grandma Clifton and Grandma Hodges were here and bought a horse collar, collar pads, screen wire, poultry netting and poultry fence—of course we always have a little argument, but all in fun. Well, the editor is rushing me, so I close for this week, but remember CONRAD serves, and tries to satisfy his customers.

Verona Hammers Out 9-3 Win Over Constance, Sunday

In a KAG league game at Verona, last Sunday, the Community Club defeated Constance 9-3 in the first game of second round play, behind the steady pitching of Bill Mumm. Mumm went the distance, striking out four and walking five. Baumann did the catching. In the offensive department for the winners, Baumann had 2 for 5, one blow a triple, Bowman had 3 for 5; Brown had a triple and double in five tries; Alexander collected 2 for 4, one being a three-bagger, and Miller had 2 for 3.

For Constance, Graving pitched five and two-thirds innings and allowed 10 hits, 8 runs, struck out 3, walked one, and hit one batter. He was relieved by Peeno, who finished the game and gave up one run, 3 hits, and walked one man. Gillett homered in the fifth frame to drive in all 3 Constance runs. Hogan and Peeno did the catching.

Enjoy Day at Coney

An enjoyable day was spent by several members of the Nicholson-Atwood Homemakers' Club, who chose a trip to Coney Island for their annual tour in June.

A luncheon was enjoyed in the dining room, and swimming and rides were an event of the afternoon. Those making the trip were Mesdames John R. Loomis, T. J. Bishop, Frank Cooke, Aslie Young, Clifford Cornelius, Frank Stageman, Leslie Wagner, R. C. Hinsdale, S. C. Flek, John Mayhugh, Jr., R. C. Durr, John Butler, Forest Popp, Raymond Rickson, and one guest, Mrs. Markham of Huntington, West Virginia.

A picnic is being planned by the committee for one of the summer activities.

Revivals at Big Bone and Hughes Chapel Churches

By popular request, Rev. and Mrs. Dee W. Cobb will return for a two weeks revival, which will begin on Monday, June 26 at the Big Bone Methodist Church. The revival will continue there for one week and then move up to the Hughes Chapel Methodist Church at Beaver for a second week. Rev. Cobb is an outstanding speaker and singer. Mrs. Cobb, or Betty, is a good musician and singer. Those who heard this team last year and many others will want to hear them again this year.

Also beginning Monday, June 26, and continuing each day at 1:35 p. m., will be the daily vacation bible school.

Revival services are to be held each evening at 8:15 p. m. Plan now to attend.

Rev. Valls V. Hill is pastor of these churches, which are part of the Boone County Larger Parish of The Methodist Church.

Dr. J. G. Chapman President of New University in Japan

Dr. J. Griffin Chapman, of Tokyo, Japan, and a brother of Elmer Chapman of Walton and Floyd Chapman of Verona, has been appointed as president of the newly established university, Ryukyui University, in Japan, by General MacArthur.

Doctor Chapman, who is a recognized authority on Far Eastern affairs, is described by his associates in Tokyo as one of the best informed men on the staff of the Allied Commander, and one who has been a vital part in laying the foundation of the new Japan. He was selected by General MacArthur as the American best qualified by training and experience to head this new university which is the gift of the American people to the people of Japan.

He was a missionary engaged in teaching and study in Japan from 1921-1931 and was a widely known lecturer, minister and writer in the United States before the war. He last visited Boone County in 1936.

JACK BELL

Jack Bell, retired farmer, died last Tuesday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Perkins, at Taylorsport, Ky. Mr. Bell was 70 years old and had lived in Boone County for 10 years.

Besides Mrs. Perkins, he is survived by his widow, Mrs. Winnie B. Brown Bell, Taylorsport; two sons, Claude and Cull Bell, Taylorsport; and three daughters, Mrs. Lloyd Dalton, Somerset; Mrs. Dave Barnes, Taylorsport; Mrs. Herbert Saldfield, Cincinnati; Mrs. Frank Silvers, of Springfield, Ind., and Mrs. Thomas Williams, Independence, Ky.; three brothers, Joe, Elmer and Porter Bell, all of Rowena, Ky., and three sisters Mrs. Ben Brumley, Mrs. Joe Johnson and Mrs. Nancy Malone, all of Rowena.

Services will be held at the home of Mrs. Perkins at 2 p. m. Friday. Burial will be in Constance cemetery. The Chambers and Grubbs funeral home, Florence is in charge of arrangements.

"Cutest Kiddie" To Be Sought In Walton, Saturday

On Saturday, June 24, through the courtesy of Cellini Photographers, widely known Greater Cincinnati photographers, will conduct its search for the "Cutest Kiddie" in Walton. All children from the age of six months to 10 years, who are photographed on this date, will be eligible to enter the contest. There will be no charge for sittings and each entrant will be given a complimentary 8x10 Platinum Tone photograph without any obligation whatsoever. No invitations or appointments are needed. Judging is to be done by a competent board of judges.

In addition to a beautiful engraved loving cup, the first place winner will be presented with a 11x14 hand-colored color photograph in a beautiful pine frame, and the second place winner will receive an oil colored 11x14 color photograph of equal quality.

Remember the photographers are looking for the "Cutest" local children, not merely beautiful children. The child's expression at the moment the picture is snapped may determine whether it is a prize winner. Even a pouting child can be "cute." Because a child's mood can change quickly anything can happen before the camera. That's why it's fair and fun.

The studio will be set up in the Waltonian Hotel on Saturday, June 24, from 10:00 a. m. to 8:00 p. m., so plan to arrive there early to avoid the rush.

4-H CAMP, JUNE 26-30

The Northern Kentucky District 4-H Camp will be held at the Ernest in Boone County, June 26-30, according to Bill Davis, County Agent. One hundred and twenty-five club members from six Northern Kentucky counties will attend.

All Boone Counties are invited to visit the Camp and attend the evening vespers services at 7:30 p. m. each evening.

Talent and stunt night, a program put on by the campers, will be held Wednesday evening, June 28, and the final vesper and candlelight service will be on Thursday evening June 29.

Those 4-H Club members attending from Kenton County will be: Charles Perry, Crescent Springs; Dixie Barberick, Barbara Rust, Independence; Tommy Sexton, Alfred Damon, Versailles; Donna Menefee, Eve Stephenson, David Ray Neumeister, Roy Lee Conner, Flinert; Terry Kuester, Bobby Scott, Dixie High; Patricia Bliz, John Kahman, Holy Guardian Angel; and Sammy Ishmael, Versailles Club. Mrs. Fay Powers, 4-H Club leader; Miss Zella E. Byerly, Home Demonstration Agent; and Joe Claxon, assistant County Agent will accompany the group to camp.

New Restaurant Now Open

The new Phoenix Restaurant in Walton is now open for business according to the announcement of Mrs. Schwab. The entire lower floor of the building has been redecorated and equipped to better serve the public. Mrs. Schwab also wishes to express thanks to everyone of their kindnesses during the recent months, and invites everyone to inspect the new restaurant.

Horse Show Set For July 3-4 at 4-H Fairgrounds

The second annual horse show is to be held at the Boone County 4-H and Utopia Fair grounds, Burlington, on July 3 and 4. There will be three shows—Monday evening, at 8:00 p. m.; Tuesday afternoon, at 2:00 p. m.; and Tuesday evening, at 8:00 p. m. The horse show is sponsored by the Boone County Utopia Club.

Refreshments will be served on the grounds. There will also be other concessions and commercial exhibits.

The premium list is about the same as last year and includes premiums for the western parade, musical chair, Shetland nda other ponies, three and five gaited horses, walking mares, five gaited ponies, road horses, fine harness horses, boy or girl rider, pleasure horses, saddle colts, Junior five gaited stake, roadster horses, lady rider, and pony fancy turnout.

The 4-H and Utopia Fair complex have built an additional horse barn with stall room for approximately 25 horses. There now will be three barns available for the horse show, which will adequately take care of all the steeds. Most of the stalls are boxed and have tail boards.

For information regarding the show, see John E. Cigler, advertising manager, Burlington, or the premium list which is printed on another page of this issue.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. John Tungate of Independence, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary E. Elwood Lundrum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lundrum of Dry Ridge. The wedding will take place late this summer.

courses at Scarritt College for Christian Workers, Nashville, Tenn.; special training and private teaching in speech and dramatics; pupil of Mrs. Lytle, Shakespearean actress, Miami, Fla.; special training in voice (singing), pupil of Mrs. Conner Tunstall, Kansas City, Mo.

Rev. and Mrs. Gravely have two children, John Carroll, 7½ years, and Charles Filppen, 6 years, both born in Missouri.

Rev. Gravely ordained in 1938, preached his first sermon in a Baptist Church, 1935.

Rev. Gravely is a highly spiritual man, and we feel that the community of Walton, as well as the Walton Christian Church, will be greatly benefited by their coming here. We extend a cordial invitation to every one who does not attend church else where to attend our worship services Sunday morning at 11:00 a. m. and evening services at 8:00 p. m.—Pub. Com.

Local Bible School Exercises

The Daily Vacation Bible School which has been in progress at the Walton Baptist Church will close on Friday.

Friday night exercises will be held at the church at 8 o'clock, and each department will demonstrate some of the work that they have had during the school. Handwork made by the children will be on display.

This year our enrollment was 150 with an average attendance of 150 each day. Saturday the school will go to Bethel Grove for a picnic. The transportation will be furnished and leave at 10 a. m. We sincerely thank all who have had any part in making the school a success. A cordial invitation is extended to attend all services.

Telephone Company Commends Fire Dept. And Makes Donation

Fire Chief James Allen received a letter this week from the Consolidated Telephone Company, commending the activities of the department and this is the letter that they wrote:

Dear Chief Allen:

This company has recently received a slight reduction in fire insurance rates. Realizing that such reductions are, to a large extent, dependent on the efficiency and ability of our Volunteer Fire Department we ask that you accept the enclosed check as a token of our appreciation for the services your department voluntarily renders for the protection of property in your community.

Yours very truly,
G. B. Foscoe, Jr. Mgr.

Scrap Paper Pick-up Friday

Chief Allen also stated that the paper drive will continue and that all waste paper will be picked up this Friday about 5 p. m. They request that bundles be tied and placed near the street.

FISH FRY JUNE 30

On Friday night, June 30, from 5-10 p. m., at the Ellichwood Presbyterian Church, there will be a fish fry, given by the women of the church. Both plate lunches and sandwiches will be served. Dedication of New Wing at Wm. Booth Hospital Set for Sunday

An invitation has been extended to residents of Boone County to take part in the ceremonies surrounding the dedication of The William Booth Memorial Hospital's new wing, to be held Sunday, June 25 at 2:00 p. m. in Covington.

The program, which will be held on the imposing colonial steps leading to the new wing, will be broadcast over the hospital's loud speaker. The street in front of the hospital will be roped off and lined with chairs for the hundreds of guests expected to attend. There will be inspirational addresses, music and escorted tours of the wing. Senior Major Alvena Wood, Superintendent of the hospital; Senior Major Paul Seller, Divisional Commander of The Salvation Army; R. D. Martin, Director of Public Relations and officials of the institution will head the large and impressive hospitality committee which will greet arriving guests.

The hope has been expressed that all volunteer workers in the institution's Building and Annual Maintenance Campaigns will be present.

"Agricultural Implement"

Plain talk is urgently needed today on a matter that affects the pocketbooks of all taxpayers... subsidies to commercial intercity transportation agencies that long ago outgrew the infant industry stage.

The yearly expenditures of the Federal Government alone... for aid to forms of transportation other than the railroads... now approach $1½ billion. These are your tax dollars—and ours. They help provide the highways used by huge commercial trucks, the airports and other facilities used by commercial airlines, and the waterways used by waterway carriers.

In contrast, the railroads do not receive, and do not want, one single penny of subsidy. They are self-supporting. They pay more than $1 billion a year in taxes. And their charges reflect their true costs of doing business.

We think it's time to call a spade a spade... time to point out that these subsidized carriers can destroy but not supplant the self-reliant railroads... time to urge that simple justice be done for the good of all America and all taxpayers.

SCRIPTURE: The Book of Jonah.
14:21.

Peevish Prophet

Lesson for June 25, 1950.

JONAH THOUGHT he knew better than God. When men said, "Be a prophet," Jonah decided to take a long vacation. He took a ship for a far place so far away he thought even God could not follow. When God said, "Preach to Nineveh," Jonah decided that was the very thing he did not want to do. When God said, in effect, "Be a missionary," Jonah thought he would rather be a tourist. Of all the prophets on record, Jonah was the peevish one. The remarkable and unique little book of Jonah is perhaps the most misunderstood book in the Bible. Nobody knows how much ink has been wasted on the whale (which, incidentally, was not a whale but a fish), whereas the real message of Jonah is not about whales at all. It is about taking the message of God to the most unlikely places in the world; it is the story of how the very people who ought to be doing it, sometimes won't do it.

But God Care? CONSIDER the good reasons Jonah might have given for not going to Nineveh. They are like the reasons people give nowadays for not believing in foreign missions. (A mission to Nineveh was about as foreign a mission as any one could have thought of, in those days. Reactions number one: The Ninevites were mean people. So they were. Assyria, of which Nineveh was the capital city, had done, and would do, Israel more harm than any other enemy she had. The Ninevites were an unscrupulous, greedy people. They knew no law but force. They spread by violence into many a country. They were the nation nobody loved. Should the message of God be given to such a city? Jonah thought not; God said it should. And of course, God was right. If the message of God had been sent only to peoples and nations that "deserved" such a favor, God's messengers would all have stayed at home. . . .

Too Far From God REASON number two: Nineveh is a long way off. Indeed it was. To reach Nineveh, Jonah would have to pass through at least a dozen other cities, all of which no doubt needed preachers. Were there not enough people at home who needed preaching? Of course there were. . . . Only Jonah did not preach to them. He had a wonderful missionary opportunity there on the ship. Every man of the crew was a heathen. But Jonah was fast asleep. This is often too true. People will protest about foreign missions; why send preachers and doctors and teachers and money so far away? Aren't there plenty of heathen right at home? Of course; but you won't often find the objector to foreign missions doing much about it. Any church that is awake and active in supporting foreign missions will be found to be just as alive and intelligent in meeting the problems of the neighborhood.

Judge The World REASON number three: (This sounds like a silly reason, but Jonah actually put it forward—Jonah 4:2.) God is too good! What was the use of preaching to Nineveh, Jonah wanted to know, if God was going to be gracious and not destroy the city with fire from the sky? If God is good and merciful, why should we bother about sending missionaries anywhere? Won't he save every one anyhow? Isn't God too good to judge the world? Jonah overlooked the fact that God had mercy on the Ninevites because they repented. Nowhere in the Bible is there any encouragement to believe that God has mercy on the unrepentant. To all who turn to him, God is gracious; and the job of the missionary, whatever else he does, is to persuade people to turn to God. Be ye reconciled to God," said Paul, the great Christian missionary. If rebels will not lay down their arms, how can there be an amnesty?

The great tragedy of Judaism is the tragedy of Jonah: God wanted his people to win the world; but they became so in-grown they craved even to wish to be a missionary faith. Shall the same tragedy overtake Christianity?

*THROUGH A GLASS...
DARKLY*

She's frightened. She's seeing the world for the first time through dark glasses. It's no wonder you and I are frightened. Ever since we were old enough to reason, we have been seeing the world through dark glasses. It's just as Paul said: "Now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face."

We spend our years wondering why things happen as they do . . . why hatred flourishes and love withers . . . why sorrow seems inevitable and joy so rare. Apparently, we were not meant to understand . . . not here! Some truths God has revealed to us; these our Churches teach. Other truths God will not reveal until another day; to prepare us for that day our Churches strive. Until at length we gain that complete vision, we are happiest and strongest when we live faithfully in the truth already revealed. Even with dark glasses a man can see as long as he walks toward the Light.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should port the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) Which needs his moral and spiritual support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Spitfire Engine!

Advantages of Chrysler's
Fluid Drive

Chrysler's Advantages in Comfort and Safety

Waterproof Ignition—prevents stalling in rain or high water! Lubricated Cylinder Walls—chemical protection for increased life. Floating Power—helps eliminate vibration. Superfinished Parts—reduce friction, last longer. Exhaust Valve Seal Inlets—reduce need for valve grinding! Full Flow Oil Filter—keeps oil clean!

Automatic Gear Shifting—with full control of your car! Better traction— safer on slippery roads. Convenience of clutch for easier parking. Slower Engine Speeds—reduced noise, wear. Saves gasoline! Drive in high while others drive in low in traffic.

Functional Design—full room for your head, legs, shoulders. Easy to enter and leave! Safe Guard Hydraulic Brakes—smoother stops, less pedal pressure. Cyclindrical Belts for double the wear. Electrically Operated Windshield Wipers—constant speed all the time! Clear Night Seats—no crowding, you sit naturally! Safety Rim Wheels—won't throw tires after blowouts at normal speeds.

It's got more Come-on...

Chrysler first introduced high-compression power! Chrysler still leads the parade in all that high-compression power can do for you! Come let Chrysler's Spitfire High-Compression Engine show you the difference! In traffic it's flexible and speedy! With plenty of power for the toughest hill! With a combination of advantages no other engine can offer . . . from automatic gear-shifting that gives you full control . . . to waterproof ignition that prevents stalling in rain or high water! But . . .

Chrysler power is only one of the built-in values all the way through the car! Come see beauty that has no equal for "come-on"! Drive! Compare! Relax! And we're sure you'll buy Chrysler from now on!

A sweet surprise for thumbable nimble fingers is a cotton coat, sheer voile if you wish, made in the image of a cardigan, buttoned all the way down the front, worn as a coat for summer evenings, or belted into a dress for day.

For charm's sake, beware the too brief, too snug swim suit. Bulges on even the slim figure suggest overweight, while a gently fitting suit on the larger figure detracts from size.

Girl Scouts Hike

Last Wednesday, Mrs. Carl Moon took 16 of the Intermediate and Senior girl Scouts on a hike and outing down Shaw Road to the creek, where they went swimming. In the evening they returned, stopping at the home of Foster Reed, Shaw Road, where each girl cooked her own hamburger supper on a buddy-burner, which is a home-made affair—one tin can is stuffed with newspaper and wax and lighted, then another larger tin can, with holes in the sides, is placed over the burning can, on which the hamburger is fried.

Mrs. Moon says that she is willing and desirous of helping organize troops in other communities. Telephone Independence 5025W for an interview with her.

Church Softball League

The Church Softball League played last Thursday at 6:00 p. m. on the Simon Kenton grounds. The Valsala Baptist won over the Independence Baptist 2-0, and the Independence Christians scored a 9-3 win over the Wilmington Baptists. Games between these churches are being played each Thursday evening at the same hour.

Real Estate Transfers

William B. Barnes purchased lot 23, block E, in Forest Hills Subdivision from the Newport Finance Corporation.

Dee S. and Wanda Gadd purchased 11.41 acres on old Decoursey Road from Leonard L. and Edna M. Houston. Mr. and Mrs. Gadd are going to build a new home here, near Decoursey.

Robert F. and Isabell Schmall purchased 4 acres on Riggs Road from Lela and Ada Martin.

Roy E. and Nina Tomlin purchased 135 acres adjacent to Independence from Allie and Marian E. Allnut.

Married Here

Richard W. Nielsen and Karen A. Schuyler of North Judson, Indiana, motored to Independence and were married in the Independence Baptist parsonage by W. E. Maners, pastor of the Baptist Church. The groom was a Lutheran and the bride a Methodist. They plan to get busy farming near North Judson.

Which Version?

A group of men were once asked which version of the Bible they liked best. One liked one version and another a different one. There was no agreement. Finally, one man said, "I like my Mother's translation best." The men laughed, saying, "Why your mother never translated the Bible. She is illiterate and couldn't do so if she wanted to." The man tearfully said, "Oh, yes she did, and I like it best. She translated it into everyday living. I could read and understand her version."

He won! The others were shamefully silenced.

Marriage Licenses

A marriage license was issued last week at Independence to William Gale Hightower of Walton, and Kathryn Ann Carmichael of Morning View.

Paul Bass and Laverne Adams of Covington, Rural Route, obtained a marriage license here last week. Miss Adams is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abilash Adams of Sandfortown.

Gardening

The Agricultural office in Independence reminds the gardeners and farmers that the last week in June or the first week in July is the time to plant late potatoes.

Fruit Growers Meeting

The Tri-County Fruit growers meeting is to be held at 2 p. m., June 22 at the farm of John P. Westernman near Crescent Springs.

4-H Club Camp

The Northern Kentucky 4-H Camp will be in session at Camp Ernst, near Burlington, June 26-30. Kenton county will be represented, along with Boone, Campbell, Grant, Pendleton, Owen and Gallatin.

Bible Schools

Oak Island Baptist Church closed their Daily Vacation Bible school with a commencement exercise last Friday night.

Oak Ridge Baptist Church closed their two-week Vacation Bible school last Friday night with an average attendance of pupils and workers of 102.

The Kenton Baptist Church closed their Bible school June 9 with 53 pupils and workers.

The above schools did their own work—that is, they had no paid state worker to help them.

The New Banklick Baptist Church closed their Bible school, in connection with an eight-day revival meeting, with a state paid worker, with an average of 57 workers and pupils. The visible results of the revival, with Brother Phillips preaching, were seven coming by baptism and one by letter. Five of these were baptized last Sunday night.

Personal

Elzie Baker, formerly of the Banklick neighborhood, fell on the sidewalk in Covington last Saturday, when all seemed to black out before him. He is better and up and around at his affairs near Mt. Zion.

An uncle of Rev. Simeon Webster, Wood Blackburn, now living near Dry Ridge, also had a black-out experience last week but there have been no apparent serious results.

Robert Points of Harris Pike, 28, turned home last Friday from the hospital in Ft. Thomas and is reported feeling better, but is still under the doctor's care.

McKinley Hand of the LLL, adjacent to Independence, went to the hospital last Tuesday. He was spending a few days for rest and a build-up for an operation set for Monday morning, June 19.

Ambulance Call

The ambulance of the Independence Volunteer Fire Department was called last Friday night to a wreck on the LLL near Margie's Place. A car headed South had run over an embankment and turned up side down. One of the occupants received a cut on the ear and was taken to the hospital.

Baptist Revival

The revival at the Independence Baptist Church closed last Friday night in a successful effort, with 10 additions, all adults. Seven came on profession of faith and three by letter and relation. The baptismal service will be Sunday night, June 25 at 7:45.

A special service will be held next Sunday morning with the boys and girls occupying reserve seats in the auditorium, with the adults present.

Rain... Rain

This was another busy week—bugs eating up the potatoes; bean beetles going strong; worms eating the grapes; farmers trying to put up hay, and it raining every day—but Walton, Ky., is still the best place to live—don't you think so?

Dan Carpenter sent up after one of those Perfection hand tobacco setters—we have a few left. Mrs. Theo. Carpenter was in after one of those Dixie's Armstrong linoleum rugs and some of that Bolco enamel—she is fixing up her kitchen. We just received a shipment of 9 ft. wide Armstrong linoleum—what beautiful patterns, and that high gloss finish.

Sheba Wilson was in Saturday and reminded me of what she bought last week that I could not think of, and it was one of those drop-in electric water heaters—they are very handy and quick to use—they will heat a 10-qt. bucket full of water hot in 15 minutes. Fred Schilds and wife from Verona, Mud Lick road, came after a water cool cream separator—these are alright and easy to clean. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Merrill, also from Verona—Mud Lick road, took home some of these steel lawn chairs—we sure sell a lot of these, and they are cheap!

Ray just delivered Jeanette Madden and Mrs. Tom Hamilton enough Armstrong linoleum for their kitchens. We also covered Webster's television shop with that Armstrong linoleum. Raymond Dickey, who bought a house from Mrs. Brittenheim on South Main St., just bought enough pipe and fittings to put in city water—we carry a large stock of water pipe and fittings, and also have an electric pipe threading machine.

Drop Worthington, who bought out John Meador's grocery, is improving the place with that Bolco paint—it sure does shine. That Meadows boy, the fisherman, his Mom, Pop and his girl friend, Marjorie, went to Indiana fishing—but no fish—I sold him two rods and reels for this trip, and I know he had the right kind of tackle, but still no fish.

That grass is growing, with all this rain, and we are selling lawn mowers—two or three a day. A fellow came in after a half sweeney horse collar—said he had looked everywhere, but we had just what he wanted. Another fellow wanted a pair of 8-ft. trace chains—we had those too. J. C. Benton wanted a bull controller to put on a bed bull so he can't see you when you go near him—it also keeps them from tearing down fences.

Lee Plunkett bought a new Arvin radio, and C. A. Coyle bought an Emerson portable radio—we sell a lot of small radios every year. Steve Wren from down Jackson Landing way, came up and bought his wife a Perfection gas range, a very nice surprise gift, I'd say. Omar Kite was here again for some PTZ worm omelets for his sheep—Omar says he never had any luck with sheep until he started using PTZ worm omelets. Mrs. Stewart from over Hebron way, who comes over after hardware items, bought a garden plow and window shades. We have customers from all directions.

J. B. Helzer called in for some fence—it's going higher, so if you need any, buy it before July 1. All steel and lead products are going up. Kline Menefee and Frank Knight from Parkers Grove, were here after wiring material, pulleys and belts—Kline is going to run his cream separator with electricity and save all that turning. E. J. Coyle from Verona, was here after sections for a Ferguson mower—we have those in stock now.

Lillian Powell bought some of that Bolco interior glass to paint her kitchen. Edna Combs called and said her oil cook stove was leaking, and Brewster soon stopped that—he sure is a handy man and yet still single. A salesman told me there were $8 million dollars spent last year in the State of Kentucky for fishing tackle and equipment—it must be a great sport—I don't have time to go, but I have lots of customers who really enjoy it and take time to go. I buy reels and rods by the dozens and sinkers and hooks by the cartons, but I am out before I know it—minnow seines and buckets are fast sellers, because we sell them cheap. I had a fellow come in and said he was going fishing but he wanted a .22 rifle—now you and I know fish don't crawl around on tree limbs with hair on them and a bushy tail.

We have all kinds of sportsmen, some like to look in the water and others sit in the woods and look up a tree. Chas. Wright from Banklick, came up after a saddle and bridle for his granddaughter's pony. Grandpa takes care of the kids. Uncle Bob Salmons, Chas. King and his father, and Robt. Behrmer, all from Zion Station neighborhood, were here shopping Tuesday—they bought mower repairs, harness repairs and fly spray for dairy cows—I sure have a fine lot of customers from Grant, Gallatin, and Kenton counties, as well as Boone.

R. C. Durr, contractor from Nicholson, was over after tools and pipe fittings. L. H. Thomas bought a 1/2-inch size electric drill—this is a tool every farmer needs, with all the machinery to repair, and they only cost $34.95. Since all the electricity in our community, you can save a lot of time and labor by using electric tools and motors. We have a very good supply—when you are in need, come to CONRAD'S.

Bicycle Race to Be Feature At Utopia Club Horse Show

A new feature to the Boone County Utopia Club Horse Show will be a bicycle race, sponsored by Carl Foltz of Dudley Pike. Seven trophies have also been added to the list of prizes and will be donated in addition to the regular prizes offered by the club.

The horse show will be held Monday night, July 3, and Tuesday afternoon and evening, July 4. The evening shows are scheduled for 8 p. m. and the afternoon show at 2 p. m., at the Boone County 4-H and Utopia Fair Grounds, Burlington.

An exceptionally fine interest has been shown by horsemen, sponsors and the general public in this event. There will be no entry fee, and only a very minor stall charge and this will include one bale of straw.

The main events at the show are to include a Western Parade, Musical Chair, Shetland Ponies and other ponies, Three and Five Gaited Horses, Walking Horses, Road Horses, Fine Harness Horses, Boy and Girl Riders, Pleasure Horses, Saddle Colts, Junior Stake, and Single or Double Pony Fancy Turnout. The prizes are very liberal and it is believed that there will be a larger group of horses than last year.

It is hoped to make this second annual horse show a yearly event. You are urged to be present and help the Utopians make the show a success.

For premium list or additional information, see John E. Crighter, Advertising Manager, Burlington.

Kenton Utopians Discuss 4-H Fair Plans at Meeting

The Kenton Utopia Club met June 22 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jackson near Kenton Station. The president, Herb Works, was in charge of the meeting. During the meeting the Kenton County 4-H Fair which will be held August 16 at the Simon Kenton High School, was discussed and how the club would be able to help with the fair.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hlatt, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fennell, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Works, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Blau, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cummins, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Klein, Mr. and Mrs. John Carlisle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Call and Mrs. Hugh Kloentrup. Everyone enjoyed the social hour and the refreshments.

The July meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Klein. The subject for the next meet will be, "Financing a Farm."

Hagedorns On Vacation

William Hagedorn and family will close their business on the Dixie Highway, Erlanger, for one week, starting next Monday, and all will take a vacation. Bill tells us that he is headed for Canada and lots of fishing.

Missionary Society to Meet

The Missionary society of the Walton Christian Church will meet on Thursday, July 6 in the church basement for the regular meeting. A covered dish dinner will be served at noon. Mrs. Marian Marsh will be the program leader.

Armstrong Reunion Held

The Armstrong family reunion was held on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mosier, Walton-Nicholson Road, Sunday.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Ballinger, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fisk, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mosier, Mrs. Mabel Johnson, Stanley Armstrong, Mrs. Doris Riddle, Howard Noel, Nellie and Janet Fisk, Betty and Loretta Johnson, Robert and Carl Armstrong, Peggy Popp and Joyce Ann, Mary Earl and David Mosier.

Independence Homemakers

The Independence Homemakers held their June meeting in the home of Mrs. Logan Wayman. Mrs. C. W. Carter opened the meeting, and Mrs. William House gave the garden lesson on "Spraying." Mrs. Charles Davis gave a reading, "So You Don't Like Your Work." Mrs. C. W. Carter gave a report on the advisory council meeting. A wonderful lunch was enjoyed at noon.

Mrs. C. W. Carter presided over the business session, which consisted of election of officers.

Members present were Mesdames F. Armstrong, Chas. Davis, C. W. Carter, Logan Wayman, J. C. Kanatzar, H. F. Pelley, Wm. House, C. S. Snelson, C. W. Perry, and Miss Carrie Pelley and Logan Wayman.

Ryan and Steffen Hurl 1-Hitter As Verona Wins 4-3

Mike Ryan and Elmo Steffen teamed up Sunday at Verona to allow the Highway Merchants only one hit, allowing Verona to win 4-3. The lone blow was a mighty home run off Ryan by Highway pitcher Baute, which came with two mates abroad. A hit batsman, an error and the homer accounted for the 3-run damage by the losers. Steffen hurled five innings, and two hurlers faced only 33 hitters.

Baute went the distance for the Merchants. He gave up 12 hits, good for 4 runs, and struck out two. Schulte was his reliever.

Ryan allowed 1 hit, 3 runs, struck out 3, walked one, hit one man, in four and two-thirds innings. Steffen pitched four and one-third innings and allowed no hits, no runs, walked none, and struck out 9.

Brown had 3-for-3, he scored two runs and drove in one. Mumm at first base had 2-for-3, one blow being a double, and scored a run, as well as driving in one man. Robinson had 2-for-3 and drove in one run. Cheek Ryan had 2-for-4 and chased home one run.

Steffen was the winning hurler.

New York Tech, Sunday

New York Tech, a colored team, who holds a win over Verona, after this season, will be the attraction at the Community Club park, Sunday, July 2 at 2:30 p. m. This is a good team and a well-played game is expected.

Willing Workers Entertained

The Willing Workers class of the Walton Christian Church was entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton-Jones and family, for the June meeting. After a beautiful covered dish dinner and social hour, the meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Wendell Rouse. Rev. Gravely had charge of the devotional, which was enjoyed by all.

Those present were Rev. and Mrs. Carroll Gravely and sons, Charles and John, Mr. and Mrs. D. Hess Vest, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hall, Mr. and Mrs. James Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. John Meador, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell W. Rouse, Mr. and Mrs. Gayle McElroy, Mrs. Wallace Grubbs, Miss Mary Bernal, Don Childers, Buddy Rouse, C. W. Ramsler, and Marilyn Colston.

Bakery Sale Saturday

The Ladies' Aid society of the Walton Christian Church will have a bake sale at the Community Public Service office on Saturday, July 1st, beginning at 10:00 a. m. Anyone who wants to place an order for cake or chicken, call Irene Bush, Walton 47.

Miss Cordelia Leathers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Webster of Verona, Ky., became the bride of Mr. William Howard Thie, son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Thie, of Hanley road, Cincinnati, Ohio, in a colorful double ring service held Saturday evening at the Westwood Methodist Church. Rev. J. Carlton Babbis officiated before an altar adorned with vases of all white summer flowers and a numerous lighted candles in branched candelabra. The musical portion of the ceremony was provided by Mrs. Ruth Weber Shafer, church organist, and Miss Irma Suhr, vocalist, an aunt of the groom.

The bride attendants' sheer gowns, as well as her own, were fashioned by the bride. Patterned alike in rainbow tints, they had molded bodices with low necklines framed with ruffles and their many tiered skirts were worn over hoops. Their picture hats of matching tones were styled by the bride's sister, Mrs. Charles Long, a member of the wedding party. The other attendants were another sister of the bride, Mrs. Arthur Doggett, as matron of honor; Miss Janet Thie, the groom's sister; Mrs. Robert Mauler, Miss Barbara Hotfelter and Miss Madeleine Coleman. The old fashioned bouquets of spring flowers were tied with multi-hued ribbons similar to the colors of their gowns.

Mr. Paul L. Thie was his brother's best man. The ushers were Mr. Ronald Thie, another brother of the groom; Mr. Robert Mauler, Mr. Larry Cappel, Mr. Edward Seibert and Mr. Edward Arnult.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Thomas Leathers, chose for her wedding gown white brocaded satin with a net yoke, and scalloped off-the-shoulder neckline. Net attached to a front panel of the skirt formed a train at the back. Completing her stunning ensemble was a fingertip illusion veil held to her head by a tiara of orange blossoms, and a bouquet of stephanotis, white rosebuds and sprays of ivy.

A reception followed the ceremony at Cloverbrook Country Club, while the bride proved herself an artist in styling the gowns of the bridal party, the groom, cake decorator at the Virginia Bakery, where he is associated with his father, displayed his talents in transforming in confections on the massive wedding cake, a replica of the altar of Westwood Methodist Church, the bride attendants in their colorful gowns, the bride, groom and minister and the wedding party leaving the church.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Webster wore a two piece blue costume with corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother chose a dusty rose crepe with lace top and shoulder bouquets of gardenias.

The bride, graduated from Good Samaritan Hospital School of Nursing, is a member of the Hospital's nursing staff. After a tour through Florida, the couple will reside at 3119 Glendora Ave., Cincinnati.

At Langley Field, Virginia

Colonel John C. Pitchford, USAF, Commanding Officer of the Air Force Reserve Officers Training Camp, Langley Air Force Base, Va., announces that Cadet Billy Ray Wynn, High Street, Walton, has been appointed Cadet Officer of the Guard. Cadet Wynn is a student at Western State College at Bowling Green, Ky., where he is a candidate for a B. A. degree.

It is considered quite an honor for a student to be selected for the above appointment.

Pretty Home Wedding Solemnized Here On Tuesday, June 20

Miss Norma Jean Easton and Mr. Lewis Deane Kiparth were united in marriage by Rev. Burton Garrett, pastor of the Walton Baptist Church, the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. M. Wasson of Walton, on the afternoon of June 20.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Easton of Blanchester, Ohio, and a graduate of Simon Kenton High School.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis Kiparth of Blanchester, Ohio and a graduate of the Wilmington (Ohio) Teachers' College, with a bachelor degree in science.

With Mrs. Bryan Rector at the piano, Miss Irma Rector sang, "Oh, Promise Me," and Mrs. Gloria Pennington and Mrs. Celia Garrett sang "With This Ring I Thee Wed," after which was the wedding march.

Miss Easton was lovely in white satin and lace with a two-tiered fingertip veil of illusion. She carried white roses around a white orchid center with shower ribbons.

Miss Jo Ann Leonard, Blanchester, as maid of honor, wore blue taffeta with milts and headress to match and carried yellow roses with shower ribbons. Miss Nina Joyce Easton, sister of the bride, was bride's maid wearing yellow taffeta with milts and headress to match and carrying American Beauty roses with ribbons.

Mr. Eugene Weng of Wilmington, Ohio, was best man, and Mr. Morris Carter of Blanchester, usher.

The home was decorated with white hydrangea, white gladioli, brides lilies and white candles and silver bells.

The wedding reception followed the ceremony and immediately after Mr. Kiparth and his bride left for wedding trip through the Smoky Mountains and to Birmingham, Ala. and points South.

They will make their home near Blanchester, Ohio.

EVANGELISTIC SINGER

Rev. Phil Townley is the song leader, who with Rev. Ed Grant, are assisting the pastor of the Walton Methodist Church in a revival. The meeting will continue through this week and next.

The pastor says, "This meeting is for the good of everyone living in the community and the surrounding country. Come and receive the blessing that Christ has for you."

Spence Announces Candidacy For U. S. Representative

In announcing his candidacy for U. S. Representative, Brent Spence makes the following statement:

"I announce my candidacy for nomination in the primary election on August 5 as Representative from the Fifth District of Kentucky in the Congress of the United States.

"Because of my continuous service in the House of Representatives, I have attained a position that makes my representation of the people very much more effective than it would otherwise be. There are only sixteen Committees in the House of Representatives, and I am Chairman of the Banking and Currency Committee, one of the most powerful and busiest in the Congress.

It would be absolutely impossible for me to state in a short announcement all the great constructive and remedial legislative measures covering a wide field of important subjects that have been reported by the Banking and Currency Committee and enacted into law by the Congress.

We reported the housing bills which have given an opportunity to many citizens to build or purchase homes which they otherwise could not have obtained. We created the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation which insures the deposits of each depositor in the banks up to $5000 and has given a greater stability to and confidence in our banking institutions. We created the Commodity Credit Corporation, the Federal agency which has made it possible to provide support prices and adequate grading for tobacco and to enable the Burley Growers Cooperative Association to purchase it as agent of the Commodity Credit Corporation. This is one of our most important measures to all the country, recognizing the fact that steady employment of labor, the stability of business, and a balanced economy all depend on the prosperity of the farmer and that he must be able to dispose of his crops at a fair price to keep labor employed and business maintained on a high level.

"As a member of Congress and Chairman of my Committee, my experience and knowledge of the problems of the people are qualifications which can and will be used in the future as in the past for the benefit of our citizens.

"The following statement appeared in an article in the Kentucky Post on June 17, 1950:

"Congressman Spence is responsible largely for the Greater Cincinnati Airport for numerous post office buildings, for flood walls and for the Ft. Thomas Veterans Hospital. As chairman of the House Banking Committee, Mr. Spence has been a strong force for housing legislation. Thousands throughout the country and several hundred in our own area have homes to shelter them because of his work."

"My duties in the Congress have demanded by constant presence and I have not been able to return home as often as I wished. However, before the Primary I expect to return and give an accounting of my stewardship and discuss the issues of the campaign.

"I am deeply grateful to the people of the Fifth District for the confidence they have reposed in me and for their kindness to me through the years. If I am elected to Congress, I shall devote my constant energy and ability to meriting your trust and to furthering the best interests and the happiness and prosperity of all our people."

Celebrates 17th Birthday

Mrs. Edith Black and daughter, Mary K., entertained last Sunday in honor of the 17th birthday of Chas. R. Sparks of Verona.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sparks, abrynn, Alene, Charles R., Dorothy and Louise Sparks, all of Verona; Mr. and Mrs. George R. Sparks and Denny of Erlanger; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Sparks and Charles, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Stephenson, Mrs. Marion Stephenson, Mrs. Ann Dudgeon, Mr. and Mrs. Omer Dudgeon of Walton; Jimmie Brewer of Covington; and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Miskell and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Robinson. The birthday cake was made by Mrs. Omer Dudgeon. All left wishing "Peter" many more happy birthdays.

KENTUCKIANS IN WASHINGTON
by Gil Kingebury

The Supreme Court has quit for the summer and Washington is talking about the good job turned in by Chief Justice Fred Vinson of Kentucky.

As you know, when Judge Vinson was elevated to the high court, it was unofficially reported that he was supposed to play the role of a peacemaker in getting several of the feuding justices to bury the hatchet—and not in each others' head!

Well, the term that has just closed saw none of the bitter battles and hot words destroying the dignity of the court. And to the famed Kentuckian goes most of the credit.

Concrete evidence of his success was offered on the last day of the session when several important decisions were handed down without a dissenting vote.

Trovels:
Bruce Cotton, from Dry Ridge, in Grant county, was on his way to Switzerland. He told us he was interested in the dairy industry in that fiercely independent mountain land. He also wants to study the work of the Swiss co-operatives.

Marna Perry, from Westport, in Oldham county, will visit France and study rural life in that land of ancient culture and tradition.

The two young folks, along with several others are looking forward to next November. They all plan to meet in Paris for a whirl at that great capital before returning home to class work at U. K.

A Clear Voice:
The other day a newsman asked Kentucky's junior Senator, Garrett Withers, for his views on this current wave of Communist name calling. And here is what he said:
"I have no earthly use for Communists. And when a man charges another with being a Communist, he is making a most serious charge. It shouldn't be done lightly. And if it is to be accepted, it should be founded on fact and not hearsay or some other type of flimsy evidence."

The Senator continued: "There is altogether too much loose talk along this line, even in the Senate chamber. We should be sure of our ground, certain of our facts, before damning a man's character, his reputation and name."

Navy vs. Kentucky:
Coach Bear Bryant of the U. K. Wildcats was in Washington the other day talking over this year's prospects with A. M. Edwards of Boone County, president of the Alumni Club here in the capital.

This year, the coach said, will be the last year Kentucky will have any easy spots on its schedule. He has coming up within the next few years such clubs as Texas, Texas Christian and Texas A. and M. All like the aerial circus ball game which thrills spectators.

The Papa Wildcat would also like to get a game with Annapolis. "We'll play Navy," he said, "anywhere and anytime."

RECOMMENDS THREE VEGETABLES DAILY
Make the most of the egardent-fresh vegetables which are now at their prime by including at least three in every day's menu, says Mrs. Pearl Haak, specialist in foods at the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky. Included should be one green or yellow vegetable, another one to be eaten raw, and potatoes or other vegetable.

Mrs. Haak emphasizes that vegetables should be cooked only until tender. Over-cooking destroys vitamins and flavor. Vegetables cooked before peeling, after thorough scrubbing, retain more food value. Seasonings should be added just before serving.

Cook strongly flavored vegetables such as cabbage, cauliflower and onions in an open kettle.

BUSINESS OUTLOOK
GOOD SAYS UK DEAN

The nation's immediate business outlook is bright, Dr. C. C. Carpenter, dean of the University of Kentucky College of Commerce, said last week in an address before an audience of bankers attending the third annual Kentucky School of Banking at Lexington. Present conditions which lessen the hazards of severe future depressions, he said, are more efficient credit controls, more caution in business itself, a government policy committed to stabilizing employment, and slowly accumulating eligibility for benefits under Social Security.

FREE MUSIC CLINICS TO BE OFFERED BY UK

Two music clinics, one for string orchestras and ensembles and one for bands, will be held this summer at the University of Kentucky for the benefit of Kentucky high school musicians and their teachers. The string clinic, scheduled for July 24-28, will be under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Greene of the University of Michigan. Bernard Fitzgerald of the University of Texas will conduct the band clinic, set for July 31 to August 4. There will be no charge for either clinic and the University will provide housing for students and teachers free of charge. The programs are sponsored by the U.K. Department of Music.

There will be an all day meeting at the South Fork Christian Church on July 2nd. At 2:30 there will be an afternoon sing, with special numbers from Seminary students and different churches. A basket dinner starts at 12:30. Everyone is welcome. Come and bring a well filled basket.

A revival is being held at the old Bethel Baptist Church, Verona. The revival started June 26 and will continue through July 15. Services at 8:00 each night. M. Lawson will do the preaching and Bro. Joe Johnson will play the organ. Come, worship and help these ministers win souls for Christ.

Mrs. Eliza Scudder was the weekend guest of her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Scudder and family.

It is estimated that last year's record of 600 acres planted on the contour in Rowan county will be exceeded this year.

If you ask "Nick Carter, Master Detective," who this lovely young woman is, the sleuth of the WLW-MBS crime dramatizations at 8:30 p.m., EST, Sundays, would tell you it's Hillary Hall, an actress frequently heard on the series.

IMPROVED CABINETS EASE KITCHEN WORK

When the homemakers of Henry county studied kitchen storage, Mrs. Reuben Yount of the Pleasureville community realized how much easier her work would be if she had well-planned cabinets. Thereupon, she set about to make them. Using plywood, she made large base cabinets on either side of the sink with storage space above. Drawers were partitioned for silver, and shelves planned to care for certain dishes and equipment. Still another cabinet was planned as a baking unit, equipped with tilting flour bin and pull-out biscuit board.

Mrs. Yount next made cabinets in the home of her mother-in-law, this time building them the depth of a chimney. They provided storage space at the same time they improved the appearance of the room.

Sara Berner will use her natural voice for the first time on the air when she stars in a comedy-detective show, "Sara's Private Capers," new Thursday night segment of WLW-NBC's "The Big Parade" series at 10:30 p.m., EST.

This done, Mrs. Yount took her tool kit to the newly added kitchen of her local church. There she built storage cabinets to take care of the dishes.

Mother of five children and president of the Bethlehem Homemakers Club, Mrs. Yount says she early learned to use hammer and nails, as her father and brother were carpenters. Two years ago she drew the plans for their six-room farm house, then helped her husband build it. Hanging wallpaper and finishing floors and woodwork were her job, too. Latest projects were the wiring of kerosene lamps and the making of slipcovers for a davenport and chair.

Spraying with Toxiphene and Chlorane in May was effective in destroying army worms on several hundred farms in Fulton county.

C. D. Benson,

CLERK, BOONE COUNTY COURT

Takes it easy all the time!

Frictionless Fluid Drive Transmission consists of three compact units... a fluid Drive, the Safety Clutch and Frictionless Transmission. Each unit is designed with a minimum of moving parts, and each unit is ruggedly built to give trouble-free service for the lifetime of the car.

Make no mistake! Although most cars use the Fluid Drive principle that Chrysler first introduced 12 years ago—there's an all-important difference in automatic gear shifting today! Chrysler and only Chrysler gives you full control of your car. While others shift you up and down—even when you don't want to shift—Chrysler's simple, cool-running transmission takes its orders from you. Even at 12 miles an hour, in slow moving traffic, you're in high while others shift down to lower gears. How much quieter your engine runs! How much more smoothly! What a difference in high-gear economy! Come see what Fluid Drive does for you! Examine Chrysler workmanship... compare the quality of materials... discover the benefits of Chrysler engineering! You'll find built-in value all the way through that has no equal! Extra money's worth, we're sure, that will make you a Chrysler buyer for life!

THE NEW YORKER 4-DOOR SEDAN

See it—drive it... there's built-in value all the way through!

Advantages of Chrysler's Fluid Drive

Automatic Gear Shifting—with full control of your car! Better traction—safer on slippery roads. Convenience of clutch for easier parking. Slower Engine Speeds—reduced noise, wear. Saves gasoline! Drive in high while others drive in low in traffic.

Lesson for July 2, 1950

A GROCER in Minneapolis received a letter from a former customer who had left the city owing a large grocery bill. "I have been converted in a revival here," the letter said, "and I want to make every thing right in my life that has been wrong. Enclosed there was a certified check for the old bill. The grocer wired back: 'Who was the evangelist who converted you? We need him in Minneapolis.'"

Dr. Foreman

Conversion is God's operation on the heart. No one can actually see the heart, but if the operation is successful, the symptoms of disease will disappear and the symptoms of health can be seen by any one. The patient is a new man.

Black

PERHAPS the most notable case of conversion in the Bible, aside from the Apostle Paul, is the man named Jacob. His life is a study in black and white; up to a certain point hardly anything good could be said of him, but after that point he can hardly be accused of anything bad.

All his younger days he was principally noted for giving trouble to other people and "doing them out of" something he wanted for himself. First he tricked his older brother into selling him the family birthright for the ridiculous price of a bowl of soup (pottage). You would not think any one would sell his birthright; but Jacob caught Esau when he was dog hungry. . . . Then we see him outsmarting his brother again by birthright; Jacob was by that time a shameless liar and thief. He became so hot for him at home that he had to leave town.

We have a glimpse of him on his journey, dreaming about a ladder to heaven. Evidently his conscience did not trouble him. Indeed, he proceeds to bargain even with God; if God will prosper him, he says, he will see that God gets ten per cent. God did indeed prosper him; but he grew no better for it.

The rest of his life, for the next twenty years, is one piece of trickery after another, he and his uncle Laban taking turns trying to outsmart each other, with Jacob usually coming out ahead.

Jacob White

THINGS came to a climax on the night when Jacob, fearing death at Esau's hands, arranged his family to go ahead of him, keeping himself in the safest place in the rear . . . and there at last he came face to face with God. The story of his all-night struggle at the brook Jabbok is a strange one; but one thing is certain. After that night even his name was changed, for the man himself was a new man.

He is patient in trouble, no longer resentful. He is not only a good man himself, he does his best to help others. He conducts what can only be called a family revival; he persuades one and all to give up the idols they had been worshipping and turn to the one true God. He offers sacrifices, like his fathers before him.

He goes down into Egypt at last, a humble man, no longer the conceited young crook he had been when he went to Padan-Aram. He depends now on God and not on himself.

The God of Jacob

A FAMILIAR Psalm carries this refrain: "The God of Jacob is our refuge." Why the God of Jacob, not Abraham nor Isaac? Well, if it were only the God of Abraham, most of us might as well give up. For Abraham was a great genius, a man such as appears scarcely once in a century. Or if he were the God of Isaac only, we would be led to think of him as caring especially for the weak-minded, the lame and the lazy. But Jacob—just a plain man full of meanness? Yes; the same God who changed him can change the meanness of us.

The real test of religion is not what support it can give to noble souls, or what comfort it gives to the weak. The real test of religion is: Can God turn black into white? Can God take an ordinary, conceited, slippery customer and make a good man of him? The God of Jacob can do this; and he is the God most of us need.

Centuries ago man invented gunpowder. Then he learned how to use that gunpowder to create beauty!

And so, on the Fourth of July we celebrate Independence with fireworks.

Our own generation has unleashed the stupendous power of the atom. Will we be so busy building bigger and more destructive bombs that it will take us centuries to learn how to use that atomic power to create beauty?

Our Independence will never be complete until all of our implements of war can safely be turned into instruments to create beauty. And the only course of life which has ever given promise of such a day is the Christian religion our churches teach.

America led the world to Democracy. America can lead the world to Christ!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy, nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) children's souls. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and financial support. (4) Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

On The Target

A race for the love of a certain man had ended in victory for the prettier of two women. She had concentrated on physical charm while the other, realizing that she was no match in that department, had had to rely on her superior education.

"The successful girl was showing her defeated rival the tricks that had won the man for her. She revealed all her little secrets in make-up and then showed the other the hair-do she had devised.

"See?" she said, "I start off by parting my hair exactly in the middle."

"Uh-huh," mused the other, "in dead center, eh?"

Always The Cavalier

The old ferry-boat man gazed at the darkening skies apprehensive.

"I think I'll be able to take you across," he told the tourist, "but I'll have to get this cow over first."

"Why must I wait for you to take the cow first?" the man demanded.

"Ladies first," said the old man.

One On The Judge

A cook was accused of breaking into a house and stealing a valuable vase. His lawyer, in presenting his side of the case to the judge, contended that the cook didn't break into the house.

"He didn't enter the house at all, Your Honor," he explained. "He stood on the doorstep, put his foot through the open door, hooked it around the vase and pulled it out through the door. Because only his leg actually entered the house I believe that his leg alone should be punished for the crime."

"Since you figure that way," smiled the judge, "I will sentence the leg to one year in prison. It is up to the man to follow along if he chooses."

"But he doesn't," said the lawyer, as he hastened to help the cook remove his wooden leg.

Puzzling

Old Lady—"Mrs. Mowrer says she has never been sick a day in her life."

Another one—"What in the world does she talk about, then?"

Outnumbered

Plaintiff—"I have four men here who are prepared to testify that they saw the defendant steal two overcoats from in front of my shop."

Defendant—"And I, Your Honor, have twelve men who are ready to swear that they never saw me take them."

Judge—"Case dismissed. I am forced to take the testimony of twelve men against that of only four."

MUST ELECT CONSTABLE

Boone county should hold an election for the office of constable this year, to fill a vacancy, it has been ruled by John B. Browning, assistant attorney general, Frankfort.

In answer to a query from Boone County Judge C. L. Cropper, Mr. Browning gave an opinion that the post should be filled by appointment by the judge until the election.

It was cited that ordinarily a constable or local officer could not be elected this year because this is a federal election year in Kentucky. But because an appellate judge would be elected this year in the Sixth District, which includes Boone county, the ballot there will have a distinct election "flavor" and a constable's race is in order, according to the opinion.

Drive Safely Over The 4th Weekend

"Don't try to reach your destination in just a day's hurry; your Fourth of July holiday should be a day of happiness, not a day of tragedy," say the safety experts.

Hundreds of motorists throughout the country will be killed in automobile accidents during the four-day Fourth of July weekend, based on past experiences, the report says. Motorists on the road during this period are urged to take every possible precaution against causing one of the many accidents which will occur.

Drivers of automobiles have a tremendous responsibility, not only to protect themselves and those who ride with them, but also occupants of other cars on the road, whom they can involve in an accident.

Whether you are taking a long weekend to celebrate the Fourth of July or just a day's outing, conditions on the highways will call for extra precautions. Motor cars will be on the road, hurrying to get to holiday destinations or to get home and this will cause abnormal hazards.

Holiday drivers should not try to break records to reach their destinations, but make their hour of arrival flexible to account for heavy traffic; should never take chances passing another auto under any unfavorable conditions; should not follow the car in front too closely; should stop completely at all "stop" intersections and proceed across cautiously; should not be a "road hog," so as to tempt drivers behind to pass under unfavorable conditions; should always be alert for other drivers who may perform these actions and cause accidents. Above all—just be CAREFUL!

Fidelis Class Meets at Church

An inspiring program and a fine social hour was enjoyed by those who attended the Fidelis Class meeting at the Baptist Church, Thursday evening.

The program consisted of group singing of the class song, "Will There Be Any Stars?" Georgia Green gave "The Moment That Changed My Life," Betty Webster told, "How To Make An Exit," Edna Belle Thornton gave "Word of Comfort," Wilma Winburn explained the requirements of a good secretary of Adult Bible Class, and Gaynelle Flynn gave "The Perfect Blueprint for Happiness." This was followed by games, and a stock shower for Juanita Struve.

A delicious desert course was served by the hostess, Mrs. Lebus Stephenson. There were 19 members and four visitors present.

About 3,000 ewes will be added to the number on Hickman county farms this summer, to feed on a abundant pasture crops.

The peach crop in Jefferson county is reported as being very good, ranging from a complete kill to 35 percent of a normal crop.

Ordinance No. 195

An Ordinance fixing the several Tax Levies of the City of Walton, Kentucky, for the year 1950.

The City Council of the City of Walton, Kentucky, does ordain as follows:

Section 1. That an ad valorem tax of Fifty (50c) Cents on each one hundred dollars worth of property subject to taxation by the City of Walton, Kentucky, (except unmanufactured agricultural products, and shares of stock of state banks and trust companies incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth), is hereby levied for the use of the general expense fund of said city of Walton for the year 1950.

Section 2. That an ad valorem tax of Fifteen (15c) Cents on each one hundred dollars worth of the fair cash value of all unmanufactured agricultural products subject to taxation by the City of Walton, that are not actually on hand at the plants of manufacturing concerns for the purpose of manufacture, nor in the hands of the producer or any agent for the producer to whom the products have been conveyed or assigned for the purpose of sale; for the use of the general expense fund of the City for the year 1950.

Section 3. That a tax of twenty (20c) cents on each one hundred dollars of their fair cash value, is hereby levied and imposed upon all shares of stock of State Banks and Trust Companies incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth and located in the City of Walton, Kentucky, for the use and benefit of the general expense fund of the City for the year 1950.

Section 4. That an ad valorem tax of Twenty (20c) Cents on each one hundred dollars worth of property subject to taxation by the City of Walton, (except unmanufactured agricultural products and shares of stock of State Banks and Trust Companies incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth), is hereby levied for the year 1950, for the purpose of paying interest on all outstanding unpaid Waterworks Bonds of the City of Walton, and creating a fund sufficient to pay off and retire all such bonds according to their terms and provisions as to maturities.

Section 5. That a Poll or Capitation tax of One ($1.00) Dollar be and the same is hereby levied upon all Male citizens of the City of Walton, for the use and benefit of the general expense fund for the year 1950—(1. Except all citizens of this state who are seventy years of age or older, are exempt from all Poll taxes; and 2. any Honorably discharged soldier, sailor or marine who has served ninety days or more in the military or Naval forces of the United States, who was a resident of this state at the time of his induction into service, and who is totally disabled as evidenced by pension, certificate or award of compensation, is exempt from all Poll taxes).

Section 6. That this ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and publication as by law required.

Passed by the City Council of the City of Walton by the vote of 5 members of Council on the 26th day of June, 1950.

Not Too Much

The new dam had diverted much of the water that a community of truck farmers previously had used to keep their crops healthy. They complained to all officials about it. Getting no satisfaction from the state officials they brought suit. Arguing the case before the court one hot, lazy day the farmers through their attorney contended that the water had been vital to their business.

"But we must have water, Your Honor," thundered the defending lawyer in a roaring basso-profundo.

The lawyer's sudden vehemence awakened the judge, who had been dozing.

"All right," he muttered hastily, "but only a very little in mine."

Pictured above are some of the hundreds of Kentucky road signs which reach the junk heap each year after being damaged by vandals. Many of the signs, deliberately knocked down or rendered illegible were placed to warn the motorist of approaching danger which could cause a fatal accident. Hundreds of other signs, similarly mutilated, are recommended for further use.

Deliberate acts of vandalism damage or destroy annually more than 10,000 of the metal road signs along Kentucky highways, W. P. Ringo, Traffic Director of the Kentucky Department of Highways, said today.

"Last year $42,450 was spent to recondition 33,500 road signs over the state," Ringo said. "At least one-third of these signs were damaged by vandals. Many of the signs which were rendered illegible had been erected to warn motorists of approaching danger."

Most of the deliberate damage was done by rifle or pistol bullets, according to Ringo, and there were many instances of road markers being scratched or bent by children.

"In recent weeks," he added, "there have been several instances in which vehicles have been driven along the roadside deliberately breaking off or bending signs to the ground."

Purchase cost of the road signs ranges from one dollar per sign up to four dollars apiece for the large reflector-type signs. New road signs purchased last year totalled 50,000 and cost $98,000.

"The erection and maintenance of proper direction and warning signs are a vital part of Kentucky highway maintenance," Ringo stated. "Any deliberate acts of vandalism committed against this property should be reported to the authorities."

About 2,000 acres of bluegrass in Bourbon county were treated with ammonia nitrate spray in March and with DDT spray in May.

At the first annual iris show in Nelson county sponsored by the homemakers clubs, there were 297 entries, and more than 60 named varieties.

Soil tests have been run on approximately 2,500 acres in Spencer county.

Let's stop calling it an "Agricultural Implement"

Plain talk is urgently needed today on a matter that affects the pocketbooks of all taxpayers... subsidies to commercial intercity transportation agencies that long ago outgrew the infant industry stage.

The yearly expenditures of the Federal Government alone... for aid to forms of transportation other than the railroads... now approach $1½ billion. These are your tax dollars—and ours. They help provide the highways used by huge commercial trucks, the airports and other facilities used by commercial airlines, and the waterways used by waterway carriers.

In contrast, the railroads do not receive, and do not want, one single penny of subsidy. They are self-supporting. They pay more than $1 billion a year in taxes. And their charges reflect their true costs of doing business.

We think it's time to call a spade a spade... time to point out that these subsidized carriers can destroy but not supplant the self-reliant railroads... time to urge that simple justice be done for the good of all America and all taxpayers.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Ryan are welcoming a new son into their home.

Mrs. J. C. Kannady's grandsons, Ronnie, Bobbie, Jimmie and Tommie, visited her this week.

Friends and neighbors of Walter Brown gathered at his home Sunday to celebrate his birthday with a surprise birthday gathering. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Marion Wolfe and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown of Louisville; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Marlin and daughter of Albuquerque, N. M.; Mrs. John Lamm and daughters, Mae Brown, Atwood Brown, Mrs. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Florin Adams and niece, Ollie Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bran, Mrs. Morgan Chapman and daughter, and Mrs. Bell from Ohio; Mrs. Lizzie Noel, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Waller and son, Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Lamm, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Riffert and son.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Chapman and children and Mrs. Chapman's aunt from New York, spent Sunday at Butler Park.

We are glad to have Mrs. Floyd Chapman back from the hospital and hope she'll soon be entirely well again.

Uncle Sam Says

The two symbols of Independence for 1950 are the Liberty Bell and U. S. Savings Bonds. They exemplify the Independence Drive slogan "Save For YOUR Independence—Buy U. S. Savings Bonds." Just as the Liberty Bell signifies national independence, Savings Bonds spell financial independence. YOUR government is providing the means for future financial security by offering a safe, sure and methodical way of protecting your future through Savings Bonds. Each payday, from now on, put a slice of your pay envelope into Savings Bonds by enrolling for the Payroll Savings Plan when you work, or if self-employed, Bond-A-Month Plan at you.

ABSOLUTE AUCTION 70 LOTS 70

BLUE GRASS SUBDIVISION, FLORENCE, KY.

Mrs. Fanny Scott of Florence, Ky., has contracted with me to sell at Absolute Auction her 70 Lots, located on Highway 42 at the city limits, on Saturday, July 8

1 P. M. Cincinnati Time

It is hard to find words to describe these beautiful building lots—Blue Grass Subdivision has been laid out by a Registered Engineer; natural drainage makes it an ideal piece of property for a Subdivision; it's located in one of the best residential sections of this community.

There will be lots fronting on U. S. Highway 42 as large as 70x200, also 60x200 and some of the back lots facing the street running down to 50x150. Blue Grass Subdivision will be restricted—inquire about restrictions—we are sure they will be satisfactory to any prospective buyer.

This is a rare opportunity to buy lots in a community of this kind—a clean, healthy place to live, just a few minutes drive to Cincinnati from Florence, where you have bus service every 10 or 15 minutes, schools and churches of all denominations—a perfect place to build.

This would be a good investment even though you are not planning to build—it's a growing community where property will be sure to increase in value.

Farm Digest News

—By John I. Anderson—

Egg Grading to Start in 5 Counties
The Kentucky Department of Agriculture has just completed the purchase of five mechanical egg graders to be used in marketing eggs on a graded basis in five south central Kentucky counties. A series of egg marketing meetings were held during the week of May 22 in these counties, during which egg candling and grading demonstrations with the type of machinery purchased were given before agricultural leaders, farmers, and veterans who are receiving institutional on the farm training. It is anticipated that the grading program will begin on August 1 in these counties. It is the intent of the Agricultural Agencies participating in this program to expand this service to other counties in the future.

Hog Slaughter Up 58,000 Head
In the January-April period in Kentucky calf slaughter was 26,400 head, a decline of 3,100 head from the same period last year. Hog slaughter at 285,000 head was 58,000 higher. Cattle slaughter at 56,200 was off 2,700 head. Sheep and lambs slaughtered totaled 15,300 head, up 3,300 from January-April, 1949. The average live weight per head at time January-April, 1950: Cattle 880 pounds, calves 190, hogs 217, and sheep and lambs 108.

Frozen, Concentrated Milk Milk, concentrated to one-third of its original bulk and frozen, like orange juice, will shortly be given a market test. The research department of a large food company has been experimenting with the product for more than a year, paralleling similar tests in other laboratories. Concentrate is restored to original state by adding two cans of water. Commercial possibilities are seen in deficit milk areas, like Florida, where fresh milk sells for as much as 25c to 30c a quart.

Acreeage Checkers Needed

Joseph A. Huey, Chairman of the Boone County FMA Committee, has announced that the committee is in need of several persons to assist in checking 1950 crop acreages. This work will start about July 1 and is expected to last until some time in September. In the next few days a training meeting will be held for those who are to do this work. Persons interested in this work are urged to contact the county office at Burlington immediately.

Beechgrove Homemakers

Beechgrove Homemakers Club held its final meeting of the year at the Latonia Gun Club when fifteen members and one guest responded to roll call with "Where I Will Spend My Vacation."

Plans were completed for the annual picnic to be held August 6th at Lakeside Park, Ohio. Officers elected for the coming year were: Mrs. Carrell McFarland, president; Mrs. Howard L. Clark, vice-president; Mrs. Roger Robinson, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Frank W. Lynskey, program; Mrs. Joe Brunch, publicity; Mrs. William Endres, citizenship; Mrs. Lewis Lee, ways and means; Mrs. Joe Kunkle, Jr. reading Mrs. Wm. P. Meyers, extelior beautification.

A gardening lesson was given by Mrs. Wanda Works. Final lesson in decorative stitches was given by Mrs. Opal McFarland. This year being Homecoming for Kentucky, Mrs. F. M. Powers read the "Invitation To Kentuckians." Mrs. William P. Myers gave a report on the advisory council meeting.

Members attending were Mesdames B. Armstrong, J. Brunck, H. L. Clark, Wm. Klunkenbeard, Wm. Endres, J. Kunkle Jr., J. Kunkle Sr., Lewis Lee, F. W. Lynskey, C. McFarland, Wm. P. Meyers, F. M. Powers, R. Robinson, Gus Schadler, Mrs. H. Works and a guest, Mrs. R. Collins.

HANGING CURTAINS

BRINGS QUESTIONS

Several perplexing questions on the selection and hanging of draperies were answered for Carter county homemakers, said Home Agent Sallie Satterly, when Miss Vivian Currutt, home furnishing specialist from the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky, had charge of a homemakers training school for leaders.

Some of the answers were:

1—Draperies may be lined or unlined. However, the lined ones have more body, hang in deeper folds and present a more uniform appearance from the outside.

2—Material chosen for unlined draperies must permit the light to filter through without changing the shape of color of the design.

3—Forty-two to 50-inch material is best, as it is wide enough to hang in deep folds.

4—Pleats for fullness should be made in groups of uneven numbers.

Madison county sheepmen are cooperating with the sheriff in an effort to collect dog license fees, almost five times the amount of previous years being collected.

PINER HOMEMAKERS

The June meeting of the Piner Homemakers club was held recently in the home of Mrs. Wm. Woods, with Mrs. Harry Yancey as co-hostess. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Wm. Wolterman, president, and roll call was answered by members telling of their plans for the summer.

Mrs. Dewey Flisk had charge of installation of officers, and the following committees were appointed: Reading chairman, Mrs. M. Oliver; Citizenship, Mrs. Fred McMillan and Mrs. Chas. Gross; Membership, Mrs. Foster Bridges; Exterior Beautification, Mrs. Carl Justice; Publicity, Mrs. E. H. Spaulding; Sunshine Card Chairman, Mrs. Chas. Flynn.

Seven members reported letters answered to Pen Pals in England. Plans were made for a family picnic to be held June 28 at the home of Mrs. Willard Benson. Mrs. Wm. Wolterman gave a report of the advisory council meeting. The thought for the day was given by Mrs. Willard Shropshire, who also reported a CARE package sent.

Mrs. A. Pellizzari and Mrs. J. Dwyer gave the final lesson on decorative stitches, stressing this month fagoting and darning for huck toweling.

Those present were Mrs. Foster Bridges, Mrs. Dewey Flisk, Mrs. Chas. Flynn, Mrs. Owen Flynn, Mrs. Fred McMillan, Mrs. Chester Mullins, Mrs. Willard Shropshire, Mrs. W. C. Woods, Mrs. Wm. Wolterman, Mrs. Harry Yancey, Mrs. Carl Justice, Mrs. Chas. Gross, Mrs. E. Pellizzari, Mrs. Steve Rich, Mrs. Ray Linder, Mrs. Ira Menefee, and Mrs. M. Williams and Mrs. Artie Tugate.

Wilmington WMS Meets

The Woman's Missionary Society of Wilmington Baptist Church met June 7 in the home of Mrs. Ray Linder.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. B. N. Spegal, after a song, and prayer by Rev. G. F. Tyner, Jr. During the business session, arrangements were made to assist with the Bible school, with various members to serve refreshments to the children during the 2-weeks session, starting July 3.

A recording of the address made to the Southern Baptist Convention by the Southwide President of the W. M. S., Mrs. George R. Martin, was heard, having been made this year at Chicago by the pastor, Rev. Tyner.

After lunch, the program in Royal Service, in charge of Mrs. Marion Collins, Sr., was given, with several members taking part.

Another recording, interviews of the two main characters in the book, "Prophet of Little Cane Creek," was heard. The group was dismissed with prayer by Mrs. W. R. Brown.

Those present were Mrs. Charles Gross, Mrs. Malcolm Oliver, Mrs. W. R. Brown, Mrs. Marion Collins, Sr., Mrs. Ray Linder, Mrs. Blanche Elliott, Mrs. Wilma Collins, Mrs. Foster Bridges, Olla Given Collins, Jean Ardys Oliver, Roberta Kinman, Mrs. B. N. Spegal, Mrs. E. H. Spaulding, Mrs. Eldred Steinhauer and the Rev. Grover F. Tyner, Jr.

Ollie R. Wells sold 4.413 acres on Visalia and Perry Road to Walter A. and Minnie Neu.

L. J. and Anna B. Weaver sold lots number 19 and 20 in Forest Hills Subdivision to Manly A. and Ida M. Rider.

Edward D. and Jesse P. Lowry sold property on Taylor Mill Road to W. G. and Sally Ann Earls.

Merrill B. and Alfreda Appel purchased the home of Paul W. Campbell near Simon Kenton School.

Robert R. and Bonnie Mae Points sold their home on Harris Pike to Howard and Virginia Clegg.

Frank P. and Edlane M. Ringenbach sold 34.60 acres in Grants Bend to Edward and Lula Smith.

WMS Meets

The W. M. S. of the Independence Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. R. E. Colcough on Thursday for the June meeting. The devotion, "Lift Up the Lad," was given by Mrs. Chas. Doney. A very interesting program was presented under the direction of Mrs. Colcough. We were urged to lift up our youth and not criticize them for we made the environment into which they were born.

Those attending the meeting were Mrs. Chas. Doney, Mrs. Leslie Wagner, Mrs. R. Dickson, Mrs. A. Flymer, Mrs. W. E. Maners, Mrs. Geo. Riley, Mrs. T. J. Stevens, Mrs. Thos. Cain, Mrs. Lee Houston, Mrs. W. Shropshire, Mrs. R. Colcough, Jr. and Mrs. Cain's mother, Mrs. Matt Bowman of Canyon Falls, Ky., who was a visitor, and the hostess, Mrs. R. E. Colcough.

Attending 4-H Camp

The leaders in the 4-H Clubs of which we have fifteen in Kenton county, are to be with the youth leaders in several other counties at the 4-H Camp, Camp Ernst, Boone County, June 26-30.

The following are some of those going from Kenton county: Barbara Rust, Tommy Sexton, Alfred (Tadpole) Damon, Sammy Ishmael, Dixie Jane Barberick, David Ray Neumeister, Roy Lee Conner, Terry Kuester and Bobby Scott.

Baptized

Five adults were baptised into the fellowship of the Independence Baptist Church, last Sunday night.

Fruit Growers Meet

The fruit growers meeting held with John P. Westerman, Thursday, June 22, proved to be very interesting. Mr. Westerman has apples, peaches, plums and grapes. A spray program for such fruits was discussed by W. W. McGill, horticulturist.

Beginning the first week in July, Early Transparent apples will be on the market and these will be followed by the Wealthy, Summer Rambo and the fall apples, like Jonathan, Stamen Winesap, Red Delicious, Courtland and the Golden Delicious.

In the Crescent Springs neighborhood, the bigger growers of fruit are John P. Westerman, R. W. Scott, Geo. Eubanks and Adolph Reinhardt; in the Independence neighborhood it is Bryant Armstrong.

Personal

Otis Vance has been sick for several days, but is now getting around again.

McKinley Hand is reported doing alright after his operation. He is in the hospital, hoping to get home in a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Collier Payne, Jr. have been seeing the Smoky's during their vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Riley are seeing the sights on their vacation this week.

CORRECTION — It was reported last week that the Banklick Baptist Church had a paid worker. Brother Phillips, who helped them this year, used to be with Home Mission Board, but now has a church of his own, and is not working for the Board.

Hollywood Loses Another Player

Tom M. Cise, interestingly reports "How An Actress Found Christ." Colleen Townsend, beautiful young film star has appeared in several pictures. The contract she repudiated would have returned her a salary of $1,000 per week in three more years.

When the big man on the High School campus, all-around athlete, took the actress on their first date to a service in his church, "Right there and then," said Miss Townsend, "I discovered what had been missing from my life, what had kept me worried and off balance. I knew that despite some serious attempts, I had never found Christ. Meeting occasionally with that youth group, I soon found myself yearning for Christ—and then one day I found Him!"

Miss Townsend now desires to grow in grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, "and spend the rest of my life making Him known to others."

There are many in the world today who, like Miss Townsend, have discovered there is something missing from their lives, despite all the things they possess, which keep them worried and off balance. Now it remains for them to make the further discovery that that something is a personal knowledge of Jesus Christ, as Savior and Lord.

This knowledge may be obtained from the Holy Scriptures, for therein He is presented as being able, ready and willing to save all who come unto God by Him. He finished the work necessary for our salvation (John 19:30) and as the risen Lord has commissioned His own to tell the world about Him, all who come by faith, can say with Miss Townsend and myriads of others, "I have found Him!"

Attend Elsmere Revival

The youngsters of the Oak Island Baptist Church attended the Youth Revival at Elsmere last Thursday night.

Youth Choir Sings at Union

The Independence Young People's Choir visited and sang two special numbers in the revival meeting at the Union Baptist Church last Tuesday night, June 20.

Operators' License Available

Deputy Clerk Damon reports that the 1950-1951 Operators' License for the automobile go on sale at the Independence Court House, Monday, June 26.

Softball

In the Church Softball League last Thursday, the Visalia Baptist won over the Wilmington Baptists 12-11, and the Independence Baptists scored a victory over the Independence Christian Church 9-4.

Sing at Hospital

A car load of Independence Baptist young folk visited the General Hospital last Sunday afternoon to sing and bring a bit of cheer to the sick.

Birthday Party

Several of the Baptist youngsters from the Independence community were in on a surprise birthday party for Miss June Elam, held last Saturday night on Horsebranch Road.

Due to late freezes, several thousand acres of Korean lespedeza in Madison county were reseeded in April.

Forty-five farmers in Hardin county are participating in the green-pastures program.

In Daviess county, 157 4-H club girls took part in the style show at the county's rally day.

Land clearing in Pendleton county is said to be proceeding rapidly by means of chain saws and bull dozers equipped with root rakes.

It has arrived in full force and that beautiful moon shining over the hills is wonderful. Fishing is going strong everywhere. Farmers are putting up hay, plowing corn and tobacco. Every one is busy—they hurry in after mowers, parts, hay rope and Rastus plows. We don't have any looters now.

The women are doing at lot of the buying—Mrs. Henry Messmer and Mrs. James Messmer were in and bought a 1945 Armstrong rug, a $12 Gold Seal rug and 6 yards of Gold Seal linoleum. Mrs. Rheo, Carpenter called me and told me how much she liked her linoleum rug, after she put it on the floor. Les Williams also bought a lot of Armstrong linoleum for his kitchen. Robin Struve's wife, over on Burlington Road, called for us to bring her four metal lawn chairs—we delivered them in a hurry as she was in need of them for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson, over at Parkers Grove, were here after hay rope and pulleys. Omer Spangle was in after a 5-gal. oil can and a tractor funnel—he said they hauled in hay until 2 a. m. Sunday morning—got the last load in before the rain, which started about that time. W. C. Brown came down in a hurry after a Rastus plow—Hub Fisher and Bert Masie were also in a hurry for Rastus plows—those weeds and crab grass are really growing. Lee Dixon bought one of those 16" Dayton electric fans—Mr. Doggett of Verona, also bought one of the same kind—they really blow a breeze for $20.00—you can set them on a table or the floor and even hang them on the wall—we have all kinds and sizes of electric fans—prices from $4.95 up. We have a new supply of folding deck chairs which are very nice for $2.95, also don't miss these steel lawn chairs for only $4.50.

We made a very fine lady happy when we delivered Mrs. Earnest McCain at Crittenden, a Square Aluminum Tub Maytag Washer—took in used washers on trade and sold both of them that day. Our electric appliance service man in Walton, Leon Hall, has been a busy man these hot days—he is in one door and out the other, after refrigerator belts, cords, sockets and wiring material—he is one of the best and he tries to serve and satisfy.

Fred Jones, our good Chevrolet mechanic, wanted to put in a gas water heater over the weekend—so we sold him the material and loaned him the tools—and his wife brought the tools back Monday—we don't mind to loan tools, but some people forget to return them. Speaking of the Chevrolet Garage, I just traded trucks with Marvin Kendall for a new pick-up—if you need a good used Ford pick-up this trade-in of mine is a good buy—see Marvin and you can have it as soon as he gets my new one.

Mrs. William Reynolds from Bracht just came in and bought a new Arvin all-steel iron board, pad and cover. Ruth Worthington was with her and I sent some fans to the Goshen Church by Ruth, who is helping in the Vacation Bible School there—I have been trying to get these fans in every church—if you don't have any at your church, please stop in and I'll give you some.

Trimble county strawberry growers harvested the biggest crop of berries ever grown in the county. In Woodford county, around 3,000 acres of pastureland were treated with 2-4-D to kill wild garlic. Mrs. Bill Turner of Perry county rearranged her kitchen equipment to save her an estimated 71 miles of walking a year. In Estill county, corn acreage has decreased in two years from 11,800 acres to 8,500 acres, 85 percent or more being the hybrid variety.

CONRAD HARDWARE

Mrs. Lucy Thornton, who looks fine after what she has been through, came in after window screens. Frances Chapman and Edna Belle Thornton also needed window screens, and Marie Kendall also from Locust Street, was after window screens. Mr. Ingles, who owns the Barnett Franks farm on Verona Road, hurried in after cow spray and a sprayer.

R. M. Hall, our Mayor in Walton, who is in Christ Hospital losing his tonsils and a bone in his nose, should have his head in much better condition—we hope he recovers rapidly. Gayle McElroy, who just returned to work today, was in the hospital for a few days, also. Clarence Combs, who always comes in Saturday morning, was right on time—Clarence is supposed to be off from work Saturday, but Edna can always find a job for him, so he comes down and talks to us.

Robert Griffin and family from over in Kenton County, were here Saturday night—the two boys bought a bicycle and Robert bought some rope—you know I have a new son-in-law—I wonder what he will do with that rope?—then Mrs. Griffin bought the boys two Pluiger Trump Reels—these people were my customers when they lived here and now they live several miles away, but always come back. When you treat good people right, they will stay with you.

We have sold all the Rastus plows we had in stock, but we will have more of them in a day or two. Scythe blades, sickles, hoes, hay forks and handles sure are in demand—we have a large stock of them. The ladies are also buying cold pork canners and pressure canners. We have also been busy putting in hoes and fork handles—even put in a Rastus plow handle for Ralph Scott, our assistant postmaster, who wanted to plow his garden.

Bob Krugh brought in an electric iron for repair—Dr. Marshall's toaster also needed repair. Ambrose Davis busted his mower pitman rod; Ben Dixon broke out two fork handles in one day; Chink Vest broke the chain on his binder; Melvin Platt broke his hay rope, and I spliced it for him—we do all kinds of things to keep our customers working and satisfied. Someone busted up D. L. Lusby's electric fan, but we soldered the guard together and put the blades back on the shaft—it was just as good as new. If you are in trouble, we had just as well call us—everyone else does.

If we can't fix it, we have the best set of mechanics in Walton of any town in the State—the best Television man; the best Refrigerator man; the best lot of electricians, the best carpenters, the best painters, the best plumbers—all of these fellows are customers of mine—if it is a big job, I give it to them, if it is a small job, we do it ourselves.

When you need anything, anytime, anywhere, just call WALTON 23 or come in—we are always willing, ready and able to help our customers. CONRAD HARDWARE is the buying center of this large-drawing territory, which is about five counties. If we have missed you, give us a try. COME TO WALTON TO BUY at CONRAD'S!

Funeral Services For Dr. H. F. Mann Held Here Wednesday

Funeral services for Dr. Harry F. Mann, Walton, were held in the Walton Christian Church at 2:00 p. m., Wednesday. Burial was in the Independence Cemetery.

Dr. Mann died Saturday afternoon at Christ Hospital, Cincinnati, at the age of 60. He was company surgeon for the Louisville & Nashville, and the Southern Railroads at Walton. A graduate of the University of Louisville Medical School, he began his career at Crittenden, but had practiced in Walton for a number of years. He was a veteran of World War I.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Frederica Mann; a brother, Edward Mann of Lakeland, Fla., and three sisters, Mrs. Frank D. Cooke of Atwood, Kenton County, Mrs. Shirley Rich of Charleston, W. Va., and Mrs. Harry E. Powers of Dunbar, W. Va. Dr. Mann was a member of Walton Lodge, 719, F. & A. M.; the Walton Christian Church; the Southern and Kenton and Campbell Counties, and Licking Valley Medical Associations; the Association of Surgeons of the Southern Railroad System; the Kentucky State Medical Association; Johnson-McElroy Post, 277, American Legion, Walton, and the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Covington. The Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Walton, had charge of arrangements.

BOB & GENE WINS TWO

Bob & Gene, top team in the KAG Semi-Pro Baseball League, notched a pair of victories over the weekend to strengthen their grip to the top rung.

Last Sunday, at Florence, the Emen defeated Newport Steelers 1-0 in a thrilling contest, and on Tuesday they notched win 13 by edging Grants Lick 7-6.

On Sunday, July 9, Bob & Gene play Charlie's Cafe at Florence, in the feature attraction of the KAG loop. Ray Mingers will hurl for the home club, and Bishop will get the nod from Charlie.

Sam Hudson Suffers Attack

Sam Hudson, Walton Route 2 carrier, had a heart attack Saturday night while he was visiting his wife's mother in Morton, Miss. The attack was very severe, according to the doctor, and Sam will have to remain in bed for some time and after that will be forced to take it easy.

Wheat Acreage Allotments To Be In Effect For 1951

Wheat acreage allotments will be in effect for the 1951 wheat crop according to word received by J. A. Huey, Boone County PMA Chairman, from the Department of Agriculture in Washington, D. C. The legislation under which wheat acreage allotments are established requires that they be proclaimed each year by the Secretary of Agriculture, unless a national emergency exists.

The chairman explains that each year the national allotment is based on the estimated needs for the coming year, after making allowance for the supply of wheat on hand on July 1, 1950.

Farms on which no wheat was seeded for harvest in any of the years 1948, 1949, or 1950, may apply for a 1951 wheat acreage allotment, according to Mr. Huey. To be considered for an allotment on a new farm, the farmer must apply in writing to this county PMA Committee by July 15, 1950.

Soil tests in Oldham county continue to indicate that lime needs have been fairly well met, but that phosphate and potash are low.

From the grassroots problems of America's midwest to the significance of Russia's latest move in Asia, WLW's "World Front" program focuses an illuminating discussion of these questions each Sunday at 2:30 p. m., EST. "World Front" panel members include, left to right, Joseph Sargaster, William Hesler, moderator Howard Chamberlain, and Carl Groat.

Many 4-H Club Members Attend Northern Ky. Camp

One hundred nineteen 4-H Club members, leaders and extension agents from Owen, Boone, Campbell, Grant, Pendleton and Kenton counties attended the Northern Kentucky 4-H Club Camp held at Camp Ernst, Boone County, June 26-30.

Bobby Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott of Crescent Springs, received the medal camp award, one of the highest honors a 4-H camper can receive. He also tied for third in the casting contest and was group captain in which his group placed fourth among the campers. Bobby is 15 years old, a student at Dixie Heights, and has been an active 4-H member for five years.

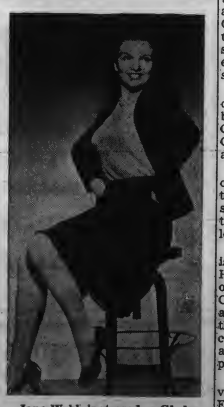

Star campers from Kenton county were Tommie Sexton, Valsilla 4-H member, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Sexton; Barbara Rust, Independence 4-H member, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Rust, and Terry Kuester, a Dixie Heights 4-H'er, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kuester.

Dan Gravens of the Dixie Heights club and son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Gravens of near Crescent Springs, was fifth in the casting contest.

Fifteen 4-H'ers from Kenton county attended the camp, accompanied by Mr. Fay Powers, 4-H leader; Vincent Kahmann, 4-H leader; Miss Zelma E. Byerly, home demonstration agent, and Joe Claxon, assistant county agent.

Baptist WMS to Meet

The Baptist W. M. S. will meet at the home of Mrs. Bryan Rector on Thursday, July 13 at 10:30 a. m. for Mission Study book. Bring a covered dish.

Jane Webb is starred as Gladys, 18-year-old daughter of "The Truitts," whose family affairs are aired over WLW-NBC Sundays at 3 p. m., EST.

Farm and Home Tour in Gallatin County July 14

Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Jewell Wilson, and County Agent, Estil Noffsinger, of Gallatin County, announced today that plans have been made for 250 people to attend the "Farm and Home Tour," to be held at the farm of Mrs. Laura Allphin in the Concord community on Friday, July 14.

A program of interest to every farm man and woman in the county has been planned. The Field Day is being sponsored by the Farmers State Bank, the Gallatin County Deposit Bank, the Sparta-Sanders State Bank, and the Union Bank of Glencock, in cooperation with the County Extension Service and all other agriculture workers in Gallatin county. This is expected to be one of the most outstanding farm meetings ever held in this county.

The morning program will start at 9:30, fast time. The women will be in one group and the men in another. Plans call for a canning demonstration for the women, and the men will tour the farm with Glenn Williamson, Dairy Specialist, and Earl Welch, Agricultural Engineer. They will make stops at the pastures, hay field, dairy herd, water supply, and in the barn. These important phases of farming will be discussed in detail and also other problems of interest to those present.

After a tour of the farm, lunch will be served by the presidents of the Homemakers' Clubs. Each family is asked to bring enough sandwiches for themselves. The banks are furnishing cold drinks, potato chips, etc., and the milk companies are donating the ice cream.

A very interesting afternoon program will get under way at 1:30, with discussions by Specialists. Those in charge also promise that one of the radio stations will make a broadcast during the day. Every farm family is urged to mark July 14 on their calendar and make every effort to attend this Field Day. Children are also invited.

Gun Club Fish Fry

The Florence Rod and Gun Club will hold a Fish Fry at the Florence Community Center on Friday, July 7. The public is invited. Fish sandwiches and drinks will be sold from 6 to 8 p. m.

At 8 o'clock two pictures will be shown. The first is entitled "Your Kentucky," which was produced and will be shown by the State Highway Department. The second picture is "Dale Hollow." This film shows the activities of the boys at Camp Gunnarod. Following the showing of these pictures, there will be a drawing for a console model television set with a 16-inch screen.

The Florence Rod and Gun Club sponsored 19 boys at Camp Gunnarod for one week during June. The proceeds of the Fish Fry will be used to defray expenses involved in this sponsorship.

RUTH ANN SODEN

Funeral services for Ruth Ann Soden, one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Soden of Walton-Nicholson Highway, were conducted from the Walton Baptist Church on Monday, July 3 at 11:00 a. m.

The little girl passed away at her home late Saturday from a heart ailment. Besides her parents, she is survived by her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Soden of Walton, Route 1, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Frakes of Covington. Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Walton, had charge of arrangements.

Changes Made In Operator's License Law Are Explained

Renewals of Motor Vehicle Operator's License for 1950-1951, commonly referred to as "operator's licenses," will be on sale at the circuit court clerk's office in each county in the state during July, according to Paul Boyd, Operator's License Section, Department of Revenue, Frankfort.

Boyd called attention to two important changes in the law. Kentucky Military Extension Permits became void July 1. Operators' Permits from the United States are good only while operating official vehicles in the course of service. Military personnel must have a regular State Motor Vehicle Operator's License the same as a civilian, when operating any privately owned vehicle on the highway. The holders of a Military Extension can surrender this and obtain an original operator's license without an examination.

Another important change is that no operator's license of any type can be issued to anyone not 16 years of age. Licenses issued for operating a 5 H.U. motor vehicle or a motorcycle will be identified as such on the face of the license and cannot be used for the operation of a regular automobile.

Applicants for any type of operator's license between 16 and 18 years of age must have the father or legal guardian sign that he assumes responsibility under the Operator's License Law, Boyd stated.

To Plan For Festival

The Valsilla P. T. A. will hold a meeting at the school on Monday, July 10 at 8:00 p. m. to discuss further plans for their Summer Festival to be held Saturday, July 22 on the school grounds.

Glenn Edens Has Operation

Glenn Edens of Walton was operated on for appendicitis at a hospital in Tennessee recently, after having a severe attack while crossing the mountains with Mrs. Edens. Glenn had to pull off the road, at the top of the mountain, and since his wife could not drive, they were stranded until a passerby could be stopped to give assistance. Glenn is now out of the hospital and doing nicely.

Verona Trips NYT; To Play Bavarian At Melbourne, Sun.

New York Tech, a Cincinnati Colored baseball team, was defeated at Verona, Sunday, 13-1 by the Community Club.

NYT had 1 run, 5 hits and 7 errors. Owens, Davis and Odum divided the pitching duties, while Brown and Willis did the catching. Williams had 2 for 3 at the plate. The losers completed two twin killings.

Verona had 13 runs, 11 hits and 2 errors, completing three double plays. Bill Mumm pitched all the way for the victors and Baumann caught. Williamson had 2 for 3; and Alexander had 4 for 5, one blow being a homer with two aboard.

Play at Melbourne, Sunday. Verona will travel to Melbourne, on Sunday, July 9 to play Bavarian Beer in a KAG league contest.

Baptist Service Sunday

On Sunday evening there will be a baptismal service at the Walton Baptist Church.

Sunday morning the pastor's subject will be, "A Gracious Invitation To A Thrifty World." A most cordial invitation is extended to all to attend all services.

No Assessment of Property Scheduled For the Year 1950

For the first time in the memory of most Boone countians, there will be no assessment of property for state or county taxes as of July 1.

In fact, there will be no assessment at all made this year. The next assessment will be made on January 1, 1951.

The tax bills you pay this fall will be based on the assessment made on July 1, 1949.

Reason for the change is to bring the date of assessment closer to the date of payment of taxes. This will make it easier for the taxpayer to know how much tax he is paying for what year. From now on, taxes will be paid in the same year they are assessed. Also there will be less confusion over payment of taxes where property is bought or sold. Where property is bought or sold, the assessment date will be more convenient for the taxpayer, since it comes at the usual inventory and bookkeeping date. This is in accord with the trend in other states.

While the tax commissioners will not be busy taking the assessment this year, they will use the time to prepare property record cards and gather data which will be used in making a more accurate and fair assessment next year.

Four Games Played In Walton Softball League Last Week

Four games were played in the Walton Softball League last week, which has been hampered somewhat by rainy weather. However, from now on, games mostly likely will be played as scheduled, each Tuesday and Thursday evening.

Last Tuesday night, two games were on tap, and the Walton Lions defeated the Walton YFD to the tune of 28-14, and Banklick upset the Independence Legionaires 16-9. In the opener, DeMoss was the winning hurler and Simpson the loser. Johnson and Warner were top suckers for the winners. In the game between the Kenton Countians, Kidwell was the winning moundsman, while Yates was the loser—provided our interpretation of the scorers' record is correct.

Last Thursday, Bob & Jo's won from the High School 8-7, and the Verona Jeds trounced Shamrock Inn 13-12. In the opening fray, Duke Vest was the losing hurler and Whitson was the winner, while in the finale, Poole was the winner.

STAFFORDSBURG

Mrs. J. A. Keeney was hostess when members of the Staffordsburg Homemakers met recently in the recreation room of the Staffordsburg Methodist Church. This marked the last meeting in the club calendar year.

Members voted to retain the present officers for the new year: Mrs. Chester Hill, President; Mrs. Bluch Rich, Vice President, and Mrs. Mabel Van Landingham, Secretary and Treasurer.

A summary of the past year's work showed that much had been accomplished in Home Improvement, and more than fifty percent of the members enrolled had been one hundred percent in attendance.

Following the business session, members returned to the special work shop that was being conducted, with Mrs. Wm. Gadker as leader. A busy group of members and guests completed nineteen trays.

The meeting was adjourned to reconvene on the fourth Tuesday in September.

Guests for the day included Mesdames Russell Rector, Cecil Northcutt, Frank Lipscomb, Miss Elma Taylor, Alma Stephens and Ruth Schmidt. Others attending were Mesdames J. C. Beall, William Binder, Denver Binder, J. J. Barnett, Lou Deuser, H. L. Faulkner, Ralph Howard, George Klein, Roy Payne, L. J. Rapp, Stella Richardson, John Shaw, Emil Stein and Edith Ware.

We are very glad to report that our pastor's wife, Mrs. John Wheary is improving from a week's illness. We hope and pray that she is soon entirely well. Several of the women in the neighborhood have been taking turns at helping with nursing.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hamilton and Mrs. Sophronia Mills spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Ballinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris G. Wharton were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney and son Donald.

We had only a small number at fellowship meeting at the church, but everyone seemed to have a very enjoyable time.

Misses Loretta and Marcella Goede are the proud owners of a new car.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hanna and son were Sunday guests of his parents.

The Sunday school is planning to take lunch and go to the Zoo, Sunday, July 9, directly after the Sunday school session.

Plans are being made for the home coming event here at the church on July 30. We hope to see many of our friends of by gone days as well as former pastors. We are expecting a band from LaGrange. Come with your basket and enjoy the fellowship.

LITTLE SOUTH FORK

Mr. and Mrs. Rea Scudder and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baker and daughters enjoyed a wicker roast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Sutton and daughter and Mrs. Allie Perry, Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Thompson and sons of Paris, Ky., spent Friday with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Boots and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Rea Scudder called on Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baker and daughters, Friday. Bonnie June accompanied them home to spend the night.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Sutton and daughter and Mrs. Allie Perry called on Mr. and Mrs. Robert Perry and family of near Burlington, Saturday night. Mrs. Allie Perry will visit with them for awhile.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Boots and daughter spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wallace and son.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Haddix and son called on Mr. and Mrs. Jim Boots and children, Sunday night.

We are happy to report a wonderful meeting and crowd attended the afternoon sing at South Fork, Sunday afternoon. The speaker was Wesley Walker, a missionary from India. He and his wife showed some interesting pictures of India. You missed a wonderful service if you didn't attend.

There will be a congregational meeting for the members of South Fork Christian Church, July 9 at 2:30 and we request the presence of each member. The meeting is very important and it is important that each member be there.

NOTICE—

I will apply for renewal of my Retail Package Liquor License and Retail Beer License for the year, July 1, 1950 through June 30, 1951. My place of business is located on Main Street, Walton, Ky.

Lesson for July 9, 1950

A GREAT man cannot always be seen at close range. His contemporaries may not know what to make of him. Current celebrities outshine him, his enemies cry him down, circumstances hide his true greatness. You have to stand off from him, perhaps several centuries away, before you can see his true height. Great men are like tall mountains; within a few miles of them the traveler cannot see them for the masses of smaller ridges and peaks that hide the distant view. Only far out on the plain can we see the great peak towering into the blue.

Not Much Chance

MOSES was such a man. At many times in his life, if you had been there, you would have thought he had very little chance to live, much less to succeed. Suppose you had seen him in the first three months of his life? He was born under a death sentence; his parents were breaking the law of the land by keeping him alive at all. Then later if you had seen him in his sea-gown basket among the reeds in the river, you might have thought: Will the contraption float? Even if a princess finds the baby, won't she know what he is and send him straight off to be killed? Or years later, when Moses was a sort of pampered stepson of the palace, what promise was in him? Pharaoh's court was full always of proud young fellows spilling for a fight. Moses might have looked to you just like another useless aristocrat. And then when Moses was out in the wilds, tending another man's sheep, married to an ignorant back-country lass who never understood him in the least; would you have put much faith in this discouraged old ranch-hand?

God's Man. Don't judge a man by what his contemporaries say. We know now, we have known for centuries, that Moses was one of God's greatest and best. Consider what the world owes to that one man. Of all his services, let us note three in particular. For one thing, we trace the Ten Commandments back to him. Not that he was the first to call stealing or adultery or greediness wicked; men have known as much since early times. But we do associate the Ten Commandments with Moses' name. He preached and taught that religion is ethical; that is, right living is tied in with and tied up to right religion.

Faith and life flow into and support each other. Some religions declare that if a man pleases God that is all that matters; he can ride his neighbors as he pleases. Other religions (or substitutes for religion) say that if a man treats other men right he can let God go. Not so Moses; not so the Jews nor the Christians! Moses was also the man through whom God revealed some of the most important truths we know about God. Moses taught his people, and through them teaches us, of a spiritual God, not like anything "in heaven above or the earth beneath or in the waters under the earth." God has "no manner of form." God is pure spirit, without a body like men or like anything. To this day men find that hard to take in; but it is an important truth for any one who wants to think truly about God and to find him.

Moses and Christ

ABOVE all, there would have been no Christianity if Moses had never lived, or if he had failed. If the children of Israel had done what they wanted to do, sink back to Egypt and slavery, the whole great history of the Old Testament would have been unwritten. Poets and prophets would have died unborn. But he would have had to make a start somewhere else besides with the Hebrew people, and the whole history of religion would have been different. There would have been no New Testament without the Old Testament.

Even Jesus of Nazareth either would not have been at all, or would have been entirely different, if it had not been for the whole background of the Hebrew story, in which Moses played such a leading part. If the world owes a debt to Christianity (and what a debt!), it owes also a tribute to Moses.

THREE PILLARS of POWER

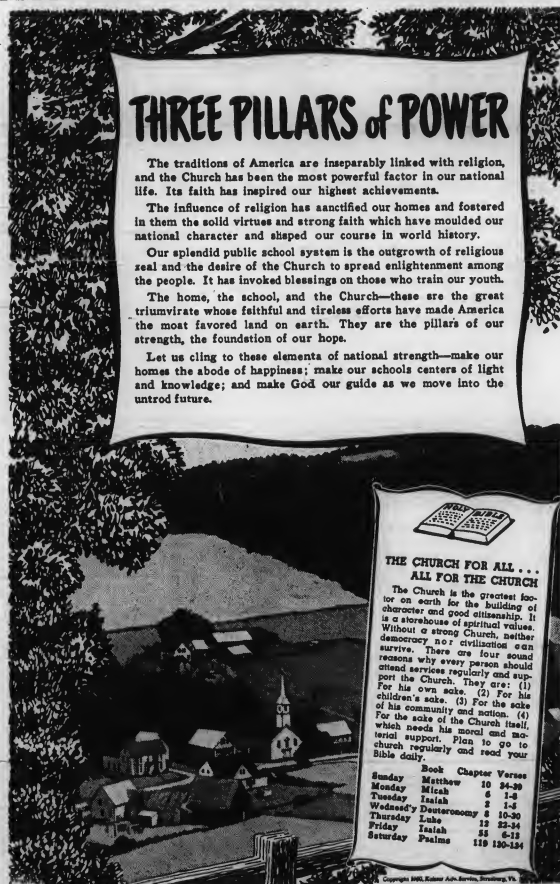

The traditions of America are inseparably linked with religion, and the Church has been the most powerful factor in our national life. Its faith has inspired our highest achievements.

The influence of religion has sanctified our homes and fostered in them the solid virtues and strong faith which have moulded our national character and shaped our course in world history.

Our splendid public school system is the outgrowth of religious zeal and the desire of the Church to spread enlightenment among the people. It has invoked blessings on those who train our youth.

The home, the school, and the Church—these are the great triumvirate whose faithful and tireless efforts have made America the most favored land on earth. They are the pillars of our strength, the foundation of our hope.

Let us cling to these elements of national strength—make our homes the abode of happiness; make our schools centers of light and knowledge; and make God our guide as we move into the untrod future.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of a character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) Which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

SHORT STORY

Benny Wises Up

By Richard Hill Wilkison

BENNY got a big kick out of eavesdropping on the sheriff. It smacked of adventure and the wild life he loved. He got a bigger kick when he heard Sheriff Conrad mention Slick Dearborn.

Slick Dearborn was the smartest outlaw with whom Conrad had ever had to contend.

He was Benny's idol, for he represented the dangerous freedom of which the boy had always dreamed. One day three weeks ago Benny had seen Slick in the Faraway Saloon, and something about the worshipful look in the youngster's eyes had attracted the outlaw's attention.

Benny had been almost speechless with gratitude when the outlaw spoke to him. They had a long conversation, and when it was over Benny knew a sense of importance that was almost the fulfillment of his dreams.

Ear glued to the side of the building, Benny held his breath while Sheriff Conrad and his deputy, Joe Hicks, carried on their low-voiced conversation.

At 4 o'clock that afternoon Benny drew rein in the secret canyon where Slick was hiding. He gave the secret whistle that he and the outlaw had agreed upon, then waited breathlessly.

Minutes passed and nothing happened. Benny moved down the canyon a ways and whistled again. Suddenly two men emerged from behind a boulder. One of them was Slick Dearborn. Benny shouted at them.

"Slick, I just heard the sheriff and his deputy talkin'." They found out it was you who held up the bank last week, an' they know you're hidin' up here an' they're comin' to get yuh."

"You come with us," said Slick shortly.

"Nemmine keepin' guard," Slick called, and the other outlaw slid back to the ground. "We gotta get out of here and git fast. Kid, did anyone see you leave town?"

"No, sir. Not a soul. I done jest like you told me."

"Good. You're comin' with us." The second outlaw came from behind a screen of bushes, riding on horse and leading another. Slick swung aboard the extra animal.

There came the sound of a shot. The second outlaw uttered a scream, clutched at his breast and plunged from the saddle. A second shot followed, and Slick's mount went to its knees.

At four o'clock that afternoon Benny drew rein in the secret canyon where Slick was hiding.

Slick swore violently as Benny crawled up beside him. "You damned little rat! Thought you said nobody followed you out of town!"

"Honest Slick—"

RICHARD ROBERTS

Richard K. Roberts, 71, prominent Gallatin county Mason, died June 24 at the home of a nephew, Richard L. Roberts, Ft. Thomas, following an illness of about a year. His occupation was that of a wood working machinist, until he retired in 1930.

In 1900 he became a member of Tadmor Lodge, 108, F. & A. M., and was recently awarded a pin by the Grand Lodge of Kentucky in recognition of fifty years of continuous membership. He was also a member of Warsaw Chapter, 97, R. A. M. and Covington Commandery Knights Templar.

He leaves two brothers, Matt and William Roberts and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were conducted at the Warsaw Baptist Church, June 27 by Dr. R. H. Willets. Burial was in Warsaw Cemetery, with services by Tadmor Lodge.

"FOR SALE"
"PUBLIC AUCTION"

Two age-old phrases that possess a particularly thrilling significance—they signal the fact that somebody's going to sell and somebody else is going to buy. The "seller" and the "buyer" are the wheelhorses in this action, but no less important is the third man—the Real Estate Man, or negotiator, who brings the dollar face to face with the value, concludes the action to the mutual satisfaction of the principals involved. Let us be your third man—if you want to BUY IT, SELL IT or AUCTION IT... See us!

LADINO CLOVER IN HIGH FAVOR

In tests made at the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station, Ladino clover was found to rank first with feeder steers in both palatability and digestibility. It was favored over alfalfa, orchard grass, bluegrass and Ky. 31 fescue in that order.

In all forages except Ladino clover palatability and digestibility decreased very rapidly as the season advanced, even though the crops were kept pasture-short by clipping, noted Dr. W. P. Garrigus, head of the Animal Industry Group.

One hundred and twenty-five studies made on lambs grazing on 10 different grasses and legumes showed Ladino clover to be the most palatable. Others rated in this order: bluegrass, alfalfa, timothy, Kentucky red clover, Lincoln brome grass, red top, orchard grass and Ky. 31 fescue.

Ladino clover also proved to be the most digestible of all forages for lambs, with red top, Ky. 31 fescue and orchard grass being the least digestible, on the average, for the entire season.

With the exception of Ladino clover, all grasses and legumes became less digestible and less palatable as they matured. Further studies with lambs are in progress.

Tests to compare the feeding value of Ladino clover and alfalfa for hogs are under way at the Experiment Station. Pasture feeding tests at experiment stations in other states indicate that this clover may be a better hog pasture than is alfalfa.

Gallatin county homemakers have set out a total of 9,000 gladioli bulbs in the past three years.

The Long Ridge Homemakers Club in Owen county contributed $50 to the newly organized band sponsored by the County 4-H Club Council.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. St. Clair of Falls of the Rough Community in Grayson county have bought a 30-cubic-foot deep freeze, the second one in the county.

Thirteen of the 15 homemakers clubs in Larue county had exhibits of their work in store windows during Home Demonstration Week.

You can be Charming

by Marsha Wheeler

The way you wear your hair, whether short or very short, should intimately be your way, not something imposed by a hair dresser. Make up your own mind, then try to tell the hair dresser.

If you set your own hair, set the curls loose and large. Hair should look straight yet lie in waves.

Cut too much like a man's, your hair defeats the whole purpose of a woman's existence—femininity.

For beauty's sake, tie your strand of pearls at the throat with a bright colored ribbon. Fasten a jeweled pin on the tip of your party slippers. It was Grandma who used to wear her eyeglasses pushed up on her forehead. Today a leading fashion magazine shows a smartly dressed woman with the dark frames of her close-work eyeglasses pushed up into her forelocks. Frames are fashion news, such as the sensationally smart laminated frames at Queen Optical—taupe feathers laminated in the center of transparent shell frames, green lace, red plaid or yellow straw.

These are but a few of the unusual laminated frames you'll see at Queen Optical Company, Palace Theater Bldg., 12 East Sixth Street, Cincinnati. Air-conditioned, testing and dispensing rooms.

Subway Philosopher "Lends Out" Fare

From "Now," comes the story of a E. T. Barnes, 42, a widower of New York City. He is "fill in" man of subways and travels from station to station adhering strictly to the rules of the Board. Rather than let someone ride free, he pays the dime from his own pocket. It costs him about 50c per month in way of loans — "and I'll tell you something that will surprise you," he went on, "I get back at least twenty cents of that fifty cents every month. It never fails."

When Mr. Barnes was asked why he was willing to go year after year losing thirty cents a month, he replied, "Well, it's because maybe that guy whom I would be turning down for the dime would be just the one who would be returning it to me the next day or the week after."

He summed up his simple philosophy this way, "I find it takes much more energy to be nasty to people than to be nice, so why should I knock myself out, particularly in hot weather?" "Then, too," he continued, "there's this point. People come by me here in the morning and if I am nasty, then they're nasty and we both start our day off with a frown. Sure I get lemons who don't bring back the dimes, but it doesn't add up to very much and its worth it in the long run."

Mr. Barnes in a way, reminds one of the Man, Christ Jesus, who does not "lend out" fares but who has paid the fare outright for all wishing to travel from the "City of Destruction" to the "Celestial City."

The fare He paid cannot be estimated in dimes—it cost Him His life's blood. He died on the cross, the just for the unjust, "that He might bring us to God."—(1 Peter 3:18). Those who accept His free gift cannot repay Him, but they can love, worship and serve Him here and rejoice in the glorious prospect of being with and like Him forever.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Faulkner and Mr. and Mrs. Harold McGraw have motored to Florida for a few days vacation.

Poultry Losses

Mr. Wicklund, County Agent, says that it is surprising how big the loss is in poultry each year due to lice and mites. Roundworms, tapeworms, lice and mites cause a continuous loss to poultry raisers, especially the young birds. These parasites cause general unthriftiness, paleness of head and shanks, loss of flesh and loss of appetite in advanced cases. The modern practice of raising large numbers of fowls on small areas has increased the loss from parasites.

Head lice infest baby chicks, body lice and feather lice appear when the chicks begin to feather. Lice spend their entire life on the infested fowl and deposit their eggs singly or in clusters on the base of the feathers. The heat of the chicken's body hatches the eggs in one week and the lice mature in 10 days. They pass rapidly from one chicken to another, but they die very quickly when off the fowl.

A 40 percent solution of nicotine sulfate will kill lice. Apply it to the perches half an hour before the birds go to roost, or place a small amount on the feathers below the vent under each wing and at the back of the neck.

Sodium fluoride also may be used to kill lice. Ask any County Agent for a copy of leaflets A1-18 on control and prevention of poultry parasites, Fowl Pox 32, Newcastle Disease 106.

Poultry serve as hosts for several different kinds of mites. Red mites are found in most flocks. They are blood-sucking parasites that feed almost entirely at night and leave the chickens during the day to hide in the chicken house. They deposit their eggs in cracks and crevices on the perches, ceiling, walls, floor and nests. Mite eggs hatch in 2 days and mites mature in 5 days.

Mr. Wicklund says that hen houses should be cleaned and control measures put into action for the hot weather ahead multiplies the parasites.

—ABSOLUTE— ACTION 70 LOTS 70

BLUE GRASS SUBDIVISION, FLORENCE, KY.

Mrs. Fanny Scott of Florence, Ky., has contracted with me to sell at Absolute Auction her 70 Lots, located on Highway 42 at the city limits, on Saturday, July 8

1 P. M. Cincinnati Time

It is hard to find words to describe these beautiful building lots—Blue Grass Subdivision has been laid out by a Registered Engineer; natural drainage makes it an ideal piece of property for a Subdivision; it's located in one of the best residential sections of this community.

There will be lots fronting on U. S. Highway 42 as large as 70x200, also 60x200 and some of the back lots facing the street running down to 50x150. Blue Grass Subdivision will be restricted—inquire about restrictions—we are sure they will be satisfactory to any prospective buyer.

This is a rare opportunity to buy lots in a community of this kind—a clean, healthy place to live, just a few minutes drive to Cincinnati from Florence, where you have bus service every 10 or 15 minutes, schools and churches of all denominations—a perfect place to build.

This would be a good investment even though you are not planning to build—it's a growing community where property will be sure to increase in value.

CONRAD HARDWARE
JULY 4th

This is the day everyone goes somewhere—some go fishing, some on a picnic, some go joy riding, some visiting relatives or friends—so you see why we have so much traffic on this weekend—very few stay at home. We had a lot of customers this week, too—Chick and I were really busy, as Brewster is on his vacation for two weeks.

Hiram English broke his grass board on that Massey-Harris tractor mower—we didn't have any, but we made him one out of a McCormick. Clay Nix from over Elliston neighborhood, also had mower trouble—we soon fixed him up. Forest Marsh and Louise were here after hoes and bale ties—the grass and weeds are on the grow. Edgar Schukler from Fiskburg was here in a hurry after hay rope—Edgar is one of our electricians, but this day he was over his head in hay. Ralph Page, on so of our painters, sure likes that Bolce paint and he uses a lot of it.

Willford and Wayne Rive also are using Bolce roof paint and aluminum. Have you seen Roy Hurd's place since they remodeled and painted with that good white outside white and the new fence and gate? Mr. and Mrs. Hurd sure improve a place when they move in—everything has to be right, not halfway done.

There were five people in the store Monday from Ontario, Canada, who had just driven down for the trip—they went as far as Lexington and took in all the race horse farms—they sure gave Old Kentucky a build-up and said they were coming back to see more of it—I tried to tell them they were in the garden spot of the world—the children—said they could only take $30.00 worth back across the border. US 25 is still the main road South and will always be, if we keep on pulling and reminding your AAA Club of it every time you have a chance.

Annie Powell and Mrs. Henry Catlett from Verona just blew in out of the hay field after bale ties—we loaded them in a hurry, because Henry and Bert were waiting. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Catlett bought a Buick pressure washer. Harry Callen bought a Buick pressure washer. These had 14 quarts and save fuel and time. Mrs. C. Y. Goodpaster came up after an Arvin radio—their old one just quit. Mrs. Viola Roberts also had to have a new Arvin radio—we sell a lot of these small sets—they are not expensive and give good service.

Mrs. Lydia Vallandigham came in with pressure cooker troubles, but all she needed was a Little Hoard stopped in and told us to send them two metal lawn chairs—they have an ideal place for these, with plenty of shade. Ray and Betty Jo Roter from Beaver also took home two of the best metal chairs we had. Sarah King and Mildred were over after a thermos jug and a White Mountain ice cream freezer—these make the best ice cream anyone ever ate.

Ray Myers, who is a building contractor, and Jane Sutton's boy friend, was in after a South Bend fly reel and fly line—Jane and Ray are great fishermen. Bill Roberts had a nice string of fish and Mr. Newton, who operates the Walton Hotel, also caught a nice mess at Verona Lake. Ezra Gullion must have caught the grandpa for it was the largest fish I have ever seen. These fellows are some of my fishing tackle customers.

Pleasant View Baptist Church bought a Reo power lawn mower for their cemetery. We have a few more of these left and they are bound to be higher next year, as all steel is going up. We have sold a lot of shells and centrifuges as they are also going higher. Now is the time to buy a Gibson refrigerator—we have a 11.2 cu. ft. one for only $239.00 and a 7 cu. ft. for only $189.00; also we have the best Perfection electric range for $295.00, installed; 2 and 3 burner Perfection oil cook stoves for canning; another special is an electric sickle grinder for $27.50, ready to plug in, and grind—don't buy a used electric motor when you can buy a 1/4 h. p. new Westinghouse for $13.50.

We carry a large stock of Gates V-belts and pulleys, most any size and type.

Yesterday was the 4th of July and we were supposed to rest, but I had to make out a point order and pipe fitting order, write a few checks, deliver a Ratusa plow to Kenneth Tomlin down at Banklick, and a lawn mower to R. H. Clarkson at Kensington. Billie Adams and wife are building a nice home out on Nicholson Road close to his father. We have several nice houses going up around here. They are really going up on the Verona Baptist Church—ready to put the roof on. I expect they could use a donation, as it takes a lot of money to build. Several of us here in town have helped and I know they could use more. You will never go wrong helping churches and schools, for we have to have these two.

Those are what makes our country the best place to live, especially Walton, with the three best churches in the county and the best school, and when we get our new building, we will have a super-duper. You can't beat Walton as a town and you can't beat CONRAD HARDWARE as a store—we sell you the merchandise with great pleasure and satisfaction. Come to Conrad's!

Independence Fire Department Picnic Set For July 28-29

The Independence Community Volunteer Fire Department has completed plans for their 13th annual picnic Friday and Saturday, July 28 and 29.

There will be games and rides for the kiddies, as well as refreshments. Prizes to be given away are, a choice of a gas or electric stove, a Reo lawn mower and a porch glider. Tickets may be had by contacting the firemen. One feature of the picnic will be old time square dancing, with music by Steve Ammerman and his Gold Star Cowboys, formerly of WCKY. Dancing from 9 until 1 a. m.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Fire Department will serve the lunch. Proceeds from the picnic will go toward the completion of the new building.

Boone County Farm Bureau Picnic Saturday

The biggest and best planned Farm Bureau picnic ever held in Boone County will be held at the 4-H and Utopia Fair Grounds, Burlington, Saturday, July 15, starting at 10 a. m., according to John Crigler, Secretary of the Bureau.

The refreshment committee promises plenty of free eats and drinks. The menu will be fish and ham sandwiches, potato chips, coffee and soft drinks. The games committee promises several ball games, horse shoes, croquet, rolling pin throwing and other contests for all. A special event will be held for boys 9 to 14 inclusive, of catching a greased pig, which they will keep. Special speaking and music will also be featured.

You are invited to attend, with the whole family, and invite your farmer friend.

Beauty Shop Closed

The Artistic Beauty Salon will be closed until July 25, as the manager, Miss Mary Yeasley is vacationing in Florida. However, appointments may be made at any time prior to July 25.

Operator's License To Be Sold At 8 Points In County

The present Operator's License expires July 31, 1950, and all operators of motor vehicles are required, on or before that date, to procure a renewal of their license.

The new license, according to A. D. Yelton, may be obtained at the Circuit Clerk's Office in the court-house or by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope, with the operator's license and the fee of $1.00 to the clerk. If more than one license from a family is mailed in, one envelope is sufficient. Obtaining your license by mail is a very convenient way, and if you are checked for your license, it is an excusable defense that you have sent it in to be renewed.

Licenses will be sold at the following locations in Boone County: Petersburg, Farmers Bank, July 17; Verona, Verona Bank, July 18; Constance, Ellis Store, the afternoon of July 19.

Florence, Community Center, on July 21 and 22; Lebanon, Hebron Motors, July 24; Union, Union Bank, July 25.

Grant, Citizens Bank, the afternoon of July 26; Walton, City Building, July 28-29.

There will be a State Policeman in the Clerk's Office on Wednesday morning from 9 a. m. to 11:45 a. m. of each week to give the Driver's Test. Applicants under 18 years of age must have their application assigned by their father before they are permitted to take the test.

Birthdays Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Penn entertained last Wednesday evening, for Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Hoffman, Miss Dorothy Hoffman, Mrs. Mary Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Roberts and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Pruett, Mrs. Jack Snape, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wallace, Mrs. Sally Miller, Miss Emma Jane Miller, and Rev. Ed Grant. The affair was in honor of the birthdays of Mrs. Roberts and Rev. Grant.

Local workers in the recent Booth Hospital Maintenance Fund Drive are shown above, front row (left to right), Mrs. Doris Lindsey, Mrs. Donald Stephenson, District Chairman, and Mrs. Ralph Lucas; second row (left to right), Mrs. Warren Stephenson, Mrs. Clifford Farwell, Mrs. William McLaughlin, and Mrs. Joe Lemmons.

Mrs. Stephenson praised her workers for a worthy task well done. The over-all goal of $49,300 was passed. Dan Roberts, local business and civic leader, and Co-Chairman with Kirtley Cropper of Burlington, for Boone County, expressed great satisfaction over the fine cooperation of workers throughout the county and the splendid response of the public.

Mr. Roberts said, "Booth Hospital holds a warm place in the hearts of the people of Boone County by the valuable service rendered to the public, and now that the new addition is ready for use the service will be even greater. When we realize that

Four Games Played In Softball League; Lions, Bob & Jo Lead

Play in the Walton Softball League went according to schedule the past week, and four games were disposed of, Thursday and Tuesday.

Last Thursday evening, Independence smothered the Fire Department 28-3, and the Lions chalked their second win at the expense of Banklick 19-10. In the latter fray the "big blow" was struck by Pluck over the right field screen for a home run, the barrier being some 250 feet from home plate.

Tuesday night featured one of the best games of the season, when the Fire Club defeated Shamrock Inn 6-4. Dike Vest was the winning hurler and Joe Ryan the loser. The High School had 11 hits and the losers had but 4. The second contest brought together Verona and Bob & Jo's, which the latter won by a 15-7 count. The victors collected 13 safeties off the offerings of Poole and Rich, while Joe Lemmons held Verona to 4 bingles.

The Lions Club and Bob & Jo's are at the top of the heap with 2 wins each, while the Fire Department and Shamrock are yet to taste victory. The other teams have one or no records (unless our records are incomplete).

All persons interested in the old-age and survivors insurance program, or applicants for social security cards should consult this representative.

LAST PAPER PICK-UP

The last paper pick-up by the Walton Fire Department will be conducted this Friday, July 14, at 5:30. Please place bundled paper at curb line. Chief Allen will be on duty to remind everyone that the Annual Firemen's Picnic is being scheduled for Aug. 3, 4, and 5. Don't forget!

Hammond Organ Installed At Walton Baptist Church

A new Hammond organ was installed in the Walton Baptist Church this week. The organ was purchased and presented to the church by Frank DeMoisey in honor of his father and mother, R. F. DeMoisey, DD and Johnny DeMoisey. This gift to the church is greatly appreciated and will add much to the worship services.

Sunday morning the pastor's topic will be "One of God's Unanswerable Questions." Communion service will follow the sermon.

During the past three months the Sunday school has had an average attendance of 238.

A most hearty welcome is extended to all to attend all services.

Trailways Open Bus Depots In Dry Ridge, Crittenden, Walton

The Trailways Bus System established local bus depots in Walton, Crittenden and Dry Ridge this week and begin operation of eight trips daily between Cincinnati and Knoxville on Friday, July 14.

The bus depot in Walton is located in the Phoenix Restaurant, and buses depart northbound for Cincinnati and points beyond at 4:20 a. m., 11:02 a. m., 5:49 p. m. and 10:34 p. m. Southbound for Knoxville and points beyond, buses depart at 12:36 a. m., 6:41 a. m., 1:11 p. m. and 6:56 p. m.

The depot in Crittenden is located in the Sturgeon Grocery. Buses depart northbound, at 4:07 a. m., 10:49 a. m., 5:36 p. m. and 10:21 p. m., and southbound, at 12:48 a. m., 6:54 a. m., 1:24 p. m. and 7:09 p. m.

The Dry Ridge depot is located in the Carlsbad Hotel. Buses depart northbound, at 3:55 a. m., 10:36 a. m., 5:23 p. m. and 10:09 p. m. The southbound buses leave at 12:59 a. m., 7:07 a. m., 1:37 p. m. and 7:22 p. m.

All new 41-passenger air-conditioned Silverdies Diesel Coaches are being used on the new service, and, says, in addition to offering service between Cincinnati and Knoxville, will bring to those communities through no-change bus service to Chicago and one-change points to Miami and other Florida points.

Bible School at Richwood

The Union and Richwood Presbyterian churches are holding their annual July Vacation Bible School July 17 through July 21. The school will begin each day at 9:30 and disband at 3:00. Students are expected to bring their own lunch. A drink will be provided by the school. The age limit for the school is four through 14 years. The school will be held at the Richwood church.

All children in the Union and Richwood communities are cordially invited and further, urged to attend this week of Biblical instruction, fun and handwork.

Garden-Cultural Club Meets

Mrs. Clifford Northcutt was hostess. The Kenton County Garden and Cultural Club at the June meeting, held in the Independence Christian Church.

Mrs. J. Clifton Mayhugh gave a very interesting talk on "Women of Kentucky." Mrs. Orie S. Ware, vice-president and program conductor, judged arrangements of roses. There were 19 members present.

Welcome guests were Mrs. John Klette, Mrs. L. G. Cummins, Mrs. Neil Morgan, Mrs. Raymond Dixon, and Miss Ann Mayhugh.

Cannery to Open At Simon Kenton Tuesday, July 18

The Simon Kenton School Community Cannery will be open Tuesday, July 18, according to a statement made by J. A. Caywood, Superintendent of the Kenton County Schools.

During the first part of the canning season, the cannery will be open on Tuesdays only. Later, during the peak canning season, it will be open on Tuesdays and Fridays.

Appointments for canning should be made the day previous by calling Mr. Caywood's office, Ind. 5054, between 9:00 a. m. and 3:00 p. m. Foods to be canned must be at the school between 8:30 a. m. and 1:00 p. m. The price of cans remains the same, six to eight cents per can, depending on size and type. This covers cost of cans and use of cannery.

The following people are responsible for managing and operating the cannery this year: J. A. Caywood and Miss Helen Richardson, appointment and general information; Mrs. Helen G. McElroy and John I. Gray, supervisors; Mrs. Mildred Popp, special canner teacher, and Cliff Coleman and Henry Schoberg, engineers.

Trim Bavarian 7-1 Behind Steffen

In a KAG league baseball game at Melbourne, Sunday, the Verona Community Club plastered Bavarian 7-1, their fifth straight win, thus moving into a tie for third place in the league standings.

Verona had 7 runs, 11 hits and 2 errors, while Bavarian had 1 run, 5 hits and 3 errors.

Steffen went the distance for the winners, with Baumann catching. The winner's hit parade was led by Brown, who had 2 for 5; Alexander, with 2 for 4, and Williamson, who bagged 2 for 3, one blow being good for three bases.

R. Hartig pitched five innings for the beermen and allowed 8 hits, 6 runs, struck out 2 and walked 3, to get credit for the loss. Daines hurled four frames and gave up 3 hits, 1 run, struck out 3 and walked 2. K. Hartig did the receiving. Curry had 2 for 5, one hit being a double, and Parker hit a long home run in the fourth for Bavarian's lone run.

Play Hudepohl, Sunday

The Community Club will play Hudepohl, Sunday, July 16 at Verona. Game time is 2:30.

HENRY-KINGSOLVER

Central Christian Church, Lexington, was the scene of the wedding of Miss Virginia Lee Henry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Henry of Lexington, to Mr. Wendell Kingsolver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kingsolver, also of Lexington, which took place at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, June 24.

The church was decorated with ferns, palms, white lilies, white gladiolus and lighted tapers. A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Lela Cullis, organist. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a beautiful wedding gown of white organdy with long train. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses, centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Richard Iserhour, sister of the bride, was her maid of honor. She wore an embroidered white organdy over pink taffeta and carried pink rose buds. The bride's maids wore white organdy over blue, orchid and green, carrying yellow rose buds. One of the bride's maids was a cousin of the bride, Miss Pauline Stephenson of near Walton. The others were friends.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride and groom were both graduated from U. K. He is now studying to be a doctor.

Visit Son In Virginia

Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Dudgeon, with Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Miskell of Norwood, Ohio, left July 1 for a trip through the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia to Ft. Euclid, Va., where they spent several days with their son, James O. Dudgeon, his wife, and daughter. They visited several points of interest in Virginia and came back through the Smoky Mountains. The Dudgeons returned here July 8.

Appearing In Beach Movie

Miss Jo Ann Elliott, formerly of this place, was one of several girls chosen to be in a beach movie taken at her home in Daytona Beach, Fla. This picture will be a half hour movie of scenes along the beach, and will also be a 15-minute television show.

WALTON HOMEMAKERS, No. 2

Walton Homemakers, No. 2, were entertained for the June meeting in the home of Mrs. W. M. Jones. After a delicious supper, the meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs.
Jones, by singing "God Bless America." Plans were made for a rummage sale July 15, beginning at 6:00 p. m. at Mrs. Virgie Sechrest's. At the meeting, seven trays were finished of the nine started in May.
They were beautiful, and the lesson was of great interest, given by Mrs.

Jun eNeumeister, Mrs. Leo Flynn, and Mrs. Dora Pennington.
Members present were Mrs. Mary
Riddell, Mrs. Della Sleet, Mrs. James
Ingram, Mrs. Virgie Sechrest and Sonny, Mrs. Alice Sleet, Miss Anna
F. Ross, Mrs. Mattie Howlett, and the hostess, Mrs. W. M. Jones.

SCRIPTURE: The Book of Ruth.
DEVOTIONAL READING: Proverbs 31:10-31.

Why Families?

Lesson for July 16, 1950

THE ENGLISH language has a word not found in the original languages of the Bible; it is not in Latin, German or French for that matter. It is the word "home." But homes were not invented in England or America; the ancient peoples of the world had homes even if they had no special word for them. The story of Ruth is a home-story, a family tale. It comes from the times of the Judges, which were very rugged times indeed.

To read the Book of Judges you don't think that everything was plots and wars and murder. There isn't a peaceful story in the book. And then comes the story of Ruth, to remind us that even in those terrible times there were happy people, people who minded their business and worked hard and stayed home and loved one another. The bright spots today's vast seas of misery are just what they were in Ruth's time.

Working Together

A HOME is a place to go when everything else has shut up. It is not a true proverb. For if that is all it is, it is not a home. It is only a boarding house and not a very attractive one at that.

It is the people who live in it who make it. But just throwing people together within four walls, even if the people are closely related, will not make a home. When you read the story of Ruth you see one thing standing out: they are all working people.

To this day, there are fewer divorces in the country than in the cities, and one big reason for that is that country families have to work together, while city families often have little in common. In the country everybody turns to and does something about the house, everybody helps everybody else; while in the cities where so much is done by machines and houses are very small, there isn't much a family can do together. Still, it is worth while for any family to try to work out something that they can all do together.

Unity in Variety

IT is striking that in the Bible the warmest expression of devotion shown by one person to another, is expressed by one woman to her mother-in-law, by Ruth to Naomi. Ruth was of a different race and generation and nation. Yet she takes Naomi's family for her own.

That illustrates another beautiful feature of living in a family. You learn to live with all kinds of people. Even in so small a group, no two are alike. And the thing that binds a family together almost better than anything else is not similar tastes in breakfast foods, or identical educations, or equality of age or temperament: it is common ideals, it is agreement about the important things in life.

What do you, for example, think is the greatest thing in the world? Do your family agree with you? If they do (or you with them) then you have a basis for a happy family life.

Unity in Worship

HIGH ideals, held by all in common, are almost the best family cement; but better and best is religion. When you read the story of Ruth you are struck not only by their high ideals but by their natural, heartfelt, everyday religious faith. It comes out in the remarks of Boaz. It was one of the things that no doubt had attracted Ruth to the family in the first place. The climax of her famous promise to her mother-in-law is "My God shall be my God."

It is at best confusing, and at worst tragic, when families are divided in their religious faith. Some one has said that when the father belongs to one denomination and the wife to another, the children are likely to become Nothingarians.

The old family pew, happily not out of style in many places, is more than a quaint custom. It is a fine symbol of family life at its best. Where are the most of the broken homes? Among the families where father and mother send the children to Sunday school while they themselves lie around at home reading the paper, or among the families where all go to the house of God together? A home without real religion is a home without its surest foundation.

THE OLD ADAGE

An old adage, indeed, that "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy."

The "kids" on the farm are models of youthful efficiency. But they go a-fishin' whenever they can.

The business men, the housewives, the schoolchildren—they need their fishin' too!

But there is another way in which the old adage is true: ALL WORKING and no PRAYING leaves man a dull soul!

The God who created us never intended us to be able to get along without Him.

Our hands may sow seed, but they can't make it grow. Our minds may work out problems, but they can't solve the world's chaos. All of our efficiency hasn't brought us lasting happiness or firm hope.

But when we turn to our Christian faith, and seek its power through regular worship in our Churches—then we find the things we need and want most!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest force for on earth for the building of a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For his own community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plans to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

One secret of charm is putting others at ease. Secret of putting others at ease is being at ease yourself. Secret of being at ease yourself is the practice of courtesy, at home, every day.

Charm walks with chin upheld. This summer adopt the habit of keeping your eyes on the lower leaves of the trees. Behold, you walk with chin up.

Permanent fixture for your kitchen sink—a jar of hand cream. A nuisance, perhaps, to rub a bit of cream into your hands after each dishwashing chore, but the habit is sure defeat to the coarse reddening that comes more from hot water than from soap.

Grandmotherly "camisoles" were worn only in the bedroom. Today's form fitting camisole is smart and wear.

One lady frowns and squints, proclaiming loudly that she can't see. Another wears fashion's newest eyeglass frames as a smart accessory and enjoys the clear, normal vision of corrective lenses.

At the Queen Optical Company, expert Doctors of Optometry give thorough, scientific eye-sight examinations and prescribe corrective lenses if required. Frames are repaired, broken lenses replaced. Queen Optical Company, Palace Theater Bldg., 12 East Sixth Street, Cincinnati. Air conditioned throughout. No appointment necessary.

The Sunday School and D.V.B.S. enjoyed a picnic at Bethel Grove, on July 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown are being congratulated on their marriage which took place July 2 at Lebanon Church.

Mrs. Lizzie Noel visited her doctor in Covington, last week, and was accompanied by Mrs. Etta McManama, and they also shopped.

John Dempsey, who died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Mary Foley in Ohio, was brought here for burial this week.

Miss Bonnie Washum, who had her foot cut the first of June, is able to be up.

Mrs. Rose Hamilton is able to be out again after having sprained her

Homemakers Picnic

Friends of New Bethel Baptist Church are glad to hear the carpenters are putting on the shingles, and it is hoped it will be ready for use for a revival the last two weeks in August.

Billy M. Waller is enjoying his work at Rochelle, Ill., and will be home in about two weeks.

Verona Homemakers had their picnic at the Ira Harris home on Saturday night, July 8. The picnic lunch consisted of fried chicken, ham, salads of all kinds, potato chips, pickles, tea, cake and ice cream. The following were present: Bro. Ray Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Pooks, Mr. and Mrs. George Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. John Kamady, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Chapman, Mrs. Clyde Chapman and children, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lamm and Freddie, Mrs. Lizzie Noel, Mr. and Mrs. T. J.

Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Mayro Hayden and Caroline, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rouse and children, Mrs. Lenabelle Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Kirt Richter, Mr. and Mrs. Branhan and son, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Waller and son, Mrs. Raymond Stephenson and son, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Harris and children, George F. Elliston, Bonnie Elliott. All enjoyed games of horse shoes, croquet and watching the television.

Ladino clover is receiving high praise from farmers in McCreary county, says County Agent George D. Corder.

WATER-PUMPING COSTS

Extension of electric lines in Kentucky has caused farmers to become interested in using electricity to pump water. Regarding cost of the pumping, the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky, says shallow-well pumps require one to one and a half kilowatt hours of electricity and deep-well pumps one and a half to two kilowatt hours to pump 1,000 gallons.

Real Estate Transfers

Robert F. Wright purchased the George Miers property of 27 acres at Grant's Bend, August 5, and Helen Louise Howard purchased 11.8 acres on Decoursey Creek from the Rosedale Loan Association.

B. Frank and Audrey Jean Click purchased a lot on Decoursey Pike at Decoursey from Wesley A. and Effie T. Riddle.

Edward A. and Betty Sterling purchased 0.3 acre on Bowman Road of Jack E. and Mary E. Buchert.

Joseph H. and Billy A. Vogelophl purchased lots 5-6 in Vogelophl Subdivision of Lawrence and Eva Vogelophl.

Plan Church Improvement

The Oak Island Baptist Church in their last business meeting appointed a committee to investigate the possibilities and cost of doing some remodeling and installing a furnace.

Baptist Hour

Many have inquired about the Baptist Hour—it comes over WZLP from 2:00 to 2:30 each Sunday afternoon.

Youth Choir Sings

The Independence Baptist Young People's Choir visited the Oak Ridge Baptist, July 4 and sang; on Thursday night of last week these young people also visited the Youth Revival at the Visalia Baptist Church and gave special music.

Parsonage Debt Reduced

The Independence Baptist Church in the last business meeting voted to pay from the treasury $1,200 on the parsonage debt, thus cutting it down to $3,300. The parsonage was purchased about four months ago.

Daughter Born

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse W. Simpson are the proud parents of a baby daughter, Phyllis Carol, born July 4, weighing 6 lbs., 9 oz.

Softball Notes

In the Independence Church Softball League last Thursday evening, the Wilmington Baptist won a victory over the Independence Christian Church 23-12, and the Independence Baptists won over the Visalia Baptists 13-3. The Independence Baptists are in first place in the league.

Masked Men

Early Sunday morning, July 2, the police received a report of a masked bandit, wearing a raincoat and rubber boots, having raped a young woman and robbed her companion, William K. Brill, 3608 Roll Ave., South Comingsville, Ohio, of $5.00. This occurred west of Independence on Turkey Foot Road near Narrows Road in Kenton county. The victim of the robbery said the attacker thrust a pistol into the car in which the couple was riding as the driver was turning the car around. Reports received by the Kenton County Police said that the attacker was about five feet, ten inches tall, and weighed about 165 pounds, and was wearing storm regalia. He took Mr. Brill's wallet, then held him at bay with a gun while he criminally assaulted the girl companion.

Dunahoo-Berryman

Mr. Earl Berryman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Berryman of Covington, and Miss Frances Dunahoo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dunahoo of Covington, were married in the Independence Baptist Church last Saturday afternoon. Several relatives of both the bride and groom were present. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Richardson stood up with them. The Berryman family used to live on the L.L. just south of Sandfordtown. Pastor W. E. Maners performed the ceremony.

CONRAD HARDWARE

Hay Time Is Here!

This was the week of repairs for mowers, hay rope and bale ties were in demand. Bert Powell and James Massener were in a hurry. Bert broke the axle in his mower—we had to send to Indianapolis to get one. Ambrose Davis busted another pitman rod—he averages one a week. Ross Menke after dinner, Lessing Huey is always here on Saturday night for repairs. Ed Hamilton came over to have an argument. Marvin Kite, another Saturday night customer, always comes in to see us. Albert Rhodes, who operates the farm for B. W. Brink, wanted Rotenone for those bean beetles.

Omer Kite bought 10 gallons of that Bolc outside white paint—he certainly keeps his buildings painted. Kenneth Johnson is on his vacation and is using that Bolc paint on his house. Leslie Williams was in and took Harold Collins, his brother-in-law who has a farm down Banklick way, an electric fence charger, knobs, wire and everything to fence off another pasture—this is the cheapest fence you can put up and the easiest.

We were sure sorry to hear about Sam Hudson having that heart attack while visiting his wife's people in Mississippi. I guess you have noticed the difference in our water since Kenneth Johnson and Jack Rouse cleaned our water tank. Have you seen the Waltonian Hotel's new roof? The Newtons have fixed it up with new roof and siding. Have you been in the Phoenix Restaurant? It sure is a nice place to eat. Walton is always improving. I see Aileen Conner is tearing the old barn down—we will wait and see what she will put up in its place.

Mrs. Verle Webster just came in and bought one of those large enameled cold pack canners—we sold several of these the past week, but don't recall who all bought them. We also sold some of the West Bend food blanchers for preparing your food for the locker. Ralph Scott and P. B. Connelly were in getting material to put up a new clothes line for Ralph. We just received a shipment of one, two and three burner Perfection oil cook stoves—they are fine for camping—you can save your gas and electric. I just bought some Westinghouse electric motors which I can sell as follows: one-fourth horse power motor for $13.50, one-third horse power motor $15.50, and one-half horse power motor $25.50—they are cheap; also I have one-half inch Black and Decker electric drills for $39.50.

Erza Gullion was in after some fishing tackle and a dozen carpenter pencils—Erza is a good carpenter, as well as a fisherman. Stanley Fooks also bought some new fishing tackle—Stanley is a good fisherman. John L. Vest wanted to buy some pocket knife insurance—he loses one every month, but always comes back and buys a Case pocket knife—he says they are the best. Some of you insurance people might make a sale here. Frank Penick brought in two mower knives to have new sections put in—Brewster soon took care of these. Stanley Fooks came in for a new handle for his bush blade, which Chick as a cold iron blacksmith, is not slow. Leonard Cook had a tank sprayer to be repaired, but it was past repair, so he bought a new one—he also had two fish rods and reels for repair, and we took care of all of them.

James E. Falls, our theater man, even if he is an old bachelor, bought a new Maytag washer—looks as if he needs a cook and wash woman. Someone just told me his sister was going to use this washer, so that lets all the old maids out. Frank DeMoisey, our gas man, just made the Walton Baptist Church a gift of a new Hammond organ, which was a very nice present from one person. Ray just went down to measure Mr. Webster's new house on High School Court for venetian blinds—you know we sell these blinds and install them.

Mrs. Clinkbeard from Richmond and Beaver Road was in after hay fork handles—we have a large stock of these. Stanley Ashcraft bought a Myers grapple hay fork. Mrs. Marvin Dentlington from Verona hurried in after mowing sections. Joe Kennedy from Napoleon was after hay rake teeth, pitman woods and one handle. Caesar Arnett and wife, who have just built a new home on their farm at the George Lucas place in Gallatin county, were here for Bolc outside white paint—they also bought two folding lawn chairs to rest in after their day's work is done. Mrs. George Knox just called and told me to bring her one of those Hoffman electric water heaters—these are the best when you need a water heater—buy Hoffman electric, they are automatic—no danger of fire, and cheap to operate.

Ed Pernell came up from Zion Station for me to put iron on a pitman wood for him—Ed is one of my old reliable—he never comes to Walton without coming in to see me. I repaired Mr. Bob Moore's pressure canner and put in a new gasket. We try to keep the repairs for National and Burpee. When you need hardware, service and repairs, call or come to CONRAD HARDWARE—if we don't have it we will get it or make it!

Abbreviated Game Won by Verona, Sunday 6 to 4

In a baseball game at Verona, Sunday, called at the end of 7 1/2 innings due to rain, the Community Club was victorious over Hudepohl by a 6-4 score. Verona now has a record of 7 wins and 5 losses in the RAG loop.

Hudepohl had 4 runs, 7 hits and 4 errors. Kinney hurled for the losers, struck out 2 and walked 4. Morrow did the catching. Michael had two doubles in three at-bats; Hudepohl had 2 for 3, and Englebrink collected a triple in the third frame with the bases loaded, which was good for 3 runs.

Verona had 6 runs, 4 hits and 3 errors. Bill Mumm did the hurling and struck out 1, walked 2, and made one wild pitch. Baumann did the catching. Baumann, Hayes, Bowman and Brown collected Verona's four hits. Brown's being a double. Bud Robinson made the outstanding play of the game when he caught a long fly in left and with a perfect peg, threw out a man at the plate.

Spence Comments On Bill S. 2822, FDIC Amendment

Congressman Brent Spence, Chairman of the Committee on Banking and Currency of the House of Representatives yesterday commented on Bill S. 2822 now before his committee. The bill would amend the Federal Deposit Insurance Law. Principal advantage of the legislation to depositors, according to Chairman Spence, is the provision raising individual insurance coverage from $5,000 to $10,000.

"The present provisions of law protect completely more than 99,000,000 deposit accounts in insured banks throughout the Nation," Congressman Spence said. "Upping the coverage to $10,000 would give complete protection to an additional 3,000,000 deposit accounts, meaning raising the Corporation's potential liability by $12,000,000,000."

"In my own State of Kentucky, enactment of the bill would bring to another 26,000 depositors the benefits of complete coverage. As one of the original advocates of Federal deposit insurance, I recommend this extension of coverage."

"This additional protection to depositors is provided at no cost to them," Chairman Spence continued. "During the 16 years that it has been in existence it has not cost the taxpayers, the Government, or the taxpayers a single cent."

"The banks pay the bill through the medium of assessments upon their deposits and, under terms of the bill they, too, will benefit through provision for assessment credit in good years."

Maple T. Harl, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, paid high tribute to Congressman Spence. "To Congressman Spence, the illustrious Chairman of the House Committee on Banking and Currency, everyone owes a debt of gratitude for his painstaking interest in their financial welfare. From its very beginnings, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation has benefited from the profound knowledge and the helpful advice of the Congressman. It is significant that the distinguished gentleman from Kentucky was among those who created the Corporation in 1933 and who has fostered its efforts to broaden protection for depositors since that time."

"His contributions to the stability of our economy in all its financial aspects are outstanding, and his grasp of the problems that face us is unique. He is a statesman who is not afraid to tackle a job and who invariably does it well."—Political Adv.

The Union-Richwood young people will present a three-act play, "House of Horrors," on Wednesday evening, July 26, at 8 o'clock, in the New High School auditorium. This play is a hilarious, rapid-moving farce which packs a laugh for every thrill and a thrill a minute.

This daisy-bent mystery farce is to be given by the following cast: Janice Cantrell, Faye Judge; Chloe Clark, Ruth Cox; Guppy, Harold Marsh; Mrs. Shump, Donna Slayback; Maryann Gracie Grater; Dick, Allen Slayback; Singh, Charles Flynn; Randolph Cantrell, Don Mason; Herbie Hipper, Mack Judge; Wanda Wilde, Jill Feagan; Pansy, Helen Stevenson, and Vorloff, Tom Matson Huey.

4-H and Utopia Fair to Be Held August 11 and 12

The eighteenth annual 4-H and Utopia fair will be held at the fairgrounds in Burlington, August 11 and 12, according to John Crigler, Council President.

Many new classes of exhibits have been added to the show and premiums on all 4-H exhibits have been raised. In many cases premiums now offered are as great or greater than those offered at the Setate Fair. Premiums in the 4-H Home Economics classes have been changed from blue and red ribbon groups to the regular first, second and third place awards.

All dairy and beef animals that are to be exhibited must be tested for Bang's disease within 30 days preceding the show or furnish proof of calfhood vaccination.

Four-H members, who have animals to be tested, should contact Bill Davis, County Agent, immediately and arrangements will be made for testing by a licensed veterinarian. One test on 4-H animals will enable them to be entered in both the County Fair, August 11-12, and the District Dairy Show, Aug. 21. Classes have been arranged for all 4-H and Utopia projects and all members are urged to exhibit.

4-H Club Enjoys Tour

Twenty-seven 4-Hers met at Holy Guardian Angel school and toured their projects, recently. Vincent Kahmann, 4-H leader, assisted the members on the tour. Before the tour, the Kenton County 4-H Fair was discussed as to how members may prepare their projects for exhibiting, and plans were also made to attend the fair, which will be held August 16. The District Dairy Show which will be held at Williamstown on August 17, was also discussed.

Projects and record books were inspected by Mr. Kahmann and Joe Claxon, Assistant County Agent. Other 4-H educational projects to be held in the near future will be: Piner, July 26; Visalia, July 27, and Crescen Springs, July 28.

Organ Recital at Walton Baptist Church, July 26th

A program of organ music will be given at the Walton Baptist Church on Wednesday evening, July 26 at 8 o'clock. A Mr. Grubb of the Hammond Organ Company, will be the soloist. Mr. Grubb played the organ last Sunday at this church, and those who heard him will enjoy an evening of organ music.

A most cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend, and enjoy this program.

COLEMAN-WHITSON

Mrs. J. L. "Buddy" Whitson

The wedding of Miss June Carolyn Coleman, daughter of Mr. John C. Coleman and the late Mrs. Coleman, to Mr. James Leonard Whitson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Whitson, of Walton, was solemnized in the home of the bride in Owenton, on Sunday afternoon, June 25th, at 2 o'clock. Rev. Harry L. Green, pastor of the Owenton Baptist Church, performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of the families and a few close friends.

The bride was attired in a white eyelet pique and carried a white orchid with Stephanotis centered on a white satin book with white satin ribbons.

Mrs. Robert C. Haydon, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a green shantung dress and carried a purple orchid on a pink satin book.

Mr. Leonard Cook, Jr. served as the groom's attendant. After the reception, they left on a honeymoon trip to Clifty Falls and other points of Indiana.

The ceremony took place on the home on the Walton-Nicholson Highway.

Bob & Jo Take First Place In Walton's Softball League

Four games were played in the Walton Softball League the past week, and with the warmer weather have come better crowds. Games are played Tuesday and Thursday evenings—come out!

Last Thursday, in the first game, Banklick defeated Verona 10-3. The winners collected 13 hits and the losers three, with Riddi being the winning finger, and Rich the loser. In the second fray, the High School hammered out a 24-18 victory over the Fire Department. Veste gave up 11 hits for the winning High School. Campbell and Simpson of the Fire Department were combed for 16.

Tuesday, Shamrock Inn downed Independence 12-7. Joe Ryan, for the winners allowed 10 hits, while Yates and Morgan, of the losers, were touched for eight. Two undefeated clubs clashed in the finale of the evening—Bob & Jo's and the Lions Club, with the former taking first place in the standings by outclubbing the Lions 14-9. Whitson went all the way for the winners and gave up eight hits, while Frank DeMoisey's "blooper" was being banded around for 12 safeties.

Fire Department were combed for 16.

Dils Speaks To Glencoe Farmers On Brannan Plan

Frank Lee Dils, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Fifth District Representative, in his address to a group of farmers at Glencoe, Ky., Gallatin County, stressed individual freedom and non-regimentation as it concerns Government control and the farmer. After the speech, a Dils-for-Congress Club was formed by supporters. The following was the text of his address:

"Now, when agriculture is facing special problems," Dils said, "and when you learn of the moves being planned in Washington, that will affect farm income, production, price support, disposing of surpluses and exports, you will want a representative man who will have the farmer's interest at heart to represent you."

"Farmers should be alert to watch the changes that are to come, and register their protest to legislation that affects their livelihood. The farmers with whom I have talked want the prosperity and high standard of living that they enjoy, to continue, and at this time I see no way or reason to scrap our present system of Government aid to farmers, that is the program we now have, the Agriculture Act of 1949. A few amendments are necessary and I would satisfy most farmers."

"We must begin now to adjust as fast as possible to a near self-supporting basis, thus moving away from the emergency support, traveling the channels of supply and demand, with the least possible price support, a method to succeed in the American way. At no time should we permit agriculture to be plunged into a post war depression."

"There are two important moves that will help accomplish a basic economy in agriculture: (1) A farmer or supervisor of production control, fixed by legislation on basic crops, produce and fiber, on principles of the etobacco program, to cut out unmanageable, costly surpluses; (2) Legislation that will eliminate the unjustified spreads between producer and consumer."

"The accumulation of surpluses are costing taxpayers from $4 to $7 billion annually, thus a foregone conclusion that this must be cut. These surpluses cannot be dumped on the open market without causing a slump in price of the current year's crop. The burden is carried by the individual through added taxes, direct or hidden. Under point 2, the profits should be more equally distributed between the farmer and the processor with lesser cost to the consumer."

"There are many plans proposed and one is the 'Brannan Plan', introduced as Senate Bill No. 1971. This plan moves away from Government pegging of farm prices and the producer is to sell his produce in the open market at whatever price he can get. A confusing price formula for produce would be fixed by the Government. The Government would (Continued on Page 5)

Mass Meeting May Called by Citizens

Due to the many complaints of subscribers served by the Consolidated Telephone Company, a meeting of the subscribers telephone committee was held July 17, 1950.

More than one year ago the management of the Consolidated Telephone Company advised this committee that improved service would be made and requested the cooperation of this committee and time to improve the telephone service. From the many complaints and upon the inspection of many of the telephone lines, this promised improvement has not been made by the company. Some lines and conditions have been improved, but as a whole, the system has not shown too much improvement, and so many applicants are unable to obtain telephones.

The Dixie Camera Club has cooperated in this matter and members of this club have taken many pictures of the telephone lines and these pictures will be carried in our newspapers. If necessary to improve the service in Boone County, the citizens telephone committee will call a mass meeting of all subscribers of this company and request the members of the Kentucky Public Service Commission to attend and hear the protests.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

By DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

SCRIPTURE: 1 Samuel 2:26: 3:1-10
DEVOTIONAL READING: Proverbs 11:1-4

Many-Gifted Man

Lesson for July 23, 1950

IF A MAN can do one thing well, he can usually find his place in the world. Life being as short as it is, and the possibility of misfire being what it is, it may also be fair to say that many a man who does one thing well could have done something else better, if he had had the chance. In Grey's elegy, "you remember the line, 'Some mute inglorious Milton here may rest.' That is, in a country churchyard may rest the bones of some hired man who, if he had had another kind of start, might have been a world-famous scholar and poet like John Milton. . . .

Triple-Threat Men
WHAT in football is called a "triple-threat man" is to be found off the gridiron, sometimes in real life. Once in a great while there arises a man who not only "could have done" more than one thing well, but who because of special circumstances and opportunities actually does many things well. Such persons are rare, and far above the average. Ordinary men take such a long time becoming experts in one line that they simply don't have time in their lives to be expert at other things too. But there are geniuses with many sides or perhaps men gifted with many talents plus an extraordinary capacity for hard work.

In our times there is Albert Schweitzer, outstanding not only as a scholar but as a musician, doctor and missionary. The President of Harvard at the present time is a noted chemist as well as a distinguished executive. Robert E. Lee was a brilliant soldier who also, as an educator, left his mark on his native state to this day. Leibnitz was a diplomat and philosopher; S.B.F. Morse not only invented the telegraph but was a painter of unusual ability; the man who thought up the idea of savings banks was a minister of the Gospel; King David was a poet, musician, general and monarch.

Samuel the Versatile
SAMUEL, Judge of Israel, was another such man. "Jack of all trades but master of none" does not describe him, for he was master of whatever he did. He has gone down in history as a prophet—what in our times is called a preacher; but this was by no means all. He served his generation in other ways as well.

He was the chief executive of the people, king without the title. Though possessed of dictatorial powers, when during a wave of unpopularity he resigned, and dared his critics to produce one single case of dishonesty or graft, none was brought against him.

He was a circuit judge, going from one city to another dispensing justice. He acted as a priest, indeed as the high priest of his people. We know of one occasion when he led his people in battle, and he was as successful as if war had always been his business. He was a king-maker, for God entrusted to him twice the delicate mission of selecting Israel's king.

Times and the Man
TWO thoughts strike one who reads the story of Samuel. One is the way his great and many-sided powers were used for public service. Put into modern terms, he could have made a fortune if he had "stuck to private practice" and used his talents for himself. But at no time and in no way did Samuel work for Samuel. He worked for God and his country, and he died a poor but honored man.

One of the greatest needs of the nation today is men of Samuel's calibre, triple-threat men.

We have plenty of small-calibre bureaucrats, and we have plenty of large-calibre men who are quite selfish. How few unselfish large-calibre men there are! The other thought is that the times and the man go together. A man's greatness comes in large part from his opportunities.

John Milton helped make England—but England also helped make him. Samuel helped make Israel, but at some other stage in history, he might have lived and died a country priest.

Let no man think himself self-made; not even a great man. With-out the God who endows him with his gifts, without the times that call forth the gifts, even the most sifted shrink to little or nothing.

LET US BE GLAD

It is a beautiful sight to see a profusion of flowers brightening the landscape with brilliant colors. In a well-kept garden or in some remote meadow or woodland an array of blossoms will not fail to win our admiration.

So great is the love of flowers in the human heart that since the beginning of time men have written of their beauty and sung their praises. Gardens grace most of our homes, and where room or climate does not permit, we cultivate blossoms in small containers in our houses.

And what are these fragile things of beauty that gladden our hearts? We can seek the advice of a botanist or an organic chemist, but even then we know that a flower is just one more of God's creations—just one more of the millions and millions of pleasures that He has given us.

For these and all our blessings, let us be glad. Let us go to Church this Sunday and next, and sing His praises.

You can be Charming
by Marsha Wheeler

The permanent wave can be a blessing or a curse. Washed but unset, permanently waved hair hangs in unlovely corkscrews. If time and your purse preclude a professional wave-set, try these simple instructions.

Moisten your palms with brilliantine and rub through your wet hair, comb the strands until each hair is straight, then twist into a loose curl (tight if permanent is about gone). Secure each curl with two fine hairpins. Let the curls overlap if necessary. Cover your head with a net, tightening net to hold each curl firmly in place. Comb only when dry. The unlovely corkscrews have given place to large, loose waves.

Blonde, brunette or chestnut, steel gray or white, you'll find fashion's smartest eye-glasses frames in colors and styles to match your personality at the Queen Optical Company, Palace Theater Bldg., 12 East Sixth Street, Cincinnati.

Now and later are the latest noted frames—fabrics, feathers, straw or lace secured between transparent shells. This summer let one of Queen Optical's Doctors of Optometry give your children a thorough scientific eye-sight examination. Open Saturdays. No appointment necessary.

KENTON

We are happy to report an increase in our Sunday school and church attendance. We had 63 Sunday morning at 39 Sunday evening. Come and worship with us.

If you are not attending Sunday school and church, a cordial welcome awaits you at Kenton Baptist Church. Sunday school each Sunday at 10 a. m.; church services each Sunday at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. with the pastor, Rev. Frank Lipscomb, officiating; prayer meeting each Wednesday at 8 p. m.

Our revival begins Monday evening, July 31 and continues through Friday evening, August 11. Song service begins at 8:15 p. m., and the preaching service at 8:30. Rev. H. D. Standifer is to be the guest speaker, and the pastor is Rev. Frank Lipscomb. Plan to attend each service and bring someone with you.

er, and the pastor is Rev. Frank Lipscomb. Plan to attend each service and bring someone with you.

Let the Golden Circle Class of the Kenton Baptist Church do your cake baking for Thanksgiving, Christmas and other occasions. Regular size cakes, $2.00 each, and small cakes, $1.00 each. Specials are blackberry, spice, white and yellow cakes. Mail your orders to Mrs. J. W. Grizzle, Secretary of the Golden Circle Class, Kenton, Ky., or call orders to Independence 6099 or 6146.

Fifty-seven slipcovered stools, slipper chairs and living room chairs were exhibited by Carlisle county homemakers at a silver tea.

Low bottomland fields of Ladinio clover in Hancock county, which were considered destroyed by heavy rain, have made excellent pastures.

Florence WSCS Meets

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Florence Methodist Church met at the church Wednesday, July 5. The meeting was opened with prayer by Mrs. C. A. McKibben. Reports were heard and followed by the business session, conducted by Mrs. Paul Chaney, president. The devotional by Mrs. C. N. Ogg, was preceded by the song, "Rescue the Perishing," and followed with prayer by Mrs. Harry Daugherty. The program was given by Miss Ruth Bristow, who gave interesting highlights of the Wesleyan Foundation conference at Lake Junaluska, N. C., and Mrs. Mary Carpenter gave an interesting report of the WSCS State convention, which was held in Danville. The meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. Nannie Mitchell. Attending were Mesdames Paul Chaney, Nannie Mitchell, Lella Allen, Christine Pollitt, C. N. Ogg, Geo. Miller, Ella Bethel, Marie Thompson, Helen Bethel, C. A. McKibben, Mae Bristow, Mary Carpenter and Miss Ruth Bristow.—Pub. Chm.

Due to growing Vigo wheat, Hickman county farmers reported one of the best crops in several years.

Several farmers in Estill county had excellent cover crops on overflow bottomland.

With a start of two grade heifers and a registered bull 18 years ago, W. J. Foster of Daviess county developed an Angus herd of 500 head.

Agricultural Notes

Mr. Wicklund, County Agent, suggests that poultry raisers step up the fight against lice and mites, which multiply rapidly in hot weather. Call at any office of the county agents for leaflets on control measures.

Leaflets also are available giving control measures on late blight on tomatoes. Treatment should be applied as the young tomatoes begin to set on.

"Wet or dry, plant your turnips 25th of July," is an old saying that rarely fails.

The Dead Man and the Dead Tree
Peter J. Peil writes of an interesting experience of a certain man who was opposed to the Word of God and the Gospel. He went into the forest on Sunday morning to cut trees. Seeing a tree that was dead and dry, he said to himself, "That tree will I cut down, it is dead and dry, and fit only to burn."

Instantly a thought rushed into his mind, "Am I not a dead tree, fit only to burn?" He tried to banish the thought, but could not. As he struck the tree with his axe the thought grew stronger, "Am I not a dead tree, fit only to burn? Will not God say concerning me, 'cut him down for he encumbereth the ground?'" Every blow of his axe seemed to deepen his convictions.

At last, unable to endure it any longer, he shouldered his axe, returned home, went to his chamber, fell upon his knees before God and cried for mercy. He now is a new creature in Christ Jesus and safe within the circle of God's favor.

"And you hath He quickened (made alive) who were dead in trespasses and sins... that in the ages to come He might show the exceeding riches of His grace in His kindness toward us through Christ Jesus."—Ephesians 2:1-7.

CONRAD HARDWARE

Summer Time!

This is the time in Old Kentucky when everyone is busy... Mrs. Chas. Allphin came in and bought two beautiful Gold Seal Linoleum rugs. Robt. Durr over on Carlisle Road, who is remodeling his house, bought a lot of galvanized water pipe and fittings—we carry a good stock of these. Mrs. Shanklin from over on Green Road had me order her one of those Proctor adjustable iron boards—they are nice; you can make them any height—we have them in stock now. Our old friend, Jim Simpson, who operated Ruth's camp last year and is farming this year, stopped in and bought a five-shovel cultivator—Jim says the woods and grass are bad; Arthur Brewster of Verona also bought a five-shovel cultivator.

Lee Dixon bought him a Maytag washer—I think it will need it before long. Ray just overbrought it down here to the store, took it all apart, stopped the leaks, cleaned it, and when he finished, it was like new—these Perfection stoves never wear out—you know Perfection now makes electric gas and kerosene and they are the best. Roy D. Webster, wife and daughter were in the daughter, who is now Mrs. Virgil Chapman and lives at Richwood, bought three of those folding deck chairs—next week is Virgil's vacation and she said she wanted him to rest—but these women have more things for a man to do when he is on vacation.

Clarence Combs was in loafing awhile today—he has to go back to work after his vacation; Ralph Sparks was also loafing today. Grandma Clifton was in for a few small hardware items; C. A. Coyle of Verona was looking at one of those nice Perfection stoves. Mrs. Carl Justice was shopping in Walton. Saturday: Otis Webster of Zion Station bought a rod, reel and all that goes with it—Ezra Gullion was coaching him along. Howard Stephenson, another one of our fishermen, bought new line and bait. We had a lot of calls for hole ties, which are very hard to get. Jake Stahl and family were up Saturday night—Jake bought a tank sprayer and weed killer 2-4-1—it sure saves a lot of work for farmers killing the weeds in their corn. I believe we have the finest crops this year, and if we don't have a dry August, this will be a real year for farmers.

W. L. Vest had us to bring him down a 12-ft. metal farm gate—these are the cheapest gates you can buy. Harold Bonar, over Atwood way, was in after an alarm clock—he picked a Little Ben, as they are the best and only $5.25, tax included.

Verona Wins Seventh Straight Game Sunday Down Gwent 3-0

Verona hung up its seventh consecutive baseball win last Sunday as they defeated Gwent 3-0 in a well played contest at the winners' park. Gwent had 9 runs, 2 hits and 1 error. Lauderbaugh did the hurling for the visitors, striking out 4 and walking 1. O'Neal did the receiving and was guilty of one passed ball.

Verona had 3 runs, 8 hits and 1 error. Elmo Steffen was on the hill for the Community Club and struck out 14, while walking 3. Baumann caught. Bowman had 2 for 4 and Brown hammered out a triple in the third frame to drive in a pair of runs. The game was played in 1 hour and 27 minutes.

Newport Stealers, Sunday
The attraction at the Verona ball orchard, Sunday, July 30 at 2:30 p. m. will be the Newport Stealers. A good game is expected.

Girls Win Softball Game

The Walton girls' softball team went to Folsom, Saturday night for a game and came out victorious by the score of 21-3, in four innings. Peggy Vest was the winning hurler and Sharon Graft was the hitting star, with six hits and five runs in six trips to the plate.

The girls will play New Haven at the Walton grounds, Friday night at 7:30. There possibly will be a boys' game th e same night, if it can be arranged.

Named To School Board

Mark Meadows, editor of the Advertiser, has been named to the Walton-Verona School Board, to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of John Meador, who moved to Florida.

The next meeting of the board will be held Monday, August 7th in the Walton school.

Top Teams Win In Local Softball League During the Past Week

All teams in the Walton Softball League saw action the past week, with Bob & Jo, High School, Lions and the Fire Department coming through with victories.

Last Thursday evening, in the first game, Bob & Jo defeated Banklick 13-5, with Joe Lemmons the winning hurler and Ed Johnson the loser. Led by Lucas, who had three safeties, the Banklicks rapped out an even dozen hits. The losers had six safeties. In the second contest, the Firemen scored their first win by edging Shamrock 13-12 in a free hitting fray. Duke Simpson had a perfect night at bat, with four for four. Tony Dempsey was top man for the losers, with three blows.

K. Johnson pitched for the Firemen and Ryan and Dickerson served 'em for Shamrock. The winners collected 16 hits and the losers 12. Tuesday evening, the Lions continued their winning ways by turning back Verona 17-5, behind the 5-hk hurling of Frank DeMolsey and his "biopier," while the winners got to Rich for 13 safe blows. Edwards, Hoffman, McLaughlin and Johnson had two hits each for the Lions, and Ryan, Richards and Dean had a like number for Verona. In the nightcap, the High School trimmed Independence 19-11. Duke Vest was the winning moundsman, while Armstrong was the loser. The winners had 18 hits and the losers 11. In the slug-department, Vest, Johnson and Glacken had three safeties each; Hancock and Morgan had two bingles each for Independence.

Commodity Credit President Lauds Brent Spence

Congressman Brent Spence, Chairman of the Committee on Banking and Currency of the House of Representatives, has received the following letter from Honorable Ralph S. Trigg, President of the Commodity Credit Corporation, the agency by which the support prices of tobacco, dairy products and other agricultural commodities are established and maintained.

U. S. Department of Agriculture
Commodity Credit Corporation
Washington 25, D. C.

Hon. Brent Spence, Chairman
Banking and Currency Committee
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.
Dear Mr. Spence:

Now that the Commodity Credit Corporation has been given increased borrowing authority, I want to express our appreciation for your help in seeing that the necessary legislation was enacted. This was very important legislation. As you know, we were not in position to announce 1950 price supports, even for the basic commodities until the question of available funds were settled. Action to clear the way for the continuance of price support operations was in the interests not only of all farmers but also of the entire national economy. Your leadership was a key factor in securing passage of the legislation.

You also, of course, did a great deal of constructive work when the charter of the Commodity Credit Corporation was being revised. As a result of the efforts of you and your associates, the corporation now has the necessary flexibility of operation to meet emergencies and changing conditions.

As Chairman of the vitally important Banking and Currency Committee, your legislative interests are necessarily very broad, but you have

All Saints Students To Register Sunday

Registration for pupils wishing to attend the new All Saints School in Walton, to be opened in September, will be held after the Masses, Sunday, July 30, the Reverend Henry A. Busenmeyer, pastor, announced. The school will include all eight grades of the elementary division. Sisters of the Order of St. Benedict, Villa Madonna, Covington, will teach in the school.

The purpose of the school is to provide Catholic education and religious training to the children of the parishes of Walton and Verona. The school will be open to others provided there is room to accommodate them. For further information apply on the day of registration or contact the pastor.

Attends Nephew's Funeral

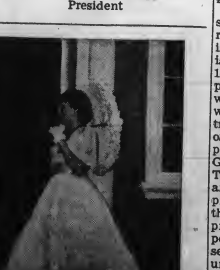

Mrs. Omer Dudgeon attended the funeral of her nephew, James R. Miskell, of Oxford, Ohio, Friday of last week. He was the son of Ed Miskell, formerly of Beaver. Mr. Miskell, 41, died of a heart attack while at work. Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Virginia Miskell; a son, Dennis, age 11; a daughter, 9 years old; his father, Edward Miskell of Newport; one brother, Spencer Miskell of Aurora, Ind.; two nieces; two nephews; several uncles and aunts, besides a host of friends.

New Haven PTA To Meet

The mid-summer meeting of the New Haven P. T. A. will be held at the school on Tuesday, August 1st at 8:00 p. m. Mrs. Lucille Cook, the new president, will preside. Every parent of the school is urged to attend and help make this a good year at New Haven.

never lost sight of the importance of the fundamental agricultural programs. I just wanted you to know that we in the Department of Agriculture recognize and appreciate that fact.

Sincerely,
(Signed)
Ralph S. Trigg,
President

Governor Earle C. Clements, Lieutenant Governor Lawrence Wetherby, Mrs. Wetherby and Mrs. Clements are greeted at the entrance to My Old Kentucky Home by pretty Miss Barbara Virgin, of Bardstown, Ky., who was "Mrs. Stephen Collins Foster" at rededication ceremonies at this State shrine, July 4th.

18 To Be Examined For First Draft Call

Training As Marine Reserve

Captain Harold S. Conrad of Littlefield, Texas, is participating in two weeks of in-the-field training as a member of the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve at Camp Pendleton, Calif. Capt. Conrad is receiving intensive training in the field artillery course during his two weeks at Pendleton. During the war, Capt. Conrad served with the Marines at Pearl Harbor, Tulagi and Guadalcanal. In civilian life he is employed as control supervisor for the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine. Capt. Conrad and his wife, Dorothy, have one daughter, Nancy, age eight. He is the son of John W. Conrad, 67 High St., Walton.

Expected To Be First of September

Eighteen men from Boone, Gallatin and Owen counties will be called up for physical examinations preparatory to induction into the armed forces, was announced by Mrs. Walker Smith, Warsaw, Clerk of Draft Board 27. She said that restrictions on information emanating from her office prevented release of the number to be called for induction in the first call, expected to be about the first of September.

Mrs. Smith asked that registrants of Board 27, notified said board if they have changed address or have married since their classification. The office at Warsaw is now open five days a week (Monday thru Friday) from 8:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m.

Draft board activities are expected to be accelerated if the present program continues. With a board possibly to be named for each of the three counties. Present board members are: George Henry, Gallatin County; O. R. Russ Boone County; and Ervot Link, Owen County.

Mrs. Smith further requested men in the three counties who have not received classification cards to notify Selective Service Board, 27, at Warsaw, immediately.

Dils Addresses Voters In Oldham And Trimble Counties

Frank Lee Dils, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Fifth District Representative, in his address to the voters of Oldham and Trimble Counties, stressed that, as long as the power of Government remains in the people and the control of legislation is dictated by their voting power and voice of petition, the United States will continue to go forward in the American way. Arresting the threat of Socialism and the eradication of all un-American activities lies in the man whom the people select as their representative in Congress.

"I urge," Dils said, "in the interest of national security, that Congress enact stiffer and more sharpened laws to fight and uncover un-American activities. Much of this subversive activity is protected under our right of freedom of speech under the Constitution. But this type of subversive activity undermines the very foundation of our free democratic system of government, the same foundation that supports our freedom of speech."

"We have come some 174 years since the signing of the Declaration of Independence by our great leaders, which act was approved by the people at that time. They disregarded the old-world autocracy. Our leaders, with the sanction of the people, made the declaration that, 'All men are created equal, and endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights.' During this long period we have enjoyed the greatest freedom, and made our country a wonderland."

"Much of the legislation in the past 25 years has been classed as 'creeping socialism' by many. I say that as long as the power remains in the people, through the channel of their representative, to extend services to the people and withdraw them when necessary or dangerous, that is not Socialism. Just giving service in the American way. The people must keep control of Congress because Congress is the representative of the people, the people's power."

"I class as leading to complete socialism, the Brannan Bill for agriculture, and H. R. 2756, which legislation is now pending. H. R. 2756 is the Economic Stability Act of 1949, a planned economy act giving of the President the power whereby he would be the sole judge as to whether he could take over industrial enterprises, decide how much of essential commodities could be produced, and put production under Government plans and compulsions. This amounts to the power of life and death over industrial enterprise, the beginning of the end of the price system without which a private-enterprise economy cannot possibly exist, it is the power of seizure and search upon a hitherto unimagined scale."

"In the past, our people have been loyal and faithful to our Government and have rallied to its needs by giving their services, tending looms in the factories and the fields, accepting tax burdens and furnishing funds through loans to the Government. Now, in the present crisis, Congress should proceed with caution, relying on the people to respond in a free manner, not under planned regimentation."

Enjoying Motor Trip

Cards are being received from Misses Althea and Roberta Kenney who are accompanying their uncle, R. H. Chandler, and family of Elkhardt, Ind., on a motor trip through Michigan and Wisconsin also crossing over to Saint Ignace, Dayton, Ohio, Canada. They report a very enjoyable time, camping, fishing, swimming, boating and visiting various places of interest along the way.

Carmichael Family Picnic Held July 16 In Kenton County

Six of the eight living children of the John Edward Carmichael family, formerly of Dayton, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Carmichael on the Visalia-Staffordsburg Road, July 16 for a family picnic.

Those present were A. B. Carmichael, Miss Cora Carmichael and Mrs. August Knox and children, William Carmichael, Mrs. Doro, Mrs. Harold O'Neil and Suzzanna O'Neil of Los Angeles, Calif.; Mrs. Anna Carmichael Farrar, Preston Farver, Newport; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jordan and son Robert Jr., Fairview, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Goetz and son Vernon, Highland Heights; Mr. and Mrs. John O. Wolfe Sr., Mrs. August Knox and children Lloyd and Judy, Evanson, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Desmond Feldman, Mr. and Mrs. William Feldman, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bradford and children Jack, Dennis and Sharon, Bellevue; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Schmidt and daughter Adaline, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wolf and daughter Patricia, Dayton; Mrs. Laura Carmichael Pond, Covington; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Campbell, Price Hill, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Campbell and children Selma, Howard, James and Evelyn; Mr. and Mrs. Steve Murphy and children Alke, Pat and Linda, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. William Lloyd and son Carl, Billy and Mary, Dayton; John E. Wolf and Brenda Wolf of Dayton; Mr. and Mrs. William Hightower, Walton; Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Carmichael and children Phillip, Vicki and Pat, Mr. and Mrs. Richard and Roger, and sons Reggie, Reginald and Roger, and Mrs. A. B. Carmichael, Visalia-Staffordsburg Pike.

"Good government comes from well debated legislation, supported by well founded public opinion. Our leaders must not move ahead of the people in their theories and plans until they feel the pulse of the people they represent. Thus, a cautious Congress is important at all times, except, of course, in immediate emergencies."

LATE GRASS LOSES SOME FEED VALUES

As the season advances, a cow gets from the average pasture only enough feed for a gallon to a gallon and a half of milk a day, according to dairymen at the Agricultural Experiment Station, University of Kentucky.

As grass grows older, it has more fiber and less protein, produces less forage because of slower growth, and cows fall off in milk production unless they get extra feed.

Keeping the pasture fertile and mowing it when it begins to head out tend to keep grass growing and rich in protein throughout the season.

KENTUCKIAN'S IN WASHINGTON

by Gil Kingsbury

Kentuckians here in the capital are getting interested in that senate race in the Blue Grass. There's been a Clements-for-Senate Committee organized. Heading it up is Joe Whalen, Bardstown, who is a senate librarian.

A lot of prominent Blue Grass people are serving on the committee, including Mrs. Flo Bratten of Cold Spring, Mrs. Robert K. Salyers of Louisville, William Brennan of Covington, Clyde Watson of Owensboro and others.

The committee plans to put on a drive to get Kentuckians to register when they make that traditional summer-time trip home. And, of course, they are singing the praises of the Governor as first rate material for the senate.

Ladies First:

One of the Kenate Committees had a red-hot hearing coming up. It was sure to attract a big crowd, along with television and newswear people.
Accordingly, the committee ordered reserved for the occasion, the biggest conference room available.
BUT the committee never got it.

It seems that the Senate Ladies Club had reserved the room first for its annual reception for Mrs. Truman.
No amount of coaxing would budge them. And when the wife of a senator won't budge, she won't budge.

Incidentally, by tradition, the wife of the vice-president is the club chairman. That means Mrs. Barkley handles the gavel.

Congressional Mail:

Kentuckians are clamoring for that tax reduction. A mother in Pendleton County and another one in Carroll County write almost identical letters.

They are bitter about the tax on baby powder, movie admissions, telephone bill, transportation and the like. They want those levies reduced or, better still, repealed.

Up until this Korean war broke up, there was every indication of fast action. Now, however, there may be some delay. Administration leaders want to see what Korea is going to cost us.

Just the same, it's a good bet that the tax bill will pass, with its welcomed reductions.

Leaving Town:

The Kentucky colony in Washington is about to lose a leading member.

Dr. Leon Childers of Boone County, the boss of the dental training and educational program in the Veterans Administration, is leaving for Florida.

Down there, at Coral Gables, he will be in charge of the dental service at the VA hospital, one of the finest in the country. He will also be able to keep a close watch on some orange grove properties.

Kentuckians in the capital are sorry to see the doctor and his family leave.

W. C. Mitchell of Taylor county saved 25% of his pigs when he provided heat with an electric light bulb hung in a corner of the farrowing house.

Fertilizing Pasture Boosts Beef Output, Cuts Costs, Speeds Steers' Weight Gains

More beef per acre at lower cost results from heavy pasture fertilization.

FERTILIZING pastures works in four ways to help farmers produce more beef per acre at lower cost, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, in citing a recent statement by W. M. Beeson, Purdue University animal husbandman.

Beeson listed these advantages of pasture fertilization:

1—Steers on high producing pastures get more nutrients per mouthful of feed, because fertilization increases the quality as well as the quantity of the forage. Fertilization decreases the grass's fiber content, thus giving more total digestible units per a given amount of pasture.

2—A pasture's protein content can be increased from 50 to 100 per cent by the use of plenty of plant food.

3—Heavy fertilization helps increase the pasture's livestock carrying capacity. Good pastures will maintain one steer per acre, whereas it takes from two to four acres of poor pasture to support a steer.

4—Steers that are confined to lush grazing areas need less exercise to find the required nutrients. Thus they gain weight faster. Cattle on poor pasture spend more energy searching for nutrients so have less left for possible weight gains. Poor pastures are simply gymnastics or exercise lots.

"If you don't believe this," said Beeson, "take your cattle out while they are on pasture and drive them a mile a day. Then see how fast they gain. Actually, you will drive off a lot of weight."

In stressing how fertilization helps produce more beef per acre at less cost, Beeson cited tests at the Miller-Purdue experimental farm. Fertilizing blue grass increased beef production about 200 pounds per acre, he reported, when 300 pounds of 0-20-0 and 200 pounds of ammonium nitrate were added.

This is going to be a column about Kentucky's future as a playground, a mecca for hunters and anglers and tourists.

Army engineers here in Washington have issued a report on the progress of flood control projects in Kentucky, planned and completed. And if the entire program is ever put into operation, tourist money will flow into the Blue Grass State as never before.

A map attached to the report gives the clue to what Kentucky already has to offer and what Kentucky may offer in the future.

Kentucky Lake: Already completed is that man-made wonder, Kentucky Lake, in the far western part of the state. In addition, there is Dale Hollow Lake on the Kentucky-Tennessee border, which also has been completed. Only a tiny arm of that lake extends into Kentucky, but it is enough to attract citizens to the area with money to spend for sport.

Dale Hollow, incidentally, is near Albany, Ky., and can be reached best by going to Somerset.

On the Way: Two other great projects are nearing completion, according to an army engineer friends at the Pentagon.

"We know the story by now of the closing of Wolfe Creek Dam. Governor Clements a few weeks ago gave the order that started the last bit of work. At the same time, he announced that a State Park would be established along the great lake with its more than one thousand miles of shore line. Wolfe Creek is located near Somerset.

Over in the eastern mountains of the state is Dewey Reservoir, near Paintsville. Water already is banking up and soon a lake 40 miles long will be a fisherman's paradise.

Proposed: Still on the drafting board, here in the capital, are two other great projects. One, at Mining City, on the Green River, may never be built. Conservationists fear that the waters of the Green River may back up and destroy Mammoth Cave. Therefore, the Mining City project may have to be moved to some other site.

Also on the board, is a project on Jessamine Creek, near Frankfort. Its huge reservoir would back across the lower Blue Grass for several hundred miles through some of the finest country in the world.

The Jessamine Creek project is still very much in the preliminary stage, but it has strong support. The waters of that stream are largely responsible for those floods at the State Capitol.

Falmouth Dam: And that brings us to the Falmouth Dam. Although thousands have been spent in preliminary surveys, the project is still far from even getting started.

Plans call for the dam to be located about nine miles above Falmouth. The army may indicate that the lake would back up about 60 miles to a point near Cave Run on the Licking River. There, at Cave Run, would be another dam forming still another great inland lake, a paradise for tourists and a lure to thousands in the eastern part of the United States.

However, all this is in the future and before the Falmouth Dam can be built and a playground furnished for Northern Kentucky, some strong opposition must be overcome.

There is another angle to all this, too—another benefit to be considered. If the Falmouth Dam is a power dam, it would create a new source of electricity for our area and, perhaps, new industries would settle in the Licking River Valley with their new payrolls and jobs.

Ordinance No. 196

An Ordinance providing for the laying of an extension of the water main on Walton-Verona Road in the City of Walton, a distance of approximately 460 feet from its present extremity; setting up the specification for the laying thereof; asking for bids to construct, and providing the method of paying therefor.

The City Council of the City of Walton, Kentucky, does ordain as follows:

Section 1. That a four (4) inch cast iron bell and spigot Class B water pipe, tested to one hundred fifty (150) pounds pressure be laid as a water main on a hereinafter designated part of the South side of the Walton-Verona Road in the City of Walton.

Section 2. That said water main is to start at and be connected to the end of the present main on said street, at or about the property line of Herman Simmons, and the said main is to be laid three (3) feet from the South edge of the concrete surface of the street.

Section 3. That said main shall be laid at a depth of forty-three (43) inches below the surface of the ground at all points.

Section 4. That in laying the said main care shall be taken not to injure walks and driveways which lead to or from the premises of the abutting property, and any damage done to the same shall be repaired at the expense of the person, firm or corporation laying the same.

Section 5. That said main of the size and quality aforesaid shall extend from the end of the existing water main to a point at the Western boundary of Lot No. 25 in Glenn Subdivision on the Walton-Verona Road in the City of Walton, a distance of approximately four hundred and sixty (460) feet.

Section 6. That there shall be placed at the end of said water main and connected thereto a three (3) inch fire hydrant, one five (5) inch pump connection outlet and two two and one-half (2½) inch hose connection outlets.

Section 7. That before the commencement of any work on this improvement the City Council of the City of Walton shall advertise for bids to do the work and set out in this ordinance and in accordance with the specifications outlined herein, and in said advertisement require that a ten (10%) per cent deposit be made to insure compliance with their bid, the same to be forfeited to the City if the accepted bidder fails to comply with his bid. Each bidder shall be required to state in his bid the time required for the completion of the improvement, and if he is successful then he shall be bound by the time limit and subject to penalty for his failure. The City Council will let the contract to the lowest and best bidder and may in its discretion reject all bids and re-advertise.

Section 8. The advertisement for bids shall be published in the Walton Advertiser for two (2) consecutive weeks prior to the day set for opening bids.

Section 9. The City may do the work necessary for this public improvement with its own help and equipment, but they shall prepare an estimate which shall be itemized in the same classification as the bids, and shall be read publicly at the time other bids are received. The City shall be required to estimate the time required to do the work and to state it in its estimate, as is required of other bidders. If the estimate be lower than other bids, then the City may do the work, and the costs as stated in their estimate shall not be exceeded in apportioning the costs of the improvement.

Section 10. That the contractor who receives the bid to construct the water main will be required to give bond with good and sufficient surety for the performance of the work in accordance with the contract.

Section 11. That the cost of the laying of this water main, including all engineering, advertising and legal service, are to be made by the levying of an improvement tax upon all benefited property, which shall consist of all real estate abutting upon both sides of the portion of the street improved, one-half to each side.

Section 12. That the City of Walton shall bear the cost of its proportionate part of laying the main under or across Beatrice Avenue.

Section 13. That if the construction of the improvement be let to contract then 60 days after acceptance of the work the contractor shall be entitled to interest at the rate of six (6%) per cent until paid.

Section 14. That upon completion of the work of this improvement the same shall be inspected, the cost thereof apportioned and levied as by law required.

Section 15. That this ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and publication as by law required.

Passed by the City Council of the City of Walton, after having been read in a meeting of Council on July 15, 1950 and re-read in another meeting of Council on July 26, 1950, by the vote of 4 members of Council on the 26th day of July, 1950.

Lesson for July 30, 1950

NO MAN is too busy to serve God. He may think he is, but the excuse will not stand. There are too many busy men who do serve God. One of the most famous men in history is a shining example. If ever a King was "too busy" to attend to religion, David would have been the man. His kingdom was a new one, cemented together from tribes that had been at one another's throats not so long before. He was surrounded by enemies who kept him at war most of the time. He was commander-in-chief of the army, chief justice of such courts as there were, chief executive in civic affairs; and furthermore, the times were not "normal" but turbulent in the extreme. Still he had time for religion. He led in that as in everything else.

Public Religion

THE first thing he did as king was to conquer the "unconquerable" city of Jerusalem, which had been in enemy hands for hundreds of years. And the next thing he did was to bring the Ark to Jerusalem and settle it there, making Jerusalem not only the civil but the religious capital of the nation.

In an almost spectacular way he king made himself sponsor of organized religion of his people. For centuries before David, the Ark and all the formal worship that went with it had been stuck off in minor towns, insignificant and unpopular, in fact disregarded by most of the people, as the book of Judges shows.

Now David, by bringing the Ark to Jerusalem and selecting for it a site on the city's highest hill, made sure that in his realm religion would never be an obscure thing. Sometimes we hear people say, "I believe in Christianity but not in the church." That is like saying "I believe in justice but not in the courts." "I believe in love but not in marriage." "I believe in education but not in schools."

David knew that if organized, public religion has to hide in holes and corners, it will not only lose respect, but people will soon forget all about it. The Ark was not an idol; neither is the Church. But if the Ark then, and the Church now, do anything else for religion, at least they keep it out where people can't help knowing about it.

Private Religion

DAVID knew, as some of his successors did not, that public worship is not the whole of religion. His personal relationships were controlled by his religious faith.

Take the case of Mephibosheth (chap. 9) for instance. If David had followed the usual pattern, he would have had poor Mephibosheth beheaded before breakfast. For this young man was the one remaining grandson (so far as we know then) of David's bitter enemy, King Saul.

In those days you always went on the principle that if a man was your enemy, so were all his relatives. It was generally true, too; and under the customs of those days Mephibosheth might have been expected to plan revenge, sooner or later, for his grandfather's and father's deaths.

David did not let him sink into obscurity but gave him what we would call a pension, a princely one, treating him as if he were one of his own family.

The Inner Life

WELL, religion has its outside but it also has its inside. Public worship and loving your neighbors are not the root of religion but its fruit. The roots of it are deep within the soul. And David had that true faith which comes from within.

He was humble, not proud, as Psalm 24 shows. Great king though he was, he knew there is only one King of Glory. He was confident, as every leader must be; but his confidence was based not on himself but on his God. (II Sam. 22, which is re-written as Psalm 18.)

And when David sinned, as he shamefully did, he did not make excuses for himself or sink with easy satisfaction into his worst self. If to be a saint is to be without sin, then David was no saint (and you are not). But if being a saint means that in spite of sin one comes to have the cleansing kind of experience that Psalm 51 records, then David was a man after God's own heart.

Burn it in there, Joe. Easy man! Let's strike him out. But the little catcher doesn't really mean it. He knows his Dad will miss the first pitch . . . and maybe the second, too. And then Pop will lay into that next one . . . and Sonny's heart will pound with pride as he watches the ball sail over the heads of those scurrying outfielders.

Away from the ball field, though, some fathers do strike out! Failure to provide for a child's religious education, failure to set the example of regular worship, failure to mold spiritual values into the life of the home—those three strikes start the moral slump which we call juvenile delinquency.

When parents and churches team up to give our children spiritual training, the combination is unbeatable. Every Sunday it's your bat, Dad. You lead-off in the biggest inning of your child's life. And you'll make a hit when him when you go with him to Church!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Top-Dressing Alfalfa After First Cutting Adds Life to Stand

TOP-DRESSING alfalfa after the first cutting with phosphate and potash fertilizer will prolong the life of the alfalfa stand, promote heavier growth the rest of the season and help the legume do a better soil-building job, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

Less time will be needed for the plants to push out new growth. Roots will have a better chance to store up reserves of high energy starches and sugars.

Well fed legumes can make fuller use of soil moisture and of the carbon, oxygen and other nutrients taken from the air. The tap roots of alfalfa and sweet clover can probe deeper into the soil. The phosphate and potash they carry will be distributed from the surface on down to the moist soil zone below. When these legumes are turned under they rot quickly to form humus, because they are packed with nutrients needed by bacteria to break down organic matter. As this organic matter decomposes, it improves soil structure and releases plant nutrients to feed crops that follow.

Second crop alfalfa should be allowed to establish a strong new top growth before pasturing or cutting for hay. Agronomists recommend a no pasturing policy after early September. This will enable the alfalfa plants to pack their roots with plant food reserves to carry them safely through the winter and spur good growth the following spring.

Adding Plant Food to Fall Seeded Wheat Gives More Bushels at Less Cost Per Acre

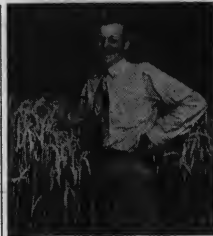

NOW is the time to begin to plan for fertilizing your fall seeded wheat.

Adding the plant food will give you extra profits through more bushels of grain per acre at a lower cost per bushel. It will increase yields of alfalfa, sweet clover and grasses following wheat in the rotation, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

Many Midwestern farmers are getting from 40 to 50 bushels of wheat per acre by using good soil management methods, applying plenty of mixed fertilizer and growing the new, stiffer-strawed, heavier producing varieties of wheat.

Typical of what can be accomplished when all these factors team together, were the results obtained by Harold Pirtle, last year's wheat growing champion of southwestern Indiana. Pirtle produced 57 1/2 bushels of wheat per acre. Then after combining the grain, he got a lush stand of alfalfa and sweet clover.

Pirtle had his soil tested the preceding fall to find out its plant food needs. At seeding time he added 400 pounds per acre of a mixed fertilizer containing nitrogen, phosphate and potash. Early the following spring he top-dressed the wheat with extra nitrogen. The nitrogen gave the wheat new life and gave the legume seeding plenty of "set up and go."

He points out that the plant food plus the soil's good tilth and organic matter supply gave it the power to produce a record-breaking wheat crop and a prime stand of legumes. The 11-acre contest field on which the championship wheat was grown had been in alfalfa two years, corn one year and soybeans the next.

In growing his record wheat crop, Pirtle, used Vigo, a stiff-strawed, heavy-yielding variety developed by Purdue University plant breeders.

Let's stop calling it an "Agricultural Implement"

Plain talk is urgently needed today on a matter that affects the pocketbooks of all taxpayers... subsidies to commercial intercity transportation agencies that long ago outgrew the infant industry stage.

The yearly expenditures of the Federal Government alone... for aid to forms of transportation other than the railroads... now approach $1 1/4 billion. These are your tax dollars—and ours. They help provide the highways used by huge commercial trucks, the airports and other facilities used by commercial airlines, and the waterways used by waterway carriers.

In contrast, the railroads do not receive, and do not want, one single penny of subsidy. They are self-supporting. They pay more than $1 billion a year in taxes. And their charges reflect their true costs of doing business.

We think it's time to call a spade a spade... time to point out that these subsidized carriers can destroy but not supplant the self-reliant railroads... time to urge that simple justice be done for the good of all America and all taxpayers.

Mrs. H. D. Edrington spent Thursday with her daughter, Mrs. Iris Hughes, and Mr. Hughes. Mrs. Vera Britt and daughter Barbara were afternoon callers.

WATER HELPS TO KEEP HOGS HAPPY

Hog raisers are told by Grady Sellers of the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky, not to neglect water any time, and especially in summer. He says:

"Clean drinking water should be kept before hogs. Dirty ponds may mean disease or worm infestation. Hogs should not be permitted to wallow in the drinking water. Automatic waterers attached to barrels keep drinking water clean.

"Evaporation of moisture through the pores of the skin is nature's way of keeping animals comfortable in summer. Because practically all the pores of fattening hogs are covered by fat, few of them function, and little evaporation takes place through the skin. Hogs, therefore, when uncomfortably warm resort to artificial means of keeping the skin moist. It pays to supply hogs a clean wallow for use in the hot months."

Indiana Fertilizer

Consumption Shows

Big 10-Year Gain

INDIANA farmers used approximately 741,372 tons of fertilizer in growing their crops last year, according to a statement by the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, based on statistics compiled by the National Fertilizer Association.

Fertilizer consumption in Indiana was more than three and a half times as great in 1949 as it was 10 years ago. In 1939, about 201,644 tons of fertilizer were used on Indiana farms. Important in encouraging this trend has been the work of the state agricultural college.

For the entire United States the 1949 fertilizer consumption totaled 16,579,000 tons. This was the highest in history and exceeded the 1948 record by 623,000 tons. More than twice as much plant food was used in the United States last year as in 1939, when the total consumption was 7,707,000 tons.

The steadily increasing use of fertilizer on the nation's farms in the past 10 years is attributed to these factors: (1) Fertilizer has proved profitable in boosting crop yields per acre, cutting production costs and increasing net income. (2) Plant food gives a high return for every dollar invested. (3) Fertilizer is a "good buy" for farmers. Prices of fertilizer have remained very reasonable compared with prices of other commodities purchased by farmers and with prices received by farmers for their products.

Soil Building Job

Should Be Put On

Year-Round Basis

THERE is no "closed season" for applying soil building amounts of commercial fertilizer on the heavier soils, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, in citing recent research by Dr. W. A. Albrecht, chairman of the soils department of the University of Missouri, and A. W. Klemme, extension soils specialist.

Soil building amounts of plant food can be added any time machinery can be driven over the fields, according to these soils research men. The fertilizer application need not be timed with crop planting. It can be put on well in advance, whenever the ground is firm and labor is available.

The research men report that on most clay or silt loam soils of Missouri, the clay fraction of the soil has a high capacity for holding fertilizer. Thus very little of any plant food materials will leach down through the soil. This is particularly true if there is some growing crop which will catch the plant nutrients applied in more soluble form. However, fertilizer in the row is still needed by crops to give them the quick start and sturdy growth needed for top yields.

Soil tests indicate good results from putting mineral nutrients on the soil during the regular operations of preparing the seedbed for the next crop, the agronomists report.

FLORENCE

Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Marshall were calling in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Tanner, Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Choney had as callers Sunday afternoon Mesdames Viola Idol, Marie Thompson, Ethel Daugherty. Mrs. Choney is celebrating nicely following a brief illness in St. Elizabeth Hospital.

The citizens of Florence are very appreciative for the benches placed at various points in town by the John R. Crippin Department Store of Covington.

Friends of Mrs. John Burton regret that she has not been so well at her home on the Dixie Highway. However, we all wish her a hasty recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Walsing, their daughter and children, were calling on Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woodward, Sunday.

Rev. C. N. Ogg and family have returned from a pleasant vacation with friends in Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Carpenter were host and hostess with a dinner party Sunday, including the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keyer and Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woodward were awakened from their slumbers Sunday morning around 12:30, when a car drove into their yard. When Mr. Woodward went out to investigate, a voice inquired of him, "what do you want to do with this television?" The voice was that of Floyd Roberts, who had promised to deliver the set, whatever the time of night, if they were the lucky winners. The Emerson 12 1/2-inch television was given away at the Florence picnic at the Florence community center, Saturday night. Congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Woodward!

H. Karrik Daugherty of the University of Kentucky, Lexington, enjoyed the weekend with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Harry Daugherty.

Blayne Miller and Barbee Simpson were Sunday dinner guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Miller.

Bill Cridler of Boyd county has a dairy herd which averaged 1,003 lbs. of milk in May.

ALFALFA MAY BE SOWN IN AUGUST

Sowing alfalfa in August has the advantage of providing a uniform weed-free seedbed, and is a favorable time for inoculation, according to "Growing Alfalfa in Kentucky," a circular published by the College of Agriculture and Home Economics of the University of Kentucky.

The circular deals with all phases of growing alfalfa, which is becoming the most important hay crop in Kentucky. Included are soil requirements, varieties, seed inoculation, time and rate of seeding, when to cut, curing and storing hay, alfalfa for silage, harvesting alfalfa for seed, alfalfa in rotations, alfalfa for pasture, and control of insects and diseases.

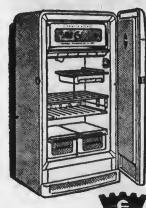

Copies of this circular may be had from county agents or by writing to the college at Lexington.

CONTROLS LISTED FOR GARDEN PESTS

Gardeners who would keep their gardens free from destructive insects should get a copy of Circular 479, "How to Control Garden Insects," published by the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky.

It gives complete directions for putting an end to Mexican bean beetles, cucumber beetles, squash bug, corn earworm and other pests common at this time of year, as well as bugs and insects that torment gardens in other seasons.

What Is Prejudice?

Prejudice is pre-judgment; opinion without thought; conclusion without evidence; determination without investigation, and condemnation without trial.

The word "prejudice" is the black sheep, the outcast, the repulsive degenerate of the Royal Family of Words.

Prejudice is the mocking of justice and the thief of reputation. It found the fagots, lighted the fires of martyrdom all around the world; it stoned Stephen, imprisoned Paul, cast Daniel into the lions' den; it bathed Gethsemane in tears, wove the crown of thorns, reared the cross and crucified the Prince of Peace. —Author Unknown.

More than 400 farm people saw 36 artificially sired heifer calves exhibited at Princeton.

Twenty-two 4-H club members in Rockcastle county set patches of strawberries of one-fourth acre each. Homemakers club members in Fayette county number 662, an increase of 120 over last year.

Madison county farmers who clipped their pastures in late May and early June are well satisfied with the results.

Todd county farmers harvested seed from approximately 2,500 acres of fescue and 1,500 acres of orchard grass.

About 1,500 acres of corn in Robertson county were destroyed by floods, a number of farmers replanting with early maturing hybrids.

July, the Rainy Month

This week started off with a bang—Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Gabriel from over Piner way stopped and bought a Reo power lawn mower and a rubber tired wheelbarrow—very fine people and good customers. Emmett Holbrook, who now owns the Guy Collins farm on Crittenden and Gardnersville Road, came after one of those rubber tired wagons—this is a real wagon, will carry 6,000 pounds and only cost $115.00. Robert Durr tried to make his old water pump work, but he had to buy a new one—new merchandise is always cheaper than used.

Russell and Mary Piner just came in and picked out some of that beautiful Armstrong linoleum for Mary's kitchen; they also bought an Armstrong 12x15 rug for their dining room. Well, we have added another fisherman to our list—Arthur Gilpin bought a Pfeiffer reel and a glass fish rod with all the fixtures. Doc Harty came after some garbage cans, but that fish tackle board caught him—he bought five fish plugs. You ought to see the Pfeiffer reel I sold Ezra Gullion—it will hold 175 yards of line and has a crank on it like on a Model T Ford.

Bill and Homer Rouse from Crittenden were down today after feed tubs for their cows—they buy them six at a time. Mrs. Roy Hurd just called for us to bring her a two-top cold laundry stove. Chas. Chambers broke his wicker tongue, so we fixed him with a new one in a hurry. Manford Craft, over in Gallatin, called that he had broken his mower tongue—we sent him one in high gear, any way to keep our farmers working.

Joe Code just came in and bought enough Gold Seal linoleum to cover Frances' kitchen. My old friend Armstrong from Whites Tower was over today after screen wire and other small hardware items. Virgil Whaley is finishing up his nice home on North Main Street—he was in after screen wire, Dick Colglough, our Chevrolet dealer from Independence, and a good customer of mine was in for corner irons to make window screens. Mr. Atha from Gallatin County was in to pull his baled hay up in the loft.

John Quincy Adams, the Mayor of Bracht, said Annie sent him after some weed killer and a fork handle—he said the weeds were taking the yard and she broke the fork handle killing snakes. Jerry Maxwell, our building contractor, came in and said Mrs. Maxwell had a birthday and he wanted to buy her a new rug, so he picked out one of those beautiful $x12 Gold Seals. Mrs. Pearl Stephenson was in after paint—she saw one of those folding deck chairs that she decided to take it home and sit in the shade. Look who just came in the side door—Alicia Neumeister and Mrs. Wm. Lancaster—they must have been out for an all day meeting. Saturday was a big day in town, when Hub Fisher and Grace Jones were married at the home of Mrs. A. T. Hunt by Rev. A. K. Johnson—the whole town turned out on the sidewalks to see the bride and groom as they came out to leave on their honeymoon to Central Kentucky—they had the rice and tin cans, which always makes a wedding complete.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brewster came in Saturday and bought a new washer—washers and refrigerators have already gone on allotment as steel is being taken by the government—if you need a new refrigerator or washer, you had better buy one. Agnes and Roy Kenney were in Saturday night after paint and cooking utensils. Hiram English bought a new lawn mower. Joe Neumeister, one of our best farmers, came after a mower tongue—Roy told him he would deliver it, so Joe saw one of those metal farm gates and had Ray bring it along with the tongue. Always be ready to help these farmers and they will return the favor.

Monday morning, Geo. Hamilton was in after a 30-ft. extension ladder and a farm sled. Omer Kite came in with that big milk check—Brewster cashed it and took about half of it, as Omer bought 100 rods of fence and several small items. Bob Slayback came after a National Pressure Cammer and also bought 40 rods of fence and 2 spools of barb wire. Mrs. Anna McCabe was in and bought some of that Boice enamel to paint her kitchen. Robert Griffin and family were all in—Mrs. Griffin had two pressure cookers for me to repair—new handles and rubber gaskets.

We did several repair jobs for Mrs. Alta Chambers—repaired her electric iron, put new cord on an electric lamp, cut and hung several window shades—we do all this kind of work, just call us and we will be out your service. John Rice just called for a pump chain and buttons. Mrs. Chas Wolfe also called for poultry netting. Mrs. Ethel Sheppard, who raises a lot of chickens to sell, needed more poultry netting. Denny Clack, our last customer today, was after linoleum and felt paper—he is opening her beauty shop on Church Street first house on the right.

It is still raining Wednesday and farmers are coming to CONRAD HARDWARE for repairs and hardware needs. If you have missed CONRAD HARDWARE'S service, try it sometime!

A Statement to The Voters of The Fifth District by Dils

As a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Fifth District Representative in Congress, I have conducted a forthright and courageous campaign based upon my experience and knowledge, my sincerity to offer my services to my country in an honorable and trustworthy manner. If elected, I pledge myself to be alert and active in supporting the Democratic Administration to carry out the Jefferson, Jackson, and F. D. Roosevelt doctrines which have made the Democratic Party outstanding, the Party that serves the needs of the average man, woman, and child.

Frank Lee Dils

In the past 81 sessions of Congress, there has been a continuing change of membership. Older men have been replaced by younger men, others have retired to provide a place for those more active and energetic, all this without any interruption whatever to the functioning of Congress. No one member controls the entire functioning of Congress, regardless of seniority or status he retains. Since the new, as well as the old member, is only one of 435, why not select the more active as well as capable man?

My promise to make periodic visits to each sector of the Fifth District to discuss with you the problems of the times, assures you of active participation in your government. The reservoir of knowledge which I have gained in the fields of Agriculture, Law, and Business, places me in a position to fit into the various capacities in which the Administration may call upon me to serve.

America has enjoyed and prospered through 174 years of continued good government and this I shall protect in my qualified way from un-American theories and doctrines, ever in mind not to assist in leading up to a Socialist system of government as my opponent has done by introducing H. R. 2756, "Economic Stability Act of 1949," (commonly referred to as the Spence Act), in my opinion and in the analysis of many others, the Spence Act is a planned economy on an unimaginable scale, giving dictatorial power to one man and leading us far down the road to a complete Socialist and totalitarian system of government. (Ref. Feb. Reader's Digest, Page 15).

It has been my pleasure to meet and talk to many of the people of the Fifth District, and to convey my ideas and theories of good government through the medium of the newspapers. I shall ever be grateful to you for your support in the Democratic Primary election August 5, 1950.—Frank Lee Dils.—Political advertisement.

Lebanon Aid to Meet

The Ladies Aid of Lebanon Presbyterian Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Clarence Sturgeon on Thursday, August 10. All members are urged to be present.

Fruit Meeting Today

The third Tri-County fruit meeting will be held at the orchard of Liston Hemphill on Thursday, August 3 at 2:00 p. m. W. W. Magill, extension horticulturist, will be present to discuss spraying of fruit trees to control diseases and insects. All persons interested in commercial or home fruit orchards are invited to attend.

Members of the Allen County Homemakers Association have contributed $1,500 to the county hospital fund.

Taking ROTC Training

James Caldwell, Walton, Route 2, one of 59 University of Kentucky ROTC cadets now in summer training at Fort Benning, Ga., posted qualifying scores in firing both the M-1 rifle and carbine on the post's rifle range.

Caldwell scored 175 out of a possible 200 in the M-1 division to win the Army's sharpshooter qualification. He received the marksman classification in the carbine division by marking up a 164 score.

Verona's Win String Broken As Steelers Win 5-2, Sunday

Verona's string of wins was broken Sunday, when the Newport Steelers handed the Community Club a 5-2 setback in a KAC loop contest.

Newport had 5 runs, 5 hits and no errors. Ray Arnsen started on the mound for the visitors and completed one-third of an inning. He allowed no hits, 2 runs, walked two and made one wild pitch. He was relieved by E. Taylor, who finished the game in a brilliant manner. He gave up 4 hits, no runs, struck out three, and walked two.

Verona had 2 runs, 4 hits and 3 errors. Elmo Steffen pitched eight innings and allowed 5 runs, 5 hits, he walked six, which proved costly, and struck out four. Mike Ryan hurled the ninth and had no difficulty. Baumann caught. Brown and Alexander each had doubles, for the only extra-base blows of the game.

Sunday—Charlie's Cafe will be the attraction at Verona, Sunday August 6th, in the final game of the regular season in the Kentucky Athletic Goods Semi-Pro Baseball League. The following week, the elimination series gets under way.

YOUNG DEMOCRAT RALLY AT VERONA

According to Ben Zimmer, Jr., President, the Boone County Young Democrat summer rally and fish fry will be held Thursday, August 3rd from 6 to 11 p. m. at Bill Scroggin's Verona Lakes at Verona. Speakers are scheduled from Washington, D. C., Frankfort and Louisville, and several local Democratic figures are expected to participate.

ANNA W. STEPHENS

Mrs. Anna Watson Stephens of Whites Tower, a lifelong resident of Kenton County, died last Wednesday at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington. She was 85 years old.

Mrs. Stephens is survived by two sisters, Miss Lulu Watson, Covington, and Mrs. Hollie Hume, Nicholasville.

Services were held Friday at 2:00 p. m., at the Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Walton, with the Rev. R. F. DeMolay officiating. Burial was in Independence Cemetery.

4-H & Utopia Fair Set For August 11-12 At Burlington

The Boone County 4-H and Utopia Fair will be held August 11-12, according to the Extension Offices. Entries in the fair must be made by 12:00 noon, August 11, with the exception of horses and ponies, which may be entered on Saturday before the shows.

Judging of all Home Economics exhibits, garden, fruit, field crops, poultry, tobacco and 4-H dairy exhibits will be judged Friday afternoon, beginning at 1:00 p. m. The team pulling contest will begin at 2:30 p. m., and the open class dairy show at 8:00 p. m., Friday.

Sheep and hogs will be judged Saturday at 10:00 a. m. The horse and pony shows will be started at 1:00 p. m., Saturday afternoon, and at 8:00 p. m., Saturday evening. 4-H style revue will be held at 2:30 p. m., Saturday.

All cattle exhibited must be tested and certified free of Bang's disease within 30 days preceding the show or furnish proof of calfhood at 8:00 p. m., Saturday evening. 4-H style revue will be held at 2:30 p. m., Saturday.

Everyone is urged to attend the fair and enter exhibits.

Revival at Wilmington Baptist Church At Fiskburg, to Commence August 14th

Rev. Grover F. Tyner, Sr., pastor of the First Baptist Church of Metter, Ga., will be the guest evangelist at the Wilmington Baptist Church, Fiskburg, Ky., with services being conducted nightly at 8:00 p. m. from August 14 through August 25.

Friends of the church will recall that the Rev. Mr. Tyner, Sr. was to have helped his son with the revival meeting last year, but took ill en route to the meeting and was hospitalized for a severe operation.

For some years Brother Tyner, Sr. served the Georgia Baptist Convention as State Evangelist, and is still in great demand for evangelistic meetings in the Southeast. It is with pleasure that the Wilmington church invites all its friends to attend these services.

Rev. Tyner, Jr., the pastor at Wilmington, announces that special music will be rendered each evening and that good gospel singing will form a major part of the services.

Rev. Grover F. Tyner, Sr.

4-H TOURS IN KENTON

Four-H tours were well attended in Kenton County the past week. The following clubs held their tours: Piner, Crescent Springs and Visalia. Leaders who accompanied the tours were Wm. R. Brown, Piner; Mrs. Wm. Tupman, Crescent Springs, and Edgar Baker, Visalia.

Each boy's project was visited by the members of his club while on tour. Information was given concerning the Kenton County 4-H Fair, Aug. 16, at the Simon Kenton High School grounds, and problems of agriculture projects were discussed on how to improve and make the project ready to exhibit. Record books were checked as to date.

The Briar Hollow Beagle Club sponsored a contest for the boys in the Visalia club, in which the member with the best record book and complete project in each project receive a prize.

Homecoming at Crittenden

All former pastors, members and friends of the Crittenden Baptist Church are invited to the homecoming and basket dinner scheduled for Sunday, August 6th.

Dr. Harold Seever, former pastor of the Crittenden, Williamstown, and other churches in Grant county, will be the special speaker. He will speak at services conducted at 11:00 a. m., 2:30 and 8:00 p. m. Dr. Seever was ordained by the Crittenden church, and is now pastor of the largest church in Alabama.

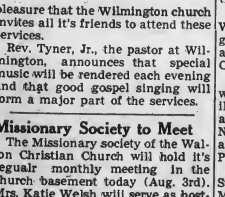

Revival at Wilmington Baptist Church At Fiskburg, to Commence August 14th

Rev. Grover F. Tyner, Sr., pastor of the First Baptist Church of Metter, Ga., will be the guest evangelist at the Wilmington Baptist Church, Fiskburg, Ky., with services being conducted nightly at 8:00 p. m. from August 14 through August 25.

Missionary Society to Meet

The Missionary society of the Walton Christian Church will hold its regular monthly meeting in the church basement today (Aug. 3rd). Mrs. Katie Welsh will serve as hostess, with Mrs. Susie Steinhauer as co-hostess.

Firemen's Picnic Set For Thur., Fri., Sat.

Bake Sale Here Saturday

The Hughes Chapel Methodist W. S. C. S. will have a special bake sale on election day, Saturday, August 5 at Sturgeon's Electric Shop, Walton. Buy home-made goods here—pies, cakes, bread, etc., while you vote or talk with friends, without worrying about cooking when you get home.

Legislation Keeps Rep. Brent Spence In Washington

Legislation brought about by the Korean situation has prevented Congressman Brent Spence from returning to the Fifth District until the latter part of this week to engage in his campaign for reelection in the Democratic Primary, Saturday.

Important legislation has been referred to the House Committee on Banking and Currency, of which Rep. Brent Spence is Chairman. Rep. Spence said in notifying his friends that he was unable to be with them as early as he had planned: "An obligation to stay here and direct the work of my Committee forced me to delay until the latter part of this week my visit to the Fifth District. I believe the people of Northern Kentucky would rather have me here doing that than back home campaigning for votes. The farmers of my District are well aware of the work I have done in behalf of higher prices for tobacco, and other farm legislation. My record speaks for itself, and it is upon that record that I seek reelection in the August 5th Democratic Primary and urge all my friends to go to the polls and vote for me."

During the last session of Congress, Rep. Spence was one of the few who scored a 100 per cent voting record by casting a vote on every issue brought before the House.—Political advertisement.

LEGION AUXILIARY INSTALLS OFFICERS

New officers of Johnson-McElroy Unit, 277, American Legion Auxiliary for the year 1950-51 have assumed their duties.

Installation of officers was held Wednesday, July 26, with Mrs. Margaret Weiner, 6th District Welfare, and a member of the James Wallace Costigan Unit, 11, officiating.

Following installation, luncheon was served by members of the auxiliary. Guests included Mrs. Weiner and three other members of the Newport Unit, Commander Lemmons and members of Johnson-McElroy Post, 277, American Legion.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Dora Stephenson, President, the Johnson-McElroy Unit will continue to work with the American Legion for God and Country.—Pub. Chm.

Plans are complete, according to Chief J. R. Allen for the firemen's picnic, Aug. 3-4-5 at the Walton Stockyard Grounds. A feature of the affair is, of course, the cash prizes to be awarded—$75 Thursday, $75 Friday, and $150 Saturday night. In addition, there is to be square dancing, rides for the kiddies, a varied assortment of games, and sandwiches and drinks—and don't forget that the fish sandwiches are really fine; they hit the spot! And too, there is plenty of parking space—and you can come or go, at your pleasure, with no difficulty.

A Note to the Public

This week—Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights—the Walton Volunteer firemen are putting on their Annual Picnic to make money to support their department. We wish to state to the community our aims: First of all, our purpose is to protect the lives and property of the people. In order to do this we must keep up our equipment in the best possible order. We cannot do this unless we have the money to operate on, and the only way we have of securing it is through our annual picnic.

There have been, in times past, certain stated objections to our picnic, but certainly the majority of the people realize that we do not go to all the work and trouble of putting it on just for the fun of it. Our purpose is to keep your insurance rates lowered by more efficient protection of your property and lives, and to do this requires a great deal of money each year. We operate on the theory that the people of the community believe in our efficiency and know how. We want you to keep that faith in us and are doing everything in our power to justify it. May we ask of you, the people of our community, to help us by supporting our picnic.

The firemen would also like to ask for donation of cakes, to be left at the Advertiser office, Thursday, Friday or Saturday.—Pub. Chm.

Primary Election Saturday; Interest Lacking In This Area

With both the Democrats and Republicans having primary elections in this district—Saturday, August 5—still there is very little interest being created by the voters. Both parties are naming candidates for Senator and Representative.

Democratic Race
In the Democratic column, Gov. Earle Clements is the favorite in the race for Senator, in both the unexpired term and regular term, with George G. Hatcher, James L. Delk and Dennis E. McQuay furnishing the opposition.

There is a little more activity in the race for Representative in Congress, since Brent Spence, the present Congressman, and Frank Lee Dils of Boone County, are conducting an active campaign. James G. Lang and John J. Thobe are also candidates for Representative in the same race.

Republican Race
Under the J. R. cabin emblem, there will be three men, Charles I. Dawson, Charles E. Whittle, James W. Brown, as candidates for U. S. Senator. Thomas W. Hardesty and G. F. Smith will try for the nomination as Republican candidate for Representative in this district.

Blight Hits Tomato Crop

Late blight is causing serious damage to local tomato crops, according to Bill Davis, County Agent. Control of the disease with "fixed copper" sprays should have begun earlier, but spraying now will help control the disease and lessen the damage to the crop.

Tomato crops should be sprayed once a week with one of the copper sprays such as copper A or Copper King. Then the entire plant must be covered with a protective coat of copper to withstand the blight attack. Spraying should be continued until, warmer dry weather prevails. Late tomatoes as well as early crops should be sprayed.

Walton Firemen's Picnic Thursday, Friday, Saturday, 3-4-5

The entire personnel of the Walton Volunteer Fire Department invite everyone to attend their Annual Picnic, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, Aug. 3-4-5. Entertainment, fun, food, drinks, dancing provided for all.

FLORENCE

Wm. Fitzgerald, who has been confined to St. Elizabeth Hospital for some time, returned home Thursday. His friends wish him good luck.

Miss Stella Carpenter of Covington, was visiting relatives here on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Stephens of Erlanger, were Sunday guests of Lon Clore and family.

Dr. N. A. Jett, his daughter, Mrs. Lucille Dehlinger, and Mr. Dehlinger are vacationing at Kentucky Lake near Paducah, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lindner of Bond Hill, Cincinnati, were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Tanner on Monday of last week.

Mrs. T. C. Crume entered Jewish Hospital, Cincinnati, on Monday of last week where she underwent a major operation later in the week. Her many friends are hoping she will shortly be restored to her usual health.

The Edgar Utzinger family of US 42, were recent guests of his mother Mrs. Laura Utzinger of Cincinnati. R. E. Tanner and wife were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Marshall and enjoyed a treat of homemade ice cream, Saturday evening.

Messdames Frances and Bertha Dixon returned home last week following an extensive tour through states of the North, West and South.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Tanner enjoyed Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woodward watching their new television.

SOUTH TAYLOR MILL
Mr. and Mrs. Lybran Richardson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Richardson at Midway, Ky. Donna and Larry returned home with them after spending a week with Sonny Richardson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Klein and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Watson spent the weekend at Indianapolis, Ind., with Mrs. Watson's son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. William K. Durr.

We are very glad to know Will Summey is much improved at this writing.

The annual homecoming at the Staffordsburg church was largely attended.

John Meehan entertained friends from Latonia, Friday evening.

STAFFORDSBURG

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Rapp are remodeling their home by making two rooms in the attic.

We were very glad to have Miss Waverly Riley, who recently underwent an operation, out to Sunday school.

As is usual, the homecoming day was a very enjoyable occasion. The weather was pleasant and many old friends came to enjoy the fellowship. Rev. and Mrs. Elmer Kidwell and daughters were guests of the day and he preached an inspiring sermon in the morning. Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Thomas of Dayton, Ky., Rev. L. A. Garriott of Williamstown were former pastors who came for the day. Rev. Ogg of Florence very graciously sang for us, accompanied by his daughter. Rev. Russell Patton spoke in the afternoon. Rev. and Mrs. Wheary did work so hard to make the day pleasant. He arranged to have the band from La-Gange reformatory and we enjoyed their music very much. I think the boys enjoyed it also. Let us all work together to make our church and Sunday school worthy of the Master whom we serve, though sometimes in a very imperfect way.

VERONA

Work on the new church is progressing nicely.

The fish fry given by the Community Club on Saturday night at the ball park for the players, was well attended and everyone reported a good time.

A PROMISE

To Our New Electric Customers

As you know, The Union Light, Heat and Power Company has acquired the business of the Community Public Service Company. In joining that company's service area to the territory which our Company has served for nearly fifty years, we give you our promise to provide you with the same high quality electric service that your neighboring communities in northern Kentucky enjoy.

Today, electricity is doing more than twice as much housework, farm work, and factory work as it did ten years ago. And yet the magic electric age is still just beginning. In the years ahead there will be many new uses for electricity in homes, farms, factories, and stores.

Your new electric company has boundless faith in the future of the communities it serves. It will be constantly planning ahead and building ahead to insure dependable electric service, as greater requirements for electricity develop.

We welcome you as new customers. And if at any time we can help you use electricity to greater advantage, we cordially invite you to visit our offices at Walton and Covington to consult us on any of your service needs.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

SCRIPTURE: 1 Kings 17:1-21
DEVOTIONAL READING: Psalm 27

God Give Us Men!

Lesson for August 6, 1950

THERE ARE ways of saying "No" without using that short and ugly word. A writer in the Christian Century has pointed out three of these. One is to say, "This is not the time..." Another is to say, "I agree with you in principle, but..." and the third is to say, "I am with you—just don't quote me!" What we need nowadays is men who are willing to stand up and be quoted, quoted for good and against evil. All men are "against sin" in general, it takes a braver man to be against it in particular.

In a large town in Kentucky recently the grand jury indicted the whole police force. In the course of the jury's report they said they had heard a good deal of testimony about rotten places and practices in and around town, but most of those who had come before the grand jury had said, in effect, "Don't quote me." It is hard to make any indictment stick if people who know damaging facts are not willing to come out in broad daylight and testify. So abuses go on and on, all because every one is too shy to point an accusing finger.

Man of Courage

WE NEED more men like the prophet Elijah. God providentially removed from him all the usual temptations to keep him from shut. He had no investments to protect—all he had he wore on his back, and that was not much. No family depended on him. He did not represent any institution. He could speak his mind—he could speak his mind—without worrying about the effect it might have on investors, or his family, or some institution. Of course Elijah had Elijah to look after; but for himself he was not afraid in the least. Lone figure though he was, he stood out against lies and exploitation in varied forms. He stood out against popular opinion, and that is not easy for any normal man.

So many thousand votes or voices must be right we think. But Elijah did not think so. He knew that "one man with God is a majority." He stood out against official opposition; this was more dangerous still. The crowd's favor or dislike comes and goes, the crowd soon forgets; but a tyrant like Ahab (and still more like Jezebel) neither forgives nor forgets a man who has stood up to contradict and condemn him.

Then Elijah stood out against the most difficult enemy of all; organized religious leadership, that is, the false prophets. Even in the Christian era that organized church has sometimes taken the wrong side of some important questions and persecuted men who were on the side of right. But church tyranny is at least as bad as any other kind, and it takes a brave man to face it.

In Our Time

THANK GOD for all the Elijahs! Every generation has seen a few, and we have them in our time. They have not all had the spectacular success of the original prophet of Carmel, but they are here all the same.

In public life one thinks of those senators—and your state is fortunate if it has even one who stands up for persons against profits, for the advantage of all against benefits for a few, true representatives of the people as against invested privilege.

In church life we need more men like that pastor down in Alabama who was recently "fired" because he would not take his stewards' advice and use more "tact" in his sermons against sin in general and drinking in particular. It takes courage to do such things. And Elijahs are needed in the business and professional worlds, not only in the pulpit.

Is Liquor a Sacred Cow?

THE LIQUOR traffic alone, to name but one public evil, is doing our fellow-citizens a vast amount of damage. What other business makes necessary wards in hospitals to cure the customers? But how few men will stand up and be quoted for the facts! Newspapers will editorialize against gambling when they won't against liquor; gambling doesn't advertise but liquor does. Count the big newspapers or magazines which for the benefit of their readers are willing to go without the income which liquor advertising produces.

Beside Still Waters

Those stirring words of the Twenty-Third Psalm: He maketh me to lie down in green pastures... He leadeth me beside the still waters... He restoreth my soul!

The psalmist must have known the turmoil of life, even though he lived three thousand years ago. At least he had experienced the peace which comes upon a man when he escapes the bustling world and rests in the quiet stillness of nature's scene. And he caught its spiritual meaning!

A man's soul, like his body, needs to be restored. Just as sleep and recreation rebuild our physical strength, prayer and worship re-vitalize our spiritual being.

Thoughtfully, our forefathers taught us to spend part of each day in spiritual pursuits. Wisely, they set aside one day of the week for worship.

The Church provides opportunity for Sunday worship, and guidance in every-day devotion to God.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

You can be Charming
by Marsha Wheeler

A book is like a frigate, it takes you miles away—so wrote the poet Emily Dickinson. A most important book for women of charm is an occasional journey through a magazine of high fashion. It makes you think beautiful.

After a bath or face cleansing, a few dabs of cologne, brushed hair and clean clothes, get your thoughts in line. Think Beautiful.

If you plan a vacation trip, plan your wardrobe around ONE set of accessories—shoes, hat, purse. These are the bulky, unpackable articles. Let your changes be lightweight, packable suits and dresses.

Beauty comes naturally to those who see clearly. For more perfect vision, the Queen Optical Company is daily fitting more people with trifocals, the amazing lenses with three sight-ones for distance, one for close work such as reading, sewing, desk work, and an intermediate sight for arm's length distances. Formerly a rarity, trifocals are increasingly in demand. Ask about trifocals at the Queen Optical Company, Palace Theater Bldg., 12 East Sixth Street, Cincinnati. Open Saturday to 6. No appointment necessary. Completely air conditioned.

SHORT COURSE IN POULTRY AUG. 7-11

Facts about poultry-raising, operation of a hatchery and flock improvement will be taught at the 26th annual Poultry Short Course at the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky, August 7-11. It will be open to all poultry-keepers, hatchery operators and other persons connected with the poultry industry.

Assisting members of the poultry section of the college, flock-owners and hatchery operators in giving the course will be three authorities from other states. They are: William Guidry of Louisiana, Alfred Van Wagenen of New Jersey and Paul B. Zumbro of the United States Department of Agriculture.

At the close of the course examinations will be given persons who desire to qualify to approve flocks and test for pullorum disease in the National Poultry Improvement Plan. About 200 men and women from all parts of Kentucky usually attend this short course.

Several 4-H club members in Jackson county sold strawberries on the Cincinnati market this year. About 10,000 acres of bluegrass seed were harvested in Clark county in June.

Tractors were bought by four Leslie county farmers this spring. More than 5,500 farms in Kentucky have been identified by their owners with names, according to the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky.

Atwood Cafe Owner Robbed

Mrs. Gladys Serborn, 37, wife of Clarence Serborn, 56, told police that at 1:15 a. m. last Monday morning as they started to walk from their place of business at Atwood, across the road to their home, the husband carrying a cigar box of about $400, while she walked in front carrying a 38-caliber pistol, a bandit, as they neared their home, leaped from the front porch and said, "put up your hands; this is a stick-up!"

Mrs. Serborn turned swiftly and fired one shot at the bandit clad in overalls, who in turn fired two or three shots, wounding Mrs. Serborn in the hip. She fell to the ground and the bandit came, stooped over her holding the gun on her husband while he snatched her purse and gun. Then he ordered the husband to lie down on the ground while he took the cigar box of cash, keys to his car, cash and home, according to the police.

The bandit fled south toward Fier in an old model car. The Independence Life Squad soon arrived and took Mrs. Serborn to the hospital.

It was reported that Mrs. Serborn is a good marksman, often shooting walnuts from trees for practice. She told the police that she was "badly startled by the robber and unable to shoot straight." Too, she said that the light was against her.

Lyon county farmers suffered an estimated damage to crops of $100,000, due to heavy June rains. Eight of the 14 members of the Mulberry Homemakers Club in Shelby county have, as evidenced by 4-H club leaders.

About 12 combines are now owned and operated in Casey county to take care of the increased production of orchard grass, small grain, soybeans and fescue seed.

Thursday was pressure canner day again—we repaired several, also sold a few. Mrs. James Measner was over after a 5-gallon stone jar; also Henry Penick came up after two 3-gallon stone jars—they must be making trout or pickles jars.—we carry a stock of stone jars, fruit jars, jelly glass, cold pack canners and kraut cutters. Mrs. Doc Stittmeyer, our veterinarian's wife, needed one of those all metal Arvin iron boards and a pad and dozer—said her old one walked out of the kitchen. Mrs. Viola Roberts just bought enough of that black roof coating to paint her metal roof—it is good roof coating—covers well and very cheap—5 gallons for $3.00.

We just received a shipment of rubber tired farm wagons, also a lot of farm gates, all metal; not high—12 ft. gate $19.50. Here comes Ed Parnell from Zion Station, after a roll of barbed wire and Cliff McEwen, also from Zion Station, after a riding horse. Marion Collins from Flukburg was after bolts; also Joe Northcutt, of Kenton County, after bolts; Scott Jack from Union, after mower sections; Ira Caldwell from Crittenden, after repairs. Henry Cletier from Verona, needed bolts. Ralph Page, one of our painters, who lives at Flukburg, was in after some of that good old Belce paint. Edgar Schuller, also from Flukburg, who does most of the electric wiring in that neighborhood, came after a lot of wiring material.

We have lots of customers from all parts of five counties. When you can't find it anywhere else, come to Conrad—he tries to have it. Ben Dixon just bought one of those rubber tired farm wagons—they are very handy for farm use and pull easy. O. C. Long from Newradle was in today after bean beetle dust—he has more of the beetles than beans, but that garden dust will cure his troubles with the beetles. Robt. Durr sent after two chain clatern pumps—Bob is fixing up the old place. Our old friend, Evin Huff, who used to be a lion tamer, and a very fine fellow, bought his wife a Reo power lawn mower sent after two chain clatern pumps—Bob is fixing up the old place. Our old friend, Evin Huff, who used to be a lion tamer, and a very fine fellow, bought his wife a Reo power lawn mower sent after two chain clatern pumps—Bob is fixing up the old place.

We'll look who just came in, Grace White from East St. Louis—Grace looks younger than she did ten years ago. Blanche Ransom just came in after some of that Belce interior glass—this is fine painter walls and woodwork.

Mr. and Mrs. Case from Crittenden, were after paint for outbuildings—they bought white creosote, which is fine for rough buildings. Ray Neave and wife bought a square aluminum tub Maytag—the Maytag they traded-in is at least 30 years old and still works. Russell Ross from Verona, also bought his wife a square porcelain tub Maytag—if these women ever use a Maytag, they will not have any other washer.

We had a lot of customers Saturday. Richard Howard bought a lawn mower; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hurd had to have a new water pump—their old one pumped its last stroke. Harry Baker from Gallatin, came after some poultry fence and a drop-in water heater. Joe Howlett needed a roll of poultry netting—the chickens were eating up Joe's tomatoes. Matthew Sleet and wife came after a two-burner Perfection cook stove for canning—these are very handy stoves and they are not high, also give you years of service.

Mrs. Eva Hall from Crittenden, a regular customer of ours, was in today and bought two trash burners, clothes pins, fly swats and fly sprayer. Jack Stephenson and Fay came up after a Burpee pressure canner—these save time and labor. Sunday night, Russell Hall, Ruth and Bobby, took four of CFS officials from Texas, my wife and I out to Mary K. Stephens' farm for dinner—she sure serves a wonderful meal, just a little bit better than when she was in the restaurant—just give her a call and she will have it ready. Mrs. Eva Brittenheim just bought some of that Belce enamel—when you need the best enamel or paints, buy Belce.

Omer Kite came in with another big milk checker, but we did not get much of it—he and Ellisha Allen went together—they could be going fishing, they were in a hurry. W. C. Carries from Mt. Zion, another good fisherman, looked over the fishing tackle—he always buys some. We had a repair day Maytag—fixed three bicycles, one hotplate, put screen in two windows, put new glass in a sash, repaired two electric irons and one electric clock. Eva Hall brought in an electric range, said she had it to a repair man for six weeks and never been fixed—well, Brewster fixed it in about 30 minutes. When you need service, you can get it at Conrad's. Louis Beaudreau broke his hose reservoir on his oil stove—he called me from Crittenden, in an awful stew—all he had to do was drive down here, as I have them in stock for the stores I sell.

Lawrence Maddin broke his mower tongue and he came up late Tuesday night, but I opened up and got one—we don't mind when a fellow is broken down. Luther Maxwell bought his wife a pressure canner to can those beans. We just got in a shipment of canning supplies—fruit jars, tin cans, sealing wax, paraffine, stone jars and everything for the canning season. Elmer and Russell Grogan, our good and reliable truckers, just hauled in a big shipment of that Belce outside white paint, another big shipment of house wiring material, also a lot of clean 55-gallon steel drums for fuel oil heaters.

We also just unloaded a ton and half of flat and round steel bars—we try to carry a nice stock of steel. If you need any fence, but it now! We also carry just three Gibson refrigerators left. Always remember we think we have the best lot of customers in the world—of course we have lost a few in 15 years, whom we trusted too far, but I suppose they are not so bad, for there is a little good in everyone. B&G Cop Season Title; Charlie's Nip Verona

Sunday at the Falmouth park, Bob and Gene won the regular season championship of the KAG Semi-Pro Baseball League by defeating Falmouth 15-6. Bob Eades is manager of the club.

Sunday, August 13, in the first game of the elimination series, the Eadesmen play the Boone County VFW nine at Florence, with things getting under way at 2:30 p. m. Ray Minger will be on the mound for the champions with Tony Maloney or Dike Vest catching. Bunning will probably hurl for the Vets with Denniston receiving. A record attendance is expected, as this will be the only game in this area.

VERONA LOSES

Charlie's Cafe handed Verona their second loss in as many weeks Sunday by copping a 10-inning affair 7-4. The Community Club aided it's downfall by committing seven errors. Charlie's scored 3 runs in the tenth on a pair of errors and two hits.

Charlie's Cafe had 7 runs, 10 hits and 2 errors. Reusche pitched for the winners and McGarr caught.

Verona had 4 runs, 10 hits and 7 errors. Bill Mumm hurled eight innings for the losers and gave up 4 runs on 8 hits. He struck out 8 and walked none. Mike Ryan worked two frames and was nipped for two hits. He was the loser.

No Come Sunday

Having drawn the bye in the first round of play in the 3-out-of-elimination series, there will be no game at Verona, Sunday, Aug. 13. However, they play Highway Merchants at Verona, Sunday, Aug. 20, and Hudepohl on August 27.

Plug Horse Derby At Lawrenceburg, Set For Labor Day

The Lawrenceburg (Ind.) Lions Club will sponsor their second annual "Plug Horse Derby" at the Lawrenceburg Fairgrounds, Labor Day, Monday, September 4. There will be nine races, rain or shine, the first race starting at 1:00 p. m.

Elsewhere in this paper will be found entry blanks and those wishing to enter horses or mules should fill out the entry at once and mail it to "Plug Horse Derby," Nat Frankie, Lawrenceburg, Indiana.

Entries for all races will be closed on Thursday, August 31, so entries must be mailed early to be assured of a starter on the racing card. The horses must be at the track by 9:00 a. m. Labor Day so they may be graded and post positions drawn.

The Plug Horse Derby race purse is for $250, with the second and third place horses sharing in the purse. Minimum purse in any race is $100 divided among the first three finishing horses. The winning jockey in the Derby receives $25, while the rider who romps down in front in the other races receives $5.

Owners of all horses and mules which start a race will be presented with a $5 bill. Jockeys must be over 16 years of age to qualify. Jockeys under 21 must have written permission of their parents or guardian.

Mrs. Elmer H. Graham entertained the Kenton County Garden and Cultural Club at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. E. Loudermilk of Taylor Mill Road at Nicholson.

Mrs. Hubert Baird gave a very interesting and instructive talk on "Wines."

Flower arrangements were judged by Mrs. S. C. Fisk and Mrs. Hubert Baird.

Mrs. Nell Morgan was a welcome guest.

Mrs. Bruce Allen will be hostess for the next regular meeting, at the Independence Christian Church.

MARY BOWLING CASE

Mary Bowling Case, beloved wife of Elwood Case, Crittenden, died on August 6 at her home after a two years' illness.

Funeral services were held at the Chambers & Grubbs Funeral Home, Walton, Tuesday, August 8 at 2:00 p. m., with Rev. John Case officiating. Burial was in Hillcrest cemetery.

Mrs. Case leaves to mourn her death, her husband; three daughters, Mrs. Clarence Hileman, Covington, Mrs. Frank Eppelbott, Covington, and Mrs. William Williams, Covington; one son, Charles Case of Crittenden; one granddaughter, Jill Ann Williams; one grandson, Jack Case; four brothers and one sister.

Telephone Company Asks Rate Increase, Due to Rising Costs

Increased costs of equipment and labor during the past several years have made it necessary for the Consolidated Telephone Company to file notice with the Kentucky Public Service Commission that it proposes to make a modest emergency increase in all the rates of its exchanges, G. F. Foscoe, Jr., General Manager of the company announced.

He stated that the present management of the company has delayed the decision to increase its charges to its customers as long as it can, but that it now must take steps to improve its financial and operating position. While annual gross revenues have increased 42.7%, operating expenses have increased 58.7%, reducing the ratio of intake to output to an alarmingly low level and making an immediate rate increase imperative.

Since the present management assumed control of the company, three years ago, the annual pay roll has increased 71.7%. The enactment by Congress of the 75 cent minimum wage law, became effective January 25, has materially increased the pay roll and will continue to do so, Mr. Foscoe stated.

He also pointed out that prices of equipment and materials which go into the expansion, replacement, and maintenance of the company's plant have continually increased during the past three years, and that there is every indication that they will continue to go still higher.

If the company continues to operate on its present thin margin, it will result in placing it in a precarious financial position, both as to day-to-day operations in rendering service to its patrons, and also in earning an adequate return, so necessary to attract new capital with which to finance the continuation of expansion and improvement of its service, Mr. Foscoe said.

Mr. Foscoe said that during the past three years dividends paid by the company to its stockholders averaged only 1.5% per year on the net value of its plant.

The notice that is filed with the Kentucky Public Service Commission calls for an increase for Magneto business and residence telephones of 25 cents a month, for Common Battery and Dial business and residence telephones of 50 cents a month.

Mr. Foscoe stated, regarding rural rates, that the base rate of rural residence subscribers with Magneto and Dial service was being increased 50 cents, and that those served by Common Battery service was being increased by 75 cents. Further, he pointed out that the rural base rates would include all subscribers with, in 2 miles of the Central Office, and in excess of additional 2 miles thereafter, the rate would be 25 cents above the base rate.

Boone County Circuit Court will close on Monday at Burlington with a rather small docket. Circuit Court Judge Ward Yager will preside.

To Voters of Walton-Verona School Dist.

The present school building, located in Walton, was erected in 1901 at a time when the population of the town of Walton was about 500. The present population of Walton is over 1,250. Also in 1934 the Walton and Verona Districts were consolidated. With these changes and the growth in the rural areas, the population to be served by the building has been more than tripled. The increased population has brought about a corresponding increase in school enrollment.

As a result, desks in many of the class rooms are so close together there is hardly room to pass and pupils are required to use chairs because in some classes there is no more room for desks. Study halls are inadequate and there is no room for additional equipment to provide courses of study which cannot be offered at present.

This 50-year-old building was erected before the advent of water and electricity, and toilet facilities which have been added to this old building are now in a bad condition and incapable of meeting present needs without the spending of a large sum in remodeling. Floors in the building are badly worn and many floor joists need replacing. Actually the walls and roof are all that remain in fairly good condition.

In recent years much pressure has been brought from various sources to consolidate Verona and Walton with the County system. This would mean that within a few years there would be no high school in this place and that all children would have to be hauled to another town. It might also mean the discontinuing of a grade school at Verona (we intend to maintain and improve the present Verona school); it goes without saying that a change from the present set-up is not what we want. The removal of a high school would lower property values in the entire district, in both Walton and Verona, and in the farm areas.

We have thus far survived the effort to consolidate for the simple reason that our people have been against such a move. However, with the growing interest in schools and the pressure from state and national agencies we have now reached the crossroads. We must either have new quarters or take the alternative of joining the county.

Until now there has been no way open to us except to go along as best we could. The 1950 General Assembly of Kentucky passed an act permitting voters in any school district to vote upon a special building fund tax and to use the money from this tax to pay bonds issued to cover the cost of new school buildings. Your school board has asked the Fiscal Court to call an election to submit this question to the voters, and this election has been set for August 26, 1950.

Every voter will want to know what this tax will mean and we will try to explain this in detail. On present estimates, a new and modern building, located on the site of the old building, will cost something over $225,000, the exact cost being unknown until bids are received. This includes building and equipment but DOES NOT include a gymnasium. The present gymnasium will probably be adequate for a good many years with some minor repairs, and the possible addition of fine escape equipment for fifty cents will mean an annual revenue of about $15,000.00 based on the present assessment in the District of about $3,000,000. To retire the bonds and interest, the tax will be necessary for somewhere around 25 years, in no event longer than 30 years, and will only be levied for a number of years long enough to retire the bonds. The Board now has $25,000.00 in the building fund which has been saved from operating revenue during the last three years, which will be used on the new building. Now as to each individual taxpayer, the best illustration we can give is that if your farm or dwelling house is assessed for taxes at $5,000.00, your tax will be $25.00 for each year the tax is levied. The Board appreciates that this is a burden not to be lightly passed over, but in final analysis it is a small price to pay for a modern school at home, when the failure to build the school will doubtless soon mean no school at all.

Since the founding of this country no community has thrived without good churches and good schools. Our entire community now has the very best in churches. The financial burden of these churches has been cheerfully assumed. We must not and cannot shirk our duty to the youngsters by not providing the very best in schools. A good school will increase property values, keep our children at home, keep the administration of our schools in local people and will in every way benefit our district and the people who live in it.

We urge you to give thought and consideration to the proposal and to vote "FOR" on August 26th. If you fail us, we may have to fall you.

The decision is left to the voters and while a majority will control, we would like for your decision to be unanimously in favor of the special tax. If you have any question, please ask any member of the School Board.

Board of Education, Walton-Verona Independent District

PICNIC BREAKS RECORD

The Walton FLEMERS' Picnic was the largest ever held and the department realized approximately $2500 after all expenses were paid which also is a record, according to Morgan Campbell, secretary.

Fire Chief Allen and all the department wished to thank everyone for the fine cooperation in making this possible. This a wonderful lift for the Volunteers and we are all glad for them.

WANT TO STOP TRAINS

Cincinnati, New Orleans & Texas Pacific Railway Company (South-eastern) trains 15 and 16 between Loud and Somerset, Ky., are now operating "in the red" at a yearly cost of more than $169,000, according to Leason L. Waters, superintendent of the railway at Somerset, and led to their petition last month to the Kentucky Railroad Commission for permission to discontinue them.

VISALIA P.T.A. MEETING

A special meeting of the Visalia P. T. A. will be held at the school on Monday, August 14 at 8:00 p. m. for the purpose of discussing results of the festival.

Tax Levy to Be Voted On Saturday, Aug. 26

NEW SUPERINTENDENT

The Walton-Verona school district has a new Superintendent, J. O. Ward, who has already moved to Walton and assumed his duties. He and Mrs. Ward will both teach in the Walton School.

Mr. Ward comes to our town from Lebanon Junction, Ky., where he was head of the school there. He also has had eight years in rural schools in Davies and Old counties, served six years as Superintendent of Schools at West Point, Ky. He holds an A.B. and M.A. degrees from Western College of Bowling Green. Mr. and Mrs. Ward are members of Lebanon Junction Baptist Church.

Kenton County 4-H Club Fair at Simon Kenton, August 16

The annual Kenton County 4-H Club Fair will be held at the Simon Kenton High School grounds Wednesday, August 16. Classes in Swine, Holstein, Guernsey, and Brown Swiss dairy heifers will be open to 4-H club members in Kenton county. Classes in swine, sheep, baby beef calves, poultry, rabbits displayed in livestock building. Classes in crops and garden will include tobacco, tomatoes, green beans, potatoes, onions, carrots and corn.

In the girls' section, which will be displayed in the school, classes are offered in clothing (units 1, 2, 3, 4), canning (units 1 and 2), and two classes in the foods department.

John W. Foster, field agent in dairymaking from the Dairy Department of the University of Kentucky, will judge the dairy classes; Carl W. Jones, field agent in the 4-H Club Department, U. of K., will judge poultry, garden and farm crops; Miss Edith Lacey, field agent in 4-H club work, from the Club Department, will judge the girls' 4-H work, and James Dorman of Spring Lake, will judge the rabbit classes.

AN OLD-FASHIONED ICE CREAM SOCIAL

An old-fashioned ice cream social will be given by the Hughes Chapel Methodist W. S. C. S., Friday night, August 11 on the church lawn, located at the junction of Richmond Road and Highway 42, about 10 mi. South of Florence, beginning at six o'clock and continuing until sold out.

Come prepared to talk with your friends or make new ones, and to eat lots of home-made ice cream and home-made cake. If the weather is cool, just get your winter coat out of storage and be comfortable while you enjoy eating.

SISSON FAMILY REUNION

The Sisson family reunion will be held at Butler State Park, Carrollton, on Sunday, August 13. All relatives are expected to be present.

School To Open September 11th

The Walton-Verona School Board, this week requested the Boone County Fiscal Court to call an election for Saturday, August 26th to determine the sense of the voters on a special school building fund tax. The levy will be for fifty cents on each $100 assessment, and will be used to build a new school in Walton, on the present school site, estimated to cost $225,000. The request for the election was granted by the Fiscal Court, Tuesday and the date approved.

This fifty-cent building fund tax if voted, will give the school board the right to issue bonds and start the new building as soon as bids and materials are available. Plans call for the removal of all the old building with exception of the gymnasium, which will also be used. See official election notice on page 7 of this issue.

School Starts September 11

The new Superintendent, J. O. Ward, announces that the Walton-Verona schools will open on Monday, September 11; also the age limit for starting children in the first grade was discussed and a ruling given by the Board whereby a child who will be six years of age by January 1, 1951, will be eligible to start this year.

Transportation to both the schools and also to the Catholic school in Walton, will be available to every child in the district.

The faculty for Walton has not definitely been decided as yet, and will be announced later. The Verona faculty will be the same as last year.

According to an estimate, there will be 467 children enrolled this year in the Walton-Verona district, which is quite an increase over former years.

MISSIONARY GUILD

The Young Woman's Missionary Guild of Walton Christian Church will meet in the church basement this evening (August 10). Program leader will be Mrs. Clayton Jones.

Staffordsburg Homemakers Club Visits Mammoth Cave

Staffordsburg Homemakers Club sponsored a bus trip to Mammoth Cave July 24-25. The trip was taken as a climax to the program, "Know Kentucky," which is presented as a part of the year's Reading Program. Each year the club schedules a two-day tour of Kentucky.

Mrs. Chester Hill, president, was in charge of arrangements. Thirty-one homemakers and guests gathered at the home of Mrs. John Shaw on Taylor Road to board the special Greyhound bus, which was scheduled to start at 8:30 a. m. From this point the group journeyed to Frankfort, where they made a short visit to the historic Old State Capitol building. Traveling on down the scenic highways of Kentucky, the party arrived at Mammoth Cave in time for a short trip to "Frozen Niagara."

Those who enjoyed this delightful trip were: Meadeanne Bender, William Blinder, H. L. Faulkner, Lou Deuser, William Gadick, Chester Hill, Ralph Howard, J. A. Keeney, George Klein, Stuchlik, L. J. GLENCOE

The community is sadly grieved over the loss of a fine Christian woman, Mrs. Fannie Hedger. She is the mother of Kenneth Hedger. She will be sadly missed in her home and in the church. She was a member of the Glencoe Church of Christ. Every seat in the church was filled by those who wished to pay their last respects to a lovely Christian lady. Sympathy is extended her son; her sister, Mrs. Lovell Courtney, and her brothers, George, Ed, Johnnie, Robert and Pat Kinnon.

Mrs. Lona Higgins is doing very nicely. Her nurse visited her Sunday and spent the day.

A revival is going on at the Paint Lick Church. Bro. Ray Alexander is doing the preaching.

Mrs. Nellie Rogers is very low at this writing. She is a sister of Mrs. Pearly Boaz.

Friends are sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Martha Cammack, and sympathy is extended the family.

Mrs. James Pyle, teacher of the Bible Class, took dinner with Mrs. Walter Noel, Sunday evening and visited the sick.

The children returned home from Camp Northward. They were Bobbie Snow, Douglas Sheron and Melinda Castelman, who gave a fine talk at Sunday school Sunday morning. All want to go back next year.

Mrs. Blanche Poland has returned to her home after a two weeks vacation here.

Mrs. Collins is better at this writing. Lindol Boaz has opened a barber shop in the Tracy Duncan place. Mrs. Ivonne Duncan and sister, Barbara, spent a few days in Cincinnati and enjoyed a trip to Coney Island.

CARD OF THANKS—

We wish to express our deep appreciation and heart-felt thanks to all our neighbors, relatives, and friends who were so helpful to us in so many ways during the recent illness and death of our beloved mother, Mrs. Fannie Bridges.

Especially do we want to thank the ministers, Bro. T. J. Powers and Bro. Grover Tyner, for their comforting words; the Wilmington choir for the beautiful songs; Mrs. Steinhauer, pianist; the pallbearers, the flower girls, the donors of the many beautiful floral pieces, and C. B. Peoples and Son, funeral directors, for their efficient services.

INDEPENDENCE R. 1

This community was very sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy Petty, which occurred last Sunday. She had lived in this community most of her life. The most of her family had gone on before, leaving only one daughter, Mrs. Neuman Armstrong of near Independence. Her funeral was conducted at the Swindler funeral home, Independence, on Wednesday afternoon, with Rev. Tipton officiating. This community extends sympathy to the daughter and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wynford Riley and little daughter returned home Sunday from a week's vacation in Canada and other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney and sons spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mills of Verona. Mrs. Daisy Richardson and daughter Helen and Mrs. Stella Richardson are enjoying a few days in the Smoky Mountains.

Several of the ladies of the Visalla and Staffordsburg churches enjoyed, Wednesday with Mrs. Wheary for the WSSC meeting. The devotional was conducted by the president.

Mrs. Keeney, and the program service by Mrs. Hanna. The meeting was well attended and was very much enjoyed by all present.

Rev. H. C. Thomas delivered the morning service at Staffordsburg Church and was accompanied by his wife and several of their friends. After the service they were graciously entertained for dinner by Rev. and Mrs. Wheary at the parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hanna and son spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hanna.

We were delighted to have such a good number out to Sunday school—63 were present. Let's try to make it 75 next Sunday. Come and worship with us.

HERE'S WHY!

This whopping big "direct loss" figure will explain why we have asked the Kentucky Railroad Commission to authorize promptly the discontinuance of passenger trains Nos. 15 and 16 between Ludlow and Somerset, Ky.

We are certain that even a quick examination of the facts will convince you and all other fair-minded persons that this is the only proper and business-like course for us to take.

DIRECT LOSS $169,000 ANNUALLY

We have been losing money steadily—to the tune of over $14,000 a month — on the operation of these trains. In fact, for every gross dollar they bring in, we are now actually paying out more than $2.50 in direct expenses alone!

Note that total gross revenues for the 12-month period were only $112,047.55. But direct expenses alone were $281,436.92. This means that we had a direct loss of $169,389.37 last year. And that has been going on year after year and will continue — and increase — unless we are given permission to "stop the leak."

Please note also that we have not included in "direct expenses" such properly chargeable items as supervision, dispatching, maintenance of way and structures, station or agency expense, interest, depreciation, and taxes other than payroll taxes.

REVENUES $112,047.55— WAGES AND FUEL ALONE $100,486.92

What we took in and what we paid out for two items of direct expense alone — train fuel and wages of the train crew, including payroll taxes — prove that it's impossible to make these trains pay their way. Wage and fuel costs alone just about wiped out total gross revenues last year.

PLENTY OF OTHER SERVICE

Our line over which these trains operate is paralleled by fine U. S. and state highways over which now moves by choice — in buses, private automobiles and trucks — the traffic that formerly enabled these trains to "pay their way."

Nearly everyone has an automobile nowadays. This fact, plus the abundant common carrier highway bus and truck service available, means that the discontinuance of trains Nos. 15 and 16 will result in no inconvenience.

As to the express now handled on these trains, when the Commission authorizes the discontinuance which we are earnestly requesting, the express will be handled by the Railway Express Agency in highway trucks, or on other trains. The bulk U. S. mail now handled on these trains for local offices will be transported in highway trucks operated by Railway Express Agency. We feel certain that this arrangement will work to your entire satisfaction.

PLEASE HELP

Today the people don't want, and won't buy, local passenger train service. And losses such as shown above are a serious matter to us, and to you. They cannot be justified and should not be permitted to continue. Shippers are vigorously protesting that their freight rates are now required to pay for the losses from unused and unneeded passenger operations.

Viewed from any angle it is definitely not in your best interest — or in the best interest of the public generally — to require railroads to continue passenger service that cannot be made to pay its way. Everybody benefits when railroads are encouraged and helped to eliminate such burdens that unnecessarily increase costs and undermine the railroad services that you do need and want.

Won't you please give us your sympathetic understanding? Leason L. Waters, Superintendent, Somerset, Ky., will be glad to answer any inquiries concerning the above.

He Loved Teaching

Lesson for August 13, 1950

WHAT WOULD YOU do if you had a million dollars? Several thousand school teachers were asked that question a few years ago. Seventy-five per cent of them gave the same answer: "I'd resign." They weren't real teachers, they were only hired help. The other twenty-five per cent were the real teachers. A great university teacher, Palmer of Harvard wrote that if he had the perfect job. Believe it or not, he said, "Harvard actually pays me for doing what I could afford it—I would gladly pay Harvard to let me do."

No Finished Product
THE REAL thing about teaching is that you are dealing with people, young people, growing people. In every other line of business, whatever you turn out begins to depreciate almost as soon as it leaves the factory.

It doesn't take long for butter to get rancid, or bread state. A cold-storage egg is a feeble imitation of a fresh one. A car that has changed hands once, even if it has run less than 1,000 miles, is already a "used" car on its way to the junk-pile.

But the products of the teacher's classroom are by no means "finished" products when they leave it, even if it is a finishing school. If the teacher's work has been done well, the product will go on improving for years, instead of running down.

Three Aims
PROFESSOR EZRA, of Babylon and Jerusalem, was one of history's most famous teachers. We note (Ezra 7:10) the same three aims in Ezra's life that you would expect to find in all good teachers. First of all, he "prepared his heart" to do what he did. The "heart" is the Bible expression for character, for life as a whole. No one can be a truly good teacher who has a bad character.

Now Ezra prepared his heart to do three things. The first was to "seek the law of the Lord." What a teacher teaches may be as important as who his pupils are; and Ezra's "subject" was the law which God had given his people—part of what we now call the Old Testament. Nowadays this is called research, but a simple word for it is just study. A lazy teacher is a poor one. A good teacher will spend more time studying than any of the pupils do—and will learn more, too. In fact, the best way to learn anything, including the Bible, is to try to teach it for a while.

Second, Ezra prepared his heart to do the law. The old sneer, "He who can, does; he who cannot, teaches," is true of poor teachers, not of the good ones. Particularly not true of Bible teachers. The aim of Bible teaching, from Moses' time till now, is always practical. "Truth is in order to goodness," as the Presbyterians say. One who has not tried out the Bible ideals in daily living will never do for a Bible teacher.

And third, Ezra set out to "teach in Israel." Your research scholar may or may not make a good teacher. The good teacher is not bored by teaching as some researchers are. He loves it. He is happiest at it.

Take Yourself, for Example
NOW LET US see how this comes out in your own home Sunday school. If yours is like most Sunday schools, the aim of the school is that they can't find enough good teachers, enough people who really want to know about God's word themselves, who live and love to help others know it.

The Rev. H. M. Lewis of Texas has said in his essay, "The Dividends of Teaching":
"When you begin to teach you will realize that at last you have found a purpose for your religion. . . . Teaching gives a motive, the highest motive, for all acts of religion and for all pursuit of knowledge. 'For their sakes.' Every Christian has the missionary obligation and is by virtue of his profession of faith, a missionary. 'Go, teach all nations.' Make your particular nation young America and your special opportunity systematic work in the Church school. Once you believe that you must be a teacher because you are a Christian . . . you will have heard your life's call."

You would not think of putting children like these in an open boat, without rudder or oars, and letting them drift wherever wind and wave chose to carry them.

No, you're not that kind of a parent! But let's look at life as your children will face it. Life is an open sea upon which today's young people must embark. The winds often will be strong and the waves will be high. Their voyage will be far safer if the rudder and oars of proper spiritual training have been given them.

Fifteen million boys and girls are growing up in homes that pay no attention to and have no part in the Church or in religious education. These children are drifting!

The Church makes life safer for young and old alike. It provides a program designed to serve humanity in countless ways. The truths it teaches are basic and everlasting. Can you afford not to be a part of it?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor in the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

QUICK ACTION HELPS REMOVE FRUIT STAIN

Now that the summer fruit season is here, it will pay every housewife to watch for stains on household linens and on clothing. The most important point, says Miss Dorothy Threlkeld, specialist in clothing at the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky, is to act quickly before the stains set. They are hard to remove after they are dry. Soap should not be used.

For berry stains on white cotton boiling water may be used, although warm water will remove most of them. For fresh peach, pear and plum stains on cotton or linen, sponge the stain well with cold water then work glycerine or soapless shampoo into the stain. Let stand

For fruit stains on washable rayon fabrics, rinse thoroughly in warm water. If the stain persists, use a mild bleaching solution of 3 table-spoons of Javelle or chlorine water to a quart of cold water. Rinse thoroughly with a weak solution of 1 part of vinegar to 3 parts water.

Farm News

Housewives trying to stretch the family food budget will do well to consider the August plentiful foods list as suggested by the Kentucky and United States Departments of Agriculture.

Fruits and vegetables on the list include: cabbage, carrots, Irish potatoes, watermelons and other locally grown vegetables. Protein-rich foods in plentiful supply are milk, processed dairy products, eggs, poultry and fish. There will also be a good supply of honey in August.

Beekeepers to Meet August 20
Production and inspection of bees will be discussed at the annual meeting of the Kentucky Beekeepers Association on August 20. The Ban-brae Acres Farm, located on the Jefferson County line between Shelbyville and Louisville will be the location of the meeting.

Harry F. Walters, Commissioner of Agriculture, and the officials of the association urge the attendance of all those interested in bees. The program, featuring entertainment and prizes, will start at 10 o'clock. The State Inspectors program will also be discussed.

Livestock Movement Into State

Shipments of livestock into Kentucky without proper health certificates are being quarantined, according to Dr. L. L. Breck, State Veterinarian. Any diseased animals found after proper test will be slaughtered immediately at the owners' loss.

The Kentucky State Police are now assisting the Livestock Division in the proper movement of livestock from other states.

A second finding of shipments of animals in the above category will place the owners, upon conviction, in position for a fine of $1,000 and 120 days imprisonment. This regulation is being enforced for the betterment of livestock in Kentucky.

PESTS CAUSE DAMAGE TO LOCAL GRAIN CROP

Pests of stored grains, particularly corn, caused extensive damage in Boone County each year, according to Bill Davis, County Agent. Damage has already started in corn stored in bins.

The Angoumois grain moth is one of the pests common in this section of the country, and it attacks all cereal grains. The moth is small, buff or yellowish brown with a wing expanse of about one-half inch. Infestation may begin in the field when the moth lays eggs on the tips of corn ears. When the egg hatches then the damage begins. Moths may be seen flying about in bins or granaries, after the wheat or corn is stored. These moths are also laying eggs that will hatch into the damaging larvae. The moth is unable to penetrate very deep into stored wheat or corn, therefore the damage from the late infestation will be in only the top 10-12 inches of grain. Grain stored in tight bins can be easily fumigated with carbon disulphide. Carbon disulphide is applied by sprinkling over the top of the grain. The heavy vapor penetrates through deep bins of grain and is highly toxic to the insects. Carbon disulphide is highly inflammable and extreme care should be taken to keep lanterns, cigarettes or sparks of any kind away from places where it is being used. Apply 3 pounds of carbon disulphide for each 100 cubic feet of space.

The grain will quickly absorb the fumes of the gas and the damage from fire is not prolonged. Vapors should not be breathed for prolonged periods. Small quantities of carbon disulphide can be handled safely by the ordinary person, but persons having any heart trouble should take no part in its use.

Ear corn stored in ordinary granaries is difficult and often impractical to fumigate, unless the granary can be made almost air tight. Infestation under such conditions can be reduced by removing all old corn and thoroughly cleaning the granary before storing new corn. Since grain kernels and dust accumulate in cracks and are not easily removed by sweeping, the use of commercial fly spray containing pyrethrum is helpful in preparing a granary for the storing of new corn.

Shelby county homemakers have bought 103 pieces of electrical equipment this year, including stoves, refrigerators, pasteurizers, mixers, deep freezers and small appliances.

About 85 percent of the corn grown this year in Powell county is Ky. 103 or Ky. 203 hybrid.

The Lions Club of Mayfield has started a calf chain with 4-H club members.

Boyle county farmers sold several thousand tobacco plants in Indiana, Tennessee, North Carolina and Virginia.

For hot weather make-up, try using puff loads of loose face powder pressed firmly onto the skin. Give it a minute's setting before you smooth away the excess... it lasts longer.

The bare leg season is upon us. Charm of face, form, costume and make-up can be utterly ruined by rough, reddened, hairy legs. Only carefully groomed legs dare be bare.

Don't let your neck tell your age. As you make the beds each morning, lie across the bed with your head hanging over the edge. Slowly lift it until chin touches chest, slowly drop it. Lift and drop. Finally lift and slowly turn head from side to side. Fine for tightening neck muscles.

A woman's clothing now says more clearly the merchandise in the show case. A carpenter now sees clearly the nail he hammers. Both are wearing trifocal lenses which give clear, undistorted vision not only for distance and for close work—reading, sewing, desk work—but also for arm's length objects. The foggy, intermediate field is gone. Queens Optical Company is daily fitting people — musicians, carpenters, teachers, desk workers, preachers, homemakers — with trifocal lenses, rimless or in smart new frames. Notice of Election

Public notice is hereby given that an election will be held in Walton-Verona Independent Graded School District on August 26, 1950, to determine whether the qualified voters of said District will approve the levying of a special school building fund tax separate from and in addition to the maximum regular school tax levied provided by law, such special tax to be at the rate of fifty cents on each one hundred dollars of property in said district subject to school taxation, said tax to continue for a period not to exceed thirty years, and the proceeds thereof to be used for the purchase or lease of school sites or buildings for the erection and complete equipping of existing buildings, for the purpose of retiring, directly or through rental payments, school building revenue bonds issued for such school building improvements, and for the purpose of financing any program for the acquisition, improvement, or building of schools. If approved by the requisite majority of the voters at said election, the said special building fund tax at the specified rate will be so levied.

The question which will be submitted to the voters at said election will be as follows:

"Are you for or against the levy of a special school building tax rate of fifty cents on each one hundred dollars of property subject to local taxation within the Walton-Verona Independent Graded School District for a period not to exceed thirty years, the income from said tax to be used for the purchase or lease of school sites or buildings, for the erection and complete equipping of new school buildings, for the major alteration, enlargement and complete equipping of existing buildings, for the purpose of retiring, directly or through rental payments, school revenue bonds issued for such school building improvements, and/or for the purpose of financing any program for the acquisition, improvement or building of schools?"

Provision will be made upon the ballots for the voters of said School District to indicate that they are "for" or "against" the levying of said special school tax.

All qualified voters of said School District are hereby notified of said election and requested to vote upon said question. This notice is given pursuant to a Resolution adopted by the Fiscal Court of Boone County, Kentucky on the 8th day of August, 1950, and reference to said Resolution is hereby made for further details. Said Resolution is spread at large upon the records of the Fiscal Court and is subject to inspection.

KENTUCKIANS IN WASHINGTON

by Gil Kingsbury

Kentuckians who want to do war contract business for Uncle Sam already are beating a path to the doors of the capital city.

Although no huge contracts have been let yet, a number of contractors foresee the end of peacetime work. Therefore, in order to keep going, they want to toil for Uncle.

We've been told that the five per centers won't get to do much business this time. The Defense Department is going to set up an agency to help the Little Fellow get his share of the business.

Breckinridge:

Kentucky promises to play a large part in training troops for the Korean affair—and for any other conflict that might explode.

The decision to reopen Camp Breckinridge as a replacement center is the first step. By the middle of September, 22 thousand boys will be on Blue Grass soil and in training.

Breckinridge is in first class shape and as you read this, the Army will be getting things into condition to receive the first soldiers.

The Census Bureau has released its report on populations, and Kentucky did better than expected. The Blue Grass State was expected to gain less than one per cent. The actual gain was three per cent.

Credit for this showing goes to Northern Kentucky, Louisville and Lexington. Most other parts of the state lost their sons and daughters.

Some observers now wonder if Kentucky will lose a congressional seat. Right now, it looks as though we will. However, no one will know for sure until later this year. In the meantime, cross your fingers.

Youth Medal:

An orphan boy, now a member of Congress, scored a victory this week in the senate.

The upper house found time to approve a bill to award some young American a medal of honor for being an outstanding young man of woman.

The idea belongs to Congressman Frank Chelf, youngest of the Kentucky lawmakers and a product of the Kentucky Masonic Home.

The Justice Department will select the winner, and the President will make the presentation. Probably the first one will be named in 1951.

Renfro Valley:

When Kentucky celebrates Kentucky Honor Day next October 21 here in the capital, some outstanding Kentucky musicians will get to appear with the famous Renfro Valley troupe.

Those arrangements were made this week by the Kentucky Society of Washington, the association helping to sponsor Kentucky Day. The Renfro Valley players are coming to the capital to put on a show. And some Blue Grass amateurs will appear with them.

Attempts are being made to get the Veep on the program to sing his favorite, WAGON WHEELS. Nothing definite yet.

Mr. and Mrs. McEvoy of Saylor Park, Ohio were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Carpenter.

Miss Barbara Ann Markesbery spent the past week with her aunt, Mrs. Freeman, Giles of Covington.

All "Figgered" Out

When a village idiot blossomed out all of a sudden in new clothes, the neighbors wondered at his prosperity.

"What's happened to you?" asked one of them.

"I won the first prize in the lottery," he answered.

"How did you come to guess the lucky number?"

"Well, three times running I dreamed of seven; so I figured it out that three times seven are 24, and I bought ticket number 24. It won the first prize."

"Why, you blamed fool, three times seven is 21, not 24."

"Gosh, is that so?" said the village idiot. "Well, 24 won, anyway."

POSITIVE PROOF

The newlyweds had just got out of their train.

"John, dear," said the bride, "let us try to make the people think we have been married a long time."

"All right, honey," was the answer, "you carry the suitcases."

Case of Identity

She was home from college for the holidays, and the old folks were having a reception in her honor. During the event she brought out some of her new gowns to show to the guests. Picking up a beautiful silk cretine, she held it up before the admiring crowd.

"Isn't this perfectly gorgeous!" she exclaimed. "Just think, it came from a poor little insignificant worm!"

Her hard-working father looked a moment, then he turned and said: "Yes, darn it, an I'm that worm!"

Platform Technique

"There were some things in your speech that I didn't quite understand."

"Probably," replied Senator Blank, "those were the topics I referred to in a confident, offhand way, so as to avoid disclosing that I don't understand 'em either."

Fair Enough

Bessie had a new dime to invest in an ice cream soda.

"Why don't you give your dime to the missions?" said the minister, who was calling.

"I thought about that," said Bessie, "but I think I'll buy the ice cream and let the druggist give it to the missions."

FAST THINKING

"I was in an awkward predicament yesterday morning," said a married man to a friend.

"How was that?"

"Why, I came home late, and my wife heard me and said, 'John, what time is it?' and I said, 'Only twelve my dear, and just then that cuckoo clock of ours sang out three times.'"

"What did you do?"

"Why, I just had to stand there and cuckoo nine times more."

FLORENCE

The community extends congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin (nee Juana Martin) who were married at the Christ Church, Saturday. Following a reception at the Fire Hall and Community Center, the happy couple departed for an extended honeymoon.

Plans have been completed by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Florence Fire Department to resume their monthly pillow slip bingo socials.

The next bingo is scheduled for Thursday evening, August 17 at 8:00 p.m. at the Fire Hall. You and your friends are cordially invited to attend.

Best wishes for a long and happy married life is the wish of the community for Tom Utz and bride of Saturday afternoon. The ceremony took place at Blessed Sacrament Church, Ft. Mitchell. The reception followed at Summit Hills Country Club. The young couple will be at home to their friends on Lloyd Ave., following an extended honeymoon.

Don't forget St. Paul's annual church picnic to be held on the church grounds Saturday afternoon and evening, August 12. The traditional chicken dinner will be served. Their will be cards and lotto in the afternoon, bingo in the evening, a fish pond for the kiddies, pony track, and many attractive booths for the entertainment of the adults.

Miss Janet Byrne became the bride of Leroy Abbott, Friday evening in the Christian Church. Rev. H. L. Reid officiated. The community extends congratulations and best wishes to the young couple.

John Schuyler Lockwood is convalescing at St. Elizabeth Hospital following an accident which resulted in severe leg injuries. His many little friends wish him a speedy recovery.

Miss Betty Lou Spencer celebrated her birthday Tuesday afternoon entertaining her friends with a birthday party at her home on the Dixie Highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Crisler and family formerly of Park Ave., have moved to their new home recently completed on Linwood St., Erlanger.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Souther and family are spending their summer vacation in the New England States. Mrs. Mary Fulton of 41 Forest Ave., Erlanger, was calling on friends here recently.

Mrs. Martha Richards and son, Jerry, formerly of Gunpowder, are now established in their apartment at 202 Wallace Ave., Covington.

Mrs. Eldridge Carpenter and Mrs. Richard Keyer visited Mrs. Ida Hunter at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Friday of last week. Mrs. Hunter has been confined to the hospital for quite a long period of time, due to a fractured hip bone. However, she is much improved.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Stephenson assembled at their home Friday evening to join in the celebration of his 86th birthday. Refreshments of home-made ice cream and cake were dispensed and enjoyed by all. Mr. Stephenson is enjoying good health and is looking fine. We join in wishing him many happy returns of the day. Guests included Clayton Brown and wife, Dave Wingate and wife, Sydney Ambrose and wife, E. C. Stephenson and wife, Donald Brown and wife, Clayton Brown, Jr. and wife, Miss Jo Ann Wingate, Mrs. John T. Stephenson, E. Wayne Brown and John Ryle.

Congratulations and best wishes to the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Utz, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Martin and Mr. and Mrs. James Loftin.

Following completion of the telephone project at London, Ky., the Stephenson Construction Co. has contracted to reconstruct the telephone system in Clay county.

Services for Mrs. Kathryn Clutterbuck, 59, were held from the 5th funeral home Tuesday of last week, with Rev. H. L. Reed and Rev. Barton Johnson of the Madison Avenue Christian Church, Covington, officiating. The deceased leaves her husband, Carl Clutterbuck; her mother, Mrs. Henrietta McKinney of Latonia, and a sister, Mrs. Mae Bennett of Latonia. Interment was in Forest Lawn Park, beneath a profusion of beautiful flowers. We join the community in extending sympathy to the family.

Attend Bible Conference

William Collins and W. E. Maners, pastor of the Independence Baptist church, attended the Lake Winona Bible Conference last week. This is known as the "largest Bible Conference in the world."

Mr. Collins enrolled for the week in the Rodeheaver Musical conference and received helpful instruction from a number of classes instructed by many of the country's best voice teachers. He was on his vacation and says that he enjoyed the experience immensely.

Rev. Maners enrolled for the week in the Bible conference, hearing some of the country's most able Bible teachers and preachers, some from foreign countries.

Softball

Last Thursday evening the Visalia Baptists of the Church Softball League, scored an 8-3 win over the Wilmington Baptists, while the Independence Baptists nosed out the Independence Christians 5-4.

Some of the fans reported that this places the Independence Baptists in first place, Visalia Baptists second, Wilmington Baptists third, and the Independence Christians fourth, but that any one of the three high scoring teams might take the trophy and be the special guests of honor at the closing fellowship banquet.

Attends World Alliance

Mrs. C. S. Snelson of Independence returned last Friday from the meeting of the Baptist World Alliance at Cleveland, Ohio. She attended with her daughter-in-law who was a delegate from Tennessee. Some of the impressive things about the meeting, as seen by Mrs. Snelson, were: the vast number at the session, 30,000 sometimes present; big choir of 500 voices; the big band with 100 musicians; the large Colored chorus from St. Louis singing Negro Spirituals; the many reading rooms for literature of all ages, and the great pageant, "The Light of Liberty," designed especially for youth with 2,000 characters in foreign costumes. The last day of the meeting witnessed an attendance of 75,000.

Prayer Meeting

The Baptist folk of Independence held a prayer meeting last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Kaib on Banklick Road, and plan to hold one this coming Friday night on Horsebranch Road in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Elam.

Protest TV Abuse

Two Christian denominations went on record officially in their sessions against the low moral tone of the television industry.

Meeting in Minneapolis for its annual conference the Evangelical Mission Covenant Church of America approved a stinging resolution calling on Federal authorities "to compel the companies to clean house."

Present TV programs "threaten to destroy the character of our children as well as interfere with their studies," the resolution read.

In New Concord, Ohio the general assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America condemned "abuse of television by the liquor traffic to promote its business."

SOUTH TAYLOR MILL

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Coleman and children entertained friends on Sunday afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. William Summey were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kennedy and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Callen entertained guests Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. John Klein had as dinner guests Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shoemaker, Sr. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shoemaker, Jr. and two small sons, all of Covington.

Mrs. Charles Losey and sons, Ronald and J. B., and Mrs. Wm. Summey were shopping in Covington, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lynch and little son were Sunday dinner guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Ervin. Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Ballinger spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Lybran, Richardson.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Myers and little son visited his father, James Myers, of Walton, recently.

Mrs. Frances Lundragon and Mr. Montgomery from Cincinnati, spent Saturday evening with John Meahan.

Mrs. Sophia Mettle of Columbus, Ohio visited Mr. and Mrs. Fleming of near Nicholson over the weekend.

Emergency crops and lespedeza are expected to make sufficient forage for Lawrence county livestock, following loss of 75 percent of early hay crops.

CONRAD HARDWARE VACATION MONTH

It may be vacation time for some people, but not for us. We sure have been busy selling and repairing. Jake Cleek came up and bought 200 rods of field fence, barb wire and steel posts. L. H. Thomas also bought three rolls of barb wire, two kags of nails and a pair of National Double Jack fence stretchers. We got in 25 bundles of bale ties and they disappeared before we could hardly get them in the warehouse. I sold two Anchor coal circulators, to be set up this week. We have also had a lot of shoppers for oil heaters.

D. E. Ogden from Bib Bone neighborhood came after more of that good old Boice paint—he used a lot of it last year on one house—he is painting his other house this year—he sure likes that paint. Mrs. Cecil Dickerson and Mrs. Ralph Sparks were shopping today—Edna bought a box of shells—I don't suppose she is going to shoot Cecil. Raymond Scott and Ito also were over buying paint. Sheba and Elbert Wilson, who always come in to see us, were in—Sheba bought Elbert's and pocket knife. Walter Johnson and daughter, Mrs. C. Leet, were in—Walter bought more repairs, and Mrs. Leet bought a $x12 Gold Seal rug.

Howe Hood and wife were in—she bought a galvanized bucket and Howe bought a stretcher chain—Howe put the chain in the bucket and she carried it—she sure has his wife under control. L. and Mrs. Geo. Ruth and Viola also were buying pots, pans, teacettle and lots of small items. John Dorsey just bought one of those rubber tired farm wagons. Robert Ryan came in about an hour later for a wagon, but we were out—more coming this week.

Frank Rouse and wife, who are building a new home, bought a Dayton water system and new light fixtures. Mattie Hudson had Brewster bring down some new window shades and hang them. Hattie Benson also had Brewster put up new stove pipe for her—she sure waits on the widows and old maids. Clarence and Edna Combs bought a new 11-ft. Gibson refrigerator—Clarence will get faster than ever, because there is plenty of room for food in that refrigerator. Carl Simpson is going to have ice cream cut that White Mountain freezer he bought.

One Sutton bought an electric hotplate. Harry Baker came after roof paint and lead nails for South Fork church—the roof needs repairing. Jake Cleek called for the last Eclipse hand lawn mower I had—this is the best hand mower made. Nell Sutton and Jane, also that pretty little granddaughter, were buying all kinds of cooking utensils and toys. Mrs. Tevis Thomas from over at Verona bought pots, pans, dishes and poring knives. Mr. and Mrs. Couch, who bought the Ward Caldwell place at Kensington, and are very nice people, were shopping Saturday night for door locks and light fixtures.

Herley Tippet, who is building some houses on Wilson Road, to sell, was in after more wiring material. The firemen's picnic was a success—I believe this was the best one of all—everyone seemed to enjoy themselves. Our newspaper editor just got back from a fishing trip to Herington Lake—all I saw that he got was sunburn—all the big ones got away. Stanley and Nan Ransom just came in and purchased a Sunbeam, a Miromatic pressure cooker, a mop bucket, fly spray and sprayer.

Mr. Kinnan of Dry Ridge, just stopped and bought 100 rods of field fence—if you need fencing, buy it now! We have our heating stoves, both Perfection and Siegler oil heaters, and Anchor coal heaters, on display—now is the time to buy your heating stoves for fall—you may save a few dollars. We just delivered two more Anchor coal heaters and set them up—when you buy a heating stove here, we always set them up for you.

Stanley Ascraft from Verona came in a hurry for two rolls of fence and barb wire. Mr. and Mrs. John Hopperton from Beaverlick, were in Tuesday—John needed mower repairs and singletrees and his wife needed cooking utensils. Jim Huey, over Union way, a good customer, wanted some 1/4", Rotonone for bean beetles—this will kill them—he also bought a carton of 22 cartridges—it is about squirrel time. Helen Stephenson and Mrs. Clifford Mann bought dishes. Pearl Stephenson came after her iron I sent for repair. Clarence Struve needed a blow-out plug for his wife's pressure cooker.

Edna Belle Thornton came in after a rubber gasket for a pressure cooker that Frances Chapman bought here several years ago—she did not know the name, but I am supposed to remember things like this—you know, old maids expect too much out of a man—all women do, that's the reason there are so many widows in Walton—men don't last long, they die young. Don Roberts came over after a speding fork to dig his potatoes—if he would have Blanche or one of his boys do these things, he wouldn't be gray-haired and tired all the time.

I believe I will go to the softball game—have you ever been?—it is real sport and a fine place to rest. Ray just came in from repairing an oil stove for Mrs. E. M. Johnson, another for Mrs. Brittenheim, also put down some linoleum binding for Louis Webster—if you have any repair jobs, just call Conrad's—we do any and all that we know how to do. I see we are going to have an election for a new school—you can never go wrong spending your money for schools and churches—for those are two things we have to have, if our country continues to exist, as the "Land of the free and the home of the brave."

We have the finest group of churches in this town of any town near its size—so why can't we have the finest and best school? We also have a fine school board and these fellows need support, instead of complaints. Tonya Lee Stephenson and Margaret just came in and bought those fine children of theirs a nice croquet set—this is an extra good one and it will last for years. Gilbert Brewster, who is building a home about a mile south of town, bought tools and bolts—we have a nice line of first-grade tools. Come to CONRAD'S for your needs!

A Mass Meeting Of Telephone Subscribers Set For Friday Night

A group of Boone county citizens and telephone subscribers met at the Courthouse Monday night regarding the telephone service, which in the opinion of this group, grows progressively worse.

At this meeting, and in view of numerous complaints, a mass meeting was called for Friday night at 8:00 p. m., in the Courthouse at Burlington. It was suggested that at this mass meeting the subscribers decide on forming a permanent organization which can forcefully protest the rate increase asked for by the telephone company, and to employ expert advice who can go before the Public Service Commission asking them to judge whether the quality of service being paid for now justifies the rates being charged, much less an increase.

At this meeting the subscribers and others will be asked for a small contribution to be used in connection with the contest.

Utopians Attend State Camp

Crescent Springs Utopians attended the State Utopian Camp, August 12-15, which was held at Camp Daniel Boone, near Lexington, on the Kentucky River.

Carl Jones, in charge of older rural youth work in Kentucky from the University of Kentucky Extension Service, was in charge of the camp. Those attending from the Crescent club were, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kramer, Misses Grace Kahmann, Ruth Kahmann, Julia Kramer, Alma Maegly, Milly Krumpelman, Joe Kahmann, Dan Krumpelman and Joe Claxton, Senior Assistant County Agricultural Agent.

Legion Auxiliary Membership Drive Is Being Staged

Is your husband, son, father or brother a member of the American Legion? Are you serving at his side as a member of the American Legion Auxiliary? You should be!

The American Legion Auxiliary was formed for the purpose of aiding the American Legion in carrying out the great programs of peace-time service to America, to which the Legion is dedicated. The Auxiliary has no purposes that are apart from the aims of the Legion; its members serve side-by-side with the men of the Legion in a spirit of unselfish devotion to the well being of the American republic.

No organization of women in America is more desirous of peace than the women of the Auxiliary. Having had a loved-one in war, our rehabilitation and child welfare programs and our tragic personal contacts with the results of war, make us fully realize that freedom and democracy can only be maintained by a well informed public and a nation prepared to protect its ideals.

The Auxiliary believes that the principles and ideals upon which the American republic was founded, and for which American blood has been shed, are still the cornerstones of our democracy, and as such, should be safeguarded for the welfare of our future generations.

Membership strength is a very important factor in the Auxiliary, because when we speak on behalf of veterans' benefits, of American ideals and institutions, and of national security measures, we need to speak with the voice of a large membership. Only the increase in membership in each individual unit can promote a more powerful national organization.

Regular meetings of Johnson-McElroy Unit, 277, are held on the first and third Thursdays of each month at 8:00 p. m. in the Legion home on Beaver Road, Walton. You are welcome to attend and become acquainted with our members and our work. If you are eligible, we would like to have you as a member of our Unit—Pub. Chm.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH REVIVAL NEXT MONTH

Rev. Carrol F. Gravelly, pastor of the Walton Christian Church, will conduct a two weeks revival at the church beginning September 17th and continuing through October 1st. Rev. Gravelly is a very able speaker and the church feels fortunate in securing this spiritual man as its pastor.

Special music will be rendered each evening, under the direction of James W. Spencer. Ellis L. Frakes of Covington, a well known young man of this community for his talent in radio and evangelistic singing, will lead the singing, and with the church's two choirs, it is felt that good Gospel singing will be a major part of the services.

Remember the dates—Sept. 17 through Oct. 1—and you are invited to attend and worship and enjoy the blessings of God.

Independence Baptist Youth Revival To Be Held August 20-27

The young people of the Independence Baptist Church are sponsoring a Youth Revival, August 20-27, assisted by three able college students or graduates.

Walter K. Price, the evangelist, is a graduate of the University of Kentucky, is active in young people's work, a deacon in the Immanuel Baptist Church of Lexington, and has had experience in organizing citywide Youth Revivals.

His hobby is books, and he owns an exceedingly good library. He is also a keen Bible student, and a dynamic preacher.

William Lloyd Birch, song leader, is a Junior in Georgetown College, with a great musical ability, receiving his musical award from one of the Louisville High Schools, singing 1 year with the Louisville Philharmonic Chorus as tenor. He is a past member of Chapel, Oratorio and Traveling choirs.

Miss Wenonah White, pianist, is a resident of Louisville, and when graduating from High School, a 4-year scholarship was awarded to her in any school of her choice. Like other of this team, she has had much experience in the young people's work, along with her major in music at Western State College. Her experience has been extensive in singing in trios and quartets. She has been at the piano in a number of Youth Revivals.

The public is cordially invited to attend these meetings.

Former Priest to Speak
On the night following the close of the revival, August 28, the general public will have the privilege of hearing Rev. William E. Burke, a former Roman Catholic priest, who has been used of God to bring many blessings to Catholics and Protestants alike. Many will be eager to hear him for they failed to hear him when in Covington, several months ago.

Baptismal Service Sunday

On Sunday evening at 8 o'clock a candle-light baptismal service will be held at the Walton Christian Church. A most cordial invitation is extended to all.

Willing Workers to Meet

The Willing Workers Class of the Walton Christian Church will meet on Thursday, August 24 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Gault, with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bush as co-hosts.

All-Stars Softball Game Is Postponed; Will Play August 23

Some members of Kenny's All-Stars softball team will participate in the hardball tournament to be held in Covington, consequently the contest between the All-Stars and Owenton, scheduled for Friday, Aug. 18, has been postponed until Wednesday, August 23.

This game should show some real ball playing as Owenton is rated to be one of the better teams in this area.

In the past few weeks, Kenny's All-Stars, composed of players from the Walton league, have met and defeated the Crittenden Lions and a Negro team from Falmouth. The Walton team was not pushed too hard in either of these games, and showed promise of improvement.

The tentative schedule set up for the All-Stars will call for a lot of improvement if they wish to keep their winning ways. The following games have been lined-up for the next few weeks.

Wednesday, August 23—Owenton, Friday, August 25—Erlanger state pitch champions.

Friday, September 1—Marshall's Cafe, a team from Covington, with Tommy Conley pitching — need more to be said?

Friday, September 15 — Corinth, with George Haden of no hit, no run game.

One Killed, One Injured Seriously In Florence Crash

A 17-year-old Florence girl was killed and her companion critically injured when their auto failed to make a curve in Florence, Monday night. The victim was Miss Elizabeth Ann Clark, daughter of Mrs. Gladys Landrum and Carl Clark.

Mrs. Tressa Riffe, Kenton County coroner, said the girl suffered a broken neck and internal injuries. She gave a verdict of accidental death.

The driver of the car, Richard Harms, Elsmere, who suffered a possible fractured skull and internal injuries, was reported in a critical condition.

Sheriff Wendell H. Easton said the car left the highway two miles west of Florence.

DRUNKEN DRIVING

Police Chief Herman Simmons, this week arrested a Cincinnati man for driving while drunk on the streets of Walton. He was brought before Police Judge John H. Wood and fined $104.50. Chief Simmons announces that this is one of the most offenses and that all who are detected in this condition will be prosecuted to the fullest.

"It's A Date" To Be Presented at Simon Kenton High School On August 17-18

"It's A Date," the local talent show sponsored by the Daughters of America, Council Villa, 64, Independence, will be presented at Simon Kenton High School auditorium on Thursday and Friday, Aug. 17-18.

The cast includes about one hundred people and includes prominent public personalities. Featured in the show is Howard Bell and his popular minstrel show with the original cast of public figures, including Guy West, Victor Ellis and Earl Bell, plus the Melody Four quartet.

Playing the key roles in the show and impersonating famous radio personalities, are Judge Rodney G. Simpson, J. A. Caywood, Louis M. Gabriel, and Malvin Sebree. The show also boasts of prominent business men, such as J. Wayne Rusel, Cecil Wayman and Emmett Hunsel.

There is a big home-coming scene at Booka Booka College, with J. A. Caywood as the alumni professor. The audience is treated to a peek at "Santa Claus Land," where a lobby party is in progress for boys and girls who have come to the North Pole for a visit. They do dances and watch the dancing dolls and other toys come to life and sing Christmas Carols in the company of

Everyone Urged To Register Now

Everyone who is not registered or who has moved to another voting precinct, should register between now and August 23 at the County Clerk's office in Burlington in order that they may be able to vote in the Special School Tax Election on Saturday, August 26. If you have been in the state one year, in the county six months, and the school district sixty days, you are eligible to register.

In order to answer a question that is going around in regard to who may vote in this election, here is the answer: Anyone who is registered may vote, regardless of whether you are a property owner or not.

The School Board urges you to register and vote, in order that they may obtain an accurate sense of the voters in regard to this matter, and remember, you may register from now until the 23rd of August.

JESSE DELAHUNTY

Jesse Delahanty, age 71 years, passed away at his home in Florence, Friday, August 11.

Mr. Delahanty is survived by his wife, Mrs. Emma Smith Delahanty, and a brother, John Delahanty, also of Florence.

Funeral services were held Monday, August 14 at 2:00 p. m. at the Chambers & Grubbs Funeral Home, Florence. Interment was in Highland Cemetery, Ft. Mitchell.

George C. Riley, a life-long resident of Kenton county, died at his farm home near Nicholson August 9, aged 72 years.

Those surviving are his widow, Mrs. Nancy C. Riley; a daughter, Miss Onie Riley, at home; a sister, Mrs. Sallie Groger, Erlanger, and four brothers, Denver and Charley Riley, Independence, and Garnet and John Riley, Kenton county.

Services were held at the residence last Friday afternoon. Burial was in the Highland Cemetery, Fort Mitchell. The Swindler funeral home was in charge of arrangements.

GEORGE PACKER

George Packer of Morris Station, died suddenly Monday morning of what seemed to be a cerebral hemorrhage as he was getting ready to go to work. The Independence life squad took him to the hospital but to no avail.

NEW BETHEL REVIVAL

A revival will begin Sunday, Aug. 20 at the New Bethel Baptist Church, Verona, with the pastor, Raymond Stewart, as evangelist. It will continue until September 1, with services each evening at 8:15. Joe Rouse will have charge of the singing and special music. They are using the new building, which is not thoroughly finished, but near enough completed the revival may be held there.

Mr. Santa Claus, played by Charles Phillips; Mrs. Santa Claus, played by Mrs. Ralph King, and Santa Claus, Jr., played by Jimmy Grizzle.

One of the most unusual numbers in the show is "Easter-ride" and featuring chime from a number of Kenton County churches.

In direct contrast is the scene with six men dressed as kitchen queens, who, with pots, pans, and spoons, washboards, given a screamingly funny number as they burlesque the average housewife's woes in a number called "Happy, Happy Labor Day."

Outstanding in the audience participation part of the show is the impersonation of the "Take It or Leave It" radio show, where the audience has a chance to win valuable prizes.

Large Crowds Attend 4-H and Utopia Fair

PILLOW SLIP BINGO

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Florence Volunteer Fire Department will sponsor another of their pillow slip bingos on Thursday evening, Aug. 17, 1950 at 8 p. m. at the Fire Hall and Community Center. There will be a free cover-all game at eight.

Mrs. Lucille Lipp, Mrs. Clara Scott and Mrs. Thelma M. Stith are serving on the committee, as announced by Mrs. Louella Houston, Auxiliary President. The public is extended a very cordial invitation to attend.

Independence Banker Named Group President

Raymond Giles, cashier of the Bank of Independence, was elected unanimously recently as president of Group 8 of the Kentucky Bankers' Association.

The meeting was held at Summit Hills Country Club. Counties represented in Group 8 include Boone, Kenton, Campbell, Bracken, Fleming, Grant, Lewis, Mason and Pendleton. There were 124 members at the election session.

Mr. Giles will take office at the 56th annual convention of the Kentucky Bankers' Association in October in Louisville.

VERONA TO PLAY IN COVINGTON TOURNEY

Verona Community Club baseball team, one of the eight teams invited to play in the second annual Times-Star tournament, will meet Bavarian Beer of Melbourne, another K. A. G. team, Friday night, August 18, at 8:15 p. m. at the Covington Ball Park.

Verona defeated Bavarian at Melbourne earlier this season, 7-1, however, this team came out third best in the regular season in K. A. G. competition.

Last year Verona was defeated in the final game by Schoenling Beer, in the same tournament.

Verona will play Highway Merchants at Verona, Sunday, August 20, at 2:30 p. m. for their first game in the K. A. G. elimination series.

Happy Helpers Entertained

The regular monthly meeting of the Happy Helpers Sunday School class of the Walton Methodist Church was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Lancaster, August 8. The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. Hoffman, with the president, Cliff Pruett, presiding.

Devotional was conducted by Mrs. Clifford Pruett, followed by a business session.

Those enjoying the social hour and delicious refreshments, were Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Carlisle, Rev. and Mrs. Geo. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Fooks, Mr. and Mrs. C. Pruett, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. William Lancaster, Mrs. Geo. Hamilton, Mrs. Herman Newton, Mrs. Howard Stephenson, Bill Roberts, Misses Emma Jane Miller, Dorothy Hoffman, Clara Roberts, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Lancaster.

The September meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Simpson.

FILTRATION PLANT

The Walton City Council decided, at their regular August meeting, to open bids again for a filtration plant for the Waterworks, and if they can secure a suitable bid, work will begin as soon as possible.

They also did not receive any bids for the construction of the water-main on Verona Road, and will instruct John Stephenson to construct same at an estimated cost of $1,500, which will begin at once.

UNION O.E.S. TO MEET

Union Star Chapter, No. 461, O. E. S., will have a special meeting on Thursday, August 17 at 8:00 p. m. in Boone Union Masonic Hall, Union, Ky. There will be initiation. Mrs. Mary Belle Noe, Worthy Matron, and Ruben Kirkley, Worthy Patron, will preside.—Pub. Chm.

Judy Shields Is A Baby Show Winner

The eighteenth annual Boone County 4-H and Utopia Fair, held on August 11-12, was declared by all to have been the best attended fair on record. It is believed that at least 7,000 people attended the fair Saturday, and about half that number Friday. Most of the exhibits were well filled, especially the 4-H classes. There were about 1,800 exhibits.

The horse show, which was held Saturday afternoon and evening, still proved to be the big drawing card for the fair as it was estimated that over 3,000 people watched the show Saturday night, and many others were not able to get even standing room to see the show.

All stock barns were filled to capacity and a large number of cattle were taken home Friday night to make room for the large number of horses and ponies, which were exhibited Saturday.

There were also more commercial exhibits and concessions on the grounds than there were before, and all concessions reported an exceptionally good volume of business.

Winners in the various contests and exhibits were: Rolling Pin Throwing Contest, Audrey Massey, Burlington; Wet Penny Contest, Carroll McFarland, Independence; Hog Calling, Mary Rector, Petersburg; Penny Race (children), Larry Joe Origer, Burlington, R-1; Oldest Person at Fair (Friday), Mrs. Sam Barnes, Burlington; Slipper Kicking (girls and women), Marilyn Feldhaus, Union; Bubble Blowing Contest, (boys) Stanley Smith, Burlington, (girls) Jo Ann Sturgeon, Walton; Hog Calling, Charles Hon. Union, R-1; Best Animal Impersonation, (boys) Charles Hon. Union, R-1, and (girls) Betty Ann Coppage, Florence, R-2; Novelty Musical Number (tie) Judy Ann Shields, Walton, Oldest Person at Fair, Eliza Gully, Barboursburg, (boys) Harry Dale Moore, Union, Charles Ray McWethy, Union, and Benny Lou Stevens, Union, (girls) Judith Ann Shields, Walton, Darla Gail Beagle, Florence, and Carleen Bodie, Union.

Simon Kenton FFA Officers Attend State Camp

Officers of the Simon Kenton Chapter of F. F. A. attended officers' training camp at Hardinsburg, Ky., the week of August 7-11. The camp was conducted by the State Association of F. F. A. and the five Kenton County youths were among 260 boys and 40 advisers from all over Kentucky.

In the morning the boys devoted their time to three instruction periods, and in the afternoon there were sports and recreation. In the three classes, the officers learned their respective duties, with advisers serving as instructors.

While at camp the boys were offered a balanced program of sports with included athletic, touch football, basketball, volleyball, badminton, ping pong, shuffleboard and horse shows. Aldin Steinhauer, vice president of the S. K. Chapter, won a casting tournament.

Those who attended the camp, other than Steinhauer, were: Otis Hollan, president, Crittenden; Eldred Menefee, treasurer, Fiskburg; Norman Meier, secretary, Atwood, and James Maus, reporter, Independence.

SIMMONS IS IN KOREA

Word has been received that Carl Simmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Simmons, is in Korea and has been there since July 1. He is OK and that is all he could tell.

LADIES AID TO MEET

The Ladies Aid of the Walton Methodist Church will meet Saturday, August 19 in the home of Mrs. Mayme Simpson for an all-day meeting. A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon.

CARD OF THANKS—

I thank my many friends for the vote of confidence they gave me in the Primary Election, August 5. I will endeavor to represent them in the future as I have in the past. I will devote all my time and energy to that end. I regret that I was unable to remain and personally express my gratitude to them because my duties required my immediate return to Washington.

—BRENT SPENCE.

It's been a year since this column first came your way. We've tried not to be profound as we believe the world is filled with self-anointed experts and authorities.

Instead—of trying to "solve" the problems of the world, we've confined ourselves to reporting the doings of our fellow-Kentuckians who, because they have to work to make a living, have been exiled to Washington.

We admit that from time to time we have strayed from that path to predict the future. And, if you don't mind, we are going to point with pride to some predictions that have come true.

Predictions:
Last year about this time we reported that Congress would soon turn over some federal land at Dawson Springs to the State of Kentucky. And the State in turn, would give the land to the University of Kentucky for use as a 4-H Club camp. The bill is now a law.

We also predicted that Congress would approve the construction of a new Fish Hatchery in Kentucky to cost $275,000. That measure is also on the law books.

This column made various other predictions. We forecast the nomination of Governor Clements for the Senate and the Governor made good a week ago. We also went a step further and predicted his election in November. And he held to that prediction.

Most Fun:

The most fun we've had in getting out this column is the mail—we receive. If you have a question, we'll try to get the information for you. Just drop a card to Gil Kingsbury, Room 313, Senate Office Building, Washington, D. C.

Much of the mail these days is about draft deferments. A mother in Boone County and a prospective draftee in Gallatin wants to know about deferments. Truth of the matter is that the problem is up to the Local Draft Board. If you're healthy, in the right age bracket and have a job, its up to the Board to decide if your job is important enough to keep you at home.

A Wedding:
The Vice President's office has taken on new responsibilities.

Today Billy Vaughn, aide to Vice President Barkley, and his new bride, the former Miss Virginia Lee Carrier of Falmouth, are on their honeymoon.

The couple was married last Friday in the capital. On their return they will live at Colonial Village in Arlington County, Virginia.

The new Mrs. Vaughn, a graduate of the Falmouth High School, has a position in the Department of National Defense.

Promotion:
Colonel Albert DeCoursey is moving up in the world. The Covington military man has been named Director of the Armed Forces Institute of Pathology, the diagnostic and consultation center for all the military.

Dr. DeCoursey is a graduate of Covington High School and the University of Kentucky. He took his medical training at Johns Hopkins. In 1945, the Kentuckian was sent to Japan to study the effects of atomic bombing. And, in addition, he watched the atomic explosion at Bikini in 1946.

LITTLE SOUTH FORK

Several from this community have been attending the revival at the Paint Lick Baptist Church, and all have enjoyed the services greatly.

Miss Dorothy Books spent a few days with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wallace, and son.

Miss Sally Jane Baker spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Julius Sutton and daughter.

Mrs. Julius Sutton was hostess to a Stanley party Friday afternoon at her home. Those attending were: Mrs. John Barnes, Mrs. Eliza Scudder, Mrs. Bolan Baker, Mrs. Earl Scudder, Mrs. James E. Perry and two children, Mrs. William D. Johns and son, Mrs. Rea Scudder and Mrs. Harry Baker and two daughters, and Mrs. Less Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Sutton, Chas. Sutton and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young attended the Farmers and Trunkers Fair at LeSoudsville Lake, Saturday.

Shirley Sutton spent Saturday and Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. Rea Scudder.

Mrs. Eliza Scudder is visiting her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Rea Scudder.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baker and daughters attended the Burlington Fair, Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Alice Perry is visiting her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Sutton and daughter.

Jack Peace and Sallye Alphin called on Bonnie and Sally Baker, Sunday afternoon.

STATE TON-LITTER

SHOW ON AUG. 26

The 15th annual Kentucky Ton-Litter Show and Sale, with classes for 4-H club members and for farmers, will be held at the Bourbon Stockyards in Louisville, Aug. 26. Exhibits will consist of eight or more pigs from one litter and rings for single hogs and pens of three. Several hundred dollars in cash prizes will be awarded.

Rings include two weights—180 to 225 pounds and 226 pounds up. Ribbons will be given for the grand champion barrow or gilt and grand champion pen of three.

The show has been arranged through the cooperation of the stock yards and the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky.

In Pulaski county, there are 117 4-H and 76 Utopia Club calves being fed for show and sale this fall.

James Stewart of Knox county is building a corn crib on his farm which will hold 2,000 bushels of corn.

Several Lee county farmers replanted corn because of root-worm damage.

Careful, Colonel!

To disobey a command of a colonel is to invite disaster, as many a green rookie had learned.

One morning on a tour of inspection a colonel stopped at the kitchen of one of the companies in his command, where he met two K. P.'s with a large soup kettle.

"Here, you K.P.," he bellowed. "Let me taste that soup." One of the men hurried back after a large spoon, which he handed respectfully to the colonel.

The officer plunged the ladle into the pot, took a mouthful of the steaming liquid, and smacked his lips critically. Then he let out a howl that could be heard at G.H.Q. half a mile away.

"Soup, you blasted fool, do you call that soup?" he roared.

"No, sir, colonel, that's just some dish water we were carrying out."

THE REAL ERROR

The owner of a cheap watch brought it into the jeweler's shop to see what could be done for it. "The mistake I made, of course," he admitted, "was in dropping it."

"Well, I don't suppose you could help that," the jeweler remarked.

"The mistake you made was picking it up."

Fair Play

The two beginners were playing golf. The next green was 300 yards away and over numerous hazards. One shut his eyes and took a lusty swing. By a freak of chance he connected with the ball and sent it sailing for the green. It bounded directly into the cup for a hole in one.

"You've made a hole in one," exclaimed the other in an awed voice.

"Till water two to one I could do it again," bragged the first.

"Okay," grunted his friend, "it's a wager—but on one condition."

"Sure," agreed the confident one. "What's the condition?"

"This time," said the other, "you've got to make the shot with your eyes open!"

What, a Whole Set?

The millionaire, whose daughter the young man had just saved, was insistent that he accept a cash reward. Finally, to save an embarrassing situation, our hero said casually:

"Well, if you insist, just give me a golf club."

A week later he received a telegram from the father:

"Have bought for you the West-end Golfer's club, and am now negotiating for the Sunnyside Links."

Nothing Trivial

A teacher was making a strenuous effort to get good attendance in her room. Looking over her class one morning, she saw that all except one were in their places.

"This is fine," she exclaimed, "all here except Jimmie Jones; and let us hope that it is something serious which keeps him away."

Only When Necessary

"Dear Teacher," wrote an indignant mother, "You must not whack Tommy. He is a delicate child and isn't used to it. We never hit him at home except in self-defense."

SOUTH TAYLOR MILL

We are glad to report Paul Watson is home and doing fine after an appendix operation at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

John Meehan and friends, Mrs. Frances Lundrignon and Will Montgomery of Cincinnati, spent an enjoyable day Saturday at the Germantown Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Summey have rented their home to Mr. and Mrs. Brendt of Covington and are leaving September 15 to make their home with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Flynn at Walton.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. K. Durr of Indianapolis, Ind., spent several days the past week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Klein.

Harry Armstrong and Charles Losey and son J. B. attended the Burlington fair, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Reynolds and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Summey were Wednesday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carter of the LLL Highway.

Mrs. Mabel L. Martin and son had as Thursday evening dinner guests, Mr. and Mrs. William K. Durr of Indianapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Losey and sons J. B. and Ronald motored to Richmond, Ind., Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Meyers and little son and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Robison spent Saturday at LeSoudsville Lake.

Clay county 4-H club members produced 1642 gallons of strawberries this year, valued at $1944.

Jeff Hickman of McCreary county is building a farm fish pond that will cover about three acres.

His Only Buddy

"Why does this manager seem so partial to young Saunders?"

"Because he's the only fellow on the staff who isn't taking correspondence lessons to become manager himself!"

NOTHING NEW

He took her hand in his and gazed proudly at the engagement ring he had placed on her finger only three days before.

"Did your friends admire it?"

He inquired, tenderly.

"They did more than that," she replied. "Two of them recognized it!"

FOLLOWING DIRECTIONS

"Why did you throw the pot of geraniums at the plaintiff?"

"Because of an advertisement, your honor."

"What advertisement?"

"Say it with flowers."

NEW VALUATION

"I see she's let her hair go dark again."

"Yes—off the gold standard."

KENTON

Our revival closed Friday evening but it is still continuing in the hearts of our people. We had a large crowd at both services Sunday and at the evening service another one-accepted Christ. During the revival, ten came for baptism, one by letter, five for rededication and two dedicated themselves as Missionaries.

Remember our Sunday school each Sunday at 10 a. m., Walter Roden, Supt.; preaching services each Sunday at 11 a. m. and 8:15 p. m.; prayer meeting each Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, and cottage prayer meeting each Friday evening at 8.

Our church bus will run for each service. If it passes your home, and you aren't attending Sunday school, our bus driver will be glad to stop for you.

A cordial invitation is given to everyone to all our services. Come and worship with us!

A Great Preacher?

Lesson for August 20, 1950

JESUS SAID of him that there had never been a greater man, than John, the Baptist. Certainly there has never been a greater preacher, to this day. He had none of the aids a modern preacher has. He had no song leader, no music of any kind; no church organization, no building, not even a tent. He was not even in a village but in a bandit-infested wilderness. There was 11 little "dramatics" about him or his methods.

Yet he started a Dr. Foreman tremendous revival, and he won higher praise from Jesus than any other human being received from him.

Candor
CONSIDER SOME of the qualities of this famous man. One was candor, that is, he was not afraid to speak his mind. His opinions were not always popular; his verdicts were not always those of the masses. But he spoke his mind all the same.

He called his hearers "generation of vipers," "snakes," "bables," in modern words. He freely admitted he was no Messiah. When on a later occasion he had his doubts about Jesus, he did not conceal them, but told Jesus straight from the shoulder that he questioned him. And Jesus honored his honesty. Candor is a rare article. Those few persons in public life who are willing to speak their minds may make some enemies but they make more admirers. The odd thing is that people cover up their minds for fear they will be unpopular; whereas you will generally find that the candid person does not lack for friends.

Courage
THAT BRINGS UP another quality outstanding in this extraordinary man: his courage. He could stand up to the most prominent citizens and tell them they were sinners, and name their sins.

It doesn't take much courage to say you are a sinner, or to say that any one is. Aren't we all? It takes more nerve to speak out in plain language, as John did to the Pharisees and Herod for example. When he called on men to repent, he meant a specific repentance, not repentance-in-general.

In a southern state there was a prison chaplain at the penitentiary. One of the prisoners had been convicted of stealing funds from the state bank. But he never had admitted his guilt, in court or afterwards. He was stand-offish with the chaplain, though before his conviction he used to be a church officer and a praying man, the chaplain could hardly get next to him. Finally one day he agreed to pray. As he and the chaplain knelt down together, the prisoner began: "Lord, thou knowest that we are all miserable sinners..." The chaplain stopped him. Leaning over he said to the prisoner: "What are you in here for?" The man was still a moment. Then in a quite different tone of voice he began again: "O God, forgive me for stealing from the State Bank." It was the first time he had ever admitted his guilt. But it took courage on the chaplain's part as well as his own.

Common Sense
ANOTHER QUALITY of John which deserves notice is his simple common-sense. Listen to what he tells the men who come with this question: What must we do? John's common-sense mind knew that repentance, just by itself, is not enough. Repentance is turning from something bad to something good, from wrong to right.

Let the man with two shirts share with the man who has none, he said. Let him who has food do likewise. Let the tax-collector be honest. Let the soldier stop rumbling; even in an "occupied country" a soldier must not be unjust or cruel.

Pointing to Christ
WHAT MAKES John best remembered is that he preached Christ. He is known as the forerunner; he was the man who said of Jesus, "He is my Lord, but I must decrease." The preacher who calls attention to himself is an egotist, a show-off, the preacher who draws men's eyes and hearts to Jesus Christ may himself be small, but his work will be great.

LISTEN CLOSELY!

Another weekend is here! Soon the Church bells will again tell us that it's Sunday morning.

How are we to spend this day? A picnic or an outing might be fun, or maybe a visit to Aunt Mary's. Of course, we can turn over and go back to sleep, or maybe we should complete that delayed chore. As individuals, we have these choices to make—and more.

But as human beings whose destiny is guided by a greater power, we have no choice. Our blessings and our very lives have been bestowed and not earned. They have been entrusted to our care while on earth, and they are not ours to squander or to abuse.

If you begin now to attend Church regularly and to support its work, you will want no other choice for you will be turning an obligation into a great joy. As men and women, it is our divine privilege to dedicate one day each week to the glory of our Benefactor.

Listen to the Church bells ringing on Sunday morning! Listen closely, for this is a day of worship, of prayer and thanksgiving.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ...

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of the community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

FLYING SAUCERS — IN MODEL PLANE MEET

STAFFORDSBURG

When we went to Sunday School this week it looked as if about half of the folks were off on their vacations. We will be glad when every one is back and we have full attendance at Sunday services.

Rev. and Mrs. Ray Martin and son are spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett and visiting other relatives. The Barnett family enjoyed a family picnic at Devou Park on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney and sons Paul and Donald were the Sunday guests of Misses Alma and Mary Stephens.

The family of friends of Wayne Stephens were very glad to see him on a week-end visit. He had a long leave due, but because of the war emergency all leaves were cancelled and he returns to his ship as Executive Engineer.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Henry and children Joan and Ronald and Mrs. Denver Binder and son, Randall are spending a few days visiting their uncle, Jesse Rapp and Mrs. Rapp at McKee, Ark.

Let's all come out to the Fish Fry sponsored by the Brotherhood on Saturday evening at 7:30 and then don't forget Sunday School and preaching service.

Rev. and Mrs. John Wheary had as guests on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wolf and nephew and Miss Bertie Reddick.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Klette Jr. called on Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney on Monday evening. Mr. Klette, a Covington and Kenton county attorney, is active in the Covington Squadron Air Force Association, and has been appointed to serve on the Resolution Committee for the Air Force Association 1950 Convention to be held in Boston August 25-27. He is a veteran of the 15th Air Force, 310th Bomber Group; made 51 missions and is holder of the Silver Star and Air Medal with five Oak Leaf clusters.

County Agent Stuart Brabant of Todd county had more than 300 calls on control of tobacco aphids.

ONE WAY TO DO IT

A patient complained to the doctor that his hair was coming out. "Won't you give me something to keep it in?" he begged. "Take this," the doctor said kindly, and handed the patient a pill box.

OF COURSE!

A "Big Indian" strayed away from his camp and got lost. Inquiring the way back, he was asked: "Indian lost?" "No," said he, disdaintfully, "Indian no lost—wigwam lost." Striking his breast, he exclaimed, "Indian here!"

None in His Claw

They sat on the beach. Her hair caressed his face. Her head rested on his shoulders. Her lips looked down on his. Finally she murmured, "Why don't you kiss me?" "I can't," he said, "some sand got in my mouth."

Always Happens

Magistrate: "But why did you break into the dress shop four nights running?" Defendant: "I got a new dress for my wife and she made me go back and change it three times."

Better Hurry

"Jim, why don't you get married?" "Well, my trouble is that every day I get more particular and less desirable."

Alfalfa that had produced four tons of hay an acre in one season was seen at the annual field days at the Experiment Station at Lexington.

KNEW HER GUESTS

Two travelers arrived at the hotel and were shown a rather dingy room.

"What," said one, "does this pigsty cost?"

Promptly the proprietor replied: "For one pig, two dollars; for two pigs, three dollars."

No Overtime

The boss came in early and found his bookkeeper kissing the stenographer.

"Is this what I pay for?" he asked.

"No, I do this for free charge," replied the bookkeeper.

The Hard Way

"Hard work never killed anybody," said the father.

"That's just the trouble, Dad," returned the son, just out of college. "I want to engage in something that has the spice of danger in it."

What Else?

"What is cowardice chiefly used for?" a teacher asked his class one day.

A boy raised his hand.

"I know, sir. To keep the cow together, sir," was the reply.

Mean Man

"Is this the Humane Society?" inquired the feminine voice over the telephone.

"That's right, lady; what's your problem?"

"Well, you must do something! There's a book agent sitting in the tree in front of our house teasing my dog!"

Mud in Your Eye

"My father always proposed a toast before he disciplined me."

"That's funny. What was it?"

"Bottoms up."

DOING HIS BIT

When he told his parents he had secured a job at the blacksmith shop, they laughed, and said:

"You surely don't mean to tell us that a little fellow like you can shoe horses."

"No," said the boy, "but I can shoe flies."

'Taint So Easy

An angler who had been trying to hook something for the last six hours was sitting gloomily at his task when a mother and her small son came along.

"Oh," cried out the youngster, "do let me see you catch a fish." Addressing the angler, the mother said severely: "Now don't you catch a fish for him until he says 'Please.'"

Notice of Election

Public notice is hereby given that an election will be held in Walton-Verona Independent Graded School District on August 26, 1950, to determine whether the qualified voters of said District will approve the levying of a special school building fund tax separate from and in addition to the maximum regular school tax levy provided by law. Each special tax to be at the rate of fifty cents on each one hundred dollars of property in said district subject to school taxation, said tax to continue for a period not to exceed thirty years, and the proceeds thereof to be used for the purchase or lease of school sites or buildings, for the erection and complete equipping of existing buildings, for the purpose of retiring, directly or through rental payments, school building revenue bonds issued for such school building improvements, and for the purpose of financing any program for the acquisition, improvement, or building of schools. If approved by the requisite majority of the voters at said election, the said special building fund tax at the specified rate will be so levied.

The question which will be submitted to the voters at said election will be as follows:

"Are you for or against the levy of a special school building tax rate of fifty cents on each one hundred dollars of property subject to local taxation within the Walton-Verona Independent Graded School District for a period not to exceed thirty years, the income from said tax to be used for the purchase or lease of school sites or buildings, for the erection and complete equipping of new school buildings, for the major alteration, enlargement and complete equipping of existing buildings, for the purpose of retiring, directly or through rental payments, school revenue bonds issued for such school building improvements, and/or for the purpose of financing any program for the acquisition, improvement or building of schools?"

Provision will be made upon the ballots for the voters of said School District to indicate that they are "for" or "against" the levying of said special school tax.

All qualified voters of said School District are hereby notified of said election and requested to vote upon said question. This notice is given pursuant to a Resolution adopted by the Fiscal Court of Boone County, Kentucky on the 8th day of August, 1950, and reference to said Resolution is hereby made for further details. Said Resolution is spread at large upon the records of the Fiscal Court and is subject to inspection.

CARE NEEDED IN SPRAY PAINTING

Reports of itinerant painters spraying low-quality paint on barns have brought the following suggestions from J. B. Kelly, head of the Agricultural Engineering Section at the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky: Spray painting is satisfactory if properly done with good-quality paint. Be sure the paint is high quality.

Do not use paints made of ochre or mixed with kerosene or used crank-case oil. A cheap home-made paint may be made by mixing ochre pigments with linseed oil. It will not be as durable, however, as lead and oil paints.

Buildings may be sprayed with creosote oils mixed with colored pigments. However, where creosote is used a color edoll paint cannot later be satisfactorily used.

If galvanized sheet metal siding or roofing is rusting, remove the rust with a steel brush before applying any kind of aluminum paint. Such paint placed over rust will soon peel.

The best kind of paint to apply to galvanized sheet metal is an 80-20 metallic zinc paint. It can be obtained in different colors.

It pays to use the right kind of paint of a good quality, properly applied. Buy quality paint from reliable dealers or mix your own paint from approved formulas. Know what kind of paint will be used before letting a job to an itinerant contractor.

From a flock of 59 ewes, Walter Wagner of Taylor county sold lambs and wool for an average of $33.90 per ewe.

At a district 4-H club camp at Quicksand, Letcher county topped the attendance with 35 boys and girls registered.

Served Him Right

A party of visitors were being shown over a large lunatic asylum. The doctor who acted as guide paused before a cell in which a man sat nursing a large doll which was dressed in the gay and gaudy costume of an up-to-date young lady.

"This poor fellow," explained the doctor, "has a very sad history. See how he is bending over that doll and fondling it so tenderly. He spends most of his time like that. He was engaged to a girl, of whom he was very fond. She jilted him, however, and married another man, while this one lost his reason over the affair."

The visitors were much touched and uttered various expressions of sympathy.

"They passed to the next cell, which was barred and thickly padded."

"And this," resumed the doctor, "is the other man."

DEVOTED AUNT

"Did you give the penny to the monkey, dear?" "Yes, mama."

"And what did the monkey do with it?"

"He gave it to his father, who played the organ."

Cause for Alarm

A woman went into a butcher shop one evening to buy some meat. A strange man followed her into the store and stood about while she was at the counter. Suddenly she screamed, and the man turned and ran out of the store, and right into the arms of a passing patrolman. On searching him he was found to be armed. Later he was identified as a notorious hold-up man.

"Mrs. Jones, if you hadn't screamed I would certainly have been robbed," declared the butcher gratefully. "But how did you know he was a bandit?"

"I didn't know," protested Mrs. Jones. "I screamed when you told me what the roast was going to cost me."

Just in Case

In a certain store they have a book in which a record is kept of the exact reason why any customer leaves without making a purchase. The other day a woman customer took up a good deal of time looking at black dresses, finally leaving without buying.

The clerk—a temporary hand—solemnly approached the book and entered up: "Customer only looking at black dresses—not buying. Husband not dead yet."

Some Hunter!

The hunter came panting up to one of the party.

"Just met a great big bear in the woods," he said breathlessly. "Good!" said the other. "Did you give him both barrels?"

The hunter wiped his perspiring brow. "Both barrels!" he returned, "I gave him the whole gun!"

SPARTA R. 2

Sympathy is extended the loved ones in the passing of Mrs. Nellie Rodgers and Mrs. Fannie Hedger. May God comfort them in their sorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Brashear of Verona visited Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Groves, Sunday.

Little Miss Jackie Spitz, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carter, is ill at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hall were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Boots and family. Sonny Boots returned home with his grandparents for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Elfrie Henderson were visitors in Covington, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kemper attended the funeral of his uncle at Owenston, Sunday.

Mrs. Sarah Miller spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Martha Miller. Harry Thomason and daughter, Mrs. Betty Gilbert, have returned home from a business trip to California.

Perl Beach and daughter visited relatives in Owen county recently. Mr. and Mrs. Elfrie Henderson attended church at Glencoe, Sunday evening.

Mrs. Mable Wallace and son spent Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Melba Boots and children.

LAND RETURNS UP; ALSO INVESTMENTS

It may have been easier to pay for a farm in 1940 than it is today, despite higher incomes, says County Agent Stuart Brabant of Todd county. He has been helping commercial farmers with their bookkeeping for 19 years, and recently went over their books for 1949.

Net incomes increased only 50% from 1940 to 1949, but investments in land, equipment and livestock more than doubled, he pointed out. In 1949 the farmers made a net profit of $12.22 per tillable acre on an investment of $138 an acre in land, buildings, machinery and livestock. In 1940 they made a net profit of $8 a tillable acre on an investment of $66 an acre.

The farmers keeping records had an average of 265 tillable acres. Their average net income in 1949 was $3,285; in 1948, $3,895, and in 1940, $1,760, after allowing for all expenses and 5 percent on investments. Noting a drop in net income in recent years, Brabant said the records pointed to some of the dangers of going too deeply in debt for land now, if one expects to pay for the farm from its earnings.

"A net profit of $8 an acre on a $66 investment in 1940 would have required a debt quicker than a $12 net profit on a $138 investment in 1949," he added.

FAIR TIME

August the 12th was fair day for Boone and Grant County and I believe most everyone went to the fairs—we were not busy and all took it easy. Stanley Fooks brought in a floor lamp to be rewired and Orpha Fisher's iron needed a new cord. Viola Nutt bought a new Perfection oil range—I took her old one in and she certainly took good care of it—looks nearly good as new. Wanda Dixon Davis from Dry Ridge came down and bought a Barton washer—these are fine washers and we have a good stock of them—we also have one Maytag in stock.

Mr. and Mrs. Price Conner from over on Burlington-Florence Road, were in after Rotomop pots, pans and lots of small items—they sure are a fine couple and we always welcome them back to our store. Carl Sheriff from Williamstown stopped and picked up one of those Reo power lawn mowers—this is the best selling lawn mower I ever handled, all you have to do is have plenty of them, they sell themselves. Ed Hankinson buys all the used washers I take in—if you need a used washer, see Ed, he repairs them. We just unloaded a truck load of fence, barb wire and steel fence posts—if you are going to do any fencing this fall, you had better buy your fence. We also got a large shipment of American double-jack fence stretchers and Townsend single wire stretchers.

Have you seen our supply of metal farm gates—these are the best big ones—10, 12 and 14 ft. Malby Simpson bought one of those Perfection oil heaters and we already delivered it. Joe C. Kandy and wife also bought a Perfection oil heater. Elmer and Dorothy Grager sure are fixing up things, buying new rugs and rug border. Joe Northcutt is going to have some of that good old rich ice cream with that new White Mountain freezer he bought today.

Chief Allen and Frank DeMoisey are on a fishing trip, so don't have a fire or run out of gas, but if you do, there is always someone left to answer your calls. My old friend, Russell Sparks, is in Christ Hospital—his old ticker is giving him a little trouble, but he will be out in a week or two. Chas. B. Roberts bought his little sister a new red wagon. Harry Baker, who operates a garage in Newport, also a farm down by South Fork church, sent up after a lot of that good old Boice paint—people come from everywhere to buy this paint.

Jay Webster from Verona needed mower guards for his Ford mower—we were out but have 200 on the way. Stanley Robinson, who is on the sick list but is improving, sent his wife after his South Fork church, sent up after a lot of that good old Boice paint—people come from everywhere to buy this paint.

POND DIGGING

With war raging in Korea, anxious Kentucky mothers and fathers have been inquiring about the possibility for appointments to West Point and Annapolis for their young sons.

Last year, before dark clouds gathered on the horizon, the demand for appointments was pretty light. Now, however, the inquiries are coming in. You see, cadets and midshipmen are draft exempt and assured of a college education.

Resignations:
Word received from around the country, tells us that a lot of reserve corps members would like to get out of the service, resign their commissions.

However, there has been little or no cry for help directed to congressional offices. Kentuckians who joined the reserve have not called on their congressmen and senators for help in getting out. The vast majority of them, 99 per cent, in fact, stand ready. They know what they were in for when they joined the reserves and accepted their commissions and pay.

Sports Note:
Kentuckians in Washington are going to enjoy pro football this year. A Kentucky Wildcat has joined the Washington Redskins of the National Professional League. The star griddler is Harry Ulsinski, a center. He saw service in the recent All-Star game in Chicago where his team beat the Philadelphia Eagles.

Tourists:

It's getting close to the end of the tourist season and in a week or two only a few visitors will tramp the halls of the Capitol.

We'll testify to see the end come. Scarcely a day passes that some friend or acquaintance doesn't drop into our office for a chat. With them they bring a precious commodity: news from home.

To those Northern Kentuckians who still plan a jaunt to Washington, we offer this advice:

Take U. S. Route 50 through Parkersburg and Clarksburg. It's the most direct route to the capital. There are, of course, a few mountains but Uncle Sam and West Virginia are busy straightening out the worst of the curves. Incidentally, it is just about 500 miles from Washington to Covington.

The Mail Bag:
This is getting to be a regular feature—congressional mail.

A worried Boone County citizen writes to ask what Congress is doing to root out subversives. Well, the senate last week passed no less than three bills, one of which calls for the execution of any spies caught in peace time. Legally, we are still at peace, in spite of the Korean War. In addition, President Truman has asked for new laws on subversives and Congress should take more action soon.

A Gallatin County businessman writes to ask about the reorganization of government. He wants to know how it is coming along.

Unfortunately, the Korean affair has forced a temporary halt in reorganization plans. Several measures, however, are on the way through Congress and there is some little hope for action before adjournment.

Farm Crop News

Light Peach Crop in Kentucky

The 1950 peach crop will only be a drop in the bucket to take care of the needs of our people in Kentucky, according to Harry F. Walters, Commissioner of Agriculture. Many orchards have no peaches to ship, and very few orchards have approximately 50 percent of a normal crop. The cause of this is the result of the late spring freeze.

Kentucky is not alone, as our neighboring states also were hit. However, there should be ample supplies from Michigan, arriving in Kentucky around September 1, to take care of the folks who must have their peaches.

Bumper Potato Crop

The United States and Kentucky Departments of Agriculture report the United States production of potatoes at 467,392,000 bushels, up almost 17 million bushels from the July 1 estimate. Production last year was 401,962,000.

Kentucky's yield is much heavier than was first estimated, and harvesting will not be completed for another two weeks. Field representatives report if prices decline further some fields may not be harvested, especially where quality is poor.

Grain Markets Unsettled

As reported by the USDA and Kentucky Department of Agriculture at the close of the week of August 14, 1950, No. 2 red winter wheat brought $2.19 at Chicago, $2.21 at St. Louis, and $2.19-2.23 at Kansas City.

Marketing of corn increased and arrivals at the leading terminals totaled 8.3 million bushels. With slow demand corn prices declined at some markets but Chicago and St. Louis were about unchanged. No. 2 yellow corn was quoted at Chicago at $1.55, St. Louis at $1.55 and Kansas City at $1.445-1.47. Oats were unchanged and soybeans continued to decline to a new crop basis.

FLORENCE

The W. S. C. S. of the Florence Methodist Church was entertained at luncheon Wednesday by the society of the Erlanger Methodist Church. The Florence society's contribution to the luncheon was a delicious white coconut cake with 10 candles signifying the tenth anniversary of the W. S. C. S.

Mrs. Sarah Rowland, who recently underwent an operation at St. Mary Hospital, Cincinnati, has returned home and is convalescing nicely. Her friends wish her the best.

Forward, Men

Seth Smith was reckoned the laziest man in the village. So tired had the authorities become of contributing to his support that they decided to confine him to a living tomb. Accordingly he was prepared for burial. The hearse was an old ramshackle country wagon.

As the strange cortege moved along some old resident asked, "Who is it?"

"Why, Seth Smith, who is too lazy to get anything to live on, so we are going to bury him alive."

"I'll give him a bushel of corn," said one.

"So will I," said another.

Slowly raising his head, Seth asked:

"It the corn shelled, neighbor?"

"No, you'll have to shell it yourself."

Gently replacing his head, he said: "Drive on, boys, drive on."

TYPOGRAPHICAL ERROR

A retired printer went into the restaurant business.

"This is an outrage—there's a needle in this soup!" cried one of his customers.

"Merely a typographical error, sir," said the aforementioned typographer. "Should have been noodle."

Mean Conductor

For the fourth time the corporation lawyer conducting the cross-examination led the witness to the accident.

"You say that after the street car passed, the man was seen lying on the ground with his scalp bleeding. Did the car hit him?"

"Naw," exploded the exasperated witness. "The conductor leaned out and hit him as he went by."—Kablegram.

Should Work

A young man just out of college sought the advice of a hard-headed and successful businessman. "Tell me, please, how I should go about getting a start in the great game of business."

"Sell your wrist watch and buy an alarm clock," was the laconic reply.

Could Be

"Speaking of animals remembering," said the elderly man, "when I was a boy I once gave a circus elephant a stick of striped candy."

"Well?"

"After that, whenever that circus was to parade in the town, the barbers had to take in their striped poles."

New Chrysler Parking Brake

The pull of one finger can hold the heaviest passenger car on the steepest of grades through a powerful new parking brake now being installed on Chrysler cars, according to Stanley Vallandingham, owner of the Walton Garage, local Chrysler dealer.

The new "Easi-Lock" parking brake is designed to hold the mammoth Chrysler Crown Imperial, loaded to a gross weight of 6,200 pounds, from rolling backward on a 32% grade. Should the need arise, it can bring the car to a complete stop from any speed.

Mounted on the propeller shaft, the new hand brake is completely independent of the wheel brakes. It is of the internal-expanding type and provides more than three times the maximum braking effect of the external contracting hand brake it replaces.

When the brake is engaged, both brake shoes become self-energized to utilize the motion of the car in multiplying the braking action.

Besides increasing the braking effect, this self-energizing action also greatly reduces the amount of pull necessary to set the brake. A woman driver's average pull in setting the new brake is sufficient to make it impossible for the car to be driven off with the brake engaged.

The brake unit is fully enclosed to keep out dirt and oil, so that a minimum of servicing is required. Longer lining life is assured by this added protection and by the use of Cyclobond brake linings.

The new brake is now being installed on all Chryslers that have Prestomatic Transmission with the Fluid Drive.

Resolution No. 3

A resolution designating the proposed route of laying a two-inch water main along a portion of Plum Avenue, in the City of Walton, Kentucky, declaring the improvement necessary and suggesting an ordinance be adopted making the improvement.

WHEREAS, the Water Line on Plum Avenue now ends without being in sufficient distance to provide water to all of the residents on said street; and

WHEREAS, request has been made to the City Council that the improvement be made, and it being in keeping with desire of the City to keep growing and expanding and offering more advantages to more of its people,

NOW, THEREFORE, The City Council of The City of Walton Does Ordain As Follows:

Section 1. That, following appropriate action by the City Council, a two (2) inch galvanized water line will be laid from the end of the present Water Line on Plum Avenue and be connected with the present line and extend for a distance of two hundred and fifty (250) feet along said street and on the same side of the street.

Section 2. That, the cost of construction of the proposed Water line will be apportioned against the property on either side of the street for the distance to be improved.

Section 3. That, the extension of this water line appears necessary to the Council because of the new dwelling units which have been constructed on the street since the last extension of the water line and in consideration of the rights of the citizens to enjoy the benefits of the city.

Section 4. That, an Ordinance will be proposed and read to the city legislative body and presented for adoption, which will embody the same general terms as set out in this resolution. The ordinance to be proposed, introduced and twice read before council and submitted to council for passage thirty days after the publication of this resolution.

Passed by a vote of four (4) members of the City Council of the City of Walton, Kentucky, this the 21st day of August, 1950.

R. M. HALL, Mayor,
City of Walton, Kentucky

IMPERIAL...is the word for it!

"Imperial," says Webster, means "superior excellence." IMPERIAL, says Chrysler, is this luxurious new car that excels anything on wheels in the sheer exquisiteness of its styling. Come look inside this reigning beauty... look at the lavish wool broadcloth fabrics, tastefully combined with topgrain leathers. Look at the lovely color harmonies, the soft sheen of the butter-finished chrome. Consider the advantages of Fluid Drive... exclusive new automatic transmission... Waterproof Ignition... Full Flow Oil Filter... High Compression Spitfire Engine... electric window lifts... the CLEARBAC rear window for exceptional driver vision... and dozens more. Surely, of all the world's fine automobiles, only the Chrysler CROWN IMPERIAL, this car's running mate, achieves the same aristocratic distinction. Come see the flawless workmanship, the fine materials, the superb Chrysler engineering... and you'll agree that no other car, at any price, compares with the Chrysler IMPERIAL. Inside or out, there is no finer car in America!

ONLY THE CHRYSLER IMPERIAL offers you the absolutely unique system of window control. Each window has its own separate electric motor... each one can be raised and lowered independently from the driver's seat or of the window itself. And that's not all! So many other de luxe features... the kind you think of as being in the "special order, extra cost" category... are STANDARD EQUIPMENT on the Chrysler Imperial. For example: armrests on all four doors... foam rubber seat cushions and seat backs... double-width center armrest in front as well as rear seats... stainless steel wheel covers... white sidewall low-pressure tires... carpeted luggage compartment full flow oil filter and many other engine features! Yes, you get all these extras as standard equipment with your beautiful new Chrysler Imperial.

KENTON

Our revival is still going on in the hearts of our people. We are all working together for the glory of our Lord. We had 77 at Sunday school and church, Sunday morning and 78 at our evening service. Our bus brings an average of 30 people to each service. It has brought as many as 44. We are thankful our church can keep the bus on the road and bring people in to "His House" to hear "His Word."

If our bus passes your home and you are not attending services, our driver will be glad to stop for you and bring you to our church where a cordial welcome awaits you.

Kenton Baptist Church is a friendly church and our people are trying to follow our Lord and to love one another as He tells us to do in His Holy Word.

Remember Sunday school each Sunday at 10 a. m., Walter Roden, Supt.; preaching services each Sunday at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m., Rev. Frank Lipscomb, pastor; prayer meeting each Friday at 8 p. m. Come, worship with us and bring someone with you.

Forty-six gathered at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Frank Lipscomb, Friday evening, the 18th, for prayer meeting. The evening was spent in song, Bible discussion and prayer. We meet with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Roden, Friday evening the 25th, so come and bring someone with you. Watch for the bus of Kenton Baptist Church.

Fifty from our church attended services at the Wilmington Baptist Church, Saturday evening, the 19th.

We had our baptism Sunday afternoon in the creek at Mr. and Mrs. George Klein's. Fourteen were baptized and quite a large crowd was present.

SHORT STORIES

Sane And Sensible

By Richard Hill Wilkins

GAIL WATCHED TOMMY BERKLEY and Rita Young disappear down the moon-flooded path to ward the beach. His arm was about her waist and Rita's red head was very close to Tommy's blond locks. "That's what you get," she thought bitterly, "for being sane and sensible all your life. For being virtuous and loyal." Loyal! The word provoked a laugh. Loyal to what? To Tommy Berkley? That was ridiculous. You couldn't be loyal to a man who didn't know what you were up to. Or at least it lost its effect.

Gail turned and started back toward the lodge. Two months ago she had come up here with her folks for the summer. The day after their arrival she had met Tommy Berkley. They had danced and Tommy had looked down at her and said: "You're not pretty or beautiful, you're glorious, which is really a weak word to express what I mean."

Gail had known then why all her life had been sane and sensible. It had been for Tommy.

At the point where the path skirted the tennis courts before coming to the lodge steps, Gail saw a figure and stopped, catching her breath.

"Hi there, Gail. I saw you walking down this way and followed." Even without the help of moonlight to catch out the features of the man Gail recognized the voice. It was Clark Davis. Davis was tall and good looking and dark. He was considered wild. He had a reputation. Mothers warned their daughters not to go out with him, though they didn't say why.

"Clark!" Gail called, "I'm frightened me at first!" "Sorry," He came close, "I guess I've been frightening you ever since you came up here. I wish I didn't."

A path of molten gold streamed across the lake. Tentatively, Clark Davis slipped an arm around her waist. And when she offered no objection he stopped and swung her to face him. "Gail!" he cried hoarsely. "Gail!" And he took her into his arms. She yielded, gave him her lips in a long kiss. When it was over she broke away, suddenly, unaccountably, regretful, guiltily, ashamed.

"Don't! Please! I-I think we'd better go back."

But Clark Davis didn't understand. He couldn't understand. He seized her wrist and jerked her up close to him. "Listen," he said tensely. "I love you! Don't you hear! I want you—have wanted you since the first day you arrived here. And you want me!"

"No. No, Clark! You don't understand. I was a fool to come here with you. Please let me go."

QUICK FOOTSTEPS sounded along the pebbles. A figure loomed out of the gloom. Davis felt a heavy hand on his shoulder. He swung around, saw Tommy Berkley. Angriily he swore and struck out. But Tommy sidestepped the blow and drove home a hard fist, catching Davis behind the ear, to the jaw.

Clark's feet went out from under him. He fell groaning.

Clark's feet went out from under him. He fell groaning. "You dirty dog!" Tommy said, coldly brutal. "You ought to be hung." Then he turned to Gail, where she had sunk to her knees. He helped her up.

They walked along the beach. Tommy's arm supported her. They stopped at the foot of the path. "The dirty dog," Tommy said. "Why can't a man like Davis accept the fact that there are some good girls left? Why does he have to think they're all alike?"

"Oh, Tommy!" She smiled, dabbing at her eyes. "It—it's all right now. I—I was foolish to have come here with him. If you hadn't come along—"

He grinned. "Lucky thing for both of us. Rita and I were sitting on the big rock beyond the point. When we heard you cry out we thought there was trouble and she went back to the lodge by the road. I came over to investigate. I'm glad I found you, because now you'll be the first to know of Rita's and my engagement."

JEST JESTIN'

Humane Act

A farmer, on his way to town in his wagon, overtook a peddler with a heavy pack on his back. The kind-hearted farmer pulled up his horse and offered the wayfarer a ride, which was gratefully accepted.

After a while the farmer noticed that the peddler kept his pack on his back. "Why don't you relieve yourself of that load, and put it in the back of the wagon?" he asked. "Well," said the peddler, "you have been so kind to me, and I noticed that your horse did not seem particularly strong, so I thought I would take some of the load myself."

INDEPENDENCE

Mrs. John Taylor Injured

Mrs. John Taylor of Hemphing Road was returning from Dayton, Ohio last Wednesday night and wrecked her car at the south edge of Independence. The car turned completely around and headed toward Covington when stopped. The side had been bent in and Mrs. Taylor thrown from the car. She seemed to have been in a dazed condition and complaining of injuries when occupants of nearby homes heard the crash and ran out to see what had happened. The Independence life squad was called and she was taken to the hospital. It was reported that she was in a rather serious condition.

Mike Johnson of Independence is slowly improving from a slight stroke.

Truman Believes in Revival

President Truman believes the world needs a revival of old fashioned religion. In a letter addressed to Dr. Edward Hughes Pruden, pastor of Washington's First Baptist Church, the President wrote, "many times during the past decade, the conviction has come upon me with increasing force that a revival of the spirit of old fashioned religion is what the world most needs."

Resolution No. 4

A resolution calling for the grading, draining and construction of four hundred and fifty feet of Plum Avenue, in the City of Walton, Kentucky, declaring the improvement to be a necessity and requesting that an Ordinance will be presented for adoption making the improvement.

WHEREAS, the surfaced portion of Plum Avenue lacks approximately four hundred and fifty (450) feet of providing all of the persons who dwell on Plum Avenue a means of ingress and egress during all seasons of the year; and

WHEREAS, a request has been made before the Council that the street be improved, and it appearing to the Council that the persons who live along Plum Avenue are entitled to a surfaced street.

NOW, THEREFORE, The City Council of The City of Walton Does Ordain as Follows:

Section 1. Following the necessary action by the City Council, a fourteen (14) foot area in the center of Plum Avenue will be graded and drained and a foundation of six inches of crushed stone, shouldered with earth will be constructed and packed down and coated with a bituminous or asphalt substance and limestone chips for a surface, for a distance of Four Hundred and Fifty (450) Feet from the end of the present blacktop surface of Plum Avenue.

Section 2. That the cost of construction of the proposed street improvement will be apportioned against the property on either side of said street for the distance to be improved.

Section 3. The surfacing of this street appears necessary to the City Council, there being no hard surface street available to the persons who live on Plum Avenue at all. It is desirable that all of the citizens of the City have the means of getting to and from their homes in their own conveyances and affording them the opportunity of such delivery services as the businesses of the City afford to its residents, and also for the purpose of providing a means of getting in and out in case of sickness.

Section 4. An ordinance will be presented and proposed to the City Council for adoption, and the ordinance will embody the same general terms, but be more in detail, as those set out in this resolution. The ordinance to be proposed, introduced and twice read before Council and submitted to Council for passage thirty (30) days after the publication of this resolution.

Passed by a vote of four (4) members of the Council of the City of Walton, Kentucky, this 21st day of August, 1950.

No Zero

"So that distinguished-looking gentleman in the tall hat is your leading citizen, eh? Has he received many degrees from colleges?"

"Has he? Why, he has received so many degrees we call him the 'Human Thermometer'."

Yeah, Let's

"You look sweet enough to eat," he whispered soft and low.

"I am," said she quite hungrily, "Where do you want to go?"

PRECAUTION

"I hold in my hand here a bright and shining silver dollar," announced the candidate, to a group of young Americans. "That dollar goes to the lad who is level-headed enough to belong to the same party as I do."

Then turning to a bright-eyed urchin at his left, he asked: "What's your politics, son?"

"What's yours?" piped the young opportunist.

MEOW!!!

"So your husband objects to cats?"

"Yes, indeed. He says that I feed all the cats in the neighborhood. Won't you stay and have tea?"

The Whole Truth

"I knew an artist once who painted a cowbo on the ceiling so realistically that the maid spent hours trying to get it down."

"Sorry, dear, I just don't believe it."

"Why not? Artists' have been known to do such things."

"Yes, but not maids!"

"I got a real kick out of kissing Jane, last night."

"Any more than usual?"

"Yes, the old man caught me."

Out of Range

He was so proud of his play as a golfer that he wanted to show off. So he invited his mother-in-law along to watch.

As he started off for the first tee, he said to his opponent:

"I'm particularly anxious to make a terrific drive. That's my wife's mother standing over there."

"Sorry, old man," said the other; "but you can't expect to hit her at 200 yards."

JUST TO BE SURE

"Does she have her own way?"

"Does she? Why, she writes her diary a week ahead of time."

The Modern Touch

The farmer's rosy-cheeked, bobbed-haired daughter came striding along the lane from the farmhouse. She was clad in grimy overalls; from the pockets bulged bunches of cottonwaste and sundry tools. One hand carried a bag of tools, the other a wrench.

"Where are you going, my pretty maid?" jokingly asked the squire's son, who met her.

"I'm going a-milking, sir," she said.

The squire's son looked surprised.

"But the tools—what are they for?" he asked.

"Trouble," sighed the girl, "with that new milking machine that father has just installed in the cowshed."

NEVER FAILS

"I never take my trouble home with me from the office."

"I don't have to either; mine's also usually there at home waiting for me."

That Settled It

The question of the correct plural of the word "mongoose" was solved by a gentleman who wanted a pair of these interesting and affectionate creatures.

He wrote to a dealer: "Sir, please send me two mongooses."

He did not like the look of this, tore up the paper, and began again: "Sir, please send me two mongooses."

This version did not satisfy him any better than the first, so he wrote: "Sir, please send me a mongoose, and, by the way, send me another."

Logical

The teacher was telling the class about the discovery of the law of gravity. She said:

"Sir Isaac Newton was sitting on the ground looking at a tree. An apple fell on his head and from that he discovered gravitation. Just think, wasn't that wonderful?"

"Yes'm, an' if he had been settin' in school lookin' at his books, he wouldn't have discovered nothin'," piped a small boy in the last row.

A Hot Chair

"I've got a pretty distasteful job before me," remarked the genealogist.

"Mrs. Newrich employed me to look up her family tree, and I've got to inform her that one of her relatives was electrocuted."

"Why worry about that," said his friend. "Just write that the man in question occupied the chair of applied electricity at one of our public institutions."

The tobacco yield in Estill county is expected to be from 25 to 30 percent below last year's average.

During continued rains of late spring and summer, Rockcastle county farmers noted the importance of planting corn and tobacco on the contour.

On 14 of the most profitable farms in Fulton county averaging more than 200 acres, less than 10 acres per 100 were in cultivated crops.

By means of a tile drainage system, Earl Osborne of Pike county reclaimed five acres of swamp land that had never been plowed.

What's wrong with this picture?

What's wrong? Plenty! For you won't find a single one of your tax dollars "working" for the Southern Railway System.

That's because railroads are self-supporting. They stand on their own financial feet—not yours. They pay the costs of building and maintaining their "highways"... including bridges, tunnels and signals... out of their own pockets—not with your tax dollars.

Unfortunately for you... and for the tax-paying railroads... that isn't true of other forms of commercial inter-city transportation.

Air, water and highway carriers use tremendously expensive transportation facilities paid for and maintained... not with their money... but with your tax dollars and ours!

It will be a great day for all taxpayers... and better for all forms of transportation... when the "grown-up" highway, air and waterway carriers are weaned from the public purse and required to "pay their way"—as only railroads now do.

Uncle Sam Says

How time flies. Just a few years back you were thrilled with the "ole swimmin' hole," ready to take a plunge into its cool, flowing waters. Maybe ten years from now you'll want to take another plunge such as buying a new home, a new car, a long vacation trip. These take money and where's it coming from. The smart people know the answer—U. S. Savings Bonds. Easy to buy, easy to save. You can start rolling now for the Payroll Savings Plan where you work, or if self-employed, the Bond-a-Month Plan at your bank. You then save automatically and in 1960 your Savings Bonds will produce $4 for every $3 invested today.

"Do you love me dear?"
"Dearly, sweetheart."
"Would you die for me?"
"No, my pet. Mine is an undying love."

Uncle Sam Says

It usually takes a substantial bundle of money to start your own business. So, if you're looking forward to the great day when your name will be up there on a store front or on a single, now is the time to think about the cash you'll need. There is one sure way to be ready for that time, to take the plunge if you want to, and that is by investing regularly in U. S. Savings Bonds. Then at the end of ten years you'll get back $4 for every $3 you invest today. An investment of $18.75 in Savings Bonds every week will bring you $16,828.74 by 1960. Enroll today for the Payroll Savings Plan where you work or the Bond-a-Month Plan at your bank.

Notice of Election

Public notice is hereby given that an election will be held in Walton-Verona Independent Graded School District on August 26, 1950, to determine whether the qualified voters of said District will approve the levying of a special school building fund tax separate from and in addition to the maximum regular school tax levy provided by law, and special tax to be at the rate of fifty cents on each one hundred dollars of property in said district subject to school taxation, said tax to continue for a period not to exceed thirty years, and the proceeds thereof to be used for the purchase or lease of school sites or buildings, for the erection and complete equipping of existing buildings, for the purpose of retiring, directly or through rental payments, school building revenue bonds issued for such school building improvements, and for the purpose of financing any program for the acquisition, improvement, or building of schools. If approved by the requisite majority of the voters at said election, the said special building fund tax at the specified rate will be so levied.

The question which will be submitted to the voters at said election will be as follows:

"Are you for or against the levy of a special school building tax rate of fifty cents on each one hundred dollars of property subject to local taxation within the Walton-Verona Independent Graded School District for a period not to exceed thirty years, the income from said tax to be used for the purchase or lease of school sites or buildings, for the erection and complete equipping of new school buildings, for the major alteration, enlargement and complete equipping of existing buildings, for the purpose of retiring, directly or through rental payments, school revenue bonds issued for such school building improvements, and/or for the purpose of financing any program for the acquisition, improvement or building of schools?"

Provision will be made upon the ballots for the voters of said School District to indicate that they are "for" or "against" the levying of said special school tax.

All qualified voters of said School District are hereby notified of said election and requested to vote upon said question. This notice is given pursuant to a Resolution adopted by the Fiscal Court of Boone County, Kentucky on the 8th day of August, 1950, and reference to said Resolution is hereby made for further details. Said Resolution is spread at large upon the records of the Fiscal Court and is subject to inspection.

Blessed Woman

Lesson for August 27, 1950

A PROTESTANT Christian is essentially a Bible Christian. Among other things, this means he will form his ideas about Bible characters from the Bible itself and not from books about the Bible, not from legends long afterwards invented. Some Protestants seem not to realize that even a reverent book like "The Greatest Story Ever Told" is as much fiction as it is fact. Yet if Protestants Christians are sometimes inclined to go to the opposite extreme. In reacting against the tall tales, they overlook the facts.

If some Christians overdo reverence for Mary, offering prayers and incense before her statues and even going to the point of saying we cannot meet Jesus except through Mary—then Jesus totally false to the Christian gospel—other Christians make a mistake of neglecting her memory altogether. Surely we ought not to forget or under-rate the woman who of all the women in the world was chosen of God to be the mother of our Lord Jesus Christ.

God Knew Her Heart
N AZARETH was a small village with no good reputation. Yet it was in this town that Mary grew to womanhood. Man looks on outward appearances, but God looks on the heart.

You might have not selected Mary for the mother of Jesus, or to put it in another way, you would hardly have expected Mary's child to be the person Jesus became. She was very young, for girls were engaged early in that climate and country—perhaps no more than sixteen. She could have had no great education. She was poor, as the whole story shows. Yet it was not for her education or her social standing or her experience or any such thing, but because of her heart, her character, herself, that the angel came to her that spring day in Nazareth.

Mary's Song
THERE IS no room to tell all that I can be known of Mary from the Gospels. We can know or guess much from that one song, the "Magnificat" as it is called from its first word in the Latin translation. (Luke 1:46-55.) We can tell from this that she was a woman who knew her Bible. Moffatt's translation of the New Testament uses italic type to indicate quotations from the Old Testament; and in this Song of Mary, of its sixteen lines all but two are printed in italics.

Words and phrases came to her in the familiar cadences of the book she knew and loved. Further, she was of a poetic turn of mind. This "Magnificat" has been set to music and sung in churches all over the world. Since Mary was herself a poet, it is not surprising to find that Jesus often spoke in words which sing with the beauty and rhythm of fine poetry.

Patriotism and the Poor
MARY WAS A woman who loved her country. We are so familiar with the "Magnificat" as a church anthem that we overlook it actually and originally was; a hymn of praise to God for his mercies to Mary's nation, Israel.

Her people, so long enslaved, were to be set free. It is a revolutionary hymn, too. Princes are to be dethroned, the proud cast down, the rich made empty; but God will give his help to the hungry and the poor.

Mary and Jesus
LOVE OF HER Bible, love of beauty, love of her country; and most of all, love of God. You could guess this from the words of the angel, but you can see it plainly in this song. It is an outpouring of joy and thankfulness to a God who is very real and near and loved.

Every mother lives again in her sons; in Jesus we can see the manner of woman Mary must have been. When the boy Jesus called God his Father, who had taught him that word? When the young man Jesus fought off temptation by using the Word of God, who had first guided him to do this? Where had Jesus learned Scripture except under his mother's roof?

The Future of a Duckling

How carefully Nature prepares her little ones for life!

Three little ducklings; all three have webbed feet that will propel them through the water, fuzzy down that will turn into the best waterproofing Nature can fashion, strong flat bills that will snap food from the water quicker than you can say "Donald Duck!"

Nature prepares her little ones for life—except in the case of man.

Consider that youngster who is fascinated by the ducklings. MAYBE he'll gain a clear understanding of right and wrong. MAYBE he'll find courage to meet life's many discouragements. MAYBE he'll discover the Faith that enables a man to build spiritual values into his life.

Those things a child needs most, Nature does not provide. Parents must provide them—by giving him the advantage of thorough religious training in the Church.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values, democracy, nor civilization survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should join the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to the Church regularly and read your Bible daily.

VOTE "FOR" THE NEW WALTON-VERONA SCHOOL

This is the week we vote FOR the New School Building. All you people like myself, who have no children to go to school, but like to live in or close to a good town (and you have to have a good school to have a good town), be sure and vote (FOR). It will not raise your taxes enough to hurt. If you NEED a new car, radio, stove, refrigerator or most anything else, you buy it; think so, go down and have a look at the old one. Our community is growing every year—in just Walton alone, in 1930, there were 623 people, and in 1950 there were 1,365—so you see how Walton has grown. Also, the community around Verona has certainly built-up. I want full support of all my good friends in the Verona precinct, as we all have to pull together. I helped you build your new church—so, let's all help build this new school. We can't build this school at Verona on account of the water supply, which Walton already has. So, if we all pull together, we will build the best school in the county.

Mrs. Nell Kelly was in buying dishes for the annual Labor Day Picnic of St. Patrick Church—they are going to have that good fried chicken again this year. Edna and Howard McCubbin went in Saturday night—Edna wants to move back to Walton as Howard has gone back to Lodge & Shipley's to work. James Messimer bought tobacco spears and tomahawks—he is getting ready to cut that barley. We have a big stock of spears and tomahawks, also just received welded mesh fence and sisal kraft paper to build these silos for your corn.

Friday was a rainy day and a lot of people came to town. Mr. and Mrs. Franz on Green Road were in after Boice outside white paint, and Mr. Franz knows good paint because I set him out another brand and he would not have it—he wanted Boice paint, just like he used last year. Mr. Ed Hopperton from up Crittenden way bought a square aluminum tub Maytag Washers and an Arvin radio. The Robinson brothers, Frank and John, were here today—Frank lives at Lawrenceburg, Ind., and John at Murray, Ky. Claude Adams was having water pump trouble, but I think we fixed him up.

Roy took a new electric motor over and put on Oakes Webster's washer—he also stopped to see about Mrs. Lindsay Broadner's washer, and checked Roy's Atha's heating stove for repairs. We also received a shipment of Mosberg's justable choice 20 gauge three-shot repeater shot guns and they only sell for $28.95—a very fine gun for squirrels and the season opened the 20th. We also have a fine selection of rifles from $12.50 up and single barrel 410 gauge for $19.95. James Smith bought one of those single barrel 410-ga. shotguns and a box of shells—the squirrels had better keep an eye on Jimmie. Stanley Fooks was looking over the fishing tackle—he certainly likes to fish.

Mrs. Ezra Gullion bought her little nephew one of those Hopalong Cassidy lunch kits with the thermos bottle in it. Livonia Elliott bought a 7 cu. ft. Gibson refrigerator—this is one of the finest refrigerators for the money on the market. C. A. Coyle bought his wife a new Perfection Table-Top kerosene range, Leslie Williams needed a water pump very badly—his old one was about done for—I took his a Dayton Water System, which is a very compact system and you can put it in the kitchen if you have no basement.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Daniels took a very nice trip to Washington, D. C., to see their daughter and son-in-law. Be very careful what you buy in all lectures—don't buy just an oil heater, but buy Perfection or Siegler, which are the best—we have tried most of them—you buy them and we install them. Mrs. Chas. Wolfe, down Richmond way, called for a new washer and sold her a Barton, which is a very good washer and not expensive. Here comes Virgie Sechrist making a lot of noise, as usual—Virgie tells me she won a diamond ring on WCPO radio program.

John Conrad came up and ordered some field fence—John is always improving. Sorry to hear of the death of John R. Feagan—he has been my friend and customer for several years. Chick and Brewster have turned out to be regular cold iron blacksmiths—Chick made Mrs. Frederica Mann some long rods to reinforce her garage—he also made Bill Scroggin a frame out of wood to hang his new sign on at Verona Road—Brewster has been fixing up our new truck with pipe racks and everything. We are very proud of our new truck, and Jas. O. Cleek put the signs on the side.

Hunkly and Maide Holder finally came up with a big, fine red-headed boy—Hunkly was passing out the cigars with his chest out two inches. We just received a small shipment of Maytag washers—if you need one of these, come in and buy it—we take no orders, first come, first served. Also received those guards for your Ford mower—they have been very scarce, but we have a good supply now.

Alicia Neumeister wanted some Dr. Hess poultry inhibitor for her chickens—I sold her a bottle and she called me later and said it had all evaporated, so I went down to the drug store and bought her a bottle. Bertha Lancaster was in a hurry for fruit jars and cups—Bertha goes in a hurry. John Hempel needed Roy to put up stove pipe and get his heating equipment ready—it won't be long now.

Tobacco spears and tomahawks sure are selling, but we have lots of them—just help yourself. Canning supplies are keeping us busy—we have nearly everything you need. We just received a shipment of Hopalong Cassidy lunch kits for the children, thermos bottle and all, for school. Lon Wilson just came in and bought more white paint and linseed oil—Lon sure likes that Boice paint. We are always ready to serve you and help in any way. Mrs. Schneider from Crittenden was down hunting wall registers and door hinges—said she had hunted everywhere for these registers, but Conrad has it if you need it. If we fail to have it, we will try very hard to get it. Come to CONRAD'S!

KENTUCKIANS IN WASHINGTON

by Gil Kingsbury

There's been a lot of talk here in the capital about the atom bomb. One of the Washington newspapers published a map showing the area that would be destroyed should a bomb be dropped on the Capitol Building.

Should that tragic thing happen and should it come in the middle of a session of congress, more than one hundred Kentuckians would be killed.

All Lawmakers:

First of all, it would wipe out the entire congressional and senatorial delegation from the Blue Grass. The office force of approximately 45 Kentuckians would fall victim. The vice president and his staff would also perish. So would about thirty Kentuckians, employed in the capital as door keepers, elevator operators, messengers, congressional pages and the like.

Nor would that be all. Three hundred yards from the capitol building is the Supreme Court. If the court happened to be in session at that time, more famous Kentuckians would die.

The entire situation points to the need for some action on the decentralization of government in the event of an atomic attack.

Labor Votes:

The C. I. O. the other day released its list of lawmakers and their voting record.

Two Kentucky congressmen, Brent Spence and Carl Perkins, were at the top, listed as voting right on every issue supported by the organization. Congressman John Whitaker was down as voting right on all but one measure.

The other Kentucky lawmakers fell somewhere in between. Not one Blue Grass congressman, however, was on the list of those who had voted wrong on every issue.

Prediction:

The election forecasters are getting busy again, undaunted by their failure of two years ago when President Truman surprised most everybody, including his close friends.

Today's latest prediction comes from a man named Louis Bean, an economist in the Department of Agriculture. Mr. Bean has a right to be heard, for he, alone of all the experts, predicted the Truman-Barkley victory in 1948.

It might be interesting, then, to find out what he has to say about the outlook in Kentucky. According to Bean's latest figures, the Democrats have 56.8% of the voting strength in the Blue Grass. That means, if Bean's rule is good, the Democrats will win in Kentucky in November.

Bean believes that if a party's vote falls below 55 per cent, then the coming election is a toss-up. Under that same rule, Ohio's Senator Taft is in danger, and so is Senator Lucas of Illinois, the Democratic senate leader.

The Mailbag:

What are Kentuckians writing and thinking about?

Now that school is on the verge of starting, some June graduates have been asking about jobs. One from Pendleton County, an engineer, wants to know what Uncle Sam has to offer.

The Civil Service Commission has a highway engineer's position open. You can get complete information by waiting the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D. C. One post calls for overseas duty. Top pay is $5400, and considerable experience is demanded.

GLENCOE

Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Pet Noel celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday, August 27 at their beautiful home near Williamstown. Those present to help Pet and Jennie celebrate the happy occasion, were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Noel and son, Allie Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Snow, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hudson, Vernon House and Luby Markberry, Paul A. Chapman and Yvonne Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Turner and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weldon, Mrs. Beech and Gertrude, Mr. and Mrs. John Presser, Mary Buttle, Bill Butler and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Noel, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Whaley, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Steward and children, Nana and Billie Joe, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Steward and daughter Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Noel, Mr. and Mrs. Less House and son Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Steward, Mr. and Mrs. Bill McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Joann McCormick, Joe Ann McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Allie T. Noel, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Minor, Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Noel, son Billie, Mr. and Mrs. Oida Epperson daughter and son, Mrs. Zelma Snow and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Noel, Mr. and Mrs. Rome Noel and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Willoughby, Mrs. Clara House, Agnes Wright, Fred Reed. At noon a bountiful lunch was served on the spacious lawn, after which Mr. and Mrs. Noel opened their wonderful presents. The afternoon was spent in singing. Pet and Jennie Noel have went hand in hand together all these years and are now going to the Golden Sunset. All left this Christian home wishing them many more happy years together.

J. D. Sutherland is very low at this time.

Mrs. Helen Roberson is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Jennie Taylor.

Mrs. Grace Duncan is improving nicely at Booth Hospital.

Mrs. Blanche Poland was home over the weekend.

The revival starts at the Glencoe Church of Christ the last week in this month. We hope you prepare to attend. Bro. Frank Buck will be the speaker.

KENTUCKY LAMBS PUT OVER FED WESTERNERS

Farmers attending the fall field days at the Agricultural Experiment Station at Lexington, were told how Kentucky spring lambs are superior to western fed lambs.

Fifty Kentucky spring lambs and 50 blackface western fed lambs were slaughtered and their carcasses weighed, graded and broken up into retail cuts. The percentages of fat, bone and lean meat were determined for each cut. The shape and quality of each cut were recorded.

The report given the farmers said "the Kentucky spring lambs were found to be superior in finish and conformation, quality and dressing percentage. The carcasses from Kentucky lambs had a total higher percentage of edible meat, a lower percentage of bone and a higher percentage of meat in the high-priced regions."

HALF-MILLION YOUTHS ENROLL IN 4-H CLUBS

Since the first 4-H club was organized in Kentucky in 1909, approximately 500,000 Kentucky rural boys and girls have received training in the 4-H program. In addition to subject-matter, trained 4-H members get experience in cooperation, sportsmanship, leadership and citizenship. Last year 66,060 rural boys and girls participated, from all counties in the state. These club members carried 91,646 projects.

The 10 projects with the largest enrollment were: Clothing, 24,022; foods, 7,603; canning, 6,719; dairy cattle, 3,171; gardens, 6,495; hogs, 5,142; tobacco, 4,916; poultry, 4,894; corn, 3,952; beef cattle, 2,539. The club members carried on their work in 2,065 community 4-H clubs, with the assistance of 8,025 local volunteer leaders and 1,126 junior leaders.

Henderson county homemakers are assisting the county health department in making a survey of health needs.

It is estimated that 5,000 acres in Logan county will be seeded to permanent pasture during the early fall season.

In many counties throughout the state, blight has destroyed or greatly reduced the tomato crop.

W. A. Caudill of Rowan county sold 45,000 pounds of milk in six months from a herd of 10 cows.

FLORENCE NEWS

Women's Society and W. S. G. Meet
The Woman's society of the Florence Methodist Church held its August meeting at the church. The session was opened with prayer by Mrs. C. A. McKibben, followed by the usual routine of reports and business, conducted by Mrs. Paul Chaney, president.

The Wesleyan Service Guild met at the same time in the church, and at the conclusion of their meeting, joined the Woman's society to hear highlights from the book, "Missions at the Grass Roots," given by Mrs. Harry Daugherty. The meeting was dismissed by Mrs. S. J. Bradley. Those attending the Woman's society, were: Mesdames, Ella and Helen Bethel, Ruby and Mary Carpenter, Ethel and Martha Daugherty, Eva and Ida Miller, Naomi Chaney, Mildred Munday, Kathryn Oliver, Nannie Mitchell and Lella Allen. Those attending the Guild, were: Mesdames, Betty Haun, Helen Miller, S. J. Bradley, Beulah Shouse, Eileen Warren, Leola Idol, Roy Adams, Elsie Slinger, Mary Carpenter and a guest, Mrs. Grakhen.

Mrs. Walter Scott and sister, Mrs. Paul Riley recently returned home after a month's vacation in Fargo, North Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carpenter and family of Tucson, Ariz., arrived at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Carpenter, Monday of last week. They will also visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Moss, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ruth of near Walton, were Wednesday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Carpenter.

Mrs. Allie Markesbery recently entertained Mrs. C. A. McKibben and Mrs. W. R. Miller. Mrs. Ida Hunt returned to her apartment in Ft. Mitchell following six months confinement in St. Elizabeth Hospital, due to a fractured hip bone.

Wm. Markesbery and family enjoyed a motor trip through the Smoky Mountains over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Schuler Howe of Jacksonville, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Kernahan of Hamilton, Ohio, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Tanner.

P. J. Allen and W. K. Souther spent a pleasant day Wednesday at the Pure Food show, an annual event held at the Zoo. The Zoo is also celebrating its Diamond Jubilee.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carpenter and family of Tucson, Ariz., were guests of honor at a family picnic luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Moss, Thursday.

An added attraction in our town is the horse race pitting count back of Cloro's service station. All who enjoy this kind of sport should come and join in.

Members of the John T. Stephenson family attended funeral services for Eldon Wolfe, 38, a nephew of Mrs. Stephenson, held Sunday at 2:30 p. m. from the Taliaferro funeral home, Erlanger. Mr. Wolfe succumbed Thursday at St. Elizabeth hospital, Covington. He was a son-in-law of Stanley Crouch, co-owner of the Erlanger Hardware Co. He had made his home in St. Petersburg, Fla., the past three years, and returned to Covington recently for a physical examination. Services were conducted by Rev. Dearing, assisted by other ministers, and burial was in Hopeful cemetery. He leaves his widow, Mrs. Maudie Crouch Wolfe, two sons, Walter and David Wolfe, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Wolfe, Erlanger. Sympathy is extended to the family.

Mesdames Frank Sayre, Zeffa Osborn, Eldridge Carpenter, Clifford Tanner and Master Gene Sayre visited Mrs. Jennie Dobbins at Jefferson town, Wednesday. They report Mrs. Dobbins well and looking fine.

Monday of last week, Miss Judy Cook attended a picnic with members of her Sunday school class of Calvary Baptist Church, Latonia, at the home of Mrs. Tom Crouch of Independence.

Watch for the date of the next pillow slip bingo to be given by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Florence Volunteer Fire Department. Your support in the past is greatly appreciated.

The Carroll Studio of Dance presented a dance program at the Veterans Hospital, Ft. Thomas, Thursday evening, sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Erlanger. Mr. Smith presented fifteen specialty acts to entertain the veterans. Local students included Miss Doris Southern and Tommy Brennen. Larry Aylor, local piano teacher, accompanied the presentation. Following the program, was a dance for the veterans and the V. F. W. Auxiliary served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. John Curtsinger of Lloyd Avenue, are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a baby daughter the past week. Their many friends extend best wishes. Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Lutes and daughter, Ann, and Miss Wanda Hue returned the past week from a vacation trip. They visited many interesting places in Michigan, Canada and other Northern points.

Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Gebhard and two daughters, Nancy and Melanie, were Sunday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Aylor and daughters of the Lucas apartment.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Weiss of Garard Street, are the proud parents of a baby son born at St. Elizabeth Hospital the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Lucas have moved to the property recently purchased from Lullie Ellis on Garard. Mrs. Alice Aylor left Sunday for Virginia, where she will be the guest of her son and family for several weeks.

Mrs. Sara Roland is convalescing at her home on the Dixie Highway following an operation at St. Mary Hospital, Cincinnati. Her sunny friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bethel and family of Garard Street are spending their vacation in Miami, Fla., and other Southern points.

Mrs. Charlotte Wilson, who is employed at the John R. Coppel Co. in Covington, is enjoying her summer vacation at her home on Zigzag Rd.

INDEPENDENCE R. 1

Mrs. J. A. Keeney and daughter, Mrs. John Klette, attended the Stephenson reunion at Bethel Grove Camp Grounds, Sunday.

We were glad to have a goodly number out to Sunday school at Staffordburg, Sunday. All try to come back next Sunday and bring your friends and neighbors.

The Ballinger, Maddox and Joe Richardson families attended a birthday reunion with Mr. and Mrs. Will Brannock of Keokuk, Sunday.

Mrs. Earl Hanna and Mrs. J. J. Barnett spent most of the past week at Richmond, Ky., attending the Methodist Conference, which was held there. On Saturday they were glad to welcome their pastor, Rev. John Wheary and wife, J. A. Keeney, J. J. Barnett and son Howard, for over the weekend. They all returned home Sunday evening, reporting a very good time. The Rev. Arnold of Ghent, Ky., will be the pastor for the Visalla Church this year, and Rev. Wheary will go to Ghent. We regret very much to lose our pastor and his good wife from the charge, but our loss will be their gain. But let us receive our new pastor and wife with a warm welcome and all pray we will have and enjoy a pleasant year and reap a good harvest for the saving of souls—for united we stand, divided we fall. There will be services at Staffordburg Sunday morning at 11 a. m. All come and welcome the new pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney entertained for dinner last Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mills of Verona, Mr. and Mrs. George Hamilton of Walton and Mrs. Daisy Richardson.

Miss Emma Yates returned home this past week from a couple weeks vacation in Michigan and several other points of interest.

2,564 YOUNGSTERS ATTEND 4-H CAMPS

A total of 2,564 Kentucky boys and girls and 265 leaders and county home and farm agents attended 4-H club camps for five-day periods from June 26 to Aug. 4. Activities included nature study, casting, crafts, competitive and folk games, and song contests.

At 13 white camps were registered 1,117 boys, 1,356 girls and 196 leaders. One Negro camp also was held with 42 boys, 49 girls and 10 agents in attendance.

Locations of the annual outings were: Camp Ernst, Boone county; Camp Bingham, Washington county; Morehead, Rowan county; J. M. Feltner Camp, Johnson county; Quicksand, Breathitt county; Green River Camp, McLean county; London, Laurel county; Murray State Teachers College, Calloway county; and Western State Teachers College, Warren county.

When a homemakers club was organized at Plano school in Warren county, it raised to 23 the number of clubs in the county.

Several hundred acres of corn in Fulton county were treated with anhydrous ammonia. In Daviess county, toxaphene has been widely and effectively used against bud and horn worms.

She Called the Salesman's Bluff

A Mrs. Souder of Pasadena answered the doorbell and a magazine salesman said, "Good morning, Madam, did you receive your free cook book, yet?" The lady answered in the negative, and the salesman offered her one. There's usually a catch to this sort of thing, the woman said. "Oh, no," the salesman answered her, "it's absolutely free." Whereupon Mrs. Souder kept the book and closed the door, without hearing the sales talk. The salesman vigorously rapped at the front and rear doors, but to no avail. Mrs. Souder called the police. The salesman told the police that the cook book is free only when one

Sorghum Sales Conference

The distribution of "Old Kentucky Home" sorghum, one of the state's better known products, was discussed at the Sorghum Sales Conference, August 23 at Hawesville. The meeting was sponsored by the Division of Markets of the Kentucky Department of Agriculture.

The meeting was attended by officers and members of the Kentucky Sorghum Growers Cooperative Association and representatives of wholesale and retail food dealers of the Kentucky, Indiana and Ohio area.

Blending and packaging problems of the merchandiser and farmer were also studied in the meeting with the result that each understands the others problems better than ever before.

7 Successful Dairy Shows

Once again the District Dairy Shows of Kentucky have enjoyed a successful year. There were approximately 1,205 head of dairy cattle shown in the seven shows sponsored by the Kentucky Department of Agriculture.

The Danish system of judging was used and the high percentage of blue ribbon animals, in comparison to the red and white ribbons, gives a good indication that Kentucky has made great advancements in improving the quality of animals.

Commissioner of Agriculture Harry F. Walters, will divide premium money totaling $6,500 among the FFA and 4-H Club members that participated. Mr. Walters wishes to thank all the boys and girls of both FFA and 4-H Clubs for their active interest shown and to the parents what are encouraging their children in their efforts.

C. S. Bell, George Harris, John Foster and Dr. D. M. Seath certainly are to be congratulated for their great work of judging these shows.

Grain Markets Weaker

Most cash grain prices made moderate declines during the week ended August 24, according to the Kentucky and U. S. Departments of Agriculture. Demand for most of the important grains became less urgent, influenced by favorable crop conditions and prospects of ample supplies. Wheat was down 2 to 5 cents per bushel at the principal central-western markets, with the largest decline in spring wheat. Corn and grain sorghums were slightly lower, while oats and barley were unchanged to slightly higher. Flaxseed offerings were more than ample for a poor demand and prices dropped 10 to 15 cents per bushel. Soybeans were independently firm and advanced 18 to 20 cents per bushel compared with a week ago.

SHORT STORY

No Sale

By Richard Hill Wilkinson

"WE could sell Dusty," Sylvia said. Joe dusted at her. "You don't mean that!"

Dusty thumped his tail on the floor and pricked his ears. There was, he hoped, a possibility of being taken for a walk up the slope behind the house where rabbits frequently ran and offered no end of excitement.

Sylvia laughed nervously. "Of course I don't. I was only joking. We wouldn't sell Dusty for a million dollars." She reached down and twisted one of Dusty's floppy ears around her forefinger.

Dusty lolled his tongue and sighed in contentment. Next to chasing rabbits, there was nothing he liked better than having his ears twisted, unless it was hunting a glove or an old shoe or pocketbook that either Joe or Sylvia had hidden.

Joe lay awake that night and thought about what Sylvia had said. He felt guilty and ashamed, but when you haven't enough to eat and you own some property that would bring an easy thousand dollars on the open market, you can't help thinking about it.

Sylvia's aunt had given them Dusty the week before they left for Hollywood. He was seven weeks old, a pure bred Springer Spaniel, black as coal and intelligent as two ordinary human beings.

The next morning Joe decided to go down onto the boulevard. Sometimes on the boulevard he met someone he knew and would get talking and perhaps get a line on something. He put Dusty on his leash and started out.

Joe turned down Vine street. Just below Selma, some children were playing on a lawn. One of them was crying. Joe stopped to see what the trouble was. A little girl had lost her rag doll. It was somewhere about, but she couldn't find it. Dusty licked the little girl's hand. She cooed happily and patted his head. The other children crowded about. Joe unsnapped Dusty's leash, held the little girl's skirt to his nose and said: "Go find!"

Dusty let out a yip and went bounding away. Two minutes later he came back, holding in his mouth the rag doll. The little girl clapped her hands. "Smart dog," said a voice.

Joe turned. A car had stopped at the curb. A small round man with a friendly face had emerged onto the sidewalk. Joe nodded. "Pure bred Springer. They're all an act."

"Are they?" said the little man. His eyes twinkled. "Like to sell him?" Joe said nothing. He felt a queer prickling at the base of his skull. "Like to sell him?" said the man again.

"How much?" said Joe, not looking at him. "Nine hundred."

JOE thought of Sylvia. She was probably hungry. She'd be hungrier tonight. The only alternative was city relief. A man has his pride.

He remembered the hug Sylvia had given Dusty before they left. He thought of the way Dusty would nip at their toes when they were getting dressed in the morning.

"How much?" said Joe, not looking at him. "Nine hundred."

He remembered the hug Sylvia had given Dusty before they left. He thought of the way Dusty would nip at their toes when they were getting dressed in the morning.

He shook his head. "No!" he said. "No! Not for twice that amount."

The round man laughed. "Then how about hiring him? You, too, of course. We're making a picture that requires a cute dog who will go find things that have been hidden."

Joe threw up his head. "What?" "Think it over," said the round man. "Pay would be $25 a day. Here's my card." He smiled. "Hope I didn't insult you with that nine hundred offer. Your dog's worth two thousand, if a cent. Never saw a pure black Springer with those lines. Be sure to look me up. If $25 doesn't suit you, we can probably talk terms."

Joe stood on the curb and watched the black limousine redden. He glanced at the card, then down at Dusty. Dusty was watching him expectantly. He wanted to walk some more. Joe slipped the card into his pocket and started up Vine street at a pace that rather surprised Dusty.

Lesson for September 3, 1950

"I KNEW him when—" can be a deadly weapon. It has knocked down many a good man. Some one is being considered for a job, and he is just about to be accepted, when somebody sounds off with "I knew him when—" "I knew him when" he was a boy and he was a neighborhood nuisance. I knew him when he used to live here, and his family were no-account. I knew him when he was in school and he never had high grades. I knew him before he amounted to anything, so he can't amount to anything now.

Dr. Foreman

A Case Against Peter
T IS A GOOD thing the Christian church never took that attitude about the Apostles, and a very good thing they didn't take that line with Peter. It is true that he did not come out of the top drawer. It is quite true that when he was young he was no prize specimen. In fact, it would not be hard to make almost as strong a case against him as against Judas, if you take Simon Peter at his low point. "Shall we keep Peter on our list?" Suppose you had been one of the other apostles and had been asked that question the night after the crucifixion. If you did not had a rather generous heart, you could easily have turned in an unfavorable report.

"Well," you might have said, "he has some good points. He is sometimes on the alert, never falls for something to say. But he doesn't always come through in a pinch. I understand the Lord took him up to the top of the mountain when he was transfigured, and what did that man do but go to sleep? Any of us would have given our right eye to have been there. But we never did get much of a story out of poor old Simon Peter. He was asleep most of the time."

"And do you remember that dinner when Mary poured all that ointment over Jesus' head? It was a beautiful thing for her to do. I mean her motive was beautiful. But Peter complained about it. "Then there was the night—only last night, but it seems a year away—when Jesus took Simon Peter and those two others into the garden with him. All the Master wanted was company. But old Peter was asleep again in no time. "But that's not the worst. Last night at the supper table Peter bragged about how brave he was—got out a couple of swords in fact—and he swore that even if every one else denied the Master, he wouldn't. But just before cock-crow he showed himself up for a liar and a coward. Some girls, just a girl, mind you, somebody out of the kitchen, said she knew he was a friend of Jesus. And this Peter starts swearing in the ugliest kind of language that he never knew Jesus, his very best friend.

"Well, Judas hanged himself, and Peter might as well. I don't see how he can possibly hold his head up again after last night."

Man of Power

NEVERTHELESS, Peter became a hero, a man of power. Look at his story in Acts 2-5. A recognized leader of the Christians, defying the very men of whom he had once been so afraid; honest, rock-ribbed, standing up to the Master when it meant risking his life to do so.

Even if you could not believe the miracle-stories which are told about him in Acts, you would have to admit that it is not every man who has miracle-stories told about him.

It is no weakling who has the reputation of being able to raise men from the dead and to kill liars with a glance of the eye.

Transforming Secret

WHAT WAS the secret of Peter's transformation from the half-braggart, half-coward he used to be, to the stalwart fearless man of power he became? The answer is in those stories in our Scripture readings from Matthew and John.

The first tells of Jesus' faith in Simon Peter. The second tells of that again, and also of Peter's response to Jesus' faith in him. It is the secret of any Christian's success in being all that God knows he can be.

SAFETY

Industry spares no pains or expense when it comes to protecting the bodies of factory workers.

Spark-proof helmets, sturdy shoes, non-slip floors, easy exits—the list of precautionary devices is long. They call it "Safety Engineering."

Is it too much to say that the Church too is engaged in a type of safety engineering? Through the religious faith on which it is founded the Church knows that the souls of people need protection even more than do their eyes and limbs.

The Church believes that human hearts yearn for a comforting arm just as human frames require safe-guarding. It believes that physical safety is not enough; that to bring peace of mind is a more important mission than to insure absence of bodily risk.

As long as lives are saved from the blight of godlessness, the institution contributing to such saving is entitled to all the encouragement and support you can give it.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his family's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

THANKS A LOT!

I want to thank each and everyone who helped win the election of the school bond issue. That was our first step in getting a new school. When we have good friends and neighbors and we pull together we can get most anything we want. That is the reason I have always liked Walton and vicinity to live in. If we need a new church or school, we get it or most anything else, for our town or community.

This was electric range week—Earl Jenkins came in and bought his wife a Gibson electric range—he traded in his old Kelvinator range, which is in good condition. Edna and Clarence Combs also traded me their New Perfection kerosene range for a New Perfection electric range—this stove has all the gadgets and is fully automatic. Louis Ewbank and his father, Ryle, were in Saturday—Louis bought buckets and tubs to water and feed his sheep that he shows at the fair—he is getting ready for the Ky. State Fair and he always brings back the cash and the ribbons with those Southdown sheep.

Nolan Flynn and wife were in—she bought more of that Weaver aluminum pots and pans. When I have Weaver, I can't sell other brands. Gilbert and Grace Brewster have their new house all ready—we sold them linoleum, window shades and curtain rods. Take Stahl and family were on Saturday night—Mrs. Stahl bought two gallons of Bolce aluminum paint and Jake purchased PTZ sheep capsules for his sheep. When you use Dr. Hess PTZ capsules, you never have to worry about worms in your sheep.

Catherine Simpson bought one of those 12x15 Armstrong linoleum rugs. Mrs. Zora West, who bought Sam Vest's house, also bought two of the 12x15 Armstrong rugs. When you buy Armstrong, you buy the best. Louis Schwab is still fixing up, buying linoleum and paint. We have a nice stock of canning supplies—pressure canners, cold pack canners, jar funnels, fruit jars, jar washers, tin cans, sealing wax, jar lids, stone jars, knot cutters, rotary ricers and lots of other items for canning. John Hartman bought Eloise a large size cold pack canner—John is getting ready to eat this winter.

Ila McCormick came after more of that Bolce Interior Gloss paint—she sure likes Bolce paint. Alice Lushy and the twins were in after Vigor for the shrubbery and paint for the house. Mrs. John Hanks was buying lamp supplies—I have to remember what model lamp and what repairs fit it but we are here for that purpose. Miss Jean Chambers needed enough linoleum for a table top and picked up the fly swat she bought a month ago and forgot. Mrs. Nolan Flynn needed a new cord on her G. E. electric iron.

Alberta Hopperton's oldest daughter, Linda, is having her sixth birthday and she had me bring down a new bicycle—a very fine Lincoln press-ent, don't you think? Mr. and Mrs. Webster, who just moved into their new home on High School Court, were in today—a very fine couple. Several were in today buying Fungi-Son, the anti-houseburn compound—all you have to do is burn it under each bent three nights and your tobacco is free from houseburn—1 pound per acre and it costs only $1.00 per pound. Omar Kite was in nearly before I got up—he was buying stoves to heat up his tobacco to keep from houseburn—also bought more of that Bolce paint.

Paul Gross from over Union way, who operates the Melrose Farm, also bought Bolce red paint to paint his gates. Louis Schwab is buying more linoleum—he has a really nice restaurant now. Harley Tippet bought his boy a bicycle and inquired about more wiring material—he sold the house he just finished and is starting another one. Jack and Foy Stephenson came in after their washer and bought Dick Hull a mowing scythe. Here comes Virgie Sechrest a hollerin' and a bellerin' after her cash—she is always late, but we put up with it—guess what she wanted—an extra large size combinet—and we have plenty of them, all colors and sizes.

Mrs. Ora Stone bought a metal iron board—they are very nice and last for years. Eva Waters was canning tomatoes and run out of jars—she called and we rushed her out two dozen quarts in a hurry. Earl Jenkins called and said his new Gibson electric range had quit—I sent Leon Hall over, but just a fuse was blown. Pascal Bush was in buying bolts, washers and inquiring where he could buy a buck sheep—we are the bureau of information—if we don't have it, we can tell you where to get it.

We have one power lawn mower left—they will be higher next season. Tobacco spears and tomahawks are in big demand and we have plenty of them. Oil heaters and coal heaters are selling—if you need a new heater, come in and see the finest heaters made—Perfection and Siegler oil heaters and Anchor coal heaters. Don't you need a new Sunbeam iron, mixer, toaster, coffee maker or shaver? Look in our window—the Sunbeam man was here. How about a Hoover sweater for $19.95?

Mrs. Robert Benton was in buying enamelware and kitchen utensils. Harry Trapp bought an electric sickle-grinder already mounted with motor—all you have to do is plug it in. Ray just repaired two electric irons for Aileen Kent and Edith Stephenson. Mrs. Clifford Farwell of Alta Vista just bought a White Mountain ice cream freezer. Ora Berkshire called for a cold pack canner and for a little repair on her washer. If you have any troubles, repair jobs or need hardware—CALL CONRAD!

Labor Day Traffic On U. S. 25 Record High

Check On Dixie Near Corbin, Ky.

Robert A. Blair, Director of the U. S. 25 Dixie Highway Association, said today that Labor Day highway travel in Kentucky was the heaviest in the history of U. S. 25.

Mr. Blair said that the Executive Committee of the Association, along with his own opinion, felt that the tremendous travel on U. S. 25 Dixie Highway was largely due to the advertising that the State of Kentucky is doing, and especially, according to Blair, "the follow-up advertising program of this Association in inviting the tourist and vacationist to visit the Bluegrass area, then South-eastern Kentucky's 'Valley of Parks' and the Great Smoky Mountains."

After a check on all vehicles traveling U. S. 25 over a given period of time during this Labor Day travel, it is estimated that the peak load for a twelve hour period with south-bound traffic, on the section of highway just north of Corbin, was 10,526 vehicles, or 22% greater than the average traffic flow over the same section of this highway for the year's average of 1949.

The nearest travel count, according to Blair, was on July 4 of this year when the count was 8,772 vehicles in a like twelve hour period. The average count for all of the year of 1949, said Mr. Blair, was 3,200, also over the same section of highway.

It was also pointed out that there were fewer traffic incidents during the current heavy travel than at any such time in the past, and which indicated, according to the Association's headquarters, that the average person was more "travel conscious" and at the same time taking a little more time "to see or wonderful scenery and enjoy a spot of our hospitality."

Ward and Hayes Attend Conference Of Education Leaders

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week, J. O. Ward, Supt., and Charles Hayes, Principal, of the Walton-Verona High School, were in Richmond, Ky., attending a work conference, where some 237 educational leaders from all parts of the state gathered to open the first conference of its kind ever to be held in Kentucky.

The conference speakers included Miss Eliza Cline, elected president of the K. E. A.; Dr. W. F. O'Donnell, President of Eastern Kentucky State College; Dr. Karl Berns, Assistant Secretary of Business of the National Education Association; John W. Brooker, Executive Secretary of K. E. A.; State School Superintendent Boswell Hodgkins; J. M. Dodson, newly appointed Director of Public Relations of K. E. A.; Dr. Frank Bass, Executive Secretary of Tennessee Educational Assn.; Dr. Maurice Sement, Regional Director, National Citizens Commission for Public Schools; Dr. Leonard Meese, Secretary, Kentucky School Boards Assn., and Mrs. Ivelia Mills, Secretary of Georgia Educational Assn.

In addition to the speakers, there were conducted three work conferences in which the entire group participated. These groups discussed some of the problems concerning the schools of Kentucky. Three major problems considered were:

1. How should our 1952 legislative program be developed? 2. How may the structure and services of our professional organization be improved? 3. How may an effective school public relations program be developed?

The above problems are of major concern to the students, parents and teachers of our schools today. Unless they can be solved satisfactorily with the combined effort of all, our schools cannot progress.

Dr. J. M. Dodson pointed out in his speech that "If Kentucky is to take her rightful place in education, the people of Kentucky must become interested in education."

Training Schools Held For Kenton County Homemakers

One hundred and twenty-one officers and chairmen of the Kenton County Homemakers' Association attended the training schools conducted by Miss Zelma E. Byerly, home demonstration agent, August 24-31 at the Federal Building and the Covington Y. M. C. A.

Officers were instructed in the fundamentals of parliamentary law and their duties as leaders. County Federation chairman, Mrs. Jesse C. Grant, presented recommendations for membership as made by the Northern Kentucky District at Cincinnati. Mrs. Lloyd Watson instructed, publicity chairman as to their program, and Mrs. R. H. Hensley outlined the county reading program. Goals were set up by each group.

Twenty-three homemakers clubs will resume work in September. The program for the year includes work in Home Management, Clothing, Home Furnishings, and Recreation. Miss Byerly stated that twenty Kentucky women will attend the Triennial Conference of the Associated Country Women of the World in Copenhagen, Denmark, held from September 9-15. The International meeting will be attended by delegates from 25 states and 20 foreign countries.

Heading the U. S. Delegation will be Mrs. W. E. Nichols, Lexington, vice chairman of the Country Women's Council, U. S. A. She will be guest speaker at the annual meeting of the Kenton County Homemakers' Association to be held November 2.

CARL NEUMEISTER

Funeral services for Carl Neumeister were held from the Walton Baptist Church, Sunday afternoon at 2:00, with the Rev. Burton Garrett, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Highland Cemetery, Tuesday at 10 a. m.

Mr. Neumeister died at his home on the Dixie Highway, 2 miles South of Walton, early Friday following a short illness. He was a life-long resident of Kenton County. He was a farmer, and for many years was active in politics in Kenton County.

He is survived by his wife, Clara Rich Neumeister; two sons, Charles Neumeister of Newport, and Joseph Neumeister of Walton; two daughters, Mrs. Dan Roberts, Walton, and Mrs. William Duchemin of Portsmouth, Ohio; one brother, Ed Neumeister of Walton; a sister, Miss Alicia Neumeister of Walton, and six grandchildren.

The Chambers & Grubbs Funeral Home, Walton, had charge of arrangements.

CIRCLE 2 W.S.C.S. MEETS

The regular meeting of Methodist Circle, No. 2, of the W. S. C. S. was held in the home of Mrs. Howard Stephenson on September 5. The lesson was followed by the business session.

A delicious dessert course was served to: Mrs. Florence Newton, Mrs. Helen Welsh, Miss Emma Jane Miller, Mrs. Llewellyn Wallace, Mrs. Downing, Mrs. Anna L. Penn, Mrs. Lillian Gilchrist, Mrs. Drake, Mrs. Fay Comer, Mrs. Myrtle Carlisle, Mrs. Goldie Rice, Mrs. Bertha Lancaster, and Mrs. Beverly Snape.

CRESCENT UTOPIANS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Klumpstrup were host and hostess to members of the Crescent Springs Utopia Club, when they met recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert List, Dudley Pike, Kenton County.

Reports were given by members who attended the State Utopia Camp at Camp Daniel Boone, Aug. 12-15, and the 4-H fair held at Simon Kenton High School, August 16.

Plans were made for a hay ride September 6 for members and friends. A very interesting program on "Green Pastures" for dairy and beef cattle was given by Joe Claxton, Senior Assistant County Agent.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Maegly, Mr. and Mrs. John Tewes, Jr., and son, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Klumpstrup, Misses Dorothy Krumpelman, Esther List, Cency Krumpelman, Armilla Krumpelman, Ruth Kahmann, Theresia List, Dan Krumpelman, Joseph Kahmann, Albert J. List and Wilfred List.

Those present were Mrs. Flynn, Mrs. W. M. Jones, Mrs. Alice Della and Agnes Sleet, Mrs. James Riddell, Mattie Howlett, Mrs. Mathilda Ingram, Miss Anna P. Ross, Miss Martha Johnson, Mrs. Virgie Sechrist and Sonny—Pub. Chm.

Due to wet weather, there was an increase of 50 percent use of 2.4-D in controlling weeds in corn in Montgomery county this year.

Elbert Lee Fortney of Muhlenberg county successfully used a flock of geese to control crabs in his strawberry field.

In Whitley county yielded less than half a crop due to the wet season.

Social Security Law Amended

Here is what happened to old-age and survivors insurance in the Covington area when President Truman signed the 1950 amendments to the Social Security Act:

All monthly insurance checks now being paid to the 4,999 social security beneficiaries in the eight counties administered by the Covington Field Office will be raised substantially, beginning with the September checks, according to Elbert Bohon, manager of the local office. Mr. Bohon explained that these automatic increases, for September, are scheduled to reach local beneficiaries during the first week of October. Increases will range from about 50% to about 100%. For example, the average primary benefit of approximately $26 per month for a retired worker will be increased to about $46. A widow with two children who had been receiving $35 a month will now receive about $110 altogether.

Under the new law the amount of earnings which a beneficiary may make in a month, and still accept his insurance payment for that month, is raised from $14.99 to $50. This applied to beneficiaries under age 75, and for earnings in a job covered by social security. After attaining age 75, a beneficiary may have any amount of earnings and still accept his insurance checks.

A very important aspect of the new legislation is the more liberal qualifying conditions. Mr. Bohon pointed out that any individual now age 65 or more who has at least six "quarters of insurance" may be immediately eligible for monthly benefit payments. It has been estimated that about 750,000 old people in the United States may qualify for insurance payments under this new law. Many aged persons may now claim benefits even though they have not been employed long enough to qualify under the former requirements. Mr. Bohon said that this would affect a considerable number of aged persons in this area who had on filed claims for social security benefits, but had not at that time been able to qualify. The social security office has been reviewing records for several weeks to screen as many as possible of these persons and will send letters notifying them that benefits may now be payable if the claim is renewed.

Other persons not yet age 65—those now 63 and over—will also be able to claim benefits. A sliding scale will need six quarters of coverage—roughly a year and a half of employment in work covered by social security—to be insured upon reaching age 65 and retiring. A sliding scale requires longer employment for those reaching age 65 after 1953, but in no case will a person be required to work more than ten years of employment under social security in order for benefits to be payable.

It is possible for newly-covered workers to become insured for survivors benefits in as little time as a year and a half under another provision of the law.

The benefits will continue to be paid for in the same way—by payroll taxes on the workers and employers involved—but since self-employed persons are now covered, a new way of collecting part of the taxes was called for. Self-employed persons will report their annual earnings and pay their special social security tax (2% to start with) when they make their income tax returns at the end of each year.

Present tax rates will more than pay for the increased benefits at first, but higher contributions will be necessary as more people retire, or die. The law provides that employer and employee will pay 14% of pay rolls through 1953, 2% until the end of 1959, 2 1/2% until the end of 1964, 3% until the end of 1969, and 3 1/2% thereafter. Only the first $3,600 of wages in a year will be taxed. This represents an increase from the $3,000 wage base which has been in effect since 1937.

Self-employed people, who are in effect both employee and employer, will pay 2 1/2% through 1953, 3% until the end of 1959, 3 1/2% until the end of 1964, 4 1/4% until the end of 1969, and 4 1/2% thereafter, on the first $3,600 of net self-employment income per year.

The new law gives wage credits of $160 per month toward old-age ters on an aluminum background, R. A. Thompson, Director of Local Relations Division, Department of Revenue, announced in Frankfort.

The slogan was approved after consultation with other departments, groups and individuals active in promoting Kentucky. The color scheme was selected by the Department of Revenue and approved by the Kentucky State Police Dept.

The plates are being manufactured at the State Reformatory at La Grange. They will be made of steel this year with one plate for each vehicle.

The plates will go on sale in December in each County Clerk's office throughout the state.

ATTEND CHURCH

Rev. Carroll F. Gravely, pastor of the First Christian Church, Walton, invites you to attend church next Sunday, Sept. 10. If you are not a member elsewhere, come and worship at the First Christian Church.

Subject Sunday morning, 11:00 a. m., "The Race Before Us." Sunday evening at 8:00, "The Master's Plan." Youth Fellowship meeting at 7:00 p. m. A most cordial invitation is extended to all to attend all services.

Our revival will begin on the following Sunday, September 17. May we all pray for a heart like Jesus, which leads us to give ourselves for others, withholding nothing from God, leaving nothing undone daily. I will help come soon to better serve God, realizing I can only serve God by serving others. Pub. Chm.

A. H. Sigler of Livingston county harvested 3,000 pounds of Lening seed from 26 acres, and then estimated he lost as much as he had saved.

Twenty-four Calloway county farmers ordered 50 gallons of ladybugs from California for the control of tobacco lice.

KENTUCKIANS IN WASHINGTON

by Gil Kingsbury

Within a few weeks from now, Kentuckians will be looking over the list of candidates, getting ready to elect a new congress. Most of the activity will be in the northern part of the state, from Louisville up the river to Ashland and then down the Big Sandy into the mountains.

The other candidates are home free. Congressman Noble Gregory and Congressman John Whitaker have no opposition. Neither has Frank Chelf in the Fourth District. Tom Underwood of Lexington is as good as elected. So is Jim Golden who comes from the Republican stronghold, the Ninth District.

Let's look at the other candidates in some detail, the ones here in Washington who have opposition.

Brent Spence:

Congressman Spence is the dean of the Kentucky delegation and the best known Kentuckian in the lower House.

As chairman of the House Banking Committee, he is an all powerful lawmaker who has handled such important legislation as public housing laws, price and wage controls, bank deposit insurance and other matters affecting the lives of all Americans.

In spite of his influence in Washington and his prestige at the White House, Congressman Spence has faced opposition in each of his 11 congressional races. But each time he has come through. His home is in Ft. Thomas.

Joe Bates:

Congressman Bates has been in Washington since 1938, when he succeeded Chief Justice Vinson. Today he is a member of the House Appropriations Committee, an important group that has to do with spending government money. During the past year he has handled financial affairs for the entire city of Washington in his capacity as chairman of the District of Columbia Appropriations Committee.

The Greenup, Kentucky, Democrat is a modest man. His biography in the Congressional Directory contains only two lines. Congressman Bates is an educator. And he is also an attorney, a fact little known.

Carl Perkins:

From Hindman in the mountains of eastern Kentucky comes Congressman Carl Perkins, a freshman in the House.

He gained a lot of attention in Washington for his fight to obtain federal aid for Kentucky schools. He also battled hard for the canalization of the Big Sandy.

The youthful mountaineer probably has one of the best war records on capital hill. When Allied troops invaded France, Sergeant Perkins was there and battled his way across the Rhine and into Central Europe. The highlight of his military career came during the battle of the Bulge.

The sturdy attorney from Knott county went through that wintry hell, Thurston Morton.

Congressman Morton is the "city" man in the Kentucky congressional delegation. He is a Louisville Republican and a war veteran with 51 months service in the Navy.

In spite of his youthful appearance the Falls City lawmaker has been active for many years in Louisville civic affairs. He is a graduate of Yale, the Class of 1929, and a member of a prominent Jefferson County family.

BIG RESULTS FROM PASTURE MIXTURES

Pastures on the farm of Bill Mansfield in Warren county caused favorable comment among farmers visiting it in late July. Best of all, said County Agent E. R. Russell, was a five-acre pasture which had been fertilized according to soil tests, then seeded to orchard grass, Ladino clover, red clover, sweet clover and alfalfa. On it were grazing 100 hogs, four head of workstock and six dairy cows. Although they had been feeding there since mid-April, the grass and clover had a good growth.

Tobacco growers in Meade county who used bluestone lime have been more than repaid in freedom from angular leaf spot and wildfire, said County Agent R. P. Granacher.

INDEPENDENCE

Edward M. Miller

Edward M. Miller, former police judge of old Central Covington and a retired foreman of blacksmiths for the Louisville & Nashville rail road and a former resident of Independence, died August 27 at his home at 1813 Madison Ave., Covington at the age of 87 years.

The Kenton County Coroner, Mrs. Tressa Riffe, said death was caused by a heart attack.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. James E. Ayers of Covington and Mrs. Robert W. Hall of Louisville; three grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the Swindler funeral home, Covington, and burial was in the Independence Cemetery, Tuesday, Aug. 29.

Real Estate Transfers

Charles W. Beatty and Lee Adams purchased one-half acre on Walton, Nicholson Road from Claude and Fernelia Adams.

Walter and Della Ripberger sold two acres on Riggs Road to William and Carmella Lindsey.

John A. and Sally Chambers sold lots 2 and 3 in Clara S. Tully subdivision to Madison and Florence Tucker.

Community Public Service sold to Union Light, Heat and Power Co.

all holdings in Kenton county. Dehnar and Fairy Cooper sold lot 19, Fairdale subdivision, to John and Sarah Anderson.

Pleasure Isle Realty Co. sold lot 5, section 1, Pleasure Isle subdivision, to Falls and Mildred Mayeux.

William C. and Arlene Parsons sold lots 17 and 18, Keeney subdivision to Walter A. and Lillie Wolf.

John H. Kohlstaal bought 2 acres on Dixon Road from Murtle Wilson.

Jessie P. Hand sold lots 54 to 63, inclusive, block E, Forest Hills subdivision to Gilbert H. and Mary H. Wernmeling.

Deputy Clerk Busy

Business in the office of the Deputy Clerk at Independence is showing a substantial increase year after year. Business of last month was $586.80 as compared with the business of $379.75 for August, 1949.

Last month the office at Independence issued 77 hunting licenses; 10 fishing licenses, and five marriage licenses.

Robert X. West, Postmaster, and family have returned from a short vacation trip.

Will Probated

The Will of Edward N. Miller was probated last week. The property was bequeathed to his daughters, Myrtle May Hall and Emmaline G. Ayres.

Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Doud left last Saturday for a vacation trip to Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gadd recently took a vacation trip to visit a cousin Casville Gadd in Berea, Ky.

Ben Gadd and family of Hamilton, Ohio, were Labor Day guests in the home of E. N. Gadd and family.

Clyde Tippett, brother of Mrs. Gadd, was also a Labor Day visitor there.

Cressman Tippen and family, formerly of London, now of St. Louis, Mo., visited relatives here last week.

J. D. Baldwin and family of Pelly Pike.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Glass left last week for a little vacation—a sort of delayed honeymoon trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Beach and family last weekend visited Mr. and Mrs. Don Polly at Winton Place, in Cincinnati.

The Independence Life Squad took William Hughes, custodian of the Independence grade school, to the hospital. He was suffering from a stomach disorder.

Homecoming and basket dinner is set for Sunday, Sept. 24 at the Baptist Church of Independence. All regular and special offerings for the day will go into the parsonage fund.

Sunday Night Topic: On Sunday night, Sept. 10, the pastor of the Independence Baptist Church is preaching on a subject that has aroused the American people: "Why Millions of Our Boys Will Have to Fight in World War Three—Unless."

Baptismal Service: Wilmington and Oak Ridge Baptist churches visited Independence Baptist Church last Sunday afternoon and baptized several into their fellowship. At the evening service the Independence Baptist Church baptized 11 into its fellowship.

Lion Training

Sultan, a ferocious lion, killed his lady trainer in California, Dec. 20. Mrs. May Schafer had the animal almost under control; the hard days of early training were almost over, and future contact was considered reasonably safe. She entered the cage, cracked her whip, held up the loop and the lion sprang at her throat.

The one thing overlooked by the trainer was the fact that the nature of the beast had not been changed, and in face of its seeming submission to authority, its purpose was to kill.

How like sin! Many feel that sin has been conquered and that man can gain the mastery, however, the very nature of sin is to kill both body and soul.

Sin remains the master, even though apparently without harmful intent. It is not until one has the Lord Jesus Christ as an ever-present help, that it is written, "Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder; the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet."—Psalm 91:13.

The Beuna Vista Homemakers Club in Harrison county made and sold 100 aluminum trays for the benefit of the community church.

We haven't been fiddling...

In the past ten years, the Southern Railway System has spent more than $150 million for new locomotives and cars.

We bought 643 modern Diesel locomotive units, 17,609 freight cars of all kinds and 145 lightweight streamlined passenger cars. On top of that, additional thousands of cars have been built or rebuilt in our own shops.

But this is only part of the story. Other millions have been spent to improve roadway and track...to build new bridges and shops...to enlarge and modernize yards.

This betterment program will continue. Because we know that in the future, as in the past, a strong, progressive Southern Railway System will be an important factor in the growth, progress and strength of the Southland...and of all America.

Ernest E. Norris
President

SOUTHERN RAILWAY SYSTEM

SOCIAL SECURITY

and survivors benefits for military service in World War II. These wages are to be used in computing all monthly benefits payable on the basis of veterans' wage records after 1949, whether the veteran died in service or after discharge, and regardless of whether pension or compensation is paid by the Veterans Administration.

Included in the social security program for the first time, and under special conditions, are household workers regularly employed in private homes. Household workers, including maids, cooks, laundresses, practical nurses, gardeners, chauffeurs, etc., will receive credit only for their cash wages, and will not be covered by the law at all unless they are employed 24 days or more and their cash wages are over $50 in a calendar quarter.

Regular farm workers including household workers in farm homes, will be covered by social security beginning in January. To be affected, the worker must be employed by one farm operator for a period of not less than five months and those months must fall within two calendar quarters. After full three months employment in the first quarter, the employee must work for the same employer in the second quarter not less than 60 days with cash wages of at least $50 for work in that quarter. This bars occasional or seasonal farm workers and itinerant harvesters from coverage under the new social security law.

FLORENCE

The Florence school will open on September 11 with a large enrollment.

W. K. Souther, P. J. Allen and Carl Rouse attended the Ohio state fair at Columbus, Wednesday of last week. They state an estimated attendance of 60,000, despite the inclement weather, also fine exhibits of all kinds.

Mrs. Mary E. Carpenter, 81, succumbed at her home on the Dixie Highway, Monday, August 28, 1950. She had entertained her family on Sunday previous in honor of her husband's birthday. She was jolly as usual and seemed to enjoy the covered dish dinner and visiting with the guests, although apparently she was not so well. At midnight, she was stricken with a heart attack from which she never rallied and passed away about 1:00 p. m. The community has lost a fine friend and neighbor. She was a member of the Walton Baptist Church. Services were conducted Thursday at 2:00 p. m. from the Chambers and Grubbs funeral home, Florence, Rev. R. F. DeMolsey officiated, with a very appropriate discourse. Interment was in the Carpenter family cemetery, Richmond. She leaves her husband, Theodore Carpenter; four sons, Eldridge, John R., Charles M. and Earl H. Carpenter; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Sympathy of the community is extended to the family.

Ladd in one of the greatest stories to come out of the war!

Alan Ladd as "CAPTAIN CAREY OF THE U. S. A."

costarring Wanda Hendrix, Frances Lederer, Joseph Calleia

Danger brought him and the girl of the underground together—betrayal drove them apart. Kill or be killed—deep in a dungeon with a man he hates—it's the most exciting knife and gun duel ever filmed. See Alan Ladd, the American soldier, who would not lay down his guns until his wartime betrayal was avenged.

Aid Needed . . .

The Committee asks aid from anyone who desires to help in the fight to secure better service from the Consolidated Telephone Co., and requests everyone to read and mail in the following:

"Being desirous of obtaining better telephone service in Boone County, I hereby enclose the sum of (not less than $2.00) as a contribution to the Committee for the purpose of employing such legal and accounting assistance as they deem proper to cause to be ascertained the fair value of the properties owned by the company and useful for rendition of telephone service in Boone County, and when ascertained, that there be presented to the Public Service Commission of Kentucky, a true picture of the present deplorable condition now existing in Boone County with reference to telephone service, and seek at the hands of that commission the fixing of a fair and reasonable rate, not based upon a promise of future improvement, but based upon actual performance by the company, after improvements be made and completed, and that such rate be either arbitrarily low or high, but fair and reasonable when rates of similar service in surrounding counties be taken into consideration."

Tested and Proved in Millions of Rugged Miles!

NEW TUBELESS TIRE

Made ONLY by
B. F. Goodrich
DOES MORE FOR YOU
THAN ANY OTHER TIRE

NO TUBE TO BUY! Tube troubles ended for good! No tube to go flat—no tube to blow out. Life matched safety and convenience.

NO FLATS TO FEAR! Seal punctures as you drive! Self-sealing material seals the road plug holes instantly and permanently.

HOLDS AIR BETTER! An inner layer of special rubber holds air better than tires with prewired tubes.

SAFER AT HIGH SPEEDS! Two ways safer: (1) seals punctures, (2) runs cooler, handles better, stays in better balance than tires with safety-type tubes.

LONGER MILEAGE! You get extra miles from the synthetic-rubber tread body and from the new tread that now contains longer mileage cold rubber.

MORE RIDING COMFORT! Owners report noticeably improved riding comfort.

SHORT STORY

The Threesome

By Richard Hill Wilkinson

"THAT MAN," Janice thought as she brought her roadster to a halt, "has possibilities. It can't be that he lives here."

He stood just inside the picket fence—six feet tall, leanness, fair hair. Blue eyes. Bespeaking the easy arrogance of youth. He wore a blue cotton shirt and blue denim jeans.

"You're not Janice Burdon?" he said. And then at her expression. "Heavens, you are! Why couldn't Aunt Bertha have warned me?"

"Is Aunt Bertha your aunt, too?" "The real aunt. You only call her aunt because she's a close friend of your mother. That makes us not cousins," he added with frank relief.

Janice rescued her suitcase from the rumble seat. "This is not like one of those things you read about," he grinned, taking it from her. He studied her with honest approval. "And I thought my vacation was going to be one of those dull, uninteresting things."

Minutes later Janice faced her Aunt Bertha in the bed chamber over the front parlor.

"Oh, Auntie, why didn't you tell me he was going to be here? I didn't bring a thing. Not a thing, except my shorts, two cotton dresses and a bathing suit."

"Who?" Aunt Bertha asked innocently. "Phil? Land sakes, don't worry about him. He dropped in unexpectedly yesterday and announced he was here for two weeks. He's a dear boy. You'll like him."

The next day Janice accompanied Phil up to the north pasture and watched him prune apple trees. "I thought this was your vacation," she said after awhile.

"It is," he told her. "I like working on my vacations—out doors." He pointed away over the fields. "Some day I'd like to see all those fields set out to apple trees."

Two days ago she wouldn't have believed him. She was city born and city bred. To her a farm had always symbolized hard work and a poor living, bugs and snakes and hot days in the sun, long lonely evenings. Even the thought of a farm had made her shudder.

She wondered about Phil. He claimed to be a law firm member on vacation. It occurred to her that for a lawyer he was mighty skillful handling pruning clippers. And his knowledge of farming was profound.

THE SECOND DAY of their vacation they knocked off early and went for a swim. The third day they played tennis. The fourth Aunt Bertha packed them a lunch and they drove to Mount Carter, climbed to its summit and watched a glorious sunset while nibbling delicious sandwiches.

On the second Saturday following her arrival she was with Phil. They

She wondered about Phil. He had climbed Mount Carter again, had sat for long, silent moments watching the afterglow of a blood-red sunset.

Unexpectedly, Phil said: "Well it's gone. And our vacation has gone. Tonight winds up the two weeks."

"There's always an end to nice things," she told him evasively.

"There doesn't have to be. Ever. Listen," he went on eagerly. "I gave you the wrong impression about myself. I'm not a successful lawyer. I never should have tried to be a lawyer. Thank heavens I realized the mistake before it was too late."

"You mean you're not leaving? You're staying here?"

He nodded. "I'm going to try and raise apples. Auntie and I are going to be partners. This fall I'll sell what we have and next spring set out new trees. He picked up her hand. "Honey, let's make it a threesome. I know it's a lot to ask," he added wistfully. "A city girl like you. I'd be dull. But eventually—"

"I could chip in my roadster," Janice cried excitedly. "It's all I have, but it ought to bring $500. How many apple trees can you buy with $500, darling?"

"Enough," said Phil, reading her eyes, "to keep from being lone some—I guess."

FARMERS, BANKERS SEE REBUILT FARM

A farm which sold for $900 in 1933 and for $10,000 in 1943 was the setting of the third annual Green County Farmer-Banker field meeting.

Now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Warren, it was bought at auction in 1933 by Garnett Milby and Jim Henderson.

Because of the wilderness of sassafras, persimmons and briars at that time, it was necessary for Mr. Milby to hold a flag on a long pole in order that Henderson could see where to drive his old Ford tractor, the audience was told.

Now tobacco produces 2,000 lbs. to the acre on that land, wheat 30 bu. corn around 100 bu. and hay a total of 3,000 bales annually, said Mr. Warren. He explained that the entire farm had been limed, and that he uses about 2,000 pounds of fertilizer per acre on tobacco, 1,000 to 1,500 on corn and an additional 500 pounds on grain. He top dresses his pastures with 500 pounds per acre. According to Farm Agent John H. Ewing, Jr., Mr. Warren feeds all the livestock he has room and feed for, thereby having from 200 to 300 loads of manure annually, which he uses on tobacco, corn and pastures.

It is estimated that use of 2, 4-D for weed control in corn on river bottom lands of Henderson county will net farmers at least $500,000.

DEVOTIONAL READING: Luke 12:35-36.

Quitter Makes Good

Lesson for September 10, 1950

UNLESS THAT boarding house in Antioch was different from other boarding houses, you could hardly have a private quarrel in it. There would be some inquisitive people who would notice when voices were raised, and who could not resist the temptation to listen.

One of the quarrelers was none other than the famous Apostle Paul, and the other was his best friend Barnabas. At least, Paul and Barnabas had been good friends up to that point.

After that day's argument we do not know that they ever saw each other again. Paul never mentioned the incident, but the story got around, and Luke put it into his book of Acts.

Young Man Seeks Position

THE ARGUMENT was all about a young man named John Mark. Young people do not always realize how often they are discussed by their elders, or how much those discussions affect their lives. A young man applies for a job (which he would rather call a "position") and he either gets the job or he does not. But he never sees the files. He never hears the conversations about himself. He never knows what remark got him the job—or cost him the job, as the case may be. So John Mark may never have known just what Paul and Barnabas said about him.

The facts were plain. John Mark was a native of Jerusalem, son of a woman at least well-off enough to have a large house of her own. He was some relative of Barnabas, perhaps a nephew. (Tradition says he was the young man in embarrassing circumstances described in Mark 14:51-52.) When Paul and Barnabas set off on their first missionary journey together, this John Mark went with them as a general assistant.

All went well at first. But when the party landed on the hot steamy shore of Pamphylia, and when the missionary expedition was about to take off over the high lonesome ranges through bandit country, John Mark left the party and took the first boat back to home and mother.

Two Bosses

WE HAVE no idea why he went. Maybe he had good reasons, maybe not. Anyway, we do know that he quit. And that was all Paul wanted to know. A new missionary party was being made up, and Barnabas wanted to take his young relative along again. But Paul could not see it.

Why take a man who had already fallen down on one job? Why take an assistant that could not be depended upon? The argument between Mark's two bosses boiled down to this: Paul judged that his assistant on past performance. It was all he had to go by. Barnabas judged Mark by his love for him and his belief in him. The quarrel was sharp, and the two old friends could not agree. Finally the incredible happened: Paul and Barnabas parted company, and each went his separate way from that time forward.

What happened to Barnabas we do not know. But we do know that Barnabas was right about John Mark. Years later we read in more than one letter from Paul that Mark was a real help to him. We find that another great leader, Simon Peter, called Mark his "son." These leaders of the Christian church, though they might differ on some things, agreed about Mark, that he was a man to rely on.

What This Goes to Show

ALL THIS GOES to show several things. For one, it is clear that even an Apostle may be wrong. No man can be an infallible judge of another man. And another thing: You can't judge a man on his record alone. There may be more in the man than the record shows.

On the other hand, people do judge others by their records. The inebriated young man does not always have a relative who will give him the benefit of the doubt.

If your record is bad, you must realize that there are numbers of people, even good people, who will judge you by that alone.

SHELL NEVER GRADUATE

This little girl is a "beginner." She has just entered the SCHOOL that will teach her HOW TO LIVE.

She'll never graduate! No one ever does! For religious education is different from secular education. It has to fit its pupils for living every day the very best way. In such a course, there just isn't any point at which the pupil can be sure he has enough "learning" to put away his books.

Therefore the Church Schools of our community provide classes for all ages. Every Sunday, while tiny tots are listening to Bible stories, grown-ups are studying the practical application of Bible truths in life.

Religious education should be a family activity. Don't just send your children to Church School. Come with them.

They need religious education because they must learn how to live. And you need it too, for life's richest possibilities are still ahead of you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For the child's sake. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

CONRAD HARDWARE

LABOR DAY

The working man's main holiday, which is supposed to be the largest observed holiday besides Christmas that we have. The city people go to the country and the country people go to the picnics and fairs.

Our farmers were kept very busy watching the tobacco they have in the barn, to keep it from rotting and falling off the stalk. Some are firing with coke, but most of them are using Fengi-San, a chemical powder to burn under it, to kill the fungus. We are selling lots of this Fengi-San and it is doing the work. Beckham Shields just came in after a five-pound can—he has used it for years. Alva Woods and wife were in having radio trouble—they bought a new radio a few weeks ago and it quit, so I gave them another. When you buy Arvin or Emerson radios and they go bad, we take care of them.

Mrs. Pearl Stephenson brought in another American Beauty electric iron with a broken handle—I sent it to the factory to be repaired—I just had one repaired for her and it is just like new. Mrs. James Naive and Jimmie were having BB gun trouble—Jimmie lost part of his gun, so I ordered him a new part. Mrs. Ira Stephenson also wanted me to order a new bowl for her heating stove. I have lots of stove repair orders in now—if you need stove repairs, you had better get them in early.

J. A. Darlington, who owns the Elmore farm at Kensington, bought more wire fence. Oh, here comes Virgie Sechrest again, and is in an uproar—got a pressure cooker lid in her hand. She says she has to have a new rubber gasket every week—I don't believe she knows how to use a pressure cooker—what do you think? Ab Ryan is just about finished with his new house and it is very nice. Al Warner also is coming along very well with his new home. Harry Mayhugh, Jr., who just started his house on Alta Vista is going right along—Walton is sure having growing pains.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Brown from out on Green Road bought a very nice cowboy saddle for their son, who has a new Western pony. O. J. Struve has finished remodeling his linoleum store with a new coat of white paint; also has a nice apartment in the rear—when you need linoleum call Struve.

Labor Day morning when I am trying to get in an extra hour's sleep the door bell starts ringing—Russell Aca wanted shells, Wm. Minton of Verona wanted a mower tongue, A. R. Kwozalla of Mt. Zion Road wanted linseed oil and turpentine—no rest for the hardware man, but I know most everyone waits until they get ready to do something before they get the material to do it with. I have had a lot of farmers sit around the store on Saturday and not need a thing, but would be standing on the steps waiting, Monday morning, for us to open.

September is here and you had better be thinking about your heating system. If you have a furnace, check the pipe, grates and fire bowl; if you use a heater and need a new one, we have John Rice needed a two-cap laundry stove—his old one had cracked. We have Anchor and Martha Washington coal heaters, all sizes, also Perfection, Coleman and Siegler oil heaters. Mr. Lytle who lives out at Boone Lake wanted a Perfection oil heater just like the one Mr. Ormsby bought last year—it did a nice job.

When you sell a Perfection or Siegler oil heater, you can make sure their neighbors will buy one. We had a very busy day Tuesday, June Neumeister had us put her in a new cistern pump. Mrs. Allie Hughes called for fence, barb wire and staples. Gladys Colston called for fruit jars—she sure is canning a lot. Eva Waters also wanted fruit jars. Omar Orborn needed glass for the school windows. Roy is installing Sam Hudson on oil pump to pump the oil to the second floor, so Sam won't have to carry it up, for his oil heater.

Robert DeMoisey came in and told us all goodbye—he is leaving for California tomorrow—has a house and a job waiting. Buddy Rouse has been in one door and out the other for the past two weeks—he is fixing up a house trailer to live in at college. He must have all the gadgets on it from the different things he has purchased. Mrs. Wolfe from Richmond bought a Westclox alarm clock and toys for the boy, Mrs. Woods also from Richmond, needed electric iron repairs and bought strainers, paint, brushes and lots of things—enough to fill her shopping bag.

John Sleet had Brewster come out and clean his oil heater for winter. Elmer Groger also brought his oil heater for cleaning and adjusting. Now is the time to get them ready—give us a call, no need to wait until winter, on a cold day, then it will quit. When you have trouble or need hardware, don't forget CONRAD.

Verona Eliminates Falmouth, Sunday

Losers Winless In 16 Games This Year

The Verona Community Club went to Falmouth last Sunday, where they eliminated the Pendleton County team from further play in the KAG series. The score was 5 to 1 and it was the 16th defeat for Falmouth in a winless season. This was the third win for Verona in four elimination series contests.

Wendell Ryan's winners had five runs, seven hits and no errors. Mike Ryan hurled eight and one-third innings, having to retire from the game when struck by a batted ball. Brown faced the last two hitters and had no trouble. Mike struck out six, walked three and hit one batter. Baumann and Robinson did the receiving. For the winners, Legon collected a single and double in four tries and drove in a pair of runs. Alexander slammed out a 400-ft. home run and a single, also in four at-bats, while Bowman and Robinson each produced a double.

Falmouth had one run, five hits and two errors. "Preacher" Florence served them up, and struck out six, while issuing five passes. Baker caught, and also contributed a single and double in four times at bat. Wolfe punched out a single to drive home the loser's lone margin. Inning—1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9—Verona ——— 3 0 1 0 1 0 0 0 0—Falmouth ——— 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0—1

American Legion Picnic Scheduled Sept. 21-22-23

Johnson-McElroy Post, 277, American Legion, Walton, is to hold its annual picnic at the Walton Stockyard grounds on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Sept. 21-22-23. A feature of the affair will be dancing to the music of Ray Scott and his band from radio station WZPB, Covington. There will also be rides for the kiddies, fish pond, sandwiches, served by the Legion Auxiliary, drinks of all kinds, bingo, country store and other games for your amusement and entertainment. Cash awards will be made each evening, so plan to attend—take the whole family. The Legionnaires will sincerely appreciate your patronage.

The Ladies Aid Society of the First Christian Church, Walton, will meet at the church Friday, Mrs. Carrie Durr is to be hostess, with Mrs. Susie Steinhilber, co-hostess.

Walton Homemakers

The Walton Homemakers Club met in the home of Mrs. Mayme Simpson last Friday, with Mrs. Elsie Breeden, vice president, presiding. Twenty-one members answered roll call. A lesson on Style Trends was given by Mrs. Marie Penick. The annual meeting of Boone County Homemakers will be held at the Florence Baptist Church, Oct. 3. Lunch, $1.25 per plate. Please make reservations with Mrs. Nancy McCaskey, Home Demonstration Agent, Burlington.

Baptist WMS to Meet

The regular meeting of the W. M. S. of the Baptist Church will be held Thursday, Sept. 21, beginning at 11 a. m. Hostesses are Mrs. William Soden, Mrs. Charles Steers and Mrs. Ralph Stevens. Installation of new officers will be held. Members are also asked to bring chickens for the orphans.

Week of Prayer is to be observed each afternoon at 2 p. m., September 18-22. September is the time to send chickens to the orphans and November is the time to send canned fruit.

BANTA-CARMAN

Mrs. Daniel Carman

Miss Patricia Banta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Banta, was united in marriage to Mr. Daniel Carman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carman of Wilmore, Ky., on Saturday afternoon, September 9, at 1:00 p. m., at the home of the bride's parents on Bada Road, near Walton.

The single ring ceremony was performed by Rev. G. W. Hoffman, pastor of the Walton Methodist Church, before the immediate families of each. The attendants were a sister and brother-in-law of the groom. Miss Banta chose for her wedding a dress of blue tulle, and she wore matching accessories, and carried white roses. Her attendant carried pink roses. The living room of the Banta home was beautifully decorated with white and pink glads, white mums and ferns. A reception was held immediately following the ceremony.

Mrs. Carman is a graduate of Shmon Kenton High school and has been employed by the Shillito Co., Cincinnati. Mr. Carman is a graduate of Wilmore High school, and works with his father in the carpentering business.

After a short honeymoon in the Smokies, they expect to live at Wilmore.

Boone Historical Society to Meet In Florence, Sept. 15

The Boone County Historical Society will meet in the Florence Town Hall, Friday, September 15, 1950 at 7:30 p. m. Anyone interested in the history and folk lore of the county is invited to attend and to take part in the discussions.

During the past few months the programs have included papers on many of the communities in the county. These have aroused a new interest in the early history of the county and in the families responsible for clearing the forests and establishing the towns. A number of the members of the society are direct descendants of these pioneers in Boone County and have expressed an interest in tracing their lineage and preparing a record of the family and its achievements. The meeting on September 15 will be devoted to a study of the methods of preparing a lineage record and of sources of information about one's ancestors. Charts will be furnished the members upon which they may record the names of their ancestors. An explanation will be given of the records kept in county Court Houses and how a person may use these records. Members will be told about the various historical libraries available to students of genealogy.

William Fitzgerald, secretary of the society, will present the program.

Vet Representative Coming

F. E. Duvall, Field Secretary for the Kentucky Disabled Ex-Servicemen's Board, will be in Walton, at the City Building, on Wednesday, September 20, from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m. for the purpose of aiding veterans and their dependents in filing and prosecuting claims for benefits, to which they may be entitled from the Veterans Administration.

KILLED IN KOREA WAR

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Clarkson of Kensington Lake, were notified Sunday evening, September 10 that their son, Cpl. Thomas James Clarkson, had been killed in action in Korea on September 1, 1950. He was a member of the First Cavalry as a machine gunner. Previously he had served three years in Germany as a member of the Army of Occupation. Young Clarkson, an only son, is survived by his parents and a sister, Mrs. Joe Ann Reinders, also of Kensington Lake.

To our knowledge, this is the first Boone Countyman to be killed in the Korean conflict.

PUCKETT-MARKSBERRY

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Puckett of near Walton announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Margie Puckett, to Mr. Gene C. Marksberry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Marksberry of near Crittenden. The ceremony was performed on Friday, September 1, by the Rev. Burton C. Garrett, pastor of the Walton Baptist Church. The young couple was attended by Miss Mary Hammond and Mr. Roi and Marksberry, a brother of the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Marksberry are now at home on Percival Road.

Softball Elimination Series to Start Next Tuesday With 2 Tilts

Pairings have been made for the Elimination Series in the Walton Softball League. To date, it has not been decided by the managers if it will be a one-and-out or two-and-out series, but a meeting will be held prior to opening play.

The series gets under way Tuesday night, Sept. 19 at 7:30, when Bob & Jo play Shamrock. This will be followed by Verona and Independence clashing.

First round play will be concluded Thursday evening, Sept. 21 with the Lions Club and the High School starting activity at 7:30, and the Walton Firemen and Bankick playing the finale.

Good games are assured, so plan to see these games. The hat may be passed, but you can use your own judgment as to your contribution.

Visalia PTA to Meet

The Visalia P. T. A. will hold its regular monthly meeting on Monday night, Sept. 18, following a program given by Red Turner and other entertainers from WLW and WLW-T which will begin at 8:00 p. m.

Enrolled at Western

Roy Adams, another active worker, was not present. The Briar Hollow Beagle Club is giving a fair on September 17, to further 4-H Club work and Junior Conservation work.

Record Enrollment In Walton-Verona Schools At Opening

Sermon Topics Listed By Rev. Gravely for Christian Revival

Revival services will begin at the First Christian Church, Walton, next Sunday morning, Sept. 17, and will continue each night, except Saturdays, at 8:00 p. m., through October 1, 1950 (World-Wide Communion Sunday).

Rev. Carroll F. Gravely, pastor of the church, will serve as evangelist and will bring Gospel sermons during the series of meetings. His subjects will be as follows:

- "Do We Moderns Need the Stranger of Calilee?"
- "What Christ Does For Men."
- "Were You There?"
- "Dare We Follow Christ Now."
- "It Is Later Than You Think."
- "With Him All the Way."
- "His Soul Goes Marching On."
- "Light of the World."
- "When Christ Controls."
- "The Great Answer."
- "How Do I Become a Christian?"
- "Why Not Try Christ's Way?"
- "Youth Looks at Christ."
- "Jesus Speaks to Our Day."
- "Conversion of a Business Man."
- "The Supreme Possession."

There will be a volunteer choir of 40 voices under the direction of Mr. Ellis Frakes of the Runyan Memorial Christian Church, Latonia. Mr. James Spencer will have charge of the music and will be organist for the meeting. Mr. Frakes will also serve as soloist during the meeting. At the close of each service in the evenings there will be an "Afterglow Service," conducted by Rev. Gravely and Mrs. Gravely will bring Gospel Solos in this part of the service. These will be the closing moments of the service, when we will face Christ and make a recommitment of our lives to Him. This is an added feature which is new to our church. It is a high moment of the service.

On Sunday, October 1, World-Wide Communion will be observed at the 11 a. m. service. The choir will sing two anthems, "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte and "The Lost Chord" by Sullivan. Following the church worship service, there will be a "victory dinner" in the church dining room.

Next Sunday, September 17, the choir will sing "Turn Ye Even to Me," by Barker, and Rev. Gravely will bring the message, "How Do I Become a Christian?"

The public is invited to attend the services whenever they can.

Engagement Is Announced

Miss Carol Kendall

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Kendall of Locust Street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Carol, to Mr. Billie Ray Wynn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wynn of High Street. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Kendall, a graduate of Walton-Verona High School, for the past 2 1/2 years has been employed by the F. B. I. in Washington, D. S. She is now at home.

Mr. Wynn is a Sophomore at Western State College, Bowling Green, where he is majoring in Physical Education. He, too, is a graduate of Walton-Verona High and a veteran of World War II.

State President Is Guest of Wa-Na Club At September Meeting

Mrs. Howard Bary, Port Thomas, President of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, was a guest of the Wa-Na Club at their September meeting held recently at the home of Mrs. J. B. Johnson. Mrs. Bary, in her usual pleasing manner, told the club members "The Purpose and Policies of the General Federation of Women's Clubs." Her discussion was very instructive and gave the club members a very enlightening idea of the work being accomplished by this large group of women of which the Wa-Na Club is proud to be a part.

Mrs. Clifford Pruett, opened the program with Spiritual Guidance, reading the 23rd Psalm and explaining the story behind this Psalm. The Club Collect was read by the entire group. What is a Federation of Women's Clubs? was given by Mrs. Leo Flynn. This subject covered the history and the working divisions of this world-wide organization. Topics on International Relations were given by Mrs. Clayton Jones.

Mrs. Fred Hamilton, president of the club, presided during the business meeting. Committee reports and plans for the new year were discussed.

Four guests and ten club members enjoyed a social hour and delicious refreshments served by the hostess: Mrs. Howard Bary, Mrs. Burgess Hailey, Mrs. Bill Lickie, Mrs. Lloyd Yates, Mrs. Oscar Cook, Mrs. Leo Flynn, Mrs. Matthew Flynn, Mrs. George Houston, Mrs. Charles Hayes, Mrs. Albert Hunt, Mrs. Fred Hamilton, Mrs. Clayton Jones, Mrs. Gayle McElroy and Mrs. Clifford Pruett.

Hickory Grove WMS

The Missionary Society of Hickory Grove Baptist Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Forrest Popp on Friday evening, September 15 at 8:00 p. m. to observe Week of Prayer for State Missions. All women of the church are urged to attend.

Union OES to Meet

Union Star Chapter, 461, O. E. S., will hold its stated meeting Thursday night, Sept. 14 at 8 p. m. in the Boone-Union Masonic Hall, Union. Annual reports will be given and election of officers held. Mrs. Mary Belle Roe, Worthy Matron, and Rueden Kirtley, Worthy Patron, will preside.—Pub. Chm.

Total For District Expected to Be 431

On Monday morning, Sept. 11, boys and girls once again heard the call of the old school bell and filled the rooms to overflowing at the Walton school.

A total of 323 enrolled for the first day at Walton; 179 in the first six grades and 144 in the upper six. There are others who are expected to enroll before the week is over and there should be 150 in the upper six grades, with more than 100 in the upper four years. This appears to be the largest enrollment in the school's history.

The Verona school enrolled 108 for the first day, making a total enrollment for the district, 431.

Judge John L. Vest was the guest speaker at the opening exercises on Monday. He reminded the students of the great opportunities now available for them, which did not exist in schools of former days.

Rev. Garrett, Rev. Gravely and Rev. Hoffman were on hand and each made a few well chosen remarks.

Mark Meadows, Chairman of the Walton-Verona Board of Education, and Robert Porter, Vice Chairman, were on hand to welcome the faculty and student body.

J. O. Ward, Superintendent, reminded the listeners that new schools were not assurance of good schools, but assurance of making together to achieve good schools. The people of any community can have the type of schools they desire to pay for, and they cannot have better than the type they are willing to pay for. Mr. Ward expressed his satisfaction over the recent vote for a new school and said, "I am exceptionally glad to be coming into a new community as superintendent of schools and seeing such a fine school spirit manifested as was shown by the recent election for a new school, which carried almost 3 to 1." He added, "I feel sure that the people of Walton and Verona will do all they can, if we, as teachers, do all we can to have a good school system in our district."

Dr. J. M. Huey and Dr. D. L. Maddox were kind enough to make of their time to go to the Walton school Tuesday morning and give health examinations to all children of the first, fifth and ninth grades; also the first and fifth grades at Verona. This was appreciated very much.

DAVID H. SCOTT

David H. Scott, 88, a retired plasterer, died September 11 at the residence of Rev. Herbert Stephenson, Glencoe. He was born in Scotland and had resided in this community for about 30 years. He had been in ill health for the past year. He had no immediate survivors.

Funeral services were held at 2:00 p. m., Wednesday, Sept. 13 at the home of Rev. Stephenson, with the Rev. J. J. Taylor officiating. Burial was in the I. O. O. F. Cemetery at Glencoe.

Hamilton Funeral Home, Verona, had charge of arrangements.

DELIA H. PERCIVAL

Delia Hudson Percival, 88, widow of the late Melvin O. Percival, passed away Thursday last week at her home at Bank Lick Station. She had been a life-long resident of the community.

Mrs. Percival is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Frank W. Vester of Covington, and Mrs. Robert Crutcher, who resided with her mother; one granddaughter, Mrs. Roger L. Lyons of Lexington; a grandson, Jacques P. Crutcher of Bank Lick; three great-grandchildren, Jone C. Lyons, Donna P. Crutcher and Rebecca A. Crutcher, and many nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Monday, September 11 from the Linne man funeral home, Covington, with Rev. R. F. DeMolesey, Walton, officiating. Burial was in Independence Cemetery.

Ladino clover is unequalled as a range for chickens, in the opinion of William Hayes, farm manager of the Pine Mountain Settlement School in Harlan county.

Does anybody want to buy an eighteen foot mahogany bar? Vice President Barkley has such a bar for sale, according to some wag on capital hill.

However, there is no truth to the story. The bar actually is the great rostrum belonging to the presiding officer of the Senate.

Right now the "bar" is stored away in one of the rooms off the Senate chamber while workmen complete the job of remodeling the place.

The postum looks exactly like a bar and that, of course, led to the story.

Paper Money: Kentucky members of Congress are going to get $300 extra to help them pay for stationery.

The money was voted the other day and it reminded capital hill correspondents of the fortunate position of the American congressman when compared with his colleague in the British House of Commons.

The American congressman gets a salary of $12,500 a year plus a tax free of expense account of $2500. In addition, he gets free postage, a free office, free telephone service, free stationery (up to a limit) and, best of all, $20,000 to hire office help.

In Britain, a member of Commons gets $2800 a year, no office, no money for help, no postage and only mediocre telephone service and stationery.

Frankly, we'll take the American system. It attracts better talent.

Committee Job: There's some speculation here in the capital over the possible committee assignments to be given Governor Clements when he reaches the Senate in mid-November.

Senator Clements probably will not be assigned to the Armed Services Committee because Kentucky's Senator Chapman is present on that important committee.

The Senate Judiciary Committee is out, too, because that committee takes lawyers only. An assignment to the Foreign Relations Committee appears doubtful as such a position usually goes to oldtimers.

It looks as though the new senator will go to the Committee on Agriculture. The Governor served on that committee while in the lower house and contributed much to the progress and welfare of the Kentucky farmer.

Fancy Figures: It's difficult to write entertainingly with only figures to offer. But some facts recently released on Kentucky tell how Kentuckians have prospered in the past 18 years.

In 1932, for example, Kentucky workers received 44 million dollars in pay. The latest figure shows those same workers getting approximately 236 million.

The same happy story can be told about farm income. In 1932, Kentucky farmers were able to count $2 million in their pockets. The last figures show that farm income leaped to a healthy, prosperous 600 million.

KENTON

We had 66 at Sunday school Sunday. Come next Sunday and bring someone with you.

Our weekly prayer meetings are growing. We have an average of 40 each Wednesday and Friday evening.

Bro. Roger Grizzle has charge of the children. He has been teaching them the Bible for the past few months. The number of children in this group has grown so much he now has an assistant helping him and we know it won't be long until he will need another assistant. May God bless him and his work.

We organized our Baptist Training Union Sunday evening.

Remember Sunday school each Sunday at 10 a. m. Walter Roden, Supt.; preaching services each Sunday at 11 a. m. and 8:15 p. m. Rev. Frank Lipscomb, pastor; Trailing Union each Sunday evening at 7:00; prayer meeting each Wednesday at 8:15 p. m. and cottage prayer meeting each Friday at 8:15 p. m.

Cottage prayer meeting met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roger B. Grizzle, Friday evening. We met with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Grizzle; Friday evening, Sept. 15. Come and bring someone with you.

IMLAY DISCUSSES PLAY EQUIPMENT

The right kind of play equipment not only amuses a child, but also challenges him, says Miss Florence Imlay of the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky. In a new circular, No. 481, "Play Equipment for Boys and Girls," she gives pointers on selecting play equipment and the types of toys suitable for different ages. Included are directions for making simple toys. Copies may be had free from offices of farm and home agents, or from the college, Lexington.

Mrs. Della H. Percival

Mrs. Della H. Percival, grandmother of Jack Crutcher, a life-long resident of Banklick, Kenton County, died at her home Sept. 7. She was 88 years old and had a wide family connection throughout the county. She was the widow of the late Melvin Ira Percival.

The deceased is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Frank W. Vosmer of Covington, and Mrs. Robert Crutcher of Banklick; two grandchildren, Mrs. Roger L. Lyons of Lexington, and Jack Crutcher of Banklick, and three grandchildren.

Funeral services were in charge of the Linnemann funeral home, Covington, and burial was at Independence Cemetery last Monday, with Rev. R. F. DeMolay officiating.

Former Wife Is Shot

Harry T. (Mooney) Lightner, Taylor Mill Pike, Kenton County, a former professional football player, was held in Kenton County jail Sept. 4 without bond on a charge of shooting to kill his former wife, Mrs. Rose Ellison La Greca, 29, Chicago, Ill., Kenton County Police reported.

Mrs. La Greca was reported in a "serious" condition at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington. She was shot in the lower abdomen with a .22 caliber bullet, police said.

Lightner reportedly forced his way into the home of Mrs. La Greca's sister on Madison Pike, Morning View, Ky., shortly before 1:00 p. m. of the 4th and the shooting followed. Lightner stayed in the house until the police arrived.

Lightner, who formerly owned a cafe at Bracht Station, and who has been employed as a bartender in Covington, told Chief Carl Mershon, "I'm sorry I did it."

Mrs. La Greca was granted a divorce from Lightner in Cincinnati in 1945 on charges that he grossly neglected her and beat her on several occasions, fracturing her jaw in three places on Dec. 16, 1944. In the petition, Mrs. La Greca charged that her husband was "very jealous."

Minor Operation

Mrs. Clyde McVey of Horse Branch Road went to the hospital last Thursday for an operation performed Friday morning. She returned to her home last Sunday afternoon.

"Pony Express"

Gordon Riley, local grocer, has suddenly come into possession of a pony and it's reported that he is puzzled as to what to do with it. He has received a number of suggestions from his friends, such as starting a pony express, joining the horse marines. Maybe other friends have an idea for him.

Walter J. and Dorothy Ash bought lot 30 in block B, Forest Hills subdivision from John H. and Catherine Marie Kollman.

Eddie Elliott bought lot 13 in the John E. Jackson subdivision from John A. Jackson.

Married Saturday

Patricia Santa of near Walton, and Daniel Carman of Wilmore, Ky., were issued a marriage license at Independence and were married on September 9th.

Home from Hospital

Leslie Damon of Taylor Mill Road came home from the hospital Sept. 4. He had an attack of appendicitis at Fairmont, while driving a bread truck.

Entering Service

Tom Morton and "Bootsy" Rust of near Kenton left for service September 8. Carroll Capter of Pelly Pike, near here, is to leave Sept. 22.

Battle Correspondent's Last Letter

Cpl. Ernie Peeler, 37, correspondent for the Pacific edition of the Army newspaper, Stars and Stripes, wrote the following lines to his wife in California:

"My Dearest Ruby, . . . This Korean war is a serious thing. Men are being wounded and killed. We are losing equipment, and we still are on the losing end as of now (July 3), but we hope the picture will change soon . . .

"I might as well tell you I volunteered for the assignment . . . I am not an alarmist. I am not trying to say this is World War III, but it could easily develop into it over night. . .

"I hope and pray that my going to Korea will help in a small way to prevent bombs from falling back home."

And to his children, Peeler wrote: "Daddy has a trip to make . . . please don't forget about Daddy, and when you go to bed at night, say a prayer for me."

We do well to pray for all involved in the Korean conflict. Many will suddenly be ushered into eternity.

Everything possible should be done for their spiritual welfare. They must be given the gospel of Christ, which is "the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth."—Romans 1:16.

May the attitude of every believer be that of Samuel of old, who said: "God forbid that I should sin against the Lord in ceasing to pray for you."

WOMEN SHOW WORK

Displays in eight store windows in Flemingsburg indicated the work done the past year by Fleming county homemakers in hooking rugs, wiring lamps and making lamp shades.

One window showed important points in hooking rugs as brought out by Miss Vivian Cumutt, home furnishings specialist at the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky. There was good burlap as contrasted with poor, stenciling of designs on burlap, materials dyed for pleasing color effects, materials cut for hooking and the finished rug.

Other windows showed 29 lamp shades made from parchment, taffeta, dimit, diploe, cardboard and feed bags; 25 old kerosene lamps wired for electricity, 10 rugs in the process of being made and 11 finished rugs.

More cover crops will be planted this fall for pasture in Lawrence county, where excessive rainfall damaged much hay and reduced the corn crop by half.

South Taylor Mill

Friends of Mrs. Frances Rector regret to hear of her accident, in which she received a broken collar bone. However, we all wish her a hasty recovery.

Mrs. Pearl Beal and Mrs. Myrtle Sheets of Lebanon, Ohio were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Klein. Their Sunday afternoon guests were their children and grandchildren.

Our community has been blessed with an abundance of rain in the past week, but the farmers are hoping for better weather, so that their tobacco and hay crops can be harvested.

Wm. Summey wasn't so well several days the past week, but is much better at this writing.

The Independence and Simon Kenton schools opened on Tuesday, September 5, with a large enrollment.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Rector had as guests Sunday evening, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Polking, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Taylor, Mrs. Donald Myers, and Mr. and Mrs. John Klein.

Mrs. Wm. Summey attended the luncheon at the Partl Mart in Cincinnati, Friday.

We are glad to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Rippenburger into our community. They are occupying the Watson property recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lynch, who have moved into their new home in Covington.

Mrs. Mabel L. Martin spent Monday in Covington.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Summey had as dinner guests Monday, Misses Alice and Elizabeth Summey of Norwood, Ohio.

The two new brick homes being built by Woody and John Butler are nearing completion and will add much to our community.

SHORT STORY

Felix Retires

By Richard Hill Wilkness

WHEN FELIX BRENDLINGER retired to private life he ceased to be a "figure" in Mayfield. If you took time to analyze the reason, the answer was simple. For 30 years Felix had left his home on Pleasant street at exactly 7:35 in the morning, walked a quarter mile to the railroad station, boarded the 7:45 train for Longview, and spent the day in that distant city at a desk in the insurance offices of Booth, Gill and Dyer. Every evening he disembarked from the 5:35 train and retraced the quarter-mile to his Pleasant street home.

Mayfield citizens were used to the sight of Felix walking briskly to and from the railroad station. Sometimes some one would ask him to do an errand in Longview, and he'd always oblige. Frequently he would deliver choice bits of news to friends and acquaintances. Booth, Gill and Dyer had for their clients two large steamship lines, and Felix could tell when the boats arrived in port, or when they were delayed by storms and when important passengers were arriving from abroad.

There were a hundred and one things that Felix could and did do that achieved for him a certain recognition. After he retired, Felix ceased to be a figure. He wasn't an especially imaginative person, nor were his neighbors.

The neighbors knew unconsciously that Felix was no longer different from any of the Felix knew it too. It troubled him. It hurt. It made him lonesome. It made him wonder. It threatened to develop in him an inferiority complex.

Felix tried hard to find pleasure in his retirement. He planted a garden and bought some chickens and occupied his time as much as he could. But it was a physical occupation, and this gave him plenty of opportunity to think. Eventually his thinking changed to brooding, and the brooding nourished the growing inferiority complex. Felix's wife noticed the change. She tried to talk to him, to learn the source of his moodiness. But Felix couldn't explain it. He felt a little ashamed, and didn't want to talk.

Another month passed and Felix's wife began to think he was a case for the family doctor. Then one day a letter arrived from Booth, Gill and Dyer. They wanted to know if Felix would consider coming in for a few days to assist in straightening out some matters about which they considered him an expert.

"The idea," Felix's wife exclaimed, "Don't they know—but of course they don't—I'll write immediately and tell them how poorly you are!"

"You'll do no such thing!" Felix exclaimed, eyes gleaming. "I'm catching the 7:45 in the morning!"

THE JOB lasted three weeks. During that time Felix became a figure once more. People became used to him going back and forth to the train. Unconsciously they fell into the old routine of asking him to do errands and demanding choice bits of news. Felix was happy again. He beamed. He put on weight. He felt important. He was important.

On the day that Felix finished up the special work, Mr. Gill approached him.

"Felix, how about staying on "You'll do no such thing!" Felix exclaimed, his eyes gleaming. "I'm catching the 7:45 in the morning."

"Need me?"

"As long as you'll stay. Oh I realize that sooner or later we'll have to get along without your help—but none of us realized how important you were."

Felix's face glowed. "Thanks, Mr. Gill. You couldn't have said anything that would make me happier. But as far as staying with you is concerned—I'm afraid I'll have to turn down the offer. You see, I've got some chickens and a garden out home that need my attention. And—well—now I'll be able to retire with a clear conscience."

Farm Digest News

Agriculture Department to Have Display at State Fair

Commissioner Harry F. Walters has announced that the State Department of Agriculture will have its exhibit at the State Fair again this year. Arrangements have been made to set up an attractive display in the Alumni-drome, located just behind the Horse Show.

All fair visitors are cordially invited to visit the display and to meet the Department personnel. The Departments 30,000 pound text weight truck, used to test scales over the state, will be on display. Also one of the most modern automatic egg-grading machines in the country will be available for inspection.

Grain Markets Steady to Higher

Grain markets strengthened during the last week in August and prices made moderate gains except on rye and grain sorghums, according to reports to the Kentucky and the United States Departments of Agriculture. Smaller marketings of wheat and corn, due principally to shortage of box cars and low temperatures and threats of frost damage to corn and soybeans, were the strengthening influence in the market.

Wheat prices advanced 2 to 3 cents per bushel at the principal central-western markets, with a fair demand for good quality—milling wheat. Corn was up 2 to 3 cents and oats 1 to 2 cents per bushel. An active demand for good quality malting barley advanced price of this grain about 6 cents per bushel compared with a week ago. Grain sorghums were down 2 to 6 cents per 100 pounds.

Coney Closes Season Sunday, Sept. 17

A "bargain day in fun," climaxed by a "Blue Ribbon Fireworks" display, will bring the season to a close at Coney Island, Cincinnati, on Sunday, Sept. 17.

Coney will be open both Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 16 and 17, with Elliof Lawrence and his orchestra as the star attraction in Moonlight Gardens, Coney's exotic summer ballroom. On Saturday the park will open at 5 p. m., and on Sunday at noon. Virtually all the amusement devices will be in operation. Dining service will be available at the Clubhouse and Cafeteria.

Sunday will be celebrated as Kentucky Day. All persons arriving in cars bearing Kentucky licenses will be admitted free. Prices on most rides and many refreshments will be reduced to five cents. No ride will be over 10 cents.

The "Blue Ribbon Fireworks" will be well worth going far to see, according to Edward L. Schott, president and general manager of Coney. Special fancy shells created by Arthur Rozzi, master of pyrotechnical effects, will be featured. They are "super" creations of the fireworks art, and have never before been seen in the Cincinnati area. The task of making these shells is so exacting that it requires ten days to make one single shell. In former years they were created by Rozzi to win in spectacular competition against other fireworks makers. The display will be Coney's farewell to the 1950 summer amusement season.

Most of the peach growers in Trimble county reported less than half a crop this year. More than 2,000 dog tags have been sold in Hopkins county, and wild dogs are being done away to encourage sheep production.

Announcing the Double-Duty CHRYSLER Traveler

the smart new sedan that converts in seconds into a sports car or cargo carrier.

Twice as useful as any ordinary car! Use it as a beautiful sedan seating six! Or fold down the hinged back seat and cushion . . . and you have a level deck 6½ feet long. You can sleep on it . . . load all your hunting and fishing gear . . . haul farm implements, fence posts—a thousand and one things no regular car can carry. It's like having two cars in one. Come see how the new Chrysler Traveler makes your dollars do double duty. Take the wheel . . . find out how Chrysler's built-in value all the way through is combined with new utility that beats anything on the road today.

See how the rear seat cushion folds forward against the front seat back, and rear seat back turns down to form flat, level-loading platform. Spare tire can be carried in passenger compartment, or in well at right of luggage compartment.

Counter-balanced trunk lid opens easily, and stays open for easy loading. Sturdy luggage rack on roof adds conveniently to the huge carrying capacity of this car. Upholstery is tough plastic that resembles grained alligator hide.

FLORENCE NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Aylor of Gunpowder celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary at their home Sunday. Those who gathered for the dinner, were: Mrs. Martha Richards and son Jerry of Covington, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Aylor and daughters, and

Mr. and Mrs. William Elkin and two sons of Erlanger. Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Lutes and daughter Ann returned from Somerset and Hazard, recently where they were guests of Mr. Lutes brother and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Aylor and children and Mrs. S. H. Aylor motored to Natural Bridge on Sunday preceding Labor Day. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Courtney and son of Limburg were the Sunday evening guests of Mrs. Edna Courtney and daughter.

Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Florence, has installed a Hammond organ in their establishment. It is a lovely instrument and most appropriate.

A very cordial invitation is extended to the general public to attend the pillow slip bingo to be given by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Florence Volunteer Fire Department at the fire hall Thursday evening, Sept. 21 at 8 p. m., given for the benefit of the building fund. The social has been announced by Mrs. Lewis Houston, Auxiliary president. The volunteer firemen will be on hand to serve refreshments.

The Civil Service Regional office located in Cincinnati, recently announced the appointment of Lawrence L. Aylor, local Post Office clerk, as its local secretary for the Civil Service Commission.

Miss Ruth Marie McDaniell of Cincinnati was the recent guest of Mrs. Zelma Aylor and children.

Mrs. Marie Kinman was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Robert West and son of Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. William Oliver of Gunpowder, were the Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Chaney and Dr. N. A. Jett.

Miss Mary Jane Nustbaum recently accepted a position in the office of H. N. Ockerman, Boone County School Superintendent.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Benefiel were entertaining guests from Cincinnati, several days the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Tanner had as callers Labor Day, Miss Jane Bristow of Union, Mrs. Ruth Tanner of Erlanger, and Mrs. Wm. Jarrell and son of Covington.

Jerry Dixon and wife of Erlanger, were calling here Wednesday.

Mrs. Marie Kinman returned home from Louisville, Saturday by plane. She had visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert West. We are sorry to report Mrs. Kinman was very ill while in Louisville, and still remains quite sick at her home here.

Mrs. Edmonia Lanigan and daughter Kathryn and Mrs. Conda Corwine, all of Cincinnati, were guests of Miss Jennie Crisler, Wednesday. Mrs. Lanigan and daughter will occupy the home recently completed and owned by Mrs. Chester Souther of Detroit, Mich.

John F. Brown, who has been a guest in the home of a daughter, Mrs. C. J. Fraim, and family of Rossmore, Va., returned here Saturday, due to the illness of another daughter, Mrs. Marie Kinman. We all wish her a hasty recovery.

The woman's Society of the Florence Methodist Church met at the church September 6. The meeting was opened with prayer by Mrs. C. N. Ogg, followed by the business session conducted by Mrs. Paul Chaney, president. Devotions were by Mrs. C. S. West, who also presented an excellent talk, her subject being, "Health Through A Brotherhood of Nations," preceded by the "Brotherhood" song by the group. Mrs. Ogg gave a Bible reading and the session was dismissed with a circle of prayer. Attending were Mesdames Nannie Mitchell, Paul Chaney, C. N. Ogg, Ella Bethel, Ida Miller, Hazel Knox, Helen Bethel, Eva Miller, Allie Markesberry, Lella Allen, Betty McCormick, Kathryn Oliver, C. S. West, Marie Thompson and a guest, Mrs. Viola Idol.—Pub. Chm.

Sheep claims against the Grant County Sheep Protective Association are only half as great as last year, county officials being given credit for improved conditions. Three new houses are being built in Grayson county by plans obtained from county agents, and three other farmers have requested plans.

INDEPENDENCE R. 1

The farmers are getting very uneasy over the tobacco situation, due to the rainy weather.

We were very sorry to see our former pastor, Rev. Wheary, wife and daughter, leave our community on Monday, but glad to welcome our new pastor, Rev. Arnold and wife, who will occupy the parsonage of the Visalia Charge.

There will be services at Staffordburg Sunday morning at 11 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m.—Prayer services every Wednesday at 8 p. m.

We had a goodly number at Sunday school Sunday. Try to come out to each of these services and worship with us. Everybody welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wharton of near Dayton, Ohio, were the Sunday guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney, and sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pruett called on her mother, Mrs. Ida Hoffman, one evening the past week.

Mrs. Alice Ervin and Ella Mae Wigger of Latonia, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hanna. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Damon called on Mr. and Mrs. Charles Losey, Saturday evening.

Several of the relatives of Stevie Rapp were entertained in his home Saturday evening, the occasion being his 8th birthday. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Henry and children, Mr. and Mrs. Denver Binder and son Randall, Miss Judy Rapp, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Rapp, Miss Minnie Rapp and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Rapp. The evening was spent in enjoying the television and games, after which delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. All departed wishing Stevie many more happy birthdays.

City Ordinance 197

An Ordinance repealing Sections Nos. 1 and 2 of Ordinance No. 148, which is an ordinance providing for the collection of Delinquent Taxes and re-enacting Sections 1 and 2 of Ordinance No. 148 to provide for the collection of current taxes and delinquent taxes in accordance with recent legislative enactments by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

WHEREAS, the time of assessing property for taxable purposes and the time for payment of taxes have been changed by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, and the City of Walton wanting to change the time of the assessment of property located therein for taxable purposes and to change the time of the collection thereof,

NOW, THEREFORE, The City Council of The City of Walton Does Ordain As Follows:

Section 1. That Section 1 of Ordinance No. 148 be and it is repealed in its entirety, and that Section 1 of Ordinance No. 148 be and it is re-enacted as follows, to-wit: Section 1. That all property subject to taxation in the City of Walton shall be assessed as of the 1st day of July, 1949, for the 1950 taxes and as of January 1, 1951 and January 1st of each year thereafter, and it is deemed preferable by the City Council, that the City use the annual County Assessment made by the County Tax Commissioner for State and County purposes, as the assessment of the City property subject to taxation therein; and the tax bills of the City shall be made from the County Assessor's books after the same have been supervised and corrected by the County Board of Supervisors against all persons, firms and corporations subject to taxation in the City. It shall be the duty of the Clerk of the City Council to take the list of any person, firm or corporation subject to taxation in the city, which may be omitted from or not shown in the County Assessor's books, and to list any property, portion of which may be in the City where the value of the portion in the city is not shown by the County Assessor's Books.

Section 2. That Section 2 of Ordinance No. 148 be and it is repealed in its entirety, and that Section 2 of Ordinance No. 148 be and it is re-enacted as follows, to-wit: Section 2. That all City taxes, except as otherwise provided, shall be due and payable on and after the 15th day of September of 1950 and on and after the 15th of September of each year thereafter, and all taxpayers whose taxes are not paid on or before the 31st day of December of 1950 and on or before the 31st day of December of each and every year thereafter, after the same are due shall be deemed delinquent and such taxes shall bear interest at the rate of 6% per annum and shall be subject to a penalty of six (6) per cent on the taxes due and unpaid; except that taxes which become delinquent on January 1st shall be subject to a penalty of only two (2) per cent, if paid on or before the last day of January. Provided, any taxpayer who pays his or her or its City taxes on or before November 1st, after the same becomes due in any year shall be entitled to two (2) per cent discount thereon and the collector, in case of such payments will allow such reduction and give a receipt in full to the taxpayer. The collector whose duty it is to receive or collect the taxes shall collect the penalty and account for the same in the same way in which they are required to collect and account for taxes. And provided, however, that the collecting officer whose duty it is to collect or receive taxes may, at any time after the taxes mentioned in this section shall become due, receive less than the face amount of the tax bill and credit the same on account of the amount due, including the amount of penalties then due, and all such payments shall be credited upon the tax bill, or upon sheets annexed thereto for that purpose, and acknowledged in writing or by a rubber stamp, the amount or amounts from time to time so paid to such collecting officer.

Section 3. That this ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and publication as by law required.

Passed by the City Council of the City of Walton by the vote of six (6) members of council on the 13th day of September, 1950.

VERONA

Birthday Celebration

Mrs. Walter Vest and daughters entertained on Sunday in honor of Mr. Vest's birthday, and for his sister from Indianapolis, Ind. Those present to enjoy the day were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ashman and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ashman and children, Mrs. Ashman's daughter, Hazel, her husband and three children, all of Indianapolis, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Vest, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pennington, Mr. and Mrs. Troy Meyer and children, Mrs. Lizzie Noel and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Waller and sons and the hostess and Rose Marie and Peggy Mae. His brother of Elwood, Ind. and sister, Mrs. Lulu Heyworth of San Antonio, Texas, were unable to be present. Plenty of rain and much of the tobacco is rotting in the house. Mr. and Mrs. "Dump" Beach (nee Edna Mae Risner) are receiving best wishes for a long and happy life together.

Mrs. James Copley accompanied her sister, Mrs. J. T. Lamm, home last week. They had returned from an extended trip through Illinois and Missouri.

Billy Mac Waller, who spent the last few weeks with his home folk, returned to Berea this week to finish his college work.

Friends of J. T. Roberts will regret to learn that he was taken to the hospital Sunday. His friends all wish for him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Renaker's daughter, Mildred, and her husband returned to their home in New York City last Wednesday after spending a few days with her parents and other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ashman and son, Harry, and wife and children spent a few days last week with Mrs. Ashman's brothers, Walter and Harvey Vest, and their families.

Plans are underway for approximately 140 rural homes in the Cloverlick section of Harlan county to receive electricity.

W. E. Jones of Laurel county expects to harvest from 600 to 800 bu. of apples this fall.

Corn-borer damage has been reported as severe in a few counties in Kentucky.

CARD OF THANKS—

A word of thanks to my friends and relatives—While sick in Christ Hospital, just one day there wasn't someone to see me. While there, I want to thank each and everyone for coming to see me. It was a wonderful pleasure to look up and see someone there, asking "How are you today, Russell?" and so many sent me cards, wishing "get well Russell," and thanks to Dr. C. K. Riddle and nurses at the hospital for the care which they gave me while there, also Dr. H. F. Daugherty and Dr. Huey, Chambers & Grubbs for taking me to the hospital, Ralph Sparks and son for bringing me home from the school fair, Fred Hamilton for bringing me home from the hospital, the neighbors and friends coming and helping Charlie put up the tobacco, those who came and helped fix dinner each day, the wonderful prayer by Brother Roy Johnson and Bro. H. B. Holland while in the hospital; so many heart aches of Kate and Charlie for my return home, and my heart aches to return home with them; for those who came and took Kate and Charlie back and forth to see me at the hospital. Those words of kindness will long be remembered by Russell Sparks. Thank God for it all, is my prayer to all.

CARD OF THANKS—

I wish to express my deep appreciation and heartfelt thanks to my friends for the many lovely cards and letters of cheer I received during my illness; also for all the acts of kindness performed in my absence.

BALERS SAVE RAY

Several Grant county farmers have bought pick-up hay balers this year. According to Farm Agent Robert Hume, they made possible the saving of thousands of tons of hay which doubtless would have been lost due to bad weather. With an unusually heavy crop and an unfavorable season for harvest, the balers filled a decided need.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

SCRIPTURE: Mark 8:13-35
OPTIONAL READING: James 1:1-12

Brother to Jesus

Lesson for September 17, 1950

THEY WENT fishing together, no doubt; very likely they worked together in the shop; perhaps little James was the nuisance that small brothers sometimes are, but like all small brothers he would tag along when Jesus went walking over the Nazareth hills. As a man in later years he became influential and famous; indeed it was he who probably wrote the book in our New Testament called "James." But as a boy, his neighbors saw nothing remarkable in him. So completely commonplace was he, that as Mark 6 shows us, the natives of Nazareth couldn't believe that one of James' brothers could amount to anything.

Unbeliever
FOR years and years James grew up with Jesus, boy with boy. They lived under the same roof, ate from the same dish. James may even have worn his big brother's outgrown tunics. All his childhood days he knew the care and love of the same mother. Mary that Jesus had. Through all those "silent" years when Jesus lived and worked in Nazareth, James lived and worked beside him.

And yet, the strange thing is that when Jesus left the carpenter shop and went about "doing good" as Peter said, James did not believe in him. It seems clear from the story in Mark 3 that both Mary and the brothers (not James only) had the idea that Jesus was out of his mind. They came to get him and would have stopped his ministry at that point, if they could. John also mentions the fact that Jesus' own brothers did not believe in him. It seems strange, yet the reason may not be hard to find. Perhaps it was a case of the old proverb, "Familiarity breeds contempt." Perhaps James had a sort of inferiority complex about himself, maybe he agreed with the villagers' low opinion about him, so that he could not believe that his brother could be the Christ. In any case it is plain that if miracles could ever have compelled belief, Jesus' miracles would have convinced James... but he was an unbeliever right through the day of Calvary.

Believer
PRECISELY what changed him was never known. Some anonymous writer in early times wrote a "Gospel of James"—a piece of fiction never accepted by the church as genuine. What we do know is what Paul tells us; that after his resurrection, Jesus "appeared to James." It may well be that James was convinced by the risen Christ as he had never been by the Carpenter of Nazareth.

Be that as it may, as time went on and Christians began to multiply in Jerusalem, James appeared as the leader of the Christians' Home Church. At the important conference held in Jerusalem to decide the church's first great controversy, it was James whose speech was the "last word" before the decisive vote.

Quality of Leadership
JAMES was not an accepted leader merely because he was a brother of Jesus. There were other brothers who remained quiet obscure. James was a recognized leader because of his personal qualities. The reader is invited to study these out for himself. But there is one interesting and unusual combination of qualities in this man, strictness with himself, together with flexible generosity in dealing with others.

In Acts 21:17-26 it is clear that James kept all the laws of Moses himself and expected other Jews to do the same. To the end of his life he was personally a rigid conservative. But when it came to other people, he was far more tolerant. When the question arose, How much of Jewish law shall we expect Gentile Christians to observe? James agreed to the startlingly small nucleus of laws that the Jerusalem conference set forth as the absolute minimum for all. James did not wish his own conscience to be laid every one else. He did not expect every one to be bound by his own pattern. He had high standards and he lived by them. But he did not have his own standards as a club with which to beat others over the head.

The House that CONVICTION BUILT

When many people have the same conviction about a thing, they usually get together. They become members of a party, or a society, or a congregation.

Every Sunday in the churches of our community many people get together. They have the same conviction about God—they worship together.

When they worship, they offer thanks, they ask help. They sing to express their happiness. They listen to enrich their minds with the truth that comes from God. And before they bow their heads to receive final benediction, they give such gifts as they can to their Lord's work.

All of us have need for worship—it is a part of human nature and the divine will of God. So for your greatest benefit and happiness, choose a Church in this community—attend its services and join in its work. Make it YOUR CHURCH.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his children's souls. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and spiritual support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

CONRAD HARDWARE FALL WEATHER

This week started with very fine weather, cool and fair (With all the rain, we wonder where Conrad has been—Ed.) Our farmers are cutting corn—Burley—Omer Kite just drove in—he is now cutting tobacco—all in the barn. His hound dogs have been giving him a little trouble and he bought a roll of netting to keep the dogs in the barn. Something happened today that was very funny—Mrs. Floyd Sobue bought two harmonicas—now how could one woman play two harmonicas—I suppose Floyd will play one of them.

Geo. Menke came after tobacco spears and tomatoes. We received a few more Maytag washers—they are coming in slower all the time. We also have a shipment of Barton washers for $84.00. E. J. Coyle and wife just came in and bought a square porcelain tub Maytag washer. Mrs. Sam Murphy also bought the same kind of Maytag. If it Maytag you want, you had better get it. Omer Kite bought a large size coil circulating heater—says it is for his wife, but you know who will sit by it this winter. Mr. Tanner from over on Rich Road, Kenton county, bought an Anchor Hot Blast—the finest coal heater ever made—we think.

Tracy Hume bought his wife the best portable Perfection oil heater they make—it is a beauty—two-tone porcelain and Pyrex chimney, so you can see the blaze; also has a solid brass oil fountain—it is a lifetime stove. Robt. Bell also bought a Perfection portable oil heater. Myrtle Crouch needed a 24" grate basket. Sam Sellers Jr. bought his wife a Coleman fuel oil heater. Mr. Cox, who operates the tourist court in South Walton, also bought a Coleman fuel oil heater. Melvin Wasson took home a cheap electric iron and a Sunbeam for his wife to try—which one do you think he brought back?—it wasn't the Sunbeam. If a lady ever irons with a Sunbeam iron, she will always use a Sunbeam, and if a man ever shaves with a Sunbeam Shavemaster, he will always use one. Forest and Louise Marsh were in after a flashlight, spears and tomchawks. Goebel and Irene Armstrong from Independence were over Saturday—Irene was having pressure cooker trouble, but I helped her out. J. C. Reynolds, over on Taylor Mill, bought the largest halter I had for his horse—must be some steed.

Jeanette Madden, her daughter and two sons, were in—she is getting the boys ready for school—new lunch boxes and school bags. Mrs. Conner Littrell bought herself a 1212 Armstrong linoleum rug—she knows Armstrong linoleum lasts longer. Mrs. Russell Littrell bought pots, pans and dishes—they are both very good customers. We just received a shipment of Hopalong Cassidy radios for only $15.95—every boy and girl needs one at this low price. We also have more Hopalong Cassidy lunch boxes with thermos bottles. You can't go wrong when you buy Hopalong!

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cornelius from Piner were shopping—Mrs. Cornelius bought pans and dishes.

Mr. Beck also from Kenton county, near Fiskburg on Morning View Road, who is a very good customer, always buying tools, electric drills, pulleys and belts—today it was mower guards for his Ford tractor. We just received today, a large shipment of Sunbeam products, such as Coffeemasters, Ironmasters, Mixmasters and Shavemasters—you can't go wrong when you buy Sunbeam. We sold out of Zipper note books today, but I have more on the way.

Ray and Lawrence Robinson have been very busy cleaning oil stoves and setting them up also setting up oil and coal stoves for the winter, who have no man to do these jobs. Now is the time to have these done—why wait until October, when we are really busy. Mrs. Besie Mills from Verona bought a beautiful white porcelain coal range—her old one had cooked its last meal. This week has ended terrible—the rain comes every day and nearly all day long (Pardon us, Conrad, for pining up—Ed.) It will surely stop soon. Our tobacco crop will be ruined. Every other customer wants Fong-Sun to burn under his tobacco to stop houseburn and rot in the barn.

Mrs. Walter Hon from Gallatin was in after a door handle for her cabinet. Arthur Gilpin was buying Fong-Sun and trying to trade me out of a shotgun. Stanley Bush, one of our fixit men around town, was in after a door knob. Brewster was a busy man today—he went to Fiskburg and repaired Mrs. Lydia Taylor's oil heater, then to Crittenden and cleaned and regulated Mrs. Kate Noel's oil heater, also fixed her water pump, and also fixed her neighbor's oil heater, then went to Mrs. Dade Adams and got her oil heater ready for winter, then back to Lawrence Wilson's to fix his door lock, then back to the store to repair some electric irons. While he was doing this, Chick sold two rugs to Mrs. Keeney from Riggs Road, Kenton county.

Some linoleum and a coal range, a water heater and boiler, shotgun shells and a food chopper were also sold. Fruit jars went to Mrs. Lunsford and Eva Waters. Chick also repaired two air rifles and one bicycle. Mr. and Mrs. William Plunkett from Independence bought enough hardware cloth to cover the walls of their corn crib to keep the rats out. Elbert Moore brought his oil heater up to be cleaned—if you get these heaters ready for winter, they will not cause any trouble at all season.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rector from Independence are building a new house—a fine old couple—have been married 53 years today—they have been here twice this week, buying water pipe and a coal range. We have the finest lot of customers from five counties—Grant, Boone, Kenton, Gallatin and Pendleton; also a lot of tourists—even up in Canada. Some say if a new highway left this town, it would not hurt, but I can show you they are wrong. Come to CONRAD'S, the Hardware that serves five counties.

"Crusade for Freedom" Explained at Legion Conference, Sunday

Joe Lemmons, Commander, John son-McElroy Post, 277, American Legion, Mrs. Lemmons and Mrs. Anna Hoelscher of the Auxiliary attended the Fall Conference of the Sixth District American Legion and Auxiliary, held at James Wallace Cosigan Post, 11, Newport, Sunday, September 17.

Jacob Swope, Commander, Department of Kentucky; Mrs. Ann Roberts, President, Department of Kentucky Auxiliary, and John Hunnicutt, 5th District Chairman for the Crusade for Freedom, were among the distinguished guests present.

In his talk, Mr. Hunnicutt explained, "The Crusade for Freedom offers every American an opportunity to play a personal part in a great moral crusade for freedom, faith and peace throughout the earth."

Dedicated as a tribute to those who today are giving their lives in the struggle for human freedom, the Freedom Bell will stand as a permanent symbol of the free world's determination to resist Communist aggression.

Inscribed on the rim of the Freedom Bell is this message of hope: "That This World, Under God, Shall Have a New Birth of Freedom."

President Truman said: "I hope that all Americans will join in dedicating themselves to this critical struggle for men's minds."

The quota of signatures for Boone County is 1,300. Let's exceed that quota. When you are asked to join the Crusade for Freedom, sign the scroll and give a small contribution. Help lift the iron curtain everywhere. This is a roll call of all Americans who love freedom. — Aux. Pub. Chm.

American Legion Auxiliary Seeks Million Members

Enrollment of one million women for patriotic service on the home front is the goal of the American Legion Auxiliary in its campaign for members for 1951, now getting under way throughout the nation.

The present membership strength of the Auxiliary is approximately 975,000, a new high record. The organization has almost doubled its strength since the close of World War II, and further large increases in face of the new war threat are predicted.

Opportunity for patriotic service in many friends is open to women of war service families in the American Legion Auxiliary. We need additional workers in our Americanism and national service activities, as well as in our endeavors for disabled veterans, and the widows and children of the dead. There is so much to be done in these critical times that every woman should find a place where she can serve effectively.

Are YOU a member of the American Legion Auxiliary?—Pub. Chm.

RICKELS-SMITH

Mrs. Vestal Smith and Miss Irene Rickels of Covington were united in marriage by Rev. A. K. Johnson, on Friday evening of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hunt. The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hart of Fort Mitchell.

Annual Meeting October 3

The annual meeting of the Boone County Homemakers will be held Tuesday, October 3 at the Baptist Church, Florence, beginning at 10 a. m.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Florence Volunteer Fire Department will be served lunch. Please make your reservations with your local club president.

First Services Held in New Verona Baptist Church, Sun.

The first services in the new building of the New Bethel Baptist Church, Verona, were well attended, Sunday, September 17. The attendance at Sunday school was 109, almost a record attendance.

Everyone in the community, and visitors, are urged to attend Sunday school and worship services. There is ample room for all who will attend, in this new structure. There is to be a Nursery class conducted during Sunday school and worship periods, starting next Sunday.

Bro. Raymond Stewart, pastor, and Joe Rouse, superintendent of the Sunday school, invite all to attend services and bring the whole family. Mr. Rouse said, "We have a place for all in our church."

Plans are being made for the dedication service to be held in the near future.

"Uncle Ezry's Hayloft Jamboree" to Play in Walton, Oct. 23-24

Arrangements have been made by the Walton Parent-Teachers Ass'n for the presentation of the big home talent stage show, "Uncle Ezry's Hayloft Jamboree." It will be given on October 23 and 24 at the school auditorium.

The Hayloft Jamboree is patterned after popular bandance-type programs and uses local amateur talent who impersonate radio celebrities as they compete for ribbons and cash awards. The winners will be selected by the vote of the audience attending the show.

This amateur contest is open to everyone in this town and the surrounding community. There is no age limit, those competing do not have to belong to the sponsoring organization and all types of entertainers are wanted for this big show. If you are a singer, vocalist, tap dancer or jig dancer there is a place for you in this production. If you play any musical instrument such as fiddle, guitar, banjo, mandolin, accordion, harmonica or if you do animal or bird imitations, or if you know anyone who does these things or any other type of specialty act, then contact any one of the ladies following for further information: Mrs. Alberta Hopperton, phone Walton 541X; Mrs. Leo Flynn, Walton 745; Mrs. Clayton Jones, Walton 171; or Mrs. Irene Eickens, Walton 686.

A professional director will arrive a week or two before the production and she will hold tryouts for talent on two different evenings at the school auditorium. Those selected to take part will receive special training in radio and microphone technique from the director. She will also select and train the speaking characters in the show. These include impersonations of Joe Kelly, master of ceremonies for the bandance and Quiz Master of the quiz kids; Lulu Belle, the girl comedian and sweetheart of the bandance; Hiram Hicks, comedy character and Uncle Ezry, the funny old man who gives the jamboree in his hayloft. Also four boys and girls from the fifth and sixth grades will be chosen to impersonate the Quiz Kids on the program.

The setting for the show will be colorful and unique. The stage will be transformed into a typical hay loft by the use of baled straw and hay. Horse collars, pitchforks, lanterns and other barnyard paraphernalia will be used to give a rustic atmosphere. Uncle Ezry's Jamboree has played in towns in every state in the nation and it has met with success wherever it has been staged.

If you are not going to take part, then mark the dates, October 23-24, down where you won't forget them and plan to attend the show both nights as there is a different program each evening.

PILLOW SLIP SOCIAL

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Florence Volunteer Fire Department will sponsor their monthly pillow slip bingo at the Fire Hall tonight (Sept. 21) at 8:00 p. m.

There will be a free coverage game at 8 o'clock and during the evening, two special coverage games will be featured, with attractive prizes. Mrs. Louella Houston, President of the Auxiliary, extends a very special invitation to the people of Boone county to attend.

The Volunteer firemen will be on hand to serve refreshments.

Newest folk artist group to entertain WLW listeners on the 4:45 a. m. EST "Midwestern Roundup" program, Saturdays "Midwestern Hayride" show at 6:30 p. m., and at fairs and personal appearances are Slim King and the Boys. Left to right, the makers of fine folk music are John Ness, Freddie Langdon, Smoky Duvall and Slim King.

WINNERS AT STATE FAIR

Louis and Robert Ewanick, Warsaw, exhibited twelve of their registered Southdown sheep at the Kentucky State Fair in Louisville, last week, and also three Southdown wethers, which won a total of seventeen premiums for them.

In the Open to the World classes they won twelve premiums and the Grand Champion Pen Wether lambs. The boys were interviewed on a WHAS radio program, Monday noon, broadcast from the fair, and a picture of their prize ewe lamb appeared on the front page of the Louisville Times, Thursday.

Competition was keen in most all classes, with flocks from Illinois, Ohio and Indiana competing.

Gov. Clements to Open Campaign at Shelbyville, Tonight

Governor Earle C. Clements will open his campaign for the United States Senate tonight (September 21) at 7:30 p. m., at the courthouse in Shelbyville, according to J. Thaxter Sims, state campaign chairman.

"Shelbyville is centrally located and officials of the city and Shelby County extended us such a cordial invitation that we welcome the opportunity to open our campaign there," Sims said. The Democratic candidate's speech will be broadcast over radio station WHAS and a statewide hookup, Sims reported.

Chairman Sims also announced the appointment of John F. Martin, Waddy, as Shelby County chairman, and Mrs. W. Crawford Baskett, Shelbyville, as woman's chairman for the campaign. They will work with members of the county campaign staff in perfecting arrangements for the campaign opening.

Following the official opening of the Democratic campaign at Shelbyville, Gov. Clements will embark upon a state-wide speaking tour, Mr. Sims stated.

Most of the Kentucky Congressional delegation will be on hand as will Frankfort officialdom.

Real Estate Transfers

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hopkins of Cincinnati, Ohio, have recently purchased the property of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Watson of Alta Vista Drive, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Gabbard sold their farm on Percival Road, to Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Watson.

These transactions were made through Conner-Lusby-Gaines of Walton.

STEWARDSHIP NIGHT

Stewardship Night will be observed at the Walton Baptist Church on Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. This program is a yearly event and is in charge of the young people of the church. Each of the organizations of the W. M. S. will be represented. A cordial invitation is extended to all who wish to attend.

The program will be followed by a social hour.

VERONA vs. CONSTANCE

On Sunday, September 24, the Verona Community Club baseball team plays Constance in the fifth round of play in the KAC elimination series. The game will start at 2:30 p. m., at the Verona park.

Local Pastor Named Moderator of North Bend Baptist Ass'n

The North Bend Association of Baptists, which met at Blue Ash, Ohio, last week in their annual session and which is made up of thirty-three churches located in Kenton and Boone counties, chose as their moderator Rev. Burton C. Garrett, pastor of the Walton Baptist Church, for the year 1950-1951, and also to represent the association at the General Association of Baptists in Kentucky, which has a membership of over half a million members.

During the past year, churches of the North Bend Association had over 793 baptisms, bringing the total membership to 13,748. Gifts to all causes amounted to $494,621.09, making the average gift of each member, $35.97. The total value of property owned by the Baptist churches now amounts to $1,820,940. Enrollment in the Sunday schools, 11,090, with an average attendance of 5,338. During the past year, 31 Vacation Bible schools were operated with an enrollment of 2,306. Twenty-five churches have Training Units, with a membership of 2,229. Eleven churches have Brotherhoods, with a membership of 668.

Each Sunday the Baptist Hour is broadcast over WZLZ at 2:00 p. m. Rev. B. G. Tolpin, pastor of the Southside Baptist Church, was chosen as vice moderator, and W. T. Perry, Latonia Baptist Church, clerk.

The next session will be held at the Union Baptist Church, Union, Ky.

LEE BLACKBURN

Lee Blackburn, 68, of Elliston, Ky., Route 1, passed away at his home September 16, 1950. He was a farmer and a member of the Pleasant View Baptist Church. He was a lifelong resident of the community.

Mr. Blackburn is survived by five sons, Woodrow Blackburn of Washington, C. G. Guilford L. Blackburn of Covington, Warren G. Blackburn of Elliston, Athol Blackburn of Covington, and William Blackburn of Elliston; three daughters, Mrs. Thelma Viola, a Stamper of Crittenden, Christine Blackburn of Fort Dix, N. J., and Janice Blackburn of Rising Sun, Ind.; two sisters, Mrs. P. W. Davidson, Elko, Nev., and Mrs. John Smith, Elliston; one brother, Spencer Blackburn, Mountain City, Nev., and a granddaughter, Linda Stamper.

Funeral services were held at 2:00 p. m., Monday, Sept. 18 at Pleasant View Baptist Church, with Rev. S. Webster and Rev. Simpson officiating. Burial was in the Napoleon I. O. O. F. Cemetery.

Hamilton Funeral Home, Verona, has charge of arrangements.

Don't Forget Legion Picnic at Stockyard Thur., Fri. and Sat.

Don't forget the Legion picnic to be held at the Walton Stockyard grounds this Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. Come on out and give the boys a little support, which will be greatly appreciated.

Cash prizes will be given each night—$25 Thursday night; $50 Friday night, and $100 Saturday night. We also have many different kinds of rides for the kiddies, bingo and country store for the grown-ups, and dancing to the music of Ray Scott and his band from radio station WZLZ, Covington. Music will start promptly at 8:00 p. m.

Come on out and enjoy yourself, and bring the family. Don't forget Thursday, Friday and Saturday, September 21-22-23 at the Stockyard grounds, Walton.

Kenton Utopia Club Meets

The Kenton Utopia Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Woots for their monthly meeting on September 18.

The business of the meeting was discussed, reports were given on the 4-H fair and the Kentucky State Fair. Plans were made to attend the District Utopia meeting on "Farm and Home Financing" to be held in Covington, October 9. At this meeting James Robinson of the U. S. Department of Agriculture will be the visiting discussion leader. Plans were also made for the club to entertain the Crescent Springs Club at Kenton Lakes, September 27.

Those present at the meeting: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hatt, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Works, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Blum, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Chas. C. M. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gall, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Klotenrump, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hietman.

Three Boone County Men In First Draft Scheduled Friday

New Bethel W. M. S. Meets

The New Bethel W. M. S. met at the home of Mrs. J. L. Hamilton. An impressive program observing the Week of Prayer for State Missions was presented by the study chairman, Mrs. Hamilton.

A delicious covered dish luncheon was served, with 17 members and four visitors present.

We urge all the women of the congregation to meet with the W. M. S. and become interested in the wonderful program for Missions.—Pub. Chm.

Trying for "Big Trip"

Eleven Kentucky Farm Bureau Insurance Agents will be selected to attend the "All American" Insurance Conference to be held at Dallas, Texas, December 11-14, in connection with the American Farm Bureau Federation Convention. The winners will get an all-expense trip to the convention and they will be selected on the basis of production in August and September. The delegates will receive recognition before the convention, along with teams from many other states.

The production rules require certain amounts of life, auto, fire and wind insurance and a minimum of Farm Bureau members to be secured by the insurance agent during these two months.

John E. Crigler, Boone County Insurance Agent, is trying for this big trip and that he has made over 50% of the points necessary to qualify. Here's hoping that John will be one of the successful agents in the state contest.

Wayman Auction Coming Up

Ray C. Wayman & Sons, Covington Real Estate Brokers, will make an auction on Saturday, Sept. 30, beginning at 2 p. m., the H. L. Elliott estate, consisting of 109 acres and a 7-room stone home, located 1 mile South of Butler on the old U. S. 50. See details in next week's paper.

Mrs. Landy Young is ill at her home. Those who called Sunday were: Rev. Joe Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Oakley Baker, Mr. and Mrs. George Baker and family of Rising Sun, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Ted McClure of Erlanger and Miss Lois McClure and friend, also of Erlanger.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Dean were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Barton.

The W. M. U. of Paint Lick church met with Mrs. Delver Dean, Thursday.

LITTLE SOUTH FORK

The revival at South Fork Christian Church starts October 1 and will continue through October 15. A definite time has not been set yet. The evangelist will be J. Marion Small, and the song leader will be Maple Stanford. During this two-weeks revival, each church in the near community will have a church night. When your church night comes, be there with a good delegation to represent your church that night. All are invited to attend this revival and help make it a great success.

We are all very sorry to hear that Mrs. Landy Young is ill. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Joe Scudder spent Wednesday nite with Mr. and Mrs. Rea Scudder. Mr. and Mrs. Rea Scudder called on Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baker and daughters, Friday night.

Mrs. Sila Scudder was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Rea Scudder. Shirley Sutton was a Sunday guest. Mr. and Mrs. Milford Boots and son visited relatives in this community, Sunday.

South Taylor Mill

Mrs. Rippenburger entertained her mother, Mrs. J. Hale, and sister-in-law, Mrs. Jimmie Hale, Thursday afternoon.

Miss Margaret Vinson has returned to her home in Covington, after spending the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Vinson on Bowman Road.

Miss Lulu Callen and brother, Elms, were Thursday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Summey.

Joe Richardson, George Fennell, Howard Stafford, John Klein and Lybran Richardson attended the Ky. State Fair in Louisville, Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. Frances Lundragon and Will Montgomery of Cincinnati, and John Meehan motored to Augusta, Ky. Sunday and spent the day with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. William Durr have returned to their home in Independence, following a visit over the weekend with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Klein, and his mother, Mrs. Paul Watson, and Mr. Watson.

Mrs. J. C. Reynolds and Mrs. Wm. Summey were shopping in Covington on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Meyers and little son were the Sunday dinner guests of his father, James A. Meyers and Mrs. Meyers of Erlanger.

Woman's Fellowship Meets

The Christian Woman's Fellowship of the First Christian Church, Walton, met last Thursday for the regular meeting in the church basement, with Mrs. Katie Ransier and Mrs. Alta Chambers as hostesses.

A lovely covered dish dinner was served at noon. The meeting was called to order at 2:00 p. m., with the president, Mrs. Irene Bush, presiding over the business session. Miss Lila Ingram had charge of the program. Rev. Carroll F. Gravelly gave a very interesting talk on Home and Foreign Missions, also on the Crusade for a Christian World. Twenty-five members and guests were present.

The next meeting will be held at the church on October 5th.

SHORT STORY

Perplexing Riddle

By Richard Hill Wilkinson

L. T. JEFF BOYNTON of the Union army's Company E, second regiment, Massachusetts volunteers, wore a look of utter dejection as he entered headquarters tent, nodded wearily to Capt. Finn Lacey and slumped onto a stool. The captain stopped writing, leaned back in his chair, and said:

"She wouldn't talk, eh?"

"No, she wouldn't talk," Boynton answered. He stretched his long legs out in front of him and studied the worn toe of his boot.

"Maybe she's not a spy after all," Lacey hazarded.

Boynton's blue eyes flashed as he jerked up his head. "Yes, she is I'm sure of it."

Lacey shrugged and gestured with his cigar. "If you're so sure, we'll hold a court-martial and—"

"No!" Boynton was on his feet. "Don't do that, sir. We haven't enough evidence to convict. It will mean she'll go free and we'll lose our one chance of stopping the leak. Information is getting through somehow. Alice Struthers is responsible. We must learn her methods."

"How?"

How? That was the question that had driven Lt. Boynton nearly to distraction, had caused him the loss of sleep and wearied his brain from thinking. A single thought, the act on the slimmest of reasons, he had had Alice Struthers arrested, to be held for questioning regarding the leakage of information to Confederate Gen. Johnson.

"You can't hold her forever without a trial, Boynton," the older man pointed out after another week had passed in which the lieutenant had failed completely in his efforts to unearth some grain of evidence. "Miss Struthers is popular among the officers. Some swear they have known her for years and will vouch for her loyalty to the Union."

"Which makes it all the more likely she would succeed as a spy. I happen to know that all of Miss Struthers' maternal ancestors came from Georgia. She herself spent a good part of her girlhood in Savannah."

Idly he fingered a package of letters he had brought in with him. "I'm convinced that in these letters the girl is sending out the information. How, I don't know. Certainly she is using no code. I have checked every letter a dozen times. Purposely I have permitted each to be mailed. Events immediately following convince me that some how those letters are the means of conveying the information."

CAPT. LACEY picked up the letters and read them briefly. They contained nothing to excite suspicion—mere messages of love and devotion to friends in the South.

Lacey suddenly pounded the table. "By George, Boynton, I believe I have it! Obviously something has to be done, and I'm more than half convinced—though heaven knows why—that your suspicions are well founded."

"So?"

"So we'll deport her. Turn her over to the Confederate army. If that stops the leakage we'll know she was the guilty party, and there will no longer be danger of its continuance."

"And it will mean Alice Struthers' complete freedom."

Two days later prisoner Alice Struthers was turned over to Confederate Gen. Johnson under a flag of truce.

But it wasn't until after the war had ended that he found the answer to the riddle. One day while going through his relics of long-ago battles he came upon a letter. It was one that Alice Struthers had written to her friends in the South, and which he had kept for a souvenir.

The paper was yellow, the ink faded. The postage stamp had dried and was hanging by a mere thread. As he looked at it, Lt. Boynton's eyes grew wide. For beneath the stamp were some closely written, finely penned words, obviously the cipher employed by Alice Struthers which he had tried so hard to locate.

"How?"

How? That was the question that had driven Lt. Boynton nearly to distraction, had caused him the loss of sleep and wearied his brain from thinking. A single thought, the act on the slimmest of reasons, he had had Alice Struthers arrested, to be held for questioning regarding the leakage of information to Confederate Gen. Johnson.

Fertilizing Pastures and Crop Land This Fall Will Boost '51 Yields and Profits

Top-Dressing With Plenty of Plant Food Increases Yields of High Quality, Low Cost Forage on Permanent Pastures Not Renovated.

A FOUR-POINT program for adding fertilizer to croplands this fall that will help farmers cut down next spring's work load and give crops a head start, was listed by the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, based on recommendations by Prof. C. J. Chapman, of the soils department of the University of Wisconsin.

Here are the steps Prof. Chapman suggests:

1—For winter wheat or fall-seeded rye, a complete fertilizer should be applied at seeding time. He recommends adding up to 300 pounds per acre of 3-12-12, 4-12-8, 3-9-18, or their equivalent.

2—Permanent pastures that will be renovated this fall should be liberally fertilized before the seedbed is formed up with field cultivator or disk. On silt and clay loam soils, applications of as much as 300 to 400 pounds per acre of 0-20-20, 0-9-27 or 0-10-30 are suggested. Where no renovation is planned, permanent pastures should be top-dressed with a complete fertilizer this fall or a phosphate-potash fertilizer this fall and nitrogen next spring.

3—Fall plowed fields that will be seeded to small grains and legumes next spring can be fertilized this fall and then again next spring. At seeding time, drill in from 100 to 150 pounds per acre of a complete fertilizer in direct contact with seed.

4—On low fertility silt or clay loam fields that will be planted to corn in 1951, high nitrogen fertilizer mixtures such as 8-8-8 or 10-10-10 can be plowed under this fall either with attachments on the plow, or broadcast before plowing and then plowed under. High nitrogen fertilizer should not be plowed under on sandy soils, because there is some danger of losing part of the nitrogen by leaching.

Hogs Build Higher Profits at Lower Cost On Well Fertilized Legume-Grass Pasture

High-Protein Pasture Produces Healthier, Heavier Pigs.

HOGS will build higher profits for you if you give them plenty of fresh, clean legume pasture, reports M. L. Mosher, Illinois College of Agriculture farm management specialist. This practice cuts down grain consumption and also reduces death losses from disease.

Mosher bases his statement on an analysis of income records of 200 Illinois hog farmers over a 10-year period.

The 60 most profitable farms in the group used about one-fourth more pasture and one-fourth more hay than the 60 farms with the smallest profits.

Farms with the most pasture needed 45 less pounds of grain to produce 100 pounds of pork. That was a saving of more than 10 per cent in grain. The amount of supplement was the same on farms with plenty or little pasture.

Mosher reports that on farms with the most pasture, death losses after weaning were 18 per cent smaller, too.

Alfalfa was the most common hog pasture. Other high-protein pastures were red alsike clover, Ladino clover and rye for early spring and late fall.

Getting and maintaining high yielding stands of pasture depends on giving the legumes plenty of nutrients. Agronomists recommend adding phosphate and potash fertilizer to new legume-grass seedings. Top-dressing older established stands with phosphate and potash in the fall will help keep the growth thick and vigorous. Fall-applied fertilizer helps the legumes weather the winter in better condition. Moreover, the plant food is right there ready to be used by the roots when spring growth starts.

Champion Wheat Crop, Thick Legume Stand Come From Good Soil Care Plus Plant Food

GOOD soil management practices including the use of commercial fertilizer, paid off for Charles Doades, who farms near Washington in Davies county, Ind., when he was named 1950 champion of the 10-Acre Wheat Improvement Contest in Northwestern Indiana.

Doades harvested a 45 bushel per acre yield of Vigo wheat from the 10 acres he entered in the contest. At combining time, the field's legume stand was about 12 inches high. Doades plans to plow it for corn next spring.

This year's championship field was seeded last October, at the rate of two bushels per acre. At seeding time, Doades added 650 pounds per acre of 3-12-12 fertilizer. Late in February he top-dressed the field with 30 pounds of nitrogen per acre. The wheat followed soybeans in 1949 and corn in 1948.

Doades is a firm believer in legumes as a soil builder, according to Prof. Howard Lathrop, Purdue University agronomist. He seeded a mixture of seven pounds of sweet clover and five pounds of red clover on the field early in March.

Charles Doades, Left, and Son Robert, Examine Prize-Winning Vigo Wheat.

More than 400 Northwestern Indiana wheat growers competed in the wheat improvement contest this year. Fields were scored on appearance, soil management, culture and yields. County agents and specialists from Purdue University cooperated in the contest.

FOR MANY STATES

Kentucky eggs are going to out-of-state markets in increasing numbers, says the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky. The 487,898 chicken and turkey eggs sent into other states last year brought an estimated $40,000 more to producers than they would have sold for eating purposes. Eggs sold by grade brought three to four cents more than ungraded eggs.

Turkey raising in Kentucky increased about 20 percent last year, according to the college. Poults and hatching eggs were sold in 43 states and five foreign countries. High hatchability and freedom from pullorum disease brought extra demand for Kentucky turkey eggs. Producers reported premiums of 30 to 40 cents an egg.

There's been a great to-do about the Voice of America and the story it tells the rest of the world about these United States.

Sometimes we wish we could afford to support a Voice of Kentucky. It seems that a lot of people have a lot of misconceptions about our State.

The Usual Ones:

We are all familiar with those customary misconceptions about shoeless hillbillies, moonshiners and corn pone. In fact, we've become immune to such fantastic picture painting.

But what gets us upset, is the geographical misunderstanding. It annoys us when, after informing an Easterner that we hail from Covington, to have him insist that we know his friend at Murray, Ky. No amount of explanation will convince him that Murray is about 300 miles away.

The Derby:

We are also annoyed when, on Derby Day, some Yankee from Connecticut will express his surprise at finding us at work in Washington. He's ready to believe we've been expelled from the State. Otherwise, we'll be in Louisville.

We are also dismayed when, in the midst of a winter snowstorm in the Capitol, a friend will sympathize with us.

"Bet you don't get to see much snow down where you come from," is his consoling word.

Our Program:

If we had a Voice of Kentucky at our command, we would open each program with an announcement that hill billy music is not necessarily a product of Kentucky. We would also point out that we in the Blue Grass have a variety of dialects, ranging from the clipped tones of Northern Kentucky to the molasses drawl of the cotton country of the Peninsular.

We'd tell those Doubting Thomases about the snowstorms at home and how at times, the Ohio River will choke with ice. We'd tell about our road-building program and the fine homes found in all parts of the State. And we'd tell—on this Voice of Kentucky—all about our scenic wonders.

Those Wonders:

In describing those natural beauties, we'd emphasize the wonders of Northern Kentucky.

There's nothing to match, for example, the view across the Licking River Valley from Ryland, Ky., in southern Kenton County. Then there's the broad sweep of the Ohio River as seen from Highway 41 in Boone, Gallatin and Carroll Counties. Then, too, there's the vista from Ft. Thomas, overlooking the Buckeye State a mile or so across the water.

We'd also invite our Eastern visitor to stand on top of the hills in Pendleton, Bracken, Oldham and Grant Counties on a spring morning when a mist rises from the green earth.

After all that, we'd hand that visitor a couple of Kentucky history books and let him read about John G. Carlisle of Covington; General George Hodge of Newport; the Battle of Augusta; the pre-historic burial ground at Big Bone, Ky., and a few other things to open the eyes of our visitor.

In short, we'd "learn" him.

Plant Food Added In Fall Boosts Wheat and Hay Production

OHIO agronomists recommend fertilizing wheat and meadow crops this fall with 400 to 600 pounds of plant food per acre. They say this soil treatment will pay for itself in increased wheat yields alone.

What fertilizer to use depends on your crop rotation and the soil's productive level. Where wheat is grown in rotation with alfalfa or other soil-building, nitrogen-fixing legumes, the agronomists recommend fertilizer containing only phosphate and potash. They list grades such as 0-12-12 and 0-20-20.

For less productive soils, the agronomists recommend a complete fertilizer containing nitrogen, phosphate and potash.

makes 70 bushels of corn to the acre, 1,700 pounds of tobacco, and he has 19 acres of alfalfa. He has 60 head of cattle, 10 brood sows and fattens around 25 hogs a year. He has cut his corn acreage from 60 to 30 acres in 10 years. Excellent grass and legume pasture were seen in all his fields, said Farm Agent Stanley Hager.

Forage Yields Upped 500 Per Cent With Lime and Fertilizer

"GET reckless with fertilizer if you want to make the most profit from crop and pasture land," advises Ray Wetherell, Fairfield county, Ohio, dairyman. He says it is cheaper than paying for extra land and labor.

Wetherell practices what he preaches, for he used about 60 tons of fertilizer last year, reports Dr. D. R. Dodd, Ohio State University extension agronomist.

Wetherell has found that it pays to add just as much fertilizer to pasture land as to crop land. By renovating a badly rundown permanent pasture two years ago, he increased production fivefold. On this field he seeded a nurse crop with a mixture of alfalfa, Ladino clover and brome grass. At seeding time he added 400 pounds per acre of 3-12-12. Then at the beginning of the second year he top-dressed with 500 pounds per acre of 0-12-12.

High quality hay and pasture, plus expert grazing management, are key items in the success of Wetherell's dairy farm, says Dr. Dodd. Wetherell figures his 60 Jersey cows will finish the year with a herd average of more than 400 pounds of butter fat.

Wetherell gives his corn crop plenty of fertilizer, too. He plows under 500 pounds per acre of 8-8-8 and then adds 350 pounds of 3-12-12 in the row at planting time. His 4-year rotation includes, corn, small grain and two years of legume-grass crop for hay, grass silage and pasture.

Lack of potash, as shown by soil tests, probably accounts for poor yields of alfalfa in Allen county.

Terraces, diversion ditches and contour farming reduced flood damage in Mason county.

Farmers in Boone county sold their wool crops for a total of $17,049. Many Barren county farmers sowed alfalfa this fall, after having their soils tested.

INDEPENDENCE R 1

We were very glad to have such a goodly number out to Sunday school and church services at Staffordsburg last Sunday. Some faces which used to be there regularly were welcomed back, and we hope to see them back every Sunday, if possible. Come and bring your friends and neighbors. We read in the Advertiser this past week where Staffordsburg and Kenton Sunday schools each had the same number present, which was 66, and they were not having a contest either. We hope both schools will work and pray and keep up the good work and attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney received a very glad and welcome telegram from Houston, Texas, Saturday morning announcing the news of a new granddaughter born to their daughter, Ruth, and husband. They have two sons and of course are very proud of the daughter. We extend congratulations!

We were glad to welcome Rev. Wheary back in our community Saturday afternoon. He said they were very pleased with their new field of work.

Mrs. Chester Rapp and little daughter Judy spent Friday in the city. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hauser of Vevolia attended services at Staffordsburg, and dined with their daughter, Mrs. Nelson Hoffman, and family. We are always very glad to have visitors from our other churches on the charge. All are always welcome!

The young people of Staffordsburg Sunday school are planning a skating party at Walton, Friday evening at 8 p. m. They have extended a special invitation to the entire school so all that can attend, try to be present. I am sure they will have a pleasant evening.

Several of the neighbors of our community attended the State Fair in Louisville, last Thursday.

Among those who attended the fair were Howard Stafford, Lybran Richardson, Joe Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dorsey and others.

The W. S. C. S. of Staffordsburg Church are planning to entertain the Trinity society of Covington on Wednesday, Oct. 4 for an all-day meeting. All of the women of the church and entire community are invited to be with us. Lunch will be served in the basement of the church. The meeting will begin at 10:30. Anyone welcome—try to attend and enjoy a good day's worship with us!

The Telephone Company Announces

Last week the telephone company completed construction of a pole line to Donaldson Highway and installed telephones for Boone County citizens in that area.

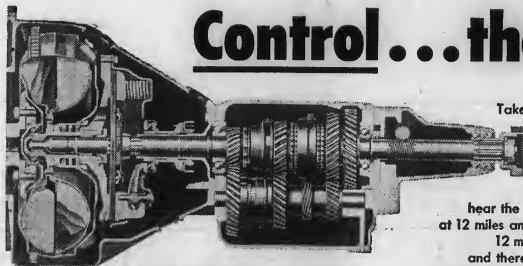

Most of the people living on Donaldson Highway are relatively new-comers to Boone County. Telephone service in this locality should bring these neighbors closer to the other residents of the county.

Let's make these fine people living near the county line BOONE COUNTY CONSCIOUS!

Watch this space in future issues for additional information regarding further improvements to your telephone system.

Nicholson-Atwood Homemakers

Mrs. John Cain, west of Independence, was installed as president of the Nicholson-Atwood Homemakers Club at the September meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Cooke near Atwood. Other newly-elected officers are: Mrs. J. C. Mayhugh, Jr., vice president; Mrs. Ruben Hilsdale, Secretary-Treasurer; Mrs. John L. Butler, program chairman; Mrs. Alfred B. Hymer and Mrs. Orlie Young, exterior beautification chairman; Mrs. Clifford Cornelius and Mrs. Raymond Dickson, publicity chairman; and Mrs. Mayhugh, citizenship chairman.

Response to roll call was, "The most enjoyable day I had during the summer." A quiz on parliamentary procedure was conducted by Mrs. J. R. Loomis.

Miss Zelma Byerly, Kenton County Home Demonstration Agent, and her assistant, Miss Catherine Knarr of Missouri, joined the 18 members who attended the meeting.

Bible Study at Banklick

Studying the Bible, "From Pulpit to Pew," will begin in October at the New Banklick Baptist Church. According to the pastor, S. Webster, Special emphasis (with brief weekly comments) will be on the life of Christ. Each member will be urged to read at least a chapter a day.

Robert K. Durr

Robert K. Durr, former Kenton County deputy sheriff, died at his residence in Independence, last Tuesday (Sept. 12). He was 63 years old. Funeral services were held at the Swindler funeral home, Independence, last Thursday. Requiem High Mass was sung at St. Cecilia Church, Independence.

Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Julia Durr; two brothers, James and Walker Durr, both of Piner, and two sisters, Mrs. Steve Elch, Piner, and Mrs. Harry Murphy, Covington. Burial was in St. Mary Cemetery, Fort Mitchell.

Homecoming September 24

In the last monthly business meeting it was agreed to have the annual homecoming the last Sunday in September (the 24th). The program of the day will consist of basket dinner after the morning worship service, good fellowship and get acquainted period, followed by helpful message by a guest speaker in the early afternoon. The W. M. S. is the committee on flowers and table arrangements. The members are urged to include in their well-filled baskets, their own table service.

Homecoming at the Independence Baptist Church is also the day when all with willing hearts make a special contribution to the Parsonage Fund.

Visitors are always welcome and urged to come again. The Independence Baptists will be looking for you!

Attend Church at Florence

Mr. and Mrs. James Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cain, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde McVey, Mr. and Mrs. C. Armstrong and Rev. W. E. Maners and wife visited the Florence Baptist Church last Sunday afternoon. This group from the Independence Baptist Church was looking over the new improvements for Sunday school purposes. The architect from the Sunday School Board suggested that the Independence church see the remodeling at Florence, since the two buildings were nearly alike. By some changes of the Independence church, the architect has assured the membership that from 250 to 270 people could be seated for Sunday school and church purposes.

Baptismal Services

Rev. Roy Johnson was baptizing at Florence, last Sunday afternoon, and Rev. Lepard had a baptizing in the evening. Rev. Osborn of the Hickory Grove Baptist Church baptized at Independence, last Sunday afternoon, and W. E. Maners closed the Sunday evening service with baptism.

Married at Banklick

Lon Webster, Jr., of Independence, and Miss Mary Sue Pettit of Covington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pettit, were married in the New Banklick Baptist Church, last Saturday afternoon by Rev. S. Webster.

Plan Church Addition

The Christian Church of Independence is planning to build an addition onto the church. A photograph from one of the daily papers was out Sunday and took Mike Wagner's picture, one of the leading members, with a shovel full of dirt from the foundation.

Skating Party, Saturday

The young people's choir of the Independence Baptist Church are going to the Rollerdom at Erlanger, Saturday night. Chaperones are Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Armstrong.

Twelve to Be Inducted Sept. 29

Another call for men from Kenton County and 12 men will be inducted into the armed forces Sept. 29, according to Miss Alice Callen, Clerk of the Kenton County Draft Board, Covington.

Marriage License Issued

James Ohio Brown, 19, of Norwood, Ohio, and Miss Constance Petty, 17, of Banklick Road, Independence, procured a marriage license at the Independence Courthouse and were married at the Independence Baptist Church last Friday at 6:00 p. m. with Richard Brown, brother of the groom, and Miss Ellen Fettle, serving as attendants, in a beautiful double-ring ceremony. Miss June Elam of Horsebranch Road was the pianist, and John Houston of Wilson Road was soloist. Forty or fifty relatives and friends were present. W. E. Maners performed the ceremony.

Attend Association

The following attended the North Bend Association of Baptists meeting, last week, held at Blue Ash, O. Rev. S. Webster, Banklick; Rev. W. E. Maners and wife, Mrs. Mary Collins, Independence; Rev. Claude Mason, Sam Black, Calvin Perry and Walter Perry, Oak Ridge.

Personal

Mrs. Arthur O'Neal returned home last Friday from the hospital where for a few days, she remained for X-rays and observation.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dorsey and Mr. and Mrs. Alf B. Hymer attended the Carthage Fair, last week.

Rev. E. W. Simpson and Rev. S. Webster conducted the funeral of Lee Blackburn last Monday at the Pleasant View church, near Zion Station. Mr. Blackburn died Saturday.

Tom Easton and wife, Rev. L. M. Herbert and family, Hugo Afterkirk and family and Rev. S. Webster attended a homecoming service at the Pleasant View church last Sunday afternoon.

Mike Wagner, local constable, is on the war-path concerning drivers of cars not staping for the school buses.

Harold Stevens, retired Plant Pathologist for the State of Florida, visited relatives, Mrs. Edna Kenady, Mrs. William Damon and Mrs. Harry Rubie, recently.

Piner Homemakers Meet

The Piner Homemakers' Club held its first meeting of the year in the home of Mrs. Chester Mullins, with Mrs. Fred McMillan as co-hostess.

The meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. Wm. Wolterman. Members read in unison the Club Collect. Roll call was answered with "an unforgettable day of my vacation." After business session and a report of committee chairmen, a report of food preservation was made. The club reported: Fruit and vegetables frozen, 1,097 lbs.; meat frozen, 3,460 lbs.; vegetables canned, 2,215 quarts, and meat canned, 34 quarts.

Announcements and suggestions were made by Miss Zelma Byerly, Home Demonstration Agent. Discussion of sending a delegate to the Farm and Home Week was held, with selection of delegate to be made and reported at the next meeting.

Meeting was adjourned for lunch. After lunch the meeting was turned over to the program chairman, Mrs. Willard Shropshire. After singing the Homemakers Song, the Kentucky Homemakers creed was read. The thought for the month was given by Mrs. Shropshire, who also held a quiz on parliamentary law.

The lesson on Exterior Beautification, pertaining to lawns and shrubs was given by Mrs. Carl Justice. After recreational period, the meeting was adjourned to meet at the home of Mrs. Willard Benson in October.

Those present were: Mrs. Malcolm Oliver, Mrs. Chas. Flynn, Mrs. Artie Tungate, Mrs. Carl Justice, Mrs. Owen Flynn, Mrs. Willard Benson, Mrs. William Wolterman, Mrs. Foster Bridges, Mrs. Marion Collins, Jr., Mrs. W. R. Brown, Mrs. O. Fisk, Mrs. E. H. Spaulding, Mrs. Fred McMillan, Mrs. C. C. Gross, Mrs. R. W. Elliott, Mrs. Ray Linder, Mrs. Willard Shropshire, Mrs. A. Pelezzari, Mrs. Chester Mullins, Mrs. D. Fisk, Mrs. J. Dwyer. New members were Mrs. Marion Martin, Mrs. Ralph Kinsman and Mrs. Marion Collins. Guests were: Mrs. Ralph Spaulding, Mrs. W. W. Harker, Miss Zelma E. Byerly and Miss Catherine Knarr.

Ryland Homemakers Meet

The Ryland Homemakers met at the home of Mrs. John Murchison, with Mrs. William Dickman as co-hostess, for their first meeting of the season.

Mrs. William Darnon, president, opened the meeting and welcomed new members. Major projects, "Short Cuts to Home Work" and "What Women Should Know About Business," will be under the local supervision of Mrs. Nathan Leach, Mrs. Frank Hermes, Mrs. Shelby Martin and Mrs. John Murchison.

Mrs. William Dickman outlined the program for the coming months and urged all members to make every effort to use each bit of information given them and in that way give their support to our government. Mrs. Anna Bagby advised the planting of evergreens and lawn grass and the preparing of plants for winter.

Mrs. O. J. Williams pointed out the need for reading as a relaxation and means of keeping informed as to world affairs. Mrs. Nathan Leach and Mrs. Harry Rubbe were made assistants to Mrs. Wm. Dickman, Recreation Chairman.

Members who responded to roll call were: Mrs. Anna Bagby, Mrs. Oliver Gee, Mrs. O. J. Williams, Mrs. Frank Hermes, Mrs. Nathan Leach, Mrs. Harry Rubbe, Mrs. Shelby Martin, Mrs. Wm. Darnon, Mrs. John Murchison, and Mrs. Wm. Dickman. The meeting in October will be held at 44 Barrington Road, with Mrs. Shelby Martin.

Uncle Sam Says

More of my young nieces and nephews will be in school this fall than ever before. One of the important lessons they will learn is that America is a free country with Liberty for all. They will also learn that there are two forms of Liberty—political and financial—and that one of the best ways of preserving these is to purchase U. S. Savings Stamps through their School Savings program. Parents are now realizing that the early teaching of the habit of thrift will bring dividends of success in later years.

Oak Island Homemakers

The Oak Island Homemakers met July 11, with the following members present: Mrs. Jesse Barberick, Mrs. Cecil Northcutt, Mrs. Claude Taylor, Mrs. Albert Rector, Mrs. Albert Martin, Mrs. Walter Linville, Miss Alma Stephens, Miss Ruth Schmidt, Miss Olen Douglas and Miss Neil Nelhoff. We were glad to welcome four new members: Mrs. Frank Jackson, Mrs. John Points, Mrs. Ernest Rosenstiel and Mrs. Robert Walmscott.

Our officers for the year were installed at this meeting: President, Miss Alma Stephens; Vice President, Mrs. Claude Taylor, and Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Russell Rector. Our committee chairmen are: Program, Mrs. Cecil Northcutt; Reading, Mrs. Walter Linville; Citizenship, Mrs. Jesse Barberick; Publicity, Mrs. Frank Lipscomb.

Our leaders and projects for the year are: Legal Affairs, Mrs. Barberick and Mrs. Rector; Labor Savers, Mrs. Martin and Miss Schmidt; Sewing Machine Attachments, Mrs. Northcutt and Mrs. Linville.

Our Reading Chairman has asked us to read the Book of Proverbs before our October meeting. This is an assignment we will all enjoy, for what can be more profitable to us than reading our Bible. The key word of the Book of Proverbs is Wisdom. As we read this book we see that the manner of teaching is usually by contrast. The words of wisdom are contrasted with the words of folly. Proverbs also furnishes us the highest maxims for moral living. It shows the results of immoral living.

Let's try to make our October meeting a 100% one. All our members were present this meeting but two.—Pub. Chm.

Happy Helpers Entertained

The Happy Helpers class of the Walton Methodist Church was entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Simpson, on Tuesday evening, September 12.

Clifford Pruett directed the business session, and the devotional was given by Rev. G. W. Hoffman. The guest speaker for the evening, Rev. G. B. Traynor, was unable to be in attendance, due to his recent move to Newport.

The host and hostess, assisted by Mrs. Mayme Simpson, served a delicious desert course of raspberry roll ice cream and blackberry and coconut cake and coffee, for Mr. and Mrs. Scott Lancaster, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Welsh, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Pruett, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Carlisle, Mrs. Howard Stephenson, Mrs. Herman Newton, Mrs. Livonia Ellett, Mrs. J. T. Wilmington Missionary Meet

The Woman's Missionary society of the Wilmington Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. F. E. Elliott at Latonia Lakes for the September meeting. Mrs. N. B. Spegal, president, presided.

Mrs. Malcolm Oliver was in charge of the devotional period. After a song and scripture reading, prayer was offered by Mrs. Neval Spegal. Sixteen members answered roll call with Scripture references. Fifty-one cards were reported sent and thirty visits made to the sick.

The society voted to send a CAREE package to a needy family in Germany. Three packages of clothing were reported sent to the Onondia Institute of Kentucky.

Several members participated in the Royal Service program, with Mrs. Christine Oliver, leader.

A delicious lunch was served, after which the Week of Prayer program was given, conducted by Mrs.

B. N. Spegal, with other members taking part.

Those present were Mrs. Frances Gross, Mrs. Lucy Belghe, Mrs. Myrtle Bell, Mrs. Blanche Harker, Mrs. Agnes McMillan, Mrs. Lillian Bridges, Mrs. Wilma Collins, Mrs. Edna Flynn, Mrs. Ada Spegal, Mrs. Mary Elliott, Mrs. Hazel Kidwell, Mrs. Christine Oliver, Mrs. Naomi Spegal, Mrs. Hazel Spaulding, Mrs. Ruby Linder, Mrs. Blanche Elliott and four children.—Pub. Mrs. R. E. Tanner entertained with a dinner party Monday evening of last week in honor of Mr. Tanner's birthday. Guests enjoying the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Carpenter, R. E. Tanner and the hostess. We all wish Mr. Tanner many happy returns of the day.

The P. J. Allens were calling on her cousin, Mrs. Oma Riley, Saturday.

Miss Stella Carpenter and brother, Ezra, were guests of relatives here Sunday. Mrs. Charles Carpenter, who has been confined to her home with an attack of asthma, is much improved. Court Hollis and family and others from here attended the State Fair in Louisville, during the past week. Miss Ruth Eastman of Burlington was the charming hostess to a number of friends and relatives with a shower Friday evening in honor of Miss Mary Jane Utz, bride-elect.

Mrs. Marie Kinman has recovered from a recent illness and departed for New York, Sunday. Mrs. Kinman, who has been employed by the John R. Coppin Co., Covington, for a number of years, is now serving the store in the capacity of buyer for the company.

Mrs. Al Becker entertained very graciously with a surprise miscellaneous shower at her lovely home Wednesday evening of last week honoring Miss Mary Jane Utz, in view of her approaching marriage. Many useful and beautiful gifts were received by the bride-elect. Delightful refreshments were dispensed, consisting of sandwiches, cake and punch. Attending were Mesdames Floyd Roberts, Frances Benkshire, G. B. Foscoe, Joe Melman, Fanny Scott, Alma Riley, Albert Kemper of Edgewood, C. F. Blankenbaker, Stanley Lucas, Wm. Markesbery, Lloyd Rouse, Ella Weaver, Hattie Owens, Charles Rouse, Louis Houston, Chas. Rieheman, Erlanger, Tom Utz, Jane Utz, Helen Smyth, Misses Jane Scott, Mary Jane Utz, Betty Becker and the hostess.

We had 78 at Sunday school Sunday and our goal for next Sunday is 90. Come and bring someone with you. If our bus pass your home and you are not attending some Sunday school, our driver will gladly stop for you. Our motto is "Bring Them In." As Missionary Baptists it is our duty and our privilege to go out and bring others into God's House that they may hear His word and learn more about Him.

We are establishing a library at our church, to place good reading in the hands of our young people. We hope to have it in use by Friday evening, Sept. 22.

Remember our Sunday school each Sunday at 10 a. m., Walter Soden, Superintendent; preaching services each Sunday at 11 a. m. and 8:15 p. m., Rev. Frank Lipscomb, Pastor; prayer meeting each Wednesday at 8:15 p. m.; Training Union each Friday evening at 8:15. At the close of our Training Union each Friday evening, we have a Season of Prayer. Mrs. Frank Lipscomb, leader.

Our library will be open each Sunday, 9:15 to 10:00 a. m., each Wednesday and Friday, 7:30 to 8:30 p. m. to let books out and to have them returned. Mrs. James Hlatt is librarian.

Come and worship with us at each service!

Birthday Dinner at Glencoe

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Masters, who live on the Jack Woodie farm near Glencoe, entertained with a dinner Sunday, it being Mrs. Masters' birthday.

Sodens Surprised Thursday

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Praithier of Alta Vista Drive, entertained at dinner on Thursday evening for Rev. and Mrs. B. C. Garrett and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Soden and daughter.

After a delicious dinner, the Young Adult B. T. U. members arrived, bringing gifts for Mr. and Mrs. Soden or Harold and Sally, as they are known by their many friends here. This was a surprise to them, and after an enjoyable social time together, home-made ice cream and cake were served to the following:

Rev. and Mrs. Burton C. Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Soden and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Lebus Stephenson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Allen and sons, Mrs. Gloria Pennington and son, Mrs. Helen Chance and daughter, Mrs. Dora Pennington and son, Wayne Rice, Carl Hughes and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Praithier, and sons.

Harold and Sally have now gone home back to Dallas, Texas, where Harold is studying for the ministry. We wish for them a glorious life together in the work they have chosen.

World Evangelist

Lesson for September 24, 1950

IT IS not only the ignorant and the prejudiced who claim that Protestant Christianity did not start till the 17th Century. Even Protestants can make this mistake. The real founder of Protestantism is Saint Paul. What a quirk, still less a heresy; they are simply Christianity according to Saint Paul. If for no other reason Paul is one of the most important figures in Christian history, perhaps in all history.

The World is My Parish
THERE is another reason why Paul is important. It is not too much to say that if it had not been for him, there never would have been any Christianity, as a world-religion. It would have died as a Jewish sect.

What the history of the world would have been in that case, God only knows. But although our so-called Christian era is still not exactly Christian, it is vastly different from what it would have been if Christianity had been no more (say) than Essenism, a word you would have to look up in the encyclopedia, an antique and forgotten sect.

To many unnamed Christians, but to Paul more than any other one person, we owe the fact that ours is a religion with a world-outlook.

First Great Missionary

PAUL was not a typical Christian any more than George Washington was a typical American. To this day, missionaries can hardly be called typical Christians. They are far too few and their quality is far too high, to stand for the "average" Christian—who in fact does not even understand missionaries, as a rule. Nevertheless, the missionary now as in Paul's time is the burning-point of Christianity, the front-line patrol, the cutting edge. . . . What made Paul a missionary makes missionaries today. One thing was his vital experience of Christ. Jesus, for Paul, was not somebody he had read about in a book, he was not a statue on an altar or a picture in a museum, he was not a definition in a catechism. Jesus was Some One he had met on the Damascus Road. Second, Paul loved people, all kinds of people. (After his conversion, not before!) He could see in the most pitiful little moron of a slave-girl, the meaneast jailer, a sister or brother for whom Christ died, as he put it. Nowadays you sometimes hear church people saying about others outside the church, "They're not our kind. They wouldn't make good Presbyterians (or Baptists or what ever the speaker's church may be)." It never occurred to Paul that anybody would not make a good Christian, if only Jesus Christ got hold of him.

Furthermore, Paul had a world-horizon. There are hole-and-corner Christians and there are world-Christians. Paul was a world-Christian. He "thought big." To this day, the wide-horizon, big-thinking Christians are either out there on the mission field, somewhere, or they are supporting missions with all their might.

Bibles Across the Sea

THERE is one thing which you, reader of these lines, can do right now, if you have some of this world-vision. This week, today, you can help in a great missionary enterprise which is not confined to any denomination.

Over in Japan, General MacArthur says, Christianity and the Bible are the dykes holding up the flood of Communism. Dr. Shiro Murata, a Japanese Christian, also says: "The eyes of Japan are fixed on two books. One is Dr. Karl Marx. The other is the Holy Bible. Japan is at the crossroads."

A campaign is being conducted this year to send to Japan five million Bibles and Testaments. The Japanese can read; they have the largest non-Christian population in the world reading one language. Through your local church, or even by yourself, you can contribute to this great undertaking to bring the Bible to people sorely needing it.

THE ROAD THAT LEADS NOWHERE

The road pictured below bears the time-worn marks of many travellers. Apparently it leads to some distant village or serves perhaps as a link between more vital thoroughfares.

But in reality this road does neither. Once, no doubt, it had a destination, but today it fades away into the woods a few miles beyond—a "dead end."

How many lives are like this road? They have promising beginnings, but instead of continuing to worthwhile goals, they wander aimlessly to final dead ends.

The Church teaches us to build useful lives and guides us toward noble achievements and ambitions. Regular attendance at church services gives greater assurance that our pathway of life will not lead us astray. On the contrary, it leads straight to the house of the peaceful mind and the contented heart.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) Which needs his moral and spiritual support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Christian Revival To Close Sunday; Attendance Good

Revival services will continue at the First Christian Church, Walton, through Sunday evening, October 1. Attendance has been fine in every way, with visiting delegates from surrounding Christian, Methodist, Baptist and Presbyterian churches. Ellis Frakes, Music Director for the Runyan Memorial Christian Church, has won the hearts of the entire congregation as well as the choir, with his beautiful solos each evening and his inspirational leading of the singing. If you have not heard him sing, come to the remaining services and hear the Gospel Message as he sings it.

James Spencer, organist, and Mrs.atherine Simpson, pianist, have added much to the congregational singing with their playing. Rev. Gravelly has brought deeply moving spiritual messages from the heart of the Gospel, feeding us spiritually each evening and challenging those "without Christ" to accept Him and follow His way of life. Thursday evening's sermon will be, "His Soul Goes Marching On." This message will have as its theme "The Immortality of the Saved Soul." What happens to us at death? If a man die, shall he live again? What about the Resurrection and its influence upon our own living today? Then on Friday evening, the youth will be the guests of the service and will occupy the choir loft. The sermon will be, "Why Not Try Christ's Way?" We have tried every other formula, why not try God's way of doing things in this life?

Sunday, October 1, will bring to a close the revival services with two great and outstanding services of worship planned. The morning service will see the observance of World Wide Communion. First Christian joins with all Protestant churches around the world in coming to the Lord's Table on this day. The choir will wear their new robes for the first time and will sing Malet's arrangement of "The Lord's Prayer." The morning sermon will be, "The Light of the World—Now!" In the evening at 8:00 there will be a Candlelight Baptismal and Communion for all new members who will be received into church membership at that time.

Following the morning church service, there will be a covered dish Victory Dinner in the church dining room, with special recognition to invited guests. First Christian church marches forward under the banner of Christ to do its share in Christianizing the community and the world for the cause of Christ and His Kingdom. —Pub. Chm.

Real Estate Transfers

Conner-Lusby announces the following real estate transfers: George Lucas sold his home in South Walton to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Midman of Florence. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steinhilber sold their property on South Main Street to George Lucas. Mr. and Mrs. James R. Gross sold their property on High Street to Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Medley of Latonia.

Fidelis Class to Meet

The Fidelis Class of the Walton Baptist Church will meet Thursday at 8:00 p. m. in the church. All of the members are urged to be present.

TEN MEN FROM BOONE

Selective Service Board, 27, Warsaw, Ky., has received a call for 16 men for induction into the armed forces on October 1. It was announced last week by Mrs. Nell Smith, Clerk of the Board. These men are from the Boone-Gallatin-Owen area, ten men from Boone, four from Owen and two from Gallatin County. Ordered to report for induction from this county were: James H. Varner, Walton; Oscar Lee Johnson, Walton; Wendell H. Jones, Burlington; Donald R. Ransom, Walton; Don F. Kincaid, Burlington; Gaines L. Robinson, Jr., Walton; William J. Mahan, Constantine; Ervin J. Fahn, Florence; Francis E. Ryan, Walton; and Edward R. Knox, Union.

Ordered to report for induction from this county were: James H. Varner, Walton; Oscar Lee Johnson, Walton; Wendell H. Jones, Burlington; Donald R. Ransom, Walton; Don F. Kincaid, Burlington; Gaines L. Robinson, Jr., Walton; William J. Mahan, Constantine; Ervin J. Fahn, Florence; Francis E. Ryan, Walton; and Edward R. Knox, Union.

Walton Woman's Club to Meet

The Walton Woman's Literary Club will meet October 4 in the home of Mrs. Clayton Jones on North Main Street. Roll call is to be answered by naming a perennial flower. The club will have a large apple and fruit farm in the Crescent Springs section, won four prizes in the plate classes of the apple exhibit at the Kentucky State Fair in Louisville, Sept. 11-15. They won first on their place of Cortland, second on Macintosh, second on Red Jonathan, and third on Starking.

Mr. Armstrong stated, "The fact that the Westerners won four ribbons on the five plates entered, speaks well for their apples and for the care expended in selecting them." The Westerner orchard, as well as that of Robert Scott and George and Joe Eubanks, in the Crescent area, and Bryant Armstrong and H. Works in the Independence section, are producing high quality fruit because they follow a complete orchard spray program and orchard management practices.

Y-Teen and Hi-Y Installation

A joint installation of the Y-Teen and Hi-Y Club officers of Simon Kenton High School will be held in the school auditorium at 7:30, Thursday evening, September 28. Parents and friends are cordially invited to attend the meeting.

Homemakers Pledge Support In Crusade For Freedom

In recognition of their duties as good U. S. citizens, all members present at the Oak Ridge Homemakers' Club meeting Sept. 19, in the home of Miss Mabel Mardis, Taylor Mill Road, pledged their full support in the Crusade for Freedom movement, when the drive gets under way Sept. 24.

Mrs. Russell Yates, past president, installed the following new officers: Mrs. Eugene Tomlin, Program Chairman; Mrs. A. G. Bowling, Citizenship Chairman; Mrs. E. C. Harris, Membership Chairman; Mrs. Ralph Lawless, Publicity Chairman, and Mrs. Johnnie Piper, Secretary and Treasurer. Retiring officers are Mrs. Ed Piper, President, and Mrs. E. C. Harris, Vice President.

"Stop Home Accidents," said Mrs. A. G. Bowling, citizenship chairman, by using every precaution, such as taking time to clean up any food or liquid spilled on the floor, which may prevent a bad fall, and by turning the handles of cooking utensils toward the back of the range so as to save a small child from painful burns. She added that sprayed electric cords and fire hazards should be replaced with new ones, upon its discovery. These and many more dangers in the home today go unnoticed, giving cause for statistics to show that one-third of all accidents occur in the home.

The following food preservation reports were compiled: Thirteen pressure cookers and two home freezers have been used in canning 963 quarts of fruit and vegetables, and storing 440 lbs. of frozen vegetables, and 352 lbs. of meat.

September is an important month to the homemaker who wishes to contribute, as given by Mrs. A. G. Bowling. Landscaping can be carried out in the Home Management Class For Kenton Homemakers Held

Forty-two leaders in the Kenton County Homemakers' Association attended the home management class conducted by Miss Ida C. Hagmen, specialist from the College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky, at the Federal Bldg., Covington, Tuesday. The subject for study was, "Your Future Security." Information on property rights was given and included information on how property decedents by law and by will in Kentucky. The lesson was planned to stimulate interest of families in arranging their affairs so that they may be settled fairly and easily. Miss Hagmen urged every family to establish a friendly relationship with the family lawyer so that he can be of most help when needed.

Leaders attending were: Mesdames J. E. Dickerson, Roy Steinfert, J. C. Mayhugh, R. C. Durr, H. L. Clark G. Schader, Chas. Yeagle, Geo. Beut-ly, Homer Wallace, C. Campbell, S. Maely, M. K. Madden, W. I. Black, D. Taylor, E. Smith, Mitchell, R. Vinson, Thos. Elliott, L. Shevalier, I. C. Widmeyer, P. Brown, R. Berkshire E. Seissinger, J. C. Reynolds, C. C. Tomlin, F. A. Burris, E. W. Egbers, Dewey Fisk, J. Murchison, S. Martin, Herman Dressel, F. P. Ringenbach, J. C. Beall, J. A. Keeney, L. J. Jacobs, A. W. Bachman, Geo. Hastings, Aubrey Walters, and Misses Alma Stephens, Zelma E. Byerly, home agent, and Catherine Knarr, assistant home agent.

Cemetery Board Officers

A meeting of the Goshen Cemetery Board, held recently and officers for the coming year were elected as follows:

Steve Rich, President; Oatney Worthington, Harry Johnson and William Justice, Sr., Committeemen; Mrs. Florence Cupp, Treasurer, and Mrs. Ruth Worthington, Secretary. There will be a meeting Sunday, October 1, immediately after church services—12:30. All those who have loved ones or an interest in the Goshen Cemetery, are asked to attend. Your help and contributions are needed for this worthy cause. All who wish to contribute, send money to Mrs. Florence Cupp, Treasurer, or Mrs. Ruth Worthington, Secretary, Morning View, Ky.

RECENTLY WED

Miss Edna Risner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Blamer of Verona, was recently married to Mr. Winston Glenn Beach of Folsom, at the home of the bride's parents, with Rev. Frank Lipscomb officiating.

After a brief honeymoon in the Smoky Mountains, the couple is now residing with the groom's parents at Folsom, where Mr. Beach is farming with his father. Edna formerly attended Walton-Verona High School and was a member of this year's Senior Class.

Literary Club Picnic-Meeting

Mrs. W. D. Scroggins entertained the Walton Woman's Literary Club for the September at Verona Lakes. It was an ideal place for a picnic, with a beautiful grove overlooking the lake. The weather was perfect, the food delicious—everything conducive for a delightful day. The event brought together most of the club women and eight guests. After the business session, Mrs. Mercedes Lawrence, the guest speaker, was enjoyed by all. She pointed out a number of necessary courtesies as related to club life, after which a quiz contest was given on the many suggestions she brought the group. We are very proud to announce Miss Jean Chambers winner.

Program Includes Homecoming

Dedication services at the new building of the New Bethel Baptist Church, Verona, are to be held on Sunday, October 29, 1950. The program will include a homecoming, an all-day meeting with an old-fashioned basket dinner, and the dedication services in the afternoon. The program is being carefully planned and will be published at a later date. Please keep this date (Oct. 29) in mind and plan to attend these services.

According to Joe Rouse, all men of the community are asked to be at the church on Saturday, October 7, to help clean up and landscape the grounds. Mr. Rouse said, "We want to dig a drain and sink a cesspool, and clean out a fence row in back of the church. There are many who have expressed their desire to help on the church, and we feel that most of the fall work will be rounded up by this time, so come and bring your tools—pick, shovel, hoe, rake, etc., and help do the final cleaning job. All women will fix a lunch for all who will join in the work. Come early and let's get the job done."

Staffordsburg Homemakers

In observance of the "Crusade for Freedom," program members of the Staffordsburg Homemakers' Club will make a United Nations Flag. Committee chairman for the new year were appointed at the September meeting at the home of Mrs. Geo. Kiehl Bowman Road, Mt. Chester. Hill presided at the business session. Mrs. Denver Binder, program chairman, presided at the afternoon session. Mrs. J. A. Keeney, reading chairman, gave a brief review on "Why I Believe in God," by A. J. Cronin. Mrs. William Binder gave the poem, "Day is Done."

Present members and the following guests were in attendance: Emil Nehring, Mrs. Ella Tallefero, Joan Henry and Jerry Binder. Miss Zelma Byerly, Home Agent, and her assistant, Miss Catherine Knarr, were also present.

Mrs. John Beall, retiring citizenship chairman, was absent from the meeting. She sailed from New York on the S. Washington the first of August for the European tour, which took her into eleven countries. Mrs. Beall will sail from Paris, France the latter part of this month and expect to be back with the club for the October meeting. Mrs. Roy Payne will be hostess to the October meeting at her home on Staffordsburg Road.

Kenton County Police Report

On August Activities
Kenton County police answered 151 calls in August, exclusive of investigating 51 trouble calls and making 41 miscellaneous reports, according to the monthly report submitted recently by Carl Mershon, County Police Chief, at a meeting of the Kenton County Fiscal Court at Independence.

According to the report, County Police investigated 48 auto accidents in which two persons were injured fatally and 13 were hurt.
The County Patrol car logged 10,282 miles during August, according to Chief Mershon.

Visiting Relatives

Mrs. Carl Turner, sister of Mrs. Frank Cox, of Independence, and her husband from Monrovia, Calif., recently spent a week or ten days visiting relatives here and at Dry Ridge.

Forewell Party

The young people's choir of the Independence Baptist Church and other friends, after rehearsal last Thursday night, went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Carter on Polly Pike, to surprise their son, Carroll, 23, who answered the call to the service the following morning. The young folk presented Carroll with a useful and beautiful shaving set. Games, music and good fellowship and refreshments were enjoyed by all. Those present were Betty Warren, Georgia Rust, Alma, Joyce and Bobbie Williams, David, Virgil and Rev. W. E. Maners, June and Dicky Elam, Joyce Armstrong, Betty Sue Stephenson, June Stephens, Yvonne Cooper, Franklin Phillips, John Margaret and Mary Houston, May Wayman, Tommy Barnett, Wanda McVey and Edna Hutton.

Med Dog Score

After an examination of a dog that bit two persons last Wednesday South of Independence, on Harris and Shaw Pikes, showed positive traces of rabies, according to Dr. H. C. White, Kenton County Health Officer, the doctor asked that dog owners keep their dogs tied for at least 30 days.

The dog bit Mrs. Velma Pitcher of Harris Pike as she attempted to drive it from the yard. It started away and then came back and bit her. It also bit Charles Hurst, age 6, Shaw Pike. The white and tan small dog reportedly came from about two miles south and west of Independence and followed the school buses to the St. Cecilia school, where it tried to bite a little girl.

Dr. White issued a warning of dog owners in this area and said the dog may have bitten others. He asked that they keep them tied for at least thirty days.

Test Soil Now

C. A. Wicklund, County Agent, suggests that as soon as the ground dries it should be tested for lime, phosphate and potash. See your local County Agent, if interested, for blanks, cost, etc.

October is the last call for sowing cover crops on gardens.

Celebrates 85th Birthday

Henry Doan, 85, enjoyed a big birthday dinner last Sunday when his family and friends gathered together with boxes and well-filled baskets. Mr. Doan sent his birthday offering to Sunday school.

Homecoming A Success

All were pleased with the homecoming services at the Independence Baptist Church last Sunday. After the morning services, a big basket dinner was enjoyed. Rev. Chase Jennings, City Missions Superintendent, spoke on "Building a House for God," which tied on the remodeling program that is in the minds of some of the leading members. All the offerings of the day went on the parsonage fund—the total was $386.

Independence Christian Church

The Loyal Workers class of the Independence Christian Church conducted the September meeting in the basement of the church, with Mrs. Anna Roberts serving as hostess. The 29 members who attended conducted a business session, which was followed by a recreation period and refreshments. The refreshment committee was composed of Mrs. Virginia Snodgrass, Mrs. Nancy Steger and Mrs. Mildred Schenck. Next meeting will be held Thursday night, Oct. 5 in the church.

September 24 the Independence Christian Church broke ground for a three to four room addition to the back of the church. An arch and the pulpit to the rear with a baptistry behind it, is part of the new arrangement planned according to Mike Wagner, one of the leading members. All the material has been ordered and part of the material is now piled up in the basement of the church. Mike was fortunate enough to have his picture taken in the ground-breaking with a shovel full of dirt in his hands.

Attend W. M. U. Meeting

The following from the Independence Baptist Church went to the Latonia church last Thursday and thoroughly enjoyed hearing Mrs. Daisy Jesters, a returned Missionary from Africa, where she spent the past 23 years. Mrs. Frank Cox, Mrs. Thomas Cain, Mrs. Al Hymmer, Mrs. Charles Dorsey, Mrs. R. E. Colclough, Mrs. George Riley, Mrs. C. McVey, Mrs. J. C. Armstrong and Mrs. Wm. Collins.

Walton Homemakers, II

Walton Homemakers, II, was entertained by Mrs. James Ingram and Mrs. Almata Jones, co-hostess. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. James Riddell. The lesson, "Style Trends," was given by Mrs. Marie Penick. Miss Nancy McClaskey and Mrs. Leo Flynn were present and helped with the lesson. This was Mrs. Flynn's last time to meet with us and give lessons, and it was regretted, as she has been so nice and so faithful to help and explain the work so that all took a great interest. Mrs. Alice Sleet told us about the beautiful road through Pennsylvania and Virginia on to Washington, D. C. and about the long tunnels.

Members present were Mrs. Jas. Riddell, Miss Martha Johnson, Mrs. Virgie Sechrest, Mrs. Agnes Sleet, Mrs. Alice Sleet, Mrs. Birdie Belew, Mrs. Almata Jones, Mrs. Jas. Ingram and Mrs. Mattie Howlett.—Pub. Chr.

At least 30 tobacco barns have been built in Estill county since the crop was set this spring.

In Franklin county, more than 1,600 acres of tobacco were sprayed by airplane for the control of grasshoppers and worms.

MODERN BETSW ROSSES TO DISPLAY UN FLAG

Tat people generally may have a better knowledge of the flag of the United Nations, modern Betsy Rosses women and girls thecountry over, are being called upon to make such flags during United Nations Week, October 16-24.

They are being asked, also, to display those flags at appropriate ceremonies in every rural and city community, alongside the Stars and Stripes on United Nations Day, Oct. 24.

The making of the flag has a three fold purpose:

1-To emphasize the high hope for peace for which the United Nations flag stands, and to make all people familiarity with the flag.

2-To provide a means for women and girls to express in a tangible way their patriotic desire to serve in the United Nations effort for peace.

3-To encourage better understanding of the United Nations as an instrument through which free people may express their determination to remain free.

The official flag of the United Nations was adopted by the General Assembly on October 20, 1947. It consists of a stamped design of the world sewed to a medium blue background. Surrounding the world design are olive branches applied or hemmed in place. The colors used are blue and white.

A sample kit containing a reproduction of the flag, a world design, patterns and directions for making and displaying the flag has been sent from the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky, to each county or home agent in the state for the use of homemakers clubs, 4-H clubs and other interested groups.

H. A. Bradford of Flemington county has more than 1,000 sticks of primed tobacco which he is curing with coke.

All of the members of the Wisdom Homemakers Club in Metcalfe county have named their farms.

On more than 100 farms in Jessamine county, about 2,000 pounds of Ladino clover were sowed at rates varying from one to five pounds per acre, with mixtures of grasses and other legumes.

As a result of a complete spray program, Mart Baker of Harlan county sold more than 40 bushels of tomatoes from an eighth acre.

The Clark County Homemakers Association bought a $1,000 U. S. Government bond to be placed in their clubhouse building fund.

The Telephone Co. Announces....

Last week the telephone company replaced the central office battery at its Florence exchange and relocated and rewired the ringing equipment.

This change will result in better ringing at Florence, and is one step in the modernization program now in effect.

An interesting side light to work of this nature is that it must be done with as little interruption of service as possible. This was accomplished by equipping the switchboard with temporary manual ringing equipment and making the necessary changes at night during the period of lightest switchboard load.

Watch this space in future issues for additional information regarding further improvements to your telephone system.

Farm Digest News

Grain Markets Continue Weak

Grain markets continued rather weak during the week ended Sept. 21 according to reports to the Kentucky and United States Departments of Agriculture. Market receipts increased and offerings were generally adequate for trade needs. Wheat prices were somewhat irregular. High protein milling wheat was in good demand and sold at or above the previous week's quotations. Ordinary protein types declined with the futures influenced by a slow export inquiry, better harvesting weather for spring wheat and favorable soil and moisture conditions for the seeding of winter wheat.

Corn declined 3 to 5 cents per bushel as farmers offered old corn more freely because of continued favorable weather for maturing the new crop which is still two to three weeks late in some areas. Oats and grain sorghums held about unchanged but barley and rye turned weaker at the leading markets. Flaxseed dropped 10 cents per bushel at Minneapolis and soybeans were down 5c to 10c at Chicago as marketing of the new crop began.

Weights and Measures

Conference Sept. 25-27

George L. Johnson, Director of the Division of Weights and Measures of the Kentucky Department of Agriculture will attend the Southern Weights and Measures Conference, September 25-27 at Charleston, S. C.

This conference composed of 14 southern states meets annually for the purpose of discussing southern weights and measures problems. The conference is now working toward a uniform weights and measures law. Mr. Johnson will be the moderator of the meeting.

Approximately 4,500 of Woodford county's 7,000 acres of tobacco were sprayed by airplane for control of worms and grasshoppers.

This Six-Room 2-Story Stone House with 109 Acres

Saturday, Sept. 30 2:00 P. M.

The heirs of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. Walling Cowdin, Miss Mabel E. Elliott and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Fennell have contracted with Rel C. Wayman & Sons to sell their farm at absolute auction to the highest bidder on the above date, regardless of price or weather.

Here is a real blue grass and alfalfa farm—and you know it takes good ground to raise alfalfa and blue grass; also here is a good stone home with electric and running water; floors are good and papering is good; four large rooms on first floor, two bedrooms and hall on second floor; full basement, with kitchen facilities in basement, as well as cabinet sink and running water on first floor.

Dairy barn, two-story, 48x48, and feed barn combination, equipped to do the whole job; 19 cow stanchions and a litter carrier in the basement, entire first floor of barn is for horse stalls, hay lofts and racks for tobacco; stone silo; hay carrier and rope in barn; also new milk house, built to ship Grade A milk; outside garage, and rock smoke house.

WATER—One well, two cisterns and creek running through entire farm. 0.3-acre tobacco base.

If you are looking for a real country home and with enough acres to make it pay to live in the country, don't fail to attend this Absolute Auction! This home alone in the city would be worth $12,000. The best part—this farm and home is located just ¾ mile from the new U. S. Highway 27, and on which you can buzz into town in half an hour.

TERMS: 20% Down Day of Sale; 30% with Deed within 30 Days; 50% can be Financed.

Christian Living

Lesson for October 1, 1950

READER, do you have your New Testament handy? Get it down and let us go over a few paragraphs of it together. What we are looking for is an answer to this question: Is there anything special, anything different, noticeable, about the Christian way of life?

Act on the Word

FIRST, look at James 1:22-27. "Be ye doers of the Word," he says, "not hearers only." Moffat's modern-English translation says: "Act on the Word."

Instead of merely listening to it," at the end of this section James offers the only definition of religion given in the entire Bible. Note that it is altogether in terms of action, behavior, life both inward and outward.

"Act on the Word"—he means the Word of God, of course. In verse 21 he has already told us the Word is like a seed sown in our lives, a seed expected to grow.

Now look at Phil. 1:27-30. If you have the King James version, which is over 300 years old, that word "conversation" in verse 27 will mislead you.

What Paul wrote (in Greek, of course) was not conversation, but a word meaning manner of living. Moffat brings out the meaning more pointedly: "Do lead a life worthy of the Gospel of Christ."

What God wants us to do as Christians is to live like the best sermons we hear. Live lives that match the story of Jesus.

Life of Grace

NOW turn to the story of Barnabas in Acts 11:19-28. Barnabas was commissioned by the mother-church to inspect and report on the new congregation at Antioch. Were they Christians or not? Barnabas saw two things about those people, and he was glad: It was a congregation of believers, and he saw also the grace of God.

Christian living is a life of faith and a life of grace. It is a life lived with God, blessed by the grace of God. Now this is not automatic. It is not something that happens whether we wish it or not.

Observe what Barnabas told those new Christians at Antioch: "Remain faithful to the Lord with steadfast purpose" (v. 25, Revised Standard Version). The Christian life is one of devotion, a life of steady purpose, it is no drifting, sinking life, it sails by the Star of God.

World Not Christian's Orange

NOW turn to a group of passages too full, as all of these are, to be gone over here in detail. You will have to take time yourself to read and think seriously about them: Matt. 5:1-20; 18:21-35; Romans 12:1-21. The theme running through all these is the same: The Christian's life is marked by a special kind of attitude toward other persons.

There are different ways in which people regard others. The criminal looks on all men as his enemies. He is out to beat them down. "Git or git go!" is his motto. The "average citizen" who is no Christian, and even some who claim to be Christians but never got the hang of it, are not so brutal as the criminal, but their main idea about other people is much the same, though they are more polite about it.

As one of these has said: "The world is your orange—squeeze it!" What can I make, what is my cut, what will you give me, where do I come in, how can I use you? But the Christian's attitude to other people is totally different. What it is—well, read these passages from Jesus and Paul, and find out.

Without Ceasing

THERE is one more point about the Christian life. It keeps on. It grows. Look up I Thessalonians 5:15-18. Listen to the words of perseverance singing through it all. There is a preacher who sometimes says: "You cannot be a Christian today. You can begin today, because that takes only an instant. But you cannot be a Christian today. That takes a lifetime."

The phrases of Paul—"ever follow . . . evermore . . . hold fast . . . were not mere phrases. He had lived them.

SYMBOL OF A DAY...

A World dwarfed by the shadow of the Cross!

It is the symbol of a day when earthly turmoil and tension are calmed by heavenly vision . . . when men's hearts turn in unison toward God.

That day is World-Wide Communion Sunday. Millions of Christian men and women in every corner of the Earth will come to their churches. Together, according to the customs of their Faith, they will worship and pray. Then, reverently, they will participate in the world's most sacred religious rite—The Lord's Supper.

We all pray that the symbol of this day will, at length, become the symbol of a year, a century, eternity. A World dwarfed by the shadow of the Cross is Christianity's unwavering aim!

As you and your family—and your neighbor and his family—worship Christ on World-Wide Communion Sunday, we move together toward that cherished goal!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy, nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

CONRAD HARDWARE VACATION!

Everyone should have a little vacation, and I thought maybe I could have a couple weeks. So I went out to Hot Springs, Ark. Took a few baths in that wonderful water, which really does the work/make you feel younger. Who do you think I found out here—Morris Rice and wife, who just got in from Arizona, and R. A. Greene and wife from Williamstown. This is a small old world town, people travel a long ways in just a few days.

Everyone you talk to from nearly every part of the country have had lots of rain, so I guess Kentucky wasn't the wettest spot, as we thought it was this year. The cotton crop has been cut in half as along with the vegetables and corn. But I will say as I have lots of other times—Walton, Kentucky is the Garden Spot of this old U. S. A. We always get along just a little better than most parts of the country.

You ride along through some parts of the country and wonder how people make a living, the land is so poor it will not grow bushes—no cows, hogs or sheep—not even a garden spot. But you don't see these conditions in our section.

On the way out here, I came down through the Southern part of Kentucky, which years ago had very few good roads, but now they have wonderful roads and lots of buildings, and a different country in just a few years. When anyone asks where I'm from and I tell them Kentucky, they want to know how far from Lexington and I tell them just 60 miles north—they say you live in a fine part of the country. Of course I have already agreed with them.

I talked with Brewster over the phone Saturday night. He and Chick have been busy repairing stoves and delivering new ones. It is a very good feeling to have two good men you can just walk out and leave to operate your business, and know it will go on just the same. I called them and they said everything was going fine, to stay as long as I wanted. A very good pair, I think.

We don't get any Cincinnati papers out here, not even the Walton Advertiser, so I don't know anything that's going on at home. I did read in the Chicago Tribune where Great Britain wants a gift of four billion dollars and Truman raised the taxes four and a half billion, so that only leaves the U. S. a half billion, with more coming after election time. I don't mind the taxes and I don't think anyone else does, if it will help from getting all those good men killed in Korea, which looks to be a long, drawn out war. They have about 150 men here in Hot Springs Government Hospital, sent back from Korea and they are sure part a dark picture. Two of these boys were walking down a road and met a Korean woman with a basket—when she got even with them, she blew them up with hand grenades, which she carried in the basket. They say the local people are worse than the soldiers to fight. The South Korean people do nearly as much damage as the North Korean soldiers.

Well, they have a wonderful hospital here, but we know lots of them will never be able to enjoy life again.

I will try to be home for next week. Maybe I can get caught up on some of the gossip around the old home town. I know a few who will put me next, if I can contact them.

If you want a good place to live, stay in the Walton vicinity—if you want a fine vacation, go to Hot Springs, Ark.

Newport Woman Killed In Automobile Mishap Here Sunday

Two major auto accidents occurred near Walton, over the weekend. One involved three local men who were not hurt too seriously, and in the other, a Newport woman was killed almost instantly.

The three local men involved in the first accident, were Joseph "Mike" Ryan, Huddy Ryals and Ed Chipman, all of Verona, who were returning from a baseball game at Grants Lick, Sunday afternoon. It happened near Bracht when another car ran head-on into them. All received cuts and bruises, but none serious.

The second mishap, near the city limits, south of town, took the life of a Newport grandmother, Mrs. Mary Vickers, when she attempted to keep her granddaughter from falling out of an open car door, and fell out herself. There were four other occupants in the car and all were injured after the car finally got out of control and crashed.

Over Six Hundred At Walton Sunday Schools

It is estimated that there were over 600 people in the three Bible schools in Walton, last Sunday. This speaks well for the people of this town and shows that they are interested in the church life of their community. This number could be an every Sunday occurrence and we hope it will.

At the Baptist Church there were 389, which was short of the goal of 500, but was above the original goal of 350. The presence of everyone was sincerely appreciated and all are urged to be present again this coming Sunday.

Sunday morning, the pastor, Rev. B. C. Garrett, will speak on "What Happens Immediately After Death?" Some say the soul sleeps, some say that people are given another opportunity to accept Christ after death but what does the Bible say? Inasmuch as we must die, this is a legitimate reason for being interested in these facts. "Come and worship with us," is the invitation.

Advisory Council of Kenton Homemakers Hold First Meeting

The first meeting of the year of the Advisory Council of the Kenton County Homemakers Association was held Friday, September 29 at the Federal Bldg. Over 23 clubs represented. Newly elected presidents and county federation chairmen attended.

Mrs. R. P. Ringenbach, the county chairman, presided, assisted by Mrs. John R. Loomis, secretary-treasurer; Miss Zelma E. Byerly, Kenton home demonstration agent, and Miss Catherine Knaas, assistant home agent.

Reports were given by Mrs. Lloyd Watson, publicity; Mrs. M. R. Hensley, reading, and Mrs. Jesse Grant, membership.

Club chairmen reported that interest and enthusiasm displayed by club members was outstanding. A new club, sponsored by the Elsmere-Erlanger club, for young married women, was recognized. There are a total of 24 clubs in the county with a membership of 525 members.

Mrs. Ringenbach announced that the annual meeting will be held at Summit Hills Club, November 2nd. The theme of the meeting will be "The Homemakers' World is Wide." Mrs. W. E. Nichols, vice chairman of the United States Country Women's Council, will give a report of the International meeting held at Copenhagen, Denmark. Mrs. Nichols headed the United States delegation. Mrs. Wm. Mara, Northern Kentucky District Director, will tell about the National meeting of the organization to be held in Biloxi, Miss., this month.

Chairmen of exhibits for this meeting were appointed by Mrs. Ringenbach as follows: Rugs, Mrs. Lyman Faulk; trays, Mrs. Elmer Blank; handicraft, Swedish weaving and Italian Hemstitching, Mrs. Garfield Cooke; refinished furniture, Mrs. C. C. Norris.

Mrs. Byerly stated that United Nations Day is October 24. It marks the anniversary of the day in 1945 on which the United Nations Charter came into force. The world law, ex-

MORNING VIEW MARINE WOUNDED

Marine Corporal Harold E. Reeves, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ciel Reeves of Morning View, Route 1, was injured in Korea, September 15, according to word received by his parents.

Cpl. Reeves was serving with the Marine First Division and had been in Korea only five weeks.

Cpl. Reeves is one of the youngest soldiers to have seen World War II. He enlisted in the Army at 14 and landed in North Africa shortly after his 15th birthday. His parents obtained his return to the U. S. and subsequent release from the Army, but he joined the Marines later and has been in that branch of service four years.

Cpl. Reeves has two brothers who also are veterans to World War II: Billy L. Reeves, who was in the Air Force and served on a B-29 in the Pacific Theater, and Ciel B. Reeves, who was an anti-aircraft man in the Army.

Rev. DeMoisey Speaks To Wa-Na Club On International Relations

Rev. R. F. DeMoisey made a most educational talk on "International Relations" to members and guests of the Wa-Na Woman's Club, when they met with Mrs. George Houston Monday evening.

Mrs. Fred Hamilton, president, called the meeting of Kentucky Federation Women's Clubs was announced for October 28. This meeting will be held at Falmouth. Two new members were welcomed into the club: Miss Lucy Yancey and Mrs. Lloyd Yates.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Matthew Flynn opened the program with Spiritual Guidance reading from the Fifth chapter of 1st Thessalonians. She then read an appropriate article on "Prayers Answered." Mrs. George Houston read a humorous article entitled "Familiar Gusher." Rev. DeMoisey closed the program with his talk on the state of affairs in the world today. He read with him a scroll for the Freedom Crusade and members of the club, not having signed, were urged to do so.

The hostess served a dessert course to the following members and guests as they enjoyed a social hour: Mrs. L. A. Gardner, Miss Lucy Yancey, Mrs. Lloyd Yates, Mrs. Fred Hamilton, Mrs. Matthew Flynn, Mrs. Clayton Jones, Mrs. Albert Hunt, Mrs. Charles Hayes, Mrs. E. S. Flynn, and Mrs. Gayle McElroy.

Firemen Sponsor Poster Contest For Fire Prevention Week

The Walton Volunteer Fire Department is offering prizes this week for the best posters drawn by children of the Walton-Verona school.

The prizes are: First, $5.00; second, $3.00, and third, $1.00, and the best 10 posters submitted are to be placed on display in the business places for Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 8-14.

These posters will be judged mainly for originality in ideas of preventing fires.

Firemen to continue Drive For Community Subscribers

The following is a statement the firemen are going to deliver to various property owners in this section, for which they furnish fire equipment in case of fire:

"The Walton Fire Department is your nearest fire equipment. It can guarantee to you the most modern equipment and trained men for fighting your fire. In order to do this it must charge a small fee for membership each year to enable it to keep its equipment in the finest condition. This fee entitles you to a response for every alarm during that year for no additional cost. Can you afford to lose your lives, homes or barns for this small donation? Inasmuch as we cannot replace many things lost due to fire. Think it over, if you wish to become a member write to the Walton Fire Department or contact any member and he will be glad to explain this plan, which is for the benefit of you and yours."

The Walton Volunteer Fire Department is only as good as the people of the town and community who support it, and it cannot perform its duties without the support, both financial and moral, which the people give.

"We know," said Walton Chief, J. R. Allen, "that when the fire alarm sounds that someone is in serious trouble and needs our help, and we are dedicated to help them to the best of our ability, even at the risk of our lives and equipment. Therefore, we need the Walton Volunteer Fire Department, ask the people of our community to help us and we in turn guarantee that we will help you."

Fire Prevention Week Is To Be Observed October 8 to 14

Community participation is urged in the annual observance of Fire Prevention Week, October 8 through October 14. The week, which has been designated by Gov. Earle C. Clements, is to be marked by observances of many kinds throughout the state.

The prevention of fires as a cause of death in Kentucky is of vital concern to the state and county health departments, according to Dr. Bruce Underwood, State Health Commissioner. During the year 1948, he pointed out, a total of 233 Kentuckians lost their lives as a result of fires. Many of these lives might have been saved if proper preventive measures had been taken.

By participating in the statewide observance of Fire Prevention Week, it is hoped that a more effective year-round fire prevention program may be worked out and that people will become more alert to fire hazards existing in their own community.

In many communities Citizens Health Committees are working with the Fire Chiefs in planning and carrying out the week's program.

One of the highlights of the week will be the broadcast of a fire safety program, emphasizing the need for frequent fire drills in schools. The broadcast, which is planned for 9 a. m. CST, Tuesday, October 10, will feature a statewide fire drill in which it is expected more than 601,000 pupils and teachers will take part.

Remember—fire prevention is an important function of public health.

Lebanon Aid To Meet

The Ladies Aid Society of the Lebanon Presbyterian Church will meet Thursday, October 12 at 11:00 a. m. in the home of Mrs. J. G. Stewart. All members are urged to be present, and any visitors are welcome.

Membership Drive Begins

Scattered all over the United States are many thousands of women who are eligible to become members of the American Legion Auxiliary. Are you one of these?

The American Legion Auxiliary needs a million or more members, because present day conditions demand that we march forward under our banner a million strong.

You are needed now, for service to America and its defenders, and to further the many important undertakings of the Auxiliary. There is no purpose for association that is more highly dedicated than that of service to God and Country. We are again faced with the tasks that confronted us a few short years ago, and we must remain a powerful force in maintaining unity on the home front. To perform this duty efficiently, we must keep a large membership of conscientious, sincere and loyal American women.

Join the American Legion Auxiliary now. Regular meetings are held on the first and third Thursday of each month at 8 p. m. in the Legion Home on Beaver Road. You are welcome!—Pub. Chm.

Successful Revival At Christian Church Closes Sunday Night

Revival services closed at the First Christian Church, Walton, Sunday evening, October 1, when the church sanctuary was filled to capacity for the closing service. Nine young people received the Ordinance of Christian Baptism and the entire congregation participated in a Communion Service. It was a beautifully arranged and a deeply spiritual service, lifting us all into Christ's way, the truth, and the life.

Over 350 people participated in the service. There were four additions to the church membership, bringing the total to 24 for the revival, and to 32 the new members received into church membership during the first four months of Rev. Carroll Gravelly's ministry. It was a deeply spiritual service, lifting us all into Christ's way, the truth, and the life.

The revival and the new spirit now existing in the church is now ready to go forward under the banner of Jesus Christ.

Sunday, October 8, Rev. Gravelly will preach upon the subject, "Christ Has Chosen You," in which he will induct new and old members regarding their loyalty and consecration to Christ and His Church. There will be an anthem by the Youth Choir and the vested choir will sing for the morning service at 11 a. m. At the close of 7 o'clock morning service Rev. Gravelly will present Baptismal Certificates and a copy of the New Testament to all newly baptized members, and a booklet and certificate to all members transferring their membership to Walton Christian Church. Following this, the membership of the church will extend the right hand of fellowship to all new members.

Following the morning church service, Rev. and Mrs. Gravelly and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bush will leave immediately by car to attend the International Convention in Oklahoma City, October 10-15. Mrs. Gravelly will visit friends in Kansas City, Mo. Rev. Gravelly will attend the Disciples Peace Fellowship meeting at the Disciples' Center, Chicago, where he will have the pleasure of meeting personally and hearing Dr. Kagawa of Japan. He will also attend the annual Ministers' Breakfast of the Disciples' Center. This is the 101st annual International Convention of the Disciples of Christ and a report will be made on "The Crusade For a Christian World" program.

Sunday evening services will be held at 7:30 p. m. The Christian Youth Fellowship will meet at 6:30 p. m. There will be a pupil guest at the service Sunday evening, Oct. 8, and morning and evening services on October 15, during the absence of Rev. Gravelly, who will return to the pulpit October 22.—Pub. Chm.

Grants Lick Bows To Verona, Sunday; Steffen Hurls 5-Hitter

In a KAG elimination series baseball game at Grants Lick last Sunday, Verona handed Grants Lick their second defeat in the series, behind the fifty-five hit pitching of "Mo" Steffen, by a count of 3-1.

The winners had 3 runs, 8 hits and 1 error. Steffen hurled the distance and struck out six, while issuing four passes. Hayes and Baumann with two hits scored the first run for Verona. Bowman singled home the second run, and the final tally scored on a walk, sacrifice and long fly.

The losers had 1 run, 5 hits and 1 error. Flaughter did the pitching. He walked 1, struck out 7 and committed one wild pitch. Goetz did the receiving. Kenney had two hits in three at-bats and drove in the innings.

Newport Stealers

On Sunday, October 9 at 2:30 p. m. the Verona Community Club will meet the Newport Stealers at the Verona Park. Steffen is expected to get the pitching assignment from Manager Wendell Ryan.

Edwin M. Johnson, Walton, dean of Kentucky conservation officers, will be honored October 11 at a testimonial dinner sponsored by the Fifth District Federation of Kentucky Sportsmen.

Outdoorsmen from the fifth district, state game and fish management officials, public officials of local communities and the commonwealth and the general public will attend the dinner, to be held at the Yorkshire Restaurant, Newport.

Conservation Officer Johnson will be honored for his 24 years service in the Game & Fish Division and as the first division conservation officer retired to part time duty under the new civil service regulations.

Mr. Johnson was a volunteer "game warden" as early as 1912, but became a fulltime conservation officer June 1, 1926 shortly after the modernization and first reorganization of the Division of Game & Fish. A conservation officer all his life, Mr. Johnson assisted in the inauguration of modern wildlife legislation as a member of the Kentucky General Assembly in the early 1920's. He attempted at that time to have approved a bill requiring a state fishing license. The bill was later adopted. Mr. Johnson has more years of consecutive duty as a Kentucky conservation officer than any other man in the history of the commonwealth. His first appointment was to the former 10-county "Sixty-Second District" of Northern Kentucky.

District 4-H Club Meeting October 7 At Covington "Y"

The eighth annual District 4-H Achievement Day will be held Saturday, October 7. 4-H Club boys and girls from Boone, Bracken, Campbell, Gallatin, Grant, Pendleton, Kenton and Owen counties will attend. Extension agents and 4-H leaders will accompany these boys and girls to the meeting. The morning session will open at 10:30 a. m. at the Covington Y. M. C. A. The group will be guests of the Kentucky Chain Store Council for lunch at the Kenton County Chamber of Commerce.

Robert White, County Agent from Pendleton county, will preside. The group singing will be led by Wally Bollinger of Covington. The invocation will be given by Father John A. Reissnyder, Asst. Director of the Parochial schools in the Covington Diocese. Willard Wade, Secretary of the Covington Y. M. C. A., will address the group. Phoebe Ross, Field Agent in 4-H Club work, will conduct the games.

The boys and girls who will attend this meeting were chosen project champions in their county. The projects include Food Preservation, Clothing, Foods, Housekeeping, Leadership, Room Improvement, Beef, Corn, Dairy, Garden, Hogs, Labor Savers, Potatoes, Sheep, and Tobacco. They must submit a record of their project and bring an exhibit to the meeting. The judges from the 4-H Club Department study the records and interview the boys and girls. A district champion is selected in each project. These district champions will then compete for state honors. The state champions are invited to attend the 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, Nov. 26 to Dec. 1.

Special committees for the meeting are: Menu, Mrs. Zelma Byerly, Home Agent, Kenton County; table decorations, Miss Jewell Wilson, Home Agent, Gallatin County; publicity, Miss Eugenia Donahue, Home Agent, Campbell County; radio program, Mrs. Lillian Asst. County Agent, Kenton County; games, Miss Hazel Jo Smith, Home Agent, Owen County, and Dale Scott, County Agent, Bracken County.

There will be approximately one hundred 4-H members, leaders and Extension agents from the Northern Kentucky 4-H District who will be in Covington for the meeting.

Farmers in Bath county are being encouraged to repair roads while a gravel road is available.

Fourty-one varieties of gladiolus were exhibited by homelovers at the Gallatin county fair.

Don't Be Satisfied With Symptomatic Relief!

HADACOL NOW MAKES IT POSSIBLE TO RELIEVE THE CAUSE OF YOUR SICKNESS

Neuritis Pains, Stomach Disturbances, Indigestion, Gas, Constipation, Certain Nervous Disorders and a General Run-down Condition

When due to lack of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin in your system!

Read How These Folks Benefited Who Had Such Deficiencies

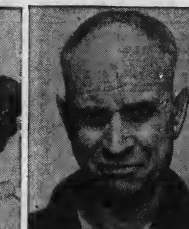

Mr. Anthamatten, 4731 South 32nd West Ave., Tulsa 7, Oklahoma, suffered from stomach distress for quite some time. He had spent much money trying everything possible for relief and was in bad health when he started taking HADACOL. He says, "After taking three bottles of the $3.50 size, I've gained 21 pounds and now eat anything I desire and positively have no trouble." (HADACOL gives such wonderful results because it actually relieves the real cause of stomach distress (gas pain, heartburn, indigestion after eating) due to such deficiencies. And continued use of this great HADACOL helps prevent such distress from returning.)

Mrs. Mabel Kitchen, 1650 Amsterdam, Cincinnati, Ohio, "Before I started taking HADACOL I had aches and pains of neuritis in my shoulders, my back and arms. I could hardly move without having those terrible pains. Then I heard about HADACOL. After the second bottle the pains and aches were about gone. I'm now starting my fourth bottle and am on top of the world. I eat well and, best of all, the aches and pains are completely gone." (Mrs. Kitchen is a very smart woman because she relieves the REAL CAUSE of her neuritis pains due to such deficiencies. HADACOL often brings a wonderful improvement within a few days' time.)

Mrs. J. Scieszinski, 514 Kruger, Ottumwa, Iowa, writes: "My daughter, Marilyn Sue, is 5 years old and for some time lacked pep, had a poor appetite, was generally run-down. Since giving her HADACOL, we have noticed wonderful results... she has a much better appetite, eats everything on the table and doesn't seem tired like she used to. Incidentally, she likes to take HADACOL, too." (HADACOL is a great "builder-upper" for sick, nervous, puny kids whose systems lack precious Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin. A big improvement in their well-being is often noticed within a few days' time after taking the great new HADACOL.)

Mr. Henry Angel, RD No. 1, Springfield, Ohio, "I used to suffer great pain from neuritis aches in all parts of my body, especially in my legs, arms and shoulders. I never got any real relief until I tried HADACOL. After taking several bottles, my pain is all gone. And I'm working every day." (Now there's a smart man! Mr. Angel took HADACOL and relieved the REAL CAUSE of his neuritis pains... use they were due to such deficiencies. HADACOL is helping thousands upon thousands of grateful men and women troubled this way. Why don't you give HADACOL a chance to help you? Start taking it today!)

IMPORTANT!

Why don't you get that wonderful HADACOL feeling everyone is talking about? In this modern age, wise folks are no longer satisfied with symptomatic relief — because now it's possible to relieve the cause of such deficiency sickness with this wonderful HADACOL. HADACOL not only supplies deficient systems with extra quantities of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin but also helpful amounts of precious Calcium, Phosphorus and Manganese—vital elements every human being must have to maintain good health. You owe it to yourself to give HADACOL a fair trial. Many doctors recommend this great new HADACOL. It's sold on a strict money-back guarantee. Trial size, $1.25. Large family or hospital size, $3.50.

Frank Cox, J. C. Armstrong, Wm. Collins, Thomas Cain and son Beverly, W. E. Maners and sons, David and Virgil, were busy last Saturday remodeling the south side of the Independence Baptist Church.

Joins Marines

Franklin Phillips, 20, grandson of Herndon Thomas, joined the Marines last Wednesday. Friends received cards from him over the weekend, saying he was on his way to Georgia. He is a member of the Independence Baptist Church and the second one in service. His friends here had planned a farewell party for him but when he went to see just when he was to leave, it was the next day and there was no time to get together.

Shore Worries With Friends

According to two universities of California, medical school psychiatrists, the best way to lessen anxiety is to share your worries with your friends.

Some persons try to drown their worries in alcohol, it was observed. Some try to find comfort in overindulgence in eating or smoking.

Others try to forget their troubles by entering a whirl of extra activities. A few, who are unable to solve their own problems, react by trying to dictate the lives of friends and acquaintances.

None of these methods are effective, said Drs. Ruesch and Preswood, who reported their investigations in the archives of Neurology and Psychiatry, a journal published by the American Medical Assn.

Some think that sharing your worries with your friends will not work because of the philosophy expressed in the little poem, "Laugh and the world laughs with you, weep and you weep alone."

Better advice for believers is that of the Psalmist: "Cast thy burden upon the Lord and He shall sustain thee," and the best advice of the Lord, "Call upon Me in the day of troubles, I will deliver thee and thou shalt glorify Me."—Psalm 55: 22-50:15.

is being done to discover how such a mistake happened.

The manufacturer was sincere, the hospital authorities were sincere, the anesthetist was sincere, the surgeon was sincere, and certainly the patient was sincere. No one wanted the tragedy to happen. All were sincerely mistaken about the "oxygen."

This incident demonstrates that sincerity is not enough. Certainty must be coupled with sincerity. There is a scripture which says, "There is a way which seemeth right unto man, but the end thereof are the ways of death."—Proverbs 14:12.

Too many people are saying, "As long as I am sincere, I'll come out all right in the end," but they are sincerely mistaken. One must be absolutely certain regarding eternal truths, as well as in matters pertaining to health.

Too many things are mislabeled, "Salvation," "Forgiveness," "Life," "Peace," "Security," and "Satisfaction." How can one be absolutely certain in such important matters?

Four-H club members in McCracken county who have livestock projects have been urged to saw at least one acre of pasture.

Approximately 3,000 acres of red clover, Ladino clover and alfalfa will be seeded this fall in Lexington county.

By taking the Lord at His word. No one is greater than He, no one is truer than He.

He said, "I am the way, the truth and the life: no man cometh unto the Father but by Me."—John 14:6.

There is every reason to believe Him for He loved us unto the point of dying for our sins on the cross of Calvary. He now lives in the power of an endless life and saves all who come unto God by Him.

All who make Him their Lord and Saviour can say with the apostle "We believe and are sure."—John 6:69. Peter also said, "Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved."—Acts 4:12.

Holds Everything...on any hill!

No matter how steep the grade . . . you can park your Chrysler and it won't roll. With Chrysler's new "Easi-Lock" Parking Brake you have three times ordinary braking power. Yet only one-third the effort is required to pull it on with your finger tips. Nothing you've ever used equals its ease and sureness. No straining—yet once it's on, nothing can budge your car. It's just one more new advantage that puts Chrysler still further ahead in safety! Just one more good example of the built-in value all the way through that we believe will make you a Chrysler buyer for life. Come in today for the demonstration that will prove you can't beat Chrysler for extra money's worth through and through.

New Easi-Lock Parking Brake

...with 3 times ordinary braking power!

Amazing Chrysler engineering development. Only 1/3 the hand pull required. New internal expanding parking brake is self-energized to multiply effective braking power. Completely enclosed. Mounted on propeller shaft—Independent of wheel brakes—the safest, surest brake you've ever used.

See it—drive it . . .
there's built-in value
all the way through!

Chrysler Driving Advantages:

Fluid Drive . . . automatic gear shifting with exclusive car control High Compression Spillies Engine . . . extra power at all speeds. Superfinished parts for longer life. Chemically treated cylinder walls for far greater wear! Waterproof Ignition System . . . prevents stalling in flood or storm. Full Flow Oil Filter keeps oil clean longer.

Chrysler Comfort Advantages:

Chair Height Seats . . . no crouching on the floor . . . Functional Design . . . room for your head, legs, shoulders. Easy to enter and leave. Center-arm Steering . . . minimizes road shock, wheel flip. Rubber Body Mountings . . . Floating Power . . . eliminates vibration, help give softest, smoothest ride in history.

Chrysler Safety Advantages:

"Easi-Lock" Hand Brakes . . . hold car parked on any hill. Safety Rim Wheels . . . won't throw tire after blowouts at normal speeds. Constant Speed Windshield Wipers . . . electrically operated—won't slow down when you step on gas. Safe Guard Hydraulic Brakes . . . exclusive balanced brake power, smoother stops, less pedal pressure.

E. M. JOHNSON

Eventually, as more conservation officers were added, Mr. Johnson's area was reduced and finally he was the conservation officer for his native Boone county at the time of his part-time retirement last July. He is still on call for special assignments and emergency duty.

During his long years of service, Conservation Officer Johnson estimates he has participated in more than 500 arrests of game and fish law violators. Since his tenure in Boone county, the license revenue has increased from $150 annually to a total of $7,000 during 1949.

Mr. Johnson recalls the early days of "game wardening" as precarious. He was threatened frequently, and in some instances shot at, he says, but usually "by thirteenth tenant farmers."

He says the "good solid citizen is invariably in favor of law enforcement and the law enforcement officer."

"Education is the greatest force in the conservation movement today," the aging conservation officer declares, "and youth is the mainstay of our hope for better conservation understanding."

He praised the current Junior Conservation Club work in Kentucky and the administration of Earl Wallace, director of the Division of Game and Fish.

Reservations for the testimonial dinner may be obtained from the committee, which includes Dr. A. W. Boltz, fish district game and fish commissioner; Clarence Craig, vice president of the League of Kentucky Sportsmen; Stanley Shelton, fifth district wildlife supervisor; Tom Silvers, secretary, and John Murphy, president of the Federation.

Utopia Conference Oct. 9

"Let's Talk About Making Your Dreams Come True," will be the subject of James L. Robinson, United States Department of Agriculture, at a discussion at the Northern Kentucky District Utopia Conference, to be held in Room 17 of the Covington Federal Building, Monday, October 9 at 1:30 p. m. Mr. Robinson will lead the discussion and give advice on getting and operating a farm with proper use of farm and home financing.

Carl Jones, in charge of Utopia Club work in Kentucky, and Harry Young, field agent in farm management, will assist in the discussion.

Utopians will attend from the following counties: Campbell, Boone, Grant, and Kenton. A large crowd is expected.

Two Farms Sold for $65,000

Forest S. Thompson, proprietor of the Mutual Realty Co., Walton and Williamstown, reports the sale of a 216-acre farm at Verona, belonging to Fon Childers, to Russell Lawrence of Dry Ridge, for the sum of $30,000. This is one of the best tractor farms in Boone county. Chas. F. Colcord, Dry Ridge, will move to this beautiful home in the spring and will be the new manager.

Mr. Thompson also reported the sale of a 65-acre farm on the Dixie Highway, South of Walton, owned by A. F. Childers, to Lloyd C. Watson of Covington, for $25,000, approximately $385 per acre.

Forest tree planting in Kentucky reached a new record last year, according to the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky.

Farm Digest News

Grain Markets Develop
Further Weakness

Grain markets developed further weakness during the last week in September influenced principally by favorable Korean news, diminishing danger from frost damage and a continued slow export trade, reports to the Kentucky and United States Departments of Agriculture indicate. Wheat declined 2 cents to 4 cents per bushel while feed grain prices were irregularly lower at leading markets. Oiled markets weakened further reflecting increased marketings of new crop seed and a decline in oil prices.

Corn markets continued to weaken as danger from frost damage lessened. Several warm and mostly fair days during the week favored maturity of the crop in the main corn belt. Light to heavy frosts occurred during the week in the northern portions of the belt but caused only a limited amount of damage to late corn in these areas, according to reports to the weather bureau.

Giving Yourself

Lesson for October 8, 1950

"WHEN a girl throws herself away on a man, she generally takes pretty careful aim." That may be so; but more than a few persons throw themselves clean away without taking aim at all. They smile through life, they do not march. They have no personal five-year plans, not even five-week plans. They stumble from one day to the next, they live from hand to mouth. They care for nobody and few care for them. They may be found on the sidewalk, living from one handout to another, or they may be found in the Silver Spoon Club, with plenty of money but no idea how to spend it and hardly enough energy to waste it.

A Man Gives Himself
MOST people, however, do give themselves to something. Every man who amounts to something gives himself in one way or another. There was a college student once who practiced nineteen hours a day on the piccolo, it was said. Naturally he couldn't stay in college at that rate, so they got rid of him. But he landed, as you might expect, in one of America's finest orchestras.

If you want to succeed in music, give yourself to music. If you want to succeed in a law course, give yourself to your books. Men usually give themselves to what they think is of greatest value. Some give themselves; that is to say, they devote themselves to their own comfort and happiness. That is cheap and selfish, of course, but there is a kind of transferred selfishness which is almost as common; giving oneself to one's family to the exclusion of everything and every one else. A good man will love his family, a good mother her children; but there is a kind of ingrown family affection and mother-love which is blind to community needs.

Down the River
THERE are bad ways of giving oneself. A prophet once said of King Ahab, he sold himself to do evil. That is still done. Some give themselves up to liquor and gambling.

There have been quite selfless and tireless advocates of atheism, and communism, and all varieties. Men have worn themselves thin in the service of Hitler and of other tyrants. If the energy and persistence, for example, which is spent in trying to prevent the humane use of unwanted animals in medical research, were spent in intelligent support of preventive medicine, how much better the world would be!

Say Yes to Christ
SO the question is not so much, Shall I give my life? The question is, To what? To whom? For three months these Bible studies consider "Growth in Christian Living." All growth starts at some point; and Christian growth starts at the point where the Christian gives himself to Christ and his cause.

Consider what "commitment to Christ" means. It is not sentimental devotion to his memory, it is not singing songs about him or to him. (Not that such songs are wrong!) It is not following a historical character, though Jesus was and is a real person. It is saying "Yes" to Jesus Christ. It is giving one's highest devotion, one's first loyalty, to the Son of God. It is devotion to the living Christ, ever-present; to the One whose reign is destined to be over all. It is devotion to Christ's cause; to his Kingdom, his control, his way of life. It means growing into his mind; it means becoming more and more like him, wanting to be like him, till at last Paul's words come true again: "For me, to live is Christ."

You Get More than You Give
IT IS a mistake to think that if one gives his life to Christ, then he cannot give his life to anything else. The astonishing truth is, when a person first gives himself to Christ, he finds that Christ gives back far more. Christians can be, and are, devoted scholars and business men and mothers and doctors and farmers. The more truly one is committed to Christ, the better he is likely to be at his job, whatever it is.

SLIDIN' DOWN THE CHUTE

What fun these youngsters have on the numerous contrivances designed for their exercise and amusement! The children of past generations would have been delighted with such elaborate provisions for their enjoyment.

Physical training has become an important part of our modern educational system. Regular periods are assigned to it in most schools, and instructors are employed to supervise the children's play.

We are thus spending billions of dollars each year to develop the minds and bodies of our children. But what are we doing for their spiritual development? The body without the soul is dead, and education without spiritual growth is a hollow mockery.

The Church has the stupendous task of supplying this vital need in human life. Its function is to show people the way of God and teach them to think and feel and act in accordance with His will. Body, mind and spirit—but the most important of these is the spirit.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

HARVEST TIME

October is one of the finest months of the year. In old Kentucky we usually have dry, cool weather, and so far we have had it. Everyone is getting ready for winter—putting up the old stoves, some buying new ones. Clarence and Maude Hall bought a large size Anchor Hot Blast heater—it will keep them warm if it goes to 10 below. Thelma Moore and Mrs. Mattie had their oil heater repaired and cleaned, all ready to go. Elizabeth Robinson also had her oil heater cleaned and a few new parts—it is all set in her front room, ready to keep that barber warm. Buddy Whitson also had his oil heater cleaned and piped in from outside tanks—his heater is all set for winter, ready to keep that little beauty from Owen county warm—she is a very fine lady—hope all of you have met her.

A lot of you have seen this tile blocks cemented to floors—well, did you ever see anyone take it up? O. J. Struve was in buying chisels, digging bars and a good pair of Wolverine gloves—he has a whole house to take up and replace with new. Well, Struve will get her done, with that tall boy, Richards, helping him—they are very good linoleum men, as well as tile.

A lady came in Saturday and said she wanted something she knew I did not have, but her husband said ask, and that was a pair of leather breast straps—well, I fooled her—I had six pair. Mrs. Walter Stephenson from Independence was hunting seed wheat—she used my telephone and I thing she found the wheat. If we don't have what you want, we will help find it!

It seems someone has played a trick on Mark Meadows—he has a nice white hen setting in his front yard—she is a little weather-beaten, as she is made of clay, colored white—he has accused his neighbors of bringing this chicken, but Meadows gets some things backwards, just like that 530 attendances for Sunday school, which should have been 350. Well, we made the 350 goal, as we had 379 at the Baptist Sunday School. October 1, there were about 150, like myself, who could attend Sunday school every Sunday if they would get out of bed and go—it is not too much trouble, try it sometime, I'll bet you like it!

Eldon Ashcraft and son, Eddie were in—Eddie bought a nice leather shoe heater for his calf. Eldon bought a 25-ft. heavy extension cord for the barn—they are very handy. Coach Hayes was in buying paint and brushes—Juanita always has a job for Hayes on Saturday. Mrs. Allen from down on US 42 was very glad they used Fong-Son under their tobacco—I believe they bought more than anyone and it sure did the work. This week she was buying stove pipe, getting ready for winter. J. A. Fothergill, who lives in the corner at Hicks Pike and Big Bone Road, was in Saturday—he has not been in Walton for sometime, but we always welcome our old customers back, as well as the new ones.

Mrs. Frederick Mann sent her men from her farm after sical kraft paper, welded mesh fence and iron rods to build a silo—these silos save a lot of feed and you can use them for several years. Here comes Joe Northcutt and Charles with a large pile of flat iron about an inch thick to have some 1/4-inch holes drilled in it—we have a large drill press and we do a lot of this kind of work. Chick is a machinist, Ray put up new furnace pipe for Eva Belle Harp, and new stove pipe for Eva Belle Harp. You had better get those heating systems ready for those cold, rainy fall days are coming.

We installed a new Anchor coal circulator in the Beaver Baptist Church—on the way back we brought back Mr. Moore's Warm Morning heater to put a new lining in it. Mr. Moore operates the Wayside Piano. Omer Kite just came in the side door looking awful mean—he was carrying a box and said he had been trading here for 35 years and this was the first thing he had returned—in the box were two pairs of trace chains—they didn't have any swivels and they were rough where they had been welded together—he said they would wear all the hair off the horses' sides—well, we never argue with Omer, he argues with everyone else and we listen.

Clayton Percival bought a new Perfection oil heater—put in with outside tanks—no coal to carry in or ashes to carry out—they are sure as nice. Mrs. Cleveland Marsh also bought a Perfection heater—this was one of those handy portable jobs, you can carry around—they are mighty handy and hot. Tuesday afternoon when that cold rain started here, they came, buying stoves, stove pipe, stove boards, coal hods, furnace pipe, electric heaters, portable oil heaters, and we have a good stock of all heating equipment.

We have about all the stock this place will hold so if you need anything in the hardware line... TRY CONRAD!

Officers for the year were installed as follows: President, Mrs. Rose-Marie Baldwin; Vice President, Mrs. Rose Hedeman; Secretary, Wilma Beck; Corresponding Secy, Helen Stahl; Treasurer, Edith England; Historian, Katherine Muma; and Parliamentarian, Emma Kelly.

After the installation, the initiation was held. New members were given a rose and an FHA badge. The new members are: Josephine Anderson, Betty Barberick, Opal Cooper, Jackie Elbert, Elsie Flak, Mary Fuchs, Millie Jordan, LaVerne Haney, Joyce LaVon, Nora Lawson, Velma Lauderdale, Ruth Nickell, Gayle Riddell, Marilyn Russell and Deloris Rider.

New members not present were: Ruby Justice, Lela Dorn, Virginia Earls, and Mary Heeger.

Those initiated wore short skirts, aprons, bonnets and no makeup. They also had to carry skittles, dolls and how to all old members.

After the service, everyone gathered in the Home Economics room for a very enjoyable social hour. The second year girls served punch and cookies.

Councils for Education

Boone County and Walton-Verona school superintendents, H. N. Ockerman and J. O. Ward, have been invited to aid in forming councils for education to cooperate with the Kentucky Council for Education in the city and county.

Besides naming the temporary chairman for the State's 233 school districts, KCE president, Walter H. Girdler, Jr., asked the superintendents to attend a conference at Lexington, October 28.

Mr. Girdler explained that local groups were being formed throughout the State under guidance of the newly formed KCE to carry out broad improvements in Kentucky schools. He said plans called for concentrating on forming local councils during November.

Carlos Beck of Calloway county harvested 237 pounds of Kentucky clover seed on a acre on a four-acre field.

CHARLES D. HUGHES

Charles D. Hughes, Concord Road, Verona, Ky., passed away at his home October 6, after having been in poor health for some time. Mr. Hughes, who would have celebrated his 80th birthday December 17, was a farmer, and a deacon in the Concord Baptist Church. He had been a life-long resident of the community.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Margaret Hughes, Verona; 3 sons, Byron Hughes of Indianapolis, Ind., Hubble Hughes of Rising Sun, Ind., and Harvey Hughes of Verona; two grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Gora Peak of Worthville, and Mrs. D. R. Chapman of Walton.

Funeral services were held at 2:00 p. m. Sunday, October 8 at the Concord Baptist Church, with Rev. A. K. Johnson and Rev. Franklin Lipscomb, Jr., officiating. Burial was in Concord Cemetery, under direction of the Hamilton Funeral Home, Verona.

Jones Residence Scene of October Literary Club Meet

The Walton Woman's Literary Club was delightfully entertained in the home of Mrs. Clayton Jones, on Wednesday, October 4. Three guests and twenty-seven members were present. Mrs. Jones' home was decorated with beautiful dahlias.

Mrs. Pearl Johnson presented the Spiritual Guidance, and stressed the need for the Kingdom of Christ in the hearts of all men, which alone can solve the world's present problems. Mrs. Julia A. Rouse reviewed the Turquoise Trail by Shirley Siefert. She gave a vivid picture of the life of the brave pioneers who made the trip from Kentucky to Mexico by the way of the Santa Fe Trail.

Mrs. W. D. Scroggin, president, was in charge of the business meeting. She appointed delegates to the Fifth District meeting at Falmouth, October 28. Mrs. Jones was a special report of the meeting of the Executive Board of the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs in Louisville, which she and Mrs. Scroggin attended. The Walton club is sponsoring the name of Mrs. Clayton Jones for Vice Governor of the Fifth District.

After the business meeting, a social hour was enjoyed and an excellent dessert luncheon was served. The November meeting will be in the home of Mrs. J. R. Conrad.

Verona Homemakers

The October meeting of the Verona Homemakers was held in the home of Mrs. Frances McCormick. Miss McCleskey gave the lesson on Styles for Next Year. Five members attended the annual meeting and presented and reported a good meeting.

Present were Lena Harris, Edith Hamilton, Ethel Fooks, May Wilson, Lillian Waller, Marie Chapman, Lillian Stephenson, Florence Kennedy, Grace Renaker, Florence Kennedy, Lizzie Noel, Pearl Lamm and Becky Rushing. Two visitors, Mrs. Rushing and Mrs. Ray Gullion; also the hosts, Mrs. McCormick.—Pub. Chm.

Book of Proverbs Read by O. I. Homemakers

The Oak Island Homemakers held their regular monthly meeting Monday, October 2, 1950. The meeting was called to order by the president, Miss Alma Stephens. The following members answered roll call: Mrs. Sherman Barberick, Mrs. Cecil Northcutt, Mrs. Claude Taylor, Mrs. Russell Reitor, Mrs. Albert Martin, Mrs. Walter Linville, Mrs. Frank Jackson, Mrs. Robert Walcott, Mrs. Vincent Stephenson, Miss Alma Stephens, Miss Ruth Schmidt, Miss Olen Douglas and Miss Nell Neff.

Our lesson on Legal Affairs was given by Mrs. Barberick and Miss Stephens. The lesson was Planning Shrubs was given by Miss Neff.

Demonstration agent, Miss Zelma Snyder, and her assistant, Miss Stephens, were present and took part in the discussions.

Some of our members completed the Book of Proverbs and the others read a part of it. It would be well for all members to finish reading this wonderful book.

Bakery Sale Saturday

The Happy Helpers Class of the Walton Methodist Church will conduct a bakery sale at Roberts grocery on Saturday, October 14, beginning about 10 a. m. Stop in and see what they have to offer.

Missionary Guild to Meet

The young woman's Missionary Guild of the Christian Church, Walton, will meet in the home of Mrs. Mary Worthington this evening (Oct. 12) at 8 o'clock.

Members are asked to bring old clothing, which will be sent to Hazel Green, Ky.

The Crusade for Freedom in this county has been very successful, with the most progress made in the Walton community, under the sponsorship of the American Legion Auxiliary, Mrs. Dora Stephenson, chairman.

The Crusade for Freedom is a project of the National Committee for a Free Europe. This group was formed by some of America's leading citizens, including Generals Eisenhower and Clay, William J. Donovan, Robert P. Patterson, William Green, Joseph C. Grew, Allen W. Dulles and others, to conduct a citizen's fight against the menace of Communist world aggression. One of its most powerful weapons is Radio Free Europe, a privately financed radio service in Europe that is bearing powerful messages behind the Iron Curtain.

Unhindered by the international treaties and conventions, it is now matching the Russian radio trick for trick. It calls a spade a spade. It has been warning citizens in Prague that the bogus anti-Communist group seeking supporters, is really a Communist plot to expose its enemies and liquidate them.

The first broadcast was on July 4, and the Soviets reacted violently. Through their media of 250 radio transmitters and over 3,000 newspapers and pamphlets, they have started a counter-campaign, claiming Radio Free Europe was a tool of Wall Street and the American Government.

To fight this life, the National Committee for a Free Europe, has organized a dramatic and forceful Crusade for Freedom that will leave no doubt in Communist minds that Radio Free Europe has the backing of millions of American people, and is the voice of this free people, sending help to victims of Communist tyranny.

A giant Freedom Bell has been cast in England and will be taken to Berlin and mounted in an appropriate setting at Tempelhof Air-drome. The plan of the Crusade is to put all of the bases of the bell, the names of the millions of Americans who have signed a Declaration of Freedom.

For these signatures have been obtained on scrolls through a nationwide campaign. Approximately 650 names have been obtained in Walton.

The final, dramatic touch to the Crusade will come October 24, when the Freedom Bell, with its millions of Declarations of Freedom, is dedicated. The ringing of the bell will be carried by a gigantic radio network to all of the bases of the bell. Simultaneously, the Crusade leaders plant that bells in all parts of the free world also will be rung. Behind the Iron Curtain, bells will be scrawled in chalk on walls, sidewalks and fences. Radio Free Europe will place the Curtain with broadcasts of the ceremonies.

Staffordburg Homemakers

Heart Report of European Trip

Mrs. J. C. Beall gave an interesting outline of her recent tour in Europe at the October meeting of the Staffordburg Homemakers' Club.

Visiting many of the historical places in England, Ireland and other countries, Mrs. Beall traveled from Lucerne, Switzerland via Bregenz, Austria to Oberammergau, Germany where she attended the world renowned "Passion Play."

Mrs. Beall is an active member in the club and a project leader for the year.

Others present were: Mesdames Denver Binder, William Binder, J. Barnett, H. L. Faulkner, William Gaudin, Dr. Howard Geo. Klein, Blush Rich, Stella Richardson, John Shaw, Mabel VanLandingham, and guests, Mrs. Charlie Payne of Paris, Ky., Miss Minnie Bapp, Evelyn Payne and Mrs. Carree Brinkley.

Touring the West

Mr. and Mrs. William Soden, Sr., are touring the west. Enroute home they will visit their sons and wives, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Soden of Tucson, Ariz., and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Soden of Dallas, Texas.

Leslie Chapman is visiting his half sisters, Mrs. Georgia Noel and Mrs. Mintie Snow, this week.

A meeting, just closed at the Church of Christ, with five additions. Bro. Frank Buck was the speaker. Thirty-seven different ministers attended the revival.

Sam Jones has sold his interest in the store to Jessie Kennie and wife.

KENTUCKY CHORUS TO SING IN WASHINGTON

Seventy-six women, members of the Central Kentucky Homemakers Chorus from Clark, Fayette, Franklin and Scott counties, will present a program of Stephen Foster music in Washington, D. C., October 20.

They will sing on Kentucky Day at the six-month Sesquicentennial Celebration, planned to commemorate the 150th anniversary of the establishment of the Federal Government in the District of Columbia in 1800.

Members of the choral groups in their respective counties, the singers will be under the direction of Mrs. Lewis Robinson, Fayette county. Mrs. William Wash of Scott county will be accompanist; Mrs. Paul Owen of Franklin county, announcer; and Mrs. Tom Quisenberry, Clark county, will give a brief history of the numbers to be sung.

NAPOLEON

Sympathy is extended to the family of Mon Ode, who passed away Wednesday evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Howard Miller. Mr. Ode will be greatly missed by his many friends.

Wm. Russell Franks is very ill at St. Elizabeth Hospital. We wish for his early recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Holton Webster (nee Lorraine Noel) are the proud parents of a baby boy named James Michael. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Williams were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Dean.

Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hopperton visited James Hopperton at Verona, who is ill. Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lucas were Rev. and Mrs. Will Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woods and Jim Lillard.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sanders and Mrs. Nancy Spencer were weekend guests of Mrs. Edith Groves.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Spencer, Leonard Noel, Mrs. Oakley Noel visited Mrs. Holton Webster and Wm. Russell Franks at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Young and son and Mr. and Mrs. George Holly and family visited the Cincinnati Zoo, yesterday.

It is estimated that Ky. 31 fescue and Ladino clover are now seeded on one or more fields on 400 farms in Breckinridge county.

TESTING SOILS MAY SAVE FARMERS MONEY

Farmers are saving money by having their soils tested before spreading limestone and fertilizers. Seventy-seven soil-testing laboratories have been established in connection with county agent offices. Some of these laboratories serve more than one county, which means that farmers in about three-fourths of Kentucky now can have their land tested.

It is estimated that about 30,000 soil tests will be made over the state this year, with some 6,000 more made at the central laboratory at the Agricultural Experiment Station at Lexington.

The county laboratories are operating with part-time technicians under the supervision of county agents and local soil committees.

Farmers having soil tests made often find they had planned to use more fertilizer than needed. Sometimes their land needed no limestone.

Lawrence Fleener of Grayson county saved $1,000 in limestone and fertilizer by having his soil tested. He had planned to use $50 more an acre of these materials on 20 acres.

until he had his soil tested.

In Hart county, Cecil Williams had planned to use a ton of fertilizer an acre on his tobacco land. After his soil was tested, the county agent said 200 pounds of fertilizer in the row would be about right.

"I had one of the best crops of tobacco I ever grew," said Williams. "It will make more than a ton to the acre."

Also attending were Mrs. W. E. Park, Covington District President, and Mrs. C. R. Marshall, District Promotion Secretary, both of whom spoke briefly. The meeting was dismissed with prayer by Mrs. C. N. Ogg.

Approximately 2,000 acres of permanent grass will be seeded in Muhlenberg county this fall, most of it being Ky. 31 fescue and Ladino clover.

"You never miss the water till the well runs dry..."

Like the water we drink, the availability of adequate railroad service is often "taken for granted" in normal times.

This is a high tribute to the railroads. But unfortunately, it is also too often taken for granted that railroads can always be strong and ready for any job, on a moment's notice... despite strength-sapping factors over which they have little or no control. Subsidized competition. Inadequate earnings. Hamstringing regulation. And forced continuation of services no longer needed or used.

Today, America can no longer afford the luxury of taking its railroads for granted. For more than the future of the industry is at stake. The railroads are our country's "transportation backbone." In the public interest, railroads should have equal opportunity with other carriers. Given that, they will always be ready to play their vital role in helping to shape the strength and security of America.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

By DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN
SCRIPTURE: Psalm 19:1-41; Acts 17:23-31
DEVOTIONAL READING: Luke 24:26-27

Using Your Bible

Lesson for October 15, 1950

THE BIBLE must be approached in three ways: with the head, with the heart and with the will. With the head for understanding, the heart for appreciation and reverence, and the will for obedience. That was the first question Philip asked the Ethiopian: Do you understand what you are reading? Not, do you enjoy it, or do you believe it, but do you understand it? If not, then the reader can never fully believe nor rightly enjoy it.

The King James Version THE BEST and simplest help in understanding the Bible is to read it in the language we speak. Now unfortunately it was not written in that tongue, but in Hebrew and Greek. We have to read it in translations. There are scores of translations in English alone. The most widely sold of these is the one known by various names: the King James, or the Authorized, or the 1611, version. This was first published in 1611, being essentially a revision of the Bishop's Bible, a still earlier translation. The name "authorized" is misleading, however, for it never was authorized by church or state. It is a noble example of 17th century English and has had a wide influence wherever English-speaking people have gone.

The fact is, however, that people today do not speak 17th-century English any more, and very few of us even read it. Consequently the Bible, in this King James version, has a quaint Shakespearean sound, and the difficulty of the language is one of the main reasons why the average American today finds it hard to read. Furthermore, the King James is inaccurate in many places. At the time it was published, the translators were working from Greek manuscripts which are now known not to be either the earliest or the best available. For these reasons, fresh translations of the Bible were greatly needed.

20th Century Translations THESE modern-English translations of the Bible haven't changed the Book; they are simply helping the reader to get back to the ideas of the original apostles and prophets; they are putting the Bible again into the language people actually speak.

Some of the more important versions may be noted here. Practically all the churches of Protestant North America have been co-operating through the International Council of Religious Education, in producing what is called the "Revised Standard Version" of which the New Testament is already out, and very popular too. The whole Bible in this version is due to be off the press by September 1952.

This is an excellent version for church or liturgical use, as it keeps close to the King James rhythm wherever it can; for the King James version, whatever its fault, has a rhythm about parts of it (notably the Psalms) which has never been surpassed.

Two other translations have been before the public, and have won many friends, for a score of years now: Moffat's, and the American Translation by Goodspeed, J.M.P. Smith and others. (This latter includes the Apocrypha, to which most Protestants are strangers).

At One Sitting THE average reader, used to taking his Bible in snippets of a verse or two, or a chapter at most, at one time, will find that he can sit down with one of these modern translations and just read on and on, fascinated by the book he has discovered for the first time.

One of the "hardest" yet most important parts of the Bible, for instance, is the Epistles section of the New Testament. Every one of these epistles is a short letter, but how few persons ever read one straight through! Let the reader who is puzzled by the Epistles get a copy of "Letters to Young Churches," a translation by J. B. Phillips, and he will find that dark part of the New Testament simply opening up and shining. The work of translating will go on and on as long as language keeps changing; let us thank God for all those who in our time have been making the Word of God again an open book for all men.

Here GREW THE ROOTS OF FREEDOM

The right to worship where and as we choose is only one phase of the liberty we Americans prize, and for this and all of our other freedoms we owe a debt to Christianity.

Religious convictions, woven into our Constitution, gave strength to our pioneers. Reliance upon God, and fidelity to the Church, made our forefathers brave, patient and determined. In such faith was America born.

Through the Church and by authority of the Bible, Christianity says that all human beings have worth—that each one has a place—that man's first responsibility is to his Creator.

The Church is the symbol of this belief—the steadfast instrument through which it is worked out. Therefore the Church deserves our support. It stands for decency and order. It and the Church school are the safest places for our children.

Choose your Church—give it part of your time and means—participate in some of its activities—and you will find life taking on a new and richer meaning.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH!

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his children and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

FLORENCE

Cpl. George A. Baker, serving with the U. S. Marines, stationed at Camp Lejeune, N. C., is spending a furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Baker of Main Street.

Mrs. Hattie Owens was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Margaret Carroll of Covington, one day the past week.

Friends of Mrs. Mabel Sayre will be delighted to know that her doctor has given her permission to walk again with the use of a crutch. We hope to see her out again soon, minus the crutch.

Mrs. Aileen Conner entertained a group of friends recently with an evening of organ music. The Chambers & Grubbs funeral home recently installed a Hammond organ. Lawrence L. Aylor, local musician, was at the organ and presented a varied program of the best known organ selections.

Mrs. Eileen Benefield returned to her home recently from a trip to Florence, Kansas, where she attended her mother for an eye operation. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Dixon of Erlanger have purchased the property formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mudman on Lloyd Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Gebhard and daughters of Forest Ave., Erlanger, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Larry Aylor and daughters at dinner, Sunday evening.

Roy C. Lutes has returned to work following several days illness at his home the past week.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Florence Volunteer Fire Department extend a very special invitation to the people of Boone county to attend their monthly Pillow Slip Bingo Social to be given at the Fire Hall on Thursday evening, October 19 at 8 p. m. Come and bring a friend. The social is being given for the benefit of the building fund.

Just Try a "WANT AD" in The ADVERTISER and See!

Who Runs America?

the Congress?

the President?

OR YOU AND THE MAN NEXT DOOR?

RUNNING AMERICA is the joint job of 150,000,000 people. It's the biggest job in the world today—keeping it running for liberty and for freedom. And the whole world's watching to see whether Americans can do it!

IN MUCH OF THE WORLD today, the people have resigned from running their own countries. Others have been quick to step in—first with promises of "security"—and then with whips and guns—to run things their way. The evidence is on every front page in the world, every day.

FREEDOM COMES UNDER ATTACK. The reality of war has made every American think hard about the things he's willing to work and fight for—and freedom leads the list.

But that freedom has been attacked here recently—just as it has been attacked in other parts of the world. One of the most serious threats to individual freedom has been the threat of Government-dominated Compulsory Health Insurance, falsely presented as a new guarantee of health "security" for everybody.

THE PEOPLE WEIGH THE FACTS. In the American manner, the people studied the case for Socialized Medicine—and the case against it.

They found that Government domination of the people's medical affairs under Compulsory Health Insurance means lower standards of medical care, higher payroll taxes, loss of incentive, damage to research, penalties for the provident, rewards for the improvident.

They found that no country on earth can surpass America's leadership in medical care and progress. They found that able doctors, teachers, nurses and scientists—working in laboratories where Science, not Politics, is master—are blazing dramatic new trails to health for Americans—and for the world.

THE "GRASS ROOTS" SIGNALS CONGRESS. In every community in the Nation, people stood up to be counted on this important issue. Thousands of local women's clubs, civic groups, farm, business, religious, taxpayer, medical, educational and patriotic organizations spoke out—giving the great United States Congress its unmistakable Grass Roots signal from home!

And ever watchful, ever sensitive to an alert people, The Congress saw that signal, and heard the people speak out, loud and plain. That's democracy in action. That's the American way!

Today among the 10,000 great organizations on militant public record against "Compulsory Health Insurance" are:

General Federation of Women's Clubs	American Legion
American Farm Bureau Federation	National Association of Small Business Men
National Grange	United States Chamber of Commerce
Veterans of Foreign Wars	National Association of Retail Grocers
National Conference of Catholic Charities	National Retail Dry Goods Association
American Protestant Hospital Association	American Bar Association

• Doctors of this Nation are grateful that the people refused to be wooed by the fantastic promises of this un-American excursion into State Socialism. • Doctors of America are dedicated to serve their fellow citizens at home and their comrades in uniform, wherever service to this Nation may take them. • And the thing they stand ready to fight for—to sacrifice for—to die for—is not the alien way of life of Socialism, but the prideful security of a free and self-reliant people!

THE VOLUNTARY WAY IS THE AMERICAN WAY!

• Throughout the Nation, free men and women, working and planning together, are finding the American answer to every question of medical service, care and cost. Hundreds of Voluntary Health Insurance Plans are in healthy competition—sponsored by doctors, insurance companies, hospitals, fraternal organizations—by industry, agriculture and labor. • Today in America—70 million people are protected by Voluntary Health Insurance! • Throughout the Nation, families are insuring themselves against the major costs of illness—at reasonable, budget-basis prices. Voluntary Health Insurance takes the economic shock out of illness. Protect your family now. • For information, ask your doctor—or your insurance man.

An American's greatest heritage is the right to learn the facts—and to speak his mind. Maintained with honor and used with sincerity—that right will guarantee forever that

Revival at Decourey

The Decourey Baptist Church is holding a revival during October 2 to 13, beginning at 7:45 each evening. Rev. Bert Barnes is the evangelist and it is reported that he is doing a real job of preaching. The public is cordially invited to attend the services.

Hone Burns

Last Friday the Independence Volunteer Fire Department was called south of town to the home formerly owned by Mrs. Anna Stephens, recently deceased. When the fire department arrived the flames were all over the outside of the house and coming out of the windows. The home and adjoining outbuilding or shed burned completely to the ground. Robert Dennis, one of the local fire fighters, reported that he understood that the fire started from a grate. The Bullock sisters occupied the home and one of them ran in for her baby and had her hair badly burned.

Woodson Roark of the Decourey neighborhood and a member of the Decourey Baptist Church, was buried from the church last Friday. Rev. R. Carter, the pastor, officiated. Mr. Roark was 50 years old.

Soliciting for No Fund

The officials of the Independence Baptist Church reported that recently there were some going around soliciting for the Pollo Fund in the name of the church. The officials say that they have no committee soliciting for the Pollo Fund or any other funds.

Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Thompson of Moffett Road celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last Sunday, October 1. Friends congratulated them and wish them many more happy married years.

New Roof

Members of the Independence Baptist Church are rejoicing that the new roof was put on the south side of the church building this week because rain interfered, which would probably have done considerable damage.

Visalia Revival

The Visalia Baptist Church began a revival October 9, which will continue through October 13. Rev. Thomas Shelton of Ludlow is assisting the pastor, Rev. Robert Brown. This public is cordially invited.

Married Saturday

James A. Ellis, 63, of Covington, and Miss Amanda Helen McCoy, 40, also of Covington, were married in the Independence Baptist parsonage last Saturday afternoon by Rev. W. E. Manens. Those standing up with the bride and groom, were Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Wright, LLL Highway, south of Independence. Mrs. Wright is a niece of the groom. The newly married couple will make their home in Covington.

Shower Thursday

Last Thursday night, the New Banklick Baptist Church gave a kitchen shower for Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brooks of the Dixie Highway. The Brooks family lost their home by fire several months ago. This shower was planned to be given sooner, but several things hindered. Mrs. Brooks is a sister of John Collins of the Banklick neighborhood.

Pastor Called

Rev. Simon Webster, who has been pastor of the New Banklick Baptist Church for a little over four years, has accepted a call to the Pleasant View Baptist Church, in Grant county. He will begin his new work there October 15. This takes Bro. Webster back to the neighborhood in which he was brought up, and where he still has many friends and acquaintances. Many friends in the Banklick neighborhood and around Independence, hate to see him leave but wish him Godspeed.

Real Estate Transfers

John H. and Margaret J. Osborne purchased 1.02 acres on the LLL Highway from Elmer and Dorothy Wernersbach.

William E. and Mary Petty purchased 2.80 acres on Riggs Road of William F. and Ora E. Petty.

Ira Frank and Elizabeth Menle purchased 1.04 acres on Taylor Mill Road from Ben and Annie Wisches.

John L. and Alma C. Jones purchased lots 922 and 923 in Latonia Lakes subdivision from Robert H. and Blanche Schmidt.

Mary A. Meek purchased lots 10 and 20 in block A, Hedgemont subdivision from Zedie Hedger.

Leland and Naomi Jones purchased 5.70 acres on State Highway 177 from Samuel S. and Elizabeth Shields.

George and Lucille Murrell purchased lots 46, 47, 48, 49 and 50 in Sumney Heights subdivision from William and Sarah Norton.

Fred and Edith Rider purchased a lot on Taylor Mill Road from Willis and Juanita Price.

Eufus and Robbie Culp purchased 1.10 acres on Perdido Road from John B. and Hilda Wilcher.

Trophies to Be Awarded

Managers of the local church softball league met last Monday night at the Independence Baptist Church to set a suitable night for a get-together of all the five teams in a carry-in supper. Trophies will be awarded the winner (Visalia Baptist Church) and the runner-up (Independence Baptist Church).

Each manager is to find a number of open Friday and Saturday nights, checking the activities of the church through the pastor, for the month of November and mail a card indicating all the Friday and Saturday nights open in their respective congregations to C. E. McGraw, Independence, Ky. From the open dates on these five cards, one supper night date will be selected and each team manager notified. Due to so many church activities it was found very difficult to select a night when each church could be well represented with their players, pastor, elders and all their wives or sweethearts.

Managers of the church teams are: Bill Halderman, Visalia Baptist; Edgar Baker, Wilmington Baptist; Edgar Colston, Goshen Christian; Randall Wagner, Independence Christian, and C. E. McGraw, Independence Baptist.

"Eat, Drink and Be Merry" Club

Those in a suburb of Paris, who want only to "eat, drink and be merry," recently organized themselves into an international movement. They now have 420 members in five countries who are devoted followers of the Father of French Literature, Francois Rabelais.

The members in France ate, drank and listened to music and determined to recruit the world to the movement, called "Compagnons of Rabelais."

The Lord, before the days of Rabelais (1490-1553) informed his hearers of the end of this philosophy of life. He told them of a man that God called a "fool," who had his barns full of goods and talked to himself in the words, "Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink and be merry." But God said unto him, "Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?"—Luke 12:19-20.

"So is he," said the Lord, "that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God." One can be rich toward God in at least a threefold way: in faith, in love and in good works. Faith necessarily comes first, for "without faith it is impossible to please Him."—Hebrews 11:8. Faith is taking God at His word.

Love begets love, "We love Him because He first loved us." Love expresses itself in gifts and good works. These things make us rich toward God, but "eat, drink and be merry," impoverishes the soul and causes the soul to be lost, unless there is repentance and faith in Christ as a personal Saviour.

Breeding Cooperative Meets

The annual meeting of the Artificial Breeding Cooperative of Kenton County met at the Courthouse last Monday night with some of the state officials present. One of the special features of the meeting was the stereopticon pictures of many of the famous Jersey, Guernsey and Holstein bulls now being used to service herds in this and other sections of the state.

The organization was happy to note that the secretary's report, made by George Damon, showed that real progress had been made. The Cooperative began January 2, 1947 and up to August 31 of this year, 1,942 cows have been serviced. The net gain over this period was 917 cows.

The membership in the beginning was 133 farmers, but of August 31, 1950 there were 273, or a gain of 140. Forty-two new members were added last year.

The new officers, elected for this year, were: President, Stanley Baird; Vice President, Joseph A. Blau; Secretary and Treasurer, George A. Damon; Technician, Robert F. Jackson. New directors are: John W. Shaw, Stanley Baird, and George Folmer. Retiring directors are: Leslie Riley, Cecil Northcutt and Joe Neumeister.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Riley and Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw were visiting Charles Winston near Hebron, Boone County, recently.

Mrs. Alf Byrmer left Saturday morning for clinical examination at Mayo Bros. She and her husband drove through.

Ben Gadd, nephew of E. N. Gadd, west of Independence, and wife and son were guests in the Gadd home here last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Giles visited recently Holman Crawford and family at Washington, Ky., and went on to see the sights at Blue Lick Springs.

Bill Halderman of the Visalia neighborhood, is leaving for the service October 15.

STAFFORDSBURG

The October meeting of the W. S. C. S. was held Wednesday, at which we had as guests several women from Trinity church in Latonia. It was an occasion to be remembered by all who attended. Though our organization is small, we have many loyal friends who come to our aid in time of need. We are thankful, but would so much like to have all to join with us. Much could be accomplished if we had more members.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Klein are enjoying a visit from their daughter, Virginia Lee, from Phoenix, Ariz.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gatewood made a flying visit to old friends in this community Thursday. Wish they could have stayed longer and all could have seen them.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett visited in Indianapolis, over the weekend.

Miss Hope Keeney arrived from Washington, D. C., Tuesday and has been busy visiting friends and relatives.

Miss Nelva Giles visited Miss Helen Richardson over the weekend and both attended a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Popp at Nicholson, Saturday night.

Mrs. John H. Klette of Park Hills spent the weekend with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney, Mr. Klette having gone to Bowman Field.

Only a small number attended the fellowship meeting at the church on Saturday evening, but all reported a good time.

Rev. Arnold has been housekeeping alone for the past week, since Mrs. Arnold accompanied her son on a visit to a daughter in Louisville.

The Homemakers met with Mrs. Ray Payne Thursday. There was a good attendance and we were glad to welcome back Mrs. Jack Beall, who but recently returned from a two-months tour of Europe. She attended the Passion play at Oberammergau. We were thrilled by the stories she told of her travels. Our hostess served a wonderful luncheon and all enjoyed meeting her daughter and sister-in-law, who assisted her in entertaining.

Our Sunday school is having Rally Day, October 15. Come and help us reach our goal of 125 present. What a good Sunday school and church we could have if those who intend to come "some-time" would "do it now!"

Powers Emmick of Hancock county harvested 7,000 pounds of fescue seed, then sowed most of it for pasture with Ladino clover.

SHORT STORY

Five Hours

Dead

By Richard Hill Whitman

OBADIAH LITTLE was dead. There were plenty who would be glad to hear that news. There were a great majority of others who didn't care a rap.

Obadiah was a mean old man who lived alone on a farm 10 miles west of Fairview. Everyone hated him because he drove a sharp bargain and foreclosed mortgages on the minute.

That was the situation that confronted Owen and me when we drove up to investigate.

Preliminary investigation revealed the following facts: Obadiah had been killed by a rock thrown through a window near which he was sitting, reading. We knew he had been sitting there reading because Moses Morris, a neighbor had passed by in the early evening and noticed the light in Obadiah's window, and noticed Obadiah sitting beside it. Moses had gone up the road looking for a cow that had strayed. He found the cow and started back and noticed that Obadiah had shifted his position.

Something about the way the old man looked aroused Moses' curiosity, and he went up close and saw blood on Obadiah's temple. Moses went on home and called the police.

We corroborated this by talking to neighbors who had heard Moses calling the cow, and by discovering footprints and hoofprints outside the window, and by the fact that Oscar Jones, another neighbor, had come by while Moses was looking in the window.

So we discounted Moses as a possible suspect, and went to work on the others who had hated Obadiah. There was, for example, Roscoe Norbert, who lived a mile away, and who had been helping Obadiah with his haying. A neighbor had heard Obadiah and Roscoe quarreling over wages that very day.

SO WE CALLED at Roscoe's house, and struck a snag. Roscoe hadn't been home all night. That looked bad, or good, depending on what side of the fence you were on. I sent Owen to hunt up Roscoe, and returned to Obadiah's farm.

Quite a crowd had gathered outside. Lights from automobiles illuminated the house and grounds. Among the cars I noticed Doc Orion's little coupe.

He was inside, and had already begun his investigation. "How's it look?" I asked him. "Let you know in about an hour." He glanced up and returned to his work. I scowled. Doc was usually more confident.

I went back into the bedroom. Doc was stuffing things back into his bag.

"Been dead about five hours," he said.

"How?"

"Some blunt instrument."

"The rock, eh?"

"Could have been."

Just then Owen came in. He had a tall, rawboned individual with him. "This is Roscoe," he said.

Owen came in again with Moses. Moses looked important.

"Moses," I said, "you're a first class liar. You murdered Obadiah!" Moses' jaw went slack. "How do you figure that, Shurrutt?"

"Easy as pie," I said. "You started out after your cow and stopped by to talk to Obadiah—about renewing a mortgage, perhaps, or something else. Anyway, you got mad and slugged him with the stove poker. Then you propped him up by the window, lighted the lamp and put the book in his hand."

"Then you went outside and heaved a rock through the window. Later, when you came back with your cow you saw that Obadiah had slumped, and you went up to look, which is when Oscar Jones came by."

There was, of course, blood on the poker to prove that part of it, but it was what the ancients said that gave me the real lead. Dead five hours. Well, five hours ago the sun was shining, and a mean old man like Obadiah wouldn't burn all when the sun was out.

KENTON CHURCH NEWS

Our Sunday school attendance increased this Sunday. We had 65 present. Let's try to have at least 75 Sunday! Come and bring someone with you!

Remember Sunday school each Sunday, 10 a. m., Walter Roden, supt.; preaching services each Sunday at 11 a. m. and 8:15 p. m., Rev. Frank Lipscomb, pastor; prayer meeting each Wednesday, 8:15 p. m.; B. T. U. each Friday evening at 8:15. Mrs. Frank Lipscomb, leader. You are cordially invited to attend each of these services.

Bro. Standifer will be with us Friday evening, Oct. 13 at 8:15. He will show some pictures and talk to us. Come out to this service!

TREE PLANTING AT NEW RECORD

The annual report of the college's extension division says about 1,500,000 seedling trees were set. These included both hard wood and conifer, to grow fence posts and saw timber, and for the control of soil erosion and protection of water supplies and wild life.

In four farm forestry projects, each covering one to five counties, forestry programs were developed last year under the guidance of trained foresters.

Since about 73 percent of the state's forests are on farms, extension work in forestry dealt primarily with the care and management of trees so that timber could be had for farm use and for sale. Farmers were encouraged to select trees to be cut, allowing them to grow to a profitable size.

CLEMENTS' RECORD SPEAKS!

As Sheriff, County Clerk, County Judge, State Senator, Congressman and Governor, Earle C. Clements has achieved a political record . . . a record of faithful public service . . . unexcelled in the Commonwealth of Kentucky. AND NEVER ONCE HAS HE BEEN REPUDIATED ON THAT RECORD. That record stands today in the unblemished faith of the people of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. Because Earle Clements never has failed the people who have elected him to any office of trust. For almost thirty years, Earle Clements has given devoted, conscientious, capable public service to Kentucky.

VICTORY IS A HABIT WITH EARLE CLEMENTS

During his public service, Governor Clements has succeeded at all levels of government—Local, State and National. His broad experiences fit him for broader service. These are grave times in our Nation. The next few years may determine the very existence of our form of government. We need Earle Clements' business-like, competent, conscientious ability in the National Administration.

Earle Clements' outstanding record of service qualifies him unquestionably for the United States Senate. He has served the farmer, veteran, businessman, laboring man . . . all people . . . devotedly. He has put the government of Kentucky on a sound business basis. His record is public. And the public record of Earle Clements . . . farmer, veteran, businessman, public servant speaks louder than any man.

CONRAD HARDWARE

HEATER TIME

This week started off dry and turned very wet and cold. Do you need a heater of some kind? We have coal, oil, wood, gas and electric—all sizes and prices! You had better check your heating system—we polished our big heater and checked the bowls and grates—it is ready to use and we may set it up any day—the loafers are getting chilly—Red Hughes and Al Hunt have already asked when we were going to put up the stove—so, I am asking you, how about your stove—is it ready?

Floyd Armstrong from Moffett Road, in Kenton County, bought a very nice coal heating stove. G. H. O'Neal, who is building on U. S. 42, bought a Dayton water system—Mr. O'Neal, who sold the tourist court in North Walton and went to Florida, has come back to Boone County—a very fine place to live. Bill Satchwell from Verona, was in Forest Marsh, who came after silo paper. I have had several customers from Pendleton County after silo paper.

Chick just unloaded two of those rubber tired farm wagons and they are only $125—very cheap for the quality. Ed Elmore had Chick make him a rack for his milk cans—now he wants us to make a funnel for his sorghum evaporator. R. P. Hughes brought his fence charger to be repaired. Henry Lipscomb's electric heater needed repair. Blanche Ransom's electric toaster needed repairing. We fix everything, I believe—if you could see what they bring in. Leslie Williams, who raises a lot of hogs, came up after Dr. Hess dip, to spray on his hogs for lice—it will kill hog lice in a hurry.

C. W. Thompson, one of your real estate men here in town, brought in a storm window to have a new glass put in. Chick is the glazier. Ray and Zedek Cleo are trying to figure out why her chimney will not burn—very stove we put up for her smoke. But that Brewster will fix it. Leslie Hoffman came in and said she ran cattle all over these Kenton County hills and rubbed blisters on her heels—she wished her neighbors would build some fence, so she could keep her cattle at home.

Roy Kenney came in and asked how much those rubber tired wagons would hold up, and I told him 6,000 lbs.—he said bring him one down when Roy finds what he wants and needs it. He doesn't hesitate—a very fine fellow and a real customer. Ed Kennedy, another Beaver customer, was in Saturday night buying—Ed always comes up on Saturday. Felsa Thomas and wife were in—Mrs. Thomas was having iron trouble, but all it needed was a 10-cent plug-on cord. Bernard Ryan was really in trouble—he had a stove too large for the pipe, but we just stretched the pipe and I hope it goes on.

That Dick Ryan was a busy man trying to get the bride and groom settled—as Ab and the very charming young lady, whom I have not met, were married Saturday. Mrs. Ray Hurd was in buying but I didn't get to see what all she bought. Mrs. Fencil Bush came after stove pipe. Mrs. Elsie Hudson needed a long glass for her china closet door, also some hinges. Mr. McCormack came over after some of that Bolce aluminum paint—Doc has used this for years—it is the best. W. F. Hornaby must be a plumber—he nearly bought all the 1 1/2-inch galvanized pipe I had—but I will get more, and I also have a good stock of fittings and water pumps.

Mrs. Kate Neill of Crittenden was having a little trouble with her Dayton water pump—all I had to do was call Ed Kenyon, who sells me these pumps and he took care of her right away—when you buy Dayton water systems, you really get service. Mr. and Mrs. Noel Robinson from Concord were in inquiring about vegetation blinds—the size, color and time to make them—most all the blinds we sell are made to order—they are much better.

Ross Chapman, also from Concord, bought flex-o-glass for his chicken house windows, stove pipe for the house, also stove mat to go under the stove, fish hooks and stinging for Ross to go fishing—he said the hooks were for Howard Miller, but Howard and Ross are fishermen. V. L. Stephenson from Kenton County came over after a heating stove, also flex-o-glass for the chicken house. Here comes Portwood, also from Kenton—you can hear him talk before he gets in the store—all he needed was his oil heater worked over. Pascal Bush bought anchor rods and brace wire, also stove pipe and draft regulator.

Bill Scroggin, who owns Verona Lakes, bought one of those long cast iron wood heaters to put in the office at the lakes. Tuesday was Kenton County day in Walton. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Reator, who just built a new home, bought a cook stove, and a steam pump. Mr. Riggs from Kenton Station Road, bought a diamond mesh farm gate. George Binder came after electric wiring—I have lots of customers I know live in Kenton, but I have never had time to find out their names. Boone County showed up with a bang—Jake Stilt bought aluminum paint and a lot of small items. Pat Madden needed PTZ sheep carpen, light bulbs and galvanized water pipe. Albert Rosensteel called for us to bring him 315 ft. of 1-inch galvanized pipe, valves and fittings.

Joe Kennedy is ready for us to set up that Perfection oil heater he bought some time ago—if you never used a Perfection, you have missed one of the best heaters made—all porcelain finish and a pilot light you never have to turn out—if the weather warms up, just turn down on pilot and it will burn four days on one gallon of oil—if you need an oil heater, we have two of the best—Perfection and Siegler—ask anyone who has one—come to Conrad's for heaters, all sizes and prices!

This meeting will bring another in a series of papers on the history of towns in the county.

Mrs. Sadie Tanner, Mrs. Ora Tanner and Mrs. J. P. Brothers will present the story of the early history of the Lanesburg area. Hopeful communities. Anyone interested is invited to attend and to take part in the program.

Reunion Enjoyed Recently At Old Oak Island School

Some seventy people renewed and strengthened old friendships and enlarged the circle of their acquaintances as a basis for new friendships as they visited around the dinner table at the Oak Island Community House, last Saturday night.

The occasion was the second "reunion" of people who had associations with this local rural school before the days of consolidation of Kenton County schools. And the place for such a gathering was very fitting, as the ladies, as well as the men, had kept the old school house in repair over the years and it looked very familiar to those who formed their first acquaintance with the three R's at this place. Even the teacher's desk and chair took very much as they did many years ago than many people care to recall.

Most of those who attended, came from other localities, only two coming from the old family homes. However, they had not forgotten how to prepare a dinner for the Oak Island folk, so the supply of fried chicken, roast beef, pork, ham, vegetables, salads, cheese, pickles, relishes, pie, cake, coffee, tea, and home made hot rolls was sufficient for twice as many people.

Many who have been to one of these dinners said that we have another, so if someone who has attended the old school but who was not notified of the dinner had, but who would like to attend the next one, call someone who was present Saturday night and ask to be notified next time. No one was intentionally missed.

To Clean Lebanon Cemetery

The days of October 27 and 28 have been set for cleaning the Lebanon Cemetery. Everyone, who can, is asked to be present and lend a helping hand. The ladies are also asked to attend and take lunch.

MRS. MARY COLE

Mrs. Mary Cole, Livingston, Ky., passed away at her home October 2. She was born May 30, 1866, being 84 years old at the time of her death. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Tussey, both of whom preceded her in death.

She was married to D. D. Cole, on October 18, 1887, and to this union nine children were born, eight of whom survive. They are: Mrs. Don Wilson, Mrs. Charles Carpenter, Mrs. Lefford Helton and Bill Cole, all of Livingston; Mrs. Bert Baker, Richmond, Ind.; Jesse Cole and Jake Cole of Hamilton, Ohio, and Delbert Cole of Walton.

She also leaves 26 grandchildren, 39 great-grandchildren and three great-great-grandchildren, besides a host of friends and other relatives, who mourn her passing.

Mrs. Cole was a member of Middle Fork Christian Church, and a very faithful one, having given fifty years of her life as a Sunday school superintendent and teacher.

Funeral services were held Oct. 4, at the Middle Fork Christian Church with Rev. John Rose and Rev. W. W. Murphy officiating. Burial was in the nearby cemetery.

The Klefken-Ryan Nuptials Solemnized Oct. 7 in Covington

Miss Betty Klefken, daughter of Mrs. Henrietta Klefken of Covington, was united in marriage to Mr. George W. (Ab) Ryan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ryan of Beaver Road, at 8:00 a. m., Saturday, October 7 in St. Benedict Church, Covington, by the Rev. Father Mathias.

Miss Sarah Klefken, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Misses Lohr, Griffith and Judith Edwards.

Mr. Richard Ryan, brother of the groom, served as best man, and Mr. Joseph Ryan, another brother, was usher.

The bride, clothed for her wedding, in an ivory satin dress with fitted waist and long sleeves, and a neck ruff of net. She carried white mums and ivy with stephanos. Her veil was finger-tip trimmed with seed pearls.

The bride's maids wore green velvet dresses with hats to match, with gold accessories. They carried special bouquets of mums.

Mrs. Klefken, mother of the bride, chose a taupe dress with black velvet accessories, and wore an orchid corsage. Mrs. Ryan, the mother of the groom, wore a brown suit with brown accessories. She also wore an orchid corsage.

The groom and his attendants wore matching smoke gray suits. A reception for a large number of their relatives and friends was held at the new home of the bride and groom on Beaver Road, Walton, Saturday night.

Following a short honeymoon trip to New Orleans, Mr. and Mrs. Ryan are now at their home.

Crigger Wins Texas Trip

The list of winners in the All-American Insurance Team Conference has just been announced by the Kentucky Farm Bureau. The list of winners include John E. Crigger, Burlington, Boone County; Norman Davis, Graves County; Norman Berger, Jefferson County; B. H. Dixon, Calloway County; Curtis Votaw, Mercer County, and George Williams of Todd County.

The winners qualified for this award by selling a sufficient quota of life, fire and wind and auto insurance during August and September. They also secured a group of Farm Bureau members.

The award is an all-expense trip to the American Farm Bureau convention to be held in Dallas, Texas, December 11-14.

Baptist W. M. S. Meets

The W. M. S. of the Walton Baptist Church met at the church on Thursday, October 12 for the regular monthly meeting.

The morning was devoted to business, led by the new president, Mrs. George Knox. At the noon hour, the members served a nice luncheon to the Executive Board of the North Bend Association. About 25 men and two women were present.

The afternoon was spent in study of Royal Service, led by program leader, Mrs. Evie Webster. Thirty-nine members and some visitors were present.

Sixteen Men In Oct. 6 Draft, The Largest To Date

Sixteen men from the tri-county area of Boone, Gallatin and Owen were inducted in the armed forces at Cincinnati, October 6, according to word from the Draft Board.

In addition to the 16 inducted, 25 more will report for physical examinations October 18, and another 10 will be examined October 25.

The October 6 draft was the largest to report for armed service since the close of World War II. They were:

James H. Varner, Walton; Billy Z. Prather, Beechwood; Oscar L. Johnson, Walton; Norman J. Roberts, Worthville Route 1; Edward Suter, Gratz; Donald R. Ransom, Walton; Garret L. Giles, Warsaw; Don F. Kincaid, Burlington; Gaines L. Robinson, Jr., Walton; Florian L. Vest, Gratz; William J. Mahan, Constantine; Ervin J. Hahn, Florence; Frank A. Rose, Long Ridge; Warren C. Gullett, Sanders; Francis E. Ryan, Verona, and Edward R. Knox, Union.

Of the 25 who reported for examinations Wednesday, Boone county furnished 11, Owen county nine and Gallatin county five. Of the 10 to be called October 25, Gallatin county will send three, Owen county six, and Boone county one.

Halloween Party at Piner

There will be a Halloween party at the Piner school, October 26, beginning at 8 p. m. Admission is free to all who wear Halloween costumes and are masked; to all others, the admission will be ten cents.

Mad Dog Scare In Walton As Ten or More Dogs Are Bitten

The streets of Walton have received a complete rejuvenating the past two weeks, with about $250 being spent on the project. Welsh Avenue and Highland Court were re-covered rather thoroughly, and others received whatever attention necessary to bring them up to a high standard. The Town Council announces that there are other projects to be done, which will complete the street improvements for the year.

March Of Dimes Chairman

Ben F. Zimmer, Jr., 230 Dixie Highway, Florence, has been named director of the 1951 March of Dimes campaign in Boone county. It was announced this week by Howard C. Orr, executive director of the Kentucky Chapter, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

In making the announcement, Mr. Orr stated that Mr. Zimmer will serve as Boone chairman of the drive for the third year.

Supt. J. O. Ward Congratulates Chief Allen and Firemen

It seems in order to give our congratulations to Chief Allen and his men for the splendid way they handled our week of fire prevention at the school.

The Fire Department gave prizes for the best posters depicting the dangers of fire. The first prize went to Bob Chandler for the most original and best drawing; second prize went to Laverne Chandler, and third place was a tie between Terry Smith and Marlene Morefield, so they each received a prize. First place award was $500, second $300 and third $100. Many children participated in these drawings, and those who did not take part in the actual drawing received a good deal of information in fire prevention.

On the morning of October 10 at 9:00 a. m. WHAS and thirty-four other radio stations throughout the state broadcast a fire safety program, which emphasized the absolute necessity of frequent fire drills in all schools of Kentucky.

Our local school had been furnished by the fire department a radio for each room, enabling all children to hear this broadcast.

The first half of the program consisted of a dramatic exposition of the possible results of actual fires where the children had been inadequately trained in classroom evacuation and contrivance of the almost miraculous escape from a flaming building by pupils who had been trained by monthly practice in the safe exit of their schools. At about 9:08 an alarm was sounded, which gave the signal for the pulling of the alarm ring in every one of the state's 5,600 schools.

Congratulations to Chief Allen and his men again, for they were on the scene at the school by the time the children had cleared the building, which took about one and a half minutes.

We cannot speak too highly for these men who have an efficient system and stand by to protect our homes and schools.

Chief Allen had the children to assemble in the gym after the fire drill, and he gave some instructions on the dangers of fire and what to do in emergencies. He also presented the prize money to the winners of the poster contest.

We wish to take this opportunity to thank the fire department for this splendid job well done. We also wish to thank Conrad Hardware and Webster Radio and Television Shop for supplying the radios and extensions for the school.

ALUMNI DANCE OCT. 28

Undergoes Operation

Mrs. Bess Conrad was taken to Booth Hospital, Saturday, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis. She is reported to be doing nicely and is expected home soon—possibly today.

30-Day Quarantine Is Now In Effect

A mad dog ran rampant in Walton, Tuesday of this week, and bit at least ten other dogs before being shot by Police Chief Simmons and Guy St. Clair. The head of the dog was taken to a laboratory for inspection, and they called Wednesday morning and advised that all dogs in the community be fastened up for thirty days.

The Town Council ordered Chief Simmons to destroy any dog found on the streets of Walton for the next month, regardless of whose dog it is or whether or not it has a tag. So, if you do not want your dog destroyed, "keep it tied or fastened up," says Chief Simmons.

Most of the dogs that were bitten have already been killed and the others are all being watched and at the least sign of anything unnatural, will also be destroyed.

Chief Simmons wishes the cooperation of everyone in keeping this order in effect, and anyone seeing a dog on the streets, please call him or the Advertiser and something will be done immediately.

(Everyone loves dogs, but this is no time to be sentimental about them when our children and everyone is in danger.—Editor)

KENTON GARDEN CLUB

Mrs. William R. Brown presided at the meeting of the Kenton County Garden and Cultural Club held at the Independence Christian Church with Mrs. Hubert Baird, hostess.

Sixteen members answered roll call. Mrs. W. Schenck and Mrs. L. G. Cummins were welcomed as new members. Mrs. Ames was a welcome guest.

Mrs. J. A. Keeney very ably reviewed the book "Why I Believe in God," by A. J. Cronin.

The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank D. Cooke at Atwood.

Kenton Utopians Elect Officers At October Meeting

At the Kenton Utopia Club annual election, Charles Gall, Taylor Mill Road, was elected president for the coming year. Other officers named were: Ed Hiatt, vice president; Mrs. Chas. Gall, secretary-treasurer. Retiring officers were: Herb Workes, president; Eugene Klein, vice president; and Mrs. Herb Workes, secretary and treasurer. The new officers will take office at the next monthly meeting, and will serve during the coming year. The meeting was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Barnes, near Whites Tower.

At this meeting, "Farm Financing" was discussed by members and plans were made for the November meeting.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hiatt, Mr. and Mrs. William Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Workes, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Blair, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Klein, Mr. and Mrs. John Capisle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gall, and Chas. Cummins.

The November meeting will be in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Blair.

DONKEY BASKETBALL

The Miller Donkey company will bring its troupe of long-eared and temperamental stars to the Simon Kenton High School gymnasium for a Donkey Basketball game, Friday, October 20 at 7:30 p. m.

The Pioneer Club, composed of Athletic Award winners at Simon Kenton, are sponsoring the event.

Six teams will compete, making it a triple-header card for the evening. The competing teams are: Independence Volunteer Fire Department, Simon Kenton Faculty, American Legion, Seniors of Simon Kenton, Pioneer Club and Cheer Leader.

Players must ride the donkeys in the game.

Tickets may be obtained from the Pioneer Club members or at Simon Kenton.

KENTUCKIAN'S IN WASHINGTON
by Gil Kingsburg

There was an unusual ceremony at the Capitol building here in Washington the other day.

Vice President Barkley and Speaker Rayburn attended. And while Washington dignitaries gathered, the 157th anniversary of the laying of the Capitol cornerstone was celebrated.

The ceremony was timed to coincide exactly with the original event back in 1793.

At that time, George Washington took the leading role. Today General Washington would scarcely be the building. Carpenters, electricians, plumbers and whatnot are ripping the place apart, putting a new face on the House and Senate chambers.

Senator Chapman:

The senior senator from Kentucky, Virgil Chapman, is getting considerable recognition these days. As you know, he was named some weeks ago to the War Investigating Committee, the watchdog committee.

The other day, he was appointed—as a part of his investigating duties—to look into that problem of war surplus. A lot of people are disturbed that we sold or gave away much of the material left over from World War II.

Incidentally, the other day Speaker Rayburn declared that the Paria, Kentucky Democrat is one of the finest congressmen ever to serve on the House Commerce Committee.

Foreign Affairs:

Efforts to blame Kentucky Democrats for our trouble in Korea apparently are going to backfire.

Recently a Washington organization released the voting record on all Kentucky congressmen. And it was revealed that on the proposal to extend aid to Korea, Kentucky Republicans in the Lower House voted against such help. In fact, one of these GOP lawmakers declared that to help Korea was like pouring money down a rat hole.

To those business people who want to locate in a growing community, we can recommend Northern Kentucky.

Populations:

The Census Bureau has made a report and some of the gains are spectacular.

Take Highland Heights, near Fort Thomas. It has jumped more than 33 per cent in population. Or take Florence, in Boone County. It went up a noble 70 per cent.

Park Hills, near Covington, increased 39 per cent. Erlanger jumped 52 per cent. Williamstown did better than 35 per cent. And Walton increased in size 39 per cent.

Other gains: Bellevue 3.5; Dayton 6.7; Carrollton 10.5; Elamere 20; South Fort Mitchell 31.2; La Grange 16.7; Falmouth 4; Owensboro almost 5; Covington almost 4; and Ludlow almost 3. Maysville turned in a 30 per cent increase.

ACHIEVEMENT PROGRAMS FOR 4-H CLUB MEMBERS

Thirteen district 4-H club achievement programs are announced by J. W. Whitehouse, state club leader. Outstanding boys and girls will be named at each program, and from them the state champions will be selected to receive trips to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago, November 27-30.

Attending the district meetings will be several hundred county champions, selected from among winners in the various 4-H clubs.

Projects for which outstanding 4-H'ers will be selected include citizenship, farm and home safety, soil and water conservation, girls record, frozen foods, electricity for farm and home, home grounds beautification, tractor maintenance, health, recreation, public speaking, forestry, and community relations.

The achievement program for this area will be held in Covington, on Saturday, October 7.

It is estimated that the loss from wildfire on tobacco in Hardin county this year will be approximately $250,000.

Records of summer seedling of legumes and grasses were broken in Grant county in August, farmers having prepared much of the land several weeks in advance.

GLENCOE

Rey, and Mrs. Stephenson have purchased the Carry Groves property and have torn the house down. They plan to build a new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Worth Collins have spent a few days out at their farm the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Noel and Paul attended the stock sale in Walton Tuesday and then shopped a while there—(it pays to advertise).

Miss Jennie Taylor has returned home from Covington, where she visited her nephew, Jean Taylor, and family.

Mrs. Clara Lovelace and daughter and her husband, Mr. Dorcy, and daughter called on Mr. and Mrs. Walter Noel last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marie Steward entertained Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Minor of Independence, and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Steward and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Snow. All had a fine day.

Ralph Kemper is in a serious condition in the hospital. We hope for his early recovery.

Peckie Glacken has bought out Freeman Rogers.

FLORENCE

Mr. and Mrs. John Stephenson were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Brown of Limaburg, Tuesday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Nieberding arrived by plane at the Boone County Airport, Saturday, last week from Hialeah, Fla., and is visiting in the home of a sister in Norwood, and expects to have her household goods shipped here as soon as an apartment can be obtained.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woodward and Mr. and Mrs. Jerald Dixon attended the annual National Dairy Show, Wednesday. This is an annual event and was held this year at Indianapolis, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brown of Limaburg, are elated over the arrival of a son, born at St. Elizabeth Hospital, October 12. The little lad weighed 9 lbs., 11 oz. and has been named Gregory Lee. Mother and baby are doing nicely. Congratulations!

Broadus Lucas has returned from Booth Hospital and is doing nicely.

VERONA

Dedication of the new church will be held October 29. Bro. J. T. Roberts and other pastors and friends promise to be here.

The community was happy to have Bro. J. T. Roberts back in church and we all join in giving thanks to Our Heavenly Father for our many blessings.

We were glad to have Bro. Charlie Hughes and family at Sunday school and church, and sympathize with them in their bereavement.

Bro. Stewart will be absent this week and Bro. John Ashcraft will supply for both morning and evening services. His friends are invited to come out and be with us.

Five ladies from the W. M. S. visited Booth Hospital last Tuesday.

Mrs. Frank White and daughter, Mary Ethelene, and Mrs. Janie Copley of Wood River, Ill., have been visiting relatives in this community and Mrs. White's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Troy Meyer, and children of Bedford. Mr. and Mrs. Meyer and children visited her grandfather and family, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Vest of Walton.

Birthdays
Harry Waller and sister, Mrs. Hazel Jones, celebrated their mother, Mrs. Marion Waller, Crittenden, a surprise on her birthday, Oct. 8, which was also Hazel's birthday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Alexander, Prof. and Mrs. Chester Alexander and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Ota Alexander and children, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Alexander, Mr. and Mrs.

A pleasant half hour of music, song and conversation with Mel Martin each Tuesday and Thursday mornings at 11 a.m., EST over WLW is aired for listeners on the "Mid-Morning With Mel, Martin" program.

Russell Alexander, Mrs. Irene Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Waller, Billy Mac Waller, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Waller, Marion Arch Waller, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Waller.

Boyle county has the largest number of commercial feeder cattle on pasture in its history, due to good grass and favorable price outlook.

INDEPENDENCE R. 1

We are very sorry to report Howard Hoffman, son of Nelson Hoffman and wife, confined to his bed with rheumatic fever. We hope he will soon be on the road to recovery. Glad to see Miss Carol Shaw out again from a week's illness with a severe cold.

The Staffordburg Sunday school really had a very enjoyable Rally Day service Sunday morning. There were 94 present and several of our regular members were sick and unable to be present. We wish we could make every Sunday a Rally Day—suppose we try it by all being present again next Sunday. It makes our hearts glad to see all the seats filled and also another good part was enjoyed, for so many stayed for the preaching service. The pastor says it is so much easier to talk to people, rather than empty pews. All try to come next Sunday at 10 a. m. to Sunday school and preaching service at 7:45 p. m. Let's all work together to build up the Kingdom of God and the saving of souls. Everybody welcome!

Miss Hope Keeney left for Washington, D. C., Friday, after spending several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney, and other relatives and friends of the community. Her brother, Don, accompanied her back for a week's visit.

We were sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. Mary Conway of Sharpesburg. She was a sister-in-law of Miss Minnie and Lyle Rapp. Mrs. Conway had quite a few close friends in the community.

Rev. and Mrs. Roy Martin and little son, Dickie, of Mt. Sterling are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett and son Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Ballinger had as dinner guests Sunday, Rev. and Mrs. Arnold.

Mr. and Mrs. Will House of Independence spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Chas. Lacey, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hanna and son and Mrs. G. W. Craigmyle spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hanna.

Mrs. Mayo Smith of Crestwood, Ky., spent the weekend with her sisters, Miss Emma Yates and Mrs. Raymond Giles, and family of Independence.

"Face Lifting" Brings Old Pastures Back To Thrifty Growth

PURDUE University agronomists recommend a "face lifting" in September for old, run-down, weedy permanent pastures. A good renovation program supported by liming and the use of commercial fertilizer can bring a pasture back to lush, vigorous production, they say.

First step in the program is a soil test for acidity and applications of limestone as needed.

The job of making a seedbed on an old sod can be satisfactorily done with a disc harrow or field cultivator, the agronomists say. The operation can be eased considerably by working the soil in one direction and then working it crosswise.

New grasses can be seeded any time in September. Timothy and smooth bromegrass are excellent grasses to supplement blue grass. How much these grasses increase pasture output depends on the legumes to be used in the mixture and the amount and analysis of fertilizer used. The agronomists say that a good legume seed mixture to use per acre is two pounds of red clover, three pounds broadleaf trefoil and a quarter pound of Ladino clover.

The agronomists stress that a good application of commercial fertilizer is essential in pasture renovation. They recommend adding 400 pounds per acre of 0-20-10 or 0-20-0 fertilizer at the time of seeding. The phosphate and potash fertilizer helps get the seedling off to a good start, provides nutrients the legumes need to grow and boosts pasture production.

The Telephone Co. Announces....

On August 2, 1950 the telephone company placed on order for the most modern type cable available to replace and double the capacity of the present cable running from Florence to Gunpowder Creek on U. S. Highway 42. The estimated cost of this cable, placed in service, will be approximately $7,000.00. When this order was placed, it was scheduled for shipment early in September. Because of the increasing scarcity of copper and other materials, this delivery has been delayed; however, shipment has been received of approximately one-fifth of the cable ordered and the balance was rescheduled to be shipped within ten days.

When this cable is received and installed, it will result in improved service to customers on Highway 42, customers at Union and customers between Union and Big Bone.

Watch this space in future issues for additional information regarding further improvements to your telephone system.

Kentuckians Buy Wisconsin Cattle
The third cattle buying expedition into Wisconsin since March 1 has just been completed by Veteran Teachers and T. S. Leathers, Dairy Specialist, Division of Agriculture, Kentucky Department of Agriculture.

Mr. Leathers acted as adviser in selecting and purchasing. Most of the cattle were bought by Veterans, with a few going to FFA and 4-H members.

Breeds, ages and price ranges of the 58 head bought are as follows: Guernseys, 13-16 months, grade stock, $115-$150; Guernseys, 4-8 months, grade stock, $60-$90; Holsteins, springers, grade stock, $217-$285, mostly $250; Holsteins, 4-8 months, grade stock, $100; Guernseys, 4-8 months, registered, $100-$125; Holsteins, 4-8 months, registered, $140-$160.

Soda Ash Strike Delays Sorghum
The strike in the Soda Ash Industry this past summer has caused the Kentucky Sorghum Growers Cooperative Association to curtail sorghum shipments, except in 2 1/2 lb. jars.

Soda Ash is used in the making of glass and the strike caused glass manufacturers to shut down. However, more jars are expected to be available in about a week.

Sorghum production is now in full swing in Hancock County. Quality is reported to be excellent.

Grain Markets Weaken

Grain markets turned weaker and prices declined moderately during the week ended October 12, reports to the Kentucky and United States Departments of Agriculture indicate. Wheat declined 2 to 4 cents per bu., influenced by relatively large supplies, a light export demand and competition from Russian grain in European markets. Corn markets were barely steady, despite frost damage in some portions of the belt and a reduction of 45 million bushels in production estimates.

Plentiful supplies of old crop grain were a weakening factor. Little change occurred in the market situation for rye, oats, barley and grain sorghums, but prices of old seeds declined further as marketings from the new crop increased.

Uncle Sam Says

Farming today requires great skill on the part of the farmer. Not only must he know soils, fertilizers, and seeds, but he must be an expert mechanic to operate all types of farm machinery. In other words, a farmer works hard for his money and in a highly speculative business. He should make this money safe investment. U. S. Savings Bonds, guaranteed by our government, is a crop that NEVER fails. It's always ready when needed. Savings Bonds are a good place for this year's crop money. They grow, rain or shine. See your banker or postmaster on the next trip to town.

FATHERS LISTEN IN AT CHILD-TRAINING

Meetings on child-training and family life, one of the extension projects of the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky, often are held at night so fathers can attend.

Of the 5,698 families reached last year, 1,117 reported better discipline among children; 1,283 families used better methods in selecting toys, play equipment and books; 1,314 improved the social life of adolescent children, and 1,075 improved equipment to help children acquire more wholesome habits.

The corn ear worm damaged an estimated 1,000 acres of late corn in Hopkins county during August. Trigg county dark tobacco growers experienced severe losses due to wildfire.

B.F. Goodrich NEW MUD-SNOW TIRE OUTSTOPS OUTPULLS OTHER LEADING BRANDS

Here's proof from Pittsburgh Testing Laboratory!

STOPS QUICKER ON ICE	STOPS QUICKER ON SNOW	PULLS BETTER ON SNOW
WHEN NEW BFG MUD SNOW TIRE STOPPED	WHEN NEW BFG MUD SNOW TIRE STOPPED	WHEN NEW BFG MUD SNOW TIRE STOPPED

GIVES 12 TO 64% MARGIN OF SAFETY OVER OTHER TIRES
... UP TO 24% GREATER PULLING POWER!

It's a fact! The new B. F. Goodrich mud-snow tire lets you stop on slippery ice or snow in 12 to 64% shorter distance than other leading tires—a margin of safety that can make the difference between a safe stop and a collision. And the BFG tire gives you up to 24% greater pulling power to get you through deep snow. Tests by Pittsburgh Testing Laboratory, famous independent testing organization, prove it! The new mud-snow tire is not just an "improved" tire. It has a radically different, scientifically designed tread. The new flex-hug cleat digs deep, pulls you through mud and snow. It combines tremendous traction with long wearability. Yet it runs quietly on the open road.

PULLS YOU THROUGH MUD TOO! The BFG mud-snow tire digs into mud like a tractor tire. Less you drive over bad roads or open fields without getting stuck. Get winter-driving peace-of-mind like you never had before. Small down payment puts a pair of B. F. Goodrich mud-snow on your rear wheels now, before the first snowfall.

TIRE HEADQUARTERS

INDEPENDENCE

James W. Garnet

Services for James W. Garnet, a former resident of Independence, were held at the Swindler funeral home, Independence, last Friday afternoon. Mr. Garnet was 76 years old. He had been bedfast for several months after an injury from a fall. He died at the County Infirmary, Covington, last Tuesday (Oct. 10).

The deceased is survived by a brother, Samuel W. Garnet of Independence, and a sister, Mrs. Minnie Manning of Covington.

Burial was in the Florence Cemetery, with Rev. W. E. Maners officiating.

Visitors from California

Mrs. Frank Cox received a telephone call last Sunday from Chicago that her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John Davis of Monrovia, Calif., were on their way for a visit among relatives and friends here and also at Dry Ridge and Williamstown.

Pastor Chosen

W. E. Maners, pastor of the Independence Baptist Church, has been chosen in connection with the Association Training Union, a director of extension work.

Real Estate Transfers

Margaret R. Chaney purchased a lot on Decourcy Pike from Alfred E. and Margaret Armstrong.

H. A. and Dorothy Rust purchased 11 acres near Fleckburg from Lenora Dorn.

Herman and Doris Rubarts purchased 0.143 acre on Walton-Nicholson Road from James T. and Margaret Tomlin.

John J. and Loretta Mulligan purchased 1 acre near Visalia from C. M. and Ida McMillan.

Henry Polking purchased lots 5 and 6, block B, in Forest Hills subdivision from Ralph E. and Doris M. Polking.

Robert B. and Ila Taylor bought 7.20 acres on Bowman Road from Thomas and Grace Messinghegger.

Ralph J. and Ida Carter purchased lots 6 and 7, block A, in Forest Hills subdivision from John H. and Molly Delaney.

John A. and Dorothy Wetterhan purchased 36.75 acres on Locust Pike from Robert Westman.

Jarr D. and Marie Manter purchased lots 101, 102 and 103 in Plantation Heights subdivision from Bel C. and Goldie Wayman.

Steps to Incorporate

Under the leadership of C. A. Wicklund, county agent, and his assistant, Joe Claxon, initial steps were taken October 10 to incorporate the non-profit 4-H Council for the promotion of junior agriculture work in Kenton County.

Girl Scout Convention

Mrs. Carl Mook, the senior leader of Girl Scouts, Troop 60, took seven girls from the Northern District of Kentucky to a State Convention of Senior Girl Scouts at Shepherdsville, last Friday evening and returned Sunday night.

Those who went from the Independence neighborhood were: Elnor Webb, Nancy Bowman and Elaine Kassenberger.

The Girl Scouts are now beginning to think and plan for their annual supper, which will be held November 10. The main object of these annual suppers is to raise funds for a Scout cabin. It is generally hoped that the community folk will turn out well, as it takes money to build a cabin.

New Church to be Dedicated

According to the pastor of the New Baptist Church, Raymond Stewart, and Joe Rouse, the Sunday School superintendent, the new church building will be dedicated Sunday, October 29 at 2 p. m. Homecoming and old fashioned basket dinner are special features of the day.

Young Folk Sing

The quartet of Independence Baptist Church sang in the revival services at the Decourcy Baptist church last Friday night and last Saturday night the young people's choir of the Independence Baptist Church sang at the Decourcy revival services.

There Are Some Strange Laws

In Reader's Courtroom, Will Bernard, L.L.B., was asked: "Is a thief forgiven if he returns what he has stolen?"

He answered: "A college student had a few drinks one night and decided it would be fun to steal a car. He found a nice, new sedan in somebody's driveway, jumped in and started off. He drove out on a country road where he parked and went to sleep. By dawn's early light things looked a lot different. Frightened by his own rash act, he started driving the car back to where he had gotten it. But before he arrived, a policeman spotted the missing automobile and took the student to jail. When tried on a charge of theft, his only defense was that he had repented—and had tried to return what he had taken. But the court found him guilty anyhow. The judge said that once a crime had been committed, repentance could not wash it out."

Cod looks at repentance in a little different light. After Christ had finished his work on the cross for our sins and before ascending on high, He decreed that "repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name among all nations."—Luke 24:47.

It is true that it is His precious blood, not our repentance, that "cleanseth from all sin."—1 John 1:7. But the fact remains that when a sinner repents and makes that blood his only plea, he is immediately forgiven.

The apostle Paul said: "Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this Man (Christ Jesus) is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins; and by Him all that believe are justified from all things from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses."—Acts 13:38-39.

4-Hers to Show, SELL 2,500 CALVES

About 2,500 fat calves will be shown and sold at nine 4-H club shows and sales this fall and the State Fat Cattle Show at Louisville, November 15-17.

The district shows were scheduled for Catlettsburg, Bowling Green, Flemingsburg, London, Maysville, Mt. Sterling, Paducah, Paris and Princeton.

Tobacco Shows

District 4-H tobacco shows will be held December 16 at the following markets: Bloomfield, Bowling Green, Carrollton, Cynthiana, Greenburg, Horse Cave, Lebanon, Lexington, Maysville, Mt. Sterling, Springfield, and Winchester.

Fulton county farmers have more than doubled the sheep population in the county in recent months. Leo Luckett of Union county has built a 74"x100' pole-type barn at an approximate cost of $4,500.

South Taylor Mill

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Summey and little granddaughter, Kathleen Flynn, all of Walton, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Losey and sons of near Staffordburg.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Baker of Riggs Road entertained friends Sunday.

Howard Stafford and Mr. and Mrs. Lybran Richardson and children enjoyed a drive to Frankfort, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Meyer and little son spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Harmon and daughter of West Union, Ohio.

Mrs. Wm. Summey visited Mrs. J. C. Reynolds one afternoon the past week.

John Meehan and Walter Cloninger of Latonia, visited Sam Lauderback in Christ Hospital, Cincinnati, Tuesday. They also called on friends in Bellevue.

Rally Day at Staffordburg church brought a number of new, as well as old, faces. The program by the Junior Sunday school class and a sermon by Rev. Arnold were appropriate and very interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Klein of Erlanger, were Wednesday guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Klein.

The special election being held this week in the rural areas on the question of additional funds for our schools, seems to be arousing little interest. Surely this is something in which all of us should be vitally interested.

Ordinance No. 199

An Ordinance providing for the laying of an extension of the water main on Plum Avenue in the City of Walton, a distance of two hundred and fifty (250) feet from the end of the present main; setting up the specifications therefor; asking for bids for the laying thereof; providing for the method of paying for the improvement.

The City Council of the City of Walton, Kentucky does Ordain As Follows:

Section 1. That a two (2) inch galvanized water main be laid from the end of the present water main on Plum Avenue for a distance of two hundred and fifty (250) feet, properly connected together with couplings and closed with a proper cap at its extremity.

Section 2. That the same be laid on the same side of the avenue and the same distance from the traveled portion of the avenue as the existing water main, except that if the Superintendent of the Water Works, shall direct it be placed in a different location prior to the time for the opening of the bids, then such change may be made by publication of it, after approval of the City Council, in the same manner that bids will be asked for.

Section 3. That the same be laid in ground to a depth of 30 inches below the surface of the ground at all points.

Section 4. That in laying said main care shall be taken not to injure walks or driveway and any damage done the same shall be repaired at the expense of those laying the water main.

Section 5. That before the commencement of any work on this improvement the City Council of the City of Walton shall advertise for bids to do the work set out in this ordinance and in accordance with the specifications outlined herein, and in said advertisement require that a ten (10) per cent deposit be made to insure compliance with their bid, the same to be forfeited to the City if the accepted bidder fails to comply with his bid. Each bidder shall be required to state in his bid the time required for the completion of the improvement and if the successful bidder shall fail to complete the improvement within the time, a penalty may be imposed by the City Council not to exceed two times the deposit. The City Council will let the contract to the lowest and best bidder and may in its discretion reject all bids and advertise.

Section 6. The advertisement for bids shall be published in the Walton Advertiser for two (2) consecutive weeks prior to the day set for the opening of bids.

Section 7. The city may do the work necessary for this public improvement with its own help and equipment, but they shall prepare an estimate which shall be itemized and show the total cost following the same specifications as other bidders are given and these shall be read publicly at the time other bids are received. The city shall also give an estimate of the time required and so state. If the estimate is lower than other bids or if there be no other bids, then the city may do the work, and the costs thereof as stated in their estimate shall not be exceeded in apportioning the costs of the improvement.

Section 8. That the contractor who receives the bid to construct the water main shall be required to give bond with a good and sufficient surety for the performance of his work in accordance with the contract.

Section 9. That the costs of the laying of this water main, including engineering, advertising and legal services, are to be made by the levying of an improvement tax upon the benefited property, which shall consist of all real estate abutting upon both sides of the portion of Plum Avenue improved, one half to each side.

Section 10. That upon the completion of the work of this improvement.

WHY Farmers Should Vote for CLEMENTS For U. S. SENATOR

1. EARLE CLEMENTS is the farmers' friend. He was born and reared in a Union County farm community. He's still a farmer and breeder of purebred livestock. He knows farming and farmers' problems. His Union County neighbors know him as a down-to-earth farmer who can milk a cow, run a tractor or vaccinate a hog. He is Kentucky's first real farmer-Governor in many years.

2. As Congressman, EARLE CLEMENTS was on the important House Agriculture Committee. He rendered valuable service to farmers of Kentucky and the Nation. He sponsored the CLEMENTS BILL in 1945 that has increased income of over 33,000 dark tobacco growers in Kentucky by $34,259,900 in 5 years. The tobacco price supports also have been of vast benefit to burley growers.

3. GOVERNOR CLEMENTS gave active, effective and vigorous support to the Kentucky Delegation in Congress to include tobacco under the Marshall Plan.

4. EARLE CLEMENTS helped write and worked for passage of the Agricultural Research and Marketing Act to broaden use of farm products. As Governor, he has enabled Kentucky to take fullest advantage of the Hope-Flannagan Act to aid farmers.

5. EARLE CLEMENTS has fought vigorously to expand rural electrification. When he became Governor, less than 49 per cent of Kentucky farm homes were electrified. Today, expansion will increase this to 76 per cent. On his call, the special session of the 1949

Legislature gave approval to the Federal Act which increased from 25 to 35 years amortization of REA loans to conform to the Federal Act. In Congress, EARLE CLEMENTS vigorously opposed Republican attempts to cut rural-electrification funds.

6. EARLE CLEMENTS supported the 1950 Kentucky Act to aid expansion of rural telephone lines under the new REA rural telephone act. He has fought consistently to improve soil conservation and to increase aid for extension work. In Congress, he worked for passage of his Agriculture Committee's bill for permanent school-lunch program to enable school children to have adequate, nutritious meals.

7. GOVERNOR CLEMENTS has given Kentucky farmers better roads. During his administration, more than 2,500 miles of farm-to-market roads have been built, and more improvements have been made on the primary system than in any like period in history of the Commonwealth. He sponsored legislation establishing the Agricultural and Industrial Development Board to expand Kentucky agriculture and industry.

8. On his Union County farm, EARLE CLEMENTS practices soil conservation. His knowledge of farming and farm problems has been put to practical use by the State. Kentucky's penal and mental institutions now operate modern farms of more than 11,000 acres. More than 2,500 acres were purchased during CLEMENTS' administration. These farms now raise much of their own food, saving the taxpayers many thousands of dollars.

may be penalized not to exceed double the amount of his deposit. The City Council will let the contract to the lowest and best bidder and may in its discretion reject all bids and re-advertise.

Section 6. The advertisement for bids shall be published in the Walton Advertiser for two (2) consecutive weeks prior to the day set for opening bids.

Section 7. That the city may do the work necessary for this public improvement with its own help and equipment, but they shall prepare an estimate which shall be itemized in the same manner as would other bids, and the amount thereof shall be read publicly at the time other bids are opened. The city shall be required to estimate the time necessary to complete the work. If the city estimate be lower than other bids, then the city may do the work and the costs of the improvement shall not exceed the estimate made by the city, when the costs thereof are ascertained.

Section 8. That the contractor who is the successful bidder shall be required to give bond with good and sufficient surety for the performance of the work in accordance with the contract.

Section 9. That the cost of the improvement of this street, including all engineering, advertising and legal service as well as the cost price of the work, are to be made by the levying of an improvement tax upon all benefited property, which shall consist of all real estate abutting upon both sides of the portion of the street improved, one-half to each side.

Section 10. That if the construction of the improvement be let to contract then 60 days after the work is completed and accepted the contractor shall be entitled to interest at the rate of six (6%) per cent until paid.

Section 11. That upon completion of this improvement the same shall be inspected and reported upon and if favorable then the costs of the improvement shall be levied, one-half to the property owners on each side of the improved portion of the avenue.

Section 12. That this ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and publication as by law required.

Passed by the City Council of the City of Walton, after having been read in a meeting of Council on October 9, 1950 and re-read in another meeting of Council on October 19, 1950 and at the later meeting by a vote of four (4) members of the Council.

Ordinance No. 200

An Ordinance providing for the grading and draining and resurfacing Plum Avenue from the end of the present blacktop surface for a distance of four hundred and fifty (450) feet; outlining the specifications therefor; asking for bids for the construction; providing for inspection, acceptance and levying assessments for the payment thereof.

The City Council of the City of Walton, Kentucky, Does Ordain As Follows:

Section 1. That beginning at the end of the present Black Top Surface on Plum Avenue, the center Fourteen (14) feet of said Avenue, for the distance of Four Hundred and Fifty (450) Feet, be improved as hereinafter set out.

Section 2. That the portion of the surface of the street or avenue to be improved be graded so that it presents a smooth surface and that it be six (6) inches higher in the center than it is on each edge and that it slope uniformly from the center to each edge.

Section 3. That there be a covering of the grade aforesaid with crushed limestone rock of one and one-half (1½) inch size over the entire grade after the same are firmly rolled and packed to a depth, at all points, of not less than six (6) inches, and that each edge be shouldered with sufficient earth to hold and protect the road.

Section 4. That the crushed surface, after the same is firmly rolled and packed, be treated with a bituminous or asphalt substance of the proper consistency, at the proper temperature and in a quantity sufficient to receive and bind sufficient limestone chips in order that the two together will form a smooth, firm and water resisting surface for the distance of the improvement of four hundred and fifty (450) feet.

Section 5. That before the commencement of any work on this improvement the City Council of the City of Walton shall advertise for bids to do the work set out in this ordinance and in accordance with the specifications outlined herein, and in said advertisement require that a deposit of ten (10%) percent be made to insure compliance with the bid of the successful bidder, the same to be forfeited to the city upon failure to comply with the bid. Each bidder shall be required to state in his bid the time within which the same will be completed and the successful bidder who fails to complete the work within the time stated, in the discretion of City Council,

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Pruett entertained members of the Happy Helpers class of the Walton Methodist Church, Tuesday evening in the church basement.

After the business session, conducted by President Pruett, and the showing of some pictures, a delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. Pruett, assisted by Mrs. T. C. Pruett and Mrs. Jack Snape, to: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brown, Mrs. Mary Downing and daughter, Peggy, Mrs. Drake, Mrs. Mary Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Carlisle, William Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Fooks, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Lancaster, Rev. Geo. Hoffman, Miss Dorothy Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hall, Mrs. Edith Hamilton, Miss Emma J. Miller, Mrs. Florence Newton, Mrs. Anna L. Penn, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wallace, and little Miss Kathy Snape.

The first Ladino clover seed to be harvested in Bullitt county was produced by Geo. Henderson this year.

No Delay Expected for Increased Payments Under Social Security

"There will be no delay in getting out the increased insurance benefit payments provided by the amended Social Security Act," declared Elbert M. Bohon, manager of the Covington Social Security office.

"Area offices have been working overtime," Mr. Bohon continued, "to compute the increased amounts of payments and are ready now to send out the higher benefit checks." Under a provision of the new law, increased payments will go to every one new receiving old-age or survivors insurance payments. This became effective September first and increases will show on checks received early in October.

"Under the new law," Mr. Bohon said, "people age 65 or over will be eligible for insurance benefits beginning with September if they have been paid wages of $50 or more in six or more different calendar quarters for work covered by social security. Roughly, this is a year and a half." He estimates that over 800 people in his area will be entitled to immediate payments under this provision. Many of these people had made application before but could not qualify under the old law. His office is making every effort to get in touch with those of whom it has record, but asks the cooperation of everyone who may know of such a person. "Tell him, or tell us," says Mr. Bohon. "Have him come to our office and file a new application for old-age and survivors insurance benefits." Write, telephone, or visit any social security office if it is not convenient to come to Covington.

Social Security Representative

At Erlanger and Williamstown Edward J. Bolte, field representative of the Covington Social Security office, will be at the Erlanger Post Office from 10 to 11 a. m. and at the Williamstown Post Office from 2 to 3 p. m., Thursday, October 19. He will take claims of retired workers, dependents and survivors; issue social security cards, and distribute informational leaflets explaining the phases of the amended Social Security Act.

SHEEP RAISERS TO MEET NOV. 20-21

The first annual convention of the Bluegrass State Sheep Association will be held at the Agricultural Experiment Station at Lexington, Nov. 20-21. The convention had been tentatively set for Nov. 15-16, but was changed to Nov. 20-21 because it conflicted with the state fair cattle show and sale in Louisville.

Control of dogs and rabies will be one of the principal subjects considered at the two-day meeting, according to Richard C. Miller, acting secretary of the association. Plans for new legislation will be made.

Speakers will include prominent shepherds from both in and out of the state. Among them will be Howard Vaughn of Dixon, Calif., the president of the National Wool Growers Association. Delegates from 50 or more local branch associations of the Bluegrass State Sheep Association will attend.

Fred Andrews of Clinton county grazed nine cows on four acres of fescue and Ladino clover most of this year, then harvested 103 bales of hay from the field.

Attend Funeral of Relative

Mrs. Mary Cole, 84, mother of Delbert Cole, passed away at her home in Livingston, last week. Those attending the funeral from here were: Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Curfew Brewer, Mr. and Mrs. Denver Gabbard and R. B. Cole.

Ladino clover in Mercer county is making an excellent showing on the 300 to 400 farms on which it is found, says the county agent. One of the best corn crops in recent years will be harvested in Bullitt county this fall.

Growing in Prayer

Lesson for October 22, 1950

LIFE MAGAZINE, which does not set up as an authority on religion some years ago carried a story about a little girl who was going to be confirmed in the Episcopal church. In describing the requirements for confirmation, the reporter said she had "graduated from 'Now I Lay Me' to the Lord's Prayer."

Most Christian ministers, including those of the denomination in which she was confirmed, would agree that (1) if that is as far as she had "graduated," she still had a very long way to go in learning about prayer, but (2) the little girl had got about as far as thousands of "Christians" ever go. They learn the Lord's Prayer when they are children and that's that. When they grow up they don't actually pray, they leave it up to Grandma or the preacher—or the tiny tots who "sound so cute" saying "Now I Lay Me."

The Lord's Prayer
THIS is not meant to say anything against the Lord's Prayer, or to imply that we are wrong every time we use it. But our Lord did not mean that prayer to be used as a magic formula, he did not intend it as a substitute for our own free prayers. We know this is so, because in the first place he himself never used that prayer again, and in the second place, although dozens of prayers by Apostles and others are recorded in the New Testament, the Lord's Prayer, as such, is never used. Then what is the Lord's Prayer?

It is his suggestion as to the lines along which, and the spirit in which, we ought to pray. (See the book by William Douglas Chamberlain on the Lord's Prayer, "The Manner of Prayer.")

One truth suggested by the Lord's Prayer is that we are not alone in the world. Every verb, every pronoun referring to the one who prays, is in the plural—OUR Father... forgive US... lead US... We have to remember that God is Father of others, not of ourselves alone; that we dare not be selfish in asking special favors of him for ourselves.

Maturing in Prayer
PRAYER at its lowest level is nothing much more than "Gimme." The untaught prayerer may even talk to God as if he were a personal servant, a kind of celestial bell-boy on call whenever we ring for him.

The growing Christian will grow in prayer as in all things; he will grow to the point where, even when he prays as an individual, he will be remembering how many God binds him to other individuals; he will pray less and less for his own necessities and more and more for what he may share with others.

The beginning Christian, the childish Christian, will pray as a child prays. If his prayers were all arrows they would all point toward himself. As for the mature Christian, if his prayers were visible arrows they could be seen pointing into all the world; he will have those in every land for whom he prays, for his heart bears their names in love and faith.

Learning God's Will
A GOOD deal of worrisome argument has gone on over the question: Can prayer change the will of God? We shall be less bothered by that question when we discover two truths.

One is that in the Lord's Prayer, and in the Bible generally, we have already revealed to us the lines along which God's will moves; and the other is that prayer itself is a means of learning God's will.

If we know that God's will is against something, then, if we have any sense, we know there is no use in praying for that thing. If we know God's will desires something, then we can be confident that our prayers in that direction will be heard with favor.

A study of the Lord's prayer, from this angle, will teach a Christian how to pray in accordance with God's will. Paul knew this. When he prayed that his Philippian friends' "love may abound more and more," he knew very well that this was precisely in line with the will of the Father who is eternal Love.

The Lady and the Lolly-Pop

Once there was a proud father, who had a little girl. And he loved his little girl a great deal.

As he trudged home from work one day he thought of all the things he would like to give her—things that would make her very happy.

But he wasn't a rich father. Until payday all he could afford was a lolly-pop.

As she licked her lolly-pop she smiled at him and he smiled, too. She was very happy. And he was glad he had given her a lolly-pop!

The next Sunday he took his little girl to Sunday School ... and he and Mother began attending Church.

Years later, when his little girl had become a "lady", she smiled at him one day—and he smiled, too. She was very happy. And he was glad he had given her more than lolly-pops! He had given her the finest gift of all—faith in God's love.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ... ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Pledge to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

CONRAD HARDWARE REPAIR WEEK

They all broke down at once this week—electric iron repaired for Jimmie Riddell; put new leg on chair for Poor John Hempel; Beverly Snape brought in a small suit case for me to put hinges on; John Sleet broke the latch on the belt of his Hammamill and we put him one a new one in a hurry; Bruce Allen needed a damper put on his new furnace pipe; Roy Kenney had to have a new transmission for his stoker. Brewster and Zada Clure are still working on that chimney that won't draw—I believe they have it fixed. Mary Scott Grubbs had Brewster hang some new shades, also put up a bar in one of the clothes closets.

Brewster and Red Robinson went down to Charles Portwood's, took out his claten pump that would not work—all they found was corn cobs, sticks and rags the children had thrown in the pump—they cleaned it out and it's OK now. Butch Linton had Red and Ray go out and get his coal heater and clean and polish it, then take it back and set it up with new pipe. Mrs. Lindsay Brashers' washer quit—again Ray and Red went over after it, put on a new motor and took it right back, ready to wash.

Ray Kenney just called for a lot of angle and round iron bars, also a lot of bolts. Mrs. Anna McCabe just came in after a lot more of that Bolce Outside White paint. Lon Wilson also came up after more lined oil—he says that point is the thickest he ever used. Gilbert Brewster also bought some Bolce paint. Betty Brown and Utha Justice from Piner were in after a lot of small hardware items. Robt. Hankinson from East Bend came up after sled poles and bolts. Nelda Lucas needed more curtain rods, so did our new school superintendent, Mr. Ward—I don't know where all the curtain rods go—that is one item I have to watch very closely or we run out.

Wolverine gloves are sure selling—hushing pegs and hooks are also in demand. Mrs. Roy Hurd called in for a copper wash boiler, also paint, turpentine and lined oil. Orin Britt, wife and daughter from over Concord way, purchased a Buena Vista saddle and bridle—a very fine family and very good farmers. We had a very bad mad dog scare and Chief Simmons says lock up all the dogs—so, if you have a dog that isn't anything of, you had better take care of it.

Floyd, Hannah and Pete Chapman were over today after another heating stove—they picked an Anchor Circular because they have two Anchor Hot Blast heaters—if people ever use an Anchor stove, you can't sell them anything else. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kennedy from Beaver Lick bought a lot of that good old Armstrong Linoleum. Mrs. Noel Robinson ordered some of those all-steel venetian blinds, made to order—we got them any size or any color. Chick delivered his mother the last Maytag we had in stock—we hope to have a few more Tuesday—they are getting scarcer every month—if you need a Maytag, buy it now.

This old world is getting too fast—my mother was operated on Saturday for appendicitis. Sunday she sat up in a chair, Monday she walked down the hospital hall—by next year I guess you will walk to operating room, then walk back and climb in bed for an hour or two and then ready to come home. I finally begged the Dayton pump man out of two Dayton Water Systems—if you are building a house and need a water pump they are only $84.50.

Will the parties who have my hand saw, electric solder iron, wrecking bar, nail hammer and about six pipe wrenches, bring them home—someone else might want to borrow them.

Wire fence, barb wire and steel fence posts are getting very scarce—if you are going to need any buy now—it will be higher and very scarce. I called the largest fence supplier in Cincinnati last week and they were 1,800 rods behind on filling orders on 47-inch fence. Refrigerators and washers also are getting short—if your old washer is about worn out, we have a few new ones left. I have one rubber tired wagon for $125.00 and a very good buy. We also received a few fluorescent lights for your stripping room, four feet long, with two 40-watt tubes, for only $12.55.

Agnes Altha was shopping in Walton, Monday. J. C. Benton was getting stove pipe to put up a stove in his stripping room—he is ready for those bad days. Ralph Sparks and wife came up after one of those 12x15 Armstrong linoleum rugs. Someone has called for a stove pipe oven—we have some—they just came in. We also received another shipment of Anchor heaters—they really sell. A truck backed in and the driver said he had bolted the—we all want out to help unload for we had 200 bundles ordered and he only had 10 bundles—they are very scarce. John Dorsey came over with a lot of two-inch pipe to thread and were we glad we had that pipe threading machine—didn't take long to get him out.

My old friend Willis Berkshire, stopped in and picked out a handful of screw drivers for the fellows he works with over at Lawrenceburg, Ind.—he sells a lot of tools for me over there. I have been out of the store a lot this week, so I have missed a lot of things that happened, but come back and I'll try to remember you are and what you bought, or if you have time, just loaf with us. You are always welcome at CONRAD'S and we try to give you all we can for your money and the best service possible.

Annual Walton PTA Halloween Party to Be Held Monday

The Walton-Verona Parent-Teachers Association will sponsor their annual Halloween party at the High School gym on Monday, October 30. The doors will open at 7:30 p. m. and the Grand March will begin at 8:00 p. m. Admission for adults and children masked or unmasked, will be 10 cents.

There will be two door prizes: First, a permanent wave; second, a home-made cake. Other booths and amusements planned for the evening will be home-made candy, home-made pastries, refreshments, chances on baskets of groceries and a cake, fish pond, wishing tree, spook house and you may also have your weight guessed, your fortune told and participate in the Cake Walk.

Prizes will be awarded for those coming masked: Best character representation, adult and child; pretty costume and ugliest costume, for both adult and child.

Mrs. Albert Hoppert, President of the P. T. A., appointed the following committees:

Refreshments: Genevieve Ferguson, and Gladys Griffin; home-made candy, Edith Stephenson and Mary Worthington; pastries, Eva Waters; Catherine Simpson and Jeanne Farwell; fish pond, Louise Houston and Effie Chandler; wishing tree, Kathryn Baker and Lucy Yancy; spook house, Mary Reitor; guessing ages and weight, Mr. Lester; chances on cake and groceries, Gaynelle Flynn; cake walk, Sarah Sleet; Master of Ceremonies, Mark Meadows; pianist, James Spencer; decorations, George Houston, chairman; prizes, Myrtle Young; ticket sales, Mr. Ward and Mary Jane Trapp; three judges, to be selected.

The Parent-Teachers Association is planning to have a big party, so come out and enjoy an evening full of fun and spoofs.

Anyone wanting to donate candy or pastries, please get in touch with someone on this committee. Help make this party a success!

Wayman & Sons to Open Real Estate Office in Walton

Rel C. Wayman & Sons, Northern Kentucky Real Estate and Auction Brokers, announce the opening of a branch office in Walton, on Wednesday, November 1, 1950. The location will be the one formerly occupied by the late Dr. Mann, and in the same building with Dr. Medford, the dentist, two doors South of Sebe's grocery and one door North of Allen's Coal & Feed.

They will handle all kinds of property, specializing in farms and also in Dixie Highway property. The office will be open all day on Tuesday, until an office manager can be found.

This office will be an addition to the other branch offices located in the Jewett Bldg., Williamstown, and managed by Baxter Blair; the office in Courthouse Square, Falmouth, John C. Simpson, manager; the Boone County agent, Clayton Brown, Sr., at Limaburg, in addition to the main office, located at 623 Washington St., Covington, Ky.

The new office will help serve their buyers and sellers in upper Kenton county.

Come in and register Wednesday, Nov. 1, any time, and get a ticket on a Thanksgiving turkey, to be given away free. You do not have to be present to win the bird, either.

16th ANNUAL MEETING

The sixteenth annual meeting of the stockholders of the Northern Kentucky Production Credit Association will be held at Pettit's Machinery building on Highway 25, 1 mile north of Williamstown, on Friday, November 3, 1950 at 1:00 p. m. (rain time).

The principal speaker for the occasion will be Edward F. Steller, Deputy Governor of the Farm Credit Administration, Washington, D. C. In addition to the business session, there will be entertainment by the Kentucky Play Boys of radio station WYLF, door prizes and refreshments. All members and other interested farmers are urged to be present.

New Bethel Baptist Church Dedication Sunday

On Sunday, October 29, 1950, the New Bethel Baptist Church, Verona, will have an all-day meeting to dedicate the new church building. The program for the day will be as follows:

Sunday School at 10:00 a. m., morning worship at 11:00 a. m., and the dedication service at 2:00 p. m., following an old fashioned basket dinner in the basement at noon.

All former pastors have been invited to attend and the church extends a cordial welcome to all to join in the fellowship of the day.

A former pastor, Bro. Aden C. Hargrave, will bring the sermon of dedication. There will be special music on both the morning and afternoon programs.

Plan to attend these services, as the new church building is dedicated to the work of Our Lord!

Reformation Day Is To Be Observed By Christian Church

Sunday, October 29, will be known as Reformation Day in the First Christian Church of Walton. Rev. Gravelly's morning message will be, "The Power To Witness For Christ." In these days when men and women are striving for power of all kinds, it behooves Christians to seek the greatest and mightiest of all power, the power of The Holy Spirit.

In the afternoon from 3 to 5 p. m., a delegation of members, accompanied by Rev. Gravelly will attend the Reformation Day service for all Protestant Churches of greater Cincinnati, to be held at Cincinnati Gardens. Dr. Truman Douglas will be the guest speaker for this great ecumenical service.

In the evening, at 7:30 p. m., Rev. Gravelly's message for the church service will be, "Here I Stand," in which he sets forth the faith of a Protestant. The youth choir will sing at this service.

Over 7,759 delegates registered for the Disciples of Christ International Convention in Oklahoma, with visiting preachers and speakers from Northern and Southern Baptist Churches, and missionaries from eleven countries outside of the United States, to be held at Cincinnati. The theme, "Cooperation and Beyond to Brotherhood in Christ," lifted the thoughts and visions of the Disciples and challenged them to take Jesus seriously in turning the twentieth century from "A Century of Despair" to "A Century of Hope."

Rev. Gravelly and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bush were the official delegates from the Christian Church at Walton, and returned with new spirits and many plans of advance for the local Disciples of Christ church.

The Visitation Evangelism work will meet at the church Friday evening to complete plans for Visitation Evangelistic program of the church for the coming year.

The Prayer group will begin its weekly meetings, known as "The Upper Room," on Tuesday evening at 7:30 p. m. at the church.

50 Quota Not Yet Reached

October 31 is the closing date for getting Farm Bureau members enrolled for 1950. The Boone County Bureau set a quota of 600 members for '50 and to date they have not quite reached that goal. All old members have been reminded of their membership having lapsed, and it is hoped that their membership will be received at once, together with enough new members to make the quota. All memberships should be sent to John E. Crigler, Secretary, Burlington, Ky.

New Banklick Revival

Revival services at the New Banklick Baptist Church will begin on Monday, October 30 and continue for one week, until November 5, with Rev. Roy Johnson of Burlington, doing the preaching.

Robert McMichael of Latonia will have charge of the song service, assisted by the new pastor, Rev. Nat Phillips. The services will start at 8, each evening.

To Speak Over Radio

Rev. Simeon Webster, pastor of the Pleasant View Baptist Church, Grant County, will speak over radio at a meeting of the Walton Rotary Club on Sunday, October 29, from 9:05 to 9:30 a. m. His subject will be, "Does One Really Find God?" Rev. Webster formerly was pastor at the New Banklick church.

P. R. Conrad Named Director In US 25 Ass'n at Meeting

Powers Conrad, Walton hardware man, was named Monday night as a Director in the U. S. 25 Association at a meeting of the Walton Rotary Club and Lions Club. The meeting was attended by several members of the U. S. 25 club from Williamstown and Dry Ridge who aided in the organizing of the local club.

Robert A. Blair, Executive Secretary, of Corbin, spoke briefly on what the aims, plans and accomplishments of the association thus far. He stated that $12,000 was spent by the organization last year for improvement of U. S. 25 and advertising same in nationally published, maps and auto clubs. The clubs are very active in suggesting various improvements by the Highway Department and many of these have been done or will be done.

The goal for the coming year includes the spending of $25,000 for betterment of the highway and presenting it to the traveling public.

Mr. Blair stressed the importance of every business man on the entire U. S. 25 to be courteous and helpful to the tourist, which he says will do more than anything else to promote more tourist dollars.

Powers Conrad stated that he will soon contact everyone in this section to enlist their support to this improvement association and explain all phases of the program.

Simon Kenton, Walton-Verona Preparing for Basketball Openers

First Game Nov. 7 Against Morgan

Coach Willard Shropshire and his Simon Kenton Pioneers are busy readying themselves for the opening of the 1950-51 basketball season, scheduled for November 7 at the S. K. gym, with the Morgan Raiders as the attraction. Not much is known of the Raiders this year, but last year's Morgan team boasted wins over Augusta and Brooksville, both of which defeated Simon Kenton.

Six seniors, Captain Charles Henzmann, Alternate Captain Gene Coppage, James Berryman, Garner Hardgrove, Norman Ervin, Harry Hughes, and a Junior, Paul Human, are expected to do most of the work for the Pioneers. However, help can be expected from Billy Appel, Ray Dietrich, Melvin Johnson, Claud Stafford and Bob Cooper.

Forwards: Ervin, 6'3", Coppage, 6'2", Hardgrove, 5'11", and Human, 6' have plenty of size, but lack speed. Guards: Berryman and Henzmann, 5'9" and Harry Hughes, 5'11" have fair speed. In lacking adequate speed, Simon Kenton is expected to use a more deliberate and slow-breaking offense than the past two or three years.

Verona Community Club To Elect New Officers

The annual election of officers for the Verona Community Club will be held at the Verona School building 8:00 P. M., October 31. This meeting will not conflict with the school program held at that date. All old members are urged to be present at this meeting in order that plans for the new year may be made and all unfinished business may be cleared. The club will be embarking upon its fourth year with the last three years successful Community contributions as a guide, also as added incentives for reaching future goals in helping develop a better community through wholesome recreation and wild life conservation.

Alumni Halloween Dance

A Simon Kenton Alumni dance will be held at the American Legion Hall, Walton, this Saturday night, October 28, from 9 until 1. There is to be a five-piece orchestra to provide music, and refreshments will be served by the American Legion boys. Graduates of Independence, Piner and Simon Kenton are all urged to be present, masked and join in the fun. You may meet an old graduate you haven't seen for years.

There will be prizes for the best dressed couple and for the funniest and the oddest.

50 YEARS A MASON

J. T. Stone attended Bradford Lodge No. 123 F. & A. M. in Independence on Thursday October 11th and was presented a fifty-year button from the Grand Lodge of Ky. by Alvin Almut. He was also presented a lamb skin apron from Bradford Lodge by Clifford Coleman.

L. N. Bailey of Perry county displayed several burley leaves which measured 36 inches long and 15 inches wide.

"THE FUNNY BRATS"

Pictured above (left to right) are: Barbara Benson, Tommy Liles, and June Stephens.

The Junior class of Simon Kenton High School will present a three-act play, "The Funny Brats," under the direction of Miss Maude Skinner, on Friday, October 27 at 8 p. m. This play, written by Jay Tobias, is one of his most successful and hilarious comedies. It depicts all the troubles and fun of an average American family—that is a family unfortunately enough to have two young, energetic teenagers around to keep the household in a state of turmoil during all waking hours.

The cast of characters are Yvonne Cooper, Aldin Steinhauer, Tommy Liles, Joan Eton, Mary Ann Farris, James Free, June Stephens, Bruce Clark, Barbara Benson, Bobby Lancaster and Betty LeMaster.

Father-Son Banquet Held Tuesday Nite At Simon Kenton

The 13th annual Father and Son banquet of the Simon Kenton Chapter of Future Farmers of America was held October 24 at Independence. The honored guests attending were the boys' Dads, community agricultural leaders, teachers, post members, friends, and the officers of the Simon Kenton Future Homemakers of America.

Ray Scott of radio station WZP, Covington, gave an inspiring talk. J. A. Caywood, Superintendent of Kenton County Schools, commented on chapter activities. R. C. Hinsdale, Principal of Simon Kenton, gave the welcoming address.

A delicious dinner, consisting of ham, green beans, mashed potatoes, cottage cheese salad, and apple pie a la mode, was prepared by Mrs. Ida Keeney and the cafeteria staff.

The "Chapter Sweetheart," or the Sponsor, Miss Laverne Haney, was recognized and crowned for 1950-51. Otis Holton, President of the F. F. A., presented Miss Haney with a corsage and a great big kiss. Miss Molly Ann England was recognized as runner-up.

The Honorary Chapter Farmer degree was awarded to Dr. Paul B. Clark, English professor of Simon Kenton High School, for his help, guidance and cooperation to the chapter.

Reports regarding the finances, the aims and purposes of the chapter and cooperative activities were given by Elbert McMichael, Kenneth Lewellyn and Ray Baldwin.

Aldin Steinhauer, toastmaster, carried on the proceedings of the banquet, with the cooperation of the members and officers to make it a huge success.

SKATING PARTY NOV. 3

Everyone is invited to attend the skating party sponsored by the Walton Christian Church Youth Fellowship. Tickets may be purchased from the young people or at the skating rink the night of the party.

Skating Party will be held at the Walto Roller-drome Friday, November 3 at 7:30 P. M. Bring your friends and have a good time. Door Prizes! Admission 35c

Play Simon Kenton There On Nov. 10

The basketball season is just around the corner. Coach Charles Hayes of Walton-Verona High has been working his hopefuls for more than a week in preparation for the season's opening November 10 with Simon Kenton. However, efforts are being made to schedule a game for November 7, possibly here.

JAMBOREE TWO NIGHTS

The Hayloft Jamboree, sponsored by the Walton T. T. A., will be staged tonight (Thursday) and tomorrow night at the Walton Gymnasium with a very large selection of local talent, including string band, singers, dancers, acrobats, square dancers, vocalists, comedy acts, and hundreds of other entertainment features. The curtain will raise at 8:15. A tiny Tot contest is one of the main features with prizes given.

Covington Man Held For Tractor Theft On Verona Farm

Aubrey Beach, of 1318 Banklick St., Covington was arrested Wednesday by Sheriff Wendell Easton, charged with having stolen property in his possession. Burel Norris, of Richmond, Ind., was also returned to Boone County on a similar charge. Beach checked with a stolen tractor from the farm of O. H. Hopkins, Verona, October 6th, transporting the tractor to Indiana where it was placed in the hands of Burel Norris for sale. The tractor stolen from the Hopkins farm October 6th arrived in Indiana October 7th. Beach was identified by Norris as the man who turned over a receipt for a tractor placed in the hands of an Indiana man to be sold. Sheriff Easton, who has worked on the case for several days, traced the tractor to Indiana, but was unable to learn the name of the man who gave the receipt to Norris. Norris gave Easton a telephone number left by Beach, which led to his arrest Wednesday.

When arraigned in Judge C. L. Cropper's Court Thursday, Beach waived examining trail, and was held for action of the December grand jury. His bond was set at $3,000. The tractor was recovered at the Lease Farm Equipment Co., Greenville, Ohio and returned to the owner.

Kentucky school children are going to get more than two million dollars worth of food from Uncle Sam.

It's all a part of the school lunch program. Money (and supplies) are allocated on the basis of school population and the wealth of the state. Pennsylvania gets the greatest sum, almost four million. Nevada gets the smallest, a little over 44 thousand.

The program is getting bigger and bigger all the time. Last year, for example, more than one billion meals were served American youngsters.

Lake Ducks:
There are going to be a lot of lame ducks in Congress when lawmakers return to Washington after Thanksgiving. By that time, the elections will be over and done. And some congressmen will have been defeated. However, they will still have about six weeks to serve.

In the Senate, there will be several new faces. In Kentucky, for example, Senator Withers leaves office a few days after the election, as soon as the Clements election is certified. The same situation is true in Rhode Island and North Carolina. The new senators from those states take over at once. They are serving short terms.

Mail Continues:
Although Congress is in recess, mail continues to pour in. Much of it concerns the draft. A young wife from Boone County and a motor from Trimble County want Uncle Sam to first induct those who have not seen service in the last war.

Generally speaking, that is just what Uncle Sam is going to do. However, those veterans who are members of the Reserves are in a different category. They are trained men who have kept up with their military assignments. So the army and navy will use them as they are needed.

That Man Again:
You can't keep a good man out of the news. That goes double for Kentucky's distinguished son, Fred Vinson, Chief Justice.

Once again the rumors are starting that Justice Vinson is to be called to take over as Secretary of State. Some observers reason that the Chief Justice might like to become President. Therefore, in the Office of Secretary of State, he could add to his already bright reputation.

Gunpowder Homemakers
Mrs. Virgil Kelly, president, conducted the October meeting of the Gunpowder Homemakers Club, held recently in the home of Mrs. Robert Moore of Beaver.

At the business session, in the forenoon, Mrs. Frank Dils, citizenship chairman, explained the Freedom Scroll.

Following the luncheon period, project leaders, Mrs. Glenn Stevens and Mrs. Virgil Kelly, gave the lesson on "Selection of Patterns and Materials," after which Mrs. Bert Markberry, program chairman, took charge.

The meeting closed with the group singing the song, "Sing Your Way Home." Answering roll call with "A Hobby Horse I Wish to Ride This Winter," were Mesdames George Black, Bert Markberry, Wm. Ferguson, Glenn Stevens, Chas. Tanner, Frank Dils, Edgar Utzinger, Virgil Kelly, Robert Smith, Kenneth Conner, Sr., B. M. Stevens, and the hostess, Mrs. Moore.—Pub. Chm.

PINER HOMEMAKERS

The Piner Homemakers Club held its October meeting in the home of Mrs. Willard Benson on the Piner Branch Highway, with Mrs. William Wolterman as co-hostess.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Wolterman. It was a most successful meeting. A report of all chairman was given. The county project for the year is to help provide school lunch for needy children. Mrs. Ralph Kuman and Mrs. Ray Linder were appointed as a committee on Christmas Gift Suggestions. Devotional and thought for the month was given by Mrs. Willard Shropshire. Mrs. Fred McMillan, citizenship chairman, was in charge of International Day program, with several members telling of the origin, organization, membership and financing of the Associated Women of the World. The club voted to subscribe to the official publication from London, "The Country Woman." Mrs. Owen Flynn read a letter from a pen pal in Yorkshire, England, which was in connection with the AWW.

Miss Zelma E. Byerly, Home Demonstration Agent, stressed the sale of articles to the annual meeting. An article on fire prevention was given by Mrs. W. R. Brown. The American Creed was read in unison.

After lunch the meeting was turned over to the program chairman, Mrs. Shropshire. Mrs. Fred McMillan was in charge of a display of articles from foreign countries, and articles from Italy, Switzerland, France, India, China, Germany, No. Africa, Portugal, Iraq, Japan, Mexico, Trinidad, England, Ireland, Cuba, Oklahoma, Bermuda, British Guiana and Canada were shown.

A very informative and interesting lesson was given by Mrs. D. Pisk on our future security pertaining to deeds and wills and what they should contain for the proper distribution of property.

Mrs. Carl Justice demonstrated several ornamental trees in their beautiful fall colors and also ornamental shrubs in her talk on Exterior Beautification and stressed the importance of beautiful surroundings for the home.

POLITICAL QUIZ PROGRAM

Candidate Charles I. Dawson has been on both sides of almost every question before the voters in the race for the United States Senate.

Candidate Dawson has told the voters many things which Attorney Dawson would not approve. Candidate Dawson has taken stands which Citizen Dawson would shy away from. Candidate Dawson has warmly embraced Democratic principles which Judge Dawson held unconstitutional.

Candidate Dawson has been asking for an investigation of his record. We have investigated this record but find a few points which need clearing up. Will you answer these questions so the voters will know where you stand?

No. 1 As listed attorney for Joseph E. Seagram & Sons, Inc., Frankfort Distilleries, Inc., National Distillers Products Corp., Calvert Distilling Company, United Distillers of America, Ohio River Frankfort Coopersage Company, didn't you work diligently and do everything in your power to further the passage of the Act of the General Assembly of Kentucky which permitted cities of the first four classes to vote independently of counties on the liquor question?

No. 2 Are you not now, through letters and speeches, seeking to gain the dry vote of the State while at the same time you are listed as counsel for practically every big distilling company operating in Kentucky? You can't be faithful to both your clients and to the people. Which side are you on?

No. 3 One T. J. Pendergast has been castigated in campaign speeches made by you as the epitome of corruption in politics. Can you deny, Judge Dawson, the fact that your name was listed as one of the attorneys for this some Pendergast in a tax relief suit filed at Frankfort? To refresh your recollection, Judge, the case was styled as the T. J. Pendergast Wholesale Liquor Company.

No. 4 As listed attorney for the American Turf Association, (Jockey Club) Churchill Downs, Inc., does it embarrass you to make overtures to certain onli-gambling, church and school groups for their support on the pretense that you are on their side?

No. 5 In view of your wish that your record as private citizen, attorney and Federal Judge be examined, just how can you account for the fact that—as reported by The Courier-Journal—you appeared as attorney for a bondholders committee in a bankruptcy case on the very day you relinquished your duties as Federal Judge; or the further fact that you filed on that same day a suit attacking constitutionality of the Agricultural Adjustment Act on behalf of one of the big milling companies? Were these legal papers prepared while you were still a Federal Judge?

The voters of Kentucky will welcome answers to these and other questions which will be asked during the course of this campaign. Are you prepared, Judge Dawson, to give true and non-evasive answers to these questions?

Marriage License

Marriage licenses were recently issued to Russell England, 19, of Independence, and Norma Jean Dunn, 18, of Demosville, and Warren L. Vanhorn, 23, Morning View, and Miley Sue Bird, 20, Morning View.

Independence Man Injured

Last Thursday evening, Edward Armstrong, 28, Independence, suffered a dislocation and a fracture of his left shoulder when an automobile in which he was riding ran into a culvert off Madison Pike at the foot of Fleming Hill, 1/4 mile south of Pleasure Isle, as reported by Kenton County police. The driver, Charles Adams, 42, 1407 Garrard St., Covington, escaped with a severe cut on his lower lip. Armstrong was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington, where his condition was described as good.

Vote Light On Special Tax

Kenton County Board of Education leaders, who wished to construct a new school on Taylor Mill Pike, and to supply additional equipment for other schools, met defeat last week in the special election by 233 votes.

Mrs. Beulah Hensley

Services for Mrs. Beulah Hensley, 2217 Center St., Covington, were held last week at the Radel funeral home in Covington, with burial in the Independence Cemetery.

A native of Kenton County, Mrs. Hensley died Saturday at her home. She was 53 years old.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Katherine Bond and Miss Wanda Lee Hensley, both of Covington, and Mrs. Mildred Parker of Cincinnati; two sons, Clifford Hensley of Covington, and Charles Hensley of Cincinnati; two brothers, Oles and Raymond Callen, both of Covington, and eight grandchildren.

Former Local Youth Goes to Service

Robert D. Stambaugh, formerly of Independence, Rural Route, but now of Covington, was in the draft of 34 men to leave Kenton County last Friday for induction into the Army. He will receive his basic training at Fort Knox.

New Babies

Mr. and Mrs. Randal Wagner of Shaw Pike, Independence, are the very proud parents of a 6-lb., 10-oz. son, born October 17. He has been named Michael Stephens, after his two grandfathers.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Rogers of the L.L. Highway, near Nicholson, are the proud parents of a daughter, Lulu Belle, born October 1.

Fire Near Fiskburg

Last Tuesday the Volunteer Independence Fire Department made a run to a home near Fiskburg. An oil stove had exploded, but a bucket brigade had put it out when the fire department arrived. It was thought that about $400 damage was done or maybe a little more.

Harry Williams of Independence, R. R., is visiting his son in New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hendershott of Evansville, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Parsons of Muncie, Ind., were weekend guests in the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Maners. Mrs. Hendershott is a sister of Pastor Maners.

Sunday School Contest

The Independence Baptist Sunday School has enrolled in an International Sunday School Attendance Contest, which is sponsored by the Christian Life Magazine of Chicago. Usually there are 400 to 500 schools enrolled. Awards are offered on a percentage of gain in attendance over the previous year and upon the plans indicated to go forward. The Independence school made a general average in attendance of 150 last year. In the coming six weeks the teachers and officers have hopes of making substantial increases by getting every member of the family in Sunday school. Church members are to be urged to get in Sunday school and learn their Bible.

Pastor Called

Rev. Nat Phillips, a student in the Southern Baptist Seminary, Louisville, preached last Sunday at the New Banklick Baptist Church, and it is reported that he accepted the call of the church to become its pastor.

Anderson S. Crowder

Anderson S. Crowder, Kenton county farmer, died last week at his home on Decoursey Pike near Kenton Station. Mr. Crowder, who was 73, had been sick for almost two years.

He is survived by two daughters, Miss Mary B. Crowder, with whom he lived, and Mrs. Charles Banks of Ryland Heights; four sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Reed of Newport, Mrs. Margaret Rider of Spring Lake, Mrs. Pauline Brown of Kenton Station, and Mrs. Francis Gebhardt of Covington; two brothers, Henry Crowder of Independence, and Wm. Crowder of Covington, and three grandchildren.

Services were held last Monday at the Swindler funeral home, Independence. Burial was in Independence Cemetery.

Mr. H. Thomas' sister, Lee, was struck recently by an auto in Frankfort, breaking her leg and collar bone. She is confined to a hospital. Also Mr. Thomas' other sister, Mrs. Minor, is suffering from a stroke. Mr. Thomas, now of Frankfort, lived in Independence for a great number of years and is very well known and beloved.

Harold McGraw of Independence, in the inactive Reserve, is called for examination October 29, with view to induction into service.

Carroll Carter, trainee, now of Camp Atterbury, Columbus, Ind., was home Sunday on a twelve-hour pass.

Rev. Simeon Webster, the new pastor of Pleasant View, is enjoying his new work and conversions have taken place already. One was baptized last Sunday night. Rev. Webster is to be on WCPQ, 9:30 a. m., on October 29.

Test Soil Early

The fall is an ideal time to test your soil to determine soil fertility. In the fall the soil is usually in good plowing condition and this is important if a good test is to be made. When the ground is in plowing condition, it is usually satisfactory for soil sampling. You cannot take a good sample when the soil is too wet to plough.

By taking your soil sample in the fall, the tester has more time and the farmer knows in advance what he needs in lime, phosphate and potash. He can place his order in the fall and be sure of his plant food needs for the coming season.

Kenton county farmers cooperating with the Extension Service and the Fiscal Court have set up a soil testing laboratory in the Independence Courthouse to assist farmers and other citizens in the county who desire to have their soil tested. A small service charge is made on each sample, at the time the sample is left. This charge pays the tester and covers the cost of testing, solutions, materials used and replacements.

Each sample of soil tested gives information on the lime (acidity test), phosphate and potash in the sample. An information sheet must be made out at the time the sample is submitted. See your local Extension Service Agent for information on how to take samples and farm data needed on the field where the sample is taken.

More than $700 in prizes were offered by the McCreary county - H Club Council at the County Agricultural and School Fair.

A yield of 125 bushels of corn an acre on 11 acres of delta bottomland in Fulton county is reported on the farm of Raymond King.

INCREASED STRENGTH FOR GREATER SERVICE

Increased strength for greater service to America and those who have defended the nation will be brought by the American Legion Auxiliary in a membership campaign for 1951 it has been announced by Mrs. Dora Stephenson, President of Johnson-McElroy Unit.

An invitation to come into the Auxiliary and take part in its activities during the coming year will be extended to all eligible women in the community. Eligible for membership are wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of American Legion members or of deceased veterans of either World War, and women who themselves were in war service.

"We believe that this time all women of war-service families want to serve actively for our country and its defenders" said Mrs. Stephenson. "In the American Legion Auxiliary we can offer them opportunity for effective service in many fields. We are well organized and already in action. Nearly one million women are already serving. But the situation today calls for ever greater strength. We have places for two million women in our work. Every woman who joins gives us that much more strength to carry out activities for the security of America and for the welfare of our war veterans and their families."

Oak Ridge Homemakers'

Fourteen members were present at the Oak Ridge Homemakers' Club meeting held Tuesday, Oct. 17 in the home of Mrs. A. G. Bowling.

In the lesson, given by Mrs. I. E. Mann, on "Legal Affairs," she said anyone owning real or personal property regardless of how small an amount it may be, should make a will. Many reasons were given as to the importance of a clearly stated will. First, it assures the maker of the disposal of property according to their wishes, and secondly, it will enable the estate to be settled fairly and with a minimum expense.

Through a complete remodeling program, the attractive home of Mrs. E. C. Harris is the result of putting to use the knowledge obtained from the Homemakers Club in kitchen planning, home furnishing and decorating. Valuable information such as this and much more is available to those attending the meetings.

Mrs. E. C. Harris, membership chairman, states the club needs new members and she extends an invitation to those women living in the vicinity of Oak Ridge to contact a member and make plans to attend the November meeting.

A collection was taken by Mrs. A. G. Bowling, citizenship chairman, for the Pennies for Friendship fund.

Poultry-Turkey Men Of Kenton County To Meet Nov. 1

According to C. A. Wicklund, County Agricultural Agent in Kenton County, two meetings have been scheduled for Kenton County poultry and turkey producers on Wednesday, November 1.

The morning meeting will be held at the Independence Courthouse at 10 a. m., with J. B. Richardson, chairman, and the afternoon session will be held at the Crescent Springs Fire House at 1:30 p. m., with Robert E. Scott, chairman.

J. E. Humphrey, Extension Poultry Husbandman, from the Poultry Department of the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky, will lead the discussion at both meetings.

These meetings will begin with a discussion on the poultry outlook for 1951, followed by disease and parasite control practices, feeding, egg production and poultry management problems.

Poultry and turkey producers who have production problems are invited to attend the meeting in their locality and take part in the discussion.

Sunday school each Sunday at 10 a. m., Walter Roden, Superintendent; preaching each Sunday at 11 a. m. and 8:15 p. m., Rev. Frank Lipcomb, Pastor; prayer meeting each Wednesday at 8:15 p. m.; B. T. U.

each Friday at 8:15 p. m., Mrs. Frank Lipcomb, Leader. You are cordially invited to attend each of these services.

The ladies of Kenton Baptist Church set the lunch at Mr. Fightmaster's sale and wish to thank all who bought so generously.

Four hundred and seventy-eight Negro 4-H boys and girls in Christian and Todd counties were enrolled in agricultural projects the past year, 428 completing their projects.

FLORENCE

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Florence Volunteer Fire Department wish to thank each and everyone for the splendid attendance at the pillow slip social held the past Thursday evening at the Fire Hall. Every effort is being made to aid in your enjoyment in these affairs. You in turn are doing your community's great favor in supporting this worthy cause.

The U. S. Post Office Department has authorized the erection of all new equipment in the Florence Post Office, which will bring greater and better service to you, its patrons. We wish to thank all in the community for helping to make this possible. Without your cooperation these new conveniences could not have been brought about.

Mrs. Lenore Nixon was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Broadus Lucas on Thursday and attended the Pillow Slip social Thursday evening at the Fire Hall.

Mrs. Thelma M. Smith entertained her mother, Mrs. Joe Walton, of Elsmere at luncheon one day the past week.

Mrs. S. H. Aylor of Gunpowder was a recent luncheon guest of her son, Larry Aylor, and family.

The Edgar Utzinger family was among the guests at a family reunion Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Richards of Covington.

Vandals were operating on Lloyd Ave., Thursday night of last week. They evidently were in need of ladies' clothing, towels and bed linens as these articles were missing from the closetline of one of our neighbors.

We regret to report the illness of Ben Carpenter. However, his friends wish him a rapid recovery.

Mrs. Ida Miller, Mrs. Eva Miller and Mrs. Nannie Mitchell attended a miscellaneous shower Tuesday evening at Epworth Church, Covington in view of the approaching marriage of Miss Jeanette Jones and J. W. Mitchell, son of Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Mitchell. The couple were recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts. The wedding will be an event of November 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Tanner have concluded an extensive southern tour, including the east, west and southern coast of Florida. They paused at Miami a brief period only as that city was in the path of the recent hurricane. However, they drove in the edge of the downpour of rain and lashing wind that swirled their car from one side of the road to the other. Luckily they escaped injury.

Friends of Dr. N. A. Jett regret to learn of his illness at St. Elizabeth Hospital. The community wishes him the best.

Forty-five guests were in attendance at the meeting of the Boone County Historical Society, held at the J. P. Brothers store, Limburg, October 20. Mrs. Ora Tanner, Mrs. Sadie Tanner and Mrs. J. P. Brothers presented the program, which was very interesting. Refreshments were dispensed and a good social time was had by all. Anyone interested is invited to attend these meetings and participate in the program.

FARM WATER SUPPLY STILL BIG PROBLEM
Despite the wet season, putting down wells and making reservoirs are on the list of things to be done on Kentucky farms this fall and winter, says a statement from the Agricultural Experiment Station in Lexington.
Many farmers still remember dry years when they had to sell stock because ponds and springs contained no water and they had no wells. In limestone areas of the state, deep wells are rare and can only occasionally be drilled at reasonable cost. Springs, small streams and shallow wells frequently fail in dry periods, even in years when the total rainfall is normal, noted Prof. J. B. Kelley, head of the station's agricultural engineering section.
The year of 1943 is cited as a typical dry season. A survey made by county agents showed that in 60 of the principal livestock counties 9,985 farmers drove herds to water. 13,174 farmers hauled water and 6,300 others sold stock before it was ready for market.
Farm reservoirs properly located, built and maintained are satisfactory sources of water for stock and often are the cheapest source that can be provided, Prof. Kelley said.
In the past 10 years an estimated 51,000 farm reservoirs have been made in Kentucky. There are some 300 customer operators of machines for making reservoirs, digging ditches, clearing land and grading farm roads.

Farm Digest News

Successful Egg Project

Commission of Agriculture Harry F. Walters and Marketing Director John L. Anderson report that excellent progress has been made in the egg project located in the following counties: Pulaski, Clinton, Casey, and Wayne. This project was set up with veterans, who are taking "On the Farm Training," and also farmers within this section desiring to produce quality eggs on a graded basis.

This area has been supplied with egg graders purchased by the Kentucky Department of Agriculture through the Federal-State Marketing Agreement. These graders aid in marketing of top quality eggs to the consumer.

During the sample period of October 11-14 there were 1601 eggs sold from the above counties on a graded basis, bringing the producers an average of 48 cents a dozen. This program is now reaching its fruition for the year and it is expected that the volume produced next year will surpass the above figure.

National Apple Week

Apples are again one of the most plentiful foods available this year, according to the Food Distribution Branch of the United States Department of Agriculture.

The apple industry is conducting a fall and winter campaign to increase sales. The peak of the campaign will occur during National Apple Week, October 26 - Nov. 4.

Grain Markets Continue Weak

Grain markets continued rather weak during the week ended October 19, according to reports to the Kentucky and United States Departments of Agriculture. Wheat prices were somewhat irregular, high protein milling wheat premiums were adjusted downward materially while ordinary protein types were unchanged to slightly lower. Corn markets were barely steady. Plentiful supplies of old crop grain and increased movement of new crop corn to southwestern markets were weakening influences. Oats and barley held about unchanged but rye and grain sorghums turned weaker at the leading markets. Flaxseed declined 5 cents per bushel at Minneapolis. Soybeans were independently firm and price gains were 5 cents to 10 cents per bushel compared with a week ago.

Wilmington W. M. S. Meets

The Missionary Society of the Wilmington Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. C. C. Cross for the October meeting.

The president, Mrs. R. W. Elliott, called the meeting to order after a song, "Sweet Hour of Prayer." Mrs. Newell Spegal led in prayer, and Mrs. M. Oliver, Mrs. R. W. Elliott and Mrs. Gross gave a review of the book, "How to Pray."

Roll call was answered with Bible references. Nineteen visits to the sick were made and 38 cards sent. The collection was $8.68.

A box to Oneida Institute, valued at $10 was sent; a box to a Coerman family, valued at $40, and a $10 CARE package was also sent. A letter of appreciation from Oneida Institute was read, thanking the society for a package sent earlier.

Mrs. Gross, Mrs. Robert Bell and Mrs. J. S. Beighle were appointed as a committee for Community Missions.

The program in Royal Service was given, with several members taking part, and Mrs. Blanche Elliott as

Fertilizing Pastures and Crop Land This Fall Will Boost '51 Yields and Profits

Top-Dressing With Plenty of Plant Food Increases Yields of High Quality, Low Cost Forage on Permanent Pastures Not Renovated.

A FOUR-POINT program for adding fertilizer to croplands this fall that will help farmers cut down next spring's work load and give crops a head start, was listed by the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, based on recommendations by Prof. C. J. Chapman, of the soils department of the University of Wisconsin.

Here are the steps Prof. Chapman suggests:

- 1—For winter wheat or fall-seeded rye, a complete fertilizer should be applied at seeding time. He recommends adding up to 300 pounds per acre of 3-12-12, 4-12-8, 3-9-18, or their equivalent.

- 2—Permanent pastures that will be renovated this fall should be liberally fertilized before the seedbed is torn up with field cultivator or disc. On silt and clay loam soils, applications of as much as 300 to 400 pounds per acre of 0-20-20, 0-9-27 or 10-10-30 are suggested. Where no renovation is planned, permanent pastures should be top-dressed with a complete fertilizer this fall or a phosphate-potash fertilizer this fall and nitrogen next spring.

- 3—Fall plowed fields that will be seeded to small grains and legumes next spring can be fertilized this fall and then again next spring. At seeding time, drill in from 100 to 150 pounds per acre of a complete fertilizer in direct contact with seed.

- 4—On low fertility silt or clay loam fields that will be planted to corn in 1951, high nitrogen fertilizer mixtures such as 8-8-8 or 10-10-10 can be plowed under this fall either with attachments on the plow, or broadcast before plowing and then plowed under. High nitrogen fertilizer should not be plowed under on sandy soils, because there is some danger of losing part of the nitrogen by leaching.

leader. The devotional was in charge of Mrs. Marion Collins, Sr. Prayer was offered by Mrs. Blanche Elliott and the group dismissed by Mrs. R. W. Elliott.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Hazel Spaulding on November 1.

Those present were Mrs. Wilma Collins, Mrs. Blanche Hanker, Mrs. Chas. Flynn, Mrs. Harry Yancey, Mrs. Malcolm Oliver, Mrs. Marion Collins, Sr., Mrs. Ruth Kinman, Mrs.

Fred McMillan, Mrs. Ray Linder, Mrs. Blanche Elliott, Mrs. B. N. Spegal, Mrs. James Kidwell, Mrs. Newell Spegal, Mrs. June Beighle, Mrs. Hazel Spaulding, Mrs. R. W. Elliott, Mrs. C. C. Gross, Mrs. Myrtle Bell, and visitors, Mrs. O. F. Flynn, Mrs. Nora Benson, Mrs. Lydia Taylor, Mrs. Ira Menefee, Mrs. Willard Benson, Mrs. Alsip, and Mrs. M. Baker, also five children.

DEVOTIONAL READING: Psalm 12

What's Your Intake?

Lesson for October 23, 1950

FEW PEOPLE would care for a diet of sawdust, mixed with old bacon rinds and with carbolic acid for a drink. Yet some people who are very careful of what goes into their stomachs are astonishingly careless about the intake of their minds.

What goes into your mind counts for more, and lasts longer, than what goes into your mouth. What you eat can kill you—your body, that is; but what you think, Dr. Foreman what you read, what you hear, can kill your mind. It can even kill your soul. You can afford to be particular. Down at the Cracked Cup Cafe they give you no choice. If you don't like the 50¢ dinner you can walk out; and if you are at all particular you will walk out. But at the best restaurants you are offered a wide choice, and the experienced diner-out will read the menu carefully before ordering.

Are you a Christian? Then don't feed your mind at the mental equivalent of the Cracked Cup Cafe. Go to a better spot. The beauty of food for the mind is that the best costs no more. The best foods for the table are rather expensive; the best mind-foods, soul-foods, are not.

Eye-Gate
IS WHAT you listen to, good for your mind? What's your intake, by ear? A woman who had roomed in another woman's house for some time was looking for a new place. Her old room was inexpensive, sunny, convenient, clean; there was nothing wrong with the room. But she had to listen to the landlady every day, and from her she never heard good of any one.

"If I stay there any longer I shall go crazy," the roomer confided to a friend. "She'll get me to thinking the way she does, and she thinks everybody's a crook."

In Tenyson's "Idylls of the King" is that fine rule of the Round Table: "To speak no slander—no, nor listen to it..." Listening to slander, trash, mean and malicious gossip, day after day, is bound to have a serious effect on any one's mind.

Eye-Gate
THE STRANGE thing is that Christians can be seen taking the greatest of pains picking out the right food for their dogs and cats, and yet never exercising the least choice in what comes into their minds by ear or eye. They will let the radio run on hour after hour, they look at whatever the television puts on the screen—the dirty with the clean, the trash with the jewels (if any). They read the newspapers from front to back, or vice versa, they read all the comics whether they are amusing or not. But when it comes to picking out something good for their minds, really going to the trouble of selection, and paying out folding money for it, how many, even Christian people, will do it?

It would be interesting to compare what most people spend on quite unnecessary stuff like soft drinks and cigarettes, with what they spend for books in a year's time. Would you like to sit down with a great and good man or woman and let him talk to you by the hour, to give you the best of his mind and heart? It can always be done—with a good book. Not usually, the best sellers!

An intelligent Christian woman recently had to move almost a thousand miles; when you move that far and have to pay by the pound for what you take, you screen your stuff pretty carefully. "I am throwing away all my best sellers," she said. "There's not a one worth wasting freight on." She was right about most best-sellers. But the old-time, long-time, all-time best seller of them all is the Christian Bible.

Is Your Mind a Vacant Lot?
IT IS MORE than a question of what you read and see and hear. An even more serious question is: What do you think about? Good reading, even the Bible, was never meant to be a substitute for thought. One of the great books of ancient times was "Consolations of Philosophy," written by a man in jail without a book in his cell. But the fine books he had read were in his head and heart, and when he became a political prisoner, alone and poor and friendless, his mind was still a garden. What is your mind—a garden, or a desert, or only a vacant lot littered with junk?

In the clutches of THE LAW and he doesn't know why

Most of the teen-age youngsters who run afoul of the law do not know why!

They can hardly be expected to realize that a lack of proper moral and religious training has left them ill-equipped for honest, decent living.

In many cases, their parents did not give them the advantage of religious education in the Church. And so, all their lives they may have to pay the penalty of their parent's neglect.

Juvenile Delinquency is hard to cure, but it is easy to prevent. The Church, with the support and cooperation of faithful parents, can equip every child with the sure foundation of Christian truth.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and spiritual support. Plans to go to Church regularly and read your Bible daily.

We have had that good old Kentucky autumn these past few days. Our farmers are getting some of their work done that the rain all summer held up. Next Tuesday is Halloween when all the ugly people dress pretty and all the beautiful girls dress ugly. All the boys pull pranks on their enemies, or should I say, the ones they like to pester. We have a few false faces, if your won't do. Everyone will turn out to the school gym and watch the parade and eat all the candy they can hold. A lot of things went on this week — we thought, we said, we repaired and we put up the old stove — now we are ready for the loaders and customers.

Hubert Ryan brought his electric iron for repair, also had Brewster make him two rods to put across his wagon bed. Chas. Brown needed repair links for his machinery. Clinton Clerk had us make several long rods for the new sales ring they are building at the Stock Yards, and Chas. Steen bought 7 gallons of that Boice White paint. Robert Durr came in and wanted some more of that Boice paint, like he bought last year. Leslie and Herbert Hoffman were here — Leslie always is in a hurry. Robert Sierback and wife were in asking about a Maytag washer, also a Spindrier washer — you know, when you mention Maytag, they are half sold, so matter what washer they have in mind.

Roy Roter came up and bought a Dayton Water System, also a lot of pipe and fittings — Ray has one Dayton and it has given very good service, so he thought there was no need to try another make. Mr. and Mrs. Cam Kennedy were in asking about venetian blinds. Roy Brannon is some turtle coter — he came in with one as big as a dish pan, weighed 18 1/2 lbs. Fishing season is not over — Gordon Phillips bought 200 fish hooks.

Roy Kenney bought some of those fluorescent lights for his stripping room. Leslie Hoffman called in for more wire fence — they are always building fence. Mr. and Mrs. James Webster, who built the new home on High School Court, bought a large 30-inch grate basket — now that is the size grate to build. Monday was some busy day. Ray put up furnace pipe for George Hamilton, also set up a stove for Mrs. Mary Houston. Luther Risner called in for a chain pump which we delivered in a hurry.

Roy and Red set up a Warm Morning heater, which we put in a complete new lining, for Mr. Moore at Wayside Plaza, Beaverlick. Mrs. Julia House called for some hardware cloth to put over her gutters on her house to keep the leaves out. Chick cut it in strips 12 inches wide. This saves cleaning out the gutters. I had three salesmen to talk to and help Chick wait on customers and putting up the orders that came in — we all were busy. Melvin Platt came in after some fluorescent lights for his stripping room.

These are the greatest light there is when you are stripping — the same all the time — when in daylight, the light keeps changing. We have a lot of customers wanting heating stoves, but they are all waiting to see if it is going to get cold or not. Morion Collins had Chick make him two pieces of iron with a lot of holes in them, then bent them in a circle. Maitland Baker needed a special bit to go in his tin snips — we did not have the correct one, but we fixed them so he could use them. Ira Stephenson had a pressure cooker with the bottom bulged out, so it would not set on the stove without rocking, so we took a piece of 2x4 and laid it on the bottom of the pan, then hit the 2x4 with a heavy hammer — it went back into shape. So if your bottom bulges out, just hit it with a 2x4.

The U. S. Highway 25 Association representatives met Monday night with the Rotary Club and Lions Club at the Phoenix Restaurant and discussed the progress this U. S. 25 organization had made in advertising for tourists to use this highway, which brings millions of dollars into Kentucky each year and if they travel U. S. 25, we, in this area will benefit directly or indirectly. Also they stand very high with the State Highway Department.

Their main object is to keep U. S. 25 where it is and cut out the curves and widen these hills so we can pass these trucks. This organization does not want a new highway, but keep this one where it is and make it a better road. If you would like to join us in this fight, please see me and I will sign you up as a member and take your donation. If we keep this road, we all are going to have to spend a little money and time. Other highways know we have the richest traveled highway in the country, that is the reason they are working so hard to get part of it.

You price a piece of property on U. S. 25, then go over on other highways and price it — and see which is the more valuable. For my part, I'll take U. S. 25 about 20 miles south of the Ohio River and a little country town by the name of Walton, so let's keep this highway where it is, so we will always have a good country town and have good customers like Mrs. Clarence Schuman of Kenton County, who just came in and bought a portable Perfection heater and a mail box name plate.

Achievement Jamboree Saturday at Simon Kenton

Honor Club Contest Ends, Awards to Be Made by U. L. H. & P. Manager

The Kenton County Achievement Jamboree will be held in the Simon Kenton High School auditorium on Saturday, November 4, starting at 1:30 p. m. This marks the end of the Honor Club contest, which is sponsored by the Union Light, Heat and Power Company, in cooperation with the Kenton County Agricultural Extension Service.

National 4-H Club Achievement Week is November 4-12. All over the nation 4-Hers will have Achievement Day programs, and in keeping with this, Kenton County 4-Hers have planned a splendid program.

The Achievement meeting is to honor the Honor Club, and E. R. Mitchell, manager of U. L. H. & P., will present the awards. J. A. Caywood will be the main speaker. Wally Bollinger will be in charge of entertainment, and C. A. Wicklund, County Agricultural Agent, will welcome the group. The salute to the flag will be led by Carter Bobbitt of the Crescent Springs school, and the 4-H pledge will be led by Marian Hergett of Holy Guardian Angel school.

Community Club Elects Officers Tuesday Night

Members of the Verona Community Club met October 31 and elected the following officers for the coming year: President, Bill Scroggins; Vice President, Stanley Fookes; Secretary, Wilbur Florence, and Treasurer, Grover Ransom.

Plans for recreation, including baseball, for next year were discussed and it is likely the club will be looking for a new manager for the baseball team. Wendell Ryan, who has managed the team since the club was started back in 1947, has asked to be relieved, in spite of the whole-hearted encouragement from the club for him to continue.

The team has been well established in Semi-Pro circles in Northern Kentucky and Ohio, and has a good reputation at home or on the road. A large part of the team's success during the past three years should be credited to its management, along with the fine sportsmanship shown by all team members. A good manager is hard to replace.

Necessary repair work on the grand stand was discussed and a new metal roof will be installed in the near future. For this repair work it will be necessary for additional funds to be raised. The past season has been a tough one on gate receipts, as the weather was too cool for real baseball enjoyment, most of the summer. Plans for raising additional funds will be announced in the Advertiser next week, as all want to see the grand old sport of baseball in "full bloom" next spring.

Jean Bach Circle Meets

The Jean Bach Circle of the Baptist W. M. U. met at the church for the October meeting. New officers are: President, Mrs. Mary Margaret Allen; Secretary, Mrs. Eloise Breeden; Community Missions chairman, Mrs. Helen Chance; Literature chairman, Mrs. Louise Stephenson, and Young People's leader, Mrs. Violet Prather.

Those who enjoyed the evening were Grace Knox, W. M. U. President; Louise Stephenson, Mary Margaret Allen, Georgia Greene, Helen Chance, Eloise Breeden and Violet Prather.

Members of this circle will meet once each quarter with the W. M. U., thus combining the Mission work of the two organizations.

Gunpowder Homemakers

The November meeting of the Gunpowder Homemakers Club will be held November 7 at 8:30 a. m. at the home of Mrs. Edgar Utzinger. This club is to attend the "Morning Matinee" television show on WLWT, November 10. Let's all attend this meeting. Visitors always welcome.—Pub. Chm.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

The annual Halloween party, sponsored by the Walton P. T. A., which was held at the school gym Monday night, was very well attended and everyone, seemingly, had a wonderful time.

The feature of the evening was the grand march of masked contestants and the judging of various winners. The judges, Mrs. J. O. Ward, Mr. Lester, and Miss Yancy, all faculty members in the Walton school, picked the following winners:

Ugliest child, Jimmy Maloney; prettiest child, Linda Breeden; best character (child), Carolyn Pyles; best character (adult), Mrs. Nell Hunt and Mrs. Mary Worthington, as bride and groom; ugliest adult was a tie between Duke Simpson and Buddy Readman, and Don Wagner and Alva Flynn.

Has 100% Attendance

The Walton Rotary Club, for the first time in its five years existence, had a 100% attendance meeting last Tuesday evening at the Phoenix Restaurant. The topic for discussion at the meeting was, ways and means of financing the Christmas lighting, an annual project of the club. President Jib Bob Allen asks anyone interested in aiding in this plan to contact him.

Calves Bring Good Price

The Honorary Mayor of Bracht, John Adams, sold several calves the past week through Norton-Brock at the Cincinnati Stockyards for an average of $29.25 per hundred, and some bulls at an average of $24.50. Robert Cross, a former Walton man, was the salesman who handled the deal.

$10,000 Deposit Insurance

The Dixie State Bank, Walton, announces that depositors are now covered through the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation for all deposits up to $10,000. This is just double what has been in effect for a number of years. James Spencer, Cashier, invites anyone interested in more information to contact him.

Circles I and II to Meet

Circles I and II of the W. S. C. S. of the Walton Methodist Church will meet at the home of Mrs. N. T. Welsh on Tuesday, November 7.

NANCY ELLEN PERRY

Nancy Ellen Perry, age 75, of near Glencoe, died at the home of Raymond House, October 29, 1950. She was a member of Oakland Baptist Church, and had resided in the community for 47 years.

Survivors are two daughters, Mrs. Elmer O'Donnell of Warsaw; a son, Leonard Perry, Sparta; two sisters, Mrs. Allie Perry, Burlington, and Mrs. Ollie Toibert, Glencoe; a brother, Richard Mason, Owenton; eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, Nov. 1, at 2:00 p. m. in the Oakland Baptist Church, Gallatin County, with Rev. Ray Alexander officiating. Burial was in Oakland Cemetery.

Hamilton Funeral Home, Verona, completed arrangements.

Services at Beaver, Sunday

Services will be held at the Beaver Lick Baptist Church, Sunday, Nov. 5, 1950 at 11:00 a. m. The speaker will be Rev. Chase Jennings. All members and friends are invited to be present.

Large Crowd Attends Dedication at New Verona Church

The New Bethel Baptist Church, Verona, was filled to capacity with well-wishers and members Sunday morning, afternoon and evening for the Dedication services.

Rev. Aden Childress was the main speaker for the afternoon session, which was the official dedication program. He stressed what is expected of the church and how to accomplish that purpose, and he also reminded in the past as to how the idea of the new building was first born, while he was pastor there, and how that baby idea has grown into the realization of last Sunday when a building worth $30,000 was dedicated. The actual cost was placed at about $17,000, but as Rev. Childress said, that does not tell the complete story of the hundreds of hours that many people of the congregation spent, at no cost.

A covered dish lunch was served at noon, with many former residents and friends of the church present.

In the afternoon service a special collection was taken for the building and approximately $1,000 was donated.

The entire county enters in congratulating New Bethel Baptist Church on a wonderful job.

Hunters, Shotguns Barred From Fields November 5 to 19

Hunters and shotguns again will be barred from the fields of Kentucky from midnight November 5, until midnight, November 19, Earl Wallace, Director of the Division of Game and Fish, announced. Barring of hunters and shotguns was decided on the director said, in order to protect game between the closing of the squirrel season and the opening of the quail and rabbit season.

Wallace pointed out that violators have used the use of hunting grounds and crops and other lands and animals in the past, when in reality they were hunting quail and rabbits. By using this rule many violators have escaped punishment in the courts. With this new emergency regulation being in effect a hunter will have no excuse for carrying a shotgun in the fields during this designated 14-day period and will be in violation of the law by so doing.

The Division of Game and Fish asks that all farmers, sportsmen and others interested in the conservation of wildlife, assist in the enforcement of this regulation, since it is the only method by which the chief and game hunter may be kept out of the fields during the period immediately before the opening of the legal hunting season.

BOB & GENE PLAY SUN.

The Bob & Gene baseball team, one of three remaining in the K. O. elimination series, will play Grantsville, Sunday, Nov. 5 at the Florence park. The third team, Charlie's Cafe, drew a bye. The winner Sunday afternoon will be in the three-out-of-five series for the championship. Game time is 2:30 p. m.

Receives Carload Shipments

DeMoisey Gas Company, one of Walton's largest concerns, received two carloads of gas stoves and deep freezers last week, and will give the public the saving in price by buying in car lots. There will be an ad next week on these items, but if you are interested, better see them at once.

New Haven PTA to Meet

The New Haven P. T. A. will hold its regular monthly meeting Tuesday, November 7 at 8:00 p. m. Every parent is invited to attend. The room having the greatest number of parents present will receive an award. Refreshments will be served.

BAPTIST ADULT MONTH

The Baptist church has designated November as Adult Month in Sunday School, and have set as their goal an average attendance each Sunday of 100 in the Adult Dept. Those enrolled are asked to make a special effort to be present each Sunday during the month, and to seek to enlist others who are not attending somewhere else. The slogan, "Bring the Whole Family to Church," is being emphasized.

Sunday morning, the pastor, Rev. B. C. Garrett, will speak on the subject, "Do You Have A Wedding Garment?"

Sunday evening, the B. T. U. meets at 6:30 and the topics to be discussed by the different groups will be, "How are Baptists Different," "Can We Serve God With Our Possessions?" and "Stewardship." Come with us and we will do thee good."

Sunbeam Halloween Party

The Sunbeams of the Walton Baptist Church had a Halloween party Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wm. Breeden, Jr.

After a missionary program, delicious refreshments were served to Paulette Chance, Sandra Smith, Linda Breeden, Paul Wilson, Wesley Prather, Jimmie Stone, Terry Struve, Gary McMillan, Donnie and Ronnie Allen, Kaye Wilson, Mrs. Helen Chance, Mrs. Stanley Allen, Mrs. Lawrence Wilson and the hostess, Mrs. Breeden.

KENTON GARDEN CLUB

The October meeting of the Kenton County Garden and Cultural Club was held in the home of Mrs. Frank Cooke, Atwood.

Fall flower show was the feature of the day. Mrs. C. Northcutt won first prize; Mrs. O. S. Ware, second, and Mrs. S. C. Fisk, third.

Guests present were Mrs. Russell Adams, and Mrs. Robert Cooke, both of Harrison, Ohio, and Mrs. Leslie Frazier of Independence.

The club voted to send club president, Mrs. William R. Brown, to the flower show play in Lexington.

The next meeting will be held on November 16 in the home of Mrs. L. J. Rapp, Mrs. Denver Blinder hostess. Mrs. O. S. Ware, Mrs. John Cain, and Mrs. John Mayhugh were appointed a committee for place setting and linen for the Thanksgiving table decorations. All members are to bring Thanksgiving arrangements.

Verona Drops Out Sunday As They Lose to Charlie's

Charlie's Cafe of Covington, eliminated the Verona Community Club from further play in the K. O. baseball series, Sunday, at the Verona park, by the score of 6-4, staging a 4-run rally in the first of the ninth to win.

The Cremen had 6 runs, 7 hits and 1 error. Rusche pitched for the winners. He struck out 4, walked 3 and hit one batsman. McGarr did the catching. Stunbeck had a 3-bagger and a single in four swings. Casebolt had a homer in the ninth, and D. Bishop had a double, to lead the Charlie attack. The victors also completed three double plays.

Verona had 4 runs, 12 hits and 4 errors. "Moe" Steffen, on the mound for the Community Club, struck out 12 and walked 3. Caumann caught. Bud Robinson had 3 for 5; Baumann 2 for 5; Brown 2 for 5 and Alexander hammered out a homer in the 3rd frame, to head the losers' attack. Verona completed one double play. The pitching of Steffen was good, but Verona errors led to their downfall.

4-H Tobacco Shows Dec. 16

District 4-H tobacco shows will be held at 11 a. m. and 2 p. m. throughout the state, according to Bill Davis, Boone County Agent. All shows will be held Saturday, December 16. All club members may take part in the shows and enter in the tobacco judging contest, and the auctioneer's contest. Club members who wish to take part in this event must contact Mr. Davis immediately. A record book on the project will be required. Exhibits under 300 pounds or over 2,000 lbs. will not be considered in the judging.

All Boone 4-Hers are urged to exhibit and sell their crops at one of these district shows, Dec. 16.

Skating Party Friday Night

Everyone is invited to attend the skating party, sponsored by the Walton Christian Church Youth Fellowship, at the Walton Rollerdom, Friday, November 3, at 7:30.

Bake Sale Saturday

The Walton PTA will conduct a bake sale at the Hamilton & Jones store, Saturday, November 4. There will be all kinds of cakes and other pastery exhibited.

To Speak In Cincinnati

C. Oscar Johnson, retiring president of the Baptist World Alliance, will speak at the 9th Street Baptist Church, Cincinnati, Ohio, on Friday evening, November 10. Dr. Johnson is the cousin of Mrs. C. S. Snelson of Independence.

Three Members to Be Elected to Walton-Verona School Board; 3 Running

Gov. Earle C. Clements, Democratic candidate for U. S. Senator, and Chas. I. Dawson, Republican, candidate for the same office, will furnish opposition in next Tuesday's general election. James E. Olsen is a candidate on the Independent ticket.

Hon. Brent Spence, Democrat, who has served this district for many years, is not expected to have too much trouble with his Republican opponent, Thomas W. Hardesty. James B. Milhiken, Democrat, is opposed for Judge of the Court of Appeals.

Lucian Bradford, Florence Democrat, is the only candidate for Constable in the Second Magisterial District of Boone County, and is assured election.

Walton-Verona School Election

In the Walton-Verona School District, there will be three members of the board elected, and there are only three names entered on the ballot, and they are present members: James Vest, Walton; Robert Porter and Ira Harris, both of Verona. This will be a separate ballot and given only to voters in the independent school district.

Achievement Day Held

The first annual Boone County 4-H Achievement Day was held at the Florence school, Saturday, October 28. Achievement certificates were presented to members who completed their 4-H work.

Medals were given Carlton Anderson, Hebron, garden champion; Billy Maddox, Florence, poultry champion; Mary Jo Dixon, Florence, dairy champion; Gloria Scott, Burlington, foods champion. Betty Hood, Florence, was awarded a leadership pin for her work as a Junior leader.

Betty Hood and Billy Maddox were presented copies of the book, "I Dare You," by the Danforth Foundation, to the outstanding boy and girl in each county.

The afternoon program consisted of a two-hour movie, "The Green Promise," which excellently portrayed 4-H club and extension work as it is carried on throughout the U. S.

Boone County Has 51 Students Enrolled At UK; 6,511 Total

Among the 6,511 students enrolled at the University of Kentucky this fall, 51 are from Boone County. Of the total enrollment, 6,068 students are attending classes on the campus at Lexington, 252 at the Northern Extension Center in Covington, and 173 at the College of Pharmacy in Louisville.

KENTUCKIAN'S IN WASHINGTON

We are reminded at this time each year—election time—of a little story told by Senator Virgil Chapman, the senior Senator from the Blue Grass State. You may have heard it.

Senator Chapman says that he never asks a man if he is a Kentuckian.

"If he is," Senator Chapman explains, "he'll let you know. And if he isn't, I wouldn't want to embarrass him by asking."

Historic Desk:
Just before the Senate quit, it passed a resolution giving to the Veep a beautiful cherry desk, the one used by Vice Presidents for many years.

The Veep is to keep the desk during his lifetime. Then it is to be given to the State of Kentucky. The desk has a lot of Kentucky history connected with it. It was first used by John C. Breckinridge of Kentucky when he was Vice President back in 1857.

Absentee Voters:
There will be no excuse for Kentuckians in Washington not casting a vote in this coming election.

Kentuckians were reminded by three different groups to vote for the man of their choice.

They got letters from the Democratic Campaign Committee of Washington. They got letters from the Absentee Voters League of Washington, an organization set up by the Democratic National Committee. And they also got letters from Kentucky, reminding them how important it is to cast a vote.

Of course, the ballot is a secret but it's a safe bet that Governor Clements received 95 per cent of the Washington vote.

Election Figures:
A popular pastime each year is figuring out the number of voters who will go to the polls on election day. From the size of the vote, a lot of "experts" believe they can forecast the winner.

Well, to help you in your estimates we offer these figures from the 1948 race in Kentucky.

A total of 822,658 votes were cast. The Truman-Barkley ticket polled 466,756. The Dewey-Warren combination got 341,210. Minor parties got the rest.

Most experts believe this year's vote will not be near as large.

Farm Population:

Do you know how many farms there are in Kentucky? Latest figures show there are 238,501 farms in the Blue Grass State. Farm people make up almost 40 per cent of the State's population.

Some other figures show the growth of the REA. Back in 1935, only three per cent of the farms had dependable electric service. Today about 65 percent of the farms enjoy such service. Things are looking up on the farm.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE—

CARD OF THANKS—

"God's best gift to man is a friend." I want to say "thank you" to everyone who has been so kind to me during my illness; those who came to see me or sent me cards at the hospital and to the many who have visited me, sent cards or ministered to me in any way since I've been home. The long hours have been shortened by the thoughtfulness of friends and relatives. My room has been a bower of flowers, given by those who cared. Food dainties have been appreciated and enjoyed. I know, too, my friends and my church are praying for me—for this, I thank you. May God bless you all!

GOOD ROADS BUILD GOOD CITIZENS

Under the administration of Earle C. Clements, Kentucky has built and is building some $83,700,000 worth of roads and bridges. This covers 7,000 miles of roads. Every school child knows this mileage is almost one-third the distance around the earth.

Last year, Kentucky built and contracted for more roads than any other state in the Nation except Texas. And the State Highway Department now maintains over 12,000 miles of Kentucky highways.

Almost 2,600 miles of Rural Roads were built or were under contract up to October 1, 1950, in every one of Kentucky's 120 counties. Farm-to-market roads are being built every day for people living off the main highways. The people in rural areas are being given roads to let them out of their hamlets and hollows in any kind of weather.

Good roads mean a lot to Kentuckians. It means citizens often deprived of travel to the doctor . . . school . . . market . . . church . . . their mail . . . or even to visit a neighbor . . . now are able to do this.

Good roads enable everyone to do more of the good things they are entitled to do. Good roads benefit everybody. Yes, indeed, good roads build good citizens.

When EARLE CLEMENTS became Governor, he had the foresight and vision to see this great need for good roads. AND IN LESS THAN THREE YEARS, EARLE CLEMENTS HAS GIVEN KENTUCKY MORE GOOD ROADS THAN AT ANY SIMILAR PERIOD IN HISTORY.

EARLE CLEMENTS' wise foresight enabled the 1948 Legislature to provide the means to build these good roads. This foresight is building for Kentucky a system of highways second to none in the Nation. He has shown his ability in government at the State level. Give him the opportunity to serve his Kentucky at the National level.

Congratulations and best wishes to this young couple.

Men's Brotherhood Meet

The Men's Brotherhood of the Independence Baptist Church met last Friday night at 7 o'clock with a delicious carry-in supper, served by the ladies of the church. After supper, Rev. Bert Barnes from the Latonia Baptist Church spoke to the men on the subject, "Churches." He stressed the fact that churches and individuals are enjoined by the scriptures to make Christ the center of their lives. The fellowship was so good that quite a few lingered after dismissal to visit awhile.

Sunday School Attendance Contest

Interest is growing in the International Sunday School Contest at the Independence Baptist Church. The Christian Life magazine of Chicago is sponsoring this contest for the third year. Last year 520 Sunday Schools were enrolled. Several last Sunday received "Brought One" pin for bringing a new one with them. The attendance increased from 147 to 177 last Sunday. Next Sunday the classes with the largest attendance in their respective departments will get their pictures taken while in class session. Church members are good prospects for the Sunday School; other members of the family not in Sunday School are prospects, as well as neighbors and friends. All members are urged to "Bring One."

High State Official Preaching

Premier Manning of Alberta, Canada, has a unique distinction among those high in state affairs. He and his wife, who is a very accomplished pianist, have been broadcasting real gospel services for a number of years in Alberta. The Premier is a fearless preacher of the old time gospel, which he broadcasts to his people each week. A few of the folk at Independence had the privilege of hearing the Premier preach and his wife play at Winona Lake Bible Conference last summer.

It is informative and interesting to note that this man, a student of government, social and political conditions, said recently to Gideon Society of Canada. He told this convention of the Gideons that civilization today is approaching one of the crises of human experience. He said, "The greatest need now is not for more social and moral reform, not for more creeds and dogmas and codes of ethics, but the greatest need of this day and age is for men and nations to get back to the Bible as the word of God; to get back to the old fashioned family altar and to Jesus Christ."

The Gideons of Canada according to the General Secretary, Arthur J. Burnham, have presented and placed this last year 124,833 Bibles in hotels, hospitals, penal institutions, schools and to men and women in the armed forces, nurses in general hospitals and students in public schools.

Rev. O. M. Huey Is Dead

The Rev. Oscar Myrick Huey, former pastor of the Erlanger Baptist Church and retired Superintendent of the Baptist Orphans' Home, Louisville, died at a rest home in Louisville, October 25. Rev. Mr. Huey was a member of the Masonic Lodge at Somerset, Ky. He was 88 years old. His survivors include three sons, Samuel L. Huey, Lexington, Edward O. Huey, Cincinnati, and George W. Huey, Louisville; a sister, Mrs. J. E. Galbreath, and several nieces and nephews.

Services were held October 26 at 2 p. m. at the Tallafemore funeral home, Erlanger. Burial was in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Erlanger.

More than 3,000 acres of farm land in Harlan county have been seeded to pastures the past year.

Attend Grand Lodge

Mrs. Mary Riley, Mrs. Virginia Watson and Mrs. Wildred Shanklin attended the Grand Lodge of the Eastern Star in Louisville, October 23 and 24.

Kenton 4-H Achievement Jamboree

The Kenton County 4-H Achievement Jamboree will be held in the Simon Kenton auditorium, November 4 at 1:30 p. m. J. A. Caywood, Supt. of Kenton County Schools, will speak to the group.

INDEPENDENCE R. 1

We are glad to report Howard Hoffman is doing as well as can be expected. He is confined to his bed with rheumatic fever.

Mrs. Rev. Arnold entered Booth Hospital, Monday morning for an operation. We hope and pray that she will soon be on the road to recovery.

The Staffordburg Sunday School had quite a surprise Sunday morning by seeing their former superintendent, Charles Sturgell, and wife coming in to visit them. We were all very glad to see them, and hope they can visit us again soon.

Several of the relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hanna surprised Mr. Hanna, Sunday with a little gathering. Mr. and Mrs. Hanna went to church and when they arrived home the dining room table was laden with a huge birthday cake and all the good eats that go with it. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Riley and daughter Wavelyn and son Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. Wynford Riley and daughter Beverly, Mr. and Mrs. Shaler Marshall and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Craigmye of Latonia, and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hanna and son Jimmie. All departed at a late hour wishing Mr. Hanna many more happy birthdays.

George Ballinger of Latonia was calling on relatives in this community Sunday and was also a visitor at the Staffordburg church.

Rev. John Wheary of Ghent was calling on several old friends in the community, Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett and son Howard spent the weekend with their daughter and family, Rev. Roy Martin, of Mt. Sterling.

We were glad to welcome Mrs. Russell Armstrong into the Staffordburg church, Sunday.

By following good hog raising practices, John R. Bottruff of Oldham county raised 113 pigs from 10 sows.

Mrs. Martha Richards and son, Jerry, of Covington, entertained a group at dinner Sunday, celebrating the birthday of her father, S. H. Aylor of Gunpowder. Places were set for Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Aylor, Mr. and Mrs. William Elkin and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Aylor and two daughters, and Mr. and Mrs. John O. Richards.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Courtney and son of Limaburg, were Sunday evening guests of Mrs. Edna Courtney.

Mrs. Rita Elkin of Erlanger entertained a group of guests Friday morning with a Stanley party. Those from here were Mrs. S. H. Aylor, Mrs. Zelma Aylor, Mrs. Harold C. Aylor, Mrs. Fannie Kleemeier and Mrs. Katherine Oliver.

Mr. and Mrs. Fillmore Pike, Jr., Price Pike, are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a baby son the past week.

Mrs. Melvin Jones was removed to the hospital the past week for observation. Her many friends hope to see her out soon.

Miss Florence Walker of Louisville was calling on Mrs. Rosa M. Aylor and Mrs. Fred Kleemeier, Jr., Thursday.

Mrs. Lewis A. Riddell of Burlington Pike was removed to the hospital the past week where she underwent a major operation. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Zimmer moved the past week to Valley View subdivision. They formerly lived at Dixie Highway and Sanders Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Cook and Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Kiser of near Frankfort, were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Lents of Lloyd Ave., Sunday of last week.

Charles Aylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Aylor, Burlington Pike, enlisted in the Air Corps and reported for duty the past week at an air field in Texas.

John P. Winchester, who served with the Navy during World War II, as an Ensign, has been recalled to active duty and is now stationed at San Diego, Calif.

Word was received from Mrs. Fanny L. Scott, her daughter, Jane, and Mrs. Frances Berkshire and son, Joe Clinton, who are vacationing in Florida. In addition to their sight-seeing trip, they plan to visit friends in Ft. Lauderdale.

Rev. and Mrs. T. C. Crume are sporting a new car.

Wm. Clifton and family visited friends and former neighbors in Somerset, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank of Latonia, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Tanner, Saturday.

Services were held Thursday, Oct. 26 from the Tailor's funeral home in Erlanger for Rev. Oscar M. Huey, 88, who passed away at a rest home in Louisville. Burial was in Forest Lawn Cemetery. Rev. Huey's first pastorate was at the Erlanger Baptist Church, 62 years ago. He was a member of a Masonic lodge in Somerset, and a retired superintendent of the Baptist Orphan's Home, in Louisville. He leaves three sons, Samuel L. Huey of Lexington, Edward O. Huey of Cincinnati, and Geo. W. Huey of Louisville; a sister, Mrs. J. E. Gaines, and several nieces and nephews. Mr. Huey, a former resident of Florence, made many friends here who extend sympathy to the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Rob Green of Union, Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Rouse of Ludlow, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller of Carrollton, motored to Aurora, Ind., Sunday and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Detmer. The occasion was also in honor of Mrs. Green's birthday.

Miss Ruth Bristow was calling on Mrs. Richard Keyer of Latonia, Saturday. Mrs. Keyer is improving nicely.

Your Worst and Best

Lesson for November 5, 1950

"Within my earthly temple there's a new temple of God's grace, one that's not of this world's make, one that's broken-hearted for And one that, unrepentant, sits and From much perplexing doubt I could be If I could once be certain which is me."

FROM some anonymous rhyme-ster comes this complaint, which any of us might have truthfully written if we had thought about it. Which is me, anyway? I seem to have three selves. One is a good deal better than my everyday or ordinary self. On rare occasions he will do something or other so good it surprises even my best friends — it "aint like me." On the other side is another self, much worse than my everyday personality. He too surprises me by acts or thoughts so dreadful I am afraid of him and ashamed too. Yet both these "other selves" are "me" too.

Life is a Fight
T hat life, when a man takes it seriously, is a fight. It is a war between your best and your worst self. Your two other-selves are there every moment, like ghosts, or rather like a bright angel and a dark one.

It is always possible to become a better man than you are; also, alas, it is possible to become far worse than you are. No man stays the same through life. He is continually pressing upward, or plunging downward, or varying between the two. There has been only one person, Christians believe, who actually fulfilled all the good that was possible for him. The possibilities for evil in his life remained only possibilities—he never let them come to pass.

The possibilities for good, on the other hand, became real. His dark angel remained only a ghost; his good angel was simply his real self. At no point in his life was he forced to say to himself, "I wish I had . . . I wish I had not." And yet, even for him life was a struggle. We do not believe he sinned. We do believe he was tempted; and if the temptation was real, then he could have sinned. No man can be really tempted to do what he cannot do. Yes, the Master had his fight. But the point is: he won.

The Way to Win
CHRISTIANS are not exempt in this war of good against evil. We are not "carried to the skies on flowery beds of ease" any more than Jesus was. We do not drift into the Promised Land. We have to fight our way up hill.

Yet Christians are expected to win. That is, God stands beside each Christian in his fight, and God's power is for the Christian's use. As Saint Paul says, with each temptation God provides a "way of escape." Our prayer "Lead us not into temptation" can always be answered. Sometimes it can be answered by ourselves. That is, we can not leave the fight to God. But we can win as Jesus won: sometimes by standing and doing battle where we are, sometimes simply by leaving temptation behind. For often the best thing to be done is to retreat. Get as far as you can from whatever tempts your worse self. Don't stand debating between right and wrong when you know which is which. Turn your back on the wrong . . . run, don't walk, to the nearest exit!

Is Alcoholism a Disease?
ONE of the common temptations of millions at all times is alcoholism. It is popular to speak of this as a "disease," and yet it is the only disease of which victims have actually cured themselves. Dr. Brady, whose medical column is well known, reminds us that nobody ever got over migraine headaches, or heart disease, simply by deciding to be well. But men and women have got over alcoholism, essentially by deciding to be well, and sticking to that decision. Alcoholics Anonymous, that well known group of former victims who have been very successful in helping slaves of this habit to be come their best selves, use much the same methods we find in the New Testament: (1) staying out of temptation's way, (2) overcoming evil with good; and (3) laying hold of the "Power, not ourselves, that makes for righteousness."

WANTED

CORWIN CLARK
alias "CORWEE"

Blond hair, blue eyes. Four years old. Height 3 ft. 7 inches; weight 58 lbs.
Last seen loafing on his doorstep Sunday morning.

THIS BOY IS DANGEROUS
He is intelligent, clever, friendly—a natural leader. But his parents have repeatedly neglected the opportunities provided by local churches for his religious and moral training.

The aid of all Christian citizens is required to locate this boy and hundreds like him. The character-building influence of the Church can make them outstanding men. Your active support of the local churches in their efforts to train such youngsters will have ample REWARD in the contribution these youths will one day make to the life of our Community.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of his Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to Bible study, church, and read your Bible daily.

HOT NOVEMBER

This week was very hot and dry. Most everyone working and not too much excitement in Walton. Halloween was very quiet. Verona school and Walton school had their Halloween parties. Everyone in Walton will have to wash their windows and we do every year, after Oct. 31. Omer Spedal was having stove pipe trouble, but Chick made him happy. I received a shipment of pony saddles and bridles—I have one plain and die for $27.00 and a very beautiful saddle with bridle and martingales, all decorated with chrome spots, for $49.50, complete; also some beautiful two-gun holster sets, dog leashes, collars and harness.

Stanley Robinson came over and bought a Dayton Water System—when I have Dayton's. I can't sell any other kind, and they are sure hard to get. Chick just put in a scoop shovel handle for Melvin Platt. I called Bolce Paint Co. for some point I was out of and in about an hour Mr. Bolce himself drove in with the paint in his car. That is the kind of service the Bolce Paint Co. gives you—just like the good paint they sell—every can must be right or give the customer a new one, and they live up to that motto.

Stanley Bush was in several times today after pipe fittings—he is putting in a bath room for John Guth, down on High School Court. Had a few letters today—D. K. Johnson, J. C. Benton and Howard Stephenson. The weather is a little too warm yet for many. James Tolminson, over on Nicholson Highway, who is building a new home and a real fine dairy barn, bought a lot of galvanized pipe and fittings to pipe water to this fine dairy barn from a big lake. Geo. and Wm. Ruth came down after more of that Bolce paint—they say that Bolce Interior Gloss is the finest paint they ever used.

Fred Jones was here for more pipe and fittings—Fred is putting in a bathroom, when he isn't farming. We had several lookers for oil heaters Saturday, but the weather was too warm—they know we have the best two oil heaters made—Perfection and Siegler—both with all porcelain cabinets and blowers built in—the prices are right. We also sold a lot of field fence—it is very scarce. Pat Madden came up after several feet of 1½ inch galvanized pipe—this is another item that is hard to get. Bicycles, wagons and tricycles are getting higher and very scarce. We also have several Sunbeam toasters and mixers at the old price, and two Sunbeam Shavemasters at the old price.

I went over to Verona, Sunday afternoon to the dedication of the New Bethel Baptist Church—I believe it is the nicest building I have seen put up for the amount of money, especially at today's prices. Someone sure did a fine job of management; also had some good mechanics doing the work—it is a very nice church and is nearly paid for—if you have not invested a little in this building, I don't know a better place to make an investment. Tuesday was the hottest day ever recorded for October 31—the thermometer in front of the store was 86 degrees. We just unloaded two of those rubber tired farm wagons—get yours at the old price, while you can. The Eclipse Lawn Mower man was here today—I ordered for next year 25 lawn mowers, but don't think I will get them—he said all power mowers will be $15 higher, and all hand mowers from $4.00 to $8.00 higher. We have some mowers now at this year's prices, if you want to save some money.

I received today something I have been wanting to stock for a long time, and that is a shoe shine kit made by Equire. I have a small one for $1.50 and the large one for $4.95. This is one item everyone in Walton vicinity needs, because you can't get a shoe shine in Walton. I sold Andrew Irwin an electric iron—he came in for an electric iron and I asked him what kind, as I had seven kinds, and he said, the best—so Sunbeam it was—they are so easy to sell and so reliable.

Ed Hamilton, wife and daughter were in today—Ed had sure tightened up, couldn't sell him a thing, but his wife always buys something. Mrs. Chas. Rector bought a cool hood, mouse traps and several other small items. That Webster is selling television sets faster than he can get them. I can't keep in ¼ inch pipe to put up the eavestroughs. If you are going to buy a television, that is the place to buy it, because I see people from Dry Ridge, Williamstown and Independence bring them over to him to repair.

Clements-Spence Tuesday Winners

Clements to Now Fill Seventh Public Office As U. S. Senator

Gov. Earle C. Clements and Rep. Brent Spence were successful Tuesday in defeating their Republican opponents, Charles I. Dawson and Thomas Hardesty, by comfortable margins.

The count in 3360 of the state's 4115 precincts was: Clements 289, 138, Dawson 222,543. The Clements margin is expected to reach 65,000.

For Clements, membership in the U. S. Senate will enable him to set what is believed to be a new state record. When he goes to Washington he will be holding his seventh different public office. The list includes county judge, county clerk, county treasurer, state senator, congressman, governor, and senator.

Kentucky will send a Democratic delegation to Congress, along with Mr. Clements.

Four Democratic congressmen were elected with opposition, and two, perhaps three, others defeated their Republican opponents.

In the Fifth District, incumbent Brent Spence, Democrat, defeated Republican Thomas Hardesty.

Baptist WMS to Meet

The Women's Missionary Society will meet at the Walton Baptist Church, Thursday, November 16 at 11:00 a. m., for the regular monthly meeting.

Hostesses are Mrs. Margaret Wilson, Mrs. Wilma Winburn and Mrs. Abernathy. Bring a covered dish.

November is the month for bringing canned fruit and vegetables for the two children's homes.

Real Estate Transaction

Conner-Lusby report the sale of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Welsh's home on Welsh Avenue to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Horn.

Light Draft Expected In December; Ten Taken Nov. 8th

According to information from the Selective Service Board for Boone, Gallatin and Owen counties, draft calls are expected to be light during December, but heavy in January.

Twenty-four men from the tri-county area left November 1 for Army physical examinations, of which ten were from Boone county.

Ten more men reported November 8, for examinations.

Those in the first call were: Harold Davis, R. O. Williams, Jr., John Willholte, Clifford Scott, Cash Baker, James Martin, Charles Aylor, Jesse Sams, Paul Chapman, Robert Rose, George Hill, Ralph Bond, Nathan Davis, Melvin Payne, James Marshall, Edward Bowne, Marvin Coyle, Robert Winkle, Herbert Cross, Geo. Altha, Stanley Houston, John Riley, Michael Poole and Allen Sampson.

In the November 8 call were: Harry Dewes, Ernest Smith, Paul Fryer, Arthur Wright, Charles Hayes, Herschel Beckman, Earl Hicks, Thomas Webster, Willie Barber and William Roe.

A-N Homemakers Meet

The November meeting of Atwood-Nicholson Homemakers was held at the home of Mrs. Reuben Hinesdale with Mrs. Leslie Wagner, co-hostess.

The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. John Cain. Mrs. John Butler opened the devotional with the reading of the Scripture, Joel 2nd chapter, 13th verse. She also gave the thought for the month, "Beauty." The collect was read in unison. Roll call was answered with, "What Thanksgiving means to me."

Glenwood Crech of Lincoln county has completed a new milk cooling room and a 20,000-gallon cistern.

Win Barn Dance Contest

The entucky Mountain Barn Dance Contest, held at the Clay-Centry Arena, Lexington, was won by Boone countians. The contest was broadcast over 18 southern radio stations, and was held on Saturday evening, November 4.

The Boone County set was composed of Clarence Fields, Burlington; Katherine Penick, Florence; Ralph Fields, Burlington; Herbert Scutter, Burlington; Wanda Caldwell, Walton; Lamar Markberry, Burlington, and Wilma Baker, Walton.

Sunday School Retains Cup

The Baptist Sunday school of Boone County met last Monday night at the Bullittsburg Baptist Church for the monthly meeting.

The Walton school had thirty-eight percent present and was able to bring the cup back. The local church has held the cup for the past five months.

The next meeting will be held at the Big Bone Baptist Church.

Wins the Turkey

Mrs. Mary Worthington won the turkey given away by el C. Wayman and Sons at the opening of their Walton office, last Wednesday. Cecil Wayman, who had charge of the opening day festivities, wishes to thank everyone for the fine cooperation, and invites you to visit the office, next door to Dr. Maddov, any day except Thursday.

Basketball Opener Won by Pioneers Tuesday Evening

The Simon Kenton Pioneers opened their basketball season Tuesday night with a win over Morgan, 50 to 37. The starting lineup for the winners was, Coppage, who bagged 17 points, Hughes, Hardgrove, second in scoring with 10 tallies, Human and Berryman.

The first quarter started off slowly, with Morgan coming out on top 7-6, but in the second stanza, Coppage and mates started hitting, and at the half were in front 25-17. From then on the game was never in doubt, with the Raiders making a spurt in the third quarter, but never getting too close. The second team also won for Simon Kenton, 56-43.

Walton will visit the Independence gym Friday night, with the Kenton Countians rated as favorites to take the Bearcats into camp, but with the keen rivalry between the two schools it probably will be a pretty good game.

Baseball Game Set for Sunday

Due to the cold and rainy weather, the Bob & Gene-Grants Lick baseball game was called off last Sunday. The contest has been rescheduled for Sunday, November 12 at the Florence park, 2:30 p. m.

Kenton Homemakers Hold Annual Meeting Nov. 2nd

An International atmosphere prevailed at the 19th annual meeting of the Kenton County Homemakers, held last Thursday at Summit Hills Golf Club, with 365 members and guests attending.

Flags of many lands were used as the stage setting for the program, the theme being, "The Homemakers' World is Wide." Mrs. W. E. Nichols of Lexington, vice chairman of the Country Women's Council, U. S. A., gave a pictorial report of the Associated Country Women of the World meeting held in Copenhagen, Denmark, recently, which she attended as the official delegate from the U. S. She stated that everywhere women are looking to the United States and to the United Nations for peace.

Miss Lullie Logan, assistant state leader of home demonstration agents, who also attended the International meeting, told of her tour through Denmark.

MRS. DAISY PARKER

Mrs. Daisy King Parker, Walton, died Monday at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington. A former resident of Williamstown, and a member of the Williamstown Baptist Church, she was 70 years old.

Surviving her are a son, Ralph Parker of Washington, D. C.; three sisters, Mrs. John Abernathy of Walton, Mrs. Georgia Bradford and Mrs. Albert Bradford, both of Brooksville, Ky.; a nephew, Prentice Abernathy of the Panama Canal Zone, and three grandchildren.

Black, Edith Black, Bub Trapp, Charlie Dickerson, Judy Dickerson, Joe (Dumpy) Huff, Harvey Readnour, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sparks and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sparks and family.

The day was enjoyed by all, and hope it will not be 23 years again before all are together again.

Renfro Valley Stars To Appear at Verona School, November 16

The famous Renfro Valley show will be given at the Verona school building on Thursday, November 16. There will be two big shows, the first starting at 7:00 p. m., and the second at 9:00 p. m. By having two performances in the same evening, everyone will be assured a good seat where they can sit back and watch and listen to some of Kentucky's best old time musicians, dancers, singers and comedians.

This will give old time music lovers a chance to see Slim Miller, a "fiddlin' comedian," Grady Harper, who is even better on the stage than on the radio, not to mention the Con Creek Girls, who have been quite popular everywhere they go. In fact, every member of the cast is a top-notch performer and everyone attending this show will be certain of a good evening's entertainment.

The Renfro Valley stars are not strangers to many people in this section of the country, as many go from here on Saturday nights, all the way to Renfro Valley to see their show.

The Verona Community Club, together with the help of merchants and business men in Verona and Walton, are glad to offer this type of community recreation and fun. A large crowd is expected for both of the shows, and refreshments will be served in the school lunch room, in the basement.

Whatever profit is made from this show will be used to construct a metal roof on the grand stand at the Community Club's ball park.

Those attending were: Mrs. John Hamilton, Mrs. James Reed, Mrs. C. Armstrong, Mrs. Chas. Dorsey, Mrs. W. E. Maners, Mrs. Frank Cox, Mrs. Thos. Cain, Mrs. C. S. Snelson, Mrs. Geo. Riley, Mrs. R. Dickson, Mrs. Lee Houston, Mrs. W. M. Guffridge, Mrs. Josephine Thomas, Mrs. Al BHymer, and the visitors.

Mad Dog Bites Several People

This week a dog belonging to Dan Roberts bit several persons, and was killed and the head sent to the University of Kentucky Laboratory, Lexington, and a definite report of rabies was reported back. This dog was one of several that were bitten about two weeks ago by a dog that ran rampant over town. At the time a dog quarantine was set for 30 days by the Town Council and Police Chief Simmons. Several dogs were killed on the streets.

Chief Simmons issues a warning to everyone that all dogs caught running loose will be shot on sight, and then questions asked—this is final. This thing cannot be let go on. Veterinarian T. P. Strittmatter warns that if your dog has been exposed, he should be given shots, but adds that this will not protect him until after ten days, and so warns that if your dog has any signs at all, put him up where he will not have any contact with anyone.

The people who were bitten are being given shots over a 14-day period. Dr. J. M. Huey asks that everyone who has been exposed to contact him, or some other physician, at once!

Bakery Sale Saturday

The D. of A. Council of Walton is to hold a bakery sale Saturday, November 11, beginning at 10:00 a. m., in Roberts Grocery, Walton. You are invited to attend.

Baptist Hold Sunday School Meeting at Bullittsburg, Mon.

The Boone County Baptist Sunday Schools, Group II, met for its first meeting of the new year at the Bullittsburg Baptist Church Monday night, with Rev. R. A. Johnson, moderator, in charge. Seven churches were represented, with 116 present.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: Secretary, Bryan Hector; Treasurer, Robert L. Christy; song leader, Bruce Campbell, and pianist, Mrs. Bryan Hector. In the business session a system of grading each Sunday school on the basis of points was adopted, and an "efficiency banner" will be awarded to the Sunday school having the most points each month. The cup will also be awarded to the church having the largest number present. Walton Baptist Sunday School received the cup for this month, having the largest number present.

The devotional, was brought by Rev. E. Lionel Patton of Bullittsburg, and Rev. Harry Lee Walcott presented a very inspiring message on "The Use of the Bible in the Sunday School."

The next meeting will be held on Monday, December 11, at 7:45 p. m., at the Big Bone Baptist Church.

Ask For Hearing To Be Held In Court House at Burlington, Kentucky

The Consolidated Telephone Co., which operates the service in Boone County, was named defendant in a petition filed before the Public Service Commission of Kentucky, which aims not only to rescind the rate increase imposed last September 1, but to force a 10 per cent "across-the-board" decrease until improvements in the service are made.

This new action includes an invitation to the commission to send representatives to the area to make a test of the type of service now given subscribers, which has been the subject of many and bitter complaints over the past several years.

In three points of relief sought in the petition, the commission is asked to set the first order of preference to set a time for hearing the complaint in the Court House at Burlington. The hearing at Burlington is asked so that many subscribers could attend, who would not make the trip to Frankfort.

The petition was filed on behalf of Boone county through Judge C. L. Cropper, county judge; City of Walton, through R. M. Hall, mayor; City of Florence, through Clifford Coyle, chairman of the Board of Trustees, and 501 individual and corporate residents of the county, whose names are appended to the petition.

John L. Vest, of the law firm of Vest & Vest, Walton, filed the petition for the protestants, whose fight for better service has been led by a committee headed by Frank Milburn, and including Judge Cropper, A. A. Renaker, Wilford Scott and J. C. Acre.

Royal Ambassador Week

This week throughout the South-Baptist Convention is known as "Royal Ambassador Week," and will be observed in the local Baptist Church.

Friday night, there will be a Piner and Son banquet at 6:30. The banquet will be prepared and served by the Women's Missionary Society. At 7:30, there will be a color sound picture, "Shining Mountains." This picture is being furnished by the Canadian Pacific Railroad. The public is invited to see this interesting film at 7:30 p. m.

Sunday morning, Rev. B. C. Garrett's subject will be, "Can America Be Saved?"

The Baptist church extends a cordial invitation to all to attend all of the services.

Woman's Society Meets
The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Florence Methodist Church held its regular meeting at the church November 1 with Mrs. Paul Chaney, president, presiding.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Mrs. C. N. Ogg, followed by reports and business discussion. Mrs. A. T. Knox conducted the devotional period, preceded by the song, "America, the Beautiful," and closed with prayer by Mrs. Knox.

Mitchell J. Owens, County Health

Representative, of Louisville, was the speaker for the afternoon, his topic being, "Health in a Rural Community." His talk was both interesting and instructive. The session was dismissed with prayer by Rev. Ogg.

Attending were Mesdames, Paul Chaney, William Mitchell, Geo. Miller, A. T. Knox, Betty McCormick, C. N. Ogg, C. A. McKibben, Ruby Carpenter, W. R. Miller, W. L. Oliver, Helen Bethel, C. S. West, Lella Allen, Harry Daugherty. Guests were Mrs. Roy Lutes, Mrs. Harold Conner, Mr. Owens and Rev. Ogg.

Approximately 2,000 acres of rye grass were seeded in standing corn in Esall county for winter pasture and cover crops.

Twelve new tobacco barns with sidewall ventilation were built in Clinton county during the summer.

Between 3,000 and 4,000 acres in Henderson county were sprayed with a combination of 2, 4-D and 2, 4-5T for wild cucumber control.

Dr. Ellis A. Fuller

Services were held last Thursday afternoon for Dr. Ellis A. Fuller, President of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, who died October 28 in San Diego, Calif. Dr. Fuller, 59, suffered a heart attack, collapsing when speaking in a San Diego church. He died after being taken to a hospital. The body arrived by train in Louisville, Nov. 1, and services were held in the Seminary's Alumni Memorial Chapel.

Simon Kenton DAR

Mrs. Louis Gabriel of Morning View told of her work as Junior American Citizens chairman for the Simon Kenton Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, at the luncheon meeting yesterday in the Arthur, Covington. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. John Martin, Regent. Five members of the chapter accepted an invitation of the Indian Hill Chapter, Hamilton County, Ohio, for the program given by the chapter Tuesday afternoon in the Cincinnati YWCA. In the group were Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Gabriel, Miss Kay Boyce, Mrs. Robert McMullen, and Mrs. Nellie Ruppel.

Kenton Police Busy

Kenton County police patrolled 12,513 miles and investigated 221 calls, 51 automobile accidents, and 67 trouble calls in October, the monthly report of Chief Carl Mershon, said yesterday. The report was received by Kenton County Fiscal Court session yesterday. The report included 13 investigations of housebreaking and nine subsequent arrests.

Water Meeting

Last Friday night, several citizens of the Town of Independence, with the Board of Trustees of the Town to discuss the possibility of installing a water system for the Town of Independence. It was reported that there was not much opposition and that many committees were appointed to make ready for another meeting, scheduled for Tuesday night, November 21. In the meantime some committees will be contacting the residents of Independence, getting signatures for the proposed system.

Mrs. Lottie Landrum

Mrs. Lottie Lawson Landrum lived most of her life in Covington, but died November 3 at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Harry Dunhoft, in Elsmere.

Besides Mrs. Dunhoft, she is survived by two other daughters, Mrs. Emanuel Swing of Covington, and Mrs. Herbert Sobolewski of Bridgeport, Ohio; a son, Sam Landrum of Covington, a patrolman; three sisters, Mrs. Minnie Workman and Miss Fannie Lawson, both of Independence, and Mrs. Lucy Lawson of Palmouth; two brothers, Amos Lawson of Covington; 11 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren. Mrs. Landrum was 83 years old and a member of First Christian Church, Covington; the Loyal Women's Class of the church, and Daughters of America, Gem Council 65, Covington.

Services were held last Monday at the Allison and Rose funeral home, with burial at Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Erlanger.

Local Hardware Broken Into

Last Thursday night the hardware store owned by Charles Rothman, was broken into through the rear with an axe, which was left by the culprit. All the shotguns and rifles were stolen, with some boxes of 22 calibre rifle shells and several boxes of shotgun shells, some of which were found strewn up the side walk. Some alarm clocks and shears were also missing. The community hopes that the thieves may be apprehended.

Five Sign Petition, Then Violate It

The Bridgeport (Conn.) Post said: "Sixty-three residents of Rowland Road area, in Fairfield, presented a petition to the Police Department demanding that 'reckless speeding' in that area be curbed. So a drive was launched to curb the speeders. A few nights later the alert blue-coats stopped five drivers for reckless speeding and for passing stop signs, Chief James Kraynik reported. And guess what? The names of all five drivers appeared on the petition!"

They could see the evil of reckless speeding in others, but failed to detect it in themselves. Others were violators of the speed law, but they didn't think they were.

How like a host of people today, who can call others "sinners," but at the same time refuse to admit that they themselves are sinners also! No wonder the Apostle Paul said: "Therefore thou are inexcusable, O man, who soever thou art that judgest; for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things."—Romans 2:1. How true the Word which says: "All have sinned!"—Romans 3:23, and because it is true, we all need the same Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ.

"Through this man is preached unto you, the forgiveness of sins; and by Him all that believe are justified from all things..."—Acts 13:38-39. Do you believe?

Earline Lieberman

Miss Earline Ann Lieberman, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lieberman, of Lipscomb Road, Latonia Lakes, died November 1 at Good Samaritan Hospital, Cincinnati.

Besides her parents, she is survived by two sisters, Carol Lieberman and Mrs. Dorothy Jameson, both at home.

Services were held last Saturday at 2:00 p. m. at the Oak Ridge Baptist Church. Burial was in the Independence Cemetery, with Swindler funeral home in charge.

Kenton County Navy Mothers

Mrs. John Estep, membership chairman for the Kenton County Navy Mothers Club 509, has announced that membership in the club is open to anyone having men in their family serving with the Navy. The last meeting was held at the Navy Training Center, Third and Philadelphia Streets, last Monday at 8 p. m.

Grandmother

Mrs. E. N. Gadd of Independence, is grandmother for the first time. Her daughter, Mrs. Edna Gadd of Hamilton, Ohio, is the proud mother of a 6-lb., 3½-oz. son, born on November 3.

Sunday School Contest Growing In Interest at Indep. Baptist Church

Last Sunday the attendance was up to 204, from 147 when it began October 22. The following classes were fortunate enough to have the largest attendance in their respective departments and had their pictures taken, while in session: Adult Young Married Class, with Eli Russell teaching; Young Men's Class, with William Collins substituting for E. R. Cooper; Intermediate Boys, with Frank Cox substituting; Junior Boys, with Mrs. Mary Collins teaching; Primary Class, with Miss Allene Miller teaching; and the Beginners Class, with Mrs. Betty Reed and Mrs. Tom Elam teaching.

More "brought one" pins were issued to those bringing new ones to Sunday school. Everyone is urged to "bring one." Members of family not in Sunday school are prospects, as well as church members, neighbors and friends.

Calling on Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hanna, Sunday were Mrs. Inez Chowning and friend, Mr. Schrouder, of Covington.

Mrs. Iona Cavanaugh is visiting relatives in Detroit, Mich.

Athel Vastine is quite ill at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Howard Hoffman, who has been a shut-in for the past several weeks, with rheumatic fever, is now continuing his school work under the tutelage of Mrs. Walters.

We hope all of our sick improve soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Damon visited Mr. and Mrs. Karl Rice, Sunday.

Mrs. Ida Hoffman and Mrs. Hand had as callers Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Pruett, Mrs. J. A. Keeney and Mrs. Hand's daughter and grandson.

Quite a number of the women of our community attended the home-makers annual meeting Thursday at Summit Hills Country Club. It was one of the best we have ever had. Mr. Earnest DeCoursey spoke very effectively of the work and needs of the Opportunity School, making us all feel a very personal interest in its progress. We were proud to have 12 women from our club among the 117 who received orchids because of perfect attendance. Mrs. W. E. Nichols, recent delegate to the A. C. W. W. at Copenhagen, Denmark, made us feel like we had been with her on her wonderful trip.

Frank Hoffman and nephew from Newport, called on friends and relatives here one day the past week.

A turkey dinner will be served in the dining room of our church here on Nov. 18. We plan to give you a good meal and you can meet old friends and make new ones. Come one and all.

SPARTA R. 2

Local Gas Company is "Dream" Come True Thru Hard Work

One of the largest concerns in Walton today, DeMoisey Gas Company, was born about ten years ago in the mind of a dreamer, and from that day until the present time that dream has never varied from its course, even when realization seemed impossible. It is standing proof of the value of vision and imagination, backed up by the zeal and "guts" to make that dream come true.

Back before World War II, Frank DeMoisey struck on the idea of serving rural areas with bottle gas. At first it was only for cooking and water heating purposes, and he made contacts with some distributors of tank gas and started with his few customers, and shortly after the "dream" of a plant of his own came into being and from that day forward he gradually accumulated details of the plant and equipment that he would want.

Of course in the meantime the "dreamer" had to live and provide for his growing family, and in order to do this, he ran an electric appliance shop, Hnoleum laying, electrical wiring, jewelry shop, radio service, and many other things, but all the while never diverting from the main objective—a bottle gas plant of his own.

After the war was over and materials became available, Frank gradually used all extra money that he could spare to buy parts and pieces which would be needed later in this "dream" plant, and stored them away. This procedure continued for several years, draining all resources and in some cases even to the hunting point. In 1947 a major step was taken when he acquired a new tank truck at a cost of about $6,000, which immediately increased his business—as he had planned—and made it possible to pay for it out of the increased revenue. During this time DeMoisey was constantly devising means whereby more people could become acquainted with propane gas, and one of the methods was cooking schools, which he conducted himself, doing the cooking and all—plain and simple demonstration.

Frank DeMoisey

Frank DeMoisey, owner of the gas company bearing his name, is the son of a famous local couple, Rev. and Mrs. R. F. DeMoisey. He was born and reared in Walton, graduated from Walton High School. He married Juanita Struve in 1931 and they now have five children: Carole, Paul, Lexie, Charlie Lou, and Jennings B. Frank played basketball, as did his brothers, and was on one of Walton's famous teams of the past. One of Frank's most recent good deeds was the giving of a Hammond electric organ to the Walton Baptist Church, in honor of his mother and father.

J. B. Johnson, a son of W. B. Johnson, and who also conducts his own insurance agency, started with the DeMoisey Gas Co. in 1945, after a war-years spent at the Wright plant in Cincinnati. J. B. has contributed more to the growth of the company than any other employee, serving as office manager, personnel director and purchasing agent. He is the right-hand man of Frank's. Johnson has one son, Tommy, who is now attending Indiana University, Bloomington.

Johnny Locke

Johnny Locke has been with the company since '47 and his duties are chiefly tank installation and maintenance, is single and attended school at Verona and Walton. Johnny served 18 months in the US Navy during the past war.

Kenneth Locke

Kenneth Locke came to the company about the time the new tank truck was acquired, and has been almost entirely occupied since with its operation and maintenance. He married Freda Fortner, a graduate of Walton in '41. He spent 34 years in the Air Force in England, France and Germany during World War II.

All along more parts were added to the stock pile for the plant. Then came the final phase of the "dream," when, with the aid of local financial help, backed up by a large loan from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, the plant was begun. No one will ever realize the hard work and the pressure exerted in the next few months by DeMoisey and his aides, because after years of planning, and then to see it coming true, right in front of your eyes, would drive a man on to unheard-of efforts.

On May 24, 1948, the DeMoisey Gas Company had its official opening, with thousands of people attending. The admiring crowd looked over the modern plant and hundreds of appliances, and many received free gifts. Little did they realize that, that great, big tank which would hold 33,000 gallons of gas was completely empty, and that the hundreds of appliances on the floor were not paid for—but one thing was certain and that was that DeMoisey had what he wanted and the matter of filling the tank with gas and pay-

Joe Stephenson

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stephenson.

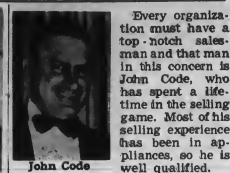

Wm. D. Locke

William Locke, employed since '46 and considered as the best propane maintenance expert in Kentucky. He answers many calls all over the state for help in difficult problems. He is married and recently built a new home on Alta Vista Drive, Walton.

Henry Harp

The most recent employee is Henry Harp, who had been employed in Cincinnati. He was in the Army for 26 months, serving 14 months in France and Germany. He is married and has six children. His job is installation and apprentice work in all departments.

John Code

Every organization must have a top-notch salesman and that man in this concern is John Code, who has spent a lifetime in the selling game. Most of his selling experience has been in appliances, so he is well qualified.

VERONA

The dedication of the new church was well attended by former members and friends of the church.

Bill Stewart of Mississippi, is spending a few weeks with his son, Bennett, and other friends in this community.

Mrs. Lizzie Noel spent Sunday in the W. E. Waller home. Friends of Mrs. Sturdivant are glad to hear that she is still on her way to California. She was going through Texas last week.

Don't forget the business meeting at the New Bethel Church, Saturday night.

Interflowing Life

Lesson for November 12, 1950

AN AUSTRALIAN minister once remarked: "If ever a church could be found whose members treated one another on the outside, the world would flock to its doors." In that exaggerated remark there is a pointed truth, a matter of fact, that was the case in the early church and the world did flock to its doors. From six score people that church grew to 5,000 in no time, and in less than three centuries it was the religion of a world-empire.

ON THE "outside" what is the rule? David Harum put it in a nutshell: "Do unto your neighbor what he would like to do to you." "Every man for himself and the devil take the hindmost." "Every man has his price." "Look out for Number 1." "Blessed is he that tooteth his own horn, for he that tooteth his own horn, the same shall not be tooteth."

People get tired of living in a world like that. Something tells them that the everlasting scramble is not the way to live, there must be a better way. Suppose they could look down the street and see that better way actually being put into practice by a little community of people?

They ought to be able to see it wherever there is a Christian church. But—is the average church that kind of community? Do the members treat one another (on Mondays, that is) with more understanding, consideration and affection than the local atheists or Non-Ingarians show toward one another? Indeed, is there anything whatever that seems to link these First What-is Church people together with a common bond?

What they ought to have is fellowship. This is not a mere word. It can be a real thing. It is like a two-way blood transfusion, in the realm of personality. It is interflow of life. It can be the source of the Christian's finest growth and service. Musicians develop musically through sharing with other musicians. Every "Future Farmer of America" is going to be a better and more enthusiastic farmer through his associations with the F.F.A.

So our Christian faith and life are kept glowing and growing through the fellowship of like-minded persons. One thing your Sunday school class, and indeed the whole congregation, may well consider seriously, even adopting it as your Project for the Year is this: What can we do to make fellowship more real in our church?

Wider Horizons
CHRISTIAN fellowship needs not only to be enriched; it needs to be enlarged. In a town or section where denominational lines run sharply across the population, there is too much cross-fire. Such a community has a hard time being a community. Many a denomination has been afflicted with the disease of pride. Loyalty to one's own denomination too easily replaces loyalty to the kingdom of God.

Whatever be your own church connection, there are unnumbered true Christians outside the bounds of your church. Do you know them? Do you worship with them from time to time? Do you encourage visitors from other churches? Not only in other denominations but across lines of race and color you can find a thrill in coming close to Christians who may even be much better Christians than yourself.

Young people in your church may be interested in a new organization which is interested in bringing together the thinking of young people in every land. Young Christians can bring to such a project the insight and the spirit of Christian Faith, and learn to know young Christians in other lands than ours. "Youth of All Nations" at 18 St. Luke's Place, New York 14, N. Y. serves as a clearing-house for the exchange of letters and will be glad to hear from you.

WORLD BEATER

Every Dad thinks his son is going to be a "world-beater." He's not counting on his youngster to floor the Champ for a count of ten, but he dreams of the day his boy will triumph over every obstacle to happiness and success.

"World-beater" is a pretty descriptive name for what Dad envisions. The world is full of forces that destroy the best in a man. To make your life count for anything these days you have to vanquish those forces.

It takes courage and stamina to win the struggle... a very special kind of courage that is more spiritual than physical... a very special kind of stamina that is more moral than muscular.

Sunday morning is a good time to begin. Weekly training in the Church can help father and son to gain the courage and stamina that will win every bout in life.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should join the Church. They are: (1) For his own soul. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. (4) To go to Bible study.

CONRAD HARDWARE ELECTION WEEK

All I have heard on the radio and television this week was political speeches. Now you know those politicians can't do all the things they promise, and sure enough their opponent couldn't be as bad as they said they were. Even our own Governor was accused of graft and lots of other things a man of his ability couldn't have done, but they said all in love, war and politics, and they must be right. The vote Tuesday was very light—some forgot to vote, some did not care, and some said both sides were too crooked and stayed home.

Harry Mayhugh, Jr. and wife just moved into their new home, which was completed last week. A very nice home, and, if I must say so, there is a lot of Conrad Hardware supplies in this house. —Harry Jr. and Sr. are both very good customers of mine. Nick Welsh and Helen sold their home this week. Nick has also put a lot of hardware from my store in this house. It is very nice. Franklin Breeden and wife, another one of my good customers, sold their home this week.

Newman Armstrong and his grandson, William, came over and wanted clamps made to put a body on a truck—he said we advertised we could do anything, so we made them. Whenever Chick, Red and Brewster can't fix them, we get our man Ed Hankinson, who hardly ever fails. We have some two-horse sleds and one-horse sleds now—they are really made well and only $35.00 and $55.00. Charles West bought the large rubber-tired wheelbarrow we had—just the size for Charlie. Well, Ray set up an Anchor coil heater for Zedach Cline—they decided to try that chimney they have had so much trouble with.

Mary Worthington won that turkey that Rel Wayman gave away at his opening of a new of key and was it a dandy—weighed 12 1/2 pounds, dressed. Joe bought some feed buckets while he was over—he buys something every time he comes over. Saturday was a busy day, everyone wanted stoves, stove pipe, weatherstrip, window fabric, most anything to help keep warm. I don't know if I can remember who bought what, but Luther Blaser bought a top-feed coal stove; Russell Sparks bought a large Oak coal and wood heater; P. R. Connolly bought an Anchor coil heater; Orville Tackett bought an oil heater.

Tommy Bowen bought an electric water pump; Don Murry bought the last Deyton pump I had, but I called in for more—I hope to get them. We sold wood heaters like hot-dogs at that picnic; also had a lot of loafers, but didn't have time to hear any of the jokes. Bill Scroggin and Nathan Brewster were in for a few minutes. Gordon Phillips got started on a fish story, but I didn't hear him finish it. John L. Vest brought in a Sunbeam iron for repair, while he was in I showed him that Esquire shoe shine kit—he agreed it was a good buy, then I showed him the wind, mine, comprehensive Liability and Blue Cross. I am cooperating with Florence Drive-In Theatre on the $800.00 of free prizes. Tickets given free on all business from now until Oct. 13. See me at once for all your insurance needs. John E. to put on his windows to keep the cold out—this sure saves fuel. We sometimes wonder why houses burn, well, Mrs. Ed. told me a true story how she had a pair of cotton gloves which she used to fill kerosene can and other jobs around the house—they were a little oily and she kept them laying on the porch floor by the kerosene can—the oil got on the old mirror on the porch, leaning it back against the wall—the sun reflected in this mirror setting the gloves on fire and burned in the porch before she found it—and would have burned the house if she had been away.

Do you have your name on your mail box? We make up some every day or so—only costs you a dollar per name. Geo. Menke bought one of those rubber-tired wagons—they sure sell for $125.00—very cheap for this wagon. Arthur Brewster and wife picked out some of Armstrong's best linoleum—we have some very nice patterns in the roll, also most oil-lane rugs. Henry Doll came after a rubber-tired wheelbarrow—these are very handy around the dairy barn—they push so easy. Leslie Williams bought a sausage mill with a 12" pulley to use with electric motor—will save all that turning and be much faster.

Mrs. Anna McCabe bought a metal farm gate—they are the cheapest gate you can buy. Andrew Coyle and wife came over looking for an oil heater—they bought a Quick Heat, which was a bargain. O. A. Lush brought his washer down for repair—we fixed it and the cost to him was less than $10.00, so he was satisfied and we were too. I cut Mrs. Walter Johnson off a beautiful piece of Armstrong flowered design linoleum to put under her heating stove, which saves her rug during the winter.

Mary K. Stephens, who is back at her old job, operating Stephens Restaurant, had Ray come up and measure her upstairs windows for new shades—the picked white plastic because they clean well and last longer. He cut them to size and hung them for her. We do a lot of these jobs. Mrs. Geo. Knox needed a bolt put in her washer, which didn't take long, but had to have the tools to do it with, and we have them. Groger Express, local trucking company, who is very reliable and accommodating, just hauled in a shipment of galvanized pipe and fittings. If you need anything, just put a note in their box here beside my store, and they will get it, if possible.

I don't know where all the stove pipe goes—we have sold 1,000 joints and the winter hasn't started yet. Furnace pipe and wood heaters are sure selling; also those draft controls for stove pipe on oil heaters and magazine coil heaters. Just unloaded a shipment of new patterns in Armstrong 12x12 and 12x15 rugs. Every day we sell a lot of that Boice paint, inside, outside, enamel, aluminum, wagon, floor and roof coating—all kinds of paint—it must be good paint or they would try some other brand. Raymond Baker bought his children a very nice pony saddle and bridle—both real and sure—they got home from school. Well, CONRAD is still trying to serve you the best he and his helpers can give us a call!

St. Henry and Simon Kenton Beat Bearcats

Walton's Reserve Team Wins from Simon Kenton And St. Henry Reservists

The Walton-Vernon High School Bearcats opened the 1950-51 basketball season last Friday night at Simon Kenton High by dropping a 50-39 decision to the veteran Pioneer cagers, and on Monday evening of this week, at Erlanger, went down before St. Henry's Crusaders 61-43.

In the opener with the Pioneers, the winners jumped into a 19-10 advantage in the first quarter, and thereafter held their edge. At the half S. H. was leading 32-25, and at the third period, 38-29.

Erlwin was top scorer for the Kenton Countians with 18 points, and Coppage ran a close second with 16 markers. High man for the 'Cats was Don Rice, who bagged 14 points.

In the curtain-raiser, the Walton-Vernon Kittens edged the Pioneer second-stringers 52-31 in a game that was close throughout. Campbell rung up 13 points for the victors. In the St. Henry fray, the winners again took an early lead and were never headed. Quarter scores were: First, 12-8; St. Henry; second, 31-18; third, 47-27, and fourth, 61-43.

Canhill was high point man for the Crusaders with 19 markers, followed closely by Geles, who registered 19 points. Drahan was third with 12. For W.-V., Billy Smith, freshman center, was top man with 12 markers. Meadows and Rice had 8 points each.

The local reserves won their second encounter in the opening game, by taking an over-time tilt to the tune of 32-30. The count was tied at 28-28 as the regulation game ended.

Wa-Na Woman's Club Visits Museum Of Art In Cincinnati

The Wa-Na Woman's Club held a business meeting at the Phoenix Restaurant, with the president, Mrs. Fred Hamilton, presiding. Plans were made for a trip to the Art Museum for their regular November meeting. Mrs. Lloyd Yates and Mrs. James Spencer were appointed as a committee for the Christmas gift exchange. Mrs. T. P. Strittmatter will be the hostess for the December meeting. Members present were: Mrs. Clifford Pruett, Mrs. J. B. Johnson, Mrs. Charles Hayes, Mrs. Albert Hunt, Mrs. Charles Hayes, Mrs. George Houston, Mrs. Clayton Jones, Mrs. Jack Snape and Mrs. Fred Hamilton.

Take Trip to Art Museum

Members and guests of the Wa-Na Club visited the Cincinnati Art Museum for a study of art for their regular November meeting. Members and guests enjoying the various fields of art and sculpturing were: Mrs. D. Hess CVest, Mrs. J. O. Ward, Mrs. Andrew Jarman, Mrs. Fred Hamilton, Mrs. Albert Hunt, Mrs. Leo Flynn, Mrs. Charles Hayes, Mrs. George Houston, Mrs. J. B. Johnson, Mrs. C. B. Jones and Mrs. James Spencer.

Names Omitted Last Week

In the story last week concerning the telephone petition, there were three names erroneously omitted from the committee, and they were: Powers Conrad, Walton; Walter King of Verona, and Linton Hempling of Hebron. These men are regular members of the committee striving for better telephone service in Boone County.

Young Adult BTU to Meet

The Young Adult B. T. U. of the Walton Baptist Church will hold their regular monthly meeting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Chance on Friday evening, Nov. 17 at 7:30 p. m. This will be a covered dish supper. Members are urged to attend and visitors are welcome.

Missionary to Speak and Show Pictures in Walton

Ray Smalley, a Missionary to Africa, will report the work the Methodist churches are doing in that dark continent at the Walton Methodist Church, Saturday and Sunday, November 18-19.

Saturday evening at 7:30, he will illustrate his work with moving pictures. He will also speak Sunday morning at 11:00. Mr. Smalley is a lay worker and preacher of the Methodist church. He is a splendid speaker with a unique message. You are invited to hear him.

Stage Set For Renfro Valley Barn Dance Show at Verona

The stage is all set at the Verona school building for the Renfro Valley Barn Dance Show, which will get under way at 7:00 p. m. tonight (Nov. 16). There will be a second show at 9:00 p. m., the same evening for those not wishing to make the first show.

Slim Miller, Granny Harper and the rest of the gang will be making their first appearance at Verona, however, they are well known by many local people, who have seen their shows elsewhere or have heard them on the radio.

The Verona Community Club has made extensive preparations for this evening's entertainment and it is their first attempt to bring an expensive show to this small community. Only through the support of civic-minded business men and loyal supporters of the club, is it possible to bring entertainers to Verona who have a National reputation.

The Verona Community Club is a non-profit organization sponsoring a program of recreation and wild life conservation. The youth of both Verona and Walton, in the past few years, have made good use of the club grounds, especially the baseball park.

The profit, if any, from this show will be used to construct a metal roof for the present grandstand. Sandwiches, pie, soft drinks and coffee will be served in the school lunch room in the basement, during and after the show.

Prices for this stellar attraction will be: Adults, $1.00, and children under 16, 50 cents. The doors will open at 6:30 p. m. Come early to avoid the rush, and get a good seat. Only the seating capacity will be allowed for each show and everyone may be assured of a seat.

Several farmers in Boyle county reported their Burley No. 1 turned out to be top-quality tobacco.

Soldier Returns from Korea

Cpl. Carl Simmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Simmons, is home on leave after spending two years overseas serving in Japan and four months in the Korean war zone. He came to the States by plane, after leaving Korea, and arrived on the West coast forty hours later.

Cpl. Simmons has been in the front lines and has seen plenty action. After spending 30 days with his parents, he will return to San Francisco for further orders.

Historical Society to Meet

The Boone County Historical Society met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. Brothers of Limaburg, on Friday, October 21, 1950, with Lucian Bradford, president, presiding. Mrs. Brothers, Mrs. Sadie Tanner and Mrs. Ora Tanner presented a paper on the story of Limaburg, during the past 100 years.

The next meeting of the society will be held in the Florence Town Hall on Friday, November 17 at 8:00 p. m. Mrs. Olga Braun, Historian of the society, will present a paper on the "Beginning of Florence and the Town Meeting House."

Any one interested in the subject is cordially invited to attend.

Vet Representative Coming

F. E. Duval, Field Secretary for the Kentucky Disabled Ex-Servicemen's Board, will be at the City Building in Walton, Wednesday, November 22 from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. He comes here for the purpose of aiding veterans and their dependents in filing and prosecuting claims for benefits to which they are entitled.

Delinquent Taxes Should Be Paid By December 1

At the regular meeting of the Walton City Council, Monday night, a list of citizens, together with amount of delinquent taxes, was handed the Board by the Tax Collector, Edith Stephenson.

The City Marshal has made an effort to contact those people who have not paid their taxes in prior years, and has been successful in collecting from several people who had overlooked this matter.

There is, however, several hundred dollars of delinquent taxes that have not been paid, and the City Council feels that it is unfair to the people who pay their taxes promptly to carry the load of financing the operations of the town, when these are a few who fail to pay their share year after year.

The City Council does not want to embarrass any present or former citizen by advertising the fact that they have not paid their taxes. If not paid by December 1, a list will be published, starting in the issue of the Walton Advertiser dated December 1. After duly advertising for four weeks, the property will be sold on the first Saturday in January, 1951, to satisfy the claim of the City of Walton for delinquent taxes.

Filtration Plant, Sewage System Recommended By Health Dept.

Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Johnson of 10 Verona Road, Walton, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary on Sunday, November 19 by holding open house from 2:00 to 5:00 p. m.

The Johnsons had a unique wedding. The license was issued by a Johnson, they were married by a Johnson, their attendant was a Johnson, and Johnson married Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson have four children, eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Mass Meeting Expected to Be Held in Near Future to Acquaint All With Problem

A sanitary engineer working out of the State Department of Health has made several trips to this community within the past few weeks. It is a known fact that the problem of sewage disposal cannot be delayed much longer. The menace to the health of the citizens of Walton is of such magnitude that some action must be taken to remedy the condition promptly.

The State Department of Health has gone so far as to make plans of a number of septic tank outlets from which open sewage is flowing into the gutters, ditches and open land adjacent to several locations in Walton.

The matter of finding relief from this health menace is one that will require the cooperation of everyone in the community. It appears that a sewage system and disposal plant is the ultimate and only satisfactory answer.

The stumbling block in the way of acquiring and installing such a system is, of course, one of financing such a project. The City Council has been thinking about this problem, but the amount of money needed to finance these projects will materially affect the property owners and users of city water.

The members of the City Council do not feel like assuming the responsibility of making a decision on a matter involving so great an amount of money, until every citizen has had an opportunity to learn the facts.

It is planned that a mass meeting will be held in the near future, at which time some competent advice will be available from a standpoint of engineering and finance, and it is sincerely hoped that every citizen in Walton will make it a point to be present at that meeting.

Further developments, including the date of such a mass meeting, will appear in the columns of this paper.

F. F. A. Officers' Training Day

The Northern Kentucky District Federation of Future Farmers of America held their annual officers' training day at Dry Ridge.

Newly elected officers are: President, William Letcher, Nicholas county; Vice President, Frazer Phillips, Berry county; Secretary, Norman Meier, Kenton county; Treasurer, Arnold Alfred, Campbell county; Reporter, Lindell Williams, Berry county; and Adviser, L. E. Woolum, Adviser of Campbell county.

This officers' training day is in line with different training activities sponsored by the FFA to enable the officers to be leaders in their respective chapters.

Mr. Meier, of Independence, was selected from a possible 23 candidates for the office of District Secretary.

Real Estate Transaction

Conner-Lusby announce the sale of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Neave's property on Percival Road to Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rockhorst of Walton.

F. H. A. District Meeting

The Fall meeting of the Covington District of Future Homemakers of America, will be held at the Dayton High School, Dayton, Ky., Saturday, November 18, 1950. Registration is to begin at 9:30 a. m.

President Willie McMahon of the Highlands High School, will be the presiding officer. The program committee has worked hard for a fine program, which will, no doubt, be enjoyed greatly. There will be playlets, group singing, business session and many other activities. It is expected a large crowd will be present.

Walton Literary Club Hears Guest Speaker From Williamstown

The Walton Woman's Literary Club was delightfully entertained in the home of Mrs. J. R. Conrad on South Main Street, Walton, on Wednesday, November 15.

The President, Mrs. W. D. Scroggin, presided at the business meeting, and asked the members to leave books and good magazines at Hamilton's store to be sent to the sanatorium at Paris, Ky.

Mrs. Julia A. Rouse, a delegate to the District meeting at Falmouth, October 28, gave a report on the meeting and announced that Mrs. Clayton Jones had been elected Vice Governor of the Fifth District.

Mrs. J. E. McCabe gave some interesting highlights of the convention. The president stated that the club would again send Christmas stockings to the Veterans Hospital at Louisville. Each member was asked to bring to the next meeting a pair of socks to be filled for this purpose. Each of the members was also asked to bring a gift for the Christmas basket, which will be the main feature of the December meeting.

Mrs. Scroggin turned the program over to Mrs. Wallace Grubbs, who was leader for the day. Spiritual Guidance was given by Mrs. B. W. Franks, who used Romans 12:10 as her theme, and stressed the need of kindness and love in the world today. Roll call was answered by members naming things for which they were thankful. The speaker of the day, Mrs. G. V. Theobald, of the Williamstown Club, was then introduced by Mrs. Grubbs.

Mrs. Theobald gave a very interesting and instructive illustrated lecture on the preparation and use of Christmas decorations; also as a Christmas thought, a typed recipe for mock plum pudding to each member and guest, which was much appreciated.

Following the program, Mrs. Conrad, assisted by her daughter, Miss Louise, and Mrs. Evan Hance, served a splendid desert course to the members and guests.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. W. W. Rouse.

The next regular meeting of Post 277 will be on November 27. This meeting is to be at Kenny's Tavern, South of Walton, and there will be about 40 minutes of actual combat films shown. All members and any prospective members are cordially invited to attend. Meeting time is 8:00 p. m.

All members are expected to bring as many prospective members as possible—so, come on out!

In Harrison county, 89 percent of the tobacco grown last year was root-rot resistant.

Legion to See Combat Film

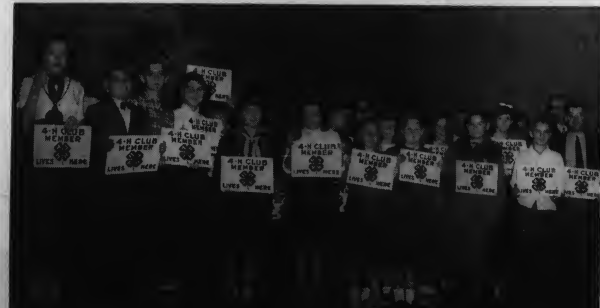

American Legion Post, 277, Walton, held its regular meeting Monday night, and arrangements were made with the Recruiting Service to show the Legion some actual combat films.

The next regular meeting of Post 277 will be on November 27. This meeting is to be at Kenny's Tavern, South of Walton, and there will be about 40 minutes of actual combat films shown. All members and any prospective members are cordially invited to attend. Meeting time is 8:00 p. m.

All members are expected to bring as many prospective members as possible—so, come on out!

Piner 4-H Club Honored Second Consecutive Year

Piner 4-H Club has been the Honor Club in Kenton County for two years, and will get to keep the cup for winning two years straight. The Honor Club Contest is sponsored by the Union Light, Heat and Power Company, in cooperation with the Kenton County Extension Service.

Doing Well in College

Thomas Leathers of Verona, who is enrolled at Wesleyan College at Bloomington, Illinois, is reported to be doing nicely, receiving A's and B's and keeping quite busy. He is receiving exceptionally good grades in zoology, averaging A's thus far. We all wish "Bubby" lots of luck. He is a graduate of Walton-Vernon High School, and is the son of Mrs. Boyd Webster, Verona.

Union Thanksgiving Services in Walton

Union Thanksgiving services will be held in the Methodist Church, Walton, on Wednesday evening, November 22, at 7:30 p. m.

Rev. Carroll Graves, pastor of the First Christian Church, will be the Thanksgiving message. Everyone is invited and urged to attend this service.

FLORENCE*Pillow Slip Bingo Social

The monthly pillow slip bingo social will be given at the Fire Hall and Community Center, Thursday evening, November 16, 1950 at 8:00 p. m., sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Florence Volunteer Fire Department. A very cordial invitation is extended to the people of the county to attend. The social is being given for the benefit of the Fire Hall building fund. Members of the fire department will serve refreshments. Two special cover-all games will be the special feature of the evening. There will be a free cover-all game at 8 p. m.

The community welcomes Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Dixon, who are now residing in the home they purchased from Earl Mudman on Lloyd Ave.

Mrs. Grant Maddox and son, Donnie, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Connelley and family of Goodridge Drive, Monday evening of last week.

The Carl Clutterbuck sale Saturday afternoon was well attended and articles sold well. Mr. Clutterbuck has purchased a new car, and with W. L. Stephens, will motor to Florida where they will spend the winter together in Mr. Stephens' home there. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Ammon (nee Shirley Howard) who are happy parents of a baby daughter. The little Miss arrived November 8 at St. Elizabeth Hospital and has been named Pamela Rose.

Mrs. Ella Weaver and Mrs. Eva Delahunty were dinner guests last Thursday of Mrs. Ola Wolfe of Erlanger.

Mrs. Hellebush was a guest in the home of Mrs. T. E. McHenry, one day the past week.

Joseph F. Baxter
Sympathy is extended the family of Joseph F. Baxter, 86, for whom services were held Saturday from the Baptist Church, Florence, with Rev. Roy A. Johnson officiating. The deceased, a native of Grant county, and a long-time resident of Boone county, passed away at the home of a son, Emel Baxter, Dillsboro, Ind., following a long illness.

Besides Emel, Mr. Baxter leaves another son, Edward Baxter of Sharpsville, Ohio; three daughters, Miss Minnie Baxter of Burlington, Miss Goldie Senour of Deer Park, Ohio, and Mrs. Stella Tyley of Covington; a brother, Ben Baxter of Fort Thomas; ten grandchildren, and 20 great-grandchildren. The fifth funeral home, Florence, was in charge of arrangements. Burial was in the Florence Cemetery.

Second Training Class Conducted At Covington "Y"

"If the use of credit will advance the long-time goals of the family, it is worth while," was one of the statements made by Miss Ida C. Hagman, Extension Specialist in Home Management, University of Kentucky's College of Agriculture and Home Economics, Lexington, during her talk on the "Wise Use of Credit."

Miss Hagman conducted the second training meeting this year for Kenton County Homemakers at the Covington YMCA, Tuesday, Oct. 24. These training meetings on "What Women Should Know About Business," are given to the home management leaders of the 24 homemakers' clubs in the county, which are under the direction of Miss Zelma E. Byerly, Home Demonstration Agent. All of the clubs were represented at this training meeting. The leaders will repeat the lesson at their club meetings and give information to their members on such matters as "Use of Long-Term Credit," "Uses and Kinds of Short-Term Credit," "Installment Buying and Its Cost," "Procedure When Buying Real Estate on Credit," and general information on life insurance.

Leaders present at the meeting were: Mesdames, Paul Hesser, Jr., John Dickerson, L. J. Rapp, A. F. Walters, Frederick A. Burris, Lee Warning, George Beuttel, A. W. Bachman, L. Jacobs, Orle Young, S. C. Fisk, Stanley Maegly, M. K. Madden, I. E. Mann, Eugent Tomlin, J. C. Reynolds, C. W. Carter, R. H. Wal-Schadler, Gurney Mitchell, Edward Smith, Robert Berkshire, Geo. Egan, I. C. Widmyer, Paul Brown, E. H. Spaulding, F. P. Ringenbach, R. O. Davis, Dewey Fisk, J. H. Garlough, Jack Beall, Robert Fessler, R. E. Vinson, Herman Dressel, Paul Schrudde; Misses Alma E. Stephens, Zelma E. Byers, home demonstration agent, and Catherine Knarr, assistant home demonstration agent.

Legume Seed Available

Seed of Kinland Red clover will be available to Boone County farmers if they will order the seed from dealers now, before the supply is exhausted, says Bill Davis, County Agent.

It is estimated that Western states produced 2,000,000 of Kinland clover seed this year. Much of this supply will be available for sowing in eastern states, but it is probable that Kentucky farmers will get little of it unless it is ordered now.

Both registered and certified seed will be on the market. Farmers who wish to produce certified seed in 1952 should sow registered seed this year. Those sowing for hay and pasture should sow certified seed. Growers who wish to produce registered seed in 1952 should sow foundation seed obtained from the Kentucky Seed Improvement Association, 929 South Limestone St., Lexington, Ky.

Kenland is a superior variety for the southern red clover belt because of its resistance to southern Anthracnose. It is more persistent than Cumberland and the common red clovers grown in Kentucky.

Farmers in Cumberland county lost so much hay due to heavy rains that there is unusual interest in vetch and small grain cover crops for pastures.

Marriage

Richard Dale Stephens, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Stephens, Independence, and Miss Frances Flynn, 20, Crittenden, were married last Saturday evening in the Walton Christian Church. A reception followed and many beautiful and useful presents were received.

Independence Baptist Church

The Independence Baptist Church in the last business session voted to build 10 or 12 Sunday school rooms in the spacious basement of the church. One side will be permanent rooms and the other side will be of the modern Fold Sound Proof Plastic curtains.

The Sunday school is increasing and new rooms will be of great help. Last Sunday 198 were present in the International Sunday School contest. This coming Sunday everyone present will receive a small, beautiful memento. The 26th of November is planned for the Cradle Roll mothers and the Extension Department folk, that ordinarily cannot come to Sunday school to be present. The motto of this contest is, "Bring One," and all are urged to get others to Sunday school. Four automobiles are being sent by the church to gather up pupils who have no transportation. Anyone desiring a way to Sunday school may call Independence 5069-W.

War Memorial Dedication

Last Sunday at 2:30, the American Legion, in cooperation with the band of Simon Kenton High School, the ministers of the town, dedicated the recently-built memorial to World War II soldiers. The Garden Clubs and others have had much to do with making this beautiful sawed stone, pyramidal structure possible. It is reported to be one of the most unique in the state. The service opened with the band playing the national anthem; the rifle salute to the flag, which was followed with the invocation by Rev. W. E. Manes, pastor of the Independence Baptist Church. Then the American Legion officials introduced John Orphan, Sixth District Commander of the Legion. A short history of America's fighting Hitlerism and now Communism was given. The highlight of the Commander's speech was his urge upon every American voter to use his franchise to fight the "isms" of the day and preserve our freedom. It was pointed out that the U. S. has 90 million voters, but only 70 million have taken the trouble to register and of the 70 million who have registered, only 42 million voted recently. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. Arthur Tipton, pastor of the Independence Christian Church. The high school band then played a second number and the citizens were dismissed.

Someone Did!

A used car dealer in San Diego, Calif. must have thought that he was a very clever advertiser when he placed this sign on a 1939 convertible coupe at the front of his sales lot: "You can steal this one from us." Someone did just that—now the dealer is complaining to the police.

Why didn't he say exactly what he meant? And why didn't he mean what he said?

"The words of the Lord are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times."—Psalm 12:6.

When the Lord said, "Believe and be saved," (Luke 8:12) He meant what He said. He is the Saviour. He accomplished the work that saves. While on the cross He cried, "It is finished."—John 19:30.

He also meant what he said when He preached, "He that rejecteth Me and receiveth not My words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him the last day."—John 12:48

Independence Homemakers

Members of the Independence Homemakers Club were guests of Mrs. C. W. Carter, November 9. Mrs. Carter presided over the business meeting and members responded to roll call with "What Thanksgiving Means to Me." Mrs. J. C. Reynolds gave the Thought for the Day. Plans were made for the Christmas party. Pennies for Friendship were collected. Fall planting of shrubs, bulbs and rose bushes was stressed in the report on exterior beautification, given by Mrs. Wm. House. Mrs. Chas. Davis gave the report on the annual meeting November 2, which was enjoyed by all.

The afternoon session was devoted to the lesson on "Wise Use of Credit and Insurance," given by Mrs. Carter and Mrs. Reynolds.

Attending were Mesdames C. W. Carter, Foster Armstrong, William Summey, Charles Davis, William House, J. C. Reynolds, B. C. Carter, C. S. Snelson and J. H. Shanklin.

Carl Reynolds of Menifee county is building a concrete block poultry house, 40 by 150 feet, for his laying flock of 2,000 hens.

Nurse Tells How HADACOL Was So Helpful To Her

Supplied Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin
Which Her System Lacked

Mrs. Jennie Lee Adele, 412 N. 27 St., East St. Louis, Ill., a nurse, says she wishes she had found out about HADACOL sooner because since taking HADACOL she feels so good. Mrs. Adele was suffering a deficiency of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron which HADACOL contains.

Here is Mrs. Adele's own statement: "I have been a nurse for over 14 years. My food never seemed to agree with me. I heard one day how so many folks were being helped because of HADACOL. I tried it and after 3 bottles I could tell a big improvement. Now I eat anything I want—sleep well and I am full of energy."

Why HADACOL Gives Such Fine Results

HADACOL does not bring just symptomatic relief. HADACOL now makes it possible to actually relieve the cause of aches and pains in the shoulders, legs and arms, certain nervous disturbances, and a general run-down weakened condition due to deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron in your system.

HADACOL not only supplies deficient systems with extra quantities of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron, and Niacin but also helpful amounts of important Calcium and Phosphorus —elements so vital to help maintain good health and physical fitness.

Why These Vitamins and Minerals Come in Liquid Form

There's a very good reason why HADACOL comes in special liquid form. These precious Vitamins and Minerals are more easily and quickly absorbed into the blood stream this way—ready to go right to work. A big improvement is often noticed within a few days.

Don't Be A "Doubting Thomas"

After reading Mrs. Adele's wonderful experience with HADACOL—how can you doubt that this great new nutritional formula will help you if your system lacks Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron, and Niacin?

What HADACOL did for Mrs. Adele, it can do for you if you're troubled with aches and pains in the shoulders, legs, and arms, certain nervous disturbances, insomnia when due to an upset stomach, stomach distress, and a general run-down weakened condition due to such deficiencies.

So what are you waiting for? Don't you see that HADACOL is the kind of product you need—the kind you should buy and the kind you should start taking immediately!

Sold On A Strict Money-Back Guarantee

HADACOL even helps build up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when Iron is needed) to course through your body, carrying these great health-building elements to every body organ. No wonder HADACOL helps you feel wonderful!

Be fair to yourself! Give yourself a break if you have such deficiencies! Why continue to drag yourself around—a burden to yourself and your family—when relief may be at hand as your nearest drugstore if you suffer a deficiency of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron. This great HADACOL is inexpensive, too—costs only a small amount a day. Trial size, only $1.25. Large family or hospital size, $3.50. If your drugstore does not have HADACOL, order it direct from The LeBlanc Corporation, Lafayette, Louisiana.

SHEEPMEN TO HONOR DOG LAW ENFORCERS

Sheriffs who have done outstanding jobs enforcing the dog law will be honored at the first annual convention of the Bluegrass State Sheep Association at the Experiment Station in Lexington, December 18-19. Also certificates of merit will be given about 100 winners in the lamb on pasture contest. Speakers will give special attention to the dog and rabies problem, including the best control possible in 1951, and a stronger law from the next legislature, according to C. M. Kindoll, Owenton, president of the association.

Committee reports will deal with fair trade practices in the sale of breeding ewes and lambs for yearlings, and sanitary measures to help check foot-rot disease.

Prominent sheepmen from this and other states will speak. Among them will be Howard Vaughn of California, president of the National Wool Growers Association.

GREEN PASTURES WINNERS NAMED

Winners in the 16 districts of the Kentucky Green Pastures program have been announced from the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky.

Twenty-six hundred farmers in 118 counties entered the program, the purpose of which was to make Kentucky the center of the pasture belt. County winners were selected and from them the 16 district master pasturemen.

District winners are: Cletus Whitlow & Sons, Graves county; G. Hayes, Henderson; Raymond Phelps, Caldwell; Paul Waldrop, Edmonson; James and Edward Bickett, Meade; A. R. Herndon, Boyle; S. L. Hill, Monroe; Knox Upchurch, Clinton; J. E. and Warren Bennett, Spencer; Henry Northcutt, Grant; Wallace Boston, Woodford; Gerhard Bros., Bracken; W. F. Hardin, Greenup; Robbie Lear, Jackson; Ernest Neal, Johnson, and Frank Bengel, Clay.

Outstanding counties in the Green Pastures Program include Graves, Hopkins, Warren, Grayson, Hart, Boyle, Taylor, Pulaski, Spencer, Owen, Woodford, Fleming, Rowan, Jackson, Johnson and Harlan.

District pasturemen will be awarded plaques at the annual Farm and Home Convention at the University of Kentucky, Jan. 30-Feb. 2.

Kenton county has several hundred home orchards, ranging in size from two acres to a few trees; there are commercial orchards also.

Alphonso Lastbrook of Daviess county has completed his third concrete stave silo since mid-August, and has two filled with grasses and legumes.

The Farm Bureau is sponsoring the use of methyl bromide on tobacco plant beds in Clinton county.

Remember regular church services at Staffordsburg church, Sunday morning and evening. Rev. Arnold will deliver a Thanksgiving service Sunday morning. All come out and give him a good hearing.

Howard Barnett spent the weekend with his sister, Mrs. Rev. Roy Martin, and family at Mt. Sterling.

Mrs. L. J. Rapp will entertain the Garden Club at her home Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hanna had as guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hanna and son of Latonia.

Dairy farmers in Meade county are buying Holstein cattle in large numbers, the breed being practically unrepresented until the past year.

In Spencer county, 5,000 acres were seeded this year to Ladino clover, C.O.D. plus postage. Ten-day trial offer. Money back guaranteed if not satisfied. One year guarantee against defects.

Ninety-five percent of the land used for tobacco in Anderson county has been used to cover crops, making the most complete coverage to date.

KENTON

We were glad to see so many at Sunday school and church Sunday. If each of us would bring one extra, we could fill our church. Let's try and see what we can do. Several of our regulars were out—we hope to see them back in their places Sunday. No one can take your place in the Lord's house.

We are having our Thanksgiving service at the church Wednesday evening, Nov. 22. Come and bring someone with you. We all have much to be thankful for. Come to the Lord's house and render your thanks unto Him—Our pastor will bring us a Thanksgiving sermon and we hope to have some special music.

Remember Sunday school each Sunday at 10 a. m., Walter Roden, Sup't., preaching services each Sunday at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m., Rev. Frank Lipscomb, Pastor; prayer meeting each Wednesday at 8:15 p. m., B. T. U. each Friday at 8:15 p. m., Mrs. Frank Lipscomb, Leader.

You are cordially invited to attend each of these services. Come and bring someone with you.

Christian Worship

Lesson for November 19, 1950

SOME one has said that if the Christian church did nothing else but offer a request opportunity for public worship of God, she would have justified her place in the sun. This is rather misleading truth, for if a church did nothing but worship it would not be doing its whole duty, indeed it would not be a true church. As our Scripture plainly shows, worship disconnected from life is not only good, it is sinful.

Why Worship? WHAT is worship, and why do we worship at all? We might define it as a meeting with God, both conscious and desired. "He shines in all that's fair," and in truth we are in his presence all the time. But we are not conscious of him all the time. When we are conscious of him, then one of two things happen. Either we hastily shut our minds and run away from him in fear, which is sin. Or we linger, feeling it is good for us to be here.

And then it is worship. Or again, we might call worship conversation between man and God. Every part of it is either our listening to God speak to us, or our speaking to God some way.

Why worship? We worship because we love God. Otherwise it would be a bore, at best, or a kind of self-torture at worst. We worship because we need God. If Jesus needed both public worship and private prayer, so do we far more. We worship because we need to know God's will.

Why Worship Together? PUBLIC and private worship cannot be substituted for each other. Readers of the Bible know how they were intertwined in the experiences of God's people, and how our Lord himself, who used to attend the synagogue services regularly, also sought God on the hills alone. A man who never meets with God alone in prayer will not know how to come to public worship in the true spirit; and a man who habitually stays away from church for no good reason is not a person whose private prayer-life is likely to be a healthy one.

We need to worship together with other Christians. We need this experience to strengthen our own prayer-life. We need it to keep us from selfishness in our prayers. Intense, earnest prayer, and full of faith too, may be seriously wrong if it is essentially selfish.

In corporate, public worship we are reminded that none of us stands alone; that God has many children. We need to worship together because it is one of the very few things, perhaps the only one, that all human beings can do as one. No two of us are alike, yet we are alike in this one thing: We are all human beings in need of God. To worship together is to be reminded of this.

Why Worship As We Do?

IT OUGHT not to be surprising that men worship God in so many ways, for there are all sorts and conditions of men. But within the Protestant churches, our differences are not important. Essentially we have much the same "pattern" of worship. It will be helpful to you, the next time you are in church, to ask, at each part of the service: Why do we do this? What good does it do? Could it be left out without being missed?

As you visit other churches from time to time, take note of any differences, not in a spirit of criticism but considering whether you might learn from them. What do you and they have in common?

You will agree that there are hardly any parts of a typical Christian worship service which we could do without. We need the prayers, for in them we all pour out our hearts together before God. We need the hymns and psalms, because they express the beauty and the joy of our faith; most of them are "prayers set to music." We need the Scripture reading, because in it we hear the Word of God. We need the sermon, because it applies the Word of God to our own lives and problems. We need the offering too... why? But the offering is true worship only on one condition. Do you know what it is? After all, the real test of every part and variety of true worship is: Has this experience brought man and God closer together in spirit and in truth?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor in the building of a character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

CONRAD HARDWARE

SELL and REPAIR

The new toys are coming in for Christmas—beautiful red wagons, all sizes, boys and girls bicycles, pedal tractors with chain drive, hot rod racing cars, tricycles and scooters. Good toys are not too plentiful this year, so buy early and have a better selection. We just set up some of these large rubber tired wheelbarrows you dairymen use, and they have not advanced in price. Why don't you buy a Maytag washer before they raise in price? Mrs. Mary Houston knows good heating stoves, because she picked an Anchor coal heater—they are the best in coal heaters.

The Steele brothers, J. R. and E. V., who live down by Cobinade, came up Saturday and purchased two coal heaters. Paul Groan, T. C. Melrose's right-hand man, sent over after a large coal heater. Howe Noel and wife, over beyond Union, also bought a large coal heater. Roy Kenney needed a small coal heater for his stripping room. Gordon Phillips and I sure had a trade—he traded two stoves for that fine Siegler oil heater—of course I had to have a little "boot." Berry Johnson told me once to always trade, if you can get "boot" or make a profit.

Burgess Ford died Friday night—he had been sick for years—we extend our sympathy to Mrs. Ford and all the family. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hoffman, who are building a new home over by New Haven school, were over and bought a set in grete basket—said they wanted to meet the fellow who wrote that add in the Walton Advertiser. We had the loaders Saturday—Omer Dudgeon, Harve Vest, Harris Moore, Rod Hughes, Howard Stephenson, Buck Gross, Ed Elmore and lots others—I was too busy to write all of them down. We just received some white glass indirect shades for these floor lamps—they are always getting broken, and we have had lots of calls for them.

I just sold Carl Smith, cashier of the Mt. Zion Bank, a new electric water heater, and one of those Dayton water systems. Earl Waters installed them, also with a new kitchen sink. Hollie Aylor came up on a cold day and bought a fly swatter—you never know what people will call for. Monday was the 13th and I believe a lot of my customers had bad luck. Kate Trinker called and her wringer on her Maytag had jumped apart and she couldn't get it together.

Sam Hudson has an oil pump on the second floor to pump his fuel oil up to his oil heater—it quit working and Brewster worked on it for several hours. Mrs. John Heideman, up at Crittenden, called and she had caught her apron in her Maytag wringer and bent the water apron under the wringer, so we will take care of her troubles. John Conrad's wife called and her pump on the washer had stopped up; also her oil heater was leaking. Russell Yealey came in about this time and he was trying to get Mrs. Anna McCabe's water pump to work, but after he made two trips to Walton and tore the pump down and rebuilt it, he found there was no water in the cistern.

Omer Kile was in today but he was very quiet. Mrs. Floyd Armstrong was over after wiring material for his stripping room—they are stripping this burley by artificial light. Lester Wilson of Crittenden came down after some fluorescent lights for his stripping room. Ernest Piper had us fix him up with one 4 feet long. Alva Piper, who has quit the paper route and spends his time on his farm, bought a lot of wire fence. James Messmer bought one of those giant size mail boxes with his name plate on it.

Don't forget if you want your name on your mail box, we have it for only a dollar; also if you lose one of your car or door keys, bring us the other one and we will make you one for 25¢—always have an extra key. We have a good stock of coal oil and wood heaters. Don't take chances on your old heater, if it is dangerous—one crack in a fire bowl may burn your house. It looks as if we may be back on rationing again. Check your washer and refrigerator, it may have to last a long time.

We have a nice stock of Big Ben alarm clocks, but we can't get any more, so you know what that means. Do you have screen glass on your doors and windows, to keep out the cold? We have all kinds in stock. What about the air filter in your furnace? We carry most sizes in stock. Don't you need a new toilet seat? We have them from $4.95 to $10.95. Have you tried one of these new sponge mops put out by O'Conor for only $3.95—they really sell, and that new dust mop by Old English. Just pull the mop off and wash it—comes off just like a glove; and that new wax applicator for only 86¢.

We have something new that we have had calls for, for 15 years, and that is wire cable in three-sixteenths, one-fourth, five-sixteenths and one-half inch sizes—every tractor owner needs some of this—it is lots better than chain. The fire siren blew and everyone rushed up to Mayor R. M. Hall's house Monday night. Rod Hughes poked his head out the upstairs window and wanted to know where the fire was. False alarm but those firemen were right on the job—just like CONRAD HARDWARE. When you need it, we have it!

Christmas Seal Sale Under Way; Invest In Health Protection

The most important letter you will receive during the entire year reached or will reach your mailbox this week. This letter from your county Tuberculosis Association contains the 1950 Christmas Seals. Remember, this is your chance to invest in a little health protection for yourself, your family and friends. Your purchase of these seals will help fight tuberculosis, a disease which may strike anyone at any time.

For 44 years Christmas Seals have been on the job, helping protect us against tuberculosis. For our own protection, let's keep them on the job until tuberculosis is completely eradicated in our land.

Your Contributions

Practically every cent of the money you spend for the purchase of Christmas Seals stays in Boone County for the fight against TB. The local organization aided in many county cases during the past few years by providing hospitalization and other medical care. Officials of the local organization have announced that a mobile X-Ray unit will be in the county early next spring. Christmas Seals, which aid in the financing of such service, have aided in saving some five million lives in less than fifty years and some of these lives were the lives of Boone county people.

Officers of the Boone County Tuberculosis Association have made an all-out effort to reach every family in the county with a Christmas Seal letter. If, through clerical error, you fail to receive your seals or if duplication of letters occur, please notify Mrs. Kathryn Cropper, secretary and treasurer of the Boone County Tuberculosis Association, Burlington, Ky. Other officers are Mrs. Sibbia Reimer, Hebron, president, and Ralph G. Maurer, Burlington, publicity chairman.

Golden Wedding Day Observed By Johnsons, Sunday

On Sunday, November 19, the children of Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Johnson with their families came from their various homes to Walton to celebrate the golden wedding anniversary of their parents by taking them to the Phoenix Restaurant where the honored guests, about twenty members of the family, and Rev. and Mrs. C. Garrett were served a bountiful turkey dinner.

The table was beautifully and appropriately decorated, the food delicious and efficiently served by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schwab.

After the dinner hour they retired to Mr. and Mrs. Johnson's home on Verona Road, where delightful refreshments were served to ninety guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were the recipients of many beautiful gifts and desire to express their deep appreciation and sincere thanks to everyone who sent cards, gave gifts and helped in any way to make the day a gala occasion.

They will always have sweet memories of this, "their Golden Wedding Day."

Plow Tobacco Beds In Fall

Fall plowing of tobacco beds is urged by Bill Davis, Boone County Agent. Rows of weeds, grasses and clovers are destroyed by fall plowing and the bacteria which causes wilt and live on the roots are also killed. When these disease germs die the chance of wildfire in plant beds is materially reduced.

Best results are obtained when the fall plowed beds are burned or treated with methyl bromide. Beds should be located on southern or southeastern slopes and ditched to prevent water from draining over them.

Livestock Meeting Held

The Cincinnati Livestock Cooperative Ass'n met last Thursday evening at the Independence Courthouse and discussed with the farmers, problems of production and marketing of veal calves.

RENFRO VALLEY SHOW

The Renfro Valley Barn Dance show sponsored by the Verona Community Club last Thursday in the Verona school building, was well attended and those present were treated to a special show by that fine group of entertainers from Renfro Valley. Slim Miller, Granny Harper, the Coon Creek Girls, Claude Sweet and Glenn Pennington were all there to round out a complete show.

According to Bill Scroggin, Club President, the gang really cut loose with one of their very best road shows, and several persons stayed over for the second show. Between shows the ladies of the Verona club served sandwiches, pie, coffee and soft drinks. Lilly Mae, of the Coon Creek Girls, is still talking about the wonderful home-made pies.

Pioneers Lose to Maysville But Clip St. Henry 69-55

Simon Kenton Pioneers of Independence tallied their third victory in four games by trouncing St. Henry 69-55 Friday at the Simon Kenton gym.

The Pioneers, members of the N. K. A. C., led 16-15 at the end of the first period and moved into a 34-24 lead at the half. They forged to a 61-33 lead at the close of the third period and used reserves for part of the final period.

Gene Coppage led the Pioneers with 20 points. Henman added 17. H. Cahill led St. Henry with 24 points. In the preliminary, Simon Kenton took a 46-26 victory from the St. Henry reserves.

Maysville 60, Simon Kenton 50. The Pioneers went to Maysville, Nov. 15, where they sustained their first loss of the year, 60-50, in a close game. For three quarters the contest was a give-and-take battle with the count being tied six times.

The rangy Pioneers, with two victories under their belts, gave the smaller Bulldogs trouble for the first three periods, but midway in the final quarter the Maysvillians proved to have more endurance, and took a five-point lead. From there out the issue was in no doubt.

Gene Coppage, who points, was top man for the game in scoring. George Cook, Maysville forward, led his team with 16 points.

Games Coming Up
Nov. 28—Simon Kenton at Florence; Warsaw at New Haven, and Erlanger Lloyd at Walton.

FLYNN-STEPHENS

The marriage of Miss Frances Flynn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Flynn of Bracht Station, to Mr. Tom Stephens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stephens of Independence, was solemnized Saturday evening, November 11th, by candlelight, at the Walton Christian Church, with Rev. Carroll F. Gravely officiating.

Mrs. Jack House, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. Mr. Robert Stephens, brother of the groom, was best man.

Mrs. House wore a cinnamon color suit with brown accessories. Her flowers were pink roses. The bride chose for her wedding a taupe color suit with brown accessories, and carried red roses. The bride's mother wore a black suit with black accessories and had white roses.

J. W. Spencer played the organ, and Katherine Simpson sang "Be-cause" and "I Love You Truly."

After a short honeymoon at Virginia Beach, Va., they are now at their home, 1515 Jefferson Street in Covington, Ky.

Young Adult BTU Meets

The regular monthly meeting of the Young Adult B. T. U. of the Walton Baptist Church was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Clarke, Friday evening, November 17. After a delicious covered-dish supper, Stanley Allen presided over the business session.

Those enjoying the evening of fellowship together were: Mrs. June Neumeister and children, Mr. and Mrs. Lebus Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wilson, Mrs. Dora Pennington and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Allen and children, Wayne Rice, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Chance, and daughter, Paulette.

Leaves for Army Duty

Ernest Cooper of Green Road left last Saturday for Camp Breckinridge. He enlisted in the Army Engineers.

Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving comes only once a year, but should be observed every week! Now, right now, while you're reading this article, close your eyes and think of the hundreds of things for which you are thankful—then thank your Heavenly Father for them, and for the million other things of which you did not think!

Now, if you did that, you feel a hundred percent better. Continue to do this all during the year, and this town, county, state, nation, and world will be a much better place in which to live—it's just that simple!

MARTHA R. CRUME

Mrs. Martha Riedel Crume, 65, made her demise early last Wednesday at St. Elizabeth Hospital, following an illness of several weeks. The deceased was the wife of Dr. T. C. Crume, evangelist of the Baptist Church and operator of the Crume Nursery on U. S. 42, near Florence.

Mrs. Crume, an active member of the Florence Baptist Church, had arranged every detail of her funeral and burial. She will be greatly missed by her family and numerous friends.

Rites were held Friday from the Chambers and Grubbs funeral home, Florence, with Rev. R. F. DeMolay of Walton, officiating, with a very appropriate discourse. Interment was in the Florence Cemetery.

Besides her husband, she leaves a daughter, Mrs. Pauline Worthington; a son, T. C. Crume, Jr., both of Florence; three sisters, Mrs. Joe C. Garland of Bardston, Mrs. Bruce McIntyre of Louisville, and Mrs. John Young of Lakeland, Fla.; three brothers, Walter Riedel of Springfield, Ky., Louis Riedel of Bloomfield, and George Riedel of Bardston, and three grandchildren.

Martin Cahill

The funeral of Martin Cahill, a Kenton county farmer for many years, was held at 10 a. m., Saturday from the Middendorf funeral home, Covington. Requiem High Mass was sung at 10:30 a. m. at the Holy Guardian Angel Church, Sandfordtown.

Mr. Cahill, who was 79 years old, died near midnight last Wednesday at St. Elizabeth Hospital. His home was on Dudley Pike.

Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Louise Cahill; three sons, Edward Cahill of Dudley Pike, Henry and John, both of Erlanger, and four daughters, Mrs. Lulu Mae McCubbin of Walton, Mrs. Blanche Stanton of Maysville, Bessie Jean, at home, and Ethel, who died in infancy, and two sons, Clay of Erlanger, and Paul of Walton. He also leaves one brother, Fred Ford of Covington, ten grandchildren, nine step-grandchildren, two great-grandsons, several nieces and nephews and a host of friends.

BURGESS FORD

Burgess Ford, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ford, and husband of Mrs. Bessie Ford, was born at Mount Zion, Ky., March 6, 1881, and departed this life November 11, 1950, at the age of 69 years, 8 months and 5 days. He was united in marriage to Bessie Richards, June 29, 1901. This union was blessed by six children, four daughters, Mrs. Lulu Mae McCubbin of Walton, Mrs. Blanche Stanton of Maysville, Bessie Jean, at home, and Ethel, who died in infancy, and two sons, Clay of Erlanger, and Paul of Walton. He also leaves one brother, Fred Ford of Covington, ten grandchildren, nine step-grandchildren, two great-grandsons, several nieces and nephews and a host of friends.

Mr. Ford had been a blacksmith for thirty years in this community. He had been in failing health for the past seven years. He was a member of the Walton Baptist Church.

Funeral services were conducted on Monday of last week from the Walton Baptist Church, with burial following at Hillcrest Cemetery, Dry Ridge, with Harry Eckler in charge.

Religious Survey Sunday

Forty workers from the Walton Christian Church will make a Community Religious Survey of Walton and surrounding territory next Saturday afternoon, Nov. 26, immediately following the church's morning worship service. This information will be turned over to respective churches of which the persons are a member of the church they prefer.

Your cooperation in giving the census takers the necessary information at your door will be appreciated. They are only making a census, not making you a call. This is a part of the United Evangelical Advance in America—"Win America for Christ."

Aylor Joins Choir

Larry Aylor, Florence singer and musician, has recently become a member of the Blessed Sacrament Church Choir in Ft. Mitchell. The choir is under the direction of Geo. Higdon who is a member of Southern Ohio Guild of Organists and Directors of the church they prefer. The choir is composed of some thirty men's voices and on solemn occasions is joined by the boys choir of forty voices. The organization also specializes in choral works for church activities.

20 Plentiful Foods Listed For December

Geo. W. Markesberry

George W. Markesberry, 86, retired business man, succumbed Saturday at his home in Florence. Services were held Tuesday from the Stith funeral home, with Rev. C. N. Ogil officiating. Burial was in the Florence Cemetery.

Survivors are his widow, Mrs. Doris Markesberry; three sons, William, Nelson and Bert Markesberry; a daughter, Mrs. Harvey Baker; a brother, Felix Markesberry; 12 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

One Killed, Two Injured In Wreck Near Independence

Three men were injured, one fatally, early last Wednesday when the automobile in which they were riding went out of control and struck a utility pole on Ky. 17, one mile south of Independence.

The injured were taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington, in the Independence Life Squad ambulance. One was treated and released, while the third died several hours after being admitted.

Dead was Norval Whittis, 26, Cincinnati, an employee of the Beverly Hills Country Club. Hospital attendants said he suffered a fracture of his skull and jaw.

Donald Goetz, 20, Campbell county, and Mulford Martin, 22, Covington, suffered cuts and bruises.

Capt. Chris Coleman of the Independence Volunteer Fire Department who removed the men to the hospital, said he found the automobile on its side and Whittis lying on the ground. Kenton County police were unable to determine who was driving.

Pledged to Lamp and Cross

Robert Edward Gregory, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover K. Gregory of Florence, is one of seven new members recently pledged to the Lamp and Cross senior men's honorary fraternity, University of Kentucky officials announced this week.

A senior in the College of Arts and Science, Robert is a member of Pi Kappa Alpha social fraternity and Omicron Delta Kapp honor fraternity.

Date Is Changed

The time of the cooking demonstration by Hagedorn's at St. Paul auditorium, Florence, has been changed from Saturday, Nov. 25 to Monday, Nov. 27. At the demonstration Monday night a Dutch oven, the kind that cooks with the gas off, will be given away. "Bill" Hagedorn invites everyone to this demonstration.

Real Estate Transactions

Conner-Lusby announce the following real estate sales the past week:

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Neaves purchased the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith on Alta Vista.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hale of Norwood, Ohio, purchased the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mayhugh on Richland Court.

Goes to Hospital

Roy Dickson went to the hospital last Thursday for an operation.

Grain Markets Strengthen; Shorthorn Steer Wins Show

December usually brings a seasonal peak in hog marketing, the United States and Kentucky Departments of Agriculture report in listing pork among the top items on the plentiful foods list for the Southeast in the coming month.

Along with pork, turkeys, cranberries, cabbage and sweet potatoes should be abundant in the Southeast including Kentucky, during December. Apple supplies are heavy, and the listings show two fruits added to the plentiful roundup—peaches and grapefruit.

Vegetables, in addition to sweet potatoes and cabbage, include carrots, onions and Irish potatoes. The Departments of Agriculture also report plentiful supplies of hens, fryers, broilers and fish will be found in December. Other foods of which there will be plenty are cheese, peanut butter, lard, eggs and honey.

Grain Markets Strengthen

Grain markets advanced materially during the week ended Nov. 16. Prices were influenced principally by a more active export and domestic demand for the reduced offerings of most grains, reports to the Kentucky and U. S. Departments of Agriculture indicate.

Wheat prices advanced 3 cents to 6 cents per bushel in the Central Western Markets. Corn and oats gained 3 cents to 5 cents per bushel. Barley and grain sorghums were up 4 cents to 6 cents per bushel. Soybeans fluctuated over a wide range and closed 15 cents to 16 cents per bushel higher, reflecting principally small offering and higher prices for oil and meal. The advances in soybeans brought about a gain of 10 cents per bushel in flaxseed.

Kenton County Garden and Cultural Club Is Entertained

The November meeting of the Kenton County Garden and Cultural Club was held in the home of Mrs. Denver Binder, with twenty-two members present. Mrs. Bradford Armstrong, Mrs. Steve Durr, and Mrs. W. E. Hanna were guests.

A committee reported on planting shrubbery around the American Legion Memorial on the Court House grounds at Independence. Thanksgiving table decorations and settings were exhibited by members. "The Origin of Thanksgiving," was read by Mrs. O. J. Williams; Mrs. O. S. Ware read the poem, "Goy of Kentucky," by John A. Logan.

Mrs. William R. Brown will be the hostess December 14 at the Independence Christian Church. Exhibit workshop for Christmas decorations will be the feature of the meeting. Members are requested to bring food, clothing, toys, etc., for the needy.

Honored As "Future Teacher"

Miss Pauline Stephenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira W. Stephenson of Walton-Nicholson Highway, a senior at the University of Kentucky, was named "Miss Future Teacher" at a National Education Week session of the U. K. chapter, Future Teachers of America.

She was chosen on the basis of professional interest in education, and contribution to group activities. Judges were Dr. Frank Dickey, Dean of the College of Education; Mrs. May K. Duran, Professor of Elementary Education; Dr. Lyman Ginger, Director of the University School, and Dr. Ellis Hartford, Professor of Education.

Miss Stephenson will hold her title until next November, when her successor will be named.

Celebrates 28th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Lipscomb on November 15, celebrated their 28th wedding anniversary at home with their daughters and their families. Present for supper were Mrs. Lipscomb, Mrs. Robert West and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wemuth and two sons.

Mrs. Williams Hostess

Mrs. O. J. Williams was hostess for the November meeting of the Ryland Heights Homemakers Club. The meeting was opened by reading the Collect. The devotional and thought for the month were given by Mrs.
Williams. A historical reading, "The Origin of Thanksgiving," was given.
Poems were also read by Mrs. Gee and Mrs. Murpherson on the meaning of Thanksgiving. Pennies for Friendship were collected, and at noon, a very delightful luncheon was served by the hostess.

A very interesting lesson on "Security and Proper Use of Credit," was given by Mrs. Shelby Martin. Plans were made for the Christmas party to be held at the regular meeting in December at the home of Mrs. Hermes. Names were exchanged for gifts and each member will bring a guest.

Those present were: Mrs. W. E.
Dieckman, Mrs. O. J. Williams, Mrs.
W. A. Damon, Mrs. Oliver Gee, Mrs.
T. B. Hermes, Mrs. N. L. Leach, Mrs.
J. R. Murchison, Mrs. Anna Bagby,
Mrs. Shelby Martin and Mrs. Wm.
P. Schwall.

Carter county farmers suffered a loss of around $300,000 due to floods in corn, tobacco, pastures and

Marriage License Issued

George J. Waldman, 29, and Roma Jean Schlunkent, 22, both of Covington, were issued a marriage license last week at Independence.

Oak Ridge Homemakers

The Oak Ridge Homemakers club met last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Edward Piper on Taylor Mill Road. Plans for the Christmas party of the club members were made.

Construction Under Way

The Independence Baptist Church has begun building 10 or 11 rooms in the basement of the church building. Five of the sound-proof rooms probably will be finished this week. Those volunteering their services last week were: Clyde McVey, J. C. Armstrong, Jesse Simpson, Tom Elam, James Reed, Raymond Reed, Richard Elam, David and Virgil Maners, Robert and Allen Elam and Jake Neldic.

As the Men's Brotherhood meets on Friday night, Nov. 24, with the De-courtesy men coming as guests, every effort is being made to finish five rooms by that time.

Sunday School Contest

The International Sunday School contest comes to a close Sunday, November 26. Great gains in attendance and increased efforts are making it worthwhile. All Cradle Roll mothers and their babies are urged to be at the Independence Baptist Church, Sunday. The shut-ins and Extension Department folk are urged to be present also. Transportation will be furnished by the church. Call Holly 490.

"Bring one," is the motto of this campaign and many have succeeded and are wearing as evidence of their success, a "Brought One" pin.

Wilmington W. M. S. Meets

The Missionary society of the Wilmington Baptist Church met for the November meeting in the home of Mrs. E. H. Spaulding.

The meeting was opened by singing "Jesus Calls Us," prayer was by Mrs. Fred McMillian. Plans were made to prepare Thanksgiving baskets for the needy of the community. The remaining chapters in the book "How to Pray," were reviewed by Mrs. B. N. Spegal, Mrs. Fred McMillian, Mrs. Ray Linder and Mrs. W. R. Brown.

Roll call was answered by each member giving a scripture verse. A report on community missions was given by Mrs. Robert Bell. Dolls are being dressed for the orphanage, and a gift is being sent to the Veterans' Hospital.

The program in Royal Service, "Is There A Doctor In the House," was in charge of Mrs. W. R. Brown, with several members taking part. Devotional was conducted by Mrs. M. P. Collins, Sr., prayer by Mrs. W. R. Brown, after which a letter from a nurse at the Baptist Mission Station in Nigeria was read. A collection of $16.00 was taken; 17 visits to the sick were made, and 8 cards sent.

Those present were: Mrs. Marlon Collins, Sr., Mrs. Fred McMillian, Mrs. James Kidwell, Mrs. C. C. Gross, Mrs. Robert Elliott, Mrs. Chas. Flynn, Mrs. Ray Linder, Mrs. Ralph Kinman, Mrs. Gene Elliott, Mrs. Marlon Collins, Jr., Mrs. Ralph Spaulding, Mrs. R. L. Alsip, Mrs. Foster Bridges, Mrs. W. W. Hanker, Mrs. Ira Mene-fee, Mrs. Owen Flynn, Mrs. Lydia Taylor, Mrs. B. N. Spegal, Mrs. Robert Bell, Mrs. Harry Yancey, Mrs. Malcolm Oliver, Mrs. W. R. Brown, Mrs. Lois Elliott, Mrs. Christine Tunge-gate, Mrs. Hazel Spaulding, and 8 children, Elaine Elliott, Judy Linder, Joann Bridges, Linda and Jerry Spegal, Michael F. Collins, Deborah Spaulding and Michael R. Elliott.

Walton Homemakers Meet

The Walton Homemakers Club met in the Masonic Hall last Friday, with 15 members answering roll call with "What Thanksgiving Means to Me." Mrs. Mayne Simpson read the 100th Psalm, and Mrs. Leo Flynn read a poem, "Hymn of Thanks." Mrs. Ora Stone read the Thought for the Month, "Take Time." The business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. Wm. Breeden, Jr. Mrs. Mary Stephenson and Mrs. June Neumeister led the main project demonstration on "Individualizing Your Clothes," which was a lesson on fitting and altering patterns. After the meeting closed, a "white elephant" auction was held and $7.05 was collected.

A Christmas party will be held in connection with the December meeting to be held in the home of Mrs. Jesse Callen, just North of town.

CARD OF THANKS—

I wish to express my sincere thanks and grateful appreciation for all the many cards, letters, flowers, telephone calls and numerous other acts of kindness during my recent illness. Especially the Fideles Class of the Baptist Sunday school for their remembrance and Rev. George Hoffman of the Methodist Church for his several visits and words of comfort; also the many other dear friends who visited so faithfully. I shall never forget. May God bless you, one and all.

Staffordsburg Homemakers

"Wise Use of Credit and Insurance" was the lesson presented by club leaders, Mrs. J. C. Beall and Mrs. L. J. Rapp, at the November meeting of the Staffordsburg Homemakers Club held at the home of Mrs. Rapp.

Mrs. Chester Hill, president, in opening the meeting asked for a few moments of silent prayer in observance of Thanksgiving and the blessings we share. Mrs. William Gadker reported that the sale of plastic towels sponsored by the club had been a success. Members were reminded to bring canned fruit to the December meeting to fill the box for the Orphans' Home. Plans were also completed for the annual Christmas party and turkey dinner on December 13. Reservations for this date have been made at The Arthur in Covington.

Mrs. Denver Binder, program chairman, presided, and Mrs. J. A. Keeney read the devotional, Psalm 121. Mrs. J. J. Barnett gave the story, "Thanksgiving Day Is A Spirit," by Dr. Polling.

Mrs. Binder conducted the recreation, which included a quiz game. There was an exchange of magazines and a sale of lamp shades, with Mrs. Bluch Rich as auctioneer. Other members attending were: Mesdames William Binder, H. L. Faulkner, Edith Ware, Emil Stein, John W. Shaw, Roy Payne, Stella Richardson and Mabel Van Landingham. Guests were Miss Minnie Rapp, Mrs. Chester Rapp and daughter, Judy.

Cheerful Giver

Lesson for November 26, 1950

TAKE a good look at a piece of money. Let it be in any form at all; "hard money," "old money," a check, a money order, scrip—anything you can above across a counter and buy something with. Let us say it is your own money, and that you earned it yourself. Just take a look at that piece of cash. Do you recognize it? You should, for it is nothing for less than a piece of your own life.

Money is Life
YOU got rid of something quite valuable to get hold of that piece of money. Time, certainly; you are poorer than you were 24 hours ago, poorer in time, for you have 24 hours less to live than you had then. But you are richer in money, for you did not have this money then, if it is the return for your work during that time. You lost time but you gained money; in other words the money represents time, which in turn spells life.

Look at it in another way: You put out a certain amount of energy for this bit of money. You played a field or you raised some chickens or you laid some pipe or you taught some children or you sold a bill of goods. Whatever you did to earn the money, it tired you a bit. You put out the work, — and the money came back to you. Money is time, money is energy. Furthermore, money is knowledge.

Why is a skilled workman paid more than an unskilled one? Not because he works harder or sweats more. He is paid more because his work is better, and his work is better because he knows more. Now, what would life be without time, energy or knowledge? Not much! So if a robber ever says to you: "Your money or your life!" you would be quite correct (even if un tactful) if you said: "My dear fellow, repeat yourself; money is life!"

Life Comes from God
AMONG the many differences between a Christian and a non-Christian is this: the Christian knows too much to say, "My life is my own, to do with as I please." Consider those three elements of life: time, energy, knowledge. Time itself is certainly God's gift, the Creator's gift. None of us can make a moment of it. We can accept it, use it; or we can waste it; but it was given us in either case.

Energy cannot be created by you or me. Each of us has a certain (and a different) amount; we inherit it, we are endowed with it; but only God in the long run is the source of energy. To make a long story short, life is God's gift, not our creation. It is a blank page on which we write, an empty field in which we can sow as we will. But though the writing and the sowing are our own, the page and the field are God's. So the Christian recognizes this as the central fact of his life: I belong to God.

Now if that is true it is also true that our money is also, just as much as life itself, ours only as a trust from God.

Stewardship
"STEWARDSHIP" is the word which recognizes God's right in our lives; it is the word which describes the principle of life for those who honor God as source of all they are and have. When the proverb-writer says, "Honor God with thy substance," he has just said, "In all thy ways acknowledge him." No man is likely to do what is right with his money who habitually does wrong with his life. No man is going to admit his partnership with God in money matters who does not confess God to be the Lord of all his life.

Now there are two principles brought out in our Scripture about stewardship of money in particular. One is this: God looks on what we have, not on what we haven't. A widow who gives one tiny coin, if that is all she has, is more generous than a millionaire who has just given half a million to Charity. Second is the principle of willingness. The Lord loves a cheerful giver. Sour givers, regretful givers, stingy givers, no. But the Lord does love the man who gives with a smile. It isn't how much you give, it's the fact that you give, it's HOW you give. Is your heart generous in the first place?

Let us be Thankful!

Our pilgrim fathers had two notable characteristics; a genuine reliance upon the guidance and protection of God, and a strong disposition to look out for themselves.

These two traits are not antagonistic, but are complementary.

There are some things in life that God expects us to do for ourselves. Men of great and lasting achievement never leave God completely out of the picture. Nor do they attempt to leave it all to God, and withhold the human support that He expects. Strong men, influential men, the most socially useful men and women are those who trust God as though all depends on Him, and then set themselves to the task as though all depends upon human effort.

Like the Pilgrims, when we receive God's guidance, let us return to Him hearts of genuine gratitude.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Thanksgiving and Hunting

The rabbit and quail season opened this week, so get your old gun out and oil it up, or we have a very good supply of new guns, all prices; also have all game shells in stock. You had better come in and get your license before starting out or Mr. Game Warden might meet you.

We were very sorry to hear about the sudden death of Mrs. Bert Huffman. Dick Hull was with today after the funeral—he is all crippled up with rheumatism and not able to work much.

Harvey Hughes from Concord neighborhood, bought his wife the most beautiful piece of American Breeze; 1 calf, sired by Pabst Rocaider Dore. Independence 6422. 1t-47 —always in a hurry—she has more pep and energy than anyone I know of over 16 years old. Hog-killing time is near—we have hard cans, butcher knives and saws, sausage mills and repairs, land presses, sugar cure and sausage seasoning.

Eggs are getting higher, so buy an electric water heater to keep water warm for chickens—you get more eggs.

Uncle Bob Salmons from Concord neighborhood bought an Anchor hot blast coal heater—he always buys the best. Stanley Robinson, who operates a store on Route 16 close to Concord church bought a large Enterprise sausage mill and large pulley so he can grind your sausage with electricity—when you kill hogs, take your trimmings to Stanley and he will have your sausage ground. Edna McCubbin, who lives down on the Ohio, on a farm, came in to buy a large flashlight—you know on most farms there are a little house out behind the big house, and it is very dark on these winter nights, so Edna thought she had better have a good flashlight to see how to get from the road back to the house.

Harve Vest was in today, but he was a customer, not a loafer. Ross Atha and wife bought a Coleman oil heater—it is very nice to get up these cold mornings and have a warm house with a fine oil heater going on "low fire."

We are selling a lot of fluorescent fixtures for the customers for Wolverine gloves—we have a good supply, most all kinds of work gloves. Thanksgiving Day is Thursday and I don't believe we are as thankful as we should be, even if we do have a lot of our young men in armed service and some few have been killed in action—but more of us would have been killed if we had lived in some of the other countries during past years. Our taxes are high and prices of all we buy are high and will be higher, but we should be very thankful we are as well off as we are. We, in this country, have enough for ourselves and enough left over for the rest of the world, so who wouldn't be thankful to live in a country like this. But there are some who are not thankful we have all this.

Ruth Baker stopped in and said her son had ordered an electric corn popper—she took the best one I had—now that is something all you people who sit up watching television at night need—an electric corn popper.

Our loafers are getting more and more, but some of them turn out to be customers. I thought Delaney Johnson was a loafer today, but first thing I knew he had a Jamesway catalogue looking at stall partitions for his stanchions—said he would need about ten. Howard Stephenson, another loafer, brought in his electric percolator to be repaired. Arnold Maxwell was sitting behind that big stove looking at it snow outside, and I thought another loafer, but he wanted fluorescent tubes. We had a lot of hunting license customers and we also sold a lot of shells, but not like when we sold them for 75 cents a box.

James O'Malley just came in and said he had finished stripping tobacco—several are just about through and of course some have never started, and they are the ones who make the squawk if the market goes down at the end of the season—they have been fooling around.

Mrs. Alice Hughes and Thomas Guard came up after a 40-ft. belt for their hamstermill. Howard Feldhus came over and picked out a coal heater for Mrs. Bettie Fitharris—Ray wrapped it up good to keep the snow off and delivered it down on U. S. 42 by Duck Head.

Lindsey Brasher sent over after enough wiring material to wire the new house he is building for his daughter and son-in-law. Loretta Phillips and her daughters have moved on High St. They were in buying linoleum rugs and window shades.

We have the best two oil heaters made—Perfection and Siegler—won't you give one of them a try? The Perfection has a blower that blows the hot air on the floor—it also has that "pilot light" that you can turn your stove on if the weather warms up and it will burn 36 hours on a gallon of oil—you never have to turn it out! also this Perfection has a porcelain cabinet. Ask Joe Kennedy over at Verona, he just started using one this season, also that Siegler stove has a blower built on it that draws the air down through the burner and blows it out on the floor. When the blower is running a part of this forced air goes through your burner which causes faster combustion and makes greater heat; it also has an oil porcelain cabinet and the heaviest oil heater made, and when that cast iron burner ring gets hot you really get the heat. If you are having heat troubles, call Conrad Hardware, or for any other troubles, give us a call.

KENTUCKIANS IN WASHINGTON

by Gil Kingsbury

The big event this week as far as Kentuckians in Washington are concerned was the arrival of a new Senator.

Senator Earle C. Clements was presented to the Vice President shortly after noon on Monday. The ceremony took place in the temporary senate chamber which years ago was occupied by the Supreme Court. Naturally, the tiny place was packed.

After he had received the oath of office and signed the membership book presented him by Chief Senate Clerk Emory Frazier of Whitesburg, Ky., Senator Clements was congratulated by his new colleagues. Many of them, like Clinton Anderson, former Secretary of Agriculture, had served with him in the Lower House.

Some Figures:

The Secretary of the Senate had some interesting figures on the senate races in Kentucky during the past ten years.

The majority gained by Senator Clements in the November election was the largest scored by a winner in any of the mid-term senatorial races of the past decade. For example:

1942—Happy Chandler defeated Richard Colbert by 41,000 votes.

1946—John Sherman Cooper defeated John Y. Brown by approximately the same margin, 41,000 votes. Cooper polled 53.4 per cent of the vote.

1950—Earle C. Clements defeated Charles I. Dawson by 55,000 votes. Clements polled 54.6 per cent of the vote.

A Biography:

The Washington Evening Star, a Republican newspaper, carried an article on the new Senator the other day. We believe you will be interested in what it said about the new lawmaker from the Blue Grass. Here it is, in part:

"The new Senator, 54, is an amiable middle-aged man in political thought. He backs the Truman foreign policy but is inclined to shake his head over some of the Fair Deal domestic policies of the administration."

"While in the House, he was a member of the Agriculture Committee, where he frequently called on his earlier experience as a farmer and agriculture student at the University of Kentucky. He was a supporter of Rural Electrification. He also served on the Post Office and Civil Service Committee."

"Mr. Clements, during his legislative career, also favored increased lending power for the Commodity Credit Corporation, repeal of the poll tax, Federal reorganization, the school lunch program."

"He voted to uphold the presidential veto of the Taft-Hartley labor law."

"Mr. Clements, who takes over a Senate seat once held by Vice President Barkley, was born October 22, 1896, in Morganfield, Ky. He joined the Army in 1917, emerging after World War I as an infantry captain. He is married and has one daughter."

Forrest Irving of Metcalfe county used gas heaters to save his tobacco crop from spoiling in the barn.

A county-wide forest fire protection program is being developed in Laurel county.

Andy Thompson of Boyd county is reclaiming strip-mined land by putting out kudzu crowns and sowing sweet clover and lespedeza.

Almost all Estill county farmers following the cow-and-calf plan report an income of $150 per cow.

Piner PTA Meeting

The Piner P. T. A. held its monthly meeting Thursday night, Nov. 16 at 8:00 p. m. Before the program the parents were invited to visit all the rooms and observe some work of the children.

The program for the evening was as follows: "A Short Greeting," and "Fun With Books," by the first grade whose teacher is Mrs. William Goshorn. Songs and a skit was given by the second grade, which also used pictures they had made to explain their skit. The teacher is Miss Virginia Rowlette. "A Day With the Book People," was given by the 3rd grade, in costume. The teacher of this group is Mrs. Eldred Steinhauer. "Paul Nixon's Song Shop," by the 4th grade, was based on a television program and directed by the teacher, Mrs. James Bailey. The fifth grade gave "Scenes from Pilgrim Times," using costumes, and their teacher is Mrs. Irene Cross.

Two skits, "Courtship" and "A Day In A Modern School Room," were given by the 6th grade, whose teacher is William E. Brown. G. E. Shackelford, Kenton County Coordinator, gave a short talk.

A committee was appointed to select and order the playground equipment for the school. William Brown, Mrs. Malcolm Oliver and Carl Justice are on this committee.

After the program, refreshments were served to 350 members and guests present.

ARTIFICIAL BREEDING BEATS KEEPING SIRS

The cost involved in breeding cows artificially, in the system used in Kentucky, consists first of membership and assessment fees, which are paid only once, says a new circular on artificial breeding, published by the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky.

The life-time membership is $3 and the cow assessment fee is $1 per each cow signed up for breeding. If a farmer decides to breed more cows than the number for which he has paid assessments, he merely pays an additional $1 for each cow added.

The regular breeding payment is $5, paid at the time the cow is bred. Two additional services may be given without further charge. After that, however, there is a charge of an additional $2.

In most herds it is probable that artificial breeding is cheaper than owning bulls. Also it makes available some of the best sires of the dairy breeds.

Between 4,000 and 5,000 acres of improved permanent pastures in Caldwell county are being seeded this fall to fescue, orchard grass and Ladino clover.

Approximately 110,000 broad-breasted turkeys are being matured in Clark county.

Kenton House is the only warehouse in Covington, Kentucky. We are located one block west of the Kentucky end of the Suspension Bridge, Route 25 (Dixie Hi'way)

This warehouse is run by men who grow tobacco. Your crop will be graded by experienced tobacco men. If you have never sold on the Covington Market, let us prove to you that we do get as much or more, grade for grade, as any market in the Burley Belt. Our aim is to get the highest price for your tobacco.

All growers are treated alike, regardless of the size of the crop. Our new skylights give better light, which means higher prices to you.

Earl Carpenter and wife of Kensington, were recent guests of his brother, Eldridge, and wife.

Rev. Don Hopkins, pastor of the Union and Richwood Presbyterian churches, was calling on Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Tanner, recently.

Geo. C. Goode of Covington was a recent caller in the R. E. Tanner home.

Mrs. Eva Delahunty entertained recently with a six o'clock dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith and son, Mr. Ella Weaver and Miss Alice Eggleston.

Recent guests of the Geo. B. Millers were Miss Betty Poer of Covington, and Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Graham of Park Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Lutes were guests of Mrs. Lutes' parents in Lexington, Sunday of last week.

Mrs. William P. McEvoy and son, Dennis Patrick, were guests of Mrs. John Guntaring and children, one day recently.

Mrs. Martha Richards and son, Jerry, of Covington, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Aylor of Gunpowder, one day recently.

Sympathy is extended the Markesbery family in the passing of Geo. Markesbery.

Mrs. Edna Courtney has accepted a position at Southern Trails Restaurant, formerly Acadia Inn.

Robert L. Tanner was a recent guest of his father, A. G. Tanner.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Corbin of Covington were guests of relatives Saturday evening of last week and attended the turkey supper at the Fire Hall.

Because of her 4-H club sewing excellence, Ruth Oppenier was selected to make a United Nations flag in Jackson county.

Hurston Hurt of Lawrence county harvested more than 1,200 pounds of Ky. 31 fescue seed from a planting made in August, 1949.

WET SEASON HITS TOBACCO HARVEST

County Agent Stuart Brabant reported extreme damage to all types of tobacco in Todd county, due to continued wet weather. Many of the crops burned up in the field and others rotted, he said. Many crops of dark tobacco were not cut.

Said Brabant: "Careful estimates indicate a loss of 60 percent of the fired tobacco, 50 percent of the one-stucker and 30 percent of the burley. This will have a serious effect on farm income."

Disease, scalding, lice and lack of proper cultivation reduced Webster county's tobacco crop about half, County Agent R. H. Ellis reported. Parts of many fields and some entire fields were not cut. Wet weather also caused heavy hay losses and delayed corn planting until late June, Ellis stated.

"The worst tobacco year in history," Gallatin county farmers told Earl Noffsinger, county agent. All crops not cured with coke house, burned. Farmers who used coke said they never would be without it again. Despite unfavorable conditions, Noffsinger thought the crop would be about average for Gallatin county.

Some Scott county farmers hauled coke from West Virginia, in an effort to save their crops, H. S. Long, county agent, reported. Long received many inquiries about curing. Scott farmers who tried Burley No. 1 told the county agent it would be light in weight. Early in the season it out-grew old varieties, but had narrower leaves and more suckers.

You'd Give Them the World If You Could ...this Christmas You Can!

FOR YOUR FAMILY, Christmas 1950 can be the most wonderful Christmas ever... or ever to come.

For never, before television, could you give your loved ones all the whole wide world...

- the exciting world where history happens before your eyes—and the news has meaning as never before
- the world of adventure, where a little girl can be a princess, and a six-year-old boy can tame the West on horseback
- the world of knowledge, where learning is fun, and no one wants to "play hooky"

- the world of sports where champions teach sportsmanship as well as skill
- the world of laughter, which sweeps away the day's cares like a broom
- the world of great music and culture—a world of inspiration and re-awakened faith

Yes, these golden hours are yours to share when you're a television family... but lost forever if you delay.

Never before in all history has there been such entertainment for all the family at so modest a price. Place your order for a TV set now—for this is the Christmas you can give the world to your family.

With TV
this magic world is theirs to enjoy
every day!

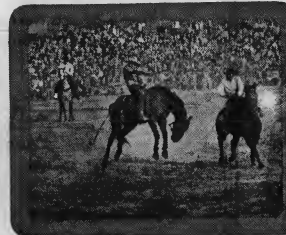

TELEVISION is moving faster than you think. New programs, new stars make their debut every week. The longer you wait, the more you miss! Here's just a partial list.

CHILD PERFORMERS. Talented singers, dancers, musicians inspire your own children to learn faster, practice longer, willingly cultivate their own talents.

DRAMA for young and old—The brightest stars of the theatre now perform to millions—bring the great plays of all time to audiences who never before could see them.

ADVENTURE—American kids have "gone west" and taken their parents along. Rootin', tootin' westerns are fun for all—stimulate a healthy love of outdoor life.

LAUGHTER under your roof—the shared pleasure that binds your family closer. The greatest comedians of the entertainment world are in your living room every night on TV.

THE WONDERFUL world of make-believe—Experts say every child needs it as part of his normal development. And it makes mother's life a lot easier—especially on rainy days.

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt

United States Delegate to The General Assembly of the United Nations says:

"To me television offers a magnificent opportunity to increase the education which we make available to the children of today. If parents will supervise carefully the type of show and the time spent by children watching television, they can see the light that television has to offer, which can bring much enjoyment and which that will be valuable in their education. Of course, I am a firm believer in the supervision of children's reading habits, and now that we have television, I think that the same thing should be true for television. It is a parent's duty to see to it that the children get the best in books and the best in television entertainment and education."

Killing and Curing Pork Is Very Important Item; Expertly Explained

By Bill Davis, County Agent

Pork is an important item of food for the farm family. The annual per capita consumption of pork by rural people is greater than that of all other meats. Since pork is so important, I would like to take a few minutes to remind you of some of the more important things to keep in mind during killing and curing.

First class pork can be prepared only from well finished hogs of the proper size. Hogs well finished and weighing from 175 to 225 pounds make the best meat. Cuts from the heavier hogs are poor in quality because of the high percentage of fat. Another reason for favoring medium size hogs is that the amount of feed required to produce a pound of gain increases as the animal increases in weight.

Elaborate equipment for butchering is not necessary, but the equipment available should be in first class condition before hog-killing is undertaken. Check scalding vats or barrels for leaks and have sharp knives of quality steel.

Hogs may be killed almost any time after Thanksgiving. It is not necessary to wait for freezing weather. Temperatures of 36 to 38 degrees are sufficiently cool. The carcass must be thoroughly chilled before the cuts are put into cure or loss will result.

In the preparing a hog for killing, it is best to fast the animal for 24 hours, but allow it free access to water. Water will keep the hog quiet and at the same time aid in emptying the entrails. Rough handling of the animal should be avoided as bruised meat quickly deteriorates. Avoid chasing the animal, as this causes it to become overheated and when killed in this condition, will not bleed well. Blood mars the appearance of the cuts and causes them to spoil quickly.

Many hogs are killed by shooting. This method of killing may result in a carcass not thoroughly bled. For the same reason, knocking in the head is an unsatisfactory method of killing. The ideal way of killing is to hang the hog by the hind legs and stick it. Sticking a hog in this position is very simple and will result in a thoroughly bled animal.

A narrow sharp pointed knife about six inches long is excellent for sticking. Make the incision directly in front of the breast bone with the knife pointed toward the root of the tail and held parallel to the backbone. Insert the knife just deep enough to sever the large veins and arteries of the neck. Sticking the heart is undesirable, for if the muscular action of the heart is interfered with, it will not force the blood from the smaller blood vessels. Be sure to keep the knife in direct line with the backbone to avoid sliding to the shoulder, which will result in waste trimmings and a poor keeping shoulder.

If a scalding vat is used to scald the hog, water should be between 145 and 150 degrees Fahrenheit. For barrel scalding, temperatures of 155 to 160 degrees is proper. Water that is too hot will set the hair. To aid in removing scurf, one heaping tablespoon of lye to each barrel of water should be used. When the hair at the flanks slips easily, the scalding is complete. If a barrel is used for scalding, scald the rear end of the hog first. If the hair sets, it is easier to remove from the hindquarter than from the forequarter.

A bell scraper is the best implement for dehairing. Other implements such as corn knives, hoes, bricks and even the hands can be used. The hair from the head, legs and feet is hardest to remove and should be scraped first. Scrape the rest of the body the way the hair lies. Remove the toes by a quick, hard pull with an iron hog hook inserted beneath the upper edge of the hoof.

After the outside of the animal is cleaned and hung up, there are several ways of removing the entrails, any one of which is satisfactory. The only precaution to be used here is work carefully to avoid opening the entrails. Rinse the carcass with cold water to remove all blood stains.

The leaf fat is easier to remove when the carcass is warm. It also hastens chilling of the carcass. The carcass should also be split along the backbone to hasten chilling. This may be done with a saw or an axe.

After the carcass is chilled and cut, the meat must be cured. There are several ways of curing meat, such as the molasses, sugar cure, the brine cure, the dry salt cure and the dry sugar cure. Salt when used alone tends to harden the muscle fibers, sugar preserves the juiciness of the meat and keeps the fibers soft. Saltpepper is more astringent than salt and should be used only in sufficient amounts to maintain the rich red color of meat. All good meat curing mixtures should contain salt, sugar and saltpepper.

The dry sugar cure is widely used and results in excellent meat. It is made by mixing 7½ pounds of salt, 2½ pounds of sugar and two ounces of saltpepper, this being the amount required for 100 pounds of meat. Divide the mixture in three parts. Rub one part on the meat and pack in a container. Three days later, part on the second portion. Let the meat cure three days and rub on the remaining portion of the mixture. Remove the lighter pieces of meat, such as shoulders and bacon in ten to twelve days. Pieces weighing more than twenty pounds should be left in 1½ days for each pound of weight. After curing, wash the meat in lukewarm water and smoke. Proper curing temperature is 36 to 40 degrees F.

Smoking meat colors, flavors and dries the cured pork and allows the development of tenderness. Hang the cured meat and allow to drip overnight, and then smoke with a hardwood fire or corn cobs. Never use pine. Heat the smoke house to 100 to 120 degrees F. Smoke until the meat has the desired color.

After the cuts have been smoked, they should be wrapped in heavy paper and placed in heavy cloth bags and tied securely. Do not stick a wire through the bag to hang up the meat as this will leave an opening for insects to enter.

There are two things to remember in rendering lard. First, cook the lard until thoroughly done to remove moisture, and second, do not render underglades with better grades of lard. Moisture and under glands are two prominent causes of loss of lard.

Extension Circular, 261, published by the College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky, gives all the details of killing, cutting and curing pork.

Homemakers clubs in Pike county made and displayed seven United Nations flags on United Nations Day, October 24.

Thomas Holland of Fleming county has built a brooder house to care for 5,000 broiler chicks he has started.

In Woodford county, homemakers received their orders of 4,000 tulip and daffodil bulbs for November planting.

Boys Town Bourbon Bees To Compete for $1,000.00

When Kentucky plays host to the Fifth Annual Bourbon Beef Show at Louisville's Bourbon Stock Yards, December 5 and 6, the State of Nebraska will have its heart pulling for a bunch of youngsters from a unique little town just west of Omaha. They'll be "citizens" from Father Flanagan's Boys' Home at Boys Town, Nebraska.

This unique home for homeless boys of any race or creed was founded by Father Flanagan several decades ago. One of the more recent projects of "Boys Town" is a farm featuring purebred livestock of all kinds. "Boys Town" will bring six "Bourbon Bees" to Louisville to compete for the Grand Championship of $1,000. The Bourbon Beef Show is open for the first time to "Bourbon Bees" from states other than Kentucky and more than six hundred head have been entered from eight states. The show has 47 premiums totalling $5,000. All cattle in the show are fattened on balanced rations containing distillers dried grains or distillers dried solubles which makes them eligible to show as "Bourbon Bees."

Feedstuff Markets Average Higher
Feedstuff markets advanced about 3 points during the week ended November 21, reflecting principally gains in corn byproduct feeds and cottonseed meal, reports to the Kentucky and United States Departments of Agriculture indicate. Wheat millfeeds were down $1.00-2.00 per ton with offerings plentiful. Corn feeds on the other hand, advanced $1.00-2.00 plus a further increase of $1.50 per ton in gluten feed. Linseed meal averaged slightly lower and soybean meal slightly higher while cottonseed meal made sharp gains reflecting strength in the cotton market. The index of wholesale feedstuff prices advanced a little more than 3 points to 2277.1 compared with 2116 a year ago. The feed grain index declined about 2 points to 218.9 against 179.8 a year ago.

Piner Homemakers

The Piner Homemakers Club met for the November meeting in the Lodge Hall at Fiskburg, with members bringing a covered dish luncheon.

Mrs. Wm. Wolterman, president, was in charge. The meeting opened with members reading the Club Collect in unison. After a report of all committees, roll call was answered with "What Thanksgiving Means to Me." Mrs. Willard Shropshire was chosen as delegate to Farm and Home Week. The club voted to get general purpose greeting cards to sell to help increase club funds.

Mrs. Willard Shropshire, program chairman, read the 100th Psalm. The story of the first Thanksgiving was read by Mrs. Malcolm Oliver. Magazines brought by members were exchanged. Mrs. Ray Linder and Mrs. Ralph Kinman were in charge of the Christmas gift suggestion display. Several members gave highlights of the annual meeting. All reported a very enjoyable day.

Mrs. Carl Justice gave the lesson on "Exterior Beautification," giving pointers on the planting of bulbs and suggested burning all old flower stalks to destroy insect pests. The lesson on the "Wise Use of Credit and Insurance" was given, Mrs. D. Fleck and Mrs. E. H. Spaulding, being the leaders.

Those present were Mrs. William Wolterman, Mrs. Charles Flynn, Mrs. Roy Tomlin, Mrs. Ralph Kinman, Mrs. Arlie Tungate, Mrs. Steve Rich, Mrs. Frank Elliott, Mrs. Foster Bridges, Mrs. E. H. Spaulding, Mrs. John Dwyer, Mrs. A. Pelzari, Mrs. Chester Mullins, Mrs. Fred McMillan, Mrs. Dewey Fleck, Mrs. Malcolm Oliver, Mrs. Willard Shropshire, Mrs. Ray Linder and Mrs. Carl Justice.

RICH, POOR ALIKE IN CALCIUM NEED

Forty percent of American families need more calcium in their diets, 20 percent more vitamin-B-and-C foods and about 10 percent more protein and iron, according to a survey made by the United States Department of Agriculture. Attention is called to the report by Mrs. Pearl Haak, specialist in foods at the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky.

Some of the nutritional lack, particularly calcium, is found throughout all income levels.

At the first annual Pulaski county Angus show and sale, 381 head of registered Aberdeen Angus cattle were sold for a total of $14,635.

Beautiful Wedding

In a beautiful wedding ceremony at Independence Christian Church, Thanksgiving evening, Charles W. Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis of McMullan Drive, and Miss Dolores Ray of Cincinnati, were united in marriage. The community wishes the newlyweds much happiness.

Mrs. Katherine Krotz Passes

Mrs. Katherine Collin Krotz, 83-year-old mother of two doctors, the grandmother of another doctor, and the widow of a doctor, died last week at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington, after a four-day illness.

She was the grandmother of Dr. Robert Collin Krotz of Independence.

Marriage License Issued

A marriage license was issued at Independence, to Charles W. Davis, 18, Independence, and Dolores Ray, 16, Cincinnati; also to Nathan Brewster, 67, and Verona Artie Tomlin, 68, Mt. Zion, Ky.

Hunting Licenses

To date, Thanksgiving, the Deputy Clerk, George Damon, has issued a total of 142 hunting licenses. Eighty-three were county licenses and 59 were state-wide. These were all issued in four days, Nov. 17-18-20-21.

Bad Weather

Some of the old timers say that this the worst they ever saw around here. It hurt Sunday school and church attendance at Independence. It was reported that attendance fell to 21 in the Christian church and to 22 in the Baptist church, in the Sunday schools.

Rally Day Sunday

The Baptists of Independence are striving for 250 in Sunday school, Sunday, which is Rally Day.

Supposed Dead Man—Alive

Louis Zamperini of California, a former Olympic runner, who ditched his plane off Oahu, Hawaii during World War II and drifted 2,000 miles in 47 days on a life raft, was picked up by a Japanese vessel. He was a prisoner for two years, being starved and tortured. He was forced to run against the best miller in Japan, and though weak and undernourished, he won.

At home he was given up for dead and his own death certificate was signed by President Roosevelt.

Zamperini left Japan with hatred in his heart for his captors but was saved last year in one of Billy Graham's meetings in Los Angeles.

"There is such a change in my life, I feel I have a duty to perform. That duty is to return to Japan and tell them of the saving power of the Lord Jesus Christ. For now I believe it is Christ or Communism for the nations—Christ or atomic annihilation for the world. Our only remedy for these threats is Christ for the individual."

Zamperini is now in Japan with a list of his Japanese guards and captors, and a Bible. He says he has returned to seek out the persons who mistreated him and win them to the Saviour.

This case is an example of the transforming power of the gospel of Christ. The Saviour grants forgiveness of sins, deliverance from judgment, the gift of eternal life, and the Holy Spirit and also implants a desire in the heart to see even one's enemies saved and enjoying the same spiritual blessings.

Beechgrove Homemakers

The Beechgrove Homemakers met at the Latonia Gun Club, November 16, with Mrs. Carrel McFarland presiding. Eleven members answered roll call to "What Thanksgiving Means to Me." Mrs. Edward Sterling was welcomed into the club as a new member. Hostesses were Mrs. F. M. Powers and Mrs. Frank Lynskey.

The lesson on "Wise Use of Credit" was given by Mrs. George Schadler and Mrs. Howard Clark. A booklet, "Use of Credit by Kentucky Farm Families" by Ida C. Hagman and Carl M. Clark, was distributed, together with a pamphlet, "Primer for Women Investors."

Citizenship chairman, Mrs. Wm.

Endres, completed arrangements for the collection of magazines and papers, the proceeds to be used for sending packages overseas.

Plans for the annual Christmas party, to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Lee, Saturday evening, January 6, were discussed, and the committee in charge is Mrs. F. M. Powers, chairman; Mrs. Gus Schadler, Mrs. Louis E. Lee, Mrs. William Endres and Mrs. H. L. Clark. The 1949-50 100% members, Mrs. W. Clinkenbeard, Mrs. W. Endres, Mrs. W. P. Meyers, Mrs. Carrel McFarland, Mrs. F. M. Powers and Mrs. Gus Schadler were honored by the non-100% members and each given a gift. Congratulations were extended Mrs. F. M. Powers, newly-elected treasurer of the Kenton County Homemakers' Association.

A collection was taken to be donated toward the purchase of an Iron Lung by the Covington Fire Department.

Secret Sisters were revealed and new ones drawn for the coming season. Reading chairman, Mrs. F. M. Powers, read an item, "Thought for Thanksgiving." The social hour was conducted by the recreation chairman, Mrs. Frank Lynskey, who closed the meeting by reading an article "Thought of the Month" by Roberta Halcomb, and the 121st Psalm.

Oak Island Homemakers

The Oak Island Homemakers held their November meeting on the 6th, and it was well attended. Those present were: Mrs. Frank Jackson, Mrs. Sherman Barberick, Mrs. Robert Wainwright, Mrs. Walter Linville, Mrs. Claude Taylor, Mrs. Russell Rector, Mrs. Frank Lipscomb, Mrs. Ruth Schmidt, Miss Olen Douglas, Miss Alma Stephens and Miss Nell Neihoff.

The lesson was given by Miss Stephens and Mrs. Barberick. Miss Neihoff gave the lesson on "Exterior Beautification." The club is to bake cup cakes for the County Home and delivered them Nov. 15.

Most of those present had read First and Second Corinthians. Members are to read the Constitution of the United States and study the chief topics in it before the December meeting.

Several of those present attended the annual meeting and reported a good meeting, with many interesting talks and beautiful displays.

Seventy-five or more Mercer county farmers will grow the Vigo variety of wheat next year.

Gunpowder Homemakers

The November meeting of the Gunpowder Homemakers Club was held recently in the home of Mrs. Edgar Utzinger.

Mrs. Bert Marksberry, program chairman, read the scripture, and also the poem of the month. A paper on fall planting was read by Mrs. Utzinger, landscape chairman.

Plans were made for the Christmas party, to be held in the home of Mrs. Frank Dils, December 5.

The lesson on "Alteration of Patterns," was given by Mrs. Bert

Marksberry and Mrs. Glenn Stevens. Attending the meeting were: Mesdames Cliff Norman, Bert Marksberry, Wm. Oliver, Robert Smith, Virgil Kelly, Kenneth Connors, Sr., Wm. Ferguson, Glenn Stevens, B. M. Stevens, Miss Nancy McCluskey, the home agent, Miss Elva Hughes, and the hostess, Mrs. Utzinger.

Mrs. Noah Crider, Harlan county homemaker, grew 10 varieties of greens and a cover crop as the third crop produced on her garden this year.

Stewardship of Life

Lesson for December 3, 1950

"WHAT'S the death rate here?" asked the stranger. "Same as everywhere," retorted the native son, "one to a person." Only one to a person, because there is only one life to a person. If you had nine lives or even two, you might afford to waste one (though it's doubtful). But with only one life you simply cannot afford to waste it. Of course you do waste it, in thousands of little ways; and some of these are not helped. But if a faucet leaks, that's no excuse for turning the water on full blast.

God Wants You
WITH all due respect to the arrangers of these lessons, the lesson for last week and this one seem to be in the reverse order from what is logical. It is very doubtful whether any one ever understood stewardship of money who did not understand stewardship of life first. Now in almost any church you may hear people singing, "Were the whole realm of nature mine, That were a present far too small; Love so amazing, so divine, Demands my soul, my life, my all!"

Very good; wonderful. Surely these are a devoted brotherhood! But wait, what is this coming down the aisle? A man with a collection plate! Now we shall see... There's a man putting in a quarter, and there's a prosperous-looking lady laying out a five dollar bill. (She bought a $50 cat last week.) But who is putting in his soul, his life, his all? Oh well, they didn't mean what they sang. But isn't it more than half hypocritical to sing one way and "give" another?

The whole realm of nature is not yours to give; but you do have a life; and God wants it. More than he wants what we have, he wants what we are. God created you; God redeemed you; as Paul says, "You are not your own, you were bought with a price."

Not for Preachers Only
A COMMON mistake is to think that a Christian has a choice between being a preacher and not being one. If he decides to give his life to God then he will be a preacher; otherwise he keeps his life for himself.

This is absurd, when you think about it. God has the first claim on every man's life. To be a Christian is to recognize this claim. He has not a bit more claim on the preacher or the missionary than he has on the grocer or the farmer's wife. Stewardship of life means recognizing God's right, it means living your life in partnership with God.

"Who sweeps a room as for Thy laws Makes that and the action fine."
sang a poet long ago. God certainly does not want all his children to be preachers. But he does want his children to live AS his children; and that means stewardship of life.

Stewardship of Time
PICKING up again a thought from last week: Time is the raw material of life. Stewardship of life means stewardship of time. It means spending each day as if God had personally said to you: "Here are 24 fresh, new, unused hours. I shall want them back. You cannot keep them. I shall look at them to see what you have done with them."

What do you do with your time? Does it count for God, or against him? And yet — how many Christians there are who if asked to do some kind thing, some simple act of mercy or friendliness, something to help some one else, something that may cost them a little trouble, — how many will say, "Sorry, I'm busy, haven't the time!"

Gift Without the Giver is Bare
JUST put together four sentences from the four sections of the Scripture for this week, and you have the whole business of stewardship of life in a nutshell: "Having gifts, let us use them." "First they gave themselves to the Lord." "Honor such men." "My God will supply every need of yours." No one ever used for God in the service of man any gift which God did not more than repay. The gift without the giver is bare — and so is the giver. But giver and gift, devoted in love to God and man, are rich indeed.

YOUR TIME IS GOD'S TIME

When asked to prepare a statement concerning the proper use of time, a group of young people came up with these words:

"Your time is God's time."

Grown-ups may well heed this truth.

One's time is really not one's own. Even though budgeted to include only such things as business, golf, gardening, travel or what not, it is still God's time.

And when we fail to include in our time budget a few hours for the Church and its constructive program, then the One from whom we get all the time we have is being ignored and we are losing priceless returns.

Time given to the Church and the enterprises for which it stands is an investment that pays dividends for all the other worthwhile things we have to do.

Try it. Take an interest in some Church—in the Bible—in an activity on the high level of service to others—and see how much more productive all of your time will be.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of a character and good citizenship. It is a schoolhouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

SNOWBOUND!

Who said they wanted to have an old fashion winter? Well, I believe we are having it—starting last Saturday. It snowed and snowed. I have lived in Walton 25 years, but I never saw the snow so deep on Main Street before.

We sold oil heaters, coal heaters, electric heaters, gas heaters and wood heaters; also stove pipe, window glass cloth, caulking compound and weather strip. I don't think I can remember all who bought heaters, as we sold about 25 of all kinds.

Lawrence Madden sent after that beautiful Perfection portable heater with Pyrex chimney and porcelain cabinet. Russell Baker called for us to bring him a large size Anchor coal heater. Henry Lipscomb bought a coal and wood heater but it snowed so much and the roads were so bad we could not deliver it Saturday—this is the first time the weather ever stopped us.

Mr. Lule Grimes called for me to send her two of the drop-in type automatic water heaters for her chicken fountains—they keep the water 55 degrees. Leslie Hoffman also needed some of these heaters. The more warm water a hen drinks the more eggs she will lay—they only cost $3.95.

We sold out of Mortite Caulking compound—it sure stops the cracks around windows. Moss Vandalingham bought one G. E. electric heater. Red Belcher bought two Arvin electric heaters. Raymond Denny bought a blow torch and Perfection portable heater—I never saw so many people wanting gloves, especially those Wolverine—they are the best in the work gloves.

Wm. Roberts, down on Ellis farm, bought a Perfection fuel oil heater; Stanley Ashcraft got a clean fuel oil heater to heat his bedroom. A fellow came in after a slop jar, or combinet as we call them, for a widow lady—she told him not to tell me or I would put it in the paper.

This was oil heater day—Elmer and Dorothy Greger had us put them in one of those fine Perfection oil heaters—while Ray was delivering this Perfection. Mr. and Mrs. Frank West, who live on Locust Street, came in and bought a large Siegler oil heater—when you need a lot of heat, buy Siegler or Perfection, they are the best in oil heaters.

Mrs. Lloyd Marsh and Mrs. Cleve Marsh were getting ready to kill hogs, buying lard cans and other hardware items. This afternoon Mrs. Lloyd Marsh came back and bought ten lined yards of that Armstrong linoleum.

Art Smith was having oil stove troubles, but Chick sold him a new Perfection burner and wick and his troubles were over.

W. C. Brown from Bracht came in with a belt to put lard on, also an electric heater to repair while he was here he bought a lot of screen glass to put over his windows to keep out the cold, also a new belt.

Lassing Huey and Tommy were over after a Jamesway 8-gallon electric water fountain for their chickens—this is the best piece of poultry equipment you can buy—they keep the water at 55 degrees all the time. Mrs. Joe Neumeister bought the same kind of fountain, but she got the kerosene lamp to heat the water as Buck Gross had torn the wires down going to her poultry house with his truck, and Joe has not put them back up yet. Joe Kennedy just came in and bought a blow torch to thaw out his water pipe.

Jake and Emily Cleek were in today but I did not have time to talk to them. Bert Huffman died and was buried Tuesday—he and his wife died about ten days apart—they were fine people, but the good ones are always the ones who die.

Spurgeon Rich from Piner came in after some daylight bulbs to strip tobacco by, but we sold him one of those fluorescent lights, which give more light and use less current.

The Walton Rotary Club is sponsoring our Christmas street lighting and Christmas tree by having a picture show December 6 at the James Theater—if anyone tries to sell you a ticket, don't fall to buy one—if you have to give it away—for we all want our town all lighted up for Christmas.

The tobacco market opened this week, so there will be a lot of tobacco sold before Christmas—we all should have a large Christmas, as it looks like now we are going to have plenty of snow. All of our very bad winters have started early, like this one.

Mr. and Mrs. Brady who operate the Chicken Roost over on the L.L. Highway, were in after weatherstrip, light bulbs, fluorescent tubes and spotlights. If you need light bulbs, we have a very nice stock of Westinghouse, all sizes.

If you need cheap electric motors for your sausage mill or tool grinder, we have a few left at the old price. How about a two-horse sled for $55.00 or a one-horse sled for $35.00, all ready to hook to. Also have one 75-bushel Cobey power take-off manure spreader for $375.00, the new price is $435.00 and there won't be another ten per cent after January 1st—if you farmers buy it now you can take it off this year's income tax.

Vinyl Armstrong, manager of the Walton Feed Mill, bought his two boys a single barrel 29-gallon each. Don Wood spent a long time repairing his tire chains so he can go to Piner—he seems to stay over there a lot. We sold Otis Rednour a new mail box and put his name on both sides.

Mrs. Belle Breese, who bought Stanley Robinson's house over on Highway 18, beyond Verona, also had her mail box fixed up with her name on it. Well, this has been some week, one lot of us will not forget for years, but we have tried very hard to help those in need of heat and any other ways we possibly could.

Always depend on CONRAD... We sure have loads now!

Dr. B. R. Lakin to Speak at Burlington School, December 14

Dr. B. R. Lakin, pastor of Cade Tabernacle, Indianapolis, Ind., will conduct a one-night revival in the Burlington school building on the night of December 14, at 7:45 p. m. This is an invitation to all religious faith to come and have a part in this great night for the Lord. We are hoping to have all pastors to attend this service that possibly can, that we might prove to all that we are the people of God and that we believe in God and that He can lead us out of the troubled hours we are now passing through.

It hardly seems necessary to say a word about Dr. Lakin. He is doing a mighty work for the Lord, not only in his work at the Tabernacle, but also as he goes out and ministers for his Lord in so many places. We feel that we are being favored of God that it is possible to have this great man in our county. He is a man of power with God and men and that is what we need today—someone that can lead us back to think upon God and His love for mankind.

Dr. B. R. Lakin

Special arrangements are being made to seat everyone. We feel that we can seat about seven hundred people by using chairs, and we feel that we can fill this building to overflow. We are extending to all county officials a very special invitation to attend this service. We will arrange for you to sit together. We would like for Dr. Lakin to see a group of men, as officials of the county, who believe in clean citizenship and who practice the upholding of the law in every way possible. Men, you can do much to make this night a glorious success by attending this service.

Edwin Walton would like to have a very fine choir for this service, and is asking that anyone who would like to join in this worthy effort, to come to the Burlington Baptist Church building on Monday night, December 11 at 8 p. m. for the purpose of having a great choir that night. This is an invitation to all choir leaders and their choirs to join together for this great night.

Again, may we set aside this night for the glory of God and His cause and attend in great numbers, this hour for God!

If any desire further information, call Roy Johnson, Burlington 622—Pub. Chm.

Social and Fish Fry, Friday

The public is invited to a social and fish fry to be held at All Saints Church, Verona Road, Walton, on Friday, December 8.

Approximately 200,000 feet of tile were installed by Henderson county farmers this summer.

Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Reffitt, Walton, celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary on September 25, at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Howard McClure of Union, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Reffitt have lived the past 32 years in and around Walton. They moved here from Nicholas county. They are the parents of six children, one having died in infancy.

Those attending the reunion and anniversary dinner were, two daughters and three sons: Mrs. William White of Erlanger, Mrs. Howard McClure of Union, Elmer of Erlanger, Frank of Pikeville, and Ray W. of Florence, and their families. This included eight grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Those attending from a distance were: Miss Gertrude Willis, and J. B. Willis and wife, of Paris, Ky. They are a brother and sister of Mrs. Reffitt.

'Cats Defeat Florence 56-47 For First Basketball Victory

The Walton-Verona High School Bearcats bagged their first basketball win of the season Tuesday night, on the home floor, when they defeated the Florence Knights 56-47. The 'Cats took a 11-point advantage in the first quarter and this lead held up throughout most of the contest. The quarter scores, all in favor of Walton, were: 20-9, 32-24, 45-37, and 56-47.

Stanley was high scorer for the evening with 18 markers. Other high men for Florence were Dinn with 14, and Bethel with 11 points. For Walton, scoring honors were divided by Billy Smith and Dennis Glacken, who had 14 tallies each. Junior Linton added 11, and Don Rice 10 points to the Walton-Verona cause. The rebounding of Smith, freshman center, was an important factor in the Bearcat win.

In the reserve game, Walton was the winner, 28-25.

Colnells Club 'Cats'
Last Friday night the Haysemen went to Dixie Heights, where the Little Colnells gave them a sound clubbing, winning 37-36. The locals were pover really in the ball game, and the Colnells led at the quarters, 12-5, 33-15, 48-24 and 57-36. As the score indicates, Walton did its best work in the final period when they outscored their opponents 12-9.

High pointman of the fray was Hatfield of Dixie, with 18 markers. Jacobs hung up 13, Hageman 12, and True 11 points for the minners. Top man for Walton, was Glacken, who tallied 10 points. Smith and Rice had 8, each.

Dixie's reserves won the opener by a 31-21 score.

GEORGE W. KITE

Services for George William Kite, 71, of Florence, were held Monday at 2:30 p. m. in the Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Florence, with burial in Highland Cemetery.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Nettie Huber Kite.

Vet Representative Coming

F. E. Durvall, Field Secretary for the Kentucky Disabled Ex-Service Men's Board, will be at the City Bldg., Walton, on Wednesday, Dec. 20, 1950, from 8 a. m. until 4 p. m. He comes here for the purpose of aiding veterans and their dependents in filing and processing claims for benefits, as well as give information on any other matter of veterans.

Woman's Day To Be Observed Sunday At Christian Church

The First Christian Church will observe Woman's Day, on Sunday, December 10, at the 11 o'clock worship hour. The Christian Women's Fellowship will assist with the service and the Missionary women and message of the church will have central place in the service. Rev. Gravelly's message will be, "The Christmas Gospel of Light," in which he will challenge the entire membership to accept their responsibility in carrying the "Light of the World" to the uttermost parts of the earth.

At 7:30 p. m., the evening message will be, "The Other Wise Man." The Youth Choir will sing for the evening service. The Adult Choir will sing, "The Holy City," by Adams, at the morning worship hour.

Beginning Sunday, the remainder of December, the congregation will hear messages preparing them for the coming of the Christ Child into their hearts, homes, churches and communities. On December 17, the morning session will be "The Christmas Gifts of the Wise Men."

On Sunday evening, December 17, at 7:30, the annual Christmas pageant, portraying the Birth of Christ, will be given in the church sanctuary. The Junior, Youth and Adult Choirs will sing. The narrator will be Rev. Gravelly. Children, Youth and Adult departments of the church school will participate. James W. Spencer will serve as organist, and Mrs. Foster Guttridge, choir director, will direct the pageant, which she has written. There will be a candle-lighting service at the close of the pageant in which the entire congregation will participate.

On Sunday morning, December 24, Rev. Gravelly's sermon-message will be, "God With Us." Youth and Adult choirs will sing Christmas anthems. In the evening, at 7:30 p. m., the annual Bible School program and Christmas party will be held. Santa Claus will be present with gifts for the children.

If you do not have a church-home in this community, we invite you to attend these services and share in the preparation for the Christmas season of remembrance of the Birth-day of our King and Saviour, Jesus Christ.—Pub. Com.

Baker Sale, December 16

The young people of the Walton Christian Church will sponsor a bakery sale on Saturday, December 16, starting at 11 a. m., in the Hamilton & Jones store. Cakes, pies and candy will be offered.

CHARLES E. KANNADY

Charles Edward Kannady, 68, died in a Shawnee (Okla.) hospital November 28, after an illness of 29 months. He was a retired engineer on the Rock Island Railroad, and a member of Shawnee Lodge, 107, F. and A. M. He died of a cerebral hemorrhage.

Funeral services were held on Friday, December 1. He was a native of Verona.

Mr. Kannady is survived by his wife, Mrs. Sarah Jane Kannady; a daughter, Miss Wilma Kannady, at home; one son, Roy Kannady of Farmersville, La.; two grandsons, Roy, Jr. and Donnie Kannady, and a brother, John C. Kannady, Verona, who attended the funeral.

Kingsbury Named Administrative Aide To Senator Clements

Gilbert W. Kingsbury, Covington, has been named Administrative Assistant to Kentucky's new Senator, Earle C. Clements. It was announced last week by the new lawmaker.

His appointment was made immediately after Senator Clements was given the oath of office by Vice President Barkley.

Kingsbury, Washington correspondent for radio station WLW, was Administrative Assistant to the retiring Kentucky lawmaker, Senator Garrett L. Withers.

Gil Kingsbury

The appointment was made under the "Assistant Senator" clause of the 1946 congressional reorganization bill which was designed to give professional assistance to members of the Upper House.

Kingsbury is a graduate of the University of Kentucky and a former Northern Kentucky newspaperman. Before going to Washington he was a member of the staff of the Kentucky Post, the Cincinnati Post and was news editor for Radio Station WLW. He was also an assistant dean at the University of Cincinnati.

Mr. Kingsbury is a regular contributor to the Advertiser, writing the column, "Kentuckians in Washington."

Baptist Sunday Schools to Meet At Big Bone, Dec. 11

The Boone County Baptist Sunday Schools will hold their December meeting at the Big Bone Baptist Church, Monday night, December 11 at 7:45 p. m. There will be a speaker who will address the group on "Evangelism in the Sunday School." For the first time an efficiency banner will be awarded to the Sunday School having the most number of points, and the cup will be awarded to the group having the largest number present. Cards have already been mailed to the various churches in the county that they may have their report in on time, and should be delivered or handed to the Secretary, Bryan Rector, before the meeting.

The speaker for the evening will be Rev. Kenneth Parks, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Covington.

All members of the various Sunday schools in the county are urged to attend.

Livingston county homemakers are finishing chairs, chests, tables and picture frames.

Prices Higher, Quality Lower In Burley Sales

ALPHA ROGERS

Services were held last Thursday at 2:30 p. m. in the Bellevue Baptist Church for Alpha Rogers, a retired farmer of Bellevue, who died November 28, at his home. He was a director of the Peoples Deposit Bank, Burlington, and the Citizens Deposit Bank, Bellevue.

Mr. Rogers, who was 78, was a twin brother of O. M. Rogers, Erlanger attorney, with offices in Covington. He had been ill for a long time.

He leaves a son, Edward Rogers, Bellevue; three other brothers, J. W. Rogers, Petersburg; W. B. Rogers, Bellevue; and Bernard Rogers, Petersburg; two grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Florence, had charge of arrangements. Burial was in the Bellevue Cemetery.

P. M. A. Elections Today

The PMA Committee Elections scheduled for Tuesday, November 28 were postponed because of the road conditions throughout this county, and are being held today (Dec. 7) with voting from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m.

At these elections Boone County farmers in each community will elect three community committeemen and a delegate to the County Convention.

The delegates will meet at the County office at 10:30 a. m., Friday, December 8, to elect the County Committeemen for next year.

Cliff Pruett Named Chairman of County First Aid Program

Clifford C. Pruett, Walton, has been named chairman of a county-wide first aid program which will be sponsored by the Boone County Chapter of American Red Cross, according to Mrs. Elizabeth Nestor, executive secretary of the local chapter.

A practical first aid course will be offered to all citizens of the county as soon as the program is instituted, Mrs. Nestor said. An instructor from the National Red Cross will visit the county and aid teachers of first aid in preparing and presenting the course to the public. The entire program, one of the greatest of its kind ever undertaken in this county, will be absolutely free to the local chapter and to the public of Boone county.

Precinct chairman for the program will be announced soon, Mr. Pruett stated.

Officers of the Boone County Chapter of American Red Cross are: Dean Bloss, Grant, chairman; W. D. Scroggin, Verona, first vice chairman; John McEvoy, Florence, second vice chairman; Mrs. Robert Eastman, Florence, treasurer; Marge Bloss, Grant, secretary, and Mrs. Nestor, executive secretary.

ETHEL CLEMONS

Ethel Clemons, 47, formerly of Verona, passed away November 24 at the home of Robert Hamon, Route 3, Covington, after having been in ill health for two years.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Queenie Clemons, Covington, R-3, a daughter, Mrs. Robert Hamon, of the Covington address, two brothers, Luther Clemons of Covington, and Clifford Clemons of Sherman, four sisters, Mrs. Lorena Clark of Williamsburg, Mrs. Bertha Elliott of Atwood, Mrs. Ruth Ashcraft of Walton, and Mrs. Elizabeth Stipple of Covington, and two grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 2:00 p. m., November 28, at the Hamilton Funeral Home, Verona, with Robert K. Porter officiating. Burial was in New Bethel Cemetery at Verona.

Union O. E. S. to Meet

O. E. S. Chapter, 461, Union, will meet tonight (Dec. 7) for a regular business meeting.

A Christmas program will be given, and refreshments are to be served. Members and visitors are cordially invited. Miss Frances Barlow, the Worthy Matron, will preside.

Average Prices for Grades $3.00 to $6.00 Per Hundred Higher Than Last Year

First sales for the 1950 Burley tobacco crop were held on Thursday, November 30. According to the Federal-State Market News Service, the general average for the morning sale at Lexington, was estimated at around $50.00 per hundred. In 1949 on opening day 1,888,330 gross pounds were sold on this market for $46.84 per hundred.

Average prices for grades were $3.00 to $5.00 per hundred higher than for early sales last year. Most increases were around $4.00. Leaf increased $3.00 to $4.00; lugs from $3.00 to $6.00; flyers $3.00 to $5.00, and tips from $4.00 to $6.00. The practical top price was $5.00. Occasional baskets of top qualities brought $6.00 per hundred. Most fair and low offerings sold from $30 to $40 and good and better offerings $50 to $60.

Although the tobacco was exceptionally thin in body, the general quality was not as good as on early sales last season. More low qualities and nondescript were marketed and considerably less fair grades. There was some improvement in color. More tan and buff tobacco was sold. There was less of all other colors. Sales were chiefly of low to fair grades, good leaf and lugs and nondescript.

Grades auctioned in heaviest volume averaged $3.00 to $5.00 above their loan values. Receipts of the Association, under the Government loan program, were estimated at 12 to 15 percent of the baskets offered on the morning sale. Last year the consignments on this market for the first day were around 8 percent of sales.

The market was blocked but some warehouses completed sales before noon, necessitating the transfer of the buyers to other houses. The amount of tobacco on the market for an initial sale was the smallest in years.

Sales were originally scheduled to begin Wednesday, November 29. Postponement was made because of the recent heavy snow and icy roads. Last year the season began Monday, November 28.

Draft Board In Boone-co.

A sweeping change was made in the Selective Service set-up last week when orders were received to decentralize the District Office at Warsaw and set up separate boards in the three counties served by Board No. 27, which were Boone, Gallatin and Owen.

In the meantime, Mrs. Walter Smith, Selective Service Clerk, has issued an order that no draft eligible visits the board until the decentralization program has been completed. Men will then visit the board in their county. It is not known, at present, who will serve on the Boone county board.

PATTON-KING

Miss Anna Patton became the bride of Mr. David E. King at Versailles, Indiana, on Monday, November 27, at 2:00 p. m. The Rev. Mr. Gray officiated at the double ring ceremony. Only the immediate family of the bride attended the wedding, due to road conditions.

The young couple had planned a church wedding at the Washington Elrod Baptist Church, near Versailles on Sunday, November 26, but the blizzard and heavy snow prevented the wedding the previous day.

After a short honeymoon, the newlyweds will be at home at 63 McOwen St., Dayton, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. King are graduates of Walton-Verona High School, having lived near Verona.

VEST-REX

Miss Mabel Frances Vest, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Vest, and Mr. Atha Lee Rex, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Rex, both of Zion Station, Ky., were united in marriage by the Rev. R. F. DeMolsey in a double ring ceremony Saturday, December 2.

For the present, they will reside at the home of the groom's parents at Zion Station.

"The New Bethel Baptist Church, Verona, Kentucky, wishes to express thanks to its friends for the giving of their time, money and material. Without the help of the church's friends, the erection of the building would have been retarded. We, as members of the church, are grateful for the part each person has played in the building program.

KENTUCKIANS IN WASHINGTON

by Gil Kingsbury

Here's a question for you:
Did Northern Kentucky ever elect a man to Congress who was a prisoner at the time of the election?

The answer is yes! And the fact is revealed in a publication released this week by Congress, A Biographical Directory of the American Congress.

It is a huge work containing brief histories of every member of Congress since the birth of the Republic. The Prisoner:

John Gaines of Boone County was the lawmaker to represent Northern Kentucky in Washington while still a prisoner.

But the story isn't as bad as it sounds. John Gaines was a prisoner of war, a captive of the Mexicans. While a military prisoner, he was elected to the 40th Congress. He had a remarkable life and one filled with the romance of soldiering and travel.

Rural Lawmakers:

Rural Northern Kentucky has given many a fine man to Congress.

William Butler of Carrollton served way back in 1839 to 43. He was a member of a famous family of soldiers and statesmen. Another to serve this section of the state was Samuel Swope of Pendleton County.

He was in Congress just before the outbreak of the Civil War. Williamamstown and Sherman, in Grant County, also contributed a congressman. William Dickerson served for two terms, 1877 to 1881.

Closer to Today:
Coming closer to our present time, is Arthur B. Rouse. He, too, is from the rural section of Northern Kentucky, Boone County.

He served during the 1920's and today is federal court clerk at Lexington.

All this is in the big directory, a valuable document for students of history.

Presidential Candidate:

The book reveals another interesting fact. Northern Kentucky once had a presidential candidate.

General Green Clay Smith, a Civil War soldier, served in Congress after wounds disabled him for military duty.

Then, after the end of his term of office, he remained in Washington to become a minister.

It was while he was preaching that General Smith, who lived in Covington, decided to run for the presidency. He was the candidate of the Prohibition Party.

And so ends today's history lesson.

Hopkins county farmers are said to like the Wabash variety of soybeans for its good yield and early maturity.

Eleven certified fescue seed growers in Russell county sold 104,000 pounds of seed but were unable to meet the demand.

Boyton Merrill, operator of the H. P. Barret farm in Henderson county, combined 46 bushels of Vigo wheat on an acre on 22 acres.

Eighty tons of hay were saved by William Hayes of Harlan county when he used his homemade barn-loft hay drier.

Marion county homemakers have made a total of 469 bowls, trays and plates of hammered copper during the past two months.

It is estimated that around 3,000 acres of pasture, reclaimed or converted from croplands, have been established in Metcalfe county.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY SYSTEM

"Don't send a boy to do a man's job!"

When there's a man-size transportation job to be done, who gets it? That's right... the railroads!

For example, during World War II, the railroads were given the job of handling 97% of all organized military travel, 90% of the war freight and 70% of all freight moved in this country.

Today, another man-size transportation job is shaping up. And once again the railroads are the only form of transportation "man enough" to handle the great bulk of the job... a job too big for all other carriers combined.

A strong America must have strong railroads. That's why it is in the public interest—your interest—to give railroads every opportunity to be always strong... always ready to do man-size transportation jobs.

Florence

Miss Mary Tanner motored down from Springfield, Ohio in the recent blizzard to visit her sister, Mrs. Virgil Kelly, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Rouse recently were guests in the home of her sister, Lizzie, of Cincinnati, and the party attended the Ice Follies at Cincinnati Gardens.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Barnett, who recently visited friends here for two weeks and relatives at Danville, have returned to their home in Los Angeles, Calif. The Barnetts were former residents near here.

Barbee Simpson of Dayton, Ohio was the victim of a painful accident recently when he stumbled over a fire plug in the snow, causing him to fall. He suffered a compound fracture of the lower right jaw bone and multiple fracture of the left side. He is confined in the Miami Valley Hospital, Dayton, and his friends wish him the best.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dolwick, Jr. and family motored to Chattanooga, Tenn., where they were guests of her sister, Mrs. Homer Eades, and family over the Thanksgiving holidays. However, they were detained on the return trip while the road was being cleared of snow.

Mrs. Richard Keyer of Latonia, visited her mother, Mrs. Eldridge Carpenter, Tuesday of last week.

STAFFORDSBURG

We were very glad to see a good attendance at Sunday school. There is a real interest shown in the work of the church. Let us work and pray that this interest may deepen and broaden to the good of all in our community, and spread in all directions. We have been having such good lessons and discussions in the Sunday school. Come and meet with us—we need you.

We regret to learn of the death on Sunday of Athel Vastine at his home on Taylor Mill Road. He had lived among us for over 40 years, and will be greatly missed by all.

The snow which blocked the roads and kept folks from their work, has swiftly disappeared. We are glad to again see the grass and even the bare brown earth looks good. The snow is beautiful, but rather impractical these days.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hanna and other relatives and friends here were shocked to learn of the death of Clarence Ervin of Middletown, O. Mr. Ervin was returning from Florida, when an automobile accident cost him life, when near Atlanta, Ga. No details available. He always liked to come back to this neighborhood, where he and his wife, the late Nora Cain Ervin, spent their childhood. He will be missed in the days to come.

Mrs. Caroline Armstrong and Harry enjoyed a visit Sunday by her daughter, Alice, and husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hanna and son Jimmie were Sunday guests of his parents. His mother had prepared a feast in honor of Harley's birthday. Best wishes for many returns of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney and son Donald spent Sunday with Misses Alma and Mary Stephens, who had as guests also, Mrs. Jessie Cral and son Ronald.

Mrs. J. F. Arnold has again returned from Booth Hospital, and we hope she will soon be feeling much improved. Her daughter is spending a few days with she and her husband.

Grain Markets Unsettled Due to War Conditions

Grain markets were unsettled during the week ended November 30, influenced by the war situation in Korea. However, price changes were small except for oil seeds, reports to the Kentucky and U. S. Departments of Agriculture indicate.

Wheat markets weakened somewhat under plentiful offerings and cash prices declined slightly at Minneapolis, Kansas City and Portland.

Corn and rye strengthened slightly but oats and barley held about unchanged. Flaxseed advanced 10c per bushel at Minneapolis as a result of smaller offerings and a more active crusher inquiry. The soybean market on the other hand turned weaker as crushers became less active buyers and prices declined 6 to 8 cents per bushel.

Butter Markets Firm

The butter market continued firm during the week ending December 1, with fresh supplies short of demand at terminal market centers. Price changes were largely of an adjustment nature with advances being restricted by the available supply of CCC storage goods which were in active demand. Prices held unchanged at Chicago and were unchanged at New York except for a fractional decline in 89 score early in the week and an advance of 1/4c in 92 and 93 score as the week closed.

After using heat for the first time for the entire tobacco curing period, E. E. Laswell and Bleemel Bros. of Bullitt county report the brightest crops they have grown.

Approximately 1,000 farmers in Elliott county have sowed their tobacco land to cover crops.

Richards and Cosby of Madison county netted $1,600 from their 500-hen flock to pay for their modern 40x60 poultry house.

Deaths

Thomas W. Skinner, 64, father of Miss Maude Skinner, a teacher in the Simon Kenton High School, died at his home in Dry Ridge, on Sunday, November 26.

Charles W. Goebel, 70, brother of Mrs. Tillie Kuhn of Independence, and a director of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association, Covington, died at his home in Covington, December 1.

New Soil Conservationist

C. S. Acres of Boone County is scheduled to take over the soil conservation work in Kenton County. This work was formerly done by P. V. Mudd, who gave it up due to ill health. Mr. Mudd has improved, and it is reported that he will soon be transferred to Western Kentucky.

Livestock and Producers Meet

The livestock and producers held a meeting at Independence, Nov. 16, and elected a committee to represent Kenton County in the Livestock and Producers meeting to be held in Cincinnati, February, 1951. Members of the committee are: Joe Neumeister, Chris H. Beck, Stanley Parker, Gerald Dixon, Melvin Platt and Leslie Riley. Alternate delegates are Wm. Durr, Herbert Works, Russell Rector and Ira W. Stephenson.

Mr. Kimber, manager of the Cincinnati Livestock and Producers Association, says that Kenton County had 543 farmers who shipped livestock to the Association in 1950.

Get Farm Record Book

C. A. Wicklund, County Agent, reports that the wise and successful farmer will be glad to further help himself greatly by securing, for a very small sum, the Kentucky Farm Record Book, either from County Agents or from the Department of Farm Economics at the University of Kentucky.

This timely and needed record book provides for: (1) A record of receipts, (2) a record of expenses, (3) inventories at the beginning of the year, (4) records of handling capital goods, (5) records of crops and livestock production, and (6) a summary of farm business for one year.

Burn Burns South of Nicholson

Last Thursday the Independence Fire Department was called to fight a barn fire at the farm of Walter Moffett. The dairy barn with hay and two calves burned. All was a complete loss.

Personal

Alf Armstrong, 79, of Independence had a stroke last week. However, he is reported improving.

William Collins was shut in last week with a sprained back, but is improving.

Mike Johnson of McKim Drive, Independence, is gradually recovering from a stroke.

Ray Dickson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dickson, has been very low for several days, due to the after effects of an operation for a blood clot on the lungs. Last report was that he was slowly improving.

Denver Riley is improving after a heart attack.

Prince Charming In Reverse

An amazing story comes out of Egypt, about a modern Prince Charming. Not too long ago, probably about ten or twelve months, a handsome young man asked a well-to-do widow for the hand of her beautiful young daughter. His clothes, general appearance, language and manners spoke of his high birth and comfortable living. The delighted woman accepted.

The wedding was an elaborate one. This young man spent lavishly on that occasion. The guests were amazed at the good music and extras. The blushing bride was the envy of all the neighbors.

The bride was carried over the threshold of a richly furnished house. Persian rugs covered the floors, rare curios rested on the shelves, paintings of old masters hung on tapestried walls and in a corner stood a grand piano.

For six months the bride lived in splendor. Her wishes were his commands, her requests his pleasure to perform. Hardly a day passed without his getting her some new gift.

Each day he would leave the house early in the morning and return exhausted, late at night. Business of supervising lands and buildings is tiring him out, she thought.

One day he left the house and failed to return. One week later the police summoned her. "Your husband has been arrested," they informed her. "Why?" Had he committed a crime, engaged in politics? "No," replied the sergeant, "he is a beggar."

But he had been a clever beggar. One day he posed a Palestinian refugee, the next a jobless student thrown out of work because of his political convictions. People pitied him and gave him money. With it he bought the luxuries he lavished upon her. She was so chagrined, she returned to her mother.

What a contrast to the Lord Jesus, the Prince of Glory, who was rich, yet for our sakes became poor that we through His poverty might be rich. (II Corinthians 8:9) The depths of His poverty can be seen at Calvary, where He gave His all for us. He enriches all who accept Him with the forgiveness of sins, life everlasting and the hope of the glory of God. He is seeking a bride (the born again ones of the church) upon whom He can lavish love and glory for all eternity.

Mrs. Viola Roberts is visiting her son, Gene Roberts, wife and baby in Washington, D. C.

Happy Helpers Entertained

The Happy Helpers class of the Walton Methodist Church held its November meeting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Canale.

Clifford Pruett, president, named committees for the annual dinner, to be held December 19, in the church basement, and also appointed a year book committee.

Members are reminded that Sunday, December 10, is the day for turning in your donation for the orphans.

Following the business session, Bruce Wallace showed some pictures after which the host and hostess, assisted by their son, Guy, and Miss Betty Maloney, served a delicious dessert course to the following members and guests:

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Rice and son Riekey, Mrs. Livonia Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Watson, Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Hoffman, Miss Dorothy Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hall, Mrs. Herman Newton, Mr. and Mrs. E. B.

The convention will be held at Dallas, Texas, December 10-13.

ELLA SMALLWOOD

Funeral services for Ella Smith Smallwood, 71, were held from the residence, 327 Oregon St., Cincinnati, Ohio, Saturday at 2:00 p. m., with burial in Richmond Cemetery. Mrs. Smallwood was a native of Richmond, Ky., but had lived in Cincinnati for many years. She died November 30.

She is survived by one son, Alvin Smallwood, Cincinnati, and three grandchildren.

Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Florence, had charge of arrangements.

Have You Bought Your Xmas Seals

A statement released by officials of the Boone County Tuberculosis Association this week states that practically all of the money received from the sale of Christmas Seals in Boone County stays in the county for work against the disease which took 40,000 American lives last year. This fight against TB includes education, case finding, rehabilitation, and medical research.

Mrs. Kathryn Cropper, Association secretary-treasurer, announced that many Boone Countians have done this part of their Christmas shopping early—they have purchased their Christmas Seals.

So, other Boone Countians are urged to check the "best buy" of the season—these pretty little bits of paper which support a fight against a disease which may strike in your family. Let's give health for Christmas—with Christmas Seals!

GLENCOE

C. C. Higgins is building a new garage here in Glencoe. Archie Maddox is doing the work.

Mrs. Pearl Boaz is in St. Elizabeth Hospital and getting along nicely. She will soon be home.

The church attendance was down Sunday at both churches on account of snow drifts.

Rev. VanHorn and family spent Thanksgiving at Fort Wayne, Ind., with Mrs. VanHorn's mother. Several of her brothers and sisters were also present for this happy occasion.

Bob Snow, Sr. has had a bad hand and a doctor has been treating it. Sorry to hear Mrs. Stella Ross is bedfast again from a sprained ankle.

Mrs. Helen Boaz is in Booth Hospital, where she underwent an operation last Thursday. We hope for her speedy recovery.

Sympathy is extended Mrs. Bob Snow and Mrs. Georgia Noel in the loss of a step-brother, Leslie Chapman, of Wheatley.

Clifford Crouch and family have moved to their beautiful new home near Warsaw, on Route 42. Best wishes to them in this new home.

FLORENCE

The Ladies Auxiliary of Boone Post, No. 4, American Legion, will sponsor a miscellaneous bingo social at the new American Legion Home adjacent to the Fire Hall and Community Center on Thursday evening, November 30 at 8 p. m. You and your friends are extended a very special invitation to attend.

Mrs. Dora Markesbery is spending several days with her son, Bert Markesbery, and family of US 42.

Bonnie Schram and Billy Markesbery, who are enrolled at Eastern State College, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. West and son Robby of Louisville, were holiday guests of Mrs. Marie Kinman and father, John Brown. Mr. West is enrolled in the Dental College in Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Caton have been entertaining Mrs. Caton's mother, who makes her home at Munfordsville. Mrs. Wheeler is convalescing from a recent operation.

Best wishes are extended Mr. and Mrs. Don Pund, who were married at Blessed Sacrament Church, South Ft. Mitchell, Thanksgiving Day.

Victor Bruner of the Florence High school faculty, was the guest of his family in Hawesville, for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers Knox of US 42 had as guests through the holidays her sister, Mrs. Wm. Floyd, and Mr. Floyd of Akron, Ohio.

Barbee Simpson of Dayton, Ohio, Blayne Miller of Park Hills, and Mrs. W. R. Miller and son, Renaker, were the Thanksgiving dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Carpenter and Miss Kay Scott were entertained at dinner Saturday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keyer of Latonia. The occasion was in honor of the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter and the birthday of Miss Scott. May they enjoy many happy returns of the day.

The Florence Hardware store presented a typical Thanksgiving scene in its front window, with its display of wildlife and fruits of the harvest. The display attracted much attention.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Miller entertained at dinner Wednesday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Moss and Mrs. Mary Carpenter.

Miss Paula Ogg is recovering from a siege of mumps. Rev. C. N. Ogg, Mrs. Mary Carpenter, Mrs. W. R. Miller and Mrs. Viola Idol were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Moss at the annual Thanksgiving turkey dinner at the First Methodist Church, Covington, Tuesday evening.

Relatives here of Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Mitchell attended the wedding of their son, John, at Epworth Methodist Church, West Covington, Saturday evening at 7:30. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mitchell and a reception followed at the church.

Miss Katherine Keene of Richmond, spent Thanksgiving with Miss Bonnie Schram.

Oak Ridge Homemakers

The November meeting of the Oak Ridge Homemakers club was held in the recreation room of the Taylor Mill Fire Department building, with Mrs. Delmar Cooper as hostess. Mrs. Ed Piper conducted the business meeting.

Mrs. I. E. Mann and Mrs. Eugene Tomlin presented the lesson for the month, as given by Ida C. Hagman, on the "Wise Use of Credit," bringing to mind the advantages of a good credit rating, also ways to abuse the use of same.

Mrs. W. B. Wheeler and Mrs. A. G. Bowling were appointed to represent Oak Ridge when the Hamilton County Homemakers held their meeting November 28 in the auditorium of the Cincinnati Gas & Electric Co.

"Christmas at Home" will be the theme of a display of decorations and homemade gifts appropriate for the Christmas season will be made.

Mrs. Wheeler was asked to make reservations for the club's Christmas dinner and party, to be held December 19 in the Covington Chamber of Commerce dining hall. Members are urged to attend and to bring a dollar gift for exchange.

Sharing Our Faith

Lesson for December 10, 1950

SCRIPTURE: Acts 9:1-18; 18:1-7; 1 Corinthians 9:16-17; II Corinthians 5:12-14
DEVOTIONAL READING: Romans 11

A COMMON sight in cities of ancient times was the "libation." Statues of gods or goddesses stood at every prominent corner in every yard; they were as numerous as billboards today. Before one of these statues some one would be pouring out wine from a cup or goblet, an offering of thanksgiving or dedication. Saint Paul even used the libation as a figure of speech to describe himself. My life, he said to his friend Timothy, is being poured out—there was not much left of it, but all of it, every drop, would be poured out as an offering to God.

Miser of Life or Spender? PAUL was no miser of life. If life was a full cup, it was not a cup with a tight lid, not like one of your grandmother's jars of very special preserves to be saved and saved but never used. Paul was a spender of life. Whatever God had given him was to be poured out, not to be saved. There is something in every one's cup of life; something that spoils if kept too long, something fragrant and beautiful when poured out in service. The miser of life finds that life at last turns sour on him. The spender of life finds that as he has given, in the same measure it will be given him.

Faith Can't Be Hoarded ONE very important part of the Christian's life is highlighted for us in this week's Scripture: his faith. Indeed, faith ought not to be a part of life for the Christian. Faith is no more a "part" of life than sunshine is a part of the out-of-doors. Without the sunshine there might as well not be any out-of-doors. So without faith the Christian's life would be mere existence. The question is: What do we do with our faith? Do we keep it for ourselves alone or do we pass it on? Last summer a man tried to get a grocery store to take back 100 pounds of sugar which he had laid up during World War II. He had hoarded it till it was hard as rock and he could not use a pound of it. (The grocery would not take it back, and it served him right.) Faith is like that. It is sweet and good—but only if we use it and share it, not if we keep it to ourselves.

What Is Sharing Faith? SHARING your faith means helping others to have a faith at least as strong as your own. All around us there are persons who have no faith at all. They are discouraged, blue, bewildered, at loose ends—in the sad old phrase, they are lost. Sharing your faith means sharing it with just such people. With some things, the more you give away the less you have left; but the arithmetic of religion is different. The more you give away, the more you have. Shared faith is living faith; shared faith is growing faith. There are more ways than one of sharing our faith. One way is to talk about it. A person can "give a testimony" in a prayermeeting, and share faith that way; but this is not the only way. A person who merely talks about faith is a little like a gardener who is proud of his own garden and brags on it, but never helps his neighbors with theirs.

How Can We Do It Every Day? REMEMBER what we are really trying to share when we "share the gospel" or "share Christ" is not an argument, a set of propositions. The big thing is not arguing other people into becoming Christians. Very few persons have ever become Christians because some one talked them into it. Talk has its place, and every Christian should be eager to say a good word for Jesus Christ at every chance. But the best effect when they come from a life that is really His. A Christian whose faith is something put on on Sundays with the "church clothes" is not going to have any great success as a soul-winner. We can't share faith we don't have; we can't share second-hand or imitation faith. A former Mohammedan, being asked what was the great argument that won him to Christianity, replied, "It wasn't any argument, it was the lives of some missionaries."

"Had To Shovel - Out"

December came in with a white blanket of snow on the ground. Lots of people are still snowed-in. Every day someone comes in and says they just shoveled out. Lawrence and Helen Farrell were over today. Lawrence says he is working Helen too hard stripping tobacco. He had to give her a day off.

Delaney Johnson and Roland Glenn sold their tobacco on the first sale, averaging $56.80 a hear—very good, I'd say.

Doc Television Webster just blew in—he has been snowed clear under. The drifts on Green Road were terrible. James Moore came up after a fluorescent light to strip his tobacco by—they are the only light and these dark days you can get twice as much stripped.

J. C. Reynolds over on Taylor Mill bought a new Case pocket knife—you know Case makes the best. Our waterworks man, John Stephenson, has sure had his troubles this bad weather with a broken water main at Edwards Ave. and a fireplug broken off on South Main St. as well as another broken pipe on Lorece Ave.

Mrs. Agnes Atha sent after stove wicks by Everett Jones, also Mrs. Kruse Johnson sent by Everett for screen glass to put over her windows. Harold Marsh came after ten yards of flexo-glass to put over windows—this really keeps the cold out.

Henry Penick was in after lord cans, clothes line and light bulbs... Zedach Clore was getting fixtures to make an electric lamp out of an old kerosene lamp—we have most all of the fixtures for No. 1, No. 2, No. 3 and Aladdin lamps...

Leon Hall was after some of those electric fixtures for replacement in someone's house—we have a very nice display of electric fixtures, all prices and types... They are sure buying heated water fountains and feeders on legs—eggs are getting higher and you can afford to buy those old hens a new fountain and feeder... Omer Kite was in Saturday—he sure was raising Cain—about night when he was in the middle of a good fox chase, here came seven or eight hunters from the city across his farm—he ordered them off, but they refused to leave—well, Omer was outnumbered and did not want to shoot anyone, so he called the foxhounds and went to the house, very mad.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Steius from Grant county, customers of mine, were having a little oil heater trouble, but Ray will fix them up Monday with a new oil heater... Tom Smith was a busy man Saturday—he sold his home on Alta Vista to Ray Neaves and Tom was moving to High Street—he was buying linoleum rugs, stove pipe, pots and pans—you always need new household items when you move—about time I got Tom fixed up, here comes Ray Neaves after stove pipe and other small items... Dan Roberts got his hand too close to that electric meat saw, but luckily he won't lose any fingers... Joe Perkins and family from Verona, was over Saturday night—Mrs. Perkins bought a Gold Seal linoleum rug, and Joe needed a piece of ¾" pipe to put up the aerial for his new television.

Mrs. Clem Rauchhorst bought a 12'x14' Armstrong rug, a lot of rug border and white window shades—we cut shades to any width... Jeanette Madden is one of my regular Saturday night customers—she was buying gloves for her two boys, soap dishes, towel bars and mouse traps... Marvin Kite is also a regular on Saturday night... So is Ben Dixon and wife, who seldom miss.

I thought Harvey Vest was going to be a customer—he came in and looked at that Jamesway electric heated water fountain, but he said he would have to see his wife before he bought it, so he turned out to be a loser today, but he will be back... Leslie Hoffman sure was in a hurry—the electric motor on her water pump burned out and she needed a new one, which we had, ready to go... Mr. and Mrs. Decker from Richwood, were up after Morton's Sugar Cure and large mouth lids for canning sausage—Mrs. Decker called for a 1951 calendar, which reminded me I had not put them out yet, but we have plenty—be sure and get yours.

Mrs. Sallie Day was also a Monday customer, as was Mrs. Ethel Sheppard... We have several used oil heaters, cheap, and they are OK... I just unloaded some small cast iron Fur coal heaters, for only $15.50—fine for small room, or stripping room—they will get hot all over... Tevis Thomas just came in after repairs for his chain pump... Floyd Sebree and Dude Simpson bought the largest wheelbarrow I had—they must have a lot of bull to haul away... Jerry Macwell, our house builder, bought new window shades for the house he bought from Mrs. Brittenheim... John Cain from over in Kenton county, came over after some galvanized water pipe... John Stephenson, our Waterworks Superintendent, needed four pieces of 1½" pipe threaded about 4 inches on each end—that is one time that electric pipe threader came in handy.

L. E. Thomas just came in and bought a cross-cut saw and a Vulcan hillside plow... Floyd Sebree also wanted a Massey-Harris horse-drawn manure spreader—I'll have it in a few days, as I have one in the Louisville warehouse, ready to be shipped... Well, we still try to live up to our motto—if we don't have it, we will try and get it... If you have any troubles or need anything, call CONRAD!

Knotty Problems Are Faced by City Council

Waterworks Unsanitary; Filtration Plant, Sewage And Fire House Needed

After disposition had been made of the routine business, a discussion was held concerning the unsatisfactory and unsanitary conditions of the Waterworks pumping plant, as reported by Assistant Sanitary Engineer of the State Department of Health on his last inspection, at the Monday night meeting of Walton's City Council.

It developed from the discussion that there is one pump that has been removed from service and sent to the manufacturer for major repairs about three months ago, and was supposed to have been back in service prior to December 1. The other pump now in operation is in a very bad condition and it is necessary to play two streams of water on it in order to keep it cool enough to pump for any length of time. Other equipment at the plant is in need of replacement, due to age and usage, and the results of trying to operate the plant with this dilapidated and unsatisfactory equipment has created an unsanitary condition in the plant.

The Board felt that the Superintendent of the Waterworks had been handicapped by not being provided with necessary repairs and replacements, and by unanimous vote of the members present, authority was given the Superintendent to replace any and all equipment in order that the plant might be put in a satisfactory condition for any further inspections.

The matter of a suitable sewage system and disposal plant was discussed, but most of the members felt that the town was not financially able to start such a venture at this time.

The Fire Chief reported that he and the members of the Volunteer Fire Department were disappointed for lack of sufficient storage space for the equipment, as well as space to drain and dry the hose after it had been used. The Fire Department was much concerned after a recent trip when it was found necessary to thaw the ice from the hose before it could be drained and placed back in the equipment for future use.

The Council requested the City Attorney to investigate various methods of financing a new building to accommodate the fire-fighting apparatus together with jail and city hall. Kyle Nicholson agreed to supply an estimate of the cost to construct a new, one-story building on the present city parking lot, of sufficient size to accommodate all of the fire-fighting equipment, together with quarters for fireworkers superintendent, tax collector, jail, and a meeting place for the city council.

The matter of collecting delinquent occupational licenses and taxes was discussed, and the tax collector was instructed to advertise the property of any delinquent taxpayer, and the city marshal was given a list of unpaid occupational licenses with instructions to collect these licenses, or cite the owners and unlicensed establishments to court for failure to procure necessary license. A list of delinquent taxes may be found elsewhere in this issue of the advertiser.

Further action on the matter of a new city building and waterworks improvements and sewage disposal, will, no doubt, be taken at the regular meeting of the Board on January 8, 1951.

Tobacco Averages $55.44

Charlie Woods and Ben Jump sold their tobacco at the Kentuckiana Tobacco Warehouse, Carrollton, and the average was $55.44 per hundred pounds. Pretty good, don't you think?

Visitors were Ora Stone and Flora Summey.

After the meeting, lunch was served and gifts exchanged.

County Far Behind In Receipts From Christmas Seals

An unofficial report by Mrs. Kathryn Cropper, treasurer of the Boone County Tuberculosis Association, shows that Boone county is far behind in receipts from sales of the Christmas Seals this year. Mrs. Cropper's report was through Monday of this week. She stated that as yet only about fifty percent of last year's receipts had been received.

Officials of the Boone County Tuberculosis Association, through the organization's president, Mrs. Sibilla Reimer, have issued a special appeal to the citizens of Boone county to respond to this great voluntary crusade and to help keep the county's record of "never failing to reach our goal."

These officials have requested that you "do not put this bit of Christmas shopping off a day longer." They ask you to remember that most of your contribution stays within your county and is used to help in the control and eradication of TB through case finding, education, rehabilitation and medical research. The local organization likewise appeals to the leaders in our communities to stress the importance of the fight against tuberculosis through the purchase of Christmas Seals. Organizations, schools, civic groups and others are needed in the program to let the public know what your purchase of Seals does to help the health of our nation.

These are the facts! Think them over! Three people die every day in Kentucky from tuberculosis. Kentucky is one of three states having the highest death rate from tuberculosis. Boone county has several cases now.

Anyone desiring information relative to the Christmas Seal program or Tuberculosis Association program for use with clubs, classes or organizations may obtain same by addressing a card to E. C. Maurer, publicity chairman, Boone County Tuberculosis Ass'n, Burlington, Ky.

Burlington and Bellevue Stage Rallies to Trim 'Cats

The Walton-Verona Bears, thus far, having one of their "toughest" seasons, dropped two games during the past week and in both the 'Cats led until in the third quarter, when the opposition overtook them and went on to win.

Last Friday night the locals went to Burlington for a tilt with the Eagles. The 'Cats took an early lead and were in front at 34-0, and at eight minutes of play, 13-10, and in the half had a 23-21 edge. In the third period, with Billy Smith fouling out, Burlington took command and as the frame ended were in front, 40-35. In the final stanza, the winners added to their advantage, to win the game 52-39.

Jim Ryle led the attack for Burlington and bagged 22 points, while E. Rouse added 15 markers. Top man for the locals was Smith, who registered 13 points. Glacken, Rice and Hall gathered 9, 8 and 7 points, respectively. This was Walton's first Boone County Conference loss.

In the preliminary game between the reserves, Walton was the winner, 30 to 27.

Engagement Announced

Wa-Na Club Enjoys Christmas Party at Strittmatter Home

The feeling of Christmas was in the air as members and guests of the Wa-Na Club gathered in the home of Mrs. T. P. Strittmatter for their Christmas party and December meeting.

During the business session Mrs. Fred Hamilton, president, read several letters to the club pertaining to club activities. The organization voted to send a Christmas package to a family in Italy. This family will remember from time to time during the year by club members.

Mrs. George Houston was asked to serve as a committee to send this package.

Filled Christmas boxes for veterans in St. Michael's Hospital, Louisville, Ky., were brought by club members and these socks will be sent on to these veterans.

The Christmas program was presented in a pleasing manner. Mrs. Clifford Pruett gave a spiritual devotion, reading the Christmas story as found in the book of Luke. Mrs. Matthew Flynn read the history and origin of our Christmas Carols, and after she read the story of a Carol, it was sung by Mrs. J. B. Johnson. Mrs. Strittmatter closed the program with a piano solo.

Following the program, the Christmas gift exchange took place. Mrs. Lloyd Yates and Mrs. James Spencer had charge of this portion of the evening's fun.

The club welcomes two new members, Mrs. Andrew Jarman and Mrs. J. O. Ward, to the organization.

Delicious refreshments were served to the following guests and members: Mrs. Harold Worthington, Mrs. Albert Hunt, Mrs. James W. Spencer, Mrs. George Houston, Mrs. J. B. Johnson, Mrs. Charles Hayes, Mrs. Matthew Flynn, Mrs. Leo Flynn, Mrs. Fred Hamilton, Mrs. Clayton Jones, Mrs. Clifford Pruett, Mrs. Jack Snape, Mrs. Lloyd Yates, and Mrs. Gayle McElroy.

Everyone departed with the true Christmas spirit in their hearts.

Historical Society to Meet

The Boone County Historical Society will meet in the Florence Town Hall, Friday, December 15, at 8 p. m. The purpose of this meeting is to continue the discussion of the History of Florence, and to make plans for gathering all available material on the subject. It is hoped that a book may result from this effort.

Each person attending is asked to bring some information about some old-house. There are several very old houses in Florence. The Camera Club has volunteered to photograph these houses and other historic spots about the city.

There was once a Carding Mill in Florence. It is expected that some one will be able to tell about it. Everyone interested in the subject is invited to attend.

Surprised On Birthday

Mrs. Leonard Cook, Jr., was surprised on her twenty-second birthday with a buffet supper for the following guests:

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rouse, Mr. and Mrs. "Buddy" Whitson, Mr. and Mrs. "Buddy" Readnor, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Groger, Jimmy Cook, Leonard Cook, Jr., Mrs. John Snape, and the hostess, Mrs. Agnes Caldwell.

Giles Named As Kenton Agricultural Chairman

Raymond Giles, cashier of the Bank of Independence, has been named county agricultural chairman for Kenton county, according to Marshall Barnes, Owensboro, president of the Kentucky Bankers Association. The appointment becomes effective immediately for the year 1951.

The county agricultural chairman coordinates agricultural activities of the banks with farmers and agricultural agencies and organizations serving the county to increase the effectiveness of agricultural programs.

The Kentucky Bankers Association is the first state association in the entire country to have a full-time agricultural representative.

Heavy Volume of Burley Marketed Second Week

A heavy volume of Burley tobacco was marketed the second week of the 1950 crop sales. The Federal State Market News Service reports average prices on most representative grades steady to slightly higher than opening week. General quality of the offerings was about the same. Gross sales for the week ending December 8 amounted to 101,216,591 pounds and averaged $48.07 per hundred. This average was $1.03 under that established the two days preceding the week. During the first seven days of the season 141,531,326 gross pounds have been sold for $48.36. Last season for the same period, 124,932,663 pounds averaged $45.44 per hundred. During the week some markets passed sales on Tuesday and Thursday because of snowfall and light receipts. Several others reported short sales because of darkness.

Prices in grade averages were generally $1.00 and $2.00 per hundred. Although prices for practically all offerings except nondescript showed a steady to stronger trend, increases were most noticeable in fair and good-lugs and flyings and fair to fine leaf. There were a few scattered losses confined mostly to the lowest qualities. All grades except tops in flyings and fair to fine-lugs averaged $2.00 to $2.20 above their respective low allowance. These offerings were either $1.00 above or even with the advance.

There was a slightly larger percentage of good and fine tobacco marketed. However, this was offset by an increased amount of tips and more baskets not in proper salable condition. The offerings graded mostly low to good quality. Leaf and lugs predominated.

Receipts of the Association under the Government loan program were about the same as last week. Approximately 14% of gross sales were delivered the first two days of the season. The consignments consisted mostly of better grades of lugs and flyings and medium quality leaf and tips on the heavy side.

Beginning Monday, and continuing until the Christmas Holiday, sales will be limited to 3 1/2 hours per day. Under this shorter sales time, markets have the option of selling 1,250 baskets or 239,200 lbs. per day per set of buyers.

FLOWER SHOP TO OPEN

Misses Rita and Rosella Busteneyer will open Willow Wood Flowers on North Main Street, with a grand opening and Open House on Saturday, December 16. Punch and Christmas cookies will be served. All are invited to meet these new florists and inspect the shop. The ladies have called on many in this community the past summer and fall, leaving a flower and introducing themselves. Some of their flowerers will be grown on their farm near Verona.

The Busteneyer girls took courses in flower arrangement and clerical designing at the University. A small gift line has also been added to the shop.

Murder Charge Issued; Defendant Released On $10,000 Bond Wednesday

Mrs. Amelia Dixon, 52, colored, died Tuesday about noon at the St. Elizabeth hospital, due to shots that she received from a .38 caliber revolver that morning about ten a. m. at her home on Scott street in Walton.

Robert Brugh was called to the home and when he detected signs of apparent life in the woman he ordered her taken to a hospital. An ambulance of the Chambers and Grubbs funeral home made the run.

There was one shot entered her abdomen which according to Coroner Robert Brugh caused her death. There were other cuts and bruises on her body, and a rather deep cut in the back of her head according to reports. The shooting was supposed to have happened in her home.

Since the death actually occurred in Kenton county, the coroner of that county, Mrs. Tressa Riffe, was called and gave a verdict of suicide. Wendell Easton, Boone County Sheriff, who was summoned since the cause of the death was not clear, was not satisfied with that verdict due to several circumstances surrounding the case.

There were several bullet holes found in the ceiling and walls of the Dixon home.

Dixon told the Kenton county coroner that Mrs. Dixon shot herself with the pistol in the bathroom of their home.

Murder Charge Issued

On Wednesday, Judge Cropper of Boone County, issued a murder charge against Ire Dixon, husband of the deceased, and his bond was placed at $10,000, which was posted and the defendant released.

Funeral Friday Afternoon

The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Zion Baptist Church, Walton. Burial at Richmond.

Sunday School Meeting Postponed Until Dec. 18

The Boone County Baptist Sunday School meeting, scheduled at the Big Bone Baptist Church, has been postponed until Monday, December 18, at 7:45 p. m., due to the snow and road conditions.

There will be a speaker, who will address the group, "Evangelism in the Sunday School." All members of the various Sunday schools in this county are urged to attend.

Willing Workers to Meet

The Willing Workers class of the First Christian Church will hold its December meeting this (Thursday) evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ransier. A covered-dish dinner will be served and gifts will be exchanged.

Bakery Sale Saturday

The young people of the Walton Christian Church will sponsor a bakery sale on Saturday, December 16, starting at 11 a. m. in the Hamilton and Jones store. Cakes, pies, and candy will be available.

New Haven P.T.A. to Meet

The New Haven P. T. A. will meet on Monday, December 18, at 7:30 p. m. After the business meeting, an interesting program will be presented. Every parent and teacher is invited to be present.

Missionary Guild to Meet

The Missionary Guild will not meet until Thursday, December 21. The Christmas party will be held at this time, in the basement of the Walton Christian Church. There is to be an exchange of gifts, costing not more than $1.00. Don't forget your "secret pal" at Christmas—Pub. Chm.

To Practice for Program

All officers of Walton Chapter, 151, O. E. S. are requested to meet at the Walton Baptist Church this (Thursday) evening at 8 p. m. to practice for the Christmas entertainment.

KENTUCKIAN'S IN WASHINGTON

by Gil Kingsbury

This past week has been a busy one here in the capital. More than 30 Kentuckians braved the ice and snow of railroad and air travel to descend upon the city for a variety of conventions and meetings.

Invariably, as it should, the talk turned to the world situation and the dark shadow of war that fell across the city. Invariably, they sought assurances that all would turn out well. But at the time, there was little to offer in the way of cheer.

Officials On Hand:

Among the visitors were several state and local officials. Guthrie Crowe, La Grange, state police commissioner, arrived on business. With him was Rep. Herb Tinsley of Warsaw. Rep. Gus Sheehan was a honeymoon visitor, along with his beautiful bride (naturally).

Others who dropped in to bring the latest gossip from home included Kenton Court Clerk John Herold, former Covington Mayor William Beutell and Lisle Keys, of the Kenton County airport board, and Al Hohnhorst, Kenton county auditor and airport board official.

All in all, Kentuckians in Washington felt pretty much at home with all the Blue Grass visitors about.

Social Notes:

The Kentucky Society of Washington is all set to have a good time this week. On Friday night there will be big doling at the swank Shoreham Hotel.

It will be Judiciary Night and Chief Justice Fred Vinson is to be the guest of honor along with Associate Justice Stanley Reed of Maysville.

Carrollton's Bob Salyers, president of the society, has invited visiting Kentuckians to drop in and meet the members of the supreme court. Usually several non-Kentucky members of that august body call to pay respects to the chief justice.

Football Notes:

A group of Lexington football fans thinking of the late lamented game against Tennessee, sent a post card the other day to a Kentucky lawmaker advocating the use of the atom bomb against Russia. And then those bruised Wildcat fans added this postscript:

"And while you're at it, drop one on Shields-Watkins Field at Knoxville."

Another Note:

A Washington sports writer the other day wrote this squib which irked Kentuckians no end.

A Kentucky football player, so the writer said, turned to his Tennessee opponent after the game and declared, "We'll beat you guys next year!"

Whereupon the Tennessee man is said to have replied, "Gwan! That's what your father told my father!"

Just wait until next year. Or, where have I heard that before?

HAS NO HOUSEBURN

Kansas Harlin of Monroe county has housed 16 crops of tobacco without houseburn. Using no artificial heat, he gives credit for his successful results to the use of 32 ventilators on each side of his 60-foot barn. J. L. Ellis, Farm Agent, says Mr. Harlin has averaged more than 1,700 pounds of leaf to the acre for the past 10 years.

Winning Every Day

Lesson for December 17, 1950

SCRIPTURE: II Corinthians 11:16-33; 12:1-10; Philippians 3:4-11; II Timothy 4:1-12
DEVOTIONAL READING: II Timothy 4:1-12

THE idea that religion is the opiate of the people has been circulated only by those who know nothing about religion from the inside. The Christian religion is no kind of drug. You may hunt through the New Testament from end to end and find not a single expression reminding you of a drug store. What you do find, over and over again, is the idea that this life, for the Chris—Dr. Foreman

Paul Knew How It Was
THE Christian life is a fight . . . but not a losing fight. Countless Christians have proved it by living it. We can pass up the number one example, Jesus himself, because some people might say that he had access to some source of power that ordinary men do not have. Look, if you please, at Paul of Tarsus. There was a man who looked trouble in the eye many a day. In fact, there never was a single day when troubles left him free and easy. Whatever we may say about Jesus, Paul certainly had no special "pipeline to heaven" which any other Christian might not have. Yet he lived, so to speak, on top of his troubles, not down under them. Even now, centuries later, Paul's struggles are still an asset for every Christian; each one of us can say, "Well, if Paul made it, I can."

On Many Fronts
AT the end of Paul's life he wrote those famous words, "I have fought a good fight. Our Scripture brings this statement down to cases. What was Paul's fight? To his Corinthian friends he tosses off a rather half-raising list of adventures, disasters and calamities through which he had passed. We don't need details. Just to name them is enough: famine, robbers, beatings, jail sentences, riots, three different shipwrecks . . . What a life! But Paul rode these things; they did not ride him.

Or again, there was his "thorn in the flesh." Nobody knows certainly what that was; but it was no doubt some kind of physical ailment or pain, and it did not go away. Pain is often far harder to stand than some exciting experience like a shipwreck. In the face of pain such as Paul suffered, one cannot fight back. All one can do is to take it. Yet Paul lived through this, too. It was part of his "good fight." To the Philippians, again, he reports another sort of victory, though he makes no boast about it. He had conquered his besetting sin of conceit and pride. Paul was by no means a naturally humble man. Yet when a man can write as he does in Phil. 3:4-11, it is plain that he had crushed pride down and out. Perhaps Paul, like many another man, had found that his worst enemy was himself, his worse self. In the second letter to Timothy, written at the end of his life, he tells of still other kinds of things that cost him a struggle—friends abandoning him, a trial that went against him. Yet these too he had not simply endured but conquered.

Available Victory

TWO thoughts come to us from all of this. One is, that it takes a fight to make a man. That is to say if Paul had had a perfectly easy life, he would never have been the grand character we know. For him, and for many a Christian since, reverses, disappointments, suffering and pain, tragedy, sorrow and mistakes will contribute to creative spiritual experiences if these are met in the Christian way.

And that leads to the other thought: The Christian way to power, the Christian secret of living a winning life every day, is today exactly the same as what Paul said it was: the strength of God, "made perfect in weakness." The Christian never becomes God; but God's grace and power can live in the Christian.

It is not the Christian who lives the victorious life, after all; left to ourselves we should bog down. But God be thanked, he does not leave us to ourselves! It is not we who win, but He in us. This does not excuse us from the fight; God lives not in the lazy but in the loyal.

Passes EVERY TEST!

Thirty-four years ago farmers were in such dire need of better credit that Congress authorized the Federal Land Bank system. Since then, more than one million farmers have gotten BETTER farm land financing with Federal Land Bank Loans.

The Federal Land Banks are cooperatively owned by farmers who use the credit they extend. Their only purpose is to provide farm families with farm loans best adapted to their individual needs.

If you are looking for a BETTER farm loan, look into a Federal Land Bank loan. You'll get a long-term loan, with amortized repayment, low 4% interest rate, the privilege to prepay any amount at any time, future payment fund protection, and friendly local service. There are no application fees, appraisal fees or renewal fees. And, for years National Farm Loan Associations have been paying their members a dividend.

FLORENCE

Robert Luther Aylor of U. S. 42 was the Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kleemeler of the Dixie Highway.

Thursday evening, December 21, is the date chosen for the forthcoming monthly pillow slip bingo social to be given by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Florence Volunteer Fire Department. Members of the committee will be announced later. Game time is set for 8 p. m. at the Fire Hall and Community Center.

Mrs. Sarah Roland entertained with a Christmas party Friday evening at her home on the Dixie Highway. The party was arranged for the ladies of the Christian church.

Members of Boone Post, 4, American Legion, wish to thank the public for the generous attendance at their first miscellaneous bingo social held recently at the Legion home, under the Florence Post Office. Watch for the date of the next affair.

Miss Ruth Marie McDaniel of Cincinnati, was the Friday evening guest of Mrs. Zelma Aylor and daughters.

Ch. Carp. William Aylor, who has been spending his leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Aylor of the Dixie Highway, has returned to duty in San Diego, Calif.

Charles R. Bradford, formerly of Florence, who now makes his home at the Hotel Metropole, Cincinnati, was visiting his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sullivan of New Uri Ave., Saturday.

Miss Cynthia Anne Aylor was the guest of her cousin, Miss Nancy Jane Gebhard of Forest Ave., Erlanger, on Wednesday of last week.

Carl Clutterback and Wood Stephens have taken up winter quarters in Tavares, Fla. No doubt there will be plenty of fish stories originating from that Southern point in the near future.

Sister Mary Ida, Principal of St. Paul school, is convalescing at St. Walburg Academy, Covington, following a major operation at St. Elizabeth Hospital. Her many friends and pupils wish her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Saunders of Erlanger, a very capable speaker and Bible student, gave the study book, "We Seek Him Together," for the WSCS and WSG on Tuesday evening of last week at the Florence Methodist Church.

Mrs. Eva Delahunty entertained with a family dinner Thursday evening at her home on Shelby Street, for Mrs. Ella Weaver, Lloyd Weaver and family and Harold Weaver and family. Other guests were unable to attend, due to the slippery condition of the roads.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lutes were the guests of her mother in Lexington, one day the past week.

Mrs. Grover Gregory of Shelby Street, is improved from a recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tanner enjoyed the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Easterday and son of Elsmere. Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Tanner were the Kirby Marshalls and the Robert Woodwards.

Members of the J. T. Stephenson family were their guests Sunday.

The Florence Homemakers are sponsoring a bakery sale and bazaar Saturday, December 16 at Rouse's store. They will appreciate your patronage.

Larry Sieve and family of Price Road are enjoying a new television. Miss Virginia Stephens and Mrs. Irene Renaker were guests of Mrs. W. R. Miller, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Tanner of near Lakeland, Fla., are visiting relatives and friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Miller had as dinner guests Monday, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Ammerman of Cynthiana. Evening callers were Jack Renaker and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Perry G. Renaker and baby, Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Mitchell and family and John W. Mitchell and wife of Covington.

May the peace and happiness of the Yuletide be yours throughout the coming year, is our wish to the Advertiser staff, its readers, correspondents, and our boys in service, wherever they may be!

DDT HELPS CLOVER

At the Agricultural Experiment Station in Lexington, a plot of Kenland red clover treated in the early bloom stage with 5% DDT dust at the rate of about 35 pounds an acre, for the control of harmful insects, produced 306 pounds of seed an acre. The yield on untreated clover was 241 pounds.

ALFALFA VARIETIES TESTED

The Agricultural Experiment Station at Lexington, reports that two lots of Argentine alfalfa sown in August, 1945, produced 2,978 and 3,180 pounds of hay an acre last year. Buffalo alfalfa produced 4,404 pounds; Ranger 4,152; Hardigan, 4,399; Kansas Common, 3,277; Kentucky-41, 3,897; two lots of Oklahoma Common, 3,313 and 3,511, and Atlantic 4,727.

BIG APPLE YIELDS IN JOHNSON COUNTY

Johnson county apple growers report the largest yields ever produced in that county, some of them saying their crops are double those of last year. Ronald Harris of Hood's Creek produced more than 2,000 bushels, Trimble Harris of Winfred more than 4,000 bushels, and Leo Lemaster and Clarence Davis of Lowmansville topped the 2,000-bushel mark. All of these producers, said Glen E. Thompson, assistant county agent, plan to hold their apples until around the holidays.

Ford and Emma Mills purchased lots 125, 126 and 127 in Plantation Heights subdivision from Rel C. and Goldie Wayman. Arthur H. and Virginia Stearns purchased a lot on Hands Road from T. W. and Joyce Groger.

The Deputy Clerk at Independence reports that new auto license plates with black figures on aluminum background will be on sale January 2nd.

Henry Olding

The funeral of Henry Olding, of Taylor Mill Pike, was held December 9, from the Middendorf funeral home, Covington. Burial was in St. John Cemetery, Ft. Mitchell. Mr. Olding, 67, was a retired L. & N. switchman. He died last Wednesday at his home.

Ten Attend Mass Meeting

Those attending the County B. T. U. mass meeting held at the South-side Baptist Church, December 4th, from the Independence Baptist Church were:

Mrs. J. C. Armstrong, Mrs. Clyde McVey, Mr. and Mrs. Alf Armstrong, Mrs. Mary Collins, Miss June Elam, Miss June Stephens, Miss Alma Williams, Miss Joyce Armstrong and little "Candy" McVey.

Emergency Run

The ambulance of the local volunteer fire department was called out early last Thursday morning to take Mrs. B. Hiles of the LLL Highway to the hospital. Friday morning another call came from Herrington Carlisle of the Bank Lick neighborhood for a run to the hospital, due to rupture.

Laborous Task Finished

George Damon, Deputy Clerk at Independence, worked about one and a half years, at odd times, indexing all plates from 1941 to the present time. Those that have seen it are well pleased and it is certain that attorneys and others consulting the records will be very grateful for this labor-saving device.

Bridges Slated for Kenton

The work of constructing pedestrian bridges over a creek which crosses Horsebranch Road in two places will begin as soon as weather permits, according to L. E. McCarrt, Kenton County Engineer.

Twenty-Two Score 100%

Twenty workers in the Independence Baptist Church took the book "Jesus, the Teacher," in the Sunday School Training Course and made 100% on a true-false test given by the pastor, who taught the class.

The following took the test: Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Beach, Mr. and Mrs. William Collins, Rev. and Mrs. Maners, Mrs. Verna Riley, Mrs. Tom Elam, Mrs. Lee Houston, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Armstrong, Mrs. Alf Hymmer, Mr. and Mrs. James Reed, Mrs. Agnes Dorsey, Mrs. Clyde McVey, Frank Cox, Miss June Elam, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Cain and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Swinford.

Honorable Mention

Last Thursday's Enquirer carried a front-page article concerning two U. K. students, Robert Gregory of Florence and Robert D. B. Haney of Lexington, who were nominated for the Rhodes scholarship at Oxford University in England. These will compete with ten other students from five states for four scholarships at Chicago.

Among the 12 candidates for the two nominations from Kentucky, was the name Robert Browning, a senior at Georgetown College. Robert is the student-pastor of the Oak Island Baptist Church. These 12 students were nominated on the basis of scholarship, character and personality.

Dies in Fire Seeking $100

The Milwaukee Sentinel says: A 60-year-old woman burned to death in her flaming home after pushing her grandson outside to safety.

It was apparently a last-minute thought to save the $100 in her purse which sent Mrs. Stella Sublett back into the flames from the threshold of the house at 1579 S. 43rd Street. Her body was found in the kitchen of the small, one-story house, beside the refrigerator on which the purse was lying.

While she was groping her way to the kitchen, her grandson, Larry Wadell, 4, tried in a panic to get back into the house, crying, "My mama went back in!"

A neighbor woman caught the little boy and coaxed him away to safety. During the 20 minutes the fire raged through the concrete building, he watched from the smoke-filled yard sobbing, "My mama's going to die in there!"

It is only natural that a person would make an attempt to save $100 but this effort cost a life. There are circumstances when a person must choose between his own safety and his treasures. A fire is such a time; a hold-up is another, and strange as it may seem, conversing is another.

"For what shall it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?" Mark 8:36-37. Nothing should be allowed to hinder one in fleeing from the wrath to come to the arms of the Lord Jesus, who is calling, "Come unto Me!"

"Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness," before losing a moment's time in anything else. "Boast not thyself of tomorrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth." "Behold now is the accepted time; behold now is the day of salvation."

Hunter Shot With Own Rifle

A 22-caliber rifle bullet that was discharged accidentally struck Clifford Hughes, 18, Taylor Mill Pike, in the right side of his chest December 5, as he was preparing to leave the home of George Hies, Decoursey Pike at Decoursey, with a nocturnal con hunting party.

Hies took the youth to St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington, where attendants said the bullet had passed through the victim's lung and right arm. His condition was described as fair.

Hughes went into a room to put on his coat and get his gun while his hunting companion, Charles Hies, 17, waited for him in another room with his sisters, Betty, 17, and Vivian Hies, 26.

Nobody heard a shot, but when Hughes came out of the room he was holding his chest and crying, "the darn thing went off." His story convinced police that the shooting was accidental.

Athel Vastine

Services for Athel Vastine, Taylor Mill Pike, were held December 6 at the Swindler funeral home, Covington. Burial was in Independence Cemetery. Mr. Vastine died at his home December 3. He was a farmer and was 83 years old.

Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Grace Vastine; four daughters, Mrs. Mary Tebelman of Latonia Lakes, Mrs. Hilda Lang of Covington, Mrs. Margaret Bradley of Mt. Orab, Ohio, and Mrs. Shirley Rider of Warsaw, and three sons, Luther Vastine of Covington, William Vastine of Latonia Lakes, and Milton Vastine of Whites Tower; a brother, Ira Vastine of Independence; 14 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

NEW CHICKEN PARASITES

Two kinds of parasites not previously reported in Kentucky chickens were found in postmortem examinations at the Experiment Station of the University of Kentucky the past year. One was a kind of tapeworm, found in a chicken from Fayette county, and the other a type of mite, identified in chickens from two farm flocks.

Walton Homemakers Meet

The Walton Homemakers Club held its regular monthly meeting in the home of Mrs. Jesse Callen on Saturday, December 9. The president, Mrs. William Breeden, Jr., had charge of the meeting.

Seventeen members answered roll call with a "Christmas Thought." Mrs. Mayme Simpson read the devotional, the second chapter of Luke, verses 2-10. The "Club Collect" was repeated in unison. "Keeping Christmas," was read by Mrs. Ora Stone; "If Only I Had Known," was given by Miss Jean Chambers; "Our Help In Ages Past, Our Hope For Yours to Come," was read by Mrs. John Wood, and "Legend of Christ," was read by Mrs. Matt Flynn.

Celebrates 2nd Birthday

Little Miss Kathy Sue Snape celebrated her second birthday with a party, held at the Walton Roller-drome, December 9. Ice cream and cake were served to the following:

Glenna Adams, Mrs. Billy Adams, Jimmy Cook, Mrs. Agnes Caldwell, Carol and Barbara Groger, Mrs. Russell Groger, David Williams, Mrs. Howard Williams, Billy Snape, Mrs. Earl Snape, Joan Beighle, Mrs. Sam Beighle, Mrs. T. C. Pruett, Mrs. C. C. Pruett, Marvin Hudson, Mrs. Sam Hudson, Terry and Barbara Dickey, Mrs. Raymond Dickey, Bernie Spencer, Mrs. James Spencer, Sherry Hayes, Mrs. Charles Hayes, Nancy Wagner, Mrs. John Pruett, Charles Holder, Mrs. Charles Holder, and Mrs. John Snape.

Walton Christian Church

Sunday, December 17, Rev. Gravely will preach upon the subject, "The Three Gifts." "What did Mary do with the three gifts of the Wise Men brought the night of Jesus' birth?" The Youth and Adult Chorus will sing special Christmas anthems, under the direction of Mrs. Foster Gutteridge, choir director, with James W. Spencer, organist.

At 7:30 p. m., evening worship hour, a pageant will be presented, under the direction of Mrs. Gutteridge, titled "The Birth of The Christ Child." The Biblical narratives of the Birth of The Christ Child, as recorded in the Gospels of Luke and Matthew, will be portrayed by the youth and children of the Youth and Children's choirs. Three choirs will sing the special arrangement of Christmas Carols as background for the story in song. Rev. Gravely will serve as narrator. James Spencer will be at the console of the organ. Following the pageant, an offering will be taken, after which there will be a closing Candlelighting Service of Consecration. The public is invited to share in this service, if they do not have a church home elsewhere.

The Every-Member Canvass for 1951 will be held at the morning church worship hour on Sunday, December 17, when members will make their pledges for financial support of the church for the coming year, and will consecrate their pledges to the work of Christ at the Communion Table at the close of the service.

Prayer and Bible study will be held Tuesday evening at 7:30, in Fellowship Hall. This is an hour of power and an upper room experience with our Heavenly Father, and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

The Crusaders class, for young married couples, will go Christmas caroling on Friday, December 22. If you light a candle and place it in your window, they will sing Christmas carols for your preparation of the Birthday of Our King.

KENTUCKY JUNIOR VEGETABLE GROWERS TAKE FOUR NATIONAL CONTEST AWARDS

KENTUCKY junior vegetable growers were named winners of four state awards in the 1950 production-marketing contest of the National Junior Vegetable Growers Association as the NJVGA concluded its sixteenth annual four-day convention at New Orleans, La., today.

James Ray Bentley

State-wide honors went to James Ray Bentley, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. James N. Bentley, Louisville; Richard Metzger, 15, son of Mrs. Louise M. Metzger, Louisville; Emma Katherine Conder, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Conder, Harrodsburg; and Ernest W. Bonzo, 14, son of Mr. Ernest R. Bonzo, Sr., Greenup. Each received cash awards from the $6,000 scholarship fund provided each year by A & P Food Stores to encourage better production and marketing of vegetables by farm youth.

Also announced by John S. Gardner, College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky at Lexington, and state NJVGA leader, was the awarding of the national championship and the top $500 scholarship to James L. McBe, 19-year-old grower of Phillips, West Virginia.

Jim Bentley's garden measured approximately one-eighth of an acre, and contained onions, carrots, radishes and tomatoes. He explained that because of the small size of his project, he found it best to harvest each vegetable as it was needed, going according to size. A 10th grade student who averages

Richard Metzger

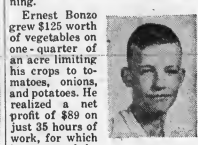

85% in his studies, he has been a 4-H president and treasurer.

Dick Metzger farmed two acres of kale and cabbage and reaped a harvest that paid $525. About $369 of this was net profit, plus $60 for his own labor, with a total of 500 hours spent on the project. He sold most of his crops to wholesale houses and local A & P stores. Dick averages 90 in his school grades, and was a 4-H president in 1948. He is also a member of the FFA, and a Boy Scout.

Emma K. Conder

Emma Conder, 17, and a high school senior, had a plot 125 by 140 feet planted to mixed vegetables, and another plot 175 by 40 feet with potatoes in it. The harvest yielded a gross revenue of $571, of which $485 was net profit after paying herself $26.40 for labor. She marketed her vegetables along with those of her father, through his facilities. Emma has been a 4-H club president for three years; district garden champion, as well as holding other important posts, and has a long list of impressive prizes taken at local fairs for her gardening and canning.

Ernest W. Bonzo

Ernest Bonzo grew $125 worth of vegetables on one-quarter of an acre limiting his crops to tomatoes, onions, and potatoes. He realized a net profit of $89 on just 35 hours of work, for which he computed the additional gain of $17.50 in wages. A member of 4-H for four years, this is his first garden project.

NAPOLÉON

Rev. Jackson Stafford and son were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hopperton and family.

Mrs. S. O. Ross suffered a fall in her home Friday. Dr. Brown was called, but fortunately no bones were broken. She will be confined to her bed for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lillard, Mrs. Mary Scudder, Mrs. Dewey Odor were shopping in Covington, last Thursday.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Emie Brock. They were married in Warsaw, Saturday. Mrs. Brock was formerly Mrs. Donna Clemons of Covington.

Ralph C. Odor visited Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Odor in Covington, over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. James Perry and daughters were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hendren. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brashears and family were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Radford Thomas and family. Afternoon callers were Miss Ramona and Mary McNeely, Bud Epperson and Thomas Baker.

Rev. and Mrs. Will Smith were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Atha.

Mrs. Chas. Young and son visited Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Holley and family, Tuesday.

I. N. Noland of Grant county says that due to soil testing this year, he had his best tobacco crop in five years.

In Harrison county, 228 homemakers made cotton doeklin gloves, some of them making five pairs.

Marshall county farmers topped previous years in the use of ammonia nitrate, one dealer reporting more than 60 tons sold for pastures.

It is estimated that around 15,000 people saw the 4-H club display in 15 store windows in Harlan county.

Members of Negro homemakers clubs in Christian and Todd counties ordered 5,700 gladiola bulbs, 1,600 tulips and 800 iris bulbs.

Shelby county homemakers made 13 United Nations flags for the county schools.

more and more thoughtful people are making this a practical Xmas

The real spirit of Christmas is not based on exchanging expensive gadgets of little or no actual use. Rather, it is based on the honest value of the simple gifts we all like to exchange with friends, relatives, neighbors. So, this Christmas why not follow the trend already started by other sensible, practical people . . . by keeping AT LEAST PART of your gifts on the PRACTICAL SIDE of giving.

For example, Happy Jack dungarees for men and boys, and Happy Jill dungarees for women and girls represent sensible gift giving at its best . . . because these fine garments just can't be beat for comfort, fit, long wear, and value.

Happy Jack and Happy Jill dungarees are made for those who appreciate fine quality clothes for work and play. You can get Happy Jack and Happy Jill dungarees at the local stores listed here.

CITY OF WALTON

At the regular meeting of the Walton City council, Monday night, a list of citizens, together with amount of delinquent taxes, was handed the Board by the tax collector, Mrs. Edith Stephenson.

After duly advertising for four weeks, the property will be sold on Saturday, January 13, 1951, to satisfy the claim of the City of Walton for delinquent taxes.

The list follows:

CARD OF THANKS—

We want to thank all of our neighbors and friends for the nice cards and flowers we have received during our illness; also Rev. and Mrs. Frank Lipscomb, Kenton Baptist Church, the Briar Hollow Beagle Club, and Swindler Ambulance Service.

—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Casey

Jesse McBrayer, Rowan county's largest poultry producer, has installed an electric water system in his poultry houses.

Perry county farmers harvested a bumper crop of sweet potatoes in 1950.

LITTLE SOUTH FORK

We are sorry to hear of Ila McCormick being ill. We wish for her speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baker and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Rea Scudder called on Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Baker recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wallace and son are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Boots and daughter.

Mrs. Eliza Scudder of Warsaw spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Rea Scudder.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Scudder and children called on Mr. and Mrs. Rea Scudder and Mrs. Eliza Scudder on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Scudder and children called on Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Baker and family, Friday night. Mrs. Ailie Perry is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Julius Sutton and daughter.

From a poor field to one of the best in Wolfe county resulted when Charles E. Linden used lime and phosphate, then seeded Ladino clover and fescue.

IRRIGATION BOOSTS CABBAGE PRODUCTION

N. L. Peck, vegetable and truck grower on the edge of Livingston county, produced 19 acres of cabbage this fall with an average yield of 15 tons to the acre. Some lettuce was also grown. He did it with the aid of irrigation, without which he thinks it is unsafe to grow vegetables. Wet as the year 1950 has been, Mr. Peck found it necessary to turn on the water several times.

A crop of corn was first grown on the ground where cabbage was later produced. By irrigating, it was possible to plant the cabbage seed in the field, later thinning the plants to the desired thickness. Planting was begun in late July and continued until early September. Fall cabbage production is usually extremely hazardous, said S. C. Bohanan, county agent, due to normal drouths in August and September. Mr. Peck also produced lettuce which ran 18 heads to the crate instead of the normal 36 usually found on the market.

The irrigation system used by Mr. Peck is a portable one, producing about 3,000 gallons of water a minute, and watering four acres in 1 1/2 hours.

LEARNS WAYS TO IMPROVE WINDOWS

Mrs. Ralph Myers of Metcalf county has put to use many of the home furnishings ideas learned in her homemakers club. Take window problems, for example.

To get more light in her kitchen, she took down the old window shades and curtains and made yellow ruffles to frame each window. In the dining room where the windows are short, she made them appear taller by hanging the curtains from a cornice board placed above the windows. Covered with brown material, they repeat the color of the four-inch band used on unbleached muslin curtains. Careful mitering of corners gave a professional finish.

In the living room two windows were treated as one. Glass curtains of ample fullness were used at both windows, with a drapery used at the outside edges only. A mirror hung between the two windows added further to the feeling of light.

Fourteen of the 19 entries in the McCreary county corn derby produced more than 100 bushels to the acre, the highest being 159 bushels by Herman Cornelius.

The Happiest Kid on the Block

... will he be yours this Christmas?

With TV
this magic world is his to enjoy
every day!

HE CAN BE—he will be—if you bring home the television set that he's wanted so long, that he'll use so much.

Laughter, music, adventure, magic—television at home means all that to a growing boy these days, but it means a lot more than just programs.

Now he'll be able to invite the gang over to his house for TV instead of having to slip over to the neighbors to see television himself.

Now he can choose his own programs, with you to help develop his tastes, instead of viewing the choices of someone else.

Now he'll spend a lot more time with Dad, watching ball games together and listening to Dad's stories about the very teams they're watching.

No wonder the happiest kid on the block will be your son when you make this year his "Television Christmas."

CHILD PERFORMERS—Talented singers, dancers, musicians, inspire your children to cultivate their own talents. They'll be more eager to learn—practice more willingly.

WORLD'S GREATEST athletic events—Fathers and sons follow their favorite teams together from a front row seat. Television helps teach your children sportsmanship.

THE WONDERFUL world of make believe enchants children for hours—is often both educational and entertaining. It sure helps Mom—especially on rainy days.

MUSIC DELUXE! Now you can see as well as hear your favorite orchestras, singers, instrumentalists! Yes, Television gets you right "on stage" seats, no money could buy!

LAUGHTER under your roof—the shared pleasure that binds your family closer. The greatest comedians of the entertainment world are in your living room every night on TV.

Peter Capra

Executive Director of the Boys Club of New York, says:

"Television is more than fun for boys. It is significant and true that since the inclusion of television in the Boys Club program, the Glee Club, Drama and Music Groups have improved tremendously in the number of boys participating. Television properly integrated in the over-all program of wholesome recreation will continue to make an increasingly valuable contribution by keeping growing boys informed, entertained and happy... essential factors in building character and developing personality."

Old Fashion Winter

Christmas is closer every day, and do we have gifts for Mom, Pop, Grandma, Grandpa, and all the kids. Nothing too expensive, but a little remembrance, and that is what counts—of course everyone would like to have a new Maytag washer or a new Perfection electric range, and we do sell some for Christmas gifts. Edith Stephenson was in today, looking—you know she has two fine grandchildren, who are always remembered. Melvin Platt bought a Big Ben alarm clock so he can go up to know these winter mornings a fellow never wants to get out of that warm bed.

Charley Rogers has a new trick on catching mice with these new metal mouse traps I sell. Thursday it snowed and snowed—we had a few customers, but we sure had the lotters, and about ten o'clock school let out and here came the boys and girls, or part of them, just when we had finished decorating and putting out toys. Oh boy, did they have fun! They wind up all the toys, look at everything two or three times, play all the games and tomorrow the same ones will be back and do it over and over, until they are all sold or thrown in the junk—well, they have a lot of fun anyway!

You know we advertise, when you need help call us, but Thursday morning when it was snowing the hardest, a lady called for me to send Brewster out and put the tubing on her oil drum to pipe oil in the house—I believe this is the first time we ever failed to try to do a job, but I would not go out a morning like this myself, unless it was an emergency, and I was not going to send him. We like to help our customers and we like for our customers to help us.

Charles and Rosie Watson were in today getting yard cans, light bulbs and a small coal heater. Joe Kennedy was in two or three times today—he had his two nephews with him, which cost him two pairs of roller skates. Levi Pennington bought some screen glass to put over his chicken house windows, to keep the cold out. We just unloaded some of the best wood heaters we ever had—some are oil cast iron and will take a 30-inch stick of wood, and the others have a cast-top, cast bottom and even a cast-iron lining—it will take a 24-inch stick of wood. These are real stoves and we only have a few—get yours before they are all gone—it took 3 months to get them.

Stan Daugherty, who is one of the owners of Boone Loke Farm, and also operates a car body repair business in Cincinnati, Ohio, bought some poultry netting to put around his fruit trees to keep the rabbits away. John Hopperton bought a beautiful Arvin table model radio—we have some very nice models and they are cheap. He has some wonderful Christmas presents for him such as Sunbeam electric razor, Ithaca automatic shotgun, Case pocket knife, electric drill, Filinger fish reel or True Temper rod and lots of other gifts, all prices. For Her, we have a Sunbeam maker, a Presto or Mirromatic cooker, a Sunbeam toaster, a Sunbeam coffeemaker, an Arvin combination waffle maker and griddle, an electric clock, Big Ben or Little Ben alarm clock, new Maytag washer or a Barton washer, all metal iron board, Perfection electric range (it is the best). For the children, most anything in wheel toys, bicycles, tricycles, BMC tractor, Hot Rod auto, wagons, all sizes, pony saddle, guns, hols ters and all kinds of games, BB guns, stoke wa guns, wrist watches, footballs and basketballs.

Buy mother a Hoover sweeper for only $29.95—how about a good Case pocket knife for dad, they are the best and fully guaranteed, or an Esquire shoe shine kit, this makes a nice gift for anyone. You know mom has been using that old fashion electric iron that she has to unplug every time it gets too hot—why not buy her a new automatic iron, like Sunbeam, American Beauty, G. E. Westinghouse or Betty Crocker, these make ironing easier and saves electricity. You know that word "Sunbeam" is a great word in electric irons, toasters, mixers, electric razors, coffeemakers and even in electric clippers for livestock. You never get off the beam by buying Sunbeam! You know your husband needs a electric motor around the house or at the barn to run a saw, a grinder or lots of other uses—there are a large stock at the old price, 1/4 h. p. to 1/2 h. p.

Ormer Kite was in early today, stood around and talked about a little bit of everything for an hour or so, then said "I want the best radio you have—how much is it?"—after he started home he said if it did not work right at his house, he was coming back with it. Roger Arnold bought some of those very nice light fixtures for his home. Walter Sleet was in looking for heating stoves—he found what he wanted, but he had to go home and ask Aggie for the $5.00, I think. Kenneth Tomlin and wife were in and bought a coal heater—he had his boss with him.

Mrs. Cecil Gaines called for some of those plastic window shades—I believe they are the best I have ever had in window shades—easy to clean and they are tough and durable. Mrs. Clem Rauchhorst was in for more of that Armstrong lineoleum. Mrs. William Lancaster wanted liquid wax—I had her try Beacon liquid wax—it goes farther and lasts longer. We are ready for Santa Claus—all the toys and gifts are out on display—come in and get your's early. We have tree lights and decorations and lots of extra bulbs. Come to Conrad's for your Christmas!

Burley Prices Firm To Slightly Higher Third Week of Sales

Average prices by grades for Burley tobacco the third week of sales were firm to slightly higher in most instances, reports the Federal-State Market News Service. Volume of offerings continued heavy, although down last week, because of the reduction in selling time. Quality of the tobacco was not as good.

For the second week grade averages showed improvement, reflecting a slightly stronger demand by dealers and manufacturers. The increases were mostly $1.00 and $2.00 per hundred as compared with last week. Gains were generally for medium and low qualities as tops held unchanged. The practical top price on most markets remained at $65.00 with an occasional basket bringing as much as $67.00. A few grades of red and dark red tips and nondescript were slightly lower.

For the week ending December 15 gross sales amounted to $9,419,936 pounds and averaged $47.30 per hundred. Daily volume ran about 2 million pounds under last week as sales were limited to 3 1/2 hours per day. The general average dropped 7 1/2 cents a hundred. Season gross sales were brought to 231,090,652 pounds for a $47.96 average. Compared with the first twelve days of last year, volume is about 18 1/2 million pounds more and the average $1.81 higher.

Offerings contained a larger percentage of low quality and nondescript grades. There were less fair to fine quality marketings, especially leaf. Principal sales were to good leaf, low and fair lugs, flyings and tips and nondescript.

Deliveries to the Associations under the Government loan program this week were estimated at 11% of the baskets. Through December 8 season receipts of the Associations totaled 18,179,450 pounds representing about 13% of the gross sales. The market will close for the year today (Dec. 21) for the Christmas holidays. No reopening date has been set.

R. M. Lucas, Dry Ridge, Named Kentucky Colonel

R. M. Lucas, well known realtor and auctioneer, has had the honor of being designated as a Colonel on the Governor's Staff.

This was the first official appointment made by Gov. Earle C. Clements. There are about 275 Colonels in the U. S. belonging to the "Honorable Order of Kentucky Colonels."

Mr. Lucas has been in the real estate and auction business for 25 years, with offices at 115 West 3rd St., Cincinnati, Ohio, and has conducted sales in most of the states in the United States. He has just returned from Los Angeles, Calif., where he is handling a subdivision, containing 50 commercial acres, located in the heart of that city, and he believes it will bring approximately a million dollars. Mr. Lucas makes his home at the Carlsbad Hotel, Dry Ridge, Ky.

CHRISTMAS CANTATA

The choir at the Walton Baptist Church will present a Christmas Cantata, Sunday evening, December 24, and the public is invited to enjoy this program.

The young adult B. T. U. will give a Christmas play on New Year's Eve at the church. This will be followed by a "Watch Night Service," to welcome in the New Year.

Sunday morning the pastor, Rev. B. C. Garrett, will speak on the subject, "The Meaning of Christmas."

Christmas is here again! Or, is Christmas here yet? There is a vast difference between the two conceptions; one is occasional, the other is continuous; one is annual, the other everlasting. The first pagan, the other Christian.

Christ has not only come, but he is here. He has not only enriched, but he enriches. He not only sheds light in the past; He is light. He not only gives life; He is life itself.

Baptist W.M.U. to Meet

The Baptist W. M. U. will meet at the church today (Thursday) at 11 a. m. This is a special service with a covered dish dinner at noon. The subject will be taken from Royal Service.

Two things happen to Ye Editor and force of Christmas time each year: First, we get the opportunity to thank our loyal advertisers, subscribers and correspondents for the wonderful cooperation given during the past year; Second, we all get the only vacation that we get during the year, since there will be no paper next week.

So may we sincerely wish everyone a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year, from the bottom of our hearts!

$6,500 Fire Destroys Two Buildings At Big Bone, Tuesday

Two buildings were destroyed and another damaged by a $6,500 fire in Big Bone, Boone county, Tuesday.

The Florence Volunteer Fire Department responded but was unable to save the burning structures. The blaze apparently started in a cafe owned by Russell Miller, according to a report from Harold Martin, acting fire chief. He said the cafe owner's wife said she had left the cafe for about 10 minutes to go to her home immediately across the street.

When she left home to return to the cafe she saw flames on the roof of the cafe building. The fire spread rapidly to the two-story building of Lono O'Rourke. Both were destroyed.

Another building housing a cafe, owned by J. D. Moore, was damaged approximately $500. Firemen were able to bring the roof fire in that structure under control. Firemen found it necessary to lay more than 1000 feet of hose and dig out the bed of a creek for their water supply.

Bobby Acra Reported as Safe; 2 Others in Japan

Bobby Acra, son of Mr. and Mrs. Casper Acra, of Walton, wrote his parents this week that he is safe in Korea. He was in the division that was cut-off for some time, but after a long hard battle fought their way back to the U. N. lines. This was the first word that had been received from Bobby for quite some time. All were glad to hear the good news. Mrs. Ann Doyle of Florence, learned that her son, Cpl. Thomas Doyle, was injured when his jeep turned over five times at Chosin. He wrote he is recovering from his injuries, apparently not serious, at a hospital in Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Jones of Florence received a letter from their son, saying that he was the first to aid Cpl. Doyle after the accident. He also was injured, but not seriously, and is recovering in Japan.

Bus Service to Church

Rev. Joe Johnson will be making regular trips each Sunday, with his bus, to South Fork Christian Church. All those on the route are asked to be ready. The bus will leave Verona at 8:45 a. m.

About 5,000 acres in Ballard county were needed to permanent pastures this fall, 75% being to fescue and Ladino clover.

JAMES HOPPERTON

James Hopperton, 84-year-old retired farmer, died at his home at Verona, December 14. He was a member of the Paint Lick Baptist Church, and had spent his lifetime in Gallatin county and Verona.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Hopperton, Verona; three sons, Elza and John Hopperton, both of Walton, and Ben Hopperton of Verona; five daughters, Mrs. Allen Morris of Warsaw, Mrs. John Barnes of Warsaw, Mrs. Joseph Costa of Monterey, Calif., Mrs. Otto Scudder of Warsaw, and Mrs. Kenneth Vest of Verona; 32 grandchildren, 41 great-grandchildren, and four great-great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Sunday, December 17, at 3:00 p. m. in the Hamilton Funeral Home, Verona, with Rev. G. Jackson Stafford and Rev. Raymond Stewart officiating. Burial was in New Bethel Cemetery, Verona.

MABLE BROWNING

Funeral services were held last Thursday at 2:30 p. m. in the Elmore Baptist Church for Mrs. Mable Browning, a native of Walton, who died December 12, at her home on Donaldson Highway, Erlanger. Burial was in the Florence Cemetery, directed by the Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Florence.

Surviving are her husband, Clarence Browning; a daughter, Glenna Rose Browning, and a son, Robert Browning, both at home; two sisters, Mrs. Anna Johnson of Walton, and Mrs. Ruth Garvey of Covington, and three brothers, A. C. Johnson of Frederickburg, Tenn.; Delaney Johnson of Walton, and Hill Johnson of Covington.

ISLA McCORMICK

Anna Isla McCormick, age 46, of Verona, died in St. Elizabeth's hospital, Covington, December 12. She was well known and well liked in both Gallatin and Boone counties. She was a member of St. Patrick Church, Verona.

Miss McCormick is survived by her mother, Mrs. Lizzie McCormick of Verona; a brother, James Elbert McCormick, also of Verona; one niece and one nephew.

Funeral services were held Friday, December 15, at 10:00 a. m. at St. Patrick Catholic Church, Verona, with Rev. Henry Busmeyer officiating. Burial was in St. Patrick Cemetery, Verona.

Hamilton Funeral Home, Verona, had charge of arrangements.

Christmas Party Is Enjoyed by Walton Woman's Club

The Walton Woman's Literary Club was entertained in the home of Mrs. W. W. Rouse, December 6 for a Christmas party. There was a feeling of Christmas in the hearts of everyone, during the entire meeting.

Mrs. W. D. Scroggin, president, opened the meeting by reading several letters pertaining to club activities. The club collect was read by Mrs. J. E. McCabe. Miss Jean Chambers called the roll and twenty-seven members answered with a Christmas thought. Several guests were present. Members voted to send a package to a needy family abroad for Christmas. Socks were donated by members to be filled for veterans in the hospital in Louisville.

The meeting was turned over to Mrs. E. B. Wallace, leader for the day. She introduced Miss Emma Jane Miller, who gave an account of the origin of Christmas and its spiritual significance. The guest speaker, Mrs. Morris Coers, was presented in a most impressive manner, spoke on "Women of the Bible." She chose Esther, Naomi and Mary, the mother of our Savior, three beautiful characters. Following the program, Mrs. Leo Fife and Mrs. John Myers had charge of the gift exchange, which is always much enjoyed.

Nice refreshments were served by the hostess, which were typical of the holiday season. Everyone left thankful for knowing the real meaning of Christmas.

Mrs. A. R. Johnson will entertain the club, January 3, at the Arthur Apartments, 6th and Greenup Sts., Covington. Please be there by one-thirty o'clock.

WALTON BOY NAMED "MR. DIXIE" FOR YEAR

Tommie Pruett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Pruett, of Walton, who is a senior in Dixie Heights High School, was picked by the student body as their "Mr. Dixie" for this year. This honor is given the student with the most rounded out activity, including athletics, academics and dramatic abilities. Tommie according to the Colonel, the school paper, had this to say for him: "Tom is a busy fellow with a friendly smile and a good word for everybody. You can't miss seeing him around with carrot hair of his!" Congratulations, Tommie, that is quite an honor, being chosen "Mr. Dixie."

Tom Pruett

The victims were the Erlanger team, which was defeated by the Danville team, 45-45, and only seconds remaining, Rash tried a long shot that won for Lloyd.

Father, Two Children Perish In Fire Near Burlington, Sunday

Triple services for a father and two children who were burned to death in a fire that destroyed their home, near Burlington, last Sunday, were held at 2:00 p. m., Tuesday at the Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Florence. Burial was in the Burlington Cemetery.

The victims were Thomas Gail Craddock, 30; his daughter, Judith, 10, and son, Leonard, 4. Mr. Craddock's wife, Edna, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Caldwell, Walton, and their infant daughter, Joyce, seven months, and Miss Audrey Massey, 15, who had been baby sitting Saturday night for the Craddocks, escaped.

The mother was reported in "good" condition at Both Hospital, Monday. She suffered third degree burns on the right hand and less serious burns on the face, neck and feet.

The triple tragedy occurred in the five-room cottage located on Woolper road, seven miles from Burlington. Mr. Craddock and the children died in the flaming home when the roof collapsed as he was groping in the flames in a vain attempt to free himself and the children.

The mother and Miss Massey fled with the infant after Mrs. Craddock had made an attempt to get to the older children. Clad only in night clothing, and barefooted, the mother walked nearly a quarter of a mile to the home of neighbors.

Besides his widow and infant daughter, Mr. Craddock leaves four brothers, Orville, Norman and James Craddock, all of Burlington, and William Craddock of Oklahoma; four sisters, Mrs. Fay Hensley, Mrs. Barney Turner and Mrs. Irene Scudder, all of Hebron, and Mrs. Thomas Judd of Florence, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Craddock, Boone county.

Christmas Eve Program

The Union and Richmond Presbyterian Churches will hold their annual Christmas Eve program, Sunday night, December 24, at 8:00 p. m., at the Richmond Presbyterian Church. This year the program is a Candlelight Communion service. Rev. Don Hopkins, pastor, said "Every member is urged to come and worship, and the community is cordially welcomed to worship with us this Christmas Eve."

Auto Licenses On Sale

According to C. D. Benson, Boone County Clerk, the Kentucky license plates for automobiles are now on sale at Burlington. Drivers are asked to take their last year's (1950) registration slip with them.

SCHOOL CLOSES FRIDAY, OPENS TUESDAY, JAN. 2

The Walton and Verona schools will close this Friday, December 22, with Christmas program, for the holidays, and will open again on Tuesday, January 2, according to Mr. J. O. Ward, Superintendent.

Lloyd Jugs Win In Last Second 47-45

The past week the Bearcats broke even in a pair of basketball games. Last Thursday evening, they were defeated by a veteran Erlanger Lloyd team 47-45 in the last couple of seconds of play, and on Tuesday night of this week, they defeated a favored Danville (Ky.) five 59-56. Both games were played on the Walton floor.

The Erlanger title was a close and hard-fought battle all the way. The "Cats" led at the end of the first quarter, 16-13, and also at the intermission, 28-27. At the close of the third period the score was tied at 36-36, and in the final frame the lead was handed back and forth several times, but when the count evened, 45-45, and only seconds remaining, Rash tried a long shot that won for Lloyd.

Dennis Glacken had a "field day" for the losers, hanging up a total of 22 points, high for the game. Rash led the Lloyd offense with 15 points. A bright spot in the play of the locals was the showing made by Don Vest—he is really coming along.

In the preliminary game, Lloyd's reserved outscored Walton's second team 40-24.

The procedure was reversed somewhat in the Danville game, with Walton coming from behind in the last period to win. The visitors had a 21-15 lead in the first quarter, and held their advantage in the second period, the score being 37-31 at the half. In the third frame, the "Cats" began creeping up, whittling off 3 points, trailing

KENTUCKIANS IN WASHINGTON

by Gil Kingsbury

Merry Christmas! And the best to you and yours.
By the time the next news letter rolls your way from the Capital, Kentuckians all over the world will have celebrated the Yuletide season. Some will be in cold foxholes in strange lands. Others will be in hospitals. The more fortunate of us will have the comfort of loved ones and the warm fireside to brighten our day.

We must all hope and pray that another holiday season once again finds the world at peace.

Santa's List:
We've had a look at Santa's list. Some of the gifts requested by Kentuckians.

Congressman Joe Bates, of course, a four year rent-free lease on the Governor's Mansion at Frankfort. Congressman Brent Spence wants for once in his long and Honorable Career—a chance to return to Congress without opposition. Every other Kentucky lawmaker wants Santa Claus to leave his district undisturbed when the General Assembly re-districts the state. (They are doomed to disappointment).

The Northern Kentucky counties also are on Santa's list. Pendleton County wants that Falmouth Dam. Bracken would like to have more work on the Mary Ingles Highway. So would Campbell County, and Kenon County wants assurance that her fine airport will—for many years to come—be the No. one air field in the Greater Cincinnati Area.

Dinner Called Off:

There's not going to be much of a social season in Washington this year. And that's just as it should be. Vice President Barkley set an example the other day when he and Mrs. Barkley called off the dinner they had planned for President and Mrs. Truman.

Mall From Home:

Most of the mail coming to congressional and senatorial offices has to do with the war and the world crisis.

However, lawmakers are also being deluged with letters regarding an increase in parcel post rates. A group of express company employees in Campbell County want rates increased. They, naturally, want to protect their jobs.

However, farmers in Gallatin and Grant Counties are writing to oppose such an increase.

No decision yet and no decision is likely until next year.

Political Note:

Which state is the biggest Republican state? Maine? Vermont? Both are wrong. As far as money goes, Arizona is the winner of the Republican sweepstakes.

The National GOP had a fund raising drive and Arizona came through with more than 100 per cent of her quota. Ohio went way over the top, too.

Kentucky Republicans ranked way down the list with a little more than six per cent of the quota set.

Once again, A Merry Christmas from the Capital of the Nation.

Christmas Program at Wilmington

The Christmas program of the Wilmington Baptist Church will be given December 23 at 7:30 p. m. The program will be the complete story in the life of Christ, given in readings, songs, choruses, Christmas carols, solos, quartets and numbers by the choir.

Independence Baptist Church

The Christmas program of the Independence Baptist Church will be given Christmas Eve, Dec. 24, at 7:30. The program will consist of a religious drama, entitled "A Christmas Blessing," by the young folk with Christmas carols, songs by the children and young people's choir and speeches by the small children. The Sunday school is going to treat that night and it is desired that all the Sunday school pupils be present. The men of the church have kindly volunteered to go after any pupils who have no transportation. The only treat to be reserved this year is that for pupils who are sick. Those ill should notify their teachers. The plan is to treat every person in the house.

Christmas is the date set for a special offering for the parsonage fund of the Independence Baptist Church. A good halfway has been made with this fund and it is desired that another good "square lift" be given next Sunday, when all the regular and special offering will be applied in reducing indebtedness on the parsonage.

Married

Ray Wayne England, 21, and Joan Mary Kramer, 19, were married December 13 in the Independence Baptist Church, with relatives present. The pastor, W. E. Maners, performed the ceremony. The best man was T. J. Cain and the bride's maid was the sister of the bride, Doris Kramer.

Mrs. Mabel Browning

Mrs. Mabel Browning, mother of Rev. Robert Browning, pastor of the Oak Island Baptist Church, was buried from the Elmore Baptist Church last Thursday, Dec. 14. She had been an invalid for about 16 years.

Dairy Meeting

Monday night, Dec. 11, the Dairy-men's Cooperative Association, met at the court house in Independence. The program consisted of speaking, singing and refreshments.

Ladies' Auxiliary to Meet

The Ladies of the Auxiliary of the Independence Volunteer Fire Department will hold their monthly meeting Thursday night, Dec. 21, in the Fire House.

Mary Jane Gordon

Mrs. Mary Jane Gordon, a former Covington resident, died Dec. 14 at her home in South Norwood, Ohio. She was 74 years old.

Mrs. Gordon is survived by two brothers, Joseph Staggs of Newport, and Charles Staggs of Covington, and two sisters, Mrs. W. A. Pope of South Norwood, and Mrs. G. H. Brunst of Independence.

Raymond T. Dorman

Raymond T. Dorman, general car foreman for the L. & N. Railroad, died at his home on Taylor Mill Pike, Dec. 12. Services were conducted last Friday at the Latonia Baptist Church, with burial in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Erlanger.

Six large reservoirs were built in one month by three beef cattle farmers and two dairymen in Calloway county.

GLENCOE

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Doughty and daughter and Mrs. Clara Lovelace spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Noel.

Mrs. Inas Chapman is very ill at this time. We hope for her speedy recovery.

We were very sorry to hear of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hedger's little daughter, Patricia, being so sick with rheumatic fever. She will be glad to receive cards from her friends—46 Highway Ave., Ludlow, Ky. Jean Hon was home over the weekend from the Louisville Bible College, where he is studying to be a minister.

A Christmas play will be given at the Baptist church, December 24, at 7:30 p. m. All are invited to attend.

Little Bobbie Ayers fell and broke his arm and is doing nicely.

Mrs. Mattie Stewart has not been so well. Her sister, Mrs. Claude Kemper, has come to be with her. Sympathy is extended to Henry Groves' family in the death of Henry.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Noel will celebrate their silver wedding anniversary, Sunday, December 24.

Mrs. Dortha Perry is now one of our new cashiers in the Glencoe Bank. Dortha is a fine girl.

Mrs. Maud Thomas Rowland is at home for the holidays.

Mrs. Inas Chapman is no better at this writing.

Mrs. Velma Chapman and Mrs. Susie Webster were shopping in Covington, last week.

Mrs. Ollie Hudson was greatly surprised over a new watch given her by her daughter, Mrs. Vivian Hamilton.

Douglas McNeely has moved from the Walter Noel house to Carrollton.

R. J. Redd of Trigg county sold timber from 10 acres for $3,000, at the rate of $300 an acre.

Reaching for the tip top of the tree, Bill Thall gets some decorating hints on tree trimming from Ruth Lyons. The pair are in the midst of plans on their noon, EST, "Fifty Club" program over WLW for Christmas parties for hospitalized children.

STAFFORDSBURG

We were very glad to have a good attendance at Sunday school. We are planning a program for Christmas. Watch for further announcement.

Earl Hanna, who has been ill for a few days, is improving and we trust will soon be out again.

Rev. Arnold assures us that Mrs. Arnold is feeling better. We hope for complete recovery.

Mrs. J. Barnett has been called to Mt. Sterling, where Rev. and Mrs. Roy Martin and son are ill with colds.

Just an even dozen at preaching service Sunday evening, but each was glad that they went "up to the House of the Lord."

We missed Mrs. W. E. Hanna at Sunday school. So sorry, because she had not missed once this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Henry visited with Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Rapp on Sunday.

Let us not forget to pray that the Christ who came so long ago to bring peace, may so touch men's hearts today that they shall find a way to live together without war.

Ryland Heights Homemakers.

Christmas and the joy of giving was the topic for a round-table discussion by all members and guests, in the home of Mrs. F. B. Hermes, at the December meeting of the Ryland Heights Homemakers.

Mrs. J. S. Murchison led in the singing of the "Blessing," after which all enjoyed a very tasty luncheon.

The afternoon program was conducted by Mrs. William Dieckman. Included a reading from the Book of Matthew, verses 2 through 11, by Mrs. Hermes. Mrs. Murchison read the poem, "What Makes Christmas," and an article on customs of "Christmas in Other Countries," was given by Mrs. Oliver Gee. A Christmas Carol was sung by the group and an afternoon of games was enjoyed by all present.

The following attended: Mrs. N. L. Leach, Mrs. W. A. Damon, Mrs. O. J. Williams, Mrs. W. P. Schwall, Mrs. J. S. Murchison, Mrs. Wm. Dieckman, Mrs. Oliver Gee, Mrs. Shelby Martin, Mrs. Anna Bagby, and guests, Mrs. Walden, Mrs. Gee, Mrs. Hermes' mother, and Miss Zelma Byerly, Home Demonstration Agent, also the hostess.

Gunpowder Homemakers

The Christmas party of the Gunpowder Homemakers' Club was held in the home of Mrs. Frank Dils.

The reading of the scripture lesson on the first Christmas was by Mrs. Bert Marksberry and the reciting of a Christmas poem by Mrs. Cliff Norman, was followed by the playing of games, singing of Carols and an exchange of gifts.

Attending the party, Madames Edgar Utzinger, Kenneth Connors, Sr., George Black, Virgil Kelly, Glenn Stevens, Virgil Kelly, Charles Tanner, Cliff Norman, William Ferguson, Dolph Seebree, Robert Moore, Bert Marksberry, B. M. Stevens, Miss Nancy McClaskey, and Mrs. Dils.

CARD OF THANKS—

We, the family of Mrs. Fannie Montgomery, wish to express our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to our friends for their kindness shown to us during the illness and death of our loved one.

Especially do we thank Rev. Garrett and Rev. McNeely for their comforting words; the pianist, Miss Edna Belle Thornton; the singers, Mrs. Kenneth Johnson and Mrs. Bryan Rector; the Chambers and Grubbs funeral home for the efficient way in which the funeral was conducted, and the donors of the beautiful flowers. May God richly bless and keep each of you.

"Do We Sense Our School Needs?"

Last summer there was organized in the state of Kentucky what is known as the Council of Education for Kentucky. At this first meeting, which was held in Louisville, there were fifty different organizations in Kentucky which sent delegates to represent them and to become a part of this newly-formed council.

According to J. O. Ward, Superintendent of Walton-Verona Schools, the purpose of this council is to: (1) Conduct and encourage studies of our educational needs, both locally and in the state, and to tell the public what these needs are; (2) to promote the organization of a local council in every school district of the state; (3) to encourage and support legislation for the improvement of our public schools in Kentucky; (4) to advise on plans for organizations holding membership in the council.

The Kentucky Council for Education is composed of individuals, clubs, Rotary, Lions and Chamber of Commerce members, P. T. A. groups and many others, who believe that every citizen should take an active part in helping our schools fulfill their part in the American democracy.

One of the chief things this council is taking into consideration is what our schools needs are for the present and for the future. They are now studying the problem of how we can meet the needs of the schools through proper legislation.

Mr. Ward also stated that a meeting was called Monday in Covington of all school districts in Northern Kentucky. At this meeting there were representatives from local councils which have been formed in different communities of Northern Kentucky. Other groups represented were P. T. A. members, members of Boards of Education, business men and women, school superintendents, principals and supervisors.

It was pointed out at this time that since school started in September, one county has already lost 22 teachers, and another 15, to war industries. These teachers, in some instances, are making as much as $1,500 more per year than they made as teachers. We may soon be faced with a shortage of teachers, greater than the shortage during World War II.

The group meeting in Covington made some of the following recommendations, the same to be studied by the Planning Committee and turned over to the Directors of the Kentucky Educational Association, to be voted on when the K.E.A. meets in April:

1. Every school must provide a nine months school term, if it can do so without cutting teachers salaries per month pay.
2. No school board should have to pay more than 1% for the collection of school tax (there is now a lawsuit in process which is trying to compel schools to pay 4% for the collection of taxes).

3. Nine school districts had already held similar meetings, seven of them had voted to call a special session of the legislature if it would be agreeable with all concerned. Our district voted not to do anything toward trying to get a special session at this time but is such a session were held, to try to get something done for the teachers and schools needs.

4. Some school districts and some counties have their tax assessment below the average of a 43% valuation, which is about the average for the state. It was recommended that where a tax assessment did not come up to the state average, that school boards be allowed to raise the tax rate to make up for the difference. This would not, Mr. Ward said, apply to Boone county or Walton-Verona, as their tax assessment is well above the state average.

5. Recommend that some form of a sales tax be passed so as to enable the state to furnish more money for the schools.

6. $2,400 per year salary for all teachers with degrees.

7. The state should use some means to aid in pupil transportation, such as help in paying for busses and upkeep of same.

8. No child should be allowed to enter school who is not six years of age within thirty days after school opens in September.

9. The textbook law should be changed and amended so as to provide new text books to all children when the new adoption is made and money should be appropriated to take care of this in one year and not for four or five years as is now the case.

Free Savings Bond Gift Jacket Depicts Wise Men

This beautiful gift jacket is available now at local banks and post offices for those buying the present with a future—U. S. Savings Bonds. The folder is in four colors and shows the Wise Men on their way to visit the Holy Child.

Today's wise men give Savings Bonds as gifts because they know that they mean many Merry Christmases and Happy New Years'.

The above, Mr. Ward added, were only recommendations made by one group. Groups of men and women are meeting in all parts of the state and are making similar recommendations, which will be compiled and the citizens of our state, along with the educational leaders, will have a definite and concrete program mapped out to hand to our next Legislature, which convenes in 1952, or better still, it should be planned to get it before those who aspire to be elected to the next Legislature, and elect only the men who will support the children of our state.

Kenton Utopia Club Meets

The Kenton Utopia Club held its monthly meeting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cummins on Decoursey Pike. The program committee planned the program for 1951, which includes: Home Decoration, Green Pastures, Soil Improvement, Buying of Seeds and Fertilizer, Small Farms and the Farmer, Farm Building Improvements. Activities for the year were also planned, which include: State Utopia Conference, State Utopia Camp, and 4-H Club Fair. This program was presented before the group and approved.

Merry Christmas

Once again we greet you at Christmas time. We greet you in a spirit of Good Cheer and of Thankfulness... Good Cheer because of the splendid year we have enjoyed, and Thankfulness because of loyal support of good friends like you. To you, therefore, whose Good Will has contributed to our well being, we say... "Thank you most heartily. May you enjoy a Merry Christmas and a Happy, Prosperous New Year."

ISLA MCCORMICK—

The Death Angel visited our community and took from us one of our beloved citizens, Isla McCormick.

She was born in Boone County and lived there all her life and was loved by all who knew her.

She was 46 years of age at the time of her death, passing away December 12th.

She was the loving daughter of Mrs. Lizzie McCormick, Verona, Ky.

She leaves to mourn her passing, one brother, Elbert McCormick, besides her most loving mother, and other relatives and friends.

She may be gone, but will never be forgotten by her loving mother and brother, who worshipped her.

Never was there a better and more honest girl than Isla.

May she be heavenly blessed in her new home and her Saviour.

She has gone to rest in her wonderful home, called Heaven.

Burial in Verona cemetery.

A precious one from us has gone.

A voice we loved is still.

A place is vacant in our hearts,

Which never can be filled.

12-51* —A Friend

CARD OF THANKS—

We wish to take this means of expressing our appreciation to our neighbors, friends and relatives for their many acts of kindness during the illness and loss of our loved one, Isla McCormick.

Especially do we wish to thank the donors of the many floral tributes and spiritual bouquets, those who prepared the grave, Rev. Busemeyer for the Mass and his kind remarks, and the Hamilton Funeral Home for their services.

Mrs. Lizzie McCormick,

J. E. McCormick & Family,

12-51* and Raymond Scott.

Herman Bryan of Hardin county, who fired his tobacco for the first time, credits that treatment with saving his crop of 1.6 acres.

Fulton county farmers seeded 12,000 acres to fescue and Ladino clover in 1950, bringing the total to approximately 30,000 acres.

R. G. Poe and Robert Taylor of Bracken county built a 50-stick tobacco press, using a plan from the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky.

Garden club members in Carter county set out 300 tulip bulbs on the court house lawn in Grayson.

We are glad to report Howard Hoff, man improving some, and we hope he will soon be able to be up and about.

Our pastor's wife, Mrs. J. F. Arnold is much improved and is visiting her daughters in Louisville, until after the holidays.

Mrs. J. J. Barnett has returned home from Mt. Sterling, where she was caring for her daughter and little grandson, who were quite ill with strep throat. We are glad to report they are much improved.

Miss Rosemary Binder spent Saturday night with Miss Wavelyn Riley.

The Staffordsburg Sunday school is planning a Christmas program at the church on Saturday night at 8 p. m. All come out and see old Santa. He will be there.

Rev. Arnold fulfilled his regular appointment at Staffordsburg Sunday morning and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Richardson spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Richardson.

Ben Fisher spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Deuser.

Miss Minnie Rapp is leaving today (Thursday) for McGee, Ark., to visit her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Rapp.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney are expecting their son, Paul, home for the holidays.

The Staffordsburg Homemakers were entertained at The Arthur for their Christmas party, Tuesday of last week. All reported a very nice day.

TOBACCO TO HAVE BIG PART IN FARM HOME CONVENTION

Tobacco production will receive much attention in the program of the annual Farm and Home Convention at the Experiment Station of the University of Kentucky at Lexington, January 30-February 2.

Subjects to be discussed will include control of diseases and insects; the effects of topping, suckering and pruning on yield and quality; curing; price variations, foreign markets; trends in the use of burley; and increasing yields with cover crops and fertilizer. One of the speakers will be Hugh Taylor, executive secretary of the Burley and Dark-Led Tobacco Export Association at Washington.

Another program will deal with crop improvement, at which time winners will be recognized in the state corn derby and Green Pastures program. Production of hay and silage, feeding roughage crops, improving pastures, growing clovers, alfalfa and other hay crops and general soil management will be the subjects of talks. The work of soil-testing laboratories will be explained.

Other programs of the four-day convention will deal with livestock production, dairying, farm engineering, farm management, fruit production, marketing, and the rural community and church.

Exclusive programs for women will be given in Memorial Hall, when many problems in homemaking will be discussed.

Lowell Thomas, Jr., will show pictures of his trip to Tibet the night of Jan. 30 in the Memorial Coliseum at the University of Kentucky.

DEVELOP HEIFERS BEFORE BREEDING

Dairy heifers should be well developed before breeding, say dairy men at the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky. Age of breeding, however, may depend somewhat on size. Jerseys and Guernseys, if well developed, may be bred at 16 or 18 months, and the larger breeds at 18 to 20 months. If a heifer is small, dairymen let her grow another two months before breeding.

Within each breed the larger cows are more profitable, it was stated. Heifers should be well developed and grown out to make good herd replacements.

PRODUCTION RULES FEEDING OF COWS

Feeding each cow according to her ability to produce helps combat high milk costs in winter, says John E. Couey of the Dairy Division of the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky. Feeding at this time of year should include grain, the amount governed by the quality of the hay, silage or other roughage, Couey pointed out.

"With good-quality roughage," he said, "the concentrate mixture might consist entirely of home-grown grain or contain only 100 pounds of purchased, high-protein supplement to 1,000 pounds of grain, which makes a 12% protein ration."

"If the quality of roughage is only fair, the concentrate mixture should contain about 16% protein. At this level, 500 pounds of home-grown grains must be supplemented with 100 to 120 pounds of high-protein supplement."

"With poor-quality roughage, the concentrate costs are still higher. It is then essential that the protein content of the concentrate ration be near 20%. This requires that 200 pounds of high-protein supplement be added to each 500 pounds of home-grown grains."

I have to look dressed up when I'm out deliverin' gifts to folks for Christmas, but almost every other day I wear those comfortable, tough-wearing Happy Jack dungarees. They feel better and wear nearly twice as long as any others I've found. Plenty of other folks wear 'em, too, including all my helpers and people all over America. For puttin' 'round in my workshop or taking care of my reindeer, I've found you just can't beat Happy Jack dungarees for men. Women wear 'em too, only they're called Happy Jill. You can get Happy Jack and Happy Jill dungarees in stores everywhere.

SPARTA R. 2

This community was saddened by the tragic death of Henry Gross on Friday, December 16. He was one of the Gallatin County school bus drivers and was greatly loved by the children. Deepest sympathy is extended to the bereaved ones, especially his mother, Mrs. Fanny Gross of Walton, who is in very poor health.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Boots and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Will Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Groves had to take their little son, Harold, back to the hospital last week. Hope he will soon be restored to health.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunn of Carrollton, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Gross.

Mrs. Margaret Arrasmith and Mrs. Kathleen Carver were shopping in Covington, Saturday.

A. M. Arrasmith was a business visitor in Carrollton, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker, Jr., and children were Sunday guests of Mrs. Mollie Kemper.

Willie Devereaux was a visitor in Owenton, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Furnish and children and Mr. and Mrs. Avery Furnish were callers in Carrollton, Sunday night.

Several from here attended the funeral of Henry Gross at the Carlton funeral home, Monday afternoon.

We wish the editor, correspondents and all readers of the Advertiser, a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Dan and Kim Sawyers of Clinton county have treated and restocked with bass and bream the two one-acre ponds on their farm.

NO IDLE LAND FOR MASTER PASTUREMAN

C. T. Barton, master pastureman and breeder of Angus cattle, has no idle land on his 90-acre farm. Every acre is producing first-class pasture or row crops, says Farm Agent J. W. Kidwell. Approximately 80 acres are in pasture or hay crops.

Mr. Barton does not depend on any one pasture or grass. There are good stands of fescue and Ladino clover. In other fields is a mixture of bluegrass, redtop, fescue, white Dutch clover and lespedeza. Kudzu grows on steep bluffs, and hay consists of Korean lespedeza, sericea lespedeza and alfalfa.

Every precaution is taken by this farmer to keep valuable top soil from washing away. Row crops are put in river bottoms and level uplands. All cultivated land is seeded in winter crops, and sheep and rolling land is kept in pasture.

Mr. Barton's farming program includes 27 head of beef cattle, two dairy cows, two horses, five hogs, nine-tenths acre of tobacco, six acres of corn, a half-acre each of strawberries and potatoes, and a home garden.

Market News Bulletin

Free Calfhood Vaccination
Farmers buying calves through Kentucky stockyards can now have these calves vaccinated for Bangs disease without cost, according to the State Department of Agriculture. Commissioner Walters has announced that all that is required is that farmers request such service from stockyard officials. The Kentucky Department of Agriculture will furnish the vaccine and pay the veterinarian. Commissioner Walters also announced that the age limit on calfhood vaccination has been lowered from 6-12 months to 4-8 months.

Market News Survey to Be Made
The Kentucky Department of Agriculture in cooperation with The Farm Bureau, are going to send out questionnaires to the farmers to determine what type of farm news is desired. Commodities interested in and in what manner they would like to receive the news. This is being done with the hope of securing an improved method of market news reporting.

Grain Markets Continue Upward
Grain markets continued on an upward trend during the week ended December 14, influenced by smaller offerings and a more active inquiry, according to reports to the U. S. and Kentucky Departments of Agriculture. Corn and wheat prices made considerable gains. Corn advanced 1c-2c per bushel, wheat 8c and flaxseed 15c. Oats gained with corn and barley was up 5c per bushel while soybeans gained the same amount. Prices of oats, barley and grain sorghums reached new highs for the season.

Carter county homemakers were commended by the county fire chief for their study of defective wiring, plugs and sockets.

Something for Love

Lesson for December 24, 1950

SCRIPTURE: Luke 2:1-20; Philippians 1:1-15.

THIS is a true story but it also is a parable for Christmas. Once upon a time there lived a lady who had everything. As Christmas time came on, her many friends racked their brains to think what they could give her. It would have been absurd to send her a check, for though she was not rich, she did not really need money. There was nothing to Dr. Foreman speak of that she seemed to need for her house, for she had lived in one place for some time and she had collected about all the furniture and bric-a-brac that her house would hold. There was not much use in giving her something like candy because she was on a diet and could not eat fancy foods. She had more pictures than she could hang at one time, and as for books, she had a taste above best-sellers and what she could not get from the public library she could buy for herself.

A Lovable Person

HOWEVER, her friends were determined to give her something, for she was a lovable person; so when Christmas time came her table was piled with gay parcels from near and far. Some of the gifts may have been expensive and some not, but all were beautiful. So she appreciated them, but because she could have bought any of them herself, she did not appreciate any of them quite so much as she did one present that when Christmas morning came could not be seen at all. One could not call it a beautiful present to look at; indeed it was no more than a long time. This lady had a cook. She was not a very good cook when first she went to work, because she was young and no one had trained her and she did not like to be trained. She was suspicious of any one who tried to show her how to do anything, and she bore a grudge against any one who had more in this world than she had. But the lady was patient and the girl learned about a home from her, indeed the most and the best she learned was not about cooking at all, as you shall see.

The Invisible Gift

ON the day before Christmas the girl went home early to spend the day with her family. But before dark on Christmas day, in the same hour the kitchen stove went out of order and visitors came to spend the night, and the lady told ill. Not knowing what to do, she called up the girl, Christmas though it was, and asked her if she could come back and help her for a few hours to get things straight.

So the girl came and made the stove behave and cooked a meal and took care of her friend and made everything as it should be on that day. When it was late and time to go, the lady offered the girl more than her usual pay. But the girl would not take even one coin. She said to her friend: "I like to do something for love."

The True Gift

GIFTS that are sold in the stores, gifts that crowd the post offices, carloads of gifts that pass each other in the night on roaring wheels, the little gifts and the great: which of these are given for love? Some are sent to return a favor; some because it is the thing to be done; some are sent out of old habit, or in hope of favor to come.

It can never be seen, for it cannot be sold in the stores and the post office does not know the rates on it. It comes silently, and sometimes only the giver and God know about it, and the one who receives it does not suspect. But it shines above all the tinsel and the stars upon the Christmas tree; when the lights are out it glows in the dark. It keeps the night bright for the lonely heart. It is the something done for love, them—everything but that.

That is what Christmas means. On the first Christmas Eve, Mary the blessed Mother, was in pain, but it was pain borne in love. You could not have paid her for it. Yes, and the Child that lay in the manger that night was because God wanted to do something—for love.

Passes EVERY TEST!

Thirty-four years ago farmers were in such dire need of better credit that Congress authorized the Federal Land Bank system. Since then, more than one million farmers have gotten BETTER farm land financing with Federal Land Bank Loans.

The Federal Land Banks are cooperatively owned by farmers who use the credit they extend. Their only purpose is to provide farm families with farm loans best adapted to their individual needs.

If you are looking for a BETTER farm loan, look into a Federal Land Bank loan. You'll get a long-term loan, with amortized repayment, low 4% interest rate, the privilege to prepay any amount at any time, future payment fund protection, and friendly local service. There are no application fees, appraisal fees or renewal fees. And, for years National Farm Loan Associations have been paying their members a dividend. Make application through your National Farm Loan Association TODAY!

CONRAD HARDWARE The Last Issue - 1950

This is the last paper printed in 1950. There have been a lot of happenings and we have sold a lot of merchandise during the year of 1950. The next time you read the Walton Advertiser it will be 1951—another year starting, and it is hard to tell what it will bring. Let's not look back—why not look forward and hope for the best! I started writing this advertising article last February—it has caused a lot of conversation, and more people read my ad than ever before. I have had some criticism and lots of compliments, so I will use it in 1951, until I get another crazy idea for advertising.

Cleve Marsh and Harold were in today—just sold part of their tobacco and did very well. Tammie Johns from Dry Ridge stopped in and bought his wife a Mixer for Christmas, and himself a 20 gauge shotgun—very nice presents. Don't you think? Russell Piner and Mary were buying Christmas for their grandchildren. Jerry Roberts is ready to kill hogs—he bought Morton's Salt and pork cans to hold all the lard, and cure a truck load of meat. Ed Black sure got his wife a nice 8 cu. ft. Gibson refrigerator for Christmas—a very nice gift!

We have lots of people buying gifts, but we can't name them because it is a secret. Bob Daniels was having furnace trouble, the hot water coil burst and he had to put in a new one—we furnished all the parts. We were very sorry to hear of the death of Iola McCormick of Gallatin county—she has been a very good customer and friend for years. We had a lot of customers Saturday, but we can't tell what most of them bought for Santa Claus would not like it. R. P. Hughes and Levi Pennington purchased a lot of wire fence before it goes up on January 1st. Mr. and Mrs. Harve West were in buying, and Harve said not to class him as a loafer.

Joe Kennedy and Hiram English came in all dressed up, said they were going to Covington to the funeral home to see Elmer Elliston, who died Friday—El sure had a tough time, for the past few years, living. Even Hence is walking with a cane, he said he turned his ankle, but I believe Mary Lee kicked him. We sure are selling those Mixmasters, Sunbeam irons and mixers, also those Toastmasters and electric percolators. Pressure cookers, canners, iron boards, fire screens, clothes hampers and clothes baskets all make nice presents.

John Gray was passing out the cigars—he has a new boy at his house. John took home an electric heater to warm the cold spots in his home. I just walked up the street from the restaurant. The colored lights across the street and the Christmas tree were beautiful. It was snowing and looked like a picture of an old fashioned Christmas. These lights and tree were put up by the Rotary Club, and some of the business places helped with the expense. If you would like to donate a small amount, see J. R. Allen, who has spent a lot of time on this lighting and tree. Jim Bob, as we call him, is president of the Rotary Club and Fire Chief. He is always willing to help in anything for the betterment of the town and community.

I believe December, 1950, is a month of tragedy, with the deaths of Amelia Dixon, Henry Gross and Edna Caldwell Croadcock's husband and children. I sold lots of presents today—dolls, games, wagons, tricycles, high chairs, electric toasters, electric irons, electric heaters, alarm clocks, wrist watches, pots, pans, dishes, butcher knives, scissors, Case pocket knives, razors, hamps, tool chests, fish rods, reels, fish tackle, iron board, electric percolator, Arvin combination grille and waffle iron.

Roger Arnold is still buying new electric fixtures for his home. Howe Hood and wife were shopping and waiting on Everett Jones, who buys for most everyone from here to the river. We just unloaded two very nice Perfection electric ranges, at the old price. Sam Setters just came to town looking for Santa Claus. Mrs. Clifford Farwell, also was a Christmas shopper, buying presents and toys, also tree decorations. The editor is waiting for this, so I will come to the end, just like 1950. We wish all of you a Merry Christmas and hope to see you in 1951!
